

Arceus 591

Chapter 591: Darkrai's Aid

Floating white hair, black body, and a red scarf-like object wrapped around his shoulders, it is Darkley, and the black hole is his signature skill.

Arceus created it in the West Sea, and since then it has been walking on the road of searching for the underworld. Although it is the original life created by Arceus, it rarely sets foot on Ghost Island.

Years of searching made Da Kelai confirm one thing. The space of Huangquan is not fixed, but a moving space. Only the entrance is the only passage, but he has never found it.

Each Pokémon created by Arceus has its own unique attributes, from Kira's gluttony and social fear, Tianxi's elegance, Genesect's stylization, Zeraora's reality, Ma Na Fei's innocence, but this Darkrai is a little bit of a fool.

He found this place from the West Sea only because his directionality was slightly confused, but when he passed by here, he noticed the fluctuation that he had been looking for, the unique fluctuation that belonged to the soul space.

Although it is not the same as the one he was looking for, but this kind of similar thing is likely to be of the same origin, so Darkrai came here, and when he came here, he saw an Al Heracross, created by Zeus, is being attacked.

Saving it was just a matter of effort for him. Darkrai couldn't just sit and watch other Pokémon die in front of him, so he opened the black hole and brought the other party to a safe place.

Hello, hello.

Heracross sensed the special aura from Darkley, and while yelling, gestured at the Demon King of Songs, but the Demon King of Songs did not stop his movements.

Looking at Darkley who appeared, the skulls surrounding it immediately spit out several rays of light towards Darkley.

Seeing the enemy's attack, Darkley raised his hands, and a transparent barrier immediately blocked the opponent's attack. Moreover, Darkley's defense was not to protect himself, but to reverse the guarded barrier inside and out, and put the Demon King of Songs shrouded.

Darkrai is a Pokémon with its own group, and there is a big gap in strength within the group.

Arceus almost exhausted the power in the Evil Face Slate when creating this Darkrai, so this Darkrai is a Darkrai who focuses on high-end rounds.

Many abilities can be applied more diversely, and keeping defense in his hands has also become a means of restricting the opponent's attack.

Then a dark breath appeared on Darkley, and then a dark wind blew towards the still roaring Demon King of Songs. It was the strange wind, a skill that Darkley mastered as his level increased.

Under the baptism of this dark wind, even the devil wailed fiercely, waving his arms frantically.

this thing

Seeing the Demon King of Songs who was still making trouble, Darkrai also had a surge of anger in his heart, and his exposed eyes shone with blue light, and then the body of the Demon King of Songs seemed to be frozen, although he was constantly moving. Jittery, but clearly restrained.

That is the petrification skill, that is, the later body fixing method. In the game, its performance is to seal a skill of the opponent, making it unusable for a few rounds, but in the real environment, the petrification skill is more powerful. It can be as powerful as In the literal sense, restrict the opponent's actions.

Although I don't know why, it is a good thing for everyone that the Demon King of Songs stopped, and Shanks also looked at the weird figure floating in the night sky.

Darkrai is a little different from Zeraora. It is very tall. After being created, Darkrai's body size gradually grew during the long journey. Although he usually does not have legs, the figure revealed is also Reached 1.8 meters.

At this time, Tezolo also flew to Darkrai's side.

How long will this control last?

Dakley's identity has long been transmitted to the information database of the cadres. Seeing Dakley's iconic figure, Tezolo naturally recognized him.

Although Darkrai is not very familiar with Tezolo, the ability bestowed by Arceus on him is the most effective identity card. He is the default ally with Darkrai. After thinking about it carefully, he also remembered this person Who exactly.

Can last for a few more minutes, take advantage of this time to solve this weird thing as soon as possible, it is not what I am looking for.

No, this thing is a bit troublesome"

Tezolo explained to Darkrai how to defeat the Demon King of Songs.

Can you help keep it under control for a little longer? Too much damage has been done to this island. Hehe, hehe!

Heracross was also floating beside Darkrai, his cry was full of prayers. I see, is that the human you chose?

On the way to search for the underworld, Darkley is also going on his own journey. He has seen the evil of human beings, and he has also seen the shining points of human nature. If the other party is what he wants, he will help the other party at the right time .

No need to be so troublesome, I have a simpler method, as long as I can attack it in two worlds at the same time, right?

That's it..

Is that redhead one of yours too? No, but we are allies for now.

Very well, then come with me, remember to bring Rotom too.

Saying that, Darkrai lowered his height and came to Shanks.

To make a long story short, I can open the passage to that space, which is not a world that ordinary human bodies can enter. Next, I will go to the dream world inside to launch an attack, and you will cooperate with me outside.

Darkrai then hypnotized Tezolo's Rotom, causing a dream to appear on his screen. I have temporarily connected here, and what is displayed on this screen is the situation inside.

Dreams are one of Darkley's abilities. Although Darkley himself can't control the content of nightmares and can only passively let others enter nightmares, it is still very easy to convey dreams in this way.

You better hurry up, I don't care, but once I enter, the girl will start to be affected by nightmares, and the faster you finish it, the less time she will have in her dreams.

I understand, we will fully cooperate with you.

Shanks thought that Darkley was Tezolo's companion. Since the other party has this ability, then this crisis should be resolved as soon as possible.

As he spoke, Darkley waved his hands, opening a brand new black hole in front of him. Hello!

Don't worry, I will help you. Darkrai's willingness to intervene in this matter is more because of Heracross. For him, Pokémon is more important than humans.

Leaving a guarantee, Darkrai got into the black hole.

As Darkrai disappeared here, the out-of-control Song Demon King also moved again. Little ones! Cooperate fully with that mysterious person and rescue our singer!

Chapter 592: Delicious Demon King, Darkrai's Feast

Tezolo, I will leave the command to you, you can tell the situation inside.

There is only one screen, they can't fight while holding the screen, and Darkrai explained the principle of him and the screen, he temporarily hypnotized Rotom, so that the dreams he saw can be synchronized on it.

Because of the particularity of Gegeguo's space, his activities in that area are equivalent to entering a dream, so the dream can be conveyed.

Well, let's go, Darkrai has already found the Demon King of Songs in that world.

At this time in another dimension, Darkley was floating in front of the other party.

I seem to have misunderstood something, you are not a disgusting disgusting thing, but a delicacy.

There are many entangled resentments in the Demon King of Songs, that is, this resentment will affect the judgment of the host, leading to a darker inner development. In the real world, Darkley did not notice the specialness of this thing, but here It's different.

Here is the soul space formed by the fruit of songs, the space of dreams, that is to say, those resentments here are nightmares, and nightmares are not only passive influences on Darkrai, but perfect food.

Where should I eat first? It's really hard to decide.

Everything in this space is a dream, that is to say, all of these are within the edible scope of dream eaters, but Darkley prefers to eat nightmares, and the malicious collection of the Demon King of Songs becomes the most delicious part.

Forget it, I won't let it go anyway, so I'll just remove the head first.

Two waves of evil condensed out of his hands, and Darkley threw them at the head of the Demon King of Songs. That head was too ugly and seriously affected his appetite. He thought he should beautify it first.

Boom! Boom!

Two waves of evil blasted on the head of the Demon King of Songs, and a howl resounded throughout the space. Darkrai's attack was tearing his soul apart.

