Chapter 761: Runaways, Yamato's intelligence has been improved

Among the heavy footsteps, a dozen giants appeared here, not many in number, but because it is a special group of giants, a team of more than a dozen people can already be said to be luxurious.

Even among the accompanying people, she saw a slightly familiar person.

"Charlotte Lingling, we bring the friendship of Elbaf."

Among humans, Charlotte Lingling's size is undoubtedly huge.

But compared with these giants, she looks a bit miniature. After all, for giants, 12 meters is a bottom line. If you can't even reach 12 meters, it's dwarfism among giants.

Elbaf has the title of the most powerful country in the world, and its national strength is also recognized. Even if it is facing the emperor of the sea, the giant headed by it does not have the slightest respect. To be precise, he still hates this man who killed him Lulu's demon.

If it wasn't for the Giant King's order, he would never have followed Loki here.

But the King of Giants is too partial to Loki. After learning that his son fell in love with Charlotte Lingling's daughter, he still agreed to this matter and sent this team.

"Ms. Lingling, where is Laura? I have been waiting for this day for too long."

Pushing away the guards in front of him, Loki walked up to Charlotte Lingling. At this time, he was acting politely, holding a bouquet of ordinary flowers in his hand.

He met Laura by chance, and it was that time that made him fall in love with Laura at first sight, and fell in love with her irresistibly.

If it wasn't because Laura's mother was Charlotte Lingling, he would have ignored the Giant King and came here to propose marriage.

"Well~ well~ Lola has been waiting for you for a long time, and she should be changing her dress now."

But at Laura's residence, things didn't go so smoothly.

Click!

Charlotte Daifuku smashed the floor in front of her with one foot, her eyes full of disbelief.

"What did you say?! Lola escaped marriage?!"

They are all the children of Charlotte Lingling. They know the nature of this mother. Once her cravings attack, even if her own children stand in front of her, they will kill without hesitation.

How much Charlotte Lingling longs for giants is a well-known fact in the Kingdom of Totland. Lola chose to escape marriage at this time, no doubt slapping Charlotte Lingling in the face in public, once she is caught.

"Yes, Lola she."

"Damn it, when did it happen?!"

"It's been a while, when you all went to receive guests."

"Qi Feng! You know Laura's plan, right?"

This is Cake Island, the territory of Charlotte Lingling. As an engaged party, it is impossible for Laura to leave here quietly, unless someone has been helping her to cover it up.

"Do you know that you have caused a catastrophe!"

"What's wrong?"

"Katakuri brother, Laura her."

Katakuri and the others were in charge of taking Lola's wedding carriage to the venue. After listening to the noise inside, Katakuri walked in. When he heard Daifuku's explanation, a few drops of cold sweat flowed from his forehead.

While he was worried about Charlotte Lingling's anger, he was also worried about his sister's situation. All his younger brothers and sisters were the objects of his concern.

He is very clear about the consequences of this, but he has to report it to Charlotte Lingling, because he is not able to make a decision on the next thing.

After receiving the news, Charlotte Lingling found an excuse to leave the venue temporarily. She didn't speak, but all the children knew that Charlotte Lingling was on the verge of fury, and she was just enduring forcibly because of some things.

After knowing that Lola had escaped, Charlotte Lingling immediately ordered her to be captured, but according to the information in the outer sea area, Lola had already left the Totland sea area, and she was nowhere to be found at this time.

"Qi Feng, you come to impersonate Laura, no, from now on, you are Laura."

"But Mom."

"No but, this is an order!"

Charlotte Chiffon, Charlotte Lola's twin sister, there is almost no difference in voice and appearance between the two. Charlotte Lingling wants to achieve her goal in this way.

Facing Charlotte Lingling's order, Qi Feng didn't dare to resist, so he could only board the carriage and headed to the engagement venue, but as soon as they met, Loki's eyes changed.

He looked at Qi Feng without any admiration, only indifference and sadness.

"You're not Laura."

"I"

"Well~ well~ what are you talking about, she is my daughter Laura."

"Yes, I am Laura, dear Loki, what are you talking about?"

Under the aura of Charlotte Lingling, Qi Feng still lied.

"Appearance can be deceiving. Her footsteps, breathing rate, and standing movements are all different from Laura. This little trick can't fool me. Do you remember the first time we met, what kind of flowers did I give you? ?"

