

Arceus 211

Chapter 211 Lingling's strange request, Yamato's birthday party

But they didn't set off directly, and the chefs on Cake Island were so tired that they had to rest for the night.

Charlotte Lingling, who had eaten the banana ice cream cake, regained her senses. She didn't seem to care about what happened here, and no one took the initiative to mention it.

Then, according to BIG·MOM's intention, she specially held a family banquet to entertain Zeraora who came from a distance.

"Well, well, I'll trouble you this time, that guy Kaido really found a great subordinate."

Zeraora didn't refute anything. After all, from the outside world, they all belonged to Kaido's subordinates, but Charlotte Lingling's next words were somewhat unexpected.

"Want to be my husband? Zeraora, I think you're great."

Charlotte Lingling's expression when she looked at Zeraora became a little ambiguous, which also made Zeraora feel uncomfortable.

"No, I have no idea about this."

"Look at how cute these kids are, don't you want them to call you dad?"

Katakuri and the others are no strangers to BIG·MOM's words, and they don't even know how many fathers they have.

And Charlotte Lingling has a serious collection addiction, her husband includes all races, and it is not surprising that she has some thoughts after seeing the fur tribe.

At this time, the photos he took with him on the empty island helped him a lot, and let him euphemistically reject Charlotte Lingling for this reason.

"We are so far apart in age, and I already have the right person."

If it was an ordinary person, Charlotte Lingling wouldn't mind the overlord's hard bowing, that's how some of her husbands came, but Zeraora was Kaido's after all.

Although she really wanted the fur clan, she didn't push her too hard, and it was not worth falling out with Kaido for such a thing.

"That's fine, remember to introduce me to a suitable fur tribe."

After that, Charlotte Lingling didn't say anything. After a few simple chats, Long Bread left with Zeraora with a professional team. They would set off from Cake Island and arrive at the territory of the nearby Beast Pirates. Then change boats to the vicinity of Wano country.

"Mom, that long-handed clan unfortunately died yesterday."

Katakuri said carefully in Charlotte Lingling's ear, that the identity of the long-handed clan was Charlotte Lingling's current husband, and now it should be said to be her ex-husband.

But her attitude towards this is very cold. After all, for her, as long as the child is born, the man is useless. Now her ex-husbands can almost make up two football teams.

"Really, what a pity, bury it."

"Yes."

"By the way, have you found the pirates who robbed us earlier?"

She couldn't ignore what she robbed, unless she couldn't beat it.

At present, only Roger stole the rubbing of the historical text from her and nothing happened.

But that is Roger, who has become One Piece, a few newcomers who have just come to the new world, she will let them know what horror is.

"I found it, Daifuku and Owen are ready to attack the team."

"I don't need them anymore, give me the address, I'll go in person this time."

"Yes, Mom."

She didn't bring anyone else. Now Charlotte Lingling is only in her forties. She herself is the strongest fighting force of the BIG MOM Pirates. Seeing Charlotte Lingling leaving on Thundercloud Zeus, the card Thakuri observed a few minutes of silence for them.

In Wano, Quinn still felt that something was not right. He clearly slaughtered Perospero on the phone, but he didn't feel comfortable in his heart, and the previous sense of crisis was still entangled in his heart.

For the sake of safety, he thought it would be better for him to go to a nearby island to hide for a few days, and then he met Kaido who had just returned at the edge of the ghost island where he was diving.

"Quinn, where are you going?"

"Ah, Big Brother Kai, nothing to do, just go out for a walk and come back in a few days."

"Anything? It's Yamato's birthday soon. You're running around when there's nothing to do. It seems that you look down on Lao Tzu."

"No, Big Brother Kai, I definitely didn't mean that!"

He just wanted to go out to avoid trouble, but he forgot about it.

"Needless to say, I trust you."

"Big Brother Kai!"

"Come to the top of Onigishima tonight, let me check the level of training of the armed sex."

Quinn's smile only lasted for less than three seconds before being pulled back to reality by Kaido. According to the gossip, the people in Onishima heard a very tragic cry that day.

Actually, Kaido doesn't care about birthdays. He thinks it's meaningless. It's better to practice domineering if you have time, but Arceus is very concerned about this kind of thing, especially the psychological problems of Onishima children.

Although there are some differences, it is generally good, and Jack and Maria briefly celebrated their birthdays earlier.

It's just that compared to Yamato's, theirs is a lot worse. Although they didn't convene the whole group, the members of the Wano country also participated.

The professional team of Longbread did not come to Onishima, but was taken by Zeraora to an island outside Wano, where they made the cake. nOvelUsb.COM

According to Yamato's preferences, personality characteristics, age, and taste habits, Long Bread has carefully designed a three-layer mousse cake.

I also saw the difference in the Beast Pirates. Those Frost Milk Immortals who provided butter made Long Bread very excited. In his opinion, Frost Milk Immortals are very similar to the Hormitz made by Charlotte Lingling, but they can produce various kinds of products. flavored cream.

He really wanted to bring one back to Ten Thousand Kingdoms. It was a partner that no pastry chef could refuse. Unfortunately, Zeraora always disagreed. After all, it was an order from Arceus. Frost milk fairy and Xiaoxian milk were not allowed to enter the realm of Ten Thousand Kingdoms.

On November 3, 1497, Yamato's third birthday came as scheduled. She didn't receive many gifts. Ordinary members couldn't bring anything at all. Few pirates had the habit of saving money. Embarrass them.

So only cadres and her friends are eligible to send gifts, but those are not the focus of her attention, she is more curious about what the two fathers will give her.

Kaido did prepare a gift for her, Ah Jian 2.0, the previous one is no longer suitable for her to continue to use.

As for what Arceus gave her, it was a small green light group.

"Father, what is this?"

"This is a good thing, you will like it." Then she pressed the light ball into her head.

didn't feel anything, but after that, she found that she could feel the little fairy on her shoulders saying happy birthday to her, and even the meaning of auspicious eggs became clearer.

That light group is a special power, many people call it the power of Vibrant..

Chapter 212 The beginning of Yamato's Good Friday, the returning Oden

Although she understands some auspicious egg language, the feeling of communication is completely different from that now.

Previously, she could only roughly understand the meaning of auspicious eggs, but now she can understand the details, including what Jack and Maria's little fairy said.

"This is."

"The power of Vibrant, it's more than that, you just develop it slowly."

Understand the voices of other Pokémon, communicate with them, heal their injuries, and enhance their power in battle. This is the ability brought by the power of Viking.

This is the power bred by the Vibrant Forest, but it is not difficult for Arceus to do such a thing.

But at the age of three, she can only do this for the time being, and she does not have other powers now.

The cakes made by the long bread are very delicious. Yamato directly ate it and rounded his belly. As for tooth decay, this is a world where you can fill your teeth by drinking milk.

Tooth is a very hard part of the human body, and the worms that can devour Yamato's teeth may not have been born yet.

She seemed to have a lot to say who had just received the power of Vibrant, but when it was time to go to bed, she was sent away by Geely Egg singing.

She has developed resistance to singing recently. At first, a lucky egg could put her to sleep, but now she has to sing.

The next day, in her sleep, she just dreamed that she helped Arceus find a lot of slates, and felt that someone was picked up from the bed.

"Father?"

"Get up, Yamato, your training is about to begin."

"Ah, but it's not dawn yet."

