

Arceus 301

Chapter 301 Your Oden Is Dead

], after removing Fengyue Yukie and Shuangyue Niuwan, the remaining big names are Yuyue Tempura and Shuangyue Yasuka. Yuyue Tempura's strength is similar to that of Fengyue Yukie.

But the Shuangyue Yasushi family is different. Although Shuangyue Niuwan is the main family, if Shuangyue Niuwan is the strongest name, then the Shuangyue Yasushi family is just the opposite.

He is definitely at the bottom of Wano Country's daimyo, and one Elizabeth is enough to deal with him.

Although Elizabeth also ate those poisonous foods, the toxins were useless to the basilisk lizards. It would be better to say that because of the toxins, those bland foods were more spicy.

And the reason why Olga can fish happily is not because the Uzumaki tempura is weak, but because of the special national conditions of Wano.

There are many islands on the great route, each country has its own characteristics, and the development of force is also completely different, such as the heart network on the empty island.

Xinwang is Sky Island's nickname for the domineering of knowledge, and Anilu uses the power of the Thunder Fruit to use it to the point of listening to other people's voices.

But he is not the only one who knows the net. Some of his priests also have the ability to see and hear, but no one on the empty island can arm the color.

Unlike the country of Wano, they call the armed **** domineering as Liu Ying, and the powerful samurai will use this ability, but it is very rare to see the **** in the country of Wano, and most people who have never left the country of Wano will not see the sex. .

The most outstanding person in Wano is Oden who once went to sea. Not only has he awakened his own abilities, he can even listen to the voice of all things. When he was in Zuowu, the voice of the elephant was vaguely transmitted to his mind.

Under his guidance, some of his retainers also have the ability to see and hear, but Yuyue Tempura does not. He has never left the country of Wano, and he who has been in Tuwan Township does not understand the ability to see and see.

People who don't know how to see, know, and look will become helpless when facing Olga, so Uzumuki Tempura is not facing Olga from the beginning, but Kozuki Oden's retainers.

Although they had a rough idea of what they saw and heard under the guidance of Kozuki Oden, they couldn't make Yuzuki Tempura wake up.

Under the condition that the pain can be deceived, the attack of Uzumuki Tempura made them very difficult to handle, so that they have been timid and gave Olga a chance to fish by the side.

As for the other people here, it's good that those people don't come over, but if they come over, they will add to the chaos. Humans won't learn yin and yang weirdness for no reason. If you want to find the most wicked one among the current members of the beasts, Olga is definitely at the top of the list.

Shaina's yin and yang strangeness was learned from here. Anyway, the goal has been achieved, so she blatantly started to fish.

"Tempura-sama, the enemy is over there!"

"Damn.. There's no way to get close to that woman at all."

If you don't solve the Uyuki Tempura, you can't rely on the past. If you don't rely on the past, you can't solve the problem of the Uzumaki Tempura. The situation seems to have fallen into an endless loop, and the situation is becoming more and more unfavorable for them. In the end, the Asura boy made a choose.

In the face of the sword stabbed by Uzumaki Tempura, he did not choose to avoid it, but let him pierce his arm. He was once called the monster of Kuri, and he was also the strongest among Oden's retainers.

Then he also pierced Uzuki Tempura's arm with a sword and controlled him at the cost of both injuries.

"Aju, Raizo, you guys go find a solution to that woman, I'll suppress Tempura-sama!"

Juzhicheng and Leizang just wanted to act when they heard Ashura boy's words, but the next moment the whole hall seemed to be quiet, Kaido walked in from the gap in the city wall, and he still held Yan Mo and Tianyu Yuzhan in his hands. ~~nOVe~~usB.cOm

Most people stopped their fights and looked in Kaido's direction, only Quinn was still carrying out his indiscriminate bombardment.

"Ugh, Olga, do you still like to play this kind of game so much? Let go of the illusion."

"Understood, Captain."

As Olga's ability was lifted, Uzumaki Tempura discovered that the enemy in front of him was actually Oden's retainer, and then stopped resisting, and Kaido threw Yan Mo and Tian Yuyu out so casually.

"Koyuki Oden has already.."

"Boom!"

"Koyuki Oden has already."

"Bangdang!" The beam of the collapsed house fell down, and finally got a gravel from Kaido. Compared with the general wooden structure, the palace here has a lot of rock materials.

"Quinn, you **** give me some peace!"

took a small stone and threw it away before the scene became quiet, and Kaido finally spoke out.

"Koyuki Oden is dead, does anyone want to surrender?"

"Impossible, how could Lord Oden... How could Lord Oden die here!" Ashura-doko roared, he didn't believe such a thing at all, but while denying Kaido, tears flowed from the corners of his eyes.

Yan Mo and Tian Yu Yuzhan are the swords of Guangyue Yutian. He can't mistake those two swords, and if Guangyue Yutian hadn't been defeated and died, the two swords would never have fallen into Kaido's hands, although he didn't want to believe it, But he had to accept what Kaido said.

Aside from Ashura-douji, most of Oden's retainers reacted this way.

"Leizang, Juzhicheng, when you go back and take the adults away, I will hold them back even if I try my best."

Asura boy took up arms again when he was in grief. He was a little different from other retainers. He recognized only Kozuki Oden, not the entire Kozuki family.

Now that Kozuki Oden has died here, he has no reason to escape, and dying here is his result.

"Go!"

Seeing if they were still moving, Ashura Douji scolded them again, this time let them act, Quinn had just raised his hand to attack Kikunojo and Raizo who were fleeing, but was finally stopped by Kaido.

"Brother Kai, what are you doing? Are you going to let them go?"

"Yamato needs a target, the remnants of a hateful enemy, is there a more suitable guy?"

then explained, Kaido looked at the tragic Asura boy in front of him again.

"Interesting eyes, I admire you very much, do you want to join Lao Tzu, and a few of you, as the daimyo of each township, you don't want to die here just like that?"

Nobody responded to Kaido, only rushing towards his blade.

"Well, I understand, deal with them, try to catch them alive, Olga, don't play, as a big board, you can't just watch the play in the back."

With the arrival of the business owner, Olga's fishing career ended here, and Kaido glanced at the Ashura boy in front of him.

"Although he is as stupid as that guy Oden, but his eyes are not bad, I will give you the qualification to challenge me."

Chapter 302 The Eight Ways of Death of the Black Charcoal Orochi

Although anger can make him burst into stronger power, it cannot make him cross the gap in combat power. If only anger can defeat Kaido, then Kaido does not know how many times he will fail.

Asura's blocking is meaningless. If Kaido didn't want to exercise Yamato in the future, Ashura-doko could only gain a few seconds at most. NoVeLus&.Com

Kaido didn't even have to defend in the face of Asura-douji's attack, just the domineering appearance of his body blocked Ashura-douji's attack, and then he gave the opponent the same treatment as Kozuki Oden.

He still has some interest in Asura boy, but in his eyes he sees the will to die, and he also sees a feeling similar to that of Kozuki Oden. Such people cannot be recruited, and this is how they die in battle. Soldiers deserve treatment.

Asura Douji died in the hands of Kaido in this way. Compared with living in Wano Kingdom for 20 years on the original timeline, and then dying on the reinforced bomb in version 2.0, this kind of death is more appropriate.

And Quinn's indiscriminate bombing had already knocked down the Fuyue Yukie. Under the supervision of the big boss, Olga, who was no longer a foreign worker, also knocked down the Uzumaki Tempura, and Elizabeth's battle ended quickly. , only Jhin is still fighting against Shiroyuki Uyumaru for the purpose of practice.