"Isn't it the flower you are holding now?"

"I didn't send flowers at all that day, so Laura doesn't want to marry me, does she?"

He seems to be a big and thick giant, and he fell in love with Laura at first sight, but at the same time, he is also a kind of love, and he has already remembered everything about Laura in his heart after just a few times of getting along.

Even Laura's other brothers and sisters couldn't be separated so clearly.

"Charlotte Lingling, this is a deception, you have failed Elbaf's friendship, goodbye, no, there should be no chance to see you again."

Loki seemed to be emotionally hurt, and he exposed all this in public recklessly, and then left here directly with the giants, leaving only Charlotte Lingling who was on the verge of rage and the guests who were at a loss.

Of course, in an unknown place, a smile appeared on the corner of Stussy's mouth.

Lola's escape can be described as unnoticed, because the world government secretly helped her. Before she came here, the undercover agent lurking on Cake Island discovered Lola's thoughts.

The World Government doesn't want to see that the BIG MOM pirates are in contact with Elbaf, so they use their own power to help her escape from the Ten Thousand Kingdoms.

At the same time, Yamato had an unbelievable talk with Zeraora.

"I'm afraid there are ghosts here."

"Miss Yamato, why do you judge like this?"

"How could a person escape from here so silently? Someone must help her to achieve it. We should also investigate after we go back."

There is nothing wrong with the logic, but Yamato was able to think of this step from this trivial matter, which seriously exceeded Zeraora's expectations.

"Miss Yamato, the Lord should be very happy to see you like this."

"Huh? Why? It's just that I wanted to sneak out back then, but I never had a chance. They are all emperors of the sea. They should be good, so I feel that there are ghosts."

Chapter 763 Different mothers

Charlotte Lingling's good mood dissipated, and she didn't even say any polite words, and left here directly. Katakuri also took people outside to make a show, and the affairs here were left to Perospero.

As the eldest son of the BIG MOM Pirates, he has dealt with similar things a lot. After all, Charlotte Lingling is uncertain and never considers the occasion. It is a good result that he did not do something more gaffe this time. .

"Well... everyone, there was a little accident today, please don't spread it to the outside world, otherwise mom will get angry and everyone will have a hard time."

He first briefly mentioned this matter, but in fact, no one wanted to publicize this matter, even Morgans, it was not that he was afraid, but that this matter was not very popular.

There must be a ratio between risk and benefit. Even he would not take a huge risk to do something with little benefit.

The woman's escape from marriage didn't just hit Charlotte Lingling in the face. Albat was also having a hard time. Excessive publicity of this matter is to offend a powerful pirate group and the world's most powerful country at the same time.

"The celebration will not end yet, everyone can take a break, we will arrange for everyone to leave later."

Under such circumstances, the engagement ceremony seems to have changed. Today, the pirate group that has the deepest connection with the underground world is Beast and BIG MOM. Headed home has attracted the attention of many people.

If you can get some promises from her, it will undoubtedly be excellent for future business, and according to gossip, Kaido's daughter seems to be easy to fool, at least not as difficult as her father.

But at the first step, they hit a wall. Small talk is fine, but as long as it involves business issues, all they get is a string of numbers.

In this regard, she is very self-aware, especially after going through that voyage without logistics, she understands how important the money bag in the hands of beasts is.

Also, Arceus gave her a special education in this aspect. He knew that Yamato was not good at this kind of thing. In fact, he and Kaido were not very good at it, but it didn't matter because they were strong enough.

Tezolo and Kojiro, these are all professional talents, and professional people do professional things, so that is enough.

The current Hundred Beasts family has a great career, even if Yamato evolves into a prodigal son, as long as she does not interfere in the internal business and makes some weird decisions, it is impossible to lose all these properties, and she has no bad habits, just the way of thinking and ordinary people There are some differences.

This is also the habit of many large forces. It is not terrible to be incompetent. What is terrible is that incompetent people have high positions and like to mess around, which leads to the gradual collapse of normally operating institutions.

The engagement ceremony turned into a joke after all, but Yamato and the others didn't take it seriously. With Charlotte Lingling's mentality, this matter will definitely not be changed, but after the anger passes, it will not be repeated. Put it on your lips.

The only one who might not be very happy is Meowna and Wolf. Due to the huge changes in the engagement ceremony, their travel schedule was greatly shortened.