Especially at the same time as Darkrai attacked, Tezolo also conveyed the situation here, and Shanks also slashed on the head of the Demon King of Songs outside with a knife full of anger.

It was attacked inside and outside at the same time, and its ability to avoid injuries has been erased.

Looking at the huge scar left on the mask, a look of joy appeared on Shanks' face.

Great, it worked! Tezolo, after that!

Tezolo almost bit his tongue, not because of anything else, but because of Darkley's action, he was indeed attacking the opponent's left arm, but during his attack, the opponent's arm gradually disintegrated and melted, and then It turned into a flash of light and was sucked into Darkley's mouth.

The monster that I can't fight against is like a dessert in the opponent's hand. Looking at Darkley's expression full of enjoyment in the picture, the taste of this thing seems to be very good.

Shanks didn't know what Tezolo saw, but he just attacked the corresponding position according to his request. Under the joint internal and external offensive, the Demon King of Songs no longer had the ability to attack indiscriminately before, and he was trying his best at this time Deal with the enemy in front of you.

Darkley inside is too terrifying, his own attack is ineffective against him, but Darkley's attack can directly tear his soul, so he tries to evade Shanks' attack from the outside, as long as he can avoid a world attack, it can remain invincible.

It was only facing the red-haired pirates who were attacking with all their strength, and its resistance seemed very weak.

Chest! This guy is dying, work harder!

Under the onslaught of several people, the Demon King of Songs retreated steadily, and even felt a sense of fear. This was not the first time he tried to regain his freedom. Although he failed before, he was only sealed again.

But this time is different, Darkley is really trying to kill it.

In the past, it was at most resealed, and when a new singing fruit ability user appeared, the score would look for opportunities again.

If Dakleyi's frustrating behavior continues, there will be no possibility of it being unsealed.
asshole!!!

The Demon King of Songs let out an angry howl, and disappeared out of thin air. It hid back to the place where it sealed itself, so that at least it would not be eaten up.

In the soul space, Darkley watched his snack disappear like this, and seemed to reintegrate into Uta's body. In order not to hurt Uta, he did not continue to do anything, but left this space directly.

In the outside world, Shanks has also caught Uta who fell from the sky. Uta's physical strength is very exhausted, and it seems that he will not be able to wake up for a while.

Dege! Come check it out!

Shanks called his ship doctor, and after getting an answer that there was no serious problem, the hanging heart finally let go.

That's great. But why is Uta's face so ugly?

It must be a nightmare, leave it to me to deal with it. Darkley put his fingers on Uta's forehead, and her tense face gradually eased. Darkley couldn't control the content of the nightmare, but he could eat the nightmare that appeared.

In the sky, a few broken music scores also fell to the ground. It was Tot-Musa who summoned the Demon King of Songs. It was the first time that it became so broken. This was the result of Darkrai.

He has caused irreversible damage to the Demon King of Songs. For a long time in the future, even if Uta sings the forbidden song again, it will not be able to break the seal.

The biggest crisis has been resolved, and new problems are coming one after another. Although the emergence of Tezolo and Darkrai solved the devil in time, Eregia was still irreversibly damaged.

All the towns and cities were destroyed, and the citizens suffered heavy losses. At least half of the people died in the disaster tonight. Facing the destructive power of the Demon King of Songs, this is already the result of trying our best to rescue them.

Compared to the original timeline in which all members of Elegia died except Gordon, this ending is much better, but it is still a tragedy.

Heracross stood beside Uta worriedly, silently waiting for her to wake up, and Shanks also began to worry about what happened next.

Whether he leaves now or stays, Uta will inevitably face this problem when he wakes up. It is impossible to keep such a big matter a secret, but he doesn't want Uta to know what happened here.

She is a kind child. If Uta knows that those citizens died because of the demon king she summoned, she may not be able to escape the condemnation in her heart.

Even if she is also a victim of the score, she can't let go of this incident, he needs a plausible reason to cover up the truth of what happened.

Tezolo, you said that Uta's talent can make him a world-famous singer, right?

Looking at Tezolo and Stella who sent the refugees back here, Shanks seems to have made his own decision.

Chapter 593: redhead diva

Well, as I said, I believe she can do it too, what are you going to do

Qin Zuoluo, although we haven't known you for a long time, we should be considered friends.

Are you this naive guy? But if I have to say it... that's about it.

Tezolo is very sensitive to the word friend. At the beginning, he believed in the friends brought by money, which almost brought him to a dead end. After that, he became very cautious about the word friend.

Since he became the CEO of Beast Fruit, countless people want to be his friend, but none of those people are sincere, even within the Beast Pirates, most of them are just friends with him. Colleague relationship.

Regardless of his identity and background, Yamato was probably his most trusted friend. She had no purpose in helping him. At that time, he was still a pauper who worked every day.

During these days, the way he and Shanks got along was to drink and chat. If the friends he met back then were also this kind of person, then his life might be completely different.

Since we are friends, I will leave Uta to you, and I will leave it to you for the rest of the day.

Wait, what do you mean by that? Our contract is not to sever the relationship between father and daughter. Although you have your own pirate group, as long as you don't enter a hostile state, this kind of thing doesn't matter at all. Boss Kaido doesn't care about this kind of thing.

No, that's not what it means. There must be an explanation for this matter. When Uta wakes up, tell her that we committed the crime of destroying the country, and she was abandoned by us.

It is similar to the original timeline, except that he handed Uta to Gordon at that time, because Shanks in that timeline had no one to help, and there was no way to face the destruction brought by the Demon King of Songs. All of Asia was finally wiped out, and only Gordon survived.

So he gave Uta to Gordon and made Uta live a long time of lies.

But it is different now. Although there are heavy casualties and the country is on the verge of destruction, a large part of the citizens survived. It is inevitable that some of these people will have resentment against Uta, so Uta is not suitable to stay here.

Facing Tezolo, who has a channel, it may be the best choice for Uta to use his talents there.

...Don't you know how much this kid cares about you?

I know, and because I know, I don't want her to know what happened here. If I hate me, I can turn this matter over and let her continue to grow up happily. I don't mind being hated by her for a lifetime.

Stop talking stupid things! She won't be happy like that! You guys don't understand a girl's heart!

Stella, who came to look for Qin Zolo, heard what Shanks said, and immediately refuted him.

Stella, don't say that, I can understand you very well.

Tezolo, who was accidentally injured by Stella's map cannon, made an excuse, but Stella didn't care about it.

is also a woman, and Stella is one of the actors that Uta admires, so they naturally chatted about more things.

This child attaches great importance to the relationship with you. If you leave like this, it is abandonment to her! Compared with the destruction here, that is something she can't accept!

You think you are doing it for her own good, but have you considered her feelings?

I know, she is my raised child, and I know her better than you guys, so she will only hate us, but she will not forgive herself if she knows everything directly.

This child is easy to get into the wrong place. It is better to let her hate me than to make her annoyed all the time.

Shanks lowered his straw hat. As Uta's adoptive father, he cared about Uta no worse than anyone else, but some methods seemed very inappropriate.

It's useless, this matter will get out sooner or later, you can't hide it from her forever.

At least hide it from her for a few years, and wait until she is more mature and can calmly accept the matter before telling her. Your Majesty Gordon, can you please change your tone?