Seeing this, Kaido did not interfere in Jhin's battle, but looked at Shaina who just flew down from the third floor.

"Where's Arceus? Are you still dealing with the charcoal serpent?"

"No, Lord Sacred Beast left here long ago to go to Miss Yamato. The black charcoal orochi was cleaned up a long time ago."

"As expected."

Since he came here, he has not been able to detect the breath of Arceus. At that time, he had a rough guess, and now it seems to be the case.

"How did the big snake guy die?"

"Eh because of his fruit ability, he has more than one life, so he has experienced many ways to die"

As a snake-snake fruit phantom species, a devil fruit in the form of an Orochi, Orochi is not that bad in performance, but its user is a weak chicken,

In addition to the ability of Orochi to give the user eight lives, he has not developed any ability that belongs to the phantom beast species. For Arceus, this is just a matter of killing several times.

"Well, it's really convenient to see his abilities like this. At least he has played his own value. Well, little ones, it's time to end this war! Before dawn, I want to see a brand new Wano country!"

"Oh!" The death of Kozuki Oden boosted the morale of the beasts. Kaido didn't attack those miscellaneous soldiers, but just watched his subordinates fight with them, but the morale was high and they had already shown a winning attitude. .

"Mr. Kaido, I will arrange other things according to the request of Lord Holy Beast."

"Go, do those things as you like."

"Olga, come with me."

Shaina took Olga and started to act according to the previous plan, and Kaido also walked in the other direction.

Turning back time at this time, that was not long after the battle between Kaido and Kozuki Oden, thunder and flames opened up an unimpeded path for Arceus, and the black charcoal snake could not escape Arceus's control no matter what.

"Why, where did I offend you!"

Black Charcoal Orochi, who was cornered to a dead end, still couldn't figure it out. These people wanted to kill him from the first time they met. After so many years in Wano Country, he was considered to cooperate with the actions of the Beast Pirates, but they still did not mean to quit.

"To deceive me about the slate is an unforgivable death penalty. You don't think an empty slate can deceive me, do you?"

It wasn't until this moment that the black charcoal snake understood the root cause, but even if there was no such thing, his ending would be the same. Even if there was only one Kaido, he would not be willing to be a collaborator. The full potential of Wano Country.

He didn't want to talk nonsense with the black charcoal snake. He stomped his foot at will, and a row of rock thorns had already stabbed at the black charcoal oro. The charcoal snake still values his own life very much.

The barrier that appeared blocked Arceus' sharp stone attack, which seemed to give Black Charcoal Orochi some confidence.

"Hahaha you can't kill me. With this barrier, even that lunatic Kozuki Oden can't break this barrier!"

But the reality did not make him proud for more than 10 seconds. The next moment he heard a scream, and the black charcoal Chanwan was wrapped in flames, and at this time he had become a burning man.

It is very difficult to break the barrier of the barrier fruit, but he can bypass the barrier and directly destroy the black charcoal Chan Wan.

The barrier fruit only blocks attacks, and the airflow can flow as usual, otherwise the people inside will have to suffocate directly to death, which means that energy can also pass through this barrier, and Arceus has the ability to launch his own attacks through the barrier.

After the death of Black Charcoal Chanwan, naturally there is no other person to hold up the barrier for the Black Charcoal Orochi.

He didn't have the hobby of listening to others' begging for mercy, so the flame vortex did not disappear after killing the Black Charcoal Chanmaru, but continued to expand the range to include the Black Charcoal Orochi into the attack range.

The serpent that was burned to the coke seemed to be really dead, lying motionless on the ground, but this trick could not be concealed from Arceus, and his original ability to save his life became his biggest failure at this time.

Ordinary people only need to experience the pain once. He experienced it eight times. After the attack of eight attributes, the black charcoal snake disappeared from this world. Then Arceus didn't care about the battle situation in the palace of the flower capital, but went outward. go.

Outside the Flower City, with the location of Yamato, the Beast Pirates and the samurai started a street battle.

However, unlike the usual protection, the objects that the Beast Pirates wanted to protect rushed to the front, and those samurai couldn't hold on under Ah Jian's attack.

The nearby givers also came gradually. Finally, as Mandefish rushed into the place with an elite team, the original stalemate was completely broken. Seeing that the situation here was completely controlled by the beasts, Arceus did not. Leaving here with confidence.

The war situation in Wano Country is far more than these places. Battles also broke out in the White Dance area, but the main body is not samurai, but gangsters. With the beginning of the war, many gangsters in Wano Kingdom who have stopped have started to take advantage of the fire.

Many wealthy businessmen have been looted, but those who did not satisfy them, the wealthiest group in Wano is undoubtedly the Beast Pirates.

They dared not enter the Flower City, but they set their sights on the center of the beast Pokémon, and here, they realized the horror of what a pink demon is.

Chapter 303 The Pink Devil's Team Battle and the Head Turtle

Those gangsters are the chaos of the party, and they do the work of bullying the village on weekdays. Taking advantage of the opportunity of the war, they naturally launched a zero-dollar purchase activity.

Originally, there were pirates stationed in the Beast Pokémon Center, but with the communication between the pirates, the news that there was an accident in Yamato also came out.

There has been no situation here, and these pirates also made a move to rescue their eldest lady, and soon after they left, the gangsters who gradually gathered also focused on this place.

"Those doctors should have a lot of money too."

"I think yes, it costs a few dollars to go in and ask a few questions. Those guys must be full of money, and those nurses"

He didn't say anything, but the wretched expression and posture already explained what he meant.

"Stop talking nonsense, let's go! Many people have suffered in that mine! Grab them all today!"

After confirming that the team of pirates had really left, hundreds of gangsters rushed towards the Beast Pokémon Center. When the nurse on duty at the door saw the crowd rushing over, they instinctively pressed down the table. button.

Since they came here, they have conducted some drills, but I didn't expect it to be used now.

The sound of mechanical gears turning sounded, the originally transparent windows were now covered by metal shutters, and the Animal Pokémon Center, which was originally a hospital, has now become a fortress.

This was also the purpose of the building when it was built, and the design came into play at this time.

At the same time, the alarm bell in the Pokémon Center rang out, and both the nurses, doctors and hospitalized patients were awakened by the bells.

But there is still a problem. Most of the pirates have left, and there are only a small number of left-behind personnel, which makes their defense range not very sufficient.

There is nothing wrong with just guarding the Pokémon Center, but after those people found that they couldn't break the defense here, they turned and ran towards the family area behind.

The defense level there is much worse than here, and because of immigration, the family members of nurses and doctors are living there at this time. After seeing this situation from Rotom's image, they were sitting in a safe position. No longer.

"Doctor Todler, where are you going?!"

"My parents live there! Where do you think I'm going? Don't you guys too, do you guys just want to look at it like this?"

Todler said to them, and then began to look for something to arm himself in the hospital. A killer may not be a doctor, but for these experienced doctors, as long as they are given a chance, they will kill more than save. People are much faster.

The scalpel and the mop are temporarily combined, and the scalpel is much stronger than ordinary knives in terms of sharpness.

Apart from the old professors, the young doctors and nurses were almost all together, but when they were about to open the door and rush out, they found that the situation outside was different from what they thought.

They have been with Pokémon for a long time since they came here. In their eyes, Pokémon may only be a reliable medical assistant, but Pokémon are also good at fighting.