But when leaving, Pokmus brought a shocking news when he saw off.

"Master Duke, Mom has something to convey to you"

Even though he knew that Yamato was the one who spoke for this group of people, he still chose to convey the news to Setsuna. This was the influence of his identity as a fur tribe.

"Huh? Just say what you have, why are you hemming and hawing?"

"Yes, what Mom means is that if Hundred Beasts encounters Laura in the future, I hope you can bring her back, it is best to send the body back directly, and she will thank you. These are the exact words of Mom.

Of course, it's fine if you didn't hear this sentence. "

Charlotte Lingling's children have different personalities and seem to have inherited her different sides. Katakuri's calmness, Perospero's ambition, and some children with cruel and perverted personalities, while Qi Feng and Lola belong to The type who is gentle with others.

Pokmus doesn't dislike them, but he must carry out BIG MOM's order.

"Okay, I see, take some time to go back to Zowu to see, your parents are also very concerned about you."

"yes."

"Also, this is a bit of Moon Leo's experience, which is summed up by everyone. You should try to overcome the problem that you can't control that state."

"Yes, my lord, I wish you the best of luck."

The Pokémon left the waters of Totland, and Miao Na seemed shocked by Charlotte Lingling's words.

During the conversation just now, Pokmus didn't shy away from her and Worf. She couldn't believe that there was a mother who really wanted to kill her daughter, and Charlotte Lingling was obviously very "kind" before.

"What's wrong? What are you thinking?"

"Mom, you won't do such a horrible thing like that big aunt?"

Miao Na seems to have introduced some very scary things just now. After all, if you don't obey, you will be killed. That's a pretty scary future.

Even Wolf, who didn't take it seriously, looked over, and then they got a rather strange answer.

"Pfft, what are you thinking in your head? If I really did that, you two brats would have died hundreds of times already!"

The two brothers and sisters looked at each other. Although the answer was straightforward, it made them intuitively understand that this kind of thing was impossible. They immediately returned to their original state and started researching various things on the boat.

"Jeraola, do you think I should take this opportunity to scare them?"

In a moment of hindsight, I felt that I had missed an opportunity to educate my children, which might be a good opportunity to cure their naughtiness.

"Forget it, this will leave a shadow. The family relationship of the BIG MOM Pirates is not as friendly as it looks. It's not bad to grow up like this. You came here like this at the beginning."

"Nonsense! I'm not like the two of them! I must have inherited your genes!"

"Okay, you say yes."

Travelers are on their way back to Ghost Island, and in Ghost Island, a person is looking for an opportunity to express himself. After the transposition battle, Mandelfish and others have left Wano Country one after another. Jack and Iska Others are also performing some tasks outside.

But Foz Fu stayed here, he was observing, observing this long-joined pirate group.

Regarding the loss to Sasaki and the almost defeat by Iska, he was completely unconvinced in his heart. If it weren't for the terrifying power of Arceus, the gap between them should not be like this.

It is too difficult to accumulate credits for ordinary tasks, especially now that the times have changed.

Chapter 764 Fuzi Fu's new stage

Before the prestige of the beasts is established, it is easy to accumulate military exploits, but as the reputation of the beasts grows, it becomes more and more difficult to accumulate military exploits.

There are too many monks and too few porridge. I don't know how many people are staring at this matter.

Now has come to the era of the four emperors' separatist rule. Due to the addition of Shanks, the battle in the new world has temporarily stopped, and they have entered a short period of balance. Before this balance is broken, large-scale conflicts are difficult to occur.

Although the number of newcomers here is gradually increasing, the members of Hundred Beasts are also constantly expanding. Those who have been stationed in the outer sea area all the year round are keeping an eye on these guys.

So Foz Fu decided to change his path. At this time, he was observing the retired old pirates on Onigashima.

Having worked in CP9 for a long time, he has also seen many pirates, but this is the first time he has seen a pirate group with a retirement system.

Not to mention pirates, but CP agencies, it is almost impossible to retire, these agents know too many secrets.

Either keep working hard to climb up and strive to change from a front-line agent to an office boss, or fight on the front line until the day of death.

Moreover, the current agents have all experienced the brainwashing education of the World Government, and there is no such thing as retirement in their thinking. Rob Lucci is an example. They were almost wiped out by the World Government, and they finally returned to the World Government and became the last one. A good knife.