"Yeah, of course it's not yet dawn. It's still half an hour before dawn. Before the sun rises, you have to complete the mission goal I gave you, or you won't have any food to eat today."

"Help her change her clothes, be quick, otherwise her time will be delayed. Arceus should have told you about this." Kaido then made his request to the auspicious eggs.

"lucky"NOVELuSb.COM

Arceus's orders have been told to them before, even if the auspicious eggs are very distressed, but the movements of the hands have not stopped, three times and five divisions help her change into the sportswear.

As for the strange clothes that Kaido had originally made by the tailors of Wano, they were rejected by Arceus. In his opinion, those kind of wide clothes were completely meaningless and would only get in the way.

The mixed fabric made of white fluffy and wind fairy cotton is very comfortable and more suitable for close-fitting.

On the roof of Onishima, Yamato stood at a loss, the sun in the distance was still below the sea level, and then she saw Ah Jian 2.0 being left beside her.

"Pick up your weapon and run. You must not stop without my order. Squeeze your body to the limit! Until there is no strength left, now, immediately, run for me!"

At Kaido's request, Yamato was forced to run, but Kaido realized that he had made a mistake, that is, he misestimated Yamato's physical strength.

Drinking milk from a big milk tank, eating eggs from auspicious eggs, and some special tree fruits as complementary food, her physical fitness is better than Kaido expected.

He didn't expect Yamato to complete his training target, it was designed to challenge the limit, and only by constantly challenging the limit can you become stronger.

According to his estimation, Yamato should have fainted by now, but the reality is that she is just panting, and she obviously still has some energy left.

looked around, Kaido grabbed a handful of stones at random, and threw them towards Yamato's side.

"Accelerate! The speed has slowed down, and if it is slower, I won't miss it!"

Before the sun came up, Yamato had finished her physical training. Her hair was wet with sweat, and the locks of hair stuck to her face. Although she was breathing heavily, she still stood here awake.

"Very good, rest for 10 minutes, go to breakfast in 10 minutes, then you have an hour of rest, and then start the morning training."

The training has just started. He has to personally judge how much Yamato can accept. After a while, he can hand it over to others. In fact, Arceus's ability is more suitable for training Yamato.

Whether it is creating obstacles or other special abilities, Arceus has an advantage over him in physical training.

But he felt that Arceus couldn't be ruthless, so he went to try out Yamato's limit himself, which is the reason why Arceus has not been seen today.

"lucky"

"lucky~"

During breakfast, it was very distressing to see the exhausted Yamato Ghillie eggs, and Jack and Maria were also curious about what happened to Yamato, but they caught Kaido's attention as soon as they asked a few questions.

"I almost forgot the two of you. You will come together later, and your training should start."

In this way, the training people have changed from one person to three people, but their strength is much less than that of Yamato. In terms of physical fitness, even if Jack is a fishman, it is worse than today's Yamato. .

In addition, although the power of Viking is the power to heal Pokémon, it will also have a certain impact on humans.

Although her Vibrant power is not fully awakened, she is constantly repairing her body internally, allowing her to receive stronger training.

"Go ahead, is this not going to work? Do you still want to help your adoptive father at this level? It's too far from Yamato!"

One day, two days, this kind of training has not stopped since the beginning, she also cried and shouted, but she never gave up.

The words of Arceus and Kaido's words during training had a profound impact on her.

As she got used to the training, Arceus, who disappeared for a while, also returned here.

"She grew up better than expected. You really put a lot of thought into her. In this way, her future is much stronger than I thought."

"Have you touched it to the end?"

"It's almost the same. The current intensity is the one that suits her best. After that, you only need to gradually increase it. I'll leave it to you. Don't be soft-hearted, otherwise the previous efforts will be in vain."

"Don't worry, I won't be soft-hearted at this time."

But Kaido didn't really believe this last sentence, otherwise Arceus wouldn't have left first during the previous training.

Time gradually came to the end of 1497, Yamato's training had become normal, and on this day, the Golden Jackson also sent Kozuki Oden to the vicinity of Wano Country.

Kozuki Oden did not return to the Whitebeard Pirates a year later, as he promised Whitebeard, but returned directly to Wano Country. During the trip with Roger, his thinking changed a lot.

On the beach of Guri, Kozuki Oden appeared alone here. After many years, he who should have succeeded the general finally returned to the country of Wano.

Chapter 213 The tangled heart of the people

"This country needs to be founded before Joyboy comes along."

On the beach of Guri, Kozuki Oden recited this sentence while watching the fishing boats fishing in the inland sea in the distance. As a member of Roger's original boat, he also saw the situation of Ralph Drew.

Since then, Joey Boy and the founding of the country have been haunting him.

In Oden Castle, the local residents were quite happy to see Kozuki Oden returning, not because of anything else, but because of Kozuki's efforts during this period of time, the local residents temporarily forgot his irresponsible things.

The residents of Wano Country lacked understanding of the outside world. After some processing of the story of Oden, coupled with Kozuki's own speaking ability, the local people's impression of Oden has changed a little.

However, after returning to the place where he lived, Kozuki Oden had already sensed something was wrong.

Whether it's Kozuki or Momonosuke, or Inuarashi, Kawamatsu and other retainers, their clothes are very shabby, and patches are the norm, even the ordinary civilians outside can't compare.

And he found that there were several people missing, which was against common sense. Logically speaking, those retainers should all be here after he came back.

Izo stayed on Whitebeard's boat and didn't come back, but Denjiro, Ashura-douji, and Kinemon didn't appear here.

"Denjiro, Ashura-douji, where did Kinemon and the others go?"

"Asura boy went back to the mountain to be the head of those gangsters and bandits, and you can't hold them down after you're gone, so he went back to the mountain.

Denjiro is borrowing and repaying money all over the country, as for Kinemon."

Kawamatsu looked to the side with a little embarrassment, and then Jin'emon was pushed out. The impact was slightly greater at the beginning, even the Jin Huang's physique did not fully recover.

"What exactly is going on?!"

"Oda-sama, we have to start from the beginning. Sukiyaki-sama passed away from illness three years ago, and after that, the black charcoal snake took over the position of general temporarily."NOveLusb.coM

"What! Is my father gone? Although his health is not very good, how could he be a big snake?"

"We don't know this very well. After that, the black charcoal Orochi introduced a pirate named Kaido into the Wano country, and he did a lot of excessive things as a military backing.

A lot of people on the street were arrested by them into the mining field, and so did a few friends who Kinemon knew, and then Kinemon wanted to save people, but it turned out."

They explained what happened to Kinemon, including the taking of Taoyuan Farm, but some places added to their subjective consciousness.

For example, in their opinion, those gangsters on the street are just ordinary people of Wano Kingdom, and the same is true of the former younger brother of Kinemon.

"Did no one resist?"

"No one is the opponent of the Hundred Beasts Pirates, and their behavior is very strange. On the one hand, they see the black charcoal snake harming the Quartet, and on the other hand, they are in conflict with the black charcoal oro. It's a completely different thing."

Compared with Raizo's description, Inuarashi's later description is closer to reality, and his evaluation of what happened in Wano Kingdom is more objective.

However, when the news of Momonosuke's assassination at the New Year's Festival and Kozuki's injury was reported, Kozuki Oden couldn't help it.

"Who did it!"

"It was rumored at first that the person was from the Beast Pirates, but later many people said that the person had been fishing for goldfish during the New Year's Festival, so the person should have been sent by the black charcoal snake"

"Black Charcoal Serpent."