In the world of Pokémon, whether it is an ancient battlefield or a modern special operation, Pokémon can play a role far beyond ordinary weapons. While they are still preparing, Pokémon have already left here.

The flower therapy rings were flying in the air under the night, and the seeds were dropped by them, and grass began to grow on the ground below.

"Where did you get so much grass?"

A gangster didn't understand why this place suddenly turned into grass, but the plants on the ground were suddenly connected, tripping them directly to the ground like a tripping rope.

The first is the grass field, the field skills used by the flower therapy ring to enhance the power of grass skills, and after that they used the grass knot, under the action of the grass knot, many gangsters was tripped to the ground.

Although they are now acting as a team, they are all competitors in grabbing things. In order to grab more things, their formation is very dense, which led to a stampede accident when they tripped. NovelUs&.Com

And this is not over, the seeds sprinkled by the flower therapy ring also include parasitic seeds, and some of the thugs who fell to the ground are bound together by the vines grown from the parasitic seeds, and are constantly deprived of their physical strength.

"It's those things above! Shoot, shoot!"

Firearms can also be found in Wano, but the accuracy of these firearms is much worse than that of the weapon factory, so after a burst of gunshots, the flower therapy rings just fly higher.

After the harassment of the flower therapy ring, a mixed army composed of auspicious eggs and almost dolls also appeared. Their targets were much larger, but these gangsters still failed to cause effective damage. The front line of defense.

Those attacks were blocked by their guards, and then almost the dolls had secret power brewing in their hands. Depending on the release site, the secret power would also cause different effects.

At this time, in the grass field formed by the green grass field, the performance of the secret power is like an attack like a magic leaf. Before the attack of the dolls is almost over, the auspicious eggs also have the next move.

The avatars were released by them to rush forward, but their bodies shrunk and quietly hid behind the avatars. After reaching their feet, the auspicious eggs directly hit their toes.

"It hurts! Something bit my foot!"

"Below, too. Damn it, what's going on here!"

Although the shrinking made them smaller, their strength did not decrease because of this. Moreover, the people of Wano country generally wore clogs, and they had no protection. Most of them had their toes smashed and groaned in pain.

And being round and rolling is not the privilege of a big milk tank. Geely eggs can also do this. Their bodies are like bowling **** to tear the opponent's front. Under the attack of the Pokémon, this group of gangsters completely fell into chaos .

But things are far more than that. Next to the Pokémon Center is the Jenny Turtle Fire Brigade. They can not only put out fires, but also fight.

"Camel!"

Although the captains of the fire brigade are two jenny turtles, there is also a water arrow turtle that acts as the chief. At this time, it moved its footsteps and came here, and the two huge gun barrels behind it were already pointed at them.

"Camel!"

"Jenny Jenny!"

Under the lead of the water arrow turtle, a large amount of water was sprayed towards those people. The jenny turtle spouted a simple high-pressure water flow, while the water arrow turtle's gun barrel was hot boiling water.

Chapter 304 If there is no accident, there will be an accident soon

As the final evolution of the jenny turtle, the water arrow turtle is far superior to the jenny turtle in all aspects. The two water cannons on the back have a very wide shooting range and great power, even the iron plate can be shot directly. nOvelusb.cOM

Coupled with the water temperature that is close to boiling point, the damage caused by the water arrow turtle is extremely terrifying.

The high-pressure water gun could have been used to suppress the riot, and the hot water released by the water arrow turtle taught them a hard lesson. Although there was no pirate guards, the existence of these Pokémon coalition forces also made the hospital and the The family area was not harassed by the gangsters.

Similar scenes not only happened here in the Pokémon Center, but also in Jiuli's farms and pastures, and Ximei's cotton planting base.

In Kuri, Kentaro's family also saw a rolling big milk can break people's tendons and fractures. Since the incident of Inuarashi and Cat Viper's vegetable thieves, the big milk cans seem to have more skilled experience.

Ximei's cotton planting base is relatively harmonious, which is the reason for the Pokémon race.

The Pokémon here have relatively low combat power, but the cotton of Bai Pengpeng and the wind goblin has become the biggest obstacle to their progress, and the cotton of shuttlecock flying in the sky is swaying their own powder.

Poison powder, paralysis powder, sleep powder, and powder attacks mixed into the air, and entered into their bodies with the breathing of those below, making them eventually lose the ability to resist and fight.

The battles here are all unorganized riots, which soon died down under strong suppression, but there are still some organized behaviors elsewhere.

Hospitals and plantations are mostly people's livelihood institutions, and there are also a large number of civilians in Wano. Those gangsters are jealous of the huge profits and want to **** it here.

As for whether they can really grab what they need, they are not very clear. After all, there are stupid thieves everywhere. There are many people who grabbed the mobile phone store and found that they were all models.

But the organizers are not like this. Their target is still the place where the beasts are mainly stationed. They still count how many pirates in Hezhi. Now most of the pirates are in the flower capital, which makes them have new target.

Today's Wano country has a special place, where the Beasts are not very manpower, and the people inside do not have a good impression of the Beasts Pirates, but it is still a very important place - the Rabbit Bowl Quarry.

The Rabbit Bowl quarry has long been transformed into a prison-like existence by beasts. There are a large number of gangsters in labor camps, and some pirates who have failed in external battles are detained here to mine ore.

If they can break through here, these pirates who were originally imprisoned by the beasts will undoubtedly have a huge impact on the beasts. Although they may not obey the instructions, they are all enemies of the beasts.

In order to curb the powerful forces of the beasts, the Orochi Yuting Fanzhong and some of the people came to the Rabbit Bowl quarry.

The Orochi Yudi Fanzhong is the direct subordinate unit of General Wano Country, and the leader of this team should be Kozuki Oden in name.

It's just that after the Black Charcoal Orochi took the position of the acting general, the team chose to surrender to the Black Charcoal Orochi, which also led to one of the team's Xiao Ren withdrew from the team and became the "rebel forbearance" of the country of Wano. .

Everyone except Fu Lu Shou was sent by Orochi. He thought that there was no problem with the safety of Guangyue Otian and Heitan Chanmaru, but the fact taught him a painful lesson.

In the Rabbit Bowl quarry, the pirates of the beasts are still here, even if most of the pirates from Ghost Island have entered the flower capital, the pirates of the Rabbit Bowl have not decreased, and Baba Nuki has always been here. .

There are only 100 pirates here. Although there are not many, they usually face prisoners with shackles, and there are other pirates nearby to support them, so their manpower is sufficient.

But tonight's battle put them in a state of isolation.

"Get up! Tonight is a very important night. Governor Kaido has promised us a seven-day vacation, and someone will take over tomorrow!"

The prisoners were all taken back to the cells. It stands to reason that they are very safe here, but if there is no accident, there will be an accident soon.

The searchlight spotted the trail of the intruder, but Baba Nuki did not panic.

The Rabbit Bowl quarry is a large pit dug in the middle of the exposed mountain, surrounded by steep rock walls, and there is only one entrance and exit.

As long as he guards this gate, it is impossible for outsiders to break in, but he underestimated those so-called Wano Ninjas, and through the feints of those outside, they actually climbed in.

Although most of those ninjas rely on some peculiar props to complete their so-called ninjutsu, they have indeed experienced much more training than ordinary people, and they may not be as good as samurai in frontal combat, but they are very good at things like sneak attacks.

Although they successfully infiltrated the Rabbit Bowl quarry, what happened next was beyond their expectations. They were born ninjas very good at opening locks, and they opened the doors of several prisons in no time.

