

Arceus 311

Chapter 311 The Temporarily Destroyed Light Moon

After a night of fighting, the original ruling class of Wano country was completely overturned, and there was a huge vacancy at the top. This is a big trouble in other countries, but the national conditions of Wano country are different.

This deformed country is a little better. As long as a Kozuki family member can be found, there will be no ordinary political struggle in Wano country.

Kozuki Oden's force is too strong, and it is a hidden danger for the Beast Pirates. If you want to keep an eye on him, Kaido or Arceus can only stay behind, but the situation is different now.

After Kozuki Oden died, he could easily stabilize the situation in Wano by fostering a puppet regime from his still young children.

Shaina and Olga are dealing with the follow-up matters, and they are almost ready now. For example, the black charcoal snake plans to use the banquet to sow discord and conspiracy to poison.

It happened that Shaina had found a witness, and all the chefs in the Palace of Flowers were willing to prove that it was the black charcoal snake who canceled the poison test and took the dishes ahead of time.

Ordinary people don't know the result of the battle between Kaido and Oden, and the Black Charcoal Orochi has left a lot of notoriety in Wano Country, but its strength is still a mystery, so it's right to throw the pot to him.

In the hearts of the past generation, the Kozuki family was the general of the country of Wano. In this generation, the Kozuki family has become the mascot of the country of Wano. It is the same with him or not. The development of the two generations is enough to make the light The effect of the month disappears immediately.

Zeraora came here to clean up the mess. The people of the Kozuki family couldn't let them stay in Wano and act recklessly. As a result, they saw Kozuki's self-immolation as soon as they came.

The flames lit by the fire front square did not stop Zeraora's pace, and they did not contact the fire brigade. The wind pressure generated by the punches extinguished the flames of Oden Castle, but standing in the ruins, Zeraora felt something was wrong.

"Zeraora! Did something happen?!"

stood outside the ruins and shouted at Zeraora. As a fur tribe, she was more afraid of heat. Although Zeraora put out the fire outside, the residual temperature made her not want to get close.

"It's nothing, it's just a little weird."

There were a lot of burned corpses under Oden Castle. The fire turned these corpses into ashes, and there was nothing to identify them. Then Zeraora also looked at the "beasts" around him.

The subordinates of these serpents are also the targets to be captured. After Zeraora and the others appeared here, these people wanted to leave quietly, but a thunderstorm from the sky blocked their way.

"Stop."

"Lord Zeraora, we came here under the orders of others."

Their current identity is still the pirates of the beasts, so they tried to deceive Zeraora by pretending to be their identities. They felt that it was impossible for Zeraora to recognize all the pirates of the beasts.

Actually he guessed right, but Zeraora took out a card reader.

"You are a man of beasts, what about your ID card?"

"I lost my ID card."

"Lost? Did you all lose your cards?"

Then an electric current was released from Zeraora, which directly electrocuted the members of these big snakes. After the real members of the beasts arrived, these people were also arrested.

As for the other retainers of Kozuki, Kikunocheng and Denjiro were captured before they went far, and the existence of Inuarashi and Cat Viper also changed. www.107eUsb.com

Originally, because of Oden's punishment of the oil pan, Inuarashi and Cat Viper had a conflict, and they fled Wano and returned to Zou, but now none of these things happened. After thinking about it before, the two of them were also sent together. 20 years later.

Now only the river pine, who escaped from the waterway with Guangyueri and the waterway, has not yet fallen.

He took Guangyueri and sneaked under the water for a long time, and Guangyueri almost drowned because of it, and finally escaped to the mountain forest of Jiuli, but just as he thought it was safe, there was a sound of footsteps behind him.

The figure of Elizabeth appeared here, Shaina just took Olga away, but Elizabeth came here with Zeraora, and followed along the waterway.

At first, Elizabeth wanted to see if there were any remnants of the Koyuki family. After confirming that there were no remnants, Elizabeth showed her figure.

Special organs on the body of the agent Pokémon make it stronger than those ninjas when performing tasks such as tracking.

"Put that girl down, murloc."

Elizabeth belongs to a relatively special existence in the Beast Pirates. Its bounty is still only 50 million. This is the first time she and Olga performed a mission, that is, when they went to the naval base to catch a drunk Kaido. Remaining bounty.

After that, its presence has become relatively low, but it has always been training with Olga. Although it is not as strong as Olga today due to individual reasons, it is not weak.

One person and one lizard never separate when they go out. It is the strongest killer hidden in Olga's fantasy, and it can be said that it is easy to deal with today's Kawamatsu.

And Kawasong also paused when facing the name of the murloc, since his mother died, he hadn't heard the word murloc for a long time.

He was a red-finned puffer fish. He entered Wano country by mistake with his mother when he was a child. His mother was also a rare female murloc. The cause of death was discrimination against the nationals of Wano country. She was injured by stones and could not receive effective medical treatment, so died here.

Because he knew that murlocs would be discriminated against by humans, he made Kawamatsu call himself a Kappa.

But whether it is a kappa or a fishman, he will be regarded as a monster in the country of Wano, or he was almost burned to death by the people of the country of Wano, and was finally rescued by Kozuki Oden together.

"Murloc. I haven't heard this name for a long time, are you also a murloc?"

"No, but I've seen other murlocs, surrender and put her down, you've got nowhere to run."

Elizabeth gestured to Hesong for the communication snail in her hand, indicating that the news had spread.

"Xiaosheng can't agree to this matter. If you want to hurt Princess Rihe, then step on the forehead first."

The blade on Elizabeth's tail suddenly pierced his chest, and when he was talking, it started quietly.

"You are mean!"

"We are enemies, what are you talking about?"

Elizabeth's daily fighting methods are long-distance sniping, sneaking, assassinating, and sneaking under the cover of illusions. It is not a heavy tank like Boscord, and frontal combat is not its style.

That's why he made a surprise attack while Kawamatsu was distracted, and it didn't think there was anything wrong with it.

"Don't move, even if you have the ability to resist, this girl doesn't."

Kawamatsu, who wanted to resist, finally gave up the resistance after seeing the blade that had been placed on Koyukihi and his neck.

At the beginning of 1502, Wano Kingdom underwent earth-shaking changes overnight. Compared with the Wano Kingdom Rebellion that occurred on the original timeline, this event was a little earlier.

The battles on various battlefields have mostly ended, and the original ruling class of Wano country has completely disappeared. Whether it is the acting general Kurotan Orochi, the former general heir Mitsuyuki Oden, or the daimyo of the townships all died in the banquet battle.

Except for Orochi, they are all good fighting power, and because of this, they must all die here.

They are all staunch supporters of the Kozuki family, with a certain amount of force and appeal, and at the same time they are the original leadership, so they do not need to appear in the future Wano country.

This is a big change, and since it has been done, it must be done cleanly.

However, the battle on the frontal battlefield is over, but there are two places that are completely busy. One is the Rabbit Bowl quarry guarded by Babanuki. In addition to the people who died in the battle, there are also a large number of captured people. .

Not everyone can fight to the death in the event of losing. After those daimyo cronies were killed by the givers, most of the remaining people chose to surrender after persevering for a while.

The Rabbit Bowl quarry has vacated many cells due to the escape incident, but it is still full of newcomers. Finally, King Yanwu was also transferred here to guard the situation here.

Another busy place was the Beast Pokémon Center, where the doctors had their busiest night in years.