Then he picked up Yan Mo and Tian Yu Yu Zhan, and he directly killed the flower capital.

The rushing Oden caught the attention of the residents of Wano Kingdom, and many people were relieved to see him rushing towards the Flower City with a knife.

"Oda-sama is back? Great, is that black charcoal snake finally going to be driven away?"

"Yeah, it's the big snakes who do these things, but what about the beasts?"

Originally, they were still very happy, but the influence of the beasts and the country in the past three years has not been small. If all this disappears, he really can't accept it.

"Of course they were driven away by Oden-sama together. Those outsiders shouldn't set foot on this land."

"The problem is that our current salary is being paid by animals, right? So are those cheap farming cattle. If they were gone, wouldn't these be gone?"

The residents of Wano country can be divided into several categories. One of them is the people who were persecuted by the serpent, and then accepted by Kojiro's chamber of commerce, and finally worked for the beasts. These people have the closest relationship with the beasts, and they are used to the the existence of beasts.

In the current situation, they do not want the Beast Pirates to leave, and the changes brought by the Beasts have completely affected their lives.

The other is the subordinates of the black charcoal serpent. The black charcoal serpent became a vested interest after acting as a general, and these people were tied to the interests of the serpent.

Those who watched Oden leave belonged to another kind. They were influenced by the big snake and benefited from the beasts. At the same time, they still thought of Koyuki Oden in their hearts.

"It would be great if Oden-sama could drive away the black charcoal serpent and continue to join forces with the Beast Pirates."

"Yes, yes, it's the big snake's fault that caused this situation."

After seeing the changes brought about by the Beast Pirates, many people began to accept the existence of the beasts, but at the same time they didn't like the big snakes, so they finally got this emotion.

"Hey! Have you forgotten that when Orochi does those things, there are Beast Pirates behind him, or he can't do it at all."

"But what the Beast Pirates do is very different from the Black Charcoal Orochi."

They quarreled for a while. This is also the result of the Beast Pirates over the past few years, allowing the local residents to accept their existence, and all those dirty things were done by the black charcoal snake.

However, their quarrel did not affect the result. Oden quickly rushed to the flower capital, cut down the Jianhui group who blocked him, and rushed directly to Orochimaru.

The Orochi of the Flower City is responsible for his own responsibility. This is something he negotiated with the Beast Pirates. The behavior of the Beasts makes him not very daring to give his safety to the other party.

So when Orochi's hands were chopped to the ground, the members of the beasts just reported their own information.

"Captain Kaido, Lord Sacred Beast, Kozuki Miden has returned, and he is attacking the residence of the Black Charcoal Orochi. At present, it seems that the two hundred return groups outside the Flower Capital are all destroyed, and it only takes 1 minute at most to rush to him. go inside."

In the sky of the flower capital, Olga and Elizabeth sat on the back of the Millennium Dragon and reported the news.

"That guy looks so strong."

Watching Kozuki Oden waving his hands to comb the stairs, the resulting sword qi was quite strong in Olga's years of experience.

Chapter 214 The Acting Skills of Black Charcoal Orochi

None of the guards that Orochi had summoned were his opponents. To be precise, none of those people were qualified to connect with him.

"Ugh, that guy Oden is back, how will Orochi handle this?"

That guy should have a hard time doing it now, after all, whether Kozuki Oden wins or we win, it means his death is coming. "

"Who knows, but things have already been arranged, Rotom!"

With Arceus's cry, a TV Rotom flew over, and after a while, the screen flickered and a picture next to the big snake appeared. It was a miniature camera Rotom that was quietly sent out, just to observe the situation.

"Yawa! Come here and rest for an hour."

Yamato, who was running an obstacle course, was very happy to hear Arceus's cry. This was a rare opportunity to rest, but even though she got a rest, she was pushed by Arceus in front of the TV Rotom.

"Lord Foster Father, what is this?"

"Let you see how intriguing the world of adults is."novELUsb.cOm

The capital of flowers, when Orochi heard the report from his men outside the door, Kozuki Oden had already killed all the guards outside, and rushed to Orochi, covered in blood.

That was not his blood, but the blood of the enemy. Until this time, the black charcoal snake remembered that the essence of Koyuki Oden was a desperate lunatic.

Although Kurotan Chanmaru's barrier fruit blocked Oden's attack, Orochi's heart was still very complicated, and it was what he did over the years to bring wolves into the house.

Although he is despicable and shameless, he is not a fool. The actions of the Beast Pirates over the years, and Kaido's slippery performance when he first came to Wano Country, all showed that they did not plan to fully unite with him from the beginning, but to occupy Wano by himself.

Now what the beasts are doing is completely different from the situation he wants to see, but it is easy to ask God to send God, and he has no way to let Kaido leave.

The reason why he arranged for someone to assassinate Kozuki Momonosuke was also due to this factor. Although he hated the Kozuki family very much, he needed the power of Kozuki Oden.

Only by provoking a conflict between him and Kaido, it is best for the two to fight one and lose both, then he will have a chance.

He also knew some of Oden's thoughts. If he could see that Kaido made the residents of Wano Country live better, he was the one who persecuted the people.

But he was too bad for the external intelligence system, and he never received the news of Oden's return. When he knew the news, Kozuki Oden had already hacked at the door.

"Oden. No Oden, what are you going to do!"

"What? Of course I cut you! Orochi, come out for me!"

Even Kozuki Oden couldn't cut through the barrier made of the barrier fruit, and Orochi's mind was constantly thinking about countermeasures. After Oden slashed hundreds of knives, Orochi made an unexpected move.

"Oda-sama! Please listen to the villain's explanation!"

I saw the black charcoal snake suddenly stand up, then kneel down with both knees together, hands together on the thighs, and then put both hands forward in a figure-in-eight shape, leaning forward, and slamming its head on the ground.

The earth was seated, and the big snake knelt directly in front of Kozuki Oden in a five-body posture.

"Huh? Orochi, do you think I'll let you go when you kneel down! Come out if you have the ability, and come and fight me like a samurai!"

"Master Oda, the villain knows you must be very angry, but please listen to my explanation, Chanmaru, remove the barrier."

He also ordered Heitan Chanmaru to lift the shrouded barrier, but Heitan Chanmaru hesitated for a while, but still obeyed the order of the black charcoal Orochi.

The reason why the black charcoal snake did this was because he was gambling. He bet that Oden would hesitate when he saw this. If he lost the bet, he would have more than one life anyway, and he could think of other ways.

Although there is a gambling element, but he bet right, Yan Mo stuck to his neck, but Oden didn't really cut it off.

"Okay, I'll give you a chance to explain."

"Thank you very much! Oda-sama!" Orochi still didn't raise his head, but a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth.

"It's like this. When Sukiyaki-sama was in critical condition, he forgave the villain's grandfather's fault, and let the villain take the position of the acting general. This incident moved the villain very much."

said, and squeezed out a lot of tears, giving people a feeling of tears.

"Everyone knows about this. If you don't believe me, you can ask other big names."

"Ah, then what?" Kozuki Oden also heard about this matter from his retainers. After all, this is what Kurotan Muchan did with imitation fruits, and the people of Wano Kingdom didn't know about it.

"And then. I'm sorry Oden-sama! The villain has done a lot of wrong things because of his greed, and because the daimyo hate me, so I was confused for a while, and thought of using outsiders to deal with them. I introduced Kaido into the country of Wano. .