But before they were happy, a siren sounded in the quarry, and at the same time, several round things rolled down the hillside.

"Lathiae!"

A few boulders were thrown by them, and the big rock snake was long ago sent to the underground of the red soil continent. The area of Wano country is really not suitable for their growth, but the small fist stones still live here, and they took the lead when they found that the situation was wrong attacked.

Those released prisoners were still in shackles, and they couldn't help at all now, and the responsibility of dealing with these little fist stones fell to the ninjas of the Royal Court Fanzhong.

After dodged the stone thrown by the small fist stone, these ninjas inevitably had questions.

"What the **** are those things? Are all these monsters under the Beast Pirates?"

As Orochi's cronies, they have seen other Pokémon, but these rock-type Pokémon in the quarry are the first to see them. Other Pokémon have animal or plant features on their bodies, but here Different.

Little Fist Stone has almost no animal features except that it can move, and monsters are the only conclusion they can draw.

"You go on to release the prisoners, leave it to us."

The alarm here will quickly attract the attention of those pirates. Although there are not many of them, the pirates who come over can easily lead to the failure of the mission, and they must release more prisoners before the other party can react.

"Ninja · Hell Pipa."

said that a woman launched an attack on Xiaoquanshi, although it sounds very noble, but in fact this is just a machine gun hidden in the pipa.

When these bullets hit Xiao Quan Shi's body, several Xiao Quan stones looked at each other, and then scratched their heads in confusion.

Chapter 305 What made you feel that I was afraid of Hailoushi?

The body of the small fist stone is originally composed of rocks. These small fist stones generated by the special environment of Wano country have the ingredients of sea floor stones in their bodies. As the hardest substances, ordinary attacks cannot hurt them at all. .

Those bullets hit them without pain or itching, just like being thrown a handful of soybeans, scraping can still make people feel pain, but the so-called **** pipa is really not as good as scraping.

In order to enhance the concealment of the weapon, the Yuting Fanzhong named Helltian hid the firearm in the pipa, and the pipa could play normally, which affected the power of the firearm.

Although the rate of fire and bullet capacity are retained, the damage of the bullets is really impressive. It is much worse than ordinary firearms, that is, the fatality rate against ordinary people is relatively low.

It looks humble when it hits the body of the small fist stone, and these small fist stones have sharp edges and corners, which is a sign of youth for the small fist stone race.

Most of the young little fist stones have a violent temper. Although it doesn't hurt, it's not enough to be slapped in the face with beans. In addition, these people triggered the alarm, and a few small fist stones naturally countered.

There were no fancy attacks, the hands clapping on the ground were the driving force for his charge, and the small fist stone headed it launched his own slam.

The slamming is just a single violent impact, but the angular Hailoushi body can cause great damage. There is no distinction between men and women in the eyes of Xiaoquan Stone. A stone is not as attractive as a stone.

And the other small fist stones were not idle. A group of imprisoned people just walked out of the prison on the rock wall, and they were forced back by the small fist stone with a rock crash, watching the gap left by these prisoners suddenly lost The courage to resist.

Because Xiaoquan Stone only needs to have another rockslide, all of them will have to be buried alive inside. They can't understand Xiaoquanshi's words, but the meaning of the threat is already obvious.

And the siren here naturally reached the ears of Babanuki at the door.

"Oops. You guys stay here! Come with me! It's really troublesome to let those guys run away!"

Those people have been attacking for a long time and have not been able to get close to the gate of the Rabbit Bowl. There are no strong people there. If it is just a competition of firepower, he is the same wherever he is.

But there are some powerful pirates among the prisoners in the prison, and the impact of letting them all run out is the greatest.

Fortunately, the key has always been carried with him, and he is not afraid of running out too much. Because of the strong processing technology, the lock cylinder of the Hailoushi handcuffs in Wano Kingdom is made of Hailoushi, and the hard lock cylinder can be picked open. They became a big project.

Coupled with the blockage of the little fist stones, only a hundred people escaped, and only a dozen people were released from handcuffs.

"Kill them!"

It seems that a large group of laborers are destined to be lost today, but according to Babanuki's estimate, the number of people here will be refilled in a few days, and this group of people is just used to kill chickens and monkeys today.

"That guy is the warden! The key is in his hand!"

Seeing Baba Nuki coming over, a prisoner shouted excitedly, they don't want to keep mining here, even if they have a sentence, they want to leave here as soon as possible, tonight is the best chance.

Hearing these words, both the prisoner whose handcuffs were opened and the members of the Imperial Court all looked at Babanuki.

Yuting Fanzhong wants to release more prisoners, and those pirate prisoners know that such a few people are not enough for the Beast Pirates, so they also want to release some people.

They temporarily formed a united front and looked in the direction of Babanuki, but the first thing they had to face was the baptism of gunfire. Those people held large-caliber revolving machine guns in their hands, and the dense bullets formed a dense layer of bullets. An airtight fire net.

They are not small fist stones, there are only very few people who can resist such a rain of bullets, and then those ninjas took out some strange things from their arms.

"Ninja Art of Mist!"

A lot of thick smoke filled the open space of the quarry. Although it was called the technique of smoke escape, it was actually just a specially made smoke bomb, and charging by the smoke bomb was the only chance for them to get close to each other.

A large amount of smoke blocked the view. Although the pirates were still shooting, the hit rate dropped significantly after losing their vision. The boulders mined in the mine also became a bunker for these people.

In the end, those people rushed to their side, and there was a sound of chains in Babanuki's ear, and an iron rope was thrown out, and then wrapped around his arm.

"Hahahaha, you are a capable person, right! Let's taste the taste of your own Hailou stone chains!"noVelusB.com

Most of these prisoners have a certain understanding of Babanuki's ability, and there are a large number of Hailou stone products here, which are chains made up of their Hailou stone handcuffs.

Because of abundant funds, even those ordinary people use Hailou stone handcuffs.

"Eat yourselves, you bastard! I will definitely be able to take off Kaido's head!"

A pirate let out a wild laugh and slashed towards Babanuki's neck with a knife, but he was caught by a gorilla's arm in mid-air.

"Just the two of you, still want to challenge Kaido boss? It's too naive, idiot."

"Impossible! You are obviously an ability person, but you are locked by Hailoushi! How can you still use your ability?!"

Watching Baba Nuki complete his transformation with a sea tower chain wrapped around his body, the pirate's expression became extremely exciting, and this situation has disrupted his common sense.

"Who gave you the illusion that Laozi is afraid of Hailoushi?!"

Baba Nuki slammed into the opponent with a head hammer. Although the King of Leave has the characteristic of being lazy, this characteristic allows their bodies to accumulate a huge amount of power. The same is true for Baba Nuki who obtained the power of the King of Leave.

Although his attack frequency is very low, and he even has to use the cutting gun mode to ensure his mobility, the power of his every blow is very powerful, and the pirate who was just arrogant under his head hammer has completely disappeared. .

With one hand, he grabbed the chain with one hand, and even if he didn't need to transform into a magical power, he still possessed a terrifying power.

"I am the benefactor who received the perfect power from the Lord Arceus. The perfect power does not come from the devil fruit, but the grace of God. The sea tower has never been our weakness!"

Then he also grabbed the chain with his other hand. The sea tower stone chain that he originally wanted to use to restrain him became his weapon instead, and a series of screams came out in the smoke under his strange force.