"Get out of the way! Get out of the way! He needs emergency surgery! Doctor Dollers, please take care of the surgery!"

"Send the burnt to the underground physiotherapy room! The medicated bath of the flower therapy ring is ready, don't delay, hurry up!"

Injured pirates, accidentally injured residents of the Flower City, these injuries have filled the hall here, and the defeated will not have this treatment, just throw them a few rolls of bandages and let them figure it out for themselves.

At this time, there are no extra resources to distribute to them. Of course, although the lower part is relatively tense, the top floor of the hospital is completely different. In the VIP ward, Yamato, Maria and Jack were forced to stay in the hospital for observation.

"That. I think I'm just bruised"

Jack always felt a little flustered when he looked at the strange medical equipment. He was indeed injured a little, but in his own sense, it was completely a flesh wound.

"The perception of the human body can deceive people, so Jackie, please accept the examination with peace of mind. This is Mr. Arceus' arrangement. You three have to stay here for three days."

Of course, the doctors and nurses here feel that this is unnecessary. Jack's test report has come out. The murloc's physique is stronger than that of humans. Although there are injuries, they are all flesh wounds, and some shallow wounds have been healed.

Maria is the same. Although she is not a murloc, she is capable, and her self-healing ability is much stronger than that of ordinary people, but no one has made any comments.

Although the current medical model of the Beasts Pokémon Center is similar to that of a public hospital, it is a purely private hospital. This hospital runs from top to bottom, whether it is personnel recruitment, medical equipment, or drug resources, all of which are handled by Beasts. make arrangements for.

This naturally includes their salary. Now that there is an order above, they naturally have to follow it. Even if the medical staff below is very tight, this part of the staff still only needs to be responsible for these few people.

"But what about Yamato and her?"

Yamato's place was always empty. The three of them went to check together, but the two of them had already returned, but Yamato still didn't come back.

Although Yamato fought the most fiercely in the previous battle, because of her constitution, she actually suffered the least injuries. The constitution of a super real rookie is no joke.

It stands to reason that she should have returned long ago.

"Miss Yamato has some other inspections to do, and she will be back soon. The two of you will do the last inspection first, and today's affairs can be over."

said that she took out two questionnaires, different from other doctors, this is a professional psychiatrist, the task is to check their combat psychological state.

Jack and Maria looked at each other, and they suddenly felt more tired than fighting.

At the same time, Yamato's thoughts were similar, and her head was a little confused when she looked at the ears of the doll attached to her body and some other wire-like things.

"Is this really the request of the foster father?"

"Of course, a comprehensive physical examination. By the way, Miss Yamato, this is a questionnaire. Please fill it out by the way. There are twelve examinations left."

"How about auspicious eggs?"

"It's fine now, you'll see it after checking."

Under the urging of several doctors, Yamato finished the so-called various examinations with a bewildered face. When she returned to the ward, her face was more tired than the battle.

"I am back."

Lying on the so-called hospital bed, Yamato started to think about life while holding up her own frost milk fairy, and now she began to feel that it is not a good thing to care too much.

And those doctors have also left. The meticulous examination has confirmed that there is no problem with their bodies. Since this is the case, there is no need for them to stay here. After leaving one person on duty, they also joined the treatment activities below.

"Congratulations, the inspection is over, but we still have to stay here for three days."

"Three days?! Too bad. No, great!"

Yamato originally thought this was a very bad thing, but after thinking about it carefully, it meant that he didn't have to face Kaido's training for three days, which was a good thing anyway, so he accepted it.

But instead of resting honestly, she leaned against the window and looked at the bustling crowd below.

"Maria, Jack, what are you talking about?"

"what why?"

"Why do you want to start a fight? You were living a good life before, why don't you just keep going like this?"

She didn't understand why such a meaningless battle was taking place, it was completely unnecessary in her opinion.

"I don't know, but if they want to be enemies, it's just right to defeat them all." Yamato's words made them think for a while, but Jack quickly gave up thinking about this issue.

The enemy must be defeated. Since you choose to be the enemy, the reason is not important.

"I think Jack is right, just knock them down. What are you thinking about?"

The reason was not enough to convince Yamato, but when she wanted to continue arguing, she heard the voice of Ghillie Egg from behind.

"lucky!"

It's almost dawn now, so they haven't slept all night, and they're still lying on the window now, which is an absolute red flag in the eyes of Geely Egg.

Chapter 313 Puppet or Oiran

Although one auspicious egg was shot before, but with the power of Vibrant and the healing of other auspicious eggs, it is basically fine now, except that the color of a piece of the body has become lighter, and there is no visible injury at all.

After a while, the traces will slowly dissipate. At the request of Geely Egg, Yamato lied back on the bed.

As they stopped caring about things outside, a slight sense of exhaustion also appeared in their bodies, and they didn't need to sing, and snoring soon sounded in the ward.

Everything that happened at night in Wano country was seen by the sky island above, and the sky island was just high enough to watch the fireworks below from a new perspective.~~noV~~elusb.cOm

But this time, the fireworks were replaced by explosions and flames, and the burning flower capital and Oden Castle caught the attention of the scholars above.

"What's the matter, has someone invaded here?"

The edge of the sky island Robin asked Sauluo next to him.

"Impossible, there are not many forces that can do this now, and our traces have not been exposed, otherwise an accident would have happened long ago, and since this is the case, it is impossible to be a member of the world government or the navy.

And the pirates. The pirate group capable of attacking the base of the beasts is nothing more than Whitebeard and BIG·MOM, but the trading relationship between BIG·MOM and the beasts is still good, and Whitebeard will not take the initiative to do such a thing, this Time..I'm afraid it's civil unrest. "

According to Sauluo's understanding of the situation in the sea, the position of the Beast Pirates in the new world has basically stabilized. Although the establishment of the Beasts Pirates did not take a day or two, among many big pirates, Kaido is the youngest. that one.

Coupled with his network of connections, no one should attack this place. The only way to exclude foreign enemies is civil strife, and this scale is probably not the civil strife of the Pirates, but the contradiction between the occupied country and the beasts.

"Don't worry about Robin, your friends will be fine, these people can't deal with the beasts."

It seemed that Robin was worried about the situation below, and Sauluo comforted Robin. Most of the countries and islands in the New World rely on other pirate groups to ensure their safety.

In addition to the giant country, there are very few that can rely on their own national strength to ensure national security.

"But this is also... witnessing history."

The existence of the empty island is somewhat isolated from the world. When the Millennium Dragon Squad left here, they have no way to go down.

In Wano Country, Kaido looked at the thing in front of him with a rare expression similar to Yamato.

"Are you serious?"

"Nonsense, no injury at all? You are the savior of civil strife. Although it is a pity, according to the news announced to the public, Kozuki Oden can't die in your hands."

Quin is casting a cast on Kaido as ordered by Arceus. Yesterday he had a good time, but today is different.

"That guy is a good opponent. It's Joey Boy, who is full of brains. He seems to have followed Roger to Ralph. I don't know what it is there."

"You will know in the future, after all, we know the location of the text of the three road signs, and it's just the last piece, but now you can honestly play the last play for me, don't you like listening to plays? Come on yourself today. It's done."

"Trouble"

At the same time, Kikunocheng and Denjiro were in a room puzzled over the behavior of the beasts.

They were not tortured when they were caught before, but were locked in a room.