At first I just treated him as a mercenary, but the villain didn't expect his ambitions to be so big, he wanted the whole Wano country, when the villain found out it was too late.

No one in Wano is his opponent. The Beast Pirates are unscrupulous here. Even I found the people of the World Government through my relationship, but even their agent Kaido didn't pay attention to it, in front of many people. Kill him in the sky above the Flower Capital. "

He kowtowed while talking about his experiences over the years. In a nutshell, Kaido did everything, and he was forced to be helpless.

"Do you think I'm a fool? You looked so happy just now."

"Oda-sama! This villain is for Kaido to see, if I don't cooperate with him, then Wano will be turned into **** by him!

The villain is also a member of Wano country, how could it be possible to persecute the citizens? I know you must have heard a lot about my notoriety, but it's all Kaido's doing, opening factories, forcibly arresting citizens to work in mining farms, all of which he did.

Although he will pay wages, it is just a means of bribing people's hearts. For every gold paid, he will take three golds from the treasury of Wano Kingdom! "

Finally, he raised his head and looked at Oden.

"Oda-sama, the villain is indeed wrong, but the real scourge of Wano is Kaido. I have been waiting for your return every day these years. Only you can lead us to expel him and let Wano return to freedom!"

If you were to find a person with the best acting skills in Wano, that person would not be in the theater and Yukuo, but he was a black charcoal snake, and his mouth was full of no truth, but Kozuki Oden actually had a feeling that he was wrong with him.

But in the end, he still put Tian Yuyu on his neck.

"Then how do you explain about my wife?"

Chapter 215 Innocent Oden

"Of course Kaido did it, how could the villain hurt the madam and His Highness, and Oden-sama, I believe you have heard the rumors, it was originally done by Kaido's people.

It's just that they found new reasons to cover up the past, and a pirate would actually go fishing for goldfish. Do you believe this? "

The black charcoal snake seems to be completely in the play, even if someone puts a knife on his neck, he doesn't mean to be afraid.

"You must already know about Mr. Kinemon. In fact, did Kaido kill him directly, or the villain worked hard to deal with it. The villain has been silently paying for the country of Wano."

"Shameless! Adoptive father, this person is so shameless!"

On the top of the ghost island, watching the screen broadcast from Rotom on TV, Yamato was shocked. In her opinion, the snake was just talking nonsense. Although she didn't understand the various things in it, but in her opinion Kaido Not the kind of person Orochi describes.

And those things were not done by the Beast Pirates.

"This is the world of adults, a world full of deceit, you see him abandoning his dignity in order to survive, and he is full of nonsense, do you know why?"

"Um"

"Because he is too weak, Yamato, you are Lao Tzu's daughter, you must not be weak, understand?"

Kaido gave Yamato's answer directly. In his opinion, everything the snake did was because of weakness.

Kaido still has some father-daughter feelings for Yamato, but his education method is definitely not successful, but this method is not too unusual. The education of Garp next door is not much different from his, and it is all accidental. Terrible.

The biggest difference is that Luffy just met a redhead, and then he wanted to be a pirate, while Yamato was directly brainwashed by possession.

But the situation is different now, Kaido still has his own fatherly love for Yamato.

"By the way, remember this guy's face, that is, he deceived your adoptive father when we first came to Wano."

"Got it, this guy is a total badass and ugly."

And here in Kozuki Oden, after a burst of nonsense from the big snake, he really had doubts.

"Master Otian, the position of the villain is yours. It stands to reason that when you come back, this position should be returned to you, but please forgive me, I can't let you be this general now."

"Um?"

"If you become a general now, then Kaido will definitely find out that something is wrong, and there will inevitably be a war in Wano Kingdom. Although the villain believes in your strength, Kaido is not weak.

And there are a thousand strong pirates in the country alone, as well as several powerful officers. If a war begins, the citizens will inevitably suffer heavy casualties. "

He wanted to provoke Oden and Kaido as enemies, but he didn't want them to start fighting immediately, or his good days would be gone after the fight, so Black Charcoal Orochi, on the grounds of caring about the people, suggested that Kozuki Oden should not fight.
novelusb.com

This time really poked into the heart of Koyuki Oden. Before leaving, he was decisive enough, but after returning, he became timid.

In war, there will be casualties. This is a truth that even Luffy understands, but Oden can't do it.

"The villain has a plan, Kaido's people must already know that you are here, and now he still trusts the villain, we can take the plan, first dismantle Kaido's vigilance, and then take him down in one fell swoop. Oda-sama, what do you think?"

"what's the plan."

"It's up to you to get Kaido to let his guard down by dancing the almond fruit, and it's up to a credible person to secretly build up his strength and drive him out when the time is right."

In the Baiwu area, in the Shuangyue Yasushi's house, Kozuki Otian came here, but in the end he still failed to cut the black charcoal snake directly.

It wasn't that he believed in the Black Carbon Orochi. There must be some falsehood in those words, but he agreed with the words of the Black Carbon Orochi. If a war starts now, there will inevitably be a lot of casualties, which he doesn't want to see.

"Oda-sama, is this what you said to Orochi?"

"Yeah, Yasushi, what happened to Wano Country all these years."

"It's similar to what you know, although I don't think Orochi's words are credible, but Oden, solving Orochi is just a small effort for you, even if the position of his acting general was given by Lord Sukiyaki, but you are Sukiyaki. The only son of an adult.

But Kaido is different. I have to admit that what he has done has greatly improved their living conditions for some residents of Wano. This is the most terrifying part. root. "

This is the most intuitive feeling of the Yasuzuki family. The people's heart and the Hundred Beasts Pirates are attacking the people's heart, but because of the special situation of Wano country, the effect is relatively slow.

Orochi and Otian are not comparable in all aspects. In the opinion of the Kang family, as long as Otian says a word, all local daimyo will cooperate with him to clean up the black charcoal Orochi.

But Kaido is different, he not only has a powerful force, but he is also gradually recognized by the people of Wano country.

"Kaido's wolf ambition, although what he did is a good thing for many people, but Oden, Wano country is the Wano country of the Kozuki family, I think it is possible to temporarily join forces with Orochi to expel Kaido first and then To find ways to.

But his plan"

"If it works... I don't care about the mere face."

"No, Oda-sama, Orochi's words are not very credible. If you really want to do this, you must not tell other people for the sake of confidentiality, or you will definitely not be able to deceive Kaido. For the sake of safety, I will go with you and Orochi. Guys, let's talk."

So Oden and Shuangyue Yasushi came to the flower capital again at night. This time, the big snake was not as arrogant as at the beginning, and his face was humble.

"Lord Oda, Lord Yasushi, what do you two think of the villain's plan?"

"Big snake, you should know what the consequences will be."

"Yes, the villain knows, but only this humiliation-like way can make Kaido believe me.

And after the event is completed, the villain can make a statement to explain clearly to the entire Wano country, so that everyone knows that Lord Oden sacrificed himself for the sake of the people.

You can also testify, Mr. Yasaka, and you can only do the job of accumulating strength. After all, you are the most trustworthy among the many famous names. "

Kozuki Oden nodded at Shuangyue Yasushi's family, and then Shuangyue Yasushi's family took out a pen and paper.

"There is no evidence to speak, let's make a written evidence, Big Snake. This written evidence will be guarded by me, and it will be made public on the day the matter is exposed."