Chapter 306 Light of Evolution

There is no one in there, so it only needs to attack indiscriminately. The smoke bomb obstructs the vision of the members of the Beast Pirates and also obstructs the vision of the prisoners.

The sea tower stone chains waving recklessly brought them a devastating blow, but things were not smooth sailing, and some prisoners came to them under the cover of smoke.

Seeing that Hailou stone had no effect on Babanuki, the ninjas of Yuting Fanzhong also used all kinds of bizarre skills to entangle Babanuki, shuriken, kunai, bullets, all kinds of throwing. Props fly out of the smoke.

And there are some strong ones among the pirate prisoners, which makes Babanuki unable to escape for a while, and the rest can only face the approaching pirates alone.

No new prisoners escaped under the attack of the small fist stone, but the approaching pirates also forced the pirates of the beasts to pull out the swords around their waists. Although the revolving machine gun was far more powerful than ordinary rifles, it was surrounded by people and approached. After turning around, they didn't have time to turn around.

The most primitive blood-to-hand combat took place here.

The beasts are not an invincible pirate group, otherwise they would have dominated the world long ago. In the melee, a pirate of the beasts fell in a pool of blood, and the two long knives stuck between his chest and abdomen made him lose his movement. Ability.

Those are the weapons that were brought in by the Gotei Fans, and it was these weapons that armed the prisoner pirates.

The enemy in front of him was just about to give him a fatal blow, but another black shadow rushed out of the smoke. It looked small, but it ran like a heavy tank, and even the ground shook.

There was no roar, but the black shadow smashed the enemy in front of him. This is Coco Dora who lives in the mine. In two years, he has completed the evolution and is no longer a coco Dora like a large ant, but it was Cordora who had turned into a monitor lizard.

The tail is very short, but the steel armor on the body is also thicker.

This Kodora was very lethargic, and the sound of the alarm just now failed to wake it up. It was the smoke bombs released by the Imperial Court that choked it up.

And the pirate who fell to the ground has another identity, the breeder of Coco Dora. When it was still Coco Dora, he had the best relationship with Coco Dora, even if it evolved into a relationship like Coco Dora Neither has changed.

That is, the vicious carp dragon can retain its original emotions after evolution. As long as humans invest enough, Pokémon will naturally return their sincerity.

It can evolve so quickly thanks to the food supply in the mines. Most of the minerals in the mines are exported or for personal use. Coupled with the growing appetite of Kodola, the big rock snakes will go to the red soil continent to fight. cave.

is not just stocking, it is also their task to find new rare mineral veins and some information on slate.

After hitting the enemy, it did not participate in the battle, and stood beside the injured pirate.

Although it has some long-range attack skills, the battle situation has become chaotic when the prisoner pirates rushed into the beast pirates through the smoke, and random attacks may accidentally hurt allies.

Kodora's voice was very low, and he could hardly hear any movement, but the injured pirate could understand what he meant.

"Don't worry, this injury won't kill you, I haven't seen Kaido become the Pirate King yet"

Although Kaido has not expressed this intention at this time, but in the eyes of the pirates of the beasts, this great treasure must belong to their governor.

In the smoke, there was also the sound of a machine roaring, but Dora turned her heavy body to look over there, and intuitively told it that it was very dangerous. As the sound got closer, a figure comparable to Babanuki. The pirates also rushed out from inside.

It's just that the prison uniform on his body shows that he is not a member of the beasts. At this time, his hands have become a huge drill, and there are still blood stains on it.

"I shattered my dream of being the pirate king, and caused me to dig ore here for so long. You all beasts, go to hell!"

He was a pirate who went out to sea not long after Roger's death three years ago. Although the reward was only 90 million and he did not reach the level of a supernova, he still arrived at Chambord as a nova, but he challenged the beasts soon after he came to the new world. The territory of the pirates.

The result is obvious, and it was directly sent to mine here.

The drill that spins with both hands is his ability.

He is a superhuman type with the ability to drill fruit.

This ability is actually very suitable for his identity as a miner, but wearing Hailoushi handcuffs, he can't use his ability when digging Hailoushi mine.

Sometimes he would be detained to dig wine and iron ore. His ability was still very useful at that time, and he could be called a very good labor force. In order to make him work better, Babanuquito gave him some food. , which now appears to be an error.

The pirates on the ground caught his attention, and the drill in his hand continued to spin.

"You are also a man of beasts, right? I'll send you to death."

The blade that was inserted into him had already been inserted into the ground, so he naturally had no way to avoid it. Looking at the drill bit swung towards him, he could only close his eyes in despair, but in the end there was no pain, only some metal sparks sprinkled on the ground. on him.

Kodora's body shone with a metallic sheen and slammed into the opponent's drill.

The metal shell fused with the fermented iron ore was extremely hard. Although a lot of sparks were generated at the friction point, with the support of the iron wall, Ke Dora was firmly nailed in front of the injured person.

The blue eyes under the armor are staring at each other, it is protecting its breeder.

"Where's the beast, are you also worthy to stop Uncle Arzak!"

The drill bit in the other hand also drilled towards Kodola, and the attack position chose the hole on Kodola's armor, which was the weak point on Kodola's body.

Kedora, who was in pain, let out a painful wailing sound, and then jumped directly. The short claws shone with metallic luster, and a metal claw grabbed the opponent.

The characteristic of this Kodola is heavy metal. The effect is to double its own weight. Finally, one person and one beast re-entered the smoke. From time to time, you can see sparks in the smoke, and there is also the sound of metal friction in the ears.noVelusB.com

This battle situation lasted for a long time. As the smoke gradually dissipated, the situation in the quarry was revealed again. The situation at Little Fist Stone is similar.

But the situation of Kedora is not very good. It seems that several years of mining life have trained him, and some of Kodora today are not his opponents.

But when he thought he had defeated the monster and planned to attack the pirates of the beasts, a dazzling white light appeared behind him.

Chapter 307 Raging Heavy Tanks

"Roar!"

A slightly low roar emanated from Cordora's mouth, and a pure white luster gradually enveloped its body.

The low figure gradually increased, and the original lizard's posture gradually changed into the shape of a dinosaur. As the light dissipated, a giant beast standing on two legs appeared in front of him.

"Hey!"

Iron Armored Pokémon - Bosco Dora, the final evolutionary form of Coco Dora, domineering in the world of pirates is a spiritual power, and the evolution of Pokémon is also related to the heart.

When their physical condition basically meets the conditions, their inner strength can make evolution happen in advance. In order to achieve their goals, Dora has evolved.

Boscodora's whole body is wrapped in hard armor, and a sharp horn extends outward from the forehead of his head. There are two pairs of holes on his forehead, and two long sharp horns extend from the two holes in front of him. stretch out.

The upper and lower jaws are made of silver-white metal, and sharp tooth-like protrusions are exposed at the corners of the mouth.

All four limbs are covered with silver steel rings to enhance their defense, and their forelimbs have also become thick arms.

The short round tail also became a thick and long black tail.

Due to the fact that he was devouring the wine iron ore, the silver-white armor had red cloud patterns, which made the Bosskodora a bit more terrifying at this time.

The average Boss Cordola is about two meters tall, but this Boss Cordola has plenty of food, and the high-quality wine-iron ore makes it a stronger body, and even the evolved size is an ordinary Boss. Cordola is more than twice as much.

Coupled with the characteristics of its own heavy metal, it has already stepped on two deep footprints on the ground.

Boom! Boom!

There was a metallic roar when the fists collided, and Boscodora had already rushed towards Arzak.