At this time, he was observing the living conditions of some people in Jiuli, and even recorded a lot of information.

"Haffat, 79 years old, an early member of the Hundred Beasts Pirates, lost a leg in the battle. Because of his ordinary combat power, he has been staying in Wano Country as the boss of the buying station. This is not like a pirate group."

Looking at the old man sitting in the rocking chair basking in the sun, with a shuttlecock flower floating on his head, Foz Foz shook his head, and left here silently. After a serious investigation, he found that the treatment here is really good .

At least those pirates who have successfully retired have their own places to go. This is the life that Mandelfish yearns for. However, ordinary pirates retire, even if they have old qualifications, they just have some idle jobs in Wano Country, or work as a pirate on other islands. Security guards or something.

That is seriously inconsistent with Mandelfisch's expected life.

Foz Foz then came to the church. During this time, he also had a new job-a physical education teacher who would not get sick, and was responsible for training the orphans here.

Finding stone slabs or historical texts, and precious Phantom Beast fruits are relatively important things in Hundred Beasts, but each of these things is more difficult to find, so Foz Fu temporarily found something he is better at.

His background means that he has mastered things that many people don't know, such as the six-style training method.

The six-style training requires high physical conditions. Even the world government will use special methods to enhance nutrition. There are some little secrets on that training island.

And Beast can make up for this problem through the ingredients made by various Pokémon. Although doing so will make him a thorn in the eyes of the world government, he is already on the death list of the world government, and he doesn't care at this time.

He didn't bring up this matter before, mainly because the existence of the six styles is actually a bit tasteless.

As the inherited skills of the world government and navy, their practicality is beyond doubt, but they are not something that can be learned at will. You have to start building the foundation from an early age so that you can master it smoothly in the future.

People with enough talent can take this step, but it is not necessary. For example, Jack, if he wants to learn, even if he has no foundation, his body is strong enough to support exercise. NOvEluSb.coM

But the powerful armed color makes him have no need for iron blocks and paper paintings. An anti-war does not need to shave that kind of movement, and his attack methods are not as good as finger guns and haze feet. As for the moon steps, his jumping ability is also Being able to stay in the air for a short time is also slightly tasteless.

At this point, they all have strong control over their bodies, and the resulting return of life has also become tasteless.

Even if they don't study deliberately, they have a strong control over their bodies. This is Jack's serious defense against science.

Other top-ranked cadres are even less needed, and the moves practiced by many people are also somewhat similar to the six styles.

Those who can quickly learn the Six Forms do not need to rely on the Six Forms to improve their combat power, and those who can rely on the Six Forms to improve their combat power cannot learn it immediately, and this dilemma eventually arises.

It wasn't until another group of orphans reached the right age that Misu suggested that the church train a group of warriors who could protect the gods, so Foz Fu found the opportunity and became the martial arts instructor here.

After all, the six forms are the most systematic teaching, and for these half-grown children, it is just the right thing.

"Put your posture right! Waist strength is the foundation, if you can't persist, how are you going to protect the glory of the Lord!"

It was not Fuzi Fu who gave the lecture, but Missu. She rarely showed a serious side and trained with those children, even though Fuzi Fu made it clear that given her age and physical condition, it would be difficult to be effective. , she did not give up.

In this way, Foz Fu temporarily started working behind the scenes, observing the living conditions of the Wano country pirates, training the children adopted by the church, and at the same time training some heirs of the Beast members. There was no disturbance in the days.

But it didn't take long for him to realize that his opportunity to perform had come.

Yamato and the others also told Kaido what happened after they returned from Charlotte Lingling's engagement ceremony. Kaido seemed very happy about Charlotte Lingling's embarrassment and embarrassment, and then Yamato also asked a question.

She felt that there would also be undercover agents sent by the enemy within Hundred Beasts. In order to prevent them from making trouble at inappropriate times, Yamato thought that they should be eliminated in advance.

This point was strongly supported by Quinn. For the first time, he felt that Yamato's suggestion was so great.

Kaido himself doesn't care about this kind of thing, and given Wano's terrain and national conditions, the possibility of getting undercover is very slim. As for other territories, he doesn't bother to worry about innocuous matters, but since Yamato proposed, he let her go did it.

After all, it is not easy for her to make a valuable suggestion, so she must support it at this time.