"Of course, of course, this is what it should be, after all, it is a matter of Mr. Oda's reputation, but Mr. Yasushi, there are some things you should pay attention to."

Chapter 216 Everyone watching jokes, Roger who surrendered himself

"what?"

"Kaido and the others have a lot of eyeliners in Wano, so you have to be careful in your actions and don't make too much fanfare."

Then he began to discuss details with Oden and the others, such as why not to seek help from overseas for safety, and Oden did not intend to do so. He thought it was Wano's own business and should not involve others.

"But what about Kaido's people? It's been a long time since things happened, and you have cleaned up the outside. Haven't Kaido's people here yet?"

"Really not, Kaido often leaves here to do something, maybe he just isn't there."

On the island of Oni, the officials of the Hundred Beast Pirates in Wano gathered together, and the micro-monitor Rotom broadcasted everything that happened there.

The essence of Rotom is an electronic ghost, and it is no different from an ordinary machine when it is not moving, so no one has ever discovered it.

Orochi thought that his plan was seamless and could cause a conflict between Oden and Kaido, but he didn't let this conflict erupt immediately, so that he could judge the current situation and then detonate the conflict.

But he didn't know that Kaido was watching their jokes from the beginning to the end, and now it is regarded as a night movie.

Yamato has already gone back to sleep. Now Kaido's training policy for her is to go to bed early and get up early. If she doesn't sleep now, she will not have enough energy the next day.

Now her schedule is very full, and she just went back to take a bath.

In addition, she was in a medicated bath. Naqin's specially formulated medicine to recuperate her body. She is a genius who can achieve rejuvenation through herbal medicine. It is still a piece of cake for her to prepare such a thing.

The only problem is that the materials are precious and the cost is very high, but this is nothing to the Beast Pirates, after all, there are a steady stream of Beast Fruits providing funds.

Quinn couldn't help it after hearing that they had decided on that plan.

"Jackfruit dance? Mumhaha, what kind of method can only an idiot think of? And he actually agreed?"

"Yeah, it's stupid, why don't you go dance with him, you two idiots should be a good match for dancing together."

Where there is Quinn, there will be quarrels. His quarrels with Jhin and Shaina have become a unique style of painting within the Beast Pirates. There is a small quarrel every three days, a big quarrel every five days, and one meal a week. Hit, disappear once a month.

He was beaten because he couldn't beat Jhin and Shaina. Although he worked hard, the other two not only worked harder than him, but also had unique talents and bloodline advantages, and even had some attribute restraint, which made Quinn very difficult to manage.

As for why he disappears once a month, it is to prevent him from being beaten too hard, and recently he discovered a strange situation, and instantly replaced the target of his archery practice with his photo. He himself did not know when he offended the wolf.

The moment he followed Shaina every day gave him a new sense of crisis. He heard that if the realm of seeing and hearing was high enough, he could reach the point of predicting the future. For some reason, he felt that he was about to reach that realm.

But the trouble is, the business is still to be done.

"Kaido, you should go to Orochi tomorrow, otherwise it's not suitable."

"That's right, but do you really want to do this?"

"Of course, the woman in Kozuki finally helped Otian to save some of his reputation. If this happens, his face will be ruined. As for clarification, he has to have this opportunity."

Otian didn't want to suffer too many casualties, nor did Arceus and Kaido. It took a lot of effort to cultivate these elites.

And hearing their plan, Kaido only felt that he was giving away points. According to Oden's relationship, if he desperately went to the sea to find Roger's crew and the help of Whitebeard, then the current beasts are really no match.

To fight a beast like that, he had to start from scratch, and he had to admire this opponent who played a good hand and played a sloppy hand.

Wasted the opportunity and lost his face. I have to say that the big snake really helped them a lot.noVelUs&.com

"Arrange someone to keep an eye on the Shuangyue Yasushi family, as well as those big names, and let Kojiro find a few people to sneak in."

"Understood, but Lord Holy Beast, that document?"

"Writing? Let it go, handwriting can be forged, people can be coerced, and that thing has no credibility at all.

Although the contract of the beasts and fruits is valid, it is our own force that makes the contract valid. If we do not have these strengths, it will be a piece of waste paper. "

The orders were passed down from the top of the ghost island, also for the sake of confidentiality. The people below did not know the detailed tasks at all, they were just doing things according to the orders of the cadres.

And Kaido also saw the Black Charcoal Orochi, with a shy expression on his face, the black charcoal Orochi said the plan as a threat that Oden feared him, so he chose to dance the fruit dance every week to please him.

Kaido, who watched the live broadcast, didn't say anything. He pretended to believe what Orochi said, and at the same time, as he wished, he took another large sum of gold from him.

In order to maintain his so-called character design, the black charcoal snake also continued to carry out violent behavior, except that there was an additional fool wearing a loincloth dancing on the streets of the flower capital every week, nothing changed much.

In order to implement the plan, he didn't tell anyone about the plan except the Shuangyue Yasushi family, not even his family and retainers. Whenever someone questioned him, he just laughed it off.

And this also made the people more and more puzzled, and Oden's heart was not so calm. He usually walked in Wano country, watching the changes in Wano country, he didn't know if he was doing the right thing.

The shepherd boy riding a three-tailed strange cow, the women holding a few wind fairies, and the smiling faces made him more and more confused, but whenever he saw the appearance of his retainers and the encouragement given to him by the Kang family, He firmed up his inner thoughts.

To achieve the founding of the country before Joyboy arrives, in his opinion, that is the only correct way.

The gears of the world will not stop turning because of a person's actions, whether it is sunny or rainy, Oden has not stopped his stupid behavior.

In other seas, there are many things happening.

August 1498, South China Sea, Bateri La Island.

"Are you going?"

"Well, I'm running out of time, I still have things to do, thank you Lu Jiu, for making the last year of my life very happy."

said that Roger set foot on the boat, just as he went to sea decades ago, but this time he did not avoid anything and came to the naval base in the South China Sea alone.

"Don't be so nervous, Marines, I surrendered myself." Raising his hands slightly, Roger showed a meaningful smile at these Marine recruits.

Chapter 217 The era of the great pirates is on!

An ordinary naval base in the South China Sea. The defenders in the base are waiting for the man in front of him. After all, he is the legendary One Piece, the most heinous sinner reported by the World Government.

Although he was in shackles, even moving his hand would cause the guards to be nervous.

They don't know that this ordinary prison can't hold him at all, and he can leave here at any time if he wants.

"Don't be so nervous, young man, would you like to have a casual chat."

Although he was pointed at gunpoint, Roger did not panic, and even started to gag with the guards.

These days have been going on for a while. Today, with the arrival of a dog-headed warship, the people at the South China Sea Base finally breathed a sigh of relief.

"Lieutenant General Garp."

"Lieutenant General Garp."

"Oh, Karp, you really are here?"

Karp's arrival seems to be within Roger's expectations, after all, this is the navy who has been chasing him for decades.NOVELUSb.com

"Roger. You guy"

Although Garp always wanted to arrest Roger, Roger's surrender far exceeded his expectations.

So one year after Roger became the pirate queen, another sensational event occurred. The pirate king Gol D. Roger was arrested. Of course, Roger's pseudonym still used in the newspapers also turned himself in. Arrested instead.

After the meeting of the World Government, in order to deter more and more pirates in the sea, Roger will be executed in the East China Sea, his hometown, and the final location is Roger Town.