Arzak saw the evolution of Pokémon for the first time. This huge change made him unable to understand for a while, but he knew that he was in big trouble.

It took him a lot of effort just to deal with the lizard monster. Now the lizard monster has turned into a dinosaur monster. No matter its size or appearance, Boscodora feels much more terrifying than Kodora.

Arzak repeated his old tricks, stabbing the drill in his hand at the hole beside Boscodora's eyes. He had already discovered that the ventilation hole on Boscodora's body was almost its only weakness.

But unlike just now, Boscodora already has both hands.

The three claws were wrapped in metal light, and Boscodora used both hands to use the metal claws at the same time. One claw smashed the drill bit that Arzak stabbed, and Boscodora directly hit it with her body.

He was a heavy tank wrapped in steel armor, and Arzak suffered a big loss when it collided. He didn't understand the seriousness of the situation, and his drilled hands continued to stab at Boscodora.

And Boscodora did not dodge or block, but directly grabbed Arzak's drill, and a large number of sparks burst out of his hand. Under the pressure of Boscodora's hand, his drill stopped turning. .

"what!"

It wasn't that he didn't want to continue spinning, but Boscodora's power made him unable to continue to spin, and then Boscodora lifted him up directly in his incredible gaze.

"Hey!"

Boscodora threw him into the air, his bulky body jumped up, his thick and long tail shone with a metallic luster, and an iron tail kicked him out like a baseball.

The house leak happened to rain overnight, so he was drawn by Boscodora onto a pile of stones, and these stones were the original ore of Hailou stone mined from the ground, which made him suddenly weak.

Before he could climb out, Boscodora's destructive death light had already condensed, and the deadly light shot towards him, and he was unable to escape after being thrown on the Hailou Stone Mine.

Even if Boscodora's physical attack was much higher than the special attack, the destructive death light it released also punched a big hole in his chest, but after solving Arzak, Boscodora did not stop himself. .

It knew that only after the battle was over, others would have time to treat its breeders. With a run-up, Boscodora's huge body began to attack the ninjas and prisoner pirates of the Imperial Court.

Steel-based skills collide heavily. The higher your own weight is than the enemy, the higher the damage.

With her huge weight and the characteristics of heavy metal, Boscodora has exploded the potential of her own war machine.

Those ninja weapons still have some ways to deal with humans, but there is no way to meet Boscodora, who is covered in special alloys.

The current Boss Cordola is a heavy tank that entered the ancient battlefield of Japan. The enemy has no other way but to escape.

Neither the kunai nor the shuriken have any effect, and if they don't understand the iron slashing skills, ordinary people won't even have the chance to scrape Boss Cordora.

The evolved Boss Cordola further turned the situation around the Rabbit Bowl quarry, and the escape was quickly brought to an end.

Similar situations don't just happen here. Except for the Rabbit Bowl mining farm, Onishima is the base camp of the Beast Pirates, and the samurai leads the team there.

The elite of the beasts gathered in the flower capital, and the ghost island guarded the emptiness. In the eyes of the samurai, this was an opportunity. Instead of punting the boat, they chose to swim.

Several teams of samurai only landed on Onishima with katana swords. They did not see pirates here. The entire Onishima seemed to be empty, but they saw a yellow creature.

The electric monsters in the power generation room have been waiting for them here for a long time.

"Zizi."noVelusB.com

An electric current flashed through the body of the electric shock beast, and then these people soaked in seawater experienced the power of 100,000 volts.

These samurai did not land in one place. It was inevitable that some fish that slipped through the net approached the building of Onishima. Rotom did not attack, but opened the door on his own initiative, and a slightly old woman walked out from inside.

"Hey, old woman, get out of the way, this is not the place you should be."

"Ah ah ah, although I didn't join them, but this is where I work, it's not good for you to come here to make trouble."

Former cadre of the Wald Pirates, now the Beasts Pirates employs Chinese herbal medicine expert, Naiqin.

Although she is a little old, she is a person who has fought with the Empress in fists and feet after rejuvenating her youth with drugs at the age of 80, and she is also a strong female pirate.

"And your mother didn't teach you how to respect the age of women! Chinese medicine boxing · clove kick!"

Without even using the secret method of rejuvenation, Naiqin rushed to the group of warriors alone. Although she was a ship doctor, she was also a martial artist who was on the Wald ship.

Chapter 308 Secret Sword · Yan Hui

Wald's cadres belonged to a relatively small category among the big pirates at the time. His brother was a think tank with no combat power, and Naiqin, as one of the few three cadres, naturally had to play its due role. ovelus.com

Although she is 60 years old, her body is still strong, and her body is not yet shrinking. Every blow can knock down a samurai.

In old age, it will become an old lady with a hunched waist, a fat house who drinks and smokes, or an uncle and aunt who is still in spirit. It is closely related to the state of life.

Unlike the original timeline, Naiqin has been hiding in XZ waiting for Walder to come back. Now she has at least a stable and high-paying job, which makes her living condition much better than before.

"Traditional Chinese Medicine Boxing · Licorice Rotation!"

Even if the defense of Onigishima is empty, it is not something that these samurai warriors who do not even have a decent leader can solve. In addition to the electric shock monsters and Naigen, they have to face a large number of Rotoms.

Whether it is the Rotom body flying in the air, or the Rotom that controls the oven, refrigerator and other mechanical bodies, these ordinary samurai can't deal with them. Unidentified samurai.

The powerful voltage released by Electric Warcraft and Rotom made these samurai covered in seawater realize what an electric fish is, but they were the ones who were electrocuted.

Of course, not everyone was involved in this battle. Hegoro, the boss of the underworld in the Flower City, did not participate, and such a big movement in the Flower City naturally spread to his residence.

And the reason he didn't show up was because he was stopped.

"Kojiro, what do you mean?"

Kojiro abruptly brought King Yanwu to the residence of Binggoro, and King Yanwu's huge body directly blocked the door to go out.

"Your Excellency Binggoro, I still respect you very much, but now the affairs outside are political struggles of the upper classes, you are an ordinary person after all, it's better not to go into this muddy water.

Besides, you don't want your mother-in-law to be sad. "

In the time of daily walking, Kojiro received the care of Binggoro's wife many times, the kind of care was the same as his mother's care for him in the past.

As the royal merchant of the Beast Pirates in Wano Country, he has some understanding of today's situation.

Because he is a native of Wano country and a member of Hundred Beasts, he is aware of the gap in strength between the two sides, and whoever gets involved in this situation is self-defeating.

Binggoro and his wife have a deep relationship. If Binggoro died, his wife would definitely be sad, so he came to stop Binggoro from interfering in this matter.

As long as tonight is over, then Binggoro will not have the ability to cause a huge conflict.

As a gang boss, his attitude towards the generals and daimyo classes of Wano country is different from that of ordinary people, otherwise he would not be a gang boss, and he values the civilians of the flower capital more.

Now the flexible policy of Hundred Beasts makes his resistance to Hundred Beasts less intense, otherwise he would not have reached a certain level of consensus with Kojiro.

The black charcoal snake had no chance to kill his wife by the hands of the beasts, and he had no fundamental contradiction with the beasts.

"Get out of the way, the people of the Flower City in this situation."

"You don't have to worry about it, my hands are comforting them, as long as it's past tonight, it won't have any effect, and if you go out now, it will only cause trouble. The later this battle is over, the more damage it will cause. "

"You can't stop me, even if you take that big guy with you."