Then, a problem arose. Although Yamato made this suggestion, she had no idea how to catch the undercover agent.

So when she was calling for an investigation team, Foz Fau came to recommend himself.

Not to mention anything else, he is a secret agent, and he is also a top secret agent of the world government. He is very good at counter-espionage.

And if you are lucky, if you meet a few former colleagues, this will be a home-delivered achievement. Today, he is definitely an expert in this field of the Hundred Beasts Pirates.

Chapter 765 Lady Luck is smiling, brand new ability

"What the * am I doing."

At this time, Foz Fau changed into an evening dress and was scanning the environment below on a tall building. He originally thought that Yamato wanted to launch an anti-revolutionary movement. This kind of thing is very common in world governments.

In order to eliminate internal enemies, the world government will often send real cronies to clean up those who have dissidents in the team.

And whether it is the world government or the navy, they will send some undercover agents to lurk in the ranks of pirates.

The original world destroyer-Bundy Wald was attacked by CP agents who were mixed into the pirate group, and was finally sent to Imperton.

Wano country is a closed country. It is very easy to check the foreign population. When Quinn popularized the ID card, he used a very simple method, that is, let the locals report it themselves.

Let people who live in the same area report to each other to see which one is a new face. If there are strangers whom no one knows, they will be further investigated.

After a large number of investigations, no abnormalities were found.

However, the territory of all beasts is not limited to this island. It is not so difficult to mix in some people in the outer islands. This is also the place where Foz Foz thought his mission started.

But in the end, he came to Gulan Tezolo, a recreational ship that had been in the sea for a long time, to investigate his ability.

With the acquiescence of the two Tianlong families, the sea city of Gulan Tezolo has become an independent country recognized by the world government, and it is still an unarmed zone, an "absolute sanctuary" that the world government cannot take casually

Now it has become the gray center of the underground world, and all forces have some eyeliners here.

Due to the support of the Draconians, Tezolo has high privileges here.

Without the consent of Tezolo here, it is illegal for the navy to enter with armed forces.

Boom!

A signal bomb exploded in the sky. After that, in the center of Gulan Tezolo, a large group of motorcycle lizards began to run forward along the track in unison, and the riders on their backs were also trying to stop them in various ways. other opponents.

As the motor lizard galloped, there was a tsunami-like roar from the surrounding auditorium. This was Gulan Tezolo's exclusive event, a different kind of horse race.

But if you look carefully, you can see that there is a brand new rider on the back of the leading motorcycle lizard. Yamato has already run over to compete and play without knowing when.

The reason why he came here is that Yamato intends to test his ability here, to see if he can successfully dig out some special people in Gulan Tezolo, which is full of fish and dragons.

At the beginning, Foz Fu didn't think there was any problem, but now it seems that this action is more like Yamato wants to play, and has already deviated from the original purpose.

It doesn't matter what Yamato wants to do, but if he has no results, he will appear to be a waste, and in general, it will affect his career.

It was at this time that Tezzolo came behind him.

"Miss Yamato is like that, don't pay too much attention to it, I have been notified of the purpose of your trip, and it just so happens that there is something that needs to be handled by your hands."

After Gulan Tezolo officially sailed, this place became Tezolo's second office, the headquarters of Beast Fruit or Gulan Tezolo's ship. He can always be seen in these two places.

However, it is only an office space. Due to the special nature of this sea city, he can't rest assured that his family lives here.

"What is it specifically?" nOVELusb.COM

"The smooth operation of this place is inseparable from the help of the Tianlong people, but the families of the Tianlong people are not monolithic. According to the original agreement, this is a demilitarized zone, and even agents of the navy and the world government cannot easily enter here.

It was true some time ago, but recently some people have defaulted. "

Gulan Tezolo's income is too high, and the huge income has made many people jealous. If they want to dig out the secrets inside, even some people in the world government are no exception.

There is the support of Tianlong people here, but it is only part of it. Those who spy on the secrets are agents of people belonging to other forces.

"CPO? It's quite a challenge."

Through Tezolo's description, Foz Foz also figured out what to do. It was quite difficult, but he was not afraid. Only such difficult things can bring higher benefits.

This is a game of the people above. Whether it is him or the agents sent to Gulan Tezolo, they are just pawns. If they want not to be regarded as abandoned pawns, they have to let themselves play a greater role.