The news bird sent the news that Roger was about to be executed all over the world, and countless young people began to set sail for Rogge Town. They all wanted to see what One Piece was like.

Roger's crew also saw the news, and they understood that their captain finally chose that way.

There are also many pirates who are very sighed and even laughed. Roger has a lot of enemies on the sea.

However, there are exceptions among the enemies. The golden lion's base camp, the golden lion angrily swept away the things in front of him.

"Impossible! That's the man who defeated Lao Tzu, how could he be caught by the navy!"

said he ignored the obstacles of his subordinates and went to the naval headquarters alone.

Navy Headquarters-Marin Vando

The sky was raining heavily, and the golden lion was floating outside the navy headquarters. The huge warship was like a toy in his hands, and the corpses of the navy had piled up into a hill under his feet.

"Hand over Roger! How can you **** catch Roger!"

"Roger has been captured, and he will be executed in the East China Sea, a symbol of peace."
Sengoku untied his tie, the color of his body gradually turned golden, and his tone suppressed anger.

"The weakest Donghai? You are insulting him! If you want to kill him, hand him over. Only Lao Tzu is qualified to kill him!"

Sengoku, Karp, Golden Lion, the battle of the three continued for a long time, half of the town near Marin Vando was destroyed, and the two finally defeated the angry Golden Lion and imprisoned him in Impelton, the great underwater prison.

Onishima, Asie is commanding some pirates.

"A little bit higher! A little bit to the left! No, it's too far, come back a little bit! Okay, here it is, don't move!" Several pirates fixed the antenna to a similar position.

This is a signal booster, in order to receive the signal from Rogge Town, in order to deter other pirates, this is a live broadcast that spreads all over the world, but the signal in Wano country is not very good, so additional Set up the antenna.

Roger's execution, this can be said to be a big event that caused a sensation in the sea, but there have been a lot of things in Wano recently, it is not realistic to go to the East China Sea from here, and no big pirate intends to go to Rogue Town.

Although I didn't say it, in order to prevent unexpected factors, the defense of Rogue Town must be extremely strict, and watching the broadcast is the best way.

The time came to October, the first day of October, the day of Roger's execution came.

Roger's steps became a little heavy, not because of the shackles or suffering, but because of the pain that made him gradually reach the limit.

As he walked up to the execution platform, the weather became gloomy and rain began to fall from the sky.

And the crowd watching under the execution stand was also mixed with future celebrities.

Jolrael Mihawk

Don Quixote Doflamingo

Crocodile

Moonlight Moriah

Monkey D. Dorough

Shanks, Bucky, Smoker, and countless people who were overwhelmed by the tide of the times gathered here, and on the ghost island, Arceus was watching the live broadcast.

"What, are you interested in that guy Roger?"

"No, I'm not interested, just to witness the opening of the era."

"Era? Why are you talking like the guys who play prophecy?"

Kaido found that he could not understand what Arceus was saying. After all, he had been waiting here after the time, and even Yamato and other children were brought over by him.

The executioner has raised his long sword, and the classic greeting has also been transmitted through the video phone bug.

"Hey, One Piece, where are all your treasures?"

"Want my treasure? I can give it to you if you want it, go find it! I put all my treasure there, the end of the great voyage, Ralph Drew!"

Stealing chickens is not enough to lose rice. The original intention of the World Government was to suppress the turbulent sea, but they did not expect that Roger's final words would be these words.

The long knife fell, and the life of Gol D. Roger was drawn to a halt. The heavy rain also poured down at this time. Some people in front of the square were crying and some people were laughing.

On the same day, pirate ships from all over the world set out to sea one after another, and countless people rushed to enter the great waterway. They started their own voyages with the goal of the great secret treasure in Roger's mouth.

The era of the great pirates has come!

"Well, is this what you want to see? It's a good last word, and it's also a fun way to die. The sea is going to be in chaos now."

Quinn! Let the people on the other islands cheer up, the guys who don't know what to do are coming again. "

Not only Kaido, but almost all the pirates who have a territory in the New World understand what the future will be like.

Totland Sea Area, Perospero tripled the number of people who escorted the fruit, and he really couldn't stand another stunned young man.

On the Moby Dick, Whitebeard also sent out his captains in order to protect the safety of the territory.

And the world government was not idle, and began to search for people related to Roger, but there seemed to be some problems in their minds, and they let those combatants not search, but investigated the pregnant women.

Chapter 218 Gas bombs in the bathhouse

The capital of flowers, Oden is still carrying out that stupid plan, but today is a bit special, the black charcoal orochi quietly found him.

After all, Orochi is forced to set up in Otian, so he has to take the initiative to disclose some information to the other party.

"Oda-sama, this is the newspaper I got from Kaido."

"Roger he!"

Kozuki Oden, who saw the news of Roger's death, burst into tears on the beach in Guri, and also determined in his heart that he wanted to start a country.

And all over the world, the members of Roger have also begun to clean up.

The capital of seven waters, Tom the fishman was sentenced to death for building a pirate ship for Gol D. Roger, and finally got a ten-year probation through the manufacturing plan of the sea train.

In the Rabbit Bowl factory, new problems have also emerged. It is not a problem of manpower or turmoil, but a problem of pollution.

Alola stinky sludge has eliminated the problem of industrial wastewater, but with the increase in the number of factories, industrial waste gas has become a new problem.

Although stinky mud can eat waste water and toxic residues, it has nothing to do with the gas in the sky, so a new Pokémon appears in Wano Country again.

Ghost Island, bathroom, Arceus rarely appeared here.

"Master Arceus? You actually came here, hey! You guys, hurry up and make room!"

When sailing, you may be unable to take a bath for a long time due to the shortage of fresh water resources, but when stationed on land, even pirates will pay attention to hygiene and cleanliness.

Led by Quinn, a group of pirates are relaxing in the bathroom.

This is also the most relaxed period of Quinn. Whether it's Shaina or Moment, they can't appear here. The women's bathroom is on the top of the ghost island, and the area is much smaller than here. After all, there is a gap between men and women in the Pirates. Still big.

"Go on, I'm not here to take a bath."

He came here just to solve the problem of factory pollution. Alola's stinky mud can eat waste water, and naturally there are Pokémon that eat waste gas, such as double-bomb gas and gas bombs in the Galar region.

As for why you want to come to the bathroom, it is common sense for the first gas pop to appear in the bathroom, and the gas is indeed used to heat water here. Below is the gas pipeline that has just been built.

The pirates who can enter the ghost island first are the elites of the Beast Pirates, and they are considered to be veterans.

Some purple monsters gradually appeared in the bathroom, some were single, and some were two-body creatures with strange connections.

Then their bodies gradually turned grey, and tall chimney-like objects appeared above their heads.

Once there were many factories in the Galar region, the air was seriously polluted, and the double-bomb gas and gas bombs originally fed on the exhaust gas in the air. In the era of heavy pollution, they have undergone a unique evolution.

Unlike ordinary double-bomb gas that absorbs poisonous gas and produces poisonous gas, Galar's double-bomb gas will absorb the pollutants in the atmosphere, and use the polluted air and poisonous gas as food.

And these gases inhaled into the body will filter out toxins through special organs in the body, just like human cells absorb nutrients, absorb things that are beneficial to themselves, and expel wastes.

To them, poisonous gas and waste are food, and fresh air in the body is waste.

The chimney above the head will discharge fresh air, and the air released becomes very clean and fresh because of the purification, and this is the way of expelling the Galar double-bomb gas and gas bombs.