After all, the cauldron of the chaos in Wano has been thrown to the black charcoal snake, and the Kozuki family is now the victim. As a victim, it is too strange that only Kozuki and one person are left, so these few people are left. became a special kind of evidence.

Olga can choose to use illusions instead of these, but then she will be bound in Wano country, and it will be easier to support a puppet. Although Kozuki and now are only six years old, they don't understand anything, but the beasts want what they want. Such a person who doesn't know anything.

As a puppet, knowing too much is a trouble. Judging from the fact that she has spent 20 years collecting more information than Robin can collect in one night, she is very suitable for this position.

Moreover, Guangyuerihe has another advantage of being alive. It is impossible for everyone to obey the future rule of the beasts. There will always be some loyal people of the Guangyue family, and Guangyuerihe can lead these people out and make them completely Got wiped out.

Not long after Denjiro and Kikunocheng were detained, the injured Kawamatsu was thrown in too.

"Kawamatsu?! Why are you here! Where's Princess Hiwa?!"

"Xiaosheng. Xiaosheng was caught, and Princess Hiwa also"

Denjiro's question is just a slight possibility, and even Kawamatsu was caught, so the probability of Hiyori being able to escape is naturally slim.

After dawn, the door was opened, and the "injured" Kaido appeared here, along with a jar.

"This is the ashes of Kozuki Oden. At yesterday's banquet he was poisoned by a big snake and went into a state of madness, and finally died of exhaustion. It's a pity."

"What are you kidding Kaido! Yesterday you said that you killed Oden-sama yourself!" Hearing the reason given by Kaido, Kikunocheng couldn't believe this sentence at all.

"That's not me. There is a woman next to the big snake called Heitan Muchan. She is the one who can imitate the fruit. She deceived you by becoming me."

"Stop joking! It's okay for you to deceive ordinary people for this reason. We saw what happened last night, you can't deceive us! If you want to kill, just kill, we will never surrender."

"Mumhaha, Lord Arceus guessed right, you really have this virtue, but from now on, this reason is the truth of last night, unless you want your Miss Hiwa to be the top card of the tour."

As soon as these words came out, the three people's bodies were all stunned. At this time, Guangyueri and He fell into the hands of the beasts. Even Guangyue Yutian and Asura boy died in battle, even if there were no people who were far weaker than them. The hostages wouldn't be Kaido's opponent either.

"What on earth are you going to do!"

"What to do? The black charcoal Orochi intends to subvert the country. Big Brother Kai discovered the conspiracy of the big snake and foiled his conspiracy. Next, in order to maintain the rule of Wano, Big Brother Kai will let Kozuki and the successor of the general. Location.

And the black charcoal snake poisoned all the daimyo yesterday, and the two consecutive incidents of the black tan family have shown that the daimyo is not reliable. King Huguo Ming, what do the three think? "

Then Quinn showed a sinister smile and continued: "Of course, if you don't like this, you can also let her be the top card of Youkuo, Mumhaha"

Today's two shifts, and the country of Wano ends and clears up the brain..

Chapter 314 "Fool" Quinn

In the future, the people of Wano will gradually discover that the Kozuki family is just a mascot, and they are all the same without them.

But the missing generals, are there any mascots that look the same? The brand-new Wano Kingdom, the Wano Kingdom trilogy that has been decided now, has still reached the second step.

There are not many members of the Kozuki family who became generals at a young age. Kozuki Sukiyaki is an example. After he was born, the general of Wano country died after a period of time, and he became a general before he was ignorant. General of the country.

But at that time, he at least knew some things, and the daimyo at that time also sincerely assisted the Kozuki family, so Kozuki Sukiyaki could successfully take over the power when he was an adult.

But it is different now. The six-year-old Guangyueri knows very few things, and the beasts are not those who are loyal to the country of Wano. A child of this age is a general. It seems to maintain the rule of Guangyue, but it is clearly a puppet.

"You are bullshitting! That's not the truth at all!"

"The truth is in the hands of the winner, and it doesn't matter whether you believe it or not, the ordinary people of Wano country believe it, we believe it, then this matter is true, and this matter is not discussed with you, It's just notifying you guys."

They had no choice. At this time, they were just fish on the chopping board, and they were still dead fish.

"Don't think that we only have this method, it's just the simplest of the various schemes, and it can achieve our goal with the least cost and effort. What you do will determine the treatment of your little princess.

Whether you want to live without food or serve others, then it all depends on the three of you, Mumhaha! "

The reason why Quinn told Kaido about these things is because his image fits better here, and it can be said that there is no person who is more suitable for this villain than him.

In an instant, the pressure fell on Kiku no Cheng, Kawamatsu and Denjiro.

In the case of Kozuki Oden's death, Kozuki Momonosuke going to the future, and Kozuki Shishi leaving a prophecy and declaring her disappearance, the safety of Kozuki Hiyaka is the responsibility of their retainers who stay in Wano.

"What do you want us to do?"

"You are still loyal to your Princess Hiwa and protect her safety, but if there are any rumors that should not appear, then you understand." novelusb.com

"We are going to see the Princess Ri and Princess."

"No, you can't see her now. You are only eligible to see her when the general takes the throne. But now, you have to kneel down and be loyal to the future Lord Ming."

Saying that Quinn gave up Kaido's position, waiting for the three people's reply, loyalty to Wano country is a very important thing, although now it is just words, but they have never been to Kozuki Oden before. of people said this.

Now, on the premise that Guangyuerihe is the proton, they began to give in for the first time. He Song was the first to kneel. He thought that he had failed to protect Guangyueri and let her fall into the hands of the beasts. .

At this time, he had completely given up his dignity, and then Denjiro and Kikunocheng, they also made the same action one after another, and there was a huge shutter sound on the side.

Behind the screen next to the two pirates were carrying a huge camera, and a lot of smoke appeared here. It took Quinn a lot of effort to find such an old-fashioned camera, and finally found it from the outer islands. Such an old guy.

"Very good, the historic scene is recorded like this, your expressions are really funny now."

The reason why made a big move was to observe this expression, at least now his purpose has been achieved.

"asshole."

Looking at Quinn's snarling appearance, the three people below gritted their teeth, but they could only endure it because of Koyuerihe's problem.

"That's really the ashes of Kozuki Oden. That guy is a good opponent. Before his burial, you should keep him alive."

After saying this, Kaido left here. After the purpose of coming here was achieved, he would naturally leave. Quinn also planned to leave here, but before leaving, he looked at the tearful Kikunocheng and felt that this "girl" "It seems very unusual.

So he pinched Kiku no Cheng's face a few times, and said a few words of flowers before he left here. He was a frequent visitor to Yukor in these years in Wano country, and he spent a lot of money in that place.

"Wait, Brother Kai, please slow down, we still have things to do. According to your next itinerary, you have to personally clean up the remnants of the defeated army in the country. After all, King Huguo Ming has to do something. ."

"I know, it's better to have some interesting opponents among these people, but Quinn, is your kid actually good at that?"

"Ah? What are you talking about, Brother Kai?"

"He means, that guy is a man, stupid Quinn."

The Ammonite on Quinn's back crawled out little by little. As the key eavesdropper, the Ammonite will not leave people for too long, and it is much more autonomous than ordinary phone bugs.

"man?"

"It's the human being you flirted with. The pheromone emanating from his body is completely the type of a man. It's just you, an idiot, who admits his mistake."

There are many people in the Hundred Beast Pirates who make Quinn difficult to deal with, but the one that makes him most helpless is the ammonite beast, because of the importance of eavesdropping on intelligence, it is also a master level among the phone bugs.