Stella's words made Shanks think more carefully, and at the same time decided to make changes to his plan.

What?

You should be the only one who knows about TotMusa, right?

Um.

This is the secret of King Elegia. If everyone knew that such a monster was sealed underground in their kingdom, they would probably have moved to another place.

Then please tell the people that I, the red-haired Shanks, released this demon.

Everyone, the navy ship is approaching.

Before Shanks finished speaking, new news came from Tanaka. There is also a naval base near Elegia. After making such a big commotion, they naturally came to wash the ground.

These guys always show up at such inopportune times, I mean it seriously, Uta she has a great talent, we'll just waste it by following the wanted ones, so I'm leaving her to you for now, but don't let She's going to be a pirate.

Tezolo, this is nothing but a friend's request.

Don't worry, I won't let her do some weird things.

But Stella is right, I will come to pick her up when the time comes, if she can grow up without us, she must be able to face these realities.

Shanks finally made this decision to temporarily hide these things, and when she grows up, he will slowly clear up the truth with her, and at the same time let Uta go to the big stage of the world.

After receiving Tezolo's assurance, Shanks also planned to take someone out of here, but before he was about to leave, he received a phone bug from Stella.

Leave her a message, at least you have to let her know that she is not abandoned by you.

That's right...

With all the members of the red-haired pirates, Shanks left a video message for Uta, and then left Elegia under artillery fire. Naturally, there were some lies in it, which is also impossible. All it takes to perfect a lie is more lies.

...

Because of Darkrai, Uta fell into a coma for a longer period of time. When she woke up again, Tezolo had already driven her on the sea.

Heracross is still with Uta, but the red-haired pirates have long since left.

Shanks? Shanks!

Waking up, Uta instinctively looked for Shanks, but only got a phone bug.

As the projection turned on, the members of the Red Hair Pirates appeared on the screen and waved goodbye to Uta.

【Hey, Uta, when you saw this video, we should have separated, but don't worry, we didn't abandon you.

We had some troubles in Eregia, because of some very complicated things, we temporarily carried some things, which can only be explained when you grow into a world-class diva.

Because of this incident, we will face the pursuit of the navy for a long time to come.

This hunt will be much more violent than before. It is too dangerous for you to follow me, so I will let you follow Qin Zuoluo and the others temporarily.

The separation is only temporary, we will pick you up when you grow up.

Don't be sad, we are all waiting for the day we see you on the screen, no matter where you are, you will always be the singer of the Red Hair Pirates and always my daughter. 】

Then there is everyone's entrustment to Uta. To sum it up, it is to pay attention to the body, the day of reunion is not too far away, and the explanation about the Eregia matter.

Gordon's internal explanation is that Shanks released the demon, and the Navy understands a similar situation, but according to Stella's suggestion, Shanks just told Uta that he was planted.

This matter is very complicated. Only when she has enough status can she solve this matter, and if she wants to grow better, she must temporarily separate.

He did this mainly because he was worried that if he continued to bring Uta with him, this matter would be inadvertently exposed. The current Uta is not suitable for facing this reality, so he made this compromise choice.

That's it, Shanks may be in a little trouble right now, so you're temporarily joining our acting department until his work is done

We will also send you back.

Stella then Uta comforted her, looked at her a little lost, and handed her a phone bug again.

This is?

The phone bug used to contact Shanks, he just had to temporarily separate from you because of some things, but you can still communicate.

Getting along day and night is prone to flaws, but it doesn't matter if you just make a phone call. After hearing the news, Uta's expression quickly turned dark, and he quickly dialed the phone.

As Shanks connected to the phone bug, Uta's roar also came from it.

Shanks! You idiot!!

Chapter 594: Who hasn't destroyed the country these days?

stupid stupid stupid!

Okay Uta, don't be sad, we will always watch you, the sooner you grow up, the sooner we can meet.

The phone bug is a little bad, it can't hide its emotions, at this time the phone bug in Shanks' hands kept tearing from its eyes, which has truly reflected Uta's situation.

Recalling what Stella said to him, he might really not understand women's thoughts.

This is the result of him leaving a farewell. If he really left without saying goodbye, Uta in the lie might be even more desperate.

Beckman? Do you think I really don't understand women that much?

After hanging up the phone, Shanks looked at Beckman beside him. The seemingly serious Beckman was actually a * who often mingled with women during breaks.

Don't you know what to do? Like Uta said, you're an absolute idiot.

With the crew laughing at him, the Redvers returned to Windmill Village again, where they still had some things to do.

At the same time, on Tezolo's boat, Heracross was holding a roll of tissues and looking at Ann and Uta in front of him.

Ann's age is the closest to Uta's. Stella felt that this would divert Uta's attention, so she arranged for her to comfort Uta more and let her get out of this matter as soon as possible.

Don't worry, with your talent, you will soon grow into a world-class singer, and he will come back to pick you up when the time comes.

What she wants to grow is not status, but psychological acceptance. That is not something a child can learn. She needs enough time, and during this time, the singer has become the goal of her efforts.

This was her own ideal, and it was also the reason why Tezolo wanted to sign her in the first place.

Well, let me show you something fun.

Speaking of which, Ann found Shanks' reward order, and then tore off the photo of the other party. Under the influence of her ability, a fake Shanks quickly appeared in front of Uta.

Scent.. Shanks?!

I'm a phantom fruit user. Although it's fake, I can help you create a phantom when you call, so it's no different from the real one.

They were classmates when they were in Elegia before, and now with the ability of this fruit, the relationship between the two is rapidly heating up. On the other hand, Darkrai also started his journey again. Zolo said something.

The thing inside the girl still exists. If it comes out again, you can contact Lord Arceus, and I will deal with that thing then.

The Demon King of Songs ran fast enough this time, if he ran a little slower, Darkrai could make it disappear forever.

But it is also a good thing for Darkley, such delicious things are rare.

It's just that it's too weak now, even if Uta sings Totsa again, it doesn't have the ability to appear.

As far as Darkley's own desire is concerned, he hopes that the Demon King of Songs will come out again after a while.

But the only way to contact him is through Arceus. Except for Arceus, no one can find him who is elusive in the sea.

As for whether it would be bad to contact Arceus for such a trivial matter, let me explain it in another way. He just asked someone to tell his father when he wanted to eat snacks. This kind of trivial matter will not affect anything.

...

Then Darkley disappeared in front of them out of thin air, and Tezolo also looked at the newspaper that had just been delivered in his hand.

Navy's action. Is it fast or slow?

Tell them hurry up, Tezolo and Shanks fought that ghost in Eregia for a long time, but they didn't even see the shadow of the navy.

Tell them to slow down. After the front foot has dealt with the matter, they will come after the footsteps, and even the newspapers have been sorted out and issued.

The newspapers were about the events of Eregia. According to the final statistics, the wounded and dead accounted for half of the total population of Eregia.

Bearing grudges against Uta, to be precise, he is not qualified to do so, because he knows about the sealed Demon King of Songs. To be precise, most people in Eregia have heard that story, but most of them will think it became a legend.

In Gordon's view, Uta was also a victim, and he who forgot about it was the murderer who caused the recovery of the Demon King. Your emotions need an outlet.

At the request of Shanks, he became the person that this Elegia people resented.