Due to the regional form, Galar's double-bomb gas has also become a dual-type of poison and fairy. After retrieving the fairy slate, this type of air-filtering Pokémon was born.

"As expected of Lord Arceus, he created a new and amazing creature."

"Yeah, and this time the creature is like a born pirate."

They refer to the icon of the double-bomb gas belly and the pirate flag, which makes them feel more intimate as pirates.

The appearance of the double-bomb gas and the gas bombs made the stagnant air in the bathroom a lot fresher. Arceus was preparing to arrange for someone to take them to the factory area, which will be their canteen and dormitory in the future.

But at this time, someone always made some dangerous actions, such as Quinn.

He touched the corner of the double-bomb gas's mouth desperately. In the past, the creatures created by Arceus were safe, even if it was Alola's stinky mud, as long as it didn't touch the toxin crystals, there would be no problem.

But Galar's double-bomb gas is different. Pokémon with poisonous properties will have a place that contains highly poisonous poison, and the place where Galar's double-bomb gas is highly poisonous is the same thing as the corners of their mouths and whiskers.

Toxins accumulated in Galar's double-bomb gas will leak out of the body as a high concentration of poisonous gas, floating around their mouths to form their characteristic beards.

This gas, even if an ordinary person inhales a small amount, will paralyze his entire body and be unable to move.

However, this gas is controlled by the double-bomb gas, and usually does not escape, but it can't stand someone to kill.

As a person who studies chemical poison gas every day, Quinn actually poked the poison gas at the corner of the mouth of the double-bomb gas with his hand, and then brought a green poison gas cloud to his nose and smelled it.

"Big Brother Quinn!"

Looking at Quinn who suddenly fell to the ground, the pirates on the side were startled, but in less than a minute, Quinn, who was paralyzed, actually recovered.

"what have you done?"

Arceus didn't even see what Quinn did. He was obviously poisoned, but he was not affected at all. This was not a hard resistance, but a real detoxification.

"It's Tao Taoguo. After I modified my body, I removed the ammo compartment in my body, and then I remodeled it. I put some antidote made from Tao Taoguo in my body.

It's the most potent antidote I've ever seen. "

Since this transformation, Quinn has a new way of experimenting with new toxins. He has experienced it himself. Only then can he determine the effects of the toxins. This was the case just now. .

He did this on purpose to try out the effect of that poisonous gas.

"Master Arceus, where do you plan to arrange them?"

"The Rabbit Bowl's factory, where the air indicators are a bit poor recently."

"I understand, just like those stinky mud, Lord Arceus, give them to me, and I will take them there in a while, the gas in their mouths is also a rare good material."

Since Quinn made a request, Arceus also handed the double-bomb gas to him.

"Don't delay too long, these little guys are a little hungry, and the exhaust gas in the bathroom is not enough for them to eat."

"Understood, you can rest assured."

Chapter 219 The turbulent new world, the expedition team

The influence of the era of the great pirates began to gradually ferment. The wreck of the pirate ship that crashed was often seen at the bottom of the upside-down mountain, and the new world became turbulent. Before Roger appeared, many pirates lacked a clear target.

They also don't know what their ultimate goal is. When they are not sure whether they can see tomorrow, only thinking about the present is what they need to pay attention to.

And with Roger's dying declaration, these pirates seem to have a goal, either for fame, or for Roger's so-called treasure, one by one shouting to become One Piece and embarking on their own journey.

In February 1499, Roger had been dead for four months, and the pirates who were the first to go out to sea had reached the location of Fishman Island, and a large wave of newcomers from the four seas and paradise were about to pour into the cruel new world.

In the new world, it was not only Roger who had a big impact, but also the Golden Lion.

Originally, the base camp of the Golden Lion was a continuous floating island. With the ability of his floating fruit, few people could enter the base camp of the Golden Lion.

But as the golden lion was sent to prison by Garp and Sengoku, these floating islands outside were naturally unable to sustain, and the collapse of the island caused even greater damage to the remnants of the golden lion.

and lost the leadership of the Golden Lion, the pirate group that originally depended on him began to fight for territory, fighting each other, and the territory of the Golden Lion was completely in chaos.

However, like Wald, the Golden Lion also has its own loyalists. They firmly believe that the Golden Lion will come out. Under the leadership of Dr. Indigo, they retreated to a hidden island. road.

When the others began to fight, they had already stepped aside, but the intervention of other big pirates in the New World broke the original deadlock.

The BIG-MOM pirates, the Beasts pirates, and the Whitebeard pirates took action one after another, and even Whitebeard didn't ignore it.

The territories of Whitebeard and the Golden Lion are adjacent to each other. After the Golden Lion was imprisoned, the chaos in the Golden Lion territory gradually spread to Whitebeard.

So he also led the Whitebeard Pirates to occupy part of the territory, maintaining the stability of his own territory in an isolated way.

Whitebeard is also a pirate, his territory is not given by others, even he has to need taxes, otherwise he can't maintain the daily expenses of the pirate group.

It's just that Whitebeard's behavior is much gentler than ordinary brutal pirates, and the fees charged are within the range accepted by civilians, and now Whitebeard's flag means safety, enough to allow the island to survive in this turbulent era. go down.

The golden lion was imprisoned, and Roger died. Almost all the people of the same era were in this state. Walder, John, Wang Zhi, the great pirates of those years have all come to an end with the times.

Whitebeard has become a well-deserved overlord, and the Red Earl is also a card face, but he has always been a loner, so the disputes in the new world have little to do with him.

Charlotte Lingling will not miss this opportunity, and she is also expanding her subordinate territory. Although it did not become a native territory like the islands in the Totland Sea, it also acquired a large number of subsidiary islands that can be taxed.

And in Wano Country, Kaido didn't miss this opportunity.

"Jin, Quinn, and Olga, I'll leave it to you three this time." Olga's ID card has reached the age of eighteen.

Although the influence of pure gold makes her look a little young, she has been trained for almost ten years since the day she left the belly of the sea king.

Two-color domineering and proficient, Zoroark's ability is basically in his hands, enough to go out to fight.

Now it is a great battle, but unlike the strong base of Whitebeard and BIG·MOM, Wano is also developing now, so the Beast Pirates have to choose to divide their forces.

"You take away half of the elites in Wano, and the manpower outside is also ready. This is the goal of this time, to plant all these islands on our flag."

The target of this operation is delineated on the chart. Kaido is not stunned. This operation has avoided the scope of action of Whitebeard and Charlotte Lingling, and the main target is those newcomers and the remnants of the Golden Lion.

"Zeraora, you should also take Momo with you, Shaina in the country is almost enough."

"As ordered."

Kaido and Arceus are both in the country, and the departure of the cadres will not affect too much. After all, they are the strongest force in the pirate group, but they still have to leave some people to help, and finally Shaina stayed. down.

As for why Kaido didn't go, Yamato has been through physical training for more than a year, and the next stage of training is underway, so he can't be free for the time being.

"Don't be reluctant when you encounter an opponent who can't be beaten. It's no big deal to retreat first. Then I will bring you back to fight back!"

Before they set off, Kaido finally explained that his thinking still hasn't changed much. Ordinary members can be a consumable item, but cadres can't, so if they are not opponents, his request is still for cadres to use self-dominated.