And because of the underworld schedule and time difference of the agents of the World Government, their contact time is often the night of Wano Kingdom, Quinn is often out of state, and is influenced by Shaina and Jhin. Because of the extra name.

Compared with idiots and trash, Ammonite is even polite to him. In the past, he would quarrel with Ammonite, but not this time. The fact that Juzhicheng is a man seems to have caused a lot of shock to him. .

It doesn't matter if a man disguise himself as a woman, he just molested a man disguised as a woman looked at his manipulator, he thought it was time to upgrade, he should also learn from Yamato and get a brother like 2.0.

At the same time, Hiyori Kozuki also woke up. She had been stunned by the thick smoke from the burning of Oden Castle, and followed Kawamatsu on the waterway, so she had been in a drowsy state and had just woken up at this time.

There were some noisy voices in her ears, which seemed to be shouting that Rihe-sama had woken up, but when she opened her eyes, there was Jhin wearing a pure black mask, which made her almost startled again. Fainted

Chapter 315 Your father died, your mother doesn't want you anymore, your brother ran away

This is a room near the Palace of Flower Capital. The previous war had destroyed the palace. Although it was not burned to ashes, it is now in a state of dilapidation. NovelUsB.COM

And those who take care of Hiyori are not the people of the Beast Pirates, but the waiters who have been in the Palace of Flower City since the beginning.

These people serve the daimyo of Wano country from generation to generation. At first, they obeyed the orders of Kozuki Sukiyaki. Later, after the black charcoal Orochi took the position of the acting general, Orochi's orders can also command them.

These people have no idea what happened last night. To be precise, these people can survive thanks to Zeraora. He didn't participate in the melee, but he was a firefighter.

Including getting this part of the people out of the burning palace, and they are more convinced of the reasons given by the beasts, because what they said about the past of the black charcoal serpent is true.

For example, the death of Sukiyaki, and the black charcoal Muchan is a sorcerer who can change into other people's appearance, plus the black charcoal snake in the eyes of the chef forcibly canceled the poison test link, which made him more some doubts.

It can be said that with the efforts of Black Charcoal Orochi, he successfully took away most of the suspects, and after Koyukihito was brought back, many people believed in it.

But the beasts didn't trust these people too much, they had to leave a reliable man to watch over here, to be sure that no accident would happen, and Jhin was here to perform this task.

After the war ended last night, they were not idle either, and there were large vacancies in the top managers of Wano Kingdom. Of course, the beasts would use this to almost make these top managers their own.

However, they did not intend to re-establish the daimyo. One puppet in Wano country is enough, and the rest will only be directly governed by the beasts.

"Mom. Where are you?"

The drowsy Guangyueri and instinctively searched for Guangyue, but she did not get the reply of Guangyue as before, instead she had Jhin's cold eyes.

This strange look startled her, and then a scream came out of her mouth. Some people around wanted to get close, but Jin waved to stop it.

"You go to prepare what General Hiwa needs, and Wano needs stability. I will tell her what happened yesterday."

"But."

"This is related to the secret of Oden Castle yesterday, do you want to know?"

Jin's height and clothes have a deterrent effect, and his black holster like a torturer from beginning to end can inherently make people feel fearful.

And his words had some deterrent power. These people who served in the general's palace naturally knew when to be dumb and when to pretend they didn't know anything.

Those who were loyal to Guangyue were liquidated as early as when Orochi took the throne, and the rest were unwilling to work hard for Guangyue, so they naturally left.

Then Jhin's icy voice entered Koyuki Riwa's ears.

"She doesn't want you anymore. Between you and your brother, she chose your brother, not you."

"What are you talking about? Mom wouldn't do that."

"You'll know when you see it."

said that he placed a projection snail in front of Guangyuerihe, and as he took a shot on the snail shell, a projection also appeared on the screen in front of him.

Because of the Rotom monitor, some things that happened in Oden Castle were known to the beasts, including the approximate time of Kozuki Hiyori's coma.

Rotom's surveillance is not only the screen without sound, from where he could clearly hear Koyuki, he didn't have time to wait for the children to wake up and explain to them, but handed it over to the retainers.

Momanosuke might still have a chance, but Kozuki Hiyori was cut off by Elizabeth before she woke up, so she didn't know anything at all.

At this time, Oden Castle was burning in the picture. Kozuki was forced to send one person to a safer future. In the choice of children, she finally chose her son. After leaving, a burning beam fell to block the view.

Zoroark's vision is false, but it is so real that even photographic equipment can deceive it.

This is the clip that Olga made yesterday. As for why only a short clip is made, the open ending has more suspense.

When she doesn't know Koyuki, it's easy to show her fault if she does too much.

As we all know, Wano country does not have PS technology, so the video must be real.

At least now, Koyuki Rika still doesn't understand what's going on, and doesn't even think about why her home is being monitored by the other party, she is already shocked by the content of the monitoring.

"Koyuki Oden died in an accident last night due to the murder of the black charcoal orochi. Kozuki disappeared. Your brother was sent away by your mother. Now you need to take over the position of the general of Wano country."

Jin did not give Guangyueri and thinking time at all, and directly instilled a lot of content into her mind.

Those words are true and false, and there are some false propaganda. In a nutshell, your father died, your mother doesn't want you, your brother ran away, and then you will be a general to revitalize the country of Wano and the like.

Now the job of supervising Kozuki Rihe has been handed over to Jhin, but he has little patience for Kozuki Rihe and strangers like this.

"Don't lie, my father won't die, he said he won't die!"

After Jhin had finished speaking a long series of words, Kozuki Rikazu finally digested the first sentence.

"Unfortunately, he is already dead, and the funeral will be held in three days. Now you, as the last orphan of the Guangyue family, will assume the position of this general."

Then a group of very old people came in. These people were the original ministers of Wano Kingdom. Whether it was Kozuki Sukiyaki or Black Charcoal Orochi, they were in office. It can be seen that these people themselves have no hard bones.

People and retainers will have the idea of ignorance and loyalty, but for these ministers, it doesn't matter who the general is, it's enough to be a minister, and I still want to thank the black charcoal snake. He cleaned up the beasts in a few years. A lot of hard bones.

There are very few Beast Pirates who can handle internal affairs. It is okay to manage a pirate group, but a country is not so easy to govern. If all these people are cleaned up, the Beasts will feel troublesome.

Therefore, the status of those who are willing to surrender is temporarily reserved, and it is planned to slowly cultivate new people to take their place.

If they are obedient, the beasts don't mind using them again. If they have other intentions, it will be different.

In the following time, these elderly ministers began to give light and moon days and inculcate the importance of generals and so on.

And when she believed this, Jin poured a new basin of cold water on her..

Chapter 316 Wano Country's Obituary

1502 is destined to be an impressive year for the people of Wano, because too many things happened in this year, and because it was earlier than the original timeline, this chaos happened just in the new year.

The people in the capital of flowers and Jiuli were directly affected, and many people were injured, but more people didn't know what happened at all.

The next day, an obituary was circulated throughout the Wano country, with a list of the people killed in the entire Wano country last night.

"How...how could it be! What the * happened yesterday!"

The big melee in the Flower City couldn't take care of everyone, especially in the big melee that was generated with Yamato as the focus, whether it was samurai or pirates, they didn't consider the surrounding environment.