Foz Fau was born in CP9. He doesn't know much about CPO, but he doesn't know nothing about it. These top CP9s are the reserves of CPO, and this time, Lady Luck seems to be standing behind him.

Originally, he planned to release some bait to see if any fish would bite, but by chance, he saw a familiar face from the surveillance screen.

"Are you sure it's him?"

"I'm sure, I used to be an agent, and in this line of work, memory is very important, as long as you look at the faces of those key people, you won't forget them.

That guy is a member of CPO, I won't admit it wrong, codenamed Guima, he is the captain of a team, but he shouldn't be performing this kind of mission. "

CPO's action mode is completely different from CP9's, but Foz remembers very clearly that that guy was the captain of the CPO team a few years ago, and he was recruited back then. This kind of team shouldn't do this kind of thing.

Tezolo didn't care about the following things. It was a surprise to him that Foz Ver can lock the target so quickly.

"That's not important, but if you're sure it's him, I'm ready to act."

In the hands of Tezzolo, some gold began to melt. This is the result of his hard work over the years. The gold on board is controlled by his fruit ability, and this is his absolute home.

"Let me come, that guy is a capable person, if you don't pay attention, it's easy for him to escape, and I also want to see how far the gap between me and CPO is now."

"Can you do it? If I remember correctly, CPO is generally much stronger than CP9."

"I was really unsure before, but this time it's different. I still want to try the power given by Master Arceus."

Speaking of a black dagger condensed from the front of his arm, it looks like some kind of metal hair condensed object, this is the ability he obtained through the six-style training method, and it belongs to his prepaid salary as a trainer.

It is also this power that successfully ignited his inner desire, wanting to gain new power through more achievements.

The state is not good, one update today, adjust it, four updates tomorrow

Chapter 766 The Golden Theater of Desperation

On Gulan Tezolo at this time, Gui Ma seemed to be the same as ordinary tourists, visiting Gulan Tezolo, and tapping his fingers on the wall from time to time. He was different from those ordinary tourists and knew that The essence here.

Today's Gulan Tezolo is completely different from the original timeline's Gulan Tezolo. Tezolo did not use the ability of the golden fruit and the bet to enslave others.

The core employees on the ship are from the Beast Pirates, and the rest of the ordinary employees are recruited from all over the world, but the foreman and the like are also retirees from the Beasts. In addition, the shops on the ship also have Many franchisees.

If you want to open a store here, you have to pay a high franchise fee and rent, and Tezzolo will take part of the income. In addition to this, there is tax, which is a huge expense.

Even so, if they want to open a store on Gulan Tezolo, they even have to rely on their relationship, and the officials of the world government will say hello.

As a special gray economic center, the benefits brought here are too great. Even if Tezolo takes the bulk, they can still earn a lot of money from tourists from all over the world.

The people who can go out and travel here in this environment are not ordinary working-class people. Most of them are groups who have achieved financial freedom.

Guima in the crowd looked very ordinary, he looked like an ordinary tourist.

The action against Quinn at the beginning led to the destruction of his team, although he successfully escaped by feigning death by relying on the fruit ability, and brought back some fragments of Arceus Steel.

But this is not enough to offset the punishment for his mission failure. This is something that CP agents have long been accustomed to. No matter how much merit they have made before, as long as the interests of the government are damaged, they cannot escape punishment.

Sometimes people who are punished can't figure out why they were punished. Foz Fau is an example. He has always wondered why an ordinary devil fruit would make the higher-ups so angry.

Cultivating a CP0 is very expensive, and the team is destroyed. No matter what, Guima, as the captain, has certain responsibilities, and the information on Gulan Tezolo was thrown to him.

It seems to be a very leisurely occupation, but in fact the crisis is not small. Behind it is the struggle between the Tianlong people's families, and at the same time, it also faces the risks brought by beasts, and it is extremely time-consuming.

Gulan Tezolo is called a ship, and it is indeed a sea city in essence. Gui Ma can't believe that such a large cabin is hollow, and there must be something hidden inside, but he has never found the entrance.

This place seems to be just an ordinary tourist city, but the ten kilometers above and below the deck was built like a maze, and he saw several times that the buildings above Gulan Tezolo deformed to carry out various special activities.

This is also the reason why the construction of Gulan Tezolo took a lot of time. The deformed metal of Arceus steel was also used in it.