The sturdy Binggoro is not the shriveled little old man. Now his combat power is at his peak, King Yanwu can stop those people under him, but he can't stop him.

"Of course, that's why I'm here to make a condition. People in Huacheng respect you as a knight, and my father was taken care of by you back then, so I want to challenge you as a samurai, as long as you block my blow, then I will no longer stop you.

But if you can't stop it, you can stay here quietly tonight, isn't this condition too much? "

Hyogoro is well-known among the commoners in the capital of flowers. He is different from those daimyo and generals. Many people have never seen what a daimyo looks like in their lives, but they are very familiar with Hinggoro.

The Hundred Beasts Pirates clean up the existing aristocratic class, except for people like Binggoro. The main policy for such people is more to win, and Kojiro also recommended himself, otherwise Hundred Beasts would be able to separate a cadre to solve the problem. questionable.

Hyogoro noticed that Kojiro came with a sword this time, and he always appeared as a businessman on weekdays. This was the first time Hyogoro saw him carry a weapon.

"Okay, come on, hurry up."

Only relying on chivalry can not get to where he is today, although he is very friendly to the commoners, but he can become the gang boss of the flower capital, but he is shot with real swords, and he does not think Kojiro will be his opponent.

even urged Kojiro to start quickly.

"Understood, but please wait a moment, doctor! Are you ready to prepare?"

he asked behind him, this time he actually brought a doctor.

After getting a positive answer, Kojiro stuffed something into his mouth, which was the secret medicine he got from Naikin that could temporarily stimulate the potential of the body.

Then Kojiro took a standard Iai posture. Binggoro looked at the sword in Kojiro's hand. Compared with the weapons made by most craftsmen, Kojiro's sword seemed to be longer.

"Iai? It looks like you've been practicing for a while."

Kojiro did not speak, and Binggoro also looked at the other party, because there was a kind of belief in Kojiro's eyes, that is not something ordinary people can have.

Then Binggoro set his eyes on Kojiro's wrist, and if he just hit his wrist, staring at his wrist was enough to react.

Kojiro held the knife in his backhand, and the moment the blade came out of his body, there was a sharp sound. Binggoro easily blocked Kojiro's attack, but he found the problem as soon as the blade touched him. Although Kojiro seemed to only attack once, he didn't just wave Knife once.

Although he blocked the second knife, the third knife left a bloodstain on his shoulder.

"The Sasaki family's swordsmanship, the secret sword, Yan Hui. Hiss. It hurts. Doctor, come here, my arm seems to be broken."

His doctor was not prepared for Binggoro, but for himself. Although the family was down, the trick Yanhui was completely passed down.

There is no error in the record, but no one in his family can reach the level of his ancestors, so he has never been able to practice it. Kojiro can use it thanks to Kaido's guidance.

Chapter 309 Enchanted Weapons and Post-Battle Physical Exam

If Kojiro's father had asked a good swordsman to guide him, he would have found the problem in his moves, but he didn't. This kind of family move was also a secret in Kojiro's house.

But they don't know the tricks, so naturally they can't practice.

So Kojiro made a different decision. He let Jhin read the record while he was being trained, but Jhin didn't understand it either. After a hundred battles, he could see that this move seemed to have its own secrets, so he let it go to Kaido.

At the level of Kaido, even if his weapon is a mace, he can see a little way in swordsmanship. As a reward for Kojiro's surrender, Kaido personally instructed him once.

However, Kaido just helped them overcome the problem of cultivation. This move requires a lot of physical fitness. Today's Kojiro can't use it, and physical training can't be done overnight, so he will get from Naqin. I want some secret medicine.

In fact, the enhancer in Quinn's hands is more effective, but Kojiro still chooses Naqin. Quinn's enhancer can't even tell what side effects it will have. The risk is too great. In comparison, Naqin's traditional Chinese medicine is more effective. safe.

But the result is also obvious. Although he used this sword with the help of drug enhancement, the side effect caused serious injury to his arm, and the doctor has already started to deal with it in situ.

"Mr. Kojiro, there is nothing wrong with the bone, it's just dislocated and there is a serious muscle tear. Your hand will have to rest for a while."

The doctor made a judgment after a simple diagnosis. At the same time, there was another cry from Kojiro. The joint reset made him suffer a lot.

Then the doctor wanted to treat Binggoro's wound.

"I'm fine, you don't have to worry about me."

The wound on Hyogoro's shoulder was not very serious. At first, he didn't use domineering, but when he found out that it was wrong, he immediately used the armed color, so the shoulder was just a skin injury.

"Mr. Hyogoro, you'd better deal with it. Mr. Kojiro's knife seems to be rusted."

After a single blow, Kojiro's sword was already dropped. As a samurai, he was naturally unqualified, but now he is at most a half-ass samurai.

There are also many people under Binggoro, and they all worship the powerful. Kojiro can actually hurt Binggoro, which makes them more recognized for him, but when they pick up Kojiro's sword, the expression is inevitable. twitched a few times. NOVELUS.COM

"Rusty?!"

"Cough cough.. This is an ancestral knife in my warehouse. It may be a little... poorly kept."

In the face of Binggoro's unbelievable expression, Kojiro gave an explanation, but he was also a little suspicious of life, he was obviously polished and consecrated.

Under the threat of enchanted weapons, Hegoro chose to undergo debridement. Although Wano's medicine is very backward, it's not that he doesn't understand everything, but tetanus is called the curse of weapons here.

"You won, I won't go anywhere tonight, but you bastard, is the knife rusted!"

Although Binggoro has some foul language, those who are familiar with him know that this is the performance of his approval of the other party.

"I'm just a businessman after all."

"The businessman can't wield that sword, is Sasaki that Sasaki? The man who was born in the same era as the swordsman Ryoma, I never thought he would have descendants."

"If the genealogy is correct, it should be him."

"Your sword is actually three swords, right?"

"Swallows can withstand the wind to avoid the blade, and it has nothing to do with whether it is fast or slow. No matter what kind of knife, there is no way to sway without shaking the air. They change the direction of flight by feeling the vibration of the air.

Therefore, no matter what kind of blow it is, the swallow cannot be cut down. A knife is nothing but a line. It also makes sense not to be able to catch the swallows that roam in the air.

Then, as long as it surrounds its retreat, one strikes the swallow, and the other seals the retreat of the swallow, which is dodging by the wind.

But they are very sensitive, so this long knife can't keep up with the second knife.

To be successful, you have to do the two strikes almost simultaneously in an instant. If they are all at the same time, the two strikes will be too slow anyway.

For this reason, there should also be a third knife that blocks the side escape route. "

Kojiro talked about the description of Yan Hui in the records. The essence of Yan Hui is the instant three swords. This is a quick sword. The first two moves are to block the enemy's evasion and block. This third sword It's the last kill.

"As expected of a famous swordsman in the past. No, his words should have gone out of the way of the great swordsman, boy, practice more, it is a great sin to lose this stunt in your hands."

Looking at Kojiro's arm that was scrapped with a single blow, Binggoro let out a sigh.

"Thundering gossip!"

In the capital of flowers, Yamato defeated the last samurai with a single stick. Most of the samurai in Wano country did not have armor, which is not something ordinary samurai can afford. Those who wear armor are basically those nobles, which also makes the beasts. who can better identify who is the leader.

Those delicate armors have a lot of defense against ordinary pirate swords, but when encountering blunt weapons such as mace, the effect of armor is greatly reduced.

Whether samurai or gangsters, most of the enemies in the Flower City have been eliminated.