Arresting and saving people is their only idea. They don't know how many buildings were destroyed. Although Mr. Kojiro rescued them afterwards, there were still a lot of casualties.

There are a lot of people in the villages of Wano who are close to each other, and there are many relatives in that list.

Of course, there is a more critical issue, the names of the famous names such as Kozuki Oden and Shuangyue Niumaru also appeared on it.

"Oda-sama he"

"Master Yasushi, Master Ushimaru! What the * is going on here?!"

"What? Oda-sama passed away?!"

The scene was in a panic, and many people rushed forward under the crowd. They didn't believe this kind of thing, and some people grabbed the people around them and asked questions because they were illiterate.

The literacy rate in Wano country is not high, and the lower class in the closed country has long been fixed. Kinemon, Ashura Doji and other gangsters were mostly illiterate before they became the retainers of Kozuki Oden, and only a small part of them could be educated.

They couldn't understand what was written on the obituary.

"Silence! Silence!"

The people standing at the obituary beat the large gong, quieting the scene in this traditional way.

"What the * is going on, you say it!"

"Yeah, how could the daimyo have an accident on the same day! They are all powerful samurai!"

"Everyone said silence, otherwise how would I explain it to you!"

Similar situations occurred in various townships of Wano country. The huge curtain was opened, and the image snails were ready. According to the development of the original timeline, the execution of the Shuangyue Yasushi family was spread to the whole country in this way. Now they can naturally do the same.

The content of this live broadcast is not about executions, but the records of last night's banquet and some interview clips.

For example, an interview with the chef of the Palace of Flowers at that time.

"The black charcoal snake didn't let us test the poison, and then directly took the food out."

"I saw Orochi set up ambushes around the Flower Capital."

These are the "testimonies" from the survivors in the Palace of Flower Capital, followed by the records of the banquet. The grand scene is naturally a fake banquet scene created by Olga, and the person who created this special effect scene is on vacation.

Creating a fantasy world also requires physical strength, and creating such a realistic big scene is quite exhausting for her, so she went to the beach in Jiuli on her own to take a vacation.

No one cares about her at this time, and she is now happily sunbathing with Elizabeth.

"You have also seen that these are the conspiracies of the black charcoal snake! A few years ago, he secretly killed Mr. Koyue Sukiyaki! Then the magician around him pretended to be Mr. Sukiyaki and let him take over. The position of the general!"

After that, it was still Orochi. He pretended to be Mr. Kaido, causing conflicts between the daimyo and him. He also arranged poison in advance to destroy everyone in one fell swoop, and finally pulled Wano Country into hell! "

Although these people are from the country of Wano, they are the ones that Kojiro recruited at first, so what they said was explained in advance, and there were still a lot of "trust" in the crowd.

Now these "toes" are talking about Kaido cleaning up the rout yesterday and stuff like that, and there are some people who are really saying good things about the beasts, such as the farm dwellers who are under the cover of Pokémon from the mob.

Those whose relatives are receiving treatment at the Pokémon Center, etc., and finally, under the deliberate guidance, the black charcoal serpent became the root of all evil.

Even the matter of his grandfather's rebellion, which was downplayed at the beginning, was picked up again, so that in Wano, the surname of Heitan became a sin.

The black charcoal screaming and beating that the Black Charcoal Orochi experienced at the time almost reappeared.

But things are not over yet.

"Although a lot of unfortunate things have happened, there is still good news! Oden-sama's orphan, Kozukihi and his-sama are still alive! She has just been rescued, and under the protection of Mr. Kaido, she will be in a few days. The position of the successor general!"

The general who was taken away by the black charcoal snake will return to the light and the moon again! "

There were still a lot of dissenting voices below, but when this sentence was shouted, those dissenting voices disappeared in an instant, replaced by cheers.

Hundreds of years after the closure of the country gave birth to this deformed cultural trend in the country of Wano. If you want to directly eliminate the Guangyue family, you must rebel everywhere. It is easy to suppress the rebellion by force, but it means an unstable rear, and the beasts will waste more. A lot of troops are guarding here.

This is different from their purpose. A puppet can solve this kind of problem. After time passes, the new generation of Wano residents will change this situation.

"Okay everyone, there is one more thing to do now! Last night, some people took advantage of the chaos to start a riot! Jiuli, Baiwu, Huazhidu, Ximei, Rabbit Bowl, except for Linghou, this riot has spread to five regions!

Many people have been harmed by this, and now those leaders have been caught, and now they will all be executed! "

The main culprit was put on the black charcoal snake, and a group of rioters were executed. In this way, the beasts transferred the contradiction and picked themselves out of it.

But not everyone believed this, the remaining Oda retainers had to accept it, and the remaining one who knew the details a little bit, because of Kojiro's sake, he didn't wade into the muddy waters of Binggoro.

"Little soldier, what's wrong?"

Looking at Binggoro, who was slightly out of his mind, his wife asked in confusion.

"nothing."

Although Hundred Beasts also explained the reason for Oden dancing, he was deceived by the black charcoal snake and mistakenly took ordinary people who worked for Hundred Beasts as hostages held by Hundred Beasts.

It's not surprising for Oden to do such a thing, but he knows another thing, the black charcoal serpent does not have the ability to kill the generals and the daimyo. There are nine truths and one falsehood in the words of the beasts. This is definitely not the case. Simple.

But he didn't stand up because he saw those "real" images, and some people in Wano country did live better because of Kaido's arrival

Chapter 317 The Little Fist Stone and the Pangyan Monster

He couldn't figure out what happened, so he chose to be silent and watch all this happen.

There is another reason for him to do this, that is, he thinks too much himself, he thinks that Oden's sudden alienation from him in the later period is a hint to him, meaning that if something really happens, he should not do anything.

Originally, he didn't know why Kozuki Oden suddenly ignored him at that time, even if his wife invited him personally, he would not come to the house as a guest.

Now that seems to make sense.

The funeral of Kozuki Oden and the daimyos was after the general's inauguration ceremony, and now he chose to go to condolence to each other alone.

A lot of things had to be prepared, and these were handed over to those in Wano, and Kojiro was also involved. After the night, his status changed dramatically again.

Although there are not many people, his family can now be said to be the top giant in Wano country.

On the other side, Kaido has committed his own old problems, and his collection addiction has flared up.

General and Daimyo were inconvenient to receive their subordinates for various reasons, but others were different.

At this time, a group of rioting prisoners and pirates in the Rabbit Bowl quarry were executed, and the rest were recruited by Kaido.

"I will now give you a chance to join Lao Tzu's command, so that you can eliminate your guilt last night, but only for the samurai."

Now his vision has also become higher, there are miscellaneous soldiers everywhere, those gangsters who are not on the stage are not worth his recruitment, but the samurai who fought back and forth with his subordinates aroused his interest.

However, most of the samurai resisted this, and they ended up staying here and became a new mining team, and the one who surrendered the fastest was Orochi's Yuting Fanzhong.

These special ninjas also made Kaido a little interested, so they gave them a chance. In the battle last night, Fu Lu Shou, Dai Hei, Hanzo, and Hell Benten all died.

The remaining seven chose to surrender almost without thinking. They did the same after Orochi became the general. Kaido didn't need such a person, but this Yuting Fanzhong was going to throw it to Koyueri and Do. For the scene team.

It happened that these so-called ninjas were still quite famous in Wano Country, so he made use of them.

After Kaido left here, the younger brother beside Baba Nuki came up.