They certainly resented the Demon Lord of Songs, but at the same time, they also hated the person who released the Demon Lord.

In addition, in order to exaggerate the threat of pirates, the title of destroying the country was also added to Shanks.

The navy's news has already been exaggerated, but Morgans is even worse in this regard.

【The Destroyer of Eregia, the man closest to the emperor of the sea. 】

This is the title he gave Shanks, the Kingdom of Xikai, where beasts destroyed, BIG MOM also destroyed kingdoms and islands because of food problems, as for Whitebeard, although he is not bad to the people in the territory, but outside he He is also a pirate, so he naturally did similar things.

The ability to destroy the world is not just an exaggeration, but because the Navy has seen islands destroyed by Whitebeard's ability.

Destroying the country has almost become synonymous with the emperor of the sea. Shanks, who has achieved half of this achievement, is naturally given this title.

It is of course impossible to publicize something like the Demon King of Songs, so in the announced news, Shanks and the red-haired pirates are the culprits.

Madam, do you want to show Uta this newspaper?

Wait a minute, she is not emotionally stable right now, so wait a while and talk about it later, by the way, what about the things you need to deal with?

All cleaned up. Before we left, we found similar things all over the island. There should be no video data circulating.

Well, pay more attention, and dispose of it in time if you find it. Now is not the time to let her see this.

The popularity of phone bugs is very high, and Elegia also has video recording equipment. In order to prevent Uta from accidentally seeing these messages and disrupting their plans, Stella had someone collect the equipment on the island before leaving.

And what happened in Elegia has also affected many people. For example, in an unknown place in the East China Sea, a certain red nose frightened himself into several pieces after reading the newspaper.

What's the matter, Captain Bucky, any big news?

Oh, it's that Shanks, I heard that he did something horrible, it's amazing..

In the eyes of the pirates, Shanks' behavior is undoubtedly a feat, but his casual exclamation * off Bucky.

Get out of here and go to work!!

Chapter 595: Kaido's reading comprehension

Seeing Shanks live in such a mess, it is more uncomfortable for Bucky than killing him.

Obviously everyone is an intern at the same time, and Shanks has become famous all over the world, but he ate the devil fruit because of Shanks' frame, which made him unable to touch the treasure of the deep sea.

Looking at the younger brothers beside him, Bucky felt that the more he looked at it, the more unpleasant it became, and he immediately threatened them to continue working.

In this remote and remote place, Bucky, who has shattered fruits, is almost invincible, and he is an absolute deterrent to these little brothers. Under his angry reprimand, these people re-entered their own journey to find the treasure.

The impact of the incident is far more than that, such as Luffy who is waiting for the return of Shanks on the beach of Windmill Village, but Luffy's emotional changes have nothing to do with the newspaper.

Although the members of the Red Hair Pirates came back, Uta did not come back with them.

Shanks, where is Uta? Where is Uta?

Uta started her own practice because of some special things, but don't worry, she is fine now, maybe you will be able to see her on the screen soon.

Although Shanks gave him a reasonable explanation, for Luffy, the friends he got along with day and night disappeared, and he felt a sense of loss. He ran to an abandoned windmill building and looked at the distant coast with a little disappointment.

Hello.

Heracross, who followed Luffy, found him along the scent.

Unicorn, your partner has also left, how do you feel?

Huh?

The way Heracross looked at Luffy changed, it didn't know why this person felt that he had a good relationship with that Heracross.

Okay, it's decided, we'll go get them back when we become stronger!

Huh?

Luffy couldn't fully understand what Heracross was saying. If he could understand, he would know that Heracross is complaining about whether he followed the wrong person.

Most of the people are panicked about these news. With this incident, the navy ushered in a wave of conscription again, which further added fresh blood. In the great route, more old acquaintances saw the news about Redhead message.

On a certain island in the first half of the great voyage, Hawkeye lost the newspaper in his hand. He knew his opponent very well, and that was not something Shanks would do at all, but he was not interested in what happened specifically. He was even more curious about Shanks. When will Max leave the East China Sea.

Interesting swordsmen are hard to come by, and he hasn't seen a decent opponent for a long time.

On the Moby Dick, Whitebeard scanned the news in the newspaper as usual.

The red-haired kid on Roger's boat has also grown up, and the newcomer is getting stronger and stronger.

Both he and Charlotte Lingling belong to the strong men of the older generation. Compared with the two of them, both Kaido and the red hair are newcomers among the pirates. Of course, Kaido has already used his own terrifying force to challenge The world has proved itself.

White Beard still remembers that battle vividly, and Kaido's force even made him feel old. Now that Shanks is coming from behind, he feels even more.

BIG MOM Pirates didn't think much about this, they didn't have much intersection with Shanks, but Onigashima is different.

Because of Tezolo, the people of Onishima know exactly what happened to Eregia, which leads to some very scary things.

Father! Help, my father is crazy!

At this time, Yamato was running for his life, especially after seeing Arceus who came to the Sky Island training ground to observe the life of Tanabata Blue Bird, he ran directly behind him. This kind of thing has not happened for a long time. Forced helpless.

Kaido, has your training progress reached the stage of bullying?

Looking at the eight fists in Kaido's hands, Arceus understood why Yamato ran for his life. The thing wrapped around it had been upgraded to the overlord color.

That's not true, but she's too far behind, Tezolo Biography

Didn't you already know the news?

That kid's daughter is only 9 years old and can do this kind of thing, but this girl is already 16, so I can't do it if I don't hurry up to make up lessons.

Kaido made a shortened sentence.

Tezolo sent the information that Uta's singing fruit unintentionally released the sealed Demon King of Song, which almost destroyed Elegia.

Kaido omitted the intermediate process, and simply understood it as Uta destroyed Elegia, which led to the increase in the difficulty of his training today.

Among her peers, Yamato couldn't find an opponent, but facing the serious Kaido, she is still at the stage of being unilaterally hanged and beaten. Arceus even saw the breath of the dragon dance in Kaido.

Don't stop me, this girl is too slack, won't others overtake her if she continues like this!

Due to a newspaper's false propaganda and Kaido's misunderstanding, Yamato experienced a fulfilling and terrifying special life. Although the supermodel training lasted for a short time due to Arceus' intervention, the people below still saw it. The fire that appeared on the empty island.

Others didn't pay much attention to the news, except Olga.

She knew what the truth was, Tezolo wrote it clearly in the message sent back, but he also described Shanks' combat effectiveness, and he could fight the Demon King of Songs in the real world without losing the wind.

This is Tezolo's evaluation. They did provide help, but that only limited the degree of destruction of the Demon King of Songs. Even without them, Shanks would not be defeated, but Eregia would be destroyed even more serious.

Has that red-haired kid become so difficult? Elizabeth, is this world not normal?

Who knows, why do you think so much? Aren't there more monsters around you?

It seems to be the same thing, but why haven't I seen the news about the red nose, the two of them should be similar.

I don't know, maybe I'm hiding and planning some big event. I'm going to take Iska to teach gliding, so you can slowly get entangled here.

You guys still don't understand humans. If you lose to them in the future, wouldn't it be shameful?

Looking at Elizabeth who didn't take this matter to heart at all, Olga complained to her, but Elizabeth then gave her a very special solution.