Everyone knows that it is impossible for all those who go out to come back. This is a war, and wars will inevitably be accompanied by casualties, but in the face of military exploits and benefits, these pirates are still fighting.
novelupdates.com

In the open sea, other territories of the Beast Pirates, the residents of the territories also began to invest in the usual wars of the past, and the pirate ships began to assemble to the corresponding locations.

And the black charcoal snake is also continuing his acting career.

"Master Oden, half of Kaido's people have left, this is an opportunity!" His tone was extremely enthusiastic, as if he really wanted to drive Kaido out.

"What about Kaido?"

"He's still the same as usual, nothing has changed."

"Orochi, you should know that Kaido is the main problem." As the only insider, Shuangyue Yasushi said solemnly.

"If Kaido can't be completely eradicated, even if he takes the opportunity to drive him away, he can still struggle to make a comeback. Don't you know that? How much casualties will the citizens have to pay?"

In the eyes of Shuangyue Yasushi, Kozuki Oden has lost face. Since he has lost face, he has to deal with everything at one time.

He is still serious now, completely different from the one who ate the failed SMILE.

"Yes yes yes, the villain is too naive, I will pay more attention to Kaido's information"

Orochi left here again, but the corners of his mouth were full of pride. He knew Koyuki Oden and Shuangyue Yasushi very well, so it could be said that he said this on purpose.

"Fight it, this uncle is the last master of Wano country, Oden, Kaido, I will definitely return the humiliation you brought to me."

Chapter 220 Thunder Gossip, Moonlight Moriah

"Yamato, look good, that's how the mace works, Lei Ming.. gossip!"

On the roof of Onishima, Kaido swung his mace at a target that Arceus had condensed with vines. Eight fastings were entwined with lightning and domineering, and the target in front of him became fragmented under Kaido's attack.

"You let her learn this trick now?"

"This is the foundation. Most of my moves are derived from this thundering gossip. I don't need to be domineering. I need to support the armed color, or wrap the overlord color, but I just got a clue about the overlord color."

At first, Kaido also heard about it from Rox, and only knew that it was a very difficult skill, and he has only just touched the threshold now.

"You can wait and learn about domineering, but her current physique already meets the minimum requirements. Yamato, the position of the hand is a little higher, and the footsteps are a little apart, so that you can exert your strength."

Kaido's teaching, Arceus, can't get involved, and the fighting style is different. Although there are various elemental attacks, melee combat is Kaido's main method, but he is different, he does not need to go to melee combat.

With many skills in one, Arceus itself is an ultimate fort with infinite firepower. There is nothing that can't be solved by one shot of sanctioning light. If there is, then another shot.

Although is powerful, his fighting style cannot be replicated. At most, he can learn from some aspects.

However, Arceus still interfered with some of Kaido's teaching methods. For example, Kaido thought that in order for Yamato to understand the power of thunder and gossip, she should experience it for herself.

This matter was strongly opposed by Arceus, even if Kaido thought he could control his strength.

A month later, the battle status of the four teams was also reported.

"Jin's situation is good, the first island has been laid, and Quinn's guy is similar.

Olga's progress is relatively slow, she is too concerned about casualties, so the progress is the slowest.

Although Zeraora encountered a difficult opponent, there was no problem, except that he was slightly injured in an instant.

On the whole, the battle has achieved good results, the casualties are within the range we accept, and we have not encountered any opponents that are too difficult to handle. "novelusb.com

Shaina put away her report. This is the information they sent back. After ten years of development, the Beast Pirates are no longer in the state where they only had one boat when they first went to sea. The influence of the beasts is also growing.

"Very good, keep going as planned."

At the same time, in the waters near Wano, a pirate ship appeared here, with a grinning skull painted on the main sail.

The top of the skull is covered with horn-like decorations, with flame-like patterns on both sides, and behind it is not a traditional crossbones, but a pair of bat wings. This is a ship belonging to the Moonlight Pirates.

On the deck stood a tall man with a very white complexion and a pair of short horns on the top of his head, wearing a large black trench coat and purple hair.

This is the captain of this ship, Moonlight Moria, who has a bounty of 320 million bery and is a well-deserved supernova this year.

At this time, he was still the captain of the Moonlight Pirates. The Terror Barque had not yet appeared, and his pirate ship was just a slightly larger ordinary pirate ship.

More than a year ago, seeing Roger's execution stimulated his heart. Born in the West Sea, he did not choose to return to the West Sea, but directly entered the great route. In the same year, he established his own Moonlight Pirates.

After more than a year of hard work, Moriah and his friends crossed the Fishman Island and finally reached the new world.

The Moonlight Pirates had just fought against the pirates of the New World not long ago, and Moria won a big victory, which further strengthened the confidence of the crew.

"Moriya, you can definitely become the Pirate King, right!"

"Call the captain, when will you remember this guy."

"Hee hee hee, it doesn't matter, you can call it whatever you want, anyway, he is right, I will definitely become One Piece!"

Looking at the slapstick companions, Moria was in high spirits, and at this time he was full of confidence in himself.

At this time, the ship suddenly shook violently, and many people on board fell to the ground in this violent shaking.

"Hey hey! Nord, will the boy sail the boat!"

"You can do it! We seem to be caught in some ocean current. The ocean current in the new world is too complicated!"

This is the outer waters of Wano Kingdom. Those dangerous currents are intricate and complicated. Only one can safely reach Wano Kingdom. A little carelessness will cause them to hit the rocks. Whitebeard's ships all suffered heavy damage here.

"Nord, are you okay?"

"It's a little troublesome, but it's okay, leave it to me, Captain Moria."

"Well, I believe you, you are the best navigator I have ever seen."

With his skills, the Moonlight Pirates sailed smoothly here, and also saw the giant carp that is a specialty of Wano. Although Arceus has transformed several carp kings, there are still a large number of ordinary carp here. Giant carp.

After many twists and turns, they managed to reach the waterfall in Wano Country smoothly.

"Captain Momolia! There is an island on the waterfall!"

When the people on the boat stood up again, the main island of Wano country came into sight. There were two waterfalls in Wano country. The waterfall on the diving port was even steeper, and the possibility of rushing up from there was almost zero, so they came from another came up on one side.

They didn't see the ghost island due to the obstruction of sight.

"This is the charm of the great route. In addition to the fish-man island below 10,000 meters, there is actually an island here, let's go, brothers!"

"Oh!"

At this moment, Kaido is not on the ghost island. He and Yamato are in the snow behind Ling. Arceus said to entertain and teach children to take the initiative to educate themselves. Kaido thinks it makes sense, so I give them to them. brought here.

"Father, what are we doing here?"

"Of course I'll take you to a snowball fight."

"Snowball fight? Really?"

"Of course it's true, but the gameplay is different from what you usually play." Said Kaido to let Yamato, Maria, Jack and the others stand in the middle of the snow, then bent down and grabbed a handful of snow.

With a big hand, a solid snowball appeared in his hand.

"You three give me a good look!"

said that she threw the snowball, but Yamato only felt a cracking sound in her ears. When she and Jack and the others looked back, a small tree with a thick wrist was interrupted just like that.

"The game time is 30 minutes. You can either hide or block. Of course, you can also try to attack me. In a word. Give Lao Tzu your best to live!"

The loose snowflakes became relatively hard under the pressure, and with Kaido's own strength, the three little ones hurriedly began to dodge.

"Help! I don't want to play anymore, Father, it's not fun!"

"No way, Yamato, there are 29 minutes left, the game has just started!"