"Brother Babanuki, why didn't you tell the Governor about that just now?"

"You new here?"

Babanuki didn't answer, but looked at the pirate with a little hesitation.

"Ah, I joined Hundred Beasts two years ago, and I was transferred to Wano Country from Waihai this year."

"No wonder you don't know anything. It's useless to talk to Governor Kaido about this kind of thing. Just wait for Arceus-sama's arrangement."

The question he raised was very simple. He found that these miners could not be overeaten. These people would look for trouble when they were full, but the mining efficiency would be affected if they were not full.

The turmoil last night made Babanuki fall into an endless loop. He couldn't figure out how to deal with this problem, so he sent the problem up, so Arceus came here shortly after Kaido left.

The team that had assembled to welcome Kaido in the mining field hadn't disbanded yet, and they had assembled again immediately.

"Master Arceus, why did you come in person."

"To solve the problem you said, stop by the child."

As soon as the voice fell, some gravel on the ground was shaken again. Boscotola, who was comparable to a pacifist, ran directly over, and there were some iron filings in the corner of his mouth. It seemed that it was eating just now.

Seeing that big steel man was as gentle as a pet in front of Arceus, the expressions of some prisoners changed. They had seen how terrifying Boscodora was going mad before.

It seemed that it had hammered a huge raw ore for training. Pirates have long been surprised by this. After all, when it was still Kodola, it often used the method of hitting the mountain with its head to practice.

There are also a few small fist stones at the feet of Boss Cordola. These rock-type Pokémon with a more violent personality have shown their gentleness to the extreme in front of Arceus.

"Really, I see, you are doing well, you will have many new companions today."

Arceus replied to Pokémon's words, and upon hearing what he said, Boscodora immediately moved a large ore of Hailou stone, and the little fist stones were also looking forward to it.

Under the transformation of the power of rock and slate, this sea floor stone ore has also undergone tremendous changes

Under this power, the ore began to disintegrate and reorganize, and a Pokémon with a rock body like the Little Fist Stone appeared here.

But it is not a ball, but a Pokémon with a body and limbs, and its body is covered with many colored crystals with sharp edges and corners.

High Voltage Pokémon-Pangyan Monster

The main body of the Pangyan monster is composed of a rock that is similar to a cone, with a different-colored crystalline stone in the center of the chest and the back.

The head of the Pangyan monster has a crystalline stone that runs from the top of the head to the eyebrows to the chin, and there are also crystalline stones on the left and right sides of the chin and head.

The triangular rocks make up his limbs, and the front ends of these rocks have two sharp crystalline stones that make up his claws.

Gray-black strips connect its body and limbs. The spar on the body of the ordinary Pangyan monster is orange, but the color of the spar of this Pangyan monster is the same as the pattern on the small fist stone. dark blue.

The function of these crystals is to absorb the sun's rays, and after reacting in the energy core, they are emitted from the mouth as light balls, which is the main attack method of the Pangyan monster.

If in the world of Pokémon, these guys often bury themselves underground, only revealing the crystals of their heads, although the color has changed now, the dark blue is actually better at absorbing light.

The power of the energy bullets fired by the Pangyan monster is huge, and it has an extra self-propelled gun in the equivalent of a mine.

The disadvantage of is that it cannot be shot at night and in rainy days, and can only be shot in sunny days.

And Pangyan monsters have always been the favorite Pokémon of mine workers. Their power and characteristics have always been good at mining, and they are very useful for digging holes or breaking rocks.

Arceus is here to create a giant rock monster this time, which can not only increase the mining power of the mine, but also increase the guarding ability of the mine.

However, when it appeared, the small fist stones seemed to be agitated, and they surrounded it shortly after it appeared. This is because the small fist stones and Boscordora are both males, and this Pangyan monster is different. is female.

Arceus is just a random gender and doesn't care about other things, but the small fist stone and the Pangyan monster belong to the mineral group egg group, these small fist stones who have never seen a female seem to have a spring heart

Chapter 318 The Airborne Leader Frog of Yuting Fanzhong

The Pangyan monster kicked the small fist stone to the side. It had no interest in these round stones. After the creation of Arceus, he also left here. The Pangyan monster looked at the sun in the sky and chose it directly in the mine. an open place.

The Rabbit Bowl Quarry is not composed of sea floor stones everywhere, but because a large number of sea floor stones breed in the ore veins below, the surface here is full of rocks, and the hardness is much higher than ordinary rocks.

However, the crystals on the claws of the Pangyan Monster easily tore the ground under his feet, and then he dug a hole suitable for him and buried himself in it.

And everything in Wano did not stop because of these. As the detained Yuting Fanzhong surrendered again, the general's exclusive * also appeared again, but this time the leader of the Yuting Fanzhong had been replaced by another one. people.

It's not Jhin or a certain cadre, but a real "ninja", or a Koga-style ninja. In more detail, it should be called a ninja frog.

The three royal families in the Carlos area - Koga Ninja frog.

The second Pokémon to be created with full language ability since Zeraora.

The overall image is a blue human-shaped frog. Its elegant shape is slightly handsome, but it should be ignored. The scarf around its neck is not its own scarf, but its tongue.

Otherwise it will feel a little awkward.

"Master."

The Koga Ninja Frog that appeared familiarized himself with his body and knelt in front of Arceus. After slightly adjusting his body, the Koga Ninja Frog was also two meters tall, which made his figure more slender.

"Master? Why does he call you that?"

Looking at the Koga Ninja's name for Arceus, Kaido felt a little strange. Although the level of respect is the same, the previous Zeraora was either the master or the master. When he arrived at the Koga Ninja, Kaido felt a little bit. strangeness.

"It's nothing, he's different from Zeraora, he spends most of his time in Wano to deal with some things, so in this respect he follows the customs of the country. What about the people from the Royal Court? Let them meet their new leader. ."

At this moment, the Yuting Fanzhong who chose to surrender are also discussing a question, that is, who will be the new commander of the Royal Court Fanzhong in the future. In the past, the commander of the Royal Court Fanzhong has always been Fu Lu Shou.

Fu Lu Shou is much stronger than them both in the general's trust and in his own strength.

Compared with their various props disguised as ninjutsu, Fu Lu Shou still has some real skills, but now that Fu Lu Shou is dead, this position is naturally vacant.

In fact, they also have injuries on their bodies, but they are luckier than others.

Hell Benten and Daikuro died in the group fight of the small fist stone because of the direct attack. The small-caliber submachine gun and the poisonous smoke configured by the ninja themselves could not even scrape the small fist stone.

And Hanzo was attacked by Boscodora who died in rage.

At that time, he was unlocking some prisoners, and Boscodora took him as the person who unlocked the lock for the one who drilled the fruit, so he suffered misfortune, which attracted Boscodora's anger. NovELusB.COM

They didn't understand how to cut steel, and Nabosch had nothing to do with it.

They have all chosen to surrender, so naturally they don't care about other people's opinions, and whether they can get better treatment is what they value.

There is no doubt that the leader will be able to obtain more things. The Hundred Beast Pirates did not recruit them again, but directly recruited them, which made some people have some ambitions. of women are debating the issue.

But before they could get any results, the airborne leader just came.

Although the image is a little weird, it's not weird.

However, such people have a high proportion in the Beast Pirates. Because there are fur tribes like Zeraora, animals like Elizabeth in the cadre, and Shaina's face in the state of human beings and beasts, plus The overall culture of the Beast Pirates.