It's very simple, as long as you don't fight against the two of them again, then the record between you will remain at 2:0, don't you have to worry about it.

After saying this, Elizabeth disappeared from Olga's sight and went to be her gliding teacher.

Well, it makes sense, I seem to have underestimated Elizabeth.

Chapter 596: start neurotic zeraora

Yamato has experienced some hardships, Olga has fallen into some entanglements, and Kaido has received a reasonable reason for additional training. Apart from this, this incident has not had a great impact on Wano Country, and some people are now concerned about external affairs. No interest at all, like Zeraora.

Tezolo's team building study lasted for a long time, and the time when Zeraora was urgently called back to Ghost Island was around this time. After knowing that he was already a father, even he panicked for a long time.

Especially seeing Setsu's belly getting bigger day by day, he was much more excited than others, and at the same time he seemed a little dazed.

"Zeraora, the production period is at the end of the year, and there are still five months left. Can you stop being so anxious."

It was herself who became pregnant, but it was Zeraora who suddenly felt abnormal.

"Be careful, there is no big mistake. By the way, I brought my uncle and aunt over, so you should be able to relax a little. I will go and take them over first, so don't move around."

As soon as he said that, he dodged and left here, and there was no time for an instant reaction at all.

"you"

Taking out his diary from the drawer, Setsu went on to write about his day.

【July 8, 1510, sunny

Since he found out that I was pregnant, Zeraora became very strange and took me for an examination every now and then. Now I think he may have to do another examination. 】

After the pregnancy was confirmed, she and Zeraora basically let go of everything, which is what Arceus and Kaido meant.

Let them have children with peace of mind, and they don't need to worry about anything else. As for the things that they need to do, several cadres work overtime, and it's not much to share.

Moreover, Jack, Maria, and Yamato have also reached the age of taking responsibility one after another. Although Maria's goal is to stay with Kaido, she knows that Kaido will only remember those who are strong enough, so she will go out on missions, the three of them became representatives of the new generation of Beasts.

The ordinary life left her with nothing to write in her diary. She heard that Zeraora had brought her parents, so she also planned to go out and have a look.

She has always been an actionist, even if she was pregnant, it didn't affect this matter, she put away the pen and paper and planned to go out, and then she saw two bears who looked like door gods at the door.

Wearing bears and Bepo are standing here like door gods on the left and right.

「What are you two doing?」

"Master Duke, Lord Zeraora asked us to follow you when you go out to avoid any accidents."

「Ah...that Zeraora.」

Patting his face, Setsu felt that Zeraora cared a little too much, but during this time he became very assertive again.

In the past, Zeraora would not refute her about many things, and even if it was wrong, she would let her do it, but he refused to let go of this matter at all.

Even Perona voluntarily handed over the ownership of wearing bears. As an adopted daughter, she is also very concerned about this matter, and has even been busy in the kitchen recently.

"Forget it, you just follow."

This incident is just the beginning, and it even caused a chain reaction. For example, in Zouzhong, Yang Jisihan watched the documents in front of him grow bigger and bigger.

He has also trained a few people to share government affairs for him, but the people who do this must have enough understanding of the outside world and be familiar with Setsuna, otherwise it will affect some handover issues in the future. After comprehensive consideration, Ling and Ha Qidu was captured.

An alternative version of female debt repayment to parents appeared in Zowu. Due to the rules, he had no choice but to let Hatch and Ling to "pay off the debt".

Originally, Ling and Hatch helped him share a lot of things, but after Setsuna became pregnant, Zeraora became a little nervous, and recently took Hatch and Ling away on the grounds of taking care of Setsuna.

「Unfortunately」

Lying half paralyzed on his own rocking chair, this chair was given to him by Setsu, it is said that it was specially made according to his body shape, and it is very comfortable to sit on.

Logically speaking, this is a happy event, and Setsuna's pregnancy is also a happy event,

The new generation has always been important to the fur tribe, but he just can't be happy.

In a sense, he was not the only one who was unlucky, and there was another person who also suffered misfortune because of this incident, and that was Hatch.

There is no harm without comparison. Ling and Hatch have lived together for many years and have given birth to two daughters. They were also very satisfied with this kind of life before.

But after seeing Zeraora's attitude towards Setsuna, the more Ling looked at Hatch, the more unpleasant she felt.

"Aren't you making too much fuss? How can the fur tribe be so fragile? Isn't it good that you didn't have these things when you gave birth?"

「You still say! Anyway, you are not the one who gave birth!」

It is normal for the two to quarrel occasionally, anyway, they will reconcile in the end, but after Hatch and Ling were taken over, a weird situation happened.

Hatch and Setsuna reached a consensus on individual aspects. They both felt that Zeraora was making a big deal out of a molehill, but Ling agreed with Zeraora's behavior and felt that he was a qualified son-in-law.

In addition to these two factions, there is also a group of neutral factions, Perona and Wanda. They don't stand on any side, they help if they ask for help, and play by themselves when they have nothing to do. The big family of Zeraola lives in Jiuli. Live a very leisurely life.

And Tezolo also returned to the company headquarters on the red earth continent after a series of voyages.

「Are we going to live here in the future?」

Uta spends most of her time sailing with Shanks on the sea. When they go out to fight, Uta will stay on the boat alone. This is the first time she has seen such a vast continent.

「It's only temporary. Although this is the headquarters, it's not the real headquarters.」

The headquarters of Beast Fruit on the Red Earth Continent is just an office, which is used to handle various documents, taxes, and entertainment with officials of the world. The real headquarters is on an island, where is real core.

Tezolo will appear here from time to time, but even if the headquarters of the Red Earth Continent is destroyed, it will not affect the normal operation of Beast Fruit.

They were all here before the formation of the group, but they were Xin Duoli who had just completed the identity verification and met here in advance.

The purpose of returning here this time is to give Uta a legal identity, which is the identity certificate issued by the world government.

The world government is the largest institution in the world, and even the navy is just a violent institution under its command.

In most cases, the world government does nothing for ordinary people, but if you find a big guy among the dwarfs, the life of the nationals of the member countries is much better than that of the non-member countries.

Although it is just a card, this thing can allow people to travel unimpeded in the borders of most of the joined countries, provided that there are no special circumstances.

Chapter 597: want me to show you the way

The problem of identity is not difficult to solve. It takes a long time for ordinary people to change their identity certificates. Even nationals of franchise countries have to wait for a while, but Tezolo is different.

He wants an identity certificate is a matter of one sentence, as long as the world government still recognizes the existence of Beast Fruit and has no idea of tearing his face, then it will not take much time for Tezolo to issue an identity certificate to a bounty criminal.

As long as this person is not a special person arrested by the World Government, Tezolo has a way to wash his identity.

Uta lived with Shanks for seven years, but Shanks never let Uta participate in any battles, and the residual image of Elegia was also disposed of by Stella, so Uta is just an ordinary Ordinary girl.

In less than 20 minutes, they got Uta's identity certificate.

Tezolo, it's about time.

Well, the child is recovering emotionally well, let her understand first.

The two were referring to the crime of destroying Eregia on the red hair, which was published in the newspaper. They could hide it for a while, but they couldn't hide it forever, unless Uta was allowed to live in an isolated environment. She will know sooner or later.