"Gather the defeated samurai! Don't let these guys continue to make trouble!"

Mandelfish issued orders to the pirates around him, and the higher-ranking officials in the Beasts Pirates can directly take over the command. Now, apart from the disaster-level leaders, he has a very high status in the Beasts Pirates. .

The status of the captain of the scout unit is enough for him to order these ordinary pirates.

"Severe injuries should be sent to the Pokémon Center. Those with minor injuries will be treated by themselves until tomorrow. Give the doctors some rest."

"Wait, Uncle Mandelfish, send them over too."

Yamato gave advice to Mandelfish when he arranged the wounded. In addition to the combatants on both sides, the battle in the Flower City caused many civilians living in the Flower City to suffer bad luck.

"Don't worry, Miss Yamato, someone will take care of them, you see, someone has come."

Saying that, Mandelfish pointed to the side. It was the person with the logo of the Kojiro Chamber of Commerce. This is also the mission of the Kojiro Chamber of Commerce. At this time, there are also the flags of the beasts next to the logo of the Chamber of Commerce. This is a good opportunity to build goodwill. .

"yes?"

"Of course, you should go to the hospital too."

"Hospital? I'm not injured, I'm fine."

"The order of Lord Arceus, you must do a comprehensive medical examination after the war, please follow me."

Chapter 310 Burning Oden Castle

According to Yamato's carefree personality, it is estimated that he will not be able to find out if he is really injured, so several doctors over there have already received orders to prepare a comprehensive medical examination for Yamato.

Deterred by the name of Arceus, Yamato was honestly taken to the Pokémon Center for a medical examination, as did Maria and Jack. The backbone of these new generations has always been valued.

But when he left, Yamato saw the flames still burning in the sky.

"Uncle Mandelfish, why is it still burning over there?"

"There... it's Jiuli, don't worry, Lord Zeraora has already gone there. I believe the fire there will be extinguished soon."

"Oh."

Not long ago, when the Black Charcoal Orochi gave a signal, the undercover agent Kanjuro, who had been lurking beside Kozuki Oden for many years, was dispatched.

In order to anger Oden, the black charcoal Orochi chose to attack Kozuki Oden's family, and specially arranged for some people to attack here posing as members of the Hundred Beast Pirates.

Except for some retainers who were taken away by him, Kanjuro, Kawamatsu, and Denjiro stayed in Oden Castle. Although the sound of battle broke out in the flower capital, nothing happened here.

Until Kanjuro left here temporarily for convenience.

Below Oden Castle, he took out his Tsuji Shimei and started painting. Tsuji Shimei was Kanjuro's weapon. It looked like a sword, but the tip of the blade was a huge brush tip.

"Kakaka, feel the anger that belongs to black charcoal."

Kozuki's retainers only know Kanjuro's name, but they don't know his surname Heitan. He was born in a performing arts troupe for popular stage plays, and his acting skills are superb.

And because of his surname Heitan, Kurotan Kanjuro was naturally affected by the rebellion of Grandpa Kurotan Orochi.

After the death of his parents, Kanjuro Kurotan lost his heart and has been living by performing others, so he has superb acting skills and is good at playing anyone, and he can only feel happy when he is completely incarnated as someone else.

Kanjuro has almost become a demon in terms of acting. He has a strong hatred for those who killed his parents, but he has no idea who the murderer is.

When he heard that Orochi killed the person who murdered his parents, he was willing to follow Orochi to his death, but the death of other people in the Black Charcoal family also had a lot to do with the Black Charcoal Orochi itself.

Kanjuro and Orochi have one thing in common, they are both crazy, Orochi has been crazy enough to hate everyone in Wano, no matter if he is surnamed Black or not.

Kanjuro, who was undercover next to Oden, was very involved in the drama, and he obeyed Oden's words. As long as there was no order from Orochi, Oden's order would be absolute to him, but now he has received Orochi's instructions.

The fruit ability was activated, and a flame appeared below Oden Castle.

He is a superhuman-type penman who is capable of the fruit of the pen. In short, he is a low-profile version of the magic pen Ma Liang.

can turn the things he draws into entities. Tsuji Shimei is the medium of his painting. If there is no brush, then his own hair can also be used as a brush. NoVeLus1b.cOm

The appearance of things drawn and their abilities are proportional to the drawing skills of those who are capable. For Usopp's painters, this is a very suitable fruit for him.

But the ability has two sides. Excellent ability can enhance the ability of painting, but the drawing is too poor or too ugly, which will directly affect the ability and function of the drawn thing.

Kanjuro's paintings are ugly abstract paintings on weekdays. Not only are they difficult to exert their real power, but they will dissolve when exposed to water. Usually, the most practical place is to draw some cabbage to eat.

Due to the rules of the world, it is not allowed to draw bad cabbage here.

But that was because he deliberately painted with his unskilled left hand in order to hide his ability. Now that he has used his right hand, a lifelike flame has been drawn by him.

"Kakaka, come out, Huoqianfang!"

Kanjuro laughed madly, and burning Oden Castle was also a signal to those Orochi's subordinates, but his mission was just that, and after that he changed back to his original Kanjuro appearance.

"No, it's not good! Mrs. Shi! Someone called! They also burned the house!"

The current Kanjuro doesn't seem to be undercover at all. He is a loyal retainer. He rushed directly into the sea of fire, and even his hair was burned without causing him to react. of human hands arranged by the serpent.

He wasn't acting, he actually killed his opponent.

This scene lasted for a long time, and there were many people sent by the black charcoal snake. For a time, the three of them could barely keep the safety of the light moon. After a while, Juzhicheng and Lei Zang brought the unconscious Jinweimen. As well as cats and dogs they are back here.

"Madam, Lord Oda, Lord Oda, he died in battle!"

Kikunocheng wept and said what they had seen.

"Madam, please pack up quickly, we'll take you out of here, it won't be too late!"

The screams of killing outside the door came one after another, but Kozuki made a decision.

"You said. Go to the future?"

"That's right, that day will come eventually, so you should wait 20 years in advance. Raizo, Kanjuro, Momanosuke and Kinemon will be left to you."

In the end, she decided to let them go to the future. As the power of the fruit of time, Guangyueshi is an ancient person in the past, but she can only travel to the future, not the past.

"Madam, where are you and Princess Hiwa?"

"We're not sure what it will be like 20 years from now, so Momanosuke and Hiyori must be separated, and you can if you're worried about the future"

"No, please believe that we will protect Momonosuke-sama."

Before Kozuki could finish speaking, Raizo took over the conversation, and then they disappeared in Oden Castle under the power of Kozuki's fruit, and Kawamatsu also left Oden from the river with the sleepy Kozuki Rihe. city.

The previous fire caused Kazuki Rika to fall into a coma.

After everyone who was supposed to leave left, Kozuki also looked at the remaining retainers.

"Come on, Madam, we'll take you out."

"No, it's just you guys who rushed out, don't worry, this is my home, and I will attract your attention."

When        said Kozuki, he rejected them forcefully, and came to the roof alone.

When the others were ordered to leave with tears in her eyes, she was also shouting something on the Oden Castle. The power of Kanjuro Fire Front Square seemed to be a little too strong. Just as she finished speaking, the Oden Castle collapsed. Hearing her words Most of them are the "hundred beasts" below.

"Zeraora, what did that person just say?"

"A riddle like prophecy."

Just finished the matter in the Flower City, and Zeraora and Setsuna, who came here, happened to see the collapsed Oden Castle.