Beasts are a mainstream in the Beasts Pirates. Many ordinary pirates will wear masks of beasts or decorations such as horns and teeth. This kind of clothing is gradually becoming the mainstream of the Beasts Pirates. The people in the courtroom are also used to such scenes.

What to do in the face of an airborne leader, of course, is to accept it humbly. These people are surrendering people, and there is no right to choose in this regard, but it is inevitable that some people will be upset.

"Whoever refuses to accept us can give it a try. The one who wins is the new leader of Yuting Fanzhong."

As an airborne leader, Koga Ninja wants to stand out. Killing chickens and monkeys is always a good choice at this time. Yesterday, the Beast Pirates directly executed the leaders of the riots for this reason.

It's just that Koga Ninja underestimated the patience of these ninjas. In terms of ninja, they did it. In the face of his provocation, no ninja stood up and directly obeyed his arrangements.

This was completely beyond Koga Ninja's expectations. He didn't expect that these ninjas didn't have a single thorn.

And this is also caused by the national conditions of Wano. The Gotei Fans are the general's guard. In the history of Wano, only the Black Tan family tried to usurp the throne, but it was only after the general's death that he planned to do so.

No one had ever taken the initiative to murder the general before the Black Charcoal Orochi, so the guards of honor of these Royal Court Fans themselves were more in nature, and their actual combat experience was less and less.

And the purpose of these people is to only protect the general, but no matter who the general is. It is this logic that allows them to experience the Guangyue Sukiyaki, the black charcoal snake in the general, and then the current Guangyueri and the three generations are still maintained. own location.

When no leader was appointed, they competed for power, and in the face of a higher threat of force, they simply gave up their resistance.

So Arceus just used them as a guard of honor to maintain the status of the nominal generals of Wano Kingdom. In fact, these people have no rights at all.

However, Koga Ninja's plan was successfully carried out. Although these members of the Royal Court Fanzhong did not resist, there were still people who wanted to compete for the position of the leader.

The day before the shogun's succession ceremony, a woman came back here as a member of the Gotebanzohara.

Xiao Ren, a superman with the ability to ripen fruit, was originally a member of the Yuting Fanzhong who served the Guangyue family. After the Black Charcoal Orochi usurped the throne, the Yuting Fanzhong defected her from the Yuting Fanzhong.

It can be said that this is the only person in the Royal Court who is truly loyal to the Kozuki family, and she came back here again because she saw the news about Komatsuri and her succession, so she came back here again.

Chapter 319

According to the development of the original timeline, the black charcoal orochi threatened Oden with a hostage, and the little Shinobi happened to be lurking in the general's residence that day, so he became the only one who knew the truth.

And now a lot of things have changed dramatically. For example, Xiao Ren is also ignorant of what happened that day. On New Year's Day, Xiao Ren and his brother Shinsuke spent time in Linghou, and what they saw the next day was the obituary.

The generals' mansions in Oden Castle and the capital of flowers have been in ruins. She came back here simply because she saw the news of Guangyueri and her plans to become generals. She thought that those Yuting Fanzhong were no longer worthy of protecting the generals, so she came back here. back here.

And this is also the purpose of the beasts. Instead of keeping those loyal to Guangyue hidden in the dark, it is better to use Guangyue Rihe as the bait to catch them all. Now the first fish to bite the hook has appeared.

She and the original Yuting Fan members had already quarreled, but she felt something was wrong looking at the hurting appearance of these Yuting Fan members.

"What happened to your injuries? What the * happened that night?"

Whether it was Chiyodome or Thunder Blade, no one answered her question. These grasshoppers just want to live a good life, so that they won't offend the beasts because of a small forbearance that has long been deadlocked.

Don't say they don't know all the details, they don't even want to say what they know, they don't want to be sent back to the mining farm to mine under the watch of those monsters.

Even Chiyodome provoked her a few words and asked her to challenge Koga Ninja.

"Hey, Chiyoko, is it necessary?"

"Who made her so lofty? Our path was different a few years ago. Since she is not convinced, let her hit the nail on her own.

Otherwise, the one who will always look for opportunities to stand out, and doesn't want to be the chicken that gets killed, just be a monkey watching a play.

Besides, what can he know, let Xiaoren try it himself. " didn't even provoke anything, she just told Xiaonin that the Koga Ninja frog was the leader of the Yuting Fanzhong who had been airborne by the beasts, and said that if he won, he would get the leader's position.

Orc-type Pokémon such as Koga Ninja, Thousand-faced Servant, and Zeraora, as long as they are given complete language ability, it is difficult for ordinary people to distinguish whether they are capable or not.

Koga Ninja is just a strange sorcerer to them.

Jiahe Ninja did not refuse this challenge. He also needed such an opportunity to show his skills. Although he had not yet had enough actual combat experience when he was born, it was enough for the competition.

"What are you trying to do."

Xiao Ren, who was dressed in pink, asked Jiahe Ren frog, before she became a fat middle-aged woman, Xiao Ren was indeed a "beautiful" female ninja, "charming ninja" and "men's nemesis" were all hers title.

In the group of crooked melons and jujubes of Yuting Fanzhong, the strength of Xiao Ninja is also relatively strong. Of course, these are useless to the Koga Ninja frog, and it is basically impossible for humans to charm frogs.

"The Yuting Fanzhong is a ninja army, so we should be better than some simple ones. Since you claim to be a ninja, you should know the three-body technique."

The source of Koga Ninja Frog's knowledge is Arceus, so about ninjas, he began to say some things that Xiao Ninja couldn't understand.

"Three-three-body technique?"

"Substitute, doppelganger, instant body, don't you call yourself a ninja even this?" Koga Ninja showed some kind of avatar technique - referring to the avatar created by the avatar.

Clone Technique - To be precise, it is a multiple shadow clone technique, and the shadow clone leaves multiple phantoms directly.

Blinking Technique - With a flash of electric light, he almost appeared behind Xiaonin in a teleportation posture, and his fingers swiped directly across her neck.

"By the way, I forgot to mention that the Yuting Fanzhong I lead is different from the previous Yuting Fanzhong. It's not that you come and leave whenever you want. If you are betrayal again, I will make you understand your betrayal. price."

said that he condensed a water shuriken in his hand. Many water-type Pokémon have a special use of water, such as the high-speed sniper bullet of Qianmen evasion, and the Koga Ninja is a water shuriken.

Since the Koga Ninja was parachuted into the leader of the Yuting Fanzhong, the original gathering place of the Yuting Fanzhong has become his territory. There are many targets for ninja practice, but they are just wood wrapped in straw. man pile.

Usually the shuriken they throw out are embedded at most, while the water shuriken of Koga Ninja directly cut off several straw stakes and disappeared in the sky.

"Three Body Technique" and Shuriken have ended this so-called challenge. Although the ninja system of Wano country is different from that of Koga Ninja, the clone and shuriken still exist as the basis. This has explained Koga Shinobi. Frogs are far beyond their strength.

However, she still chose to return to Yuting Fanzhong because of the Kozuki family.

Guangyueri and the day of his succession will soon come, the collapsed palace has not been repaired yet, but those old officials have been telling Guangyueri and the so-called etiquette these days.

Kozuki Oden didn't listen to them when he was young, and they didn't even dare to give their opinions after the black charcoal orochi usurped the throne. Now a young general has appeared, and these people finally have their own place to play.