Instead of letting her think about it, it's better to explain the current situation to her.

Uta, come here, this is the newspaper from the past few days, you should read it too.

【Destruction of Eregia】

【The red-haired demon, the brutality of the former One Piece crew】

What catches the eye is a few exaggerated headlines, with photos of the destruction of Eregia and the situation of the remaining citizens. Morgans has been trained to the extreme in terms of attracting people's attention.

Impossible, Shanks will not be this kind of person

Purple pupils dilated, Uta did not believe that Shanks would do such a thing.

Don't worry, he really didn't do it, he just carried something, which is why you separated, in order to better protect you, he had no choice but to separate from you.

If you want to justify Shanks' name, you have to grow up. When that day comes, you will naturally know the truth of everything. No matter how you ask before that, Shanks will not tell you the result. do you understand?

During this period of getting along, they understood one thing. Uta is not a girl who messes around without knowing the reason. After explaining the root cause to her clearly, she can understand each other in most cases, and at most it will be awkward for a few days.

So..become a world-renowned diva, is that what Shanks asks of me?

Yes, but also no, it's just that this is an inevitable experience on your way of growing up.

I understand

After a long time, Uta gave her own answer. Her dream is to change the world with her singing and create a new era with her singing. The dream does not contradict her path to becoming a singer, and now she has another new reason.

I will definitely use the shortest time to become the number one singer in the world! Then I will become the singer of the Red Hair Pirates again!

You are very energetic, let's go change your clothes first, Stella asked Maria Napoleon out today, your favorite singer lady, she has a very strange personality, can you let her teach It depends on your performance.

Since it has been done, it must be done well. This is Tezolo's policy of handling affairs. He has already made the decision to promote Uta, so it is natural to prepare other things.

Elegia is a mecca of music, but not only the people there can sing.

It's just that the environment there is suitable for overall study, so Tezolo went there to organize team building. With Uta's talent, Tezolo believed that even that picky lady would not reject her.

Aiming to be the number one singer in the world, with the dream of changing the world and creating a new era, Uta embarked on a new journey. Some people's dreams have just begun, but some people's dreams have already ended.

Donghai, Shuangyue Village, a green algae head sits sluggishly on a stone by the stream as if he has lost his ideal of life.

This is the man who worked hard to become the world's number one swordsman - Roronoa Zoro. A funeral was held here not long ago, and the person who died unfortunately was his childhood sweetheart - Kuina .

The cause of death is unacceptable. A 10-year-old girl who could defeat adult men unfortunately fell to her death while fetching a whetstone at night. Sauron didn't know more details, but when he got the news, what he saw was There are only black and white photos on the tombstones.

Whatever the real situation is, for him, that little purpose of his life is dead, and he is also lost.

At this time, a strange man walked across the creek. He was covered in a black robe, with only one blue eye exposed.

You have been standing there for a long time, do you want to ask for directions?

Young man, have you heard the legend of the underworld from your family?

The person looking for the underworld is none other than Darkley. The black robe is his disguise, and the floor-sweeping robe makes it impossible for outsiders to see what is going on with him.

This is also his only flaw. If he doesn't use his legs, it's easy to scare ordinary people, but the biggest significance of his two legs is to reduce his arrogance, so Darkley chose this method.

As for why he appeared here, after leaving Tezolo's boat, he continued to search along the faint breath, and walked here.

What he was looking for was too illusory, and he didn't even have any clues, so that the only thing he could rely on was legends. He often inquired about similar legends with some children or old people, but this time the kid was a little different.

Does the place of Underworld really exist?

Of course it exists, I've been looking for it for a long time.

Different from the panic of most people, they were asking him back, which aroused Darkley's interest, and he was not direct, so he simply said a few more words.

Although I really want to show you the way, I don't know how to get there.

This sentence is somewhat flawed. To be precise, he doesn't know how to get to the underworld, let alone how to get back. Looking at the strange man in front of him, Sauron's intuition told him that the other party seemed to know something.

If that place really exists, they should also know the news of the world.

Maybe, I haven't been to that place, since you don't know anything, then goodbye.

Darkley's interest was quickly wiped out. He didn't intend to keep answering the other party's questions, and then disappeared in front of Sauron like a ghost.

Looking at the disappearing Darkley, Zoro rubbed his eyes in disbelief, then pinched his own face, and then ran to the usual training place and began to practice crazily

Chapter 598 The Struggle and the Prison Breaker

In the middle of the night, the huge boulder was sliding up and down under the pull of the rope. Sauron's practice had not stopped. Even though the muscles in both arms felt a burning sensation of tearing, he was still repeating a movement mechanically until he had no more strength to continue. .

And when he collapsed on the ground, he seemed to see an old man with a ponytail and a straight eyebrow appeared here.

On weekdays, this person has been sitting by the sea in a daze. Sauron doesn't know who he is, and he also speaks some terms he doesn't understand, but there are rumors about him being a warrior in the dojo.

In fact, this is exactly the case. His name is Kosaburo Shimotsuki, a famous swordsmith in Wano Country, who left Wano Country in violation of the laws of Wano Country 40 years ago, and managed to reach the Shimotsuki Family in the East China Sea.

At the same time, he was also Kuina's grandfather, but after seeing this figure, Zoro slapped himself on the face.

He knew that the other party was Kuina's grandfather, and he didn't know the identity of this person from Kuina's mouth until Kosaburo died at the funeral of this person a few years ago.

"Damn it"

It's not a particle of the tone, but a * in the true sense. First, he was looking for the black weirdo in the underworld for no reason, and now he saw the dead old man. Sauron has already started doubting some things in this world.

But soon he discovered that it was not Kosaburo who died long ago, but Koshiro.

The current owner of the dojo is also his master.

"Zoro, what are you doing?"

Father and daughter left one after another, Koshiro became a lonely family at this time, and the only ones he could pay attention to were the children in the dojo, especially Zoro. According to what Kozaburo said before his death, his face seemed familiar.

"Master, I might. Really see the hell."

As he spoke, he talked about what happened to him during the day and the supernatural event he saw Kozaburo.

"So master, do you think there is really a place called Huangquan?"

"I don't know, but whether it exists or not, the living and the dead exist in two worlds. Sauron, that's not where we, the living, should set foot."

Soron stared blankly at the grass in the distance. It was the place where he and Guina had a duel before. She had knocked down Sauron 2001 times. At the same time, she also had the promise of being number one in the world.

"Master, can you give me the text of He Dao?"

"Um?"

"That's... our previous agreement. Since she is no longer here, I will work hard together with her share. Even if it is two worlds that never meet, I will make my reputation resound throughout the underworld."

Looking at Sauron who was kneeling on the ground respectfully and praying, Koshiro's thoughts seemed to be pulled aside, and his deep eyes made it impossible to see his thoughts.

He could see that Sauron didn't put that sentence down completely, but he finally agreed to Sauron's request and handed over the words of He Dao to him.

From then on, no matter what the battle is, as a three swordsman, he will always bite the word of peace in his mouth.

Da Kelayi didn't know that his appearance had vaguely caused some influence. There might be another person in this world who wanted to find the entrance to the underworld.

And in a prison on the Great Route, Foz Fowler also started planning his own escape plan.

Due to the appearance of the beasts, the changes in the sea are more violent, and red hair, BIG MOM, beasts, white beard, and scattered remnants are all launching their own actions, which also makes the world government treat him Failure is even more dissatisfying.

Due to the characteristics of the fruit, they did not send a stronger combat force to * it, but the looter was the red-haired Shanks. Strictly speaking, whoever performs this task is unlucky.

Foz Ferrer didn't take it seriously when he failed the mission, and CP9 couldn't guarantee 100% success of the mission. He felt that in terms of his ability, the higher-ups wouldn't care too much about it, and at most it would be a little punishment.

But when he went back, he was directly imprisoned. The only good news is that he was not imprisoned in Imperton, but in the prison of the CP agency.

Afterwards, there was torture and torture. At the beginning, he still held the idea of being released after the punishment was over, but not long ago, in order to make fun of him, a guard guard said to him: "It's better to forgive you than to forgive you. Pray that Nika will come to your rescue."

It was a story in ancient times. The ancient slaves believed that it was a legend that would save them. It is said that he would bring smiles and freedom to the suffering life of the slaves, but no one knew whether he really existed?

Foz Fau, who had experienced too much suffering, chose to believe that as long as he could be rescued, he didn't care about those details, but within a few days, the jailer disappeared, without warning.

Foz Foben is the one who is doing black work for the world government. He knows better what this situation means, and that word is probably a taboo.

Now that the jailer has disappeared, they may not have figured out how many people know that word, but with the effectiveness of the world government, they will definitely be found out soon.

So he risked his life and chose to escape from the prison early, and even killed people who might have heard that sentence during the escape, thereby reducing the possibility of himself being cleared.

He succeeded, even escaping that prison a few months earlier than the original timeline, and then began sailing the seas under the name of the Fuzifu Pirates.

As an agent, he already has his own plan. First, hide for a while, then get some fame, and then enter the new world to find a backer. Only in this way can he be safer.

The reason why he wants to hide is because he knows a lot of secrets, and many secrets have a time limit. When this time limit passes, the world government will relax some efforts to search and arrest. If he starts to act as soon as he escapes from prison, the blow will Most likely he couldn't bear it.

Time passed little by little, and the World Conference was held again. More and more kings realized the danger of the era of great pirates. Except for the few kingdoms that were really destroyed, there were still some pirates who wanted to reproduce that behavior and then fame.

Without that strength, they naturally ushered in a devastating blow by doing so, but it also brought troubles to many countries, but they still did not realize the threat of dragons. In their view, it was still a small fight.

Even some kings believe that the reason why these people have the strength to make trouble is because the tax is not high enough, which makes them too idle, which instead increases the domestic tax.

Uta is also gradually integrating into the performing arts department of Beast Fruit. Tezolo plans to hold a debut of Uta when the ship is built next year. In Ghost Island, Setsuna's expected delivery date is getting closer.

Chapter 599 The "superpower" of the fur clan

"Zeraora! I haven't heard of Zou who has to be hospitalized early after giving birth. Are you being too careful!"

The top floor of the Hundred Beasts Pokémon Center, the intensive care ward, because the due date is approaching, Zeraora directly changed the address of Setsuna to this place, but in Setsuna's view, this is too much of a big deal, she can still shoot at the sea with a full bow. Killing sea kings is not that weak at all.

Whether it was in Zowu's childhood or when she went back to Zowu to visit relatives later, the women in Zowu always worked as usual when they were pregnant, and there has never been anyone who was affected by pregnancy.

As for hospitalization, there is no need for it. Generally, a doctor will only be there when delivering the baby.

She is now the strongest of the Zou fur tribe, so she thinks this treatment is completely unnecessary.

"Hey, it's only a few days, and I'll take you to the South China Sea later."

Jeraora didn't make any rebuttals, she just chose the lure, and she didn't intend to change her mind.

There is nothing that can be done about this moment, because at this last moment, Hutch has rebelled, thinking that there is no harm in her moving here early.

"Moo~~!"

The long elephant's song came from a distance, and the figure of the elephant owner could be seen through the window on the top floor, and its waveguide was also connected to the momentary waveguide.

"Even you know?"

As a fur tribe who can communicate with the elephant owner, Setsu even received blessings from the elephant owner. The elephant owner has stayed here for a long time.

Since Yang Jisihan's physical examination, it has been circling around here. If he was not worried about affecting the lighting, he could stand still for several months

Sanyang is the only doctor of the Fur Tribe, but he also has several assistants, including some female Fur Tribes, who are used to deal with situations where he is difficult to come forward, such as giving birth.

The medical conditions of the Hundred Beasts Pokémon Center are very developed, and there is also a mature gynecological team, but the identity of the fur tribe still made Zeraora contact the fur tribe nurse.

Time passed quickly. According to the estimates of the doctors, Setsuna's delivery period is only two days away. This also made Zeraora more nervous, and finally was kicked out directly by Setsuna, because it would be impossible for him to stay there any longer. It's a little confusing.

He knew very well that there would be no major problems, but he was a little restless, and finally flew to Ghost Island.

"Master, are you there?"

"Didn't you already see it, Zeraora, you are too nervous, there is no need to be so worried."

Immediately, two light clusters flew into the hands of Zeraora.

"I won't go there anymore. If I go, you won't let it go. This is a blessing for your children. It has no other effect, but it can ensure that they grow up safely. As for the others, we can wait until they are older. Bar."

Use your own power to optimize the bodies of the two children and let them grow up healthier. This is the effect of the two light clusters. It is scientific and unscientific. Maybe this is the intuitive manifestation of theology at the end of science.

"Thank you for your blessing, but I have a question, these two children.. what will they be?"

This is a point that Zeraora can't figure out, he doesn't know whether his child is the same as himself, or the same as Setsuna.

"Neither, they will be very special two people."

According to Arceus' speculation, the children of Setsuna and Zeraora are neither pure fur tribes nor Pokémon, they are very special two people.

There are superpowers in the Pokémon world, and these superpowers belong to the family inheritance, which means that this power exists in their blood.

According to historical records, there was a phenomenon of marriage between Pokémon and humans in history. According to the fact that humans in this world also belong to a special kind of Pokémon, it can be inferred that they have inherited part of the power of Pokémon.

The Power of Viridian, which is recognized by the world, does not count. Superpowers and Power of Waveguide are abilities that widely exist in Pokémon. Pokémon that happen to have these two powers are also similar to humanoid Pokémon.

So the abilities of these superpowers are most likely derived from the blood of Pokémon from their ancestors. This invisible gene is hidden in their blood and will awaken at special times.

Although there is an example of Elizabeth, Elizabeth is a parthenogenetic under special circumstances, so the tear-eyed lizard was born.

Setsuna and Zeraora are very special. Setsuna is a person with Pokémon abilities, and she is still a fur tribe in essence. Although she is directly transformed, it does not mean that she has become Lucario.

It was a fetus instead of an egg that was seen during the prenatal checkup, which has already explained this point.

Compared with this ability, the possibility of the power of waveguide being inherited is greater.

Zeraora is also a modified Pokémon, and when they combine, they produce a wonderful reaction.

Theoretically, these two children will inherit the power of Zeraora's "electricity" and the power of Setsuna Waveguide. They are not Pokémon, and they can be regarded as the "superpowers" of the fur family.