Under their indoctrination, Guang Yueri and his mind were all about what the general should do, what the general should do and so on.

Originally, all the generals and daimyo families should appear at the ceremony, but now those places are empty, only some nominal nobles, such as Kojiro.

and the former retainers of Kozuki Oden, seeing Kozuki Ri and safe is their greatest joy at this time.

This ceremony is actually a burden to Kozuki Rika. The clothes on her body add up to 30 kilograms. This is still the result of the reduced size. Just wearing the hat makes her neck sore.

Under the witness of the live broadcast, the citizens of Wano Kingdom witnessed that Kozuki Riwa became a new general. At the same time, on this day, a new official position appeared in Wano Kingdom, which was called the general imperial hang.

In the nouns of Wano country, the imperial use is the honorific of "things", which refers to the affairs of the generals, and "hang" means to be engaged in handling.

The official position means full-time handling of the general's affairs, which is equivalent to being a confidential secretary, and the person who holds this official position is Jhin.

In a nutshell, everything that needs to be handled by the general must be handed over to Guangyue Rihe through Jhin. Even if others want to see Guangyue Rihe, Jhin needs to convey this matter.

After finishing the complicated and tiring ceremony, before she could get a rest, Jhin had already found her.

"General Hiwa, there are a lot of things to do next. First of all, the original samurai group will be disbanded. The Shinsengumi will become a new samurai group, and a new ninja force will be formed headed by Yuting Fanzhong. To take on the role of King Protector of the Kingdom"

Chapter 320 The Last General of the Guangyue Family

Jin held a stack of folders in his hand, which was the future development policy that Arceus and Asie and the others discussed when Wano Country was preparing for the light and moon day and the inauguration ceremony.

The priority of development is still force. In addition to the greatest force deterrence of the Beast Pirates, Arceus began to attack the local force of Wano.

The previous Miku group was the samurai troop under the command of Orochi, and it was basically destroyed in the battle that night. Now Kaido wants to reorganize a new group as the internal security force of Wano Kingdom.

"The leader of the Shinsengumi group is Kojiro, and at the same time, Koga Ninja's Gotebanzo will also recruit ninja troops.."

Jin told Kozuki Rika about the next arrangement like an announcement, and didn't care about Kozuki Rika's attitude at all.

"and many more!"

After Jhin said a lot, Kozuki Ryuka reacted, and interrupted Jhin's behavior that he wanted to continue talking.

"Um?"

The interrupted Jhin's eyes swept towards Koyue Rihe, who was over six meters tall, and he was no different from a monster who was in his early 100's. His emotionless voice made Kozuki Rihe a little scared.

But the position of the general and the thinking instilled by those people gave her the courage to continue: "I am the general, right I don't think Kojiro is suitable."

Before she could finish speaking, a metallic twisting sound came out, and a silver cup was directly squeezed into a cake by him.

"Yes, you are a general, but you can sit here and become a general, not because you have the intelligence of a general, but because we think you can be a general, so you can be a general."

Jin's attitude was completely different from before. When he was in front of outsiders, he was like a guard, standing beside Guang Yueri He without saying a word, but now, he treats Guang Yue Ri He without any respect, like an ant.

"In other words, you don't need to think, and we don't need your consent, I'm just telling you what to do, and all you have to do is agree with what I say, otherwise it will be difficult for everyone.

Agree is your only option, or I can give you three chances to decline. "

"what?"

Jin's remarks made Kozuki Rikaichi unresponsive, and then the portraits of Denjiro, Kawamatsu, and Kikunocheng were taken out by Jhin.

"You can refuse three times, and every time you refuse, one of the three of them will die because of you. I will do what I say. Do you want to try?"

The situation changed a little bit suddenly. Before, she still wanted to be a general, but Jhin revealed the nature of her puppet to her today.

She is just a transition, let the people of Wano country gradually accept that the Kozuki family is just a transition of the mascot, and it will be banned after a generation or two, so the way of the beasts is also very straightforward.

Arceus didn't think that Guangyuerihe could sincerely join the beasts, and he thought it was impossible to kill the opponent's father and absorb the opponent's daughter, so he simply let Jhin explain everything directly. NOVELUSb.COM

Threatening Kawamatsu and others with Komatsu Hiyori and others, and in turn using Kawamatsu and the others to threaten Komatsuki Hiwa, directly saving a lot of trouble.

"Don't kill them, just do what you want!"

She suddenly lost her family, and now there were only three of her acquaintances left. Facing Jhin's threat, she was very afraid that they would die because of her own words, so she simply chose to compromise.

"That's fine, don't worry, you can have everything a general should have. You are the real general in this palace. You can order those ministers and attendants at will, and it doesn't matter if they are unhappy and killed."

This is a temporary palace, and those ministers are also the waiters in the Palace of Flower Capital, and they are also the people who can command, but only in the palace, this is the effective scope of the words of Guangyue Rihe.

"I will give you face to the outside world. As long as you are obedient, we can get along in harmony. We cannot do without you, and no one can threaten you, but if you are not obedient"

The silver cup that was pinched into a cake turned into a liquid directly.

"Hell and heaven are all up to you, and there are a few more about the future."

"You can decide if you don't. Why do you still tell me?"

"What are you talking about, this is the general's process, and the process that should be followed should still be followed."

On this day, Guangyueri and the general understood that her general was just a puppet. After leaving the palace, her words were not even as effective as a common soldier of the beasts.

Then Wano Country also started recruiting the Shinsengumi, but all these things are done by Kojiro, and he has already gained the trust of the Hundred Beast Pirates.

Kaido's title of "King of Protecting the Kingdom" was also resounding throughout Wano Kingdom under a series of publicity, and under the absolute deterrence of force, many wandering warriors chose to join the new selection group of the beast side, with cloth bags, etc. Led by a famous samurai from the country's elementary school, a large number of people were included and reviewed.

What happened in Wano has nothing to do with Yamato and the others. After three days of forced observation in the hospital, they finally walked out of the VIP ward.

Afterwards, she returned to Onishima surrounded by a group of people, and the moment the Rotom electronic door opened, the hairs on her body stood up.

Intuition made her choose to lie down immediately, and then she noticed a gust of wind on the back of her head. When she raised her head, she happened to see Kaido carrying the Eight Fasts.

"Ugh, did you escape? It's a pity, but it shows that you haven't been slack in your three-day vacation, not bad, not bad."

Looking at Kaido who was laughing at himself, Yamato couldn't seem to laugh.

"What are you doing! Father, are you trying to kill me! If you hit me with that stick, you'll die!"

"Impossible, at most it's just a serious injury."

"Father! You heard that, my father is going to attack me again, help!"

Yu Guang saw Yamato of Arceus scrambling to run over. Although it was very unsightly, it was her cry for help etched in her bones. Kaido's serious words might not be fulfilled, but he said it like a joke. Training really does work.

"Oh giggling. Yamato, your adoptive father can't save you this time. Only I can do the training of the overlord, so you should get ready to go to the kitchen."

There is a fundamental difference between the coercion of Arceus and the tyrannical domineering.

Although the strength of the overlord color is determined by his own aura, how to control it still needs to be trained. Whether it is the control range and power or the entanglement of the overlord color, this training can only be done by Kaido.

Looking at Arceus' affirmative eyes, Yamato seems to have fallen into a new despair, but for the pirates of Onishima, they are very excited now, because after the war, it is time to reward the beasts.