"is that so."

"Zeraora, you should go."

"My lord, what do you mean"

"I feel the breath of life coming, your child is about to be born."

Before the words fell, Zeraora turned into a flash of lightning and disappeared here.

In the Beasts Pokémon Center, things happened very suddenly. Just a few minutes after Zeraora left, she felt a burst of abdominal pain and was sent to the delivery room.

"Where are the Zeraora people?!"

Before, Zeraora was always nearby, as long as he shouted, he could be seen within ten seconds, just like mastering teleportation, but at the last moment, he disappeared instead.

"Just now, Setsu thought he was in the way and asked him to go out and calm down."

"Wait, I'll call my brother-in-law right away."

Wanda had just dug out his phone bug when Zeraora jumped in from the window. He was in a hurry and had no time to go through the door.

"How's it going?"

No one cared about where he just went, but pointed to the closed gate beside them. They didn't come to Zeraora to worry about what would happen. To be precise, no one except Zeraora thought anything would happen. Accident.

The strength of the mother's body affects their situation during childbirth. Theoretically, the weaker the person, the easier it is to have problems. Charlotte Lingling gave birth to her decuplets today, and she can take her Homitz out to fight the next day.

Setsu is not as good as Charlotte Lingling, but she is also a rare strong person, not to mention that there are so many equipment and ready doctors here.

Nothing strange happened. In just 15 minutes, the door was reopened, and the nurse of the fur tribe came out holding two children.

"Congratulations, you are a brother and sister."

The two babies in the swaddle can already see the specific appearance. The elder brother inherited the lineage of Setsuna, obviously in the shape of a wolf, while the younger sister was influenced by Zeraora, and she is a cute kitten

Chapter 600 Rotom Cradle Form

In terms of color, the brother and sister are the same as Setsuna, inheriting the beautiful silver-white coat color, but a few sparse black and yellow markings can be seen on the body, Setsuna's bloodline has a greater impact on the brother and sister.

This is also the difference between the fur tribe and humans. Although the pregnancy period is shorter than that of humans, they develop faster as "beastmen".

Zeraora didn't pick up the children immediately, but put the two light * on the top of the two babies' heads first, and the light * slowly merged into the two babies' bodies, and soon they fell into a deep sleep, without making any noise at all .

Their young bodies were absorbing the energy bestowed by Arceus. Zeraora just wanted to go in to have a look at Setsuna, but the door opened again, and Setsuna was pushed out in a wheelchair.

Her body gave her a strong resilience. If it wasn't for the fear of Zeraora's nagging, she wouldn't even want to sit in a wheelchair.

"Where's the child? The two of them were crying non-stop just now, have they settled down so quickly?"

"Blessing from Lord Arceus, look, how cute it is, with the same fur color as you."

"Isn't this also your color?"

Setsu caressed the little bangs on the top of his sister's head, and the doctors and nurses around him also left here silently. They all appeared here one after another.

These people put together enough to fight a war of annihilation, but they are just celebrating the birth of two new babies.

In addition, there are people who are closely related to Bebo and Perona, and the rest are the family members of Setsuna. At the same time, there is also Yang Jisihan, who came to meet Zou's newborn, By the way, he vaguely reminded Setsuna that the seven-year agreement should begin.

"Don't say that I look down on you, this is specially made for these two little guys. In terms of practicality, it depends on my uncle's gift."

Speaking, Quinn took out two strange large bowl-shaped objects.

"what is this?"

There is no conflict between Zeraola and Quinn. Setsuna blacklisted him several times during the date because of Quinn's interruption, but there must be a comparison in everything. , Quinn would rather

"The cradle, or the fully automatic intelligent Rotom cradle, heating, cooling, moisturizing, drying, deodorizing, feeding, automatic alarm, suspension, and even a defense system, how about it, is it comprehensive?"

According to the core of Rotom's electronic products, Quinn specially made such a thing, which is very practical. After boarding Rotom, it can help them share a lot of things.

"Thanks, very good stuff."

"Go back and ask Lord Arceus for two Rotoms yourself. This thing will become more intelligent after they board in."

Quinn's fully intelligent cradle is a start, and other people also have their own gifts. Their hands-on ability is not as strong as Quinn's, but they basically buy a large set of things that children need.

Some things cannot even be bought with money. For example, Shaina sewed a set of clothes for the two fur tribes, and Jhin made some small toys according to the tradition of Lunaria. These are not things that can be solved with money. up.

Acière and Olga prepared some diaper-like consumables. It was obvious that they had discussed in advance, and what they sent was just enough to make up a set.

There is also the incense medicine for bathing prepared by Naiqin based on the fur tribe. Although the value is not high, it contains their hearts.

They are just the first batch. Although the intensive care unit is big, it can't hold so many people. As senior cadres, they also have things to do, so they left after simply looking at them.

After them, the new generation of Beast Pirates also came here.

"Such a cute baby. Can I give you a hug?"

Maria's inner motherhood was activated again. Looking at the two newborns, Maria made a slightly excessive request.

"Wait until they get older, they're too young."

Looking at Maria's figure, it was difficult for her to feel the two children in her hands, so Setsu did not agree to her request.

"It's a pity, let's talk about it after a while, this is my gift, keep it for later use."

After the first wave of presents, there will inevitably be repetitions. Peggy Wan gave them two small hats, and Ulti gave them two bracelets. They were small ornaments made by herself, which also counted as hers. one of my hobbies.

As for Yamato, she was carrying a large can of extra-grade milk powder on her back, all made of milk from the highest-grade large milk cans.

"By the way, my lord father asked me to convey. He said that he has nothing to give away. If necessary, he can help you teach your children in the future."

"Thank you Mr. Kaido for me, but I don't think it's necessary."

Su Mo wiped the sweat from her forehead. She felt that this gift was unnecessary. She also went through Kaido's training back then. That was not a human life, and her child didn't need to suffer from this.

"I also don't think it's necessary, so I directly rejected it for you. How can anyone like that kind of thing, oh, no, that guy Sasaki might be interested."

From Yamato's point of view, no one would be interested in this kind of thing, unless there is something wrong with the brain, but there are really such people in Onijima today, such as Sasaki, a fanatic fan of Kaido.

These new generations are the last group of people who come here to visit. Ordinary pirates have no chance even if they want to build relationships. After Yamato and the others leave, the rest is family time.

"Well, these two children don't look like me."

"Nonsense! You are a grandfather, what's the use of a child like you?!"

Listening to Hatch's complaints, Ling directly gave him a blow hammer. There will be similarities between the fur tribe and her own species. Obviously, Hatch, whose blood is husky, has started to make mistakes again.

"By the way, sister, have you thought about the name of the child?"

"Not yet, don't we all get our names when we are one year old?"

It is a custom of the fur tribe to officially name their children after one year, and there are no rules for naming. Some are related to the race of the animal, and some are related to their own calls.

"Then, can I come up with a name?"

"Okay, Wanda, it doesn't matter what name you choose, let's take a new family portrait first."

Wanda became interested in the naming rights of the two children, but was also directly vetoed by Ling, and then Ling took out a camera.

Zowu used to be relatively poor in supplies, but he still had a camera, which was brought back by the fur tribe who had gone to sea. Taking pictures has also become a way for Zowu to commemorate new members.