After coming for a while, a lot of money was spent, but there was no result. The Tianlong who ordered him behind him was already a little impatient.

Expenses are unavoidable. Anyone who comes to a consumption place and doesn't take away any money will feel that there is a problem.

Tianlongren doesn't care about this cost, but he can't accept his waste of Pele.

"Damn Quinn and the beasts."

Thinking of the root cause of his failure, Guima's mood became very unfriendly. At this moment, a firework bloomed in the sky again, and Tezolo, the highest point of Gulan Tezolo, also brought His subordinates came to the high platform.

The screen on the ship has also been switched.

"Everyone, I have good news for you. Next, Gulan Tezolo will randomly select some lucky ones. During the next itinerary, they will enjoy unprecedented special services, and the whole process is free of charge!

Whoever can get the golden ticket is the lucky one! "

As he said that, he asked Bacala to release several balloons. As the balloons exploded in the crowd, various lottery tickets filled the sky. No one noticed that Bacara's hands were emitting a faint light all the time.

The ability of the lucky fruit has been activated, and the completely random thing here is something that can be controlled.

Gui Ma didn't intend to participate in this kind of thing, but wanted to take advantage of the new activities to sneak into some places that are usually not easy to enter, but at this time, a sea breeze suddenly blew, and a gold prize ticket traveled with the wind like this, In the end, it fell on the top of Guima.

He just took off the thing above his head, and before he could see the lottery ticket clearly, several searchlights came over.

"Congratulations to all the lucky ones! By the way, that ticket is pure gold. Please don't wander around. The staff will come to guide you to the new place to visit soon."

Looking at the gold leaf-like lottery in his hand and the envious eyes of the people around him, Guima followed the staff to the main venue on Gulan Tezolo in order not to attract attention.

Since the plan is broken, let's take advantage of the trend and look at new things.

More than 20 scattered people gathered together, and then the stage began to rise and fall, and an independent elevator appeared under everyone's feet, leading them to different areas, and the light and dark changed, but Gui Ma found that everyone around him disappeared up.
nOveLusb.cOm

At this moment, although he felt that something was wrong, he hadn't become suspicious yet. After all, he couldn't think of a reason for his exposure, and he hadn't taken any action yet.

He thought this was some kind of special meeting place, but upon closer inspection, he seemed to have come to a desert, surrounded by glaring sand.

"Anyone? What's going on!"

Guima shouted to the surroundings while picking up a handful of sand, and then he discovered that these were not yellow sand at all, but pure golden sand.

An ominous premonition appeared in his heart, but he didn't act. His current identity is still an ordinary person, and ordinary people can't walk more than a month.

At this moment, the golden sand around him seemed to be under control. The original golden sand gathered together and immediately surrounded everything around him.

The golden sand gradually melted, and finally built an environment like an opera house made of gold. Guima was in the center of the stage, and Tezolo appeared there in the spectator seats.

"Mr. Tezolo, is this the surprise you said? It doesn't seem so friendly."

"If it's an ordinary tourist, of course it wouldn't be like this, but you've crossed the line, haven't you, Mr. Guima?"

These golden sands are all affected by Tezolo's ability, this golden theater is also a special space he prepared.

Chapter 767 Senior, have you forgotten your promise to support me?

This is the inner space of Gulan Tezzolo, and his gold texture is different from ordinary gold. Through the buildings formed by these golds, this place has become an absolutely independent space.

The general movement cannot be spread, and besides taking a group of lucky people for sightseeing, Gulan Tezolo is still holding a carnival dance. As long as this place is not collapsed, outsiders will not notice to exception.

"What are you talking about? Mr. Tezolo, I don't quite understand what you mean."

Until this time, Gui Ma still looked like he didn't know why, but he was a little scared.

Even if Tezolo called out his code name accurately, he still didn't admit it.

If it wasn't for Foz Fau's guarantee, he wouldn't believe it. This person is really a CPO.

His impression of CPO is still in the white suit and strange mask, walking on the street for fear that others will not recognize that kind of flamboyant personality.

"It's okay, it doesn't matter if you don't understand, the stage has been prepared, and it's the turn of the actors to appear, and this time it's your old acquaintance."

A wall of the Golden Theater suddenly melted, and the figure of Foz Fau also appeared there.

"Long time no see, senior Guima, you said you wanted to support me, so you won't forget it so soon."

Foz Fau in human-beast form appeared in front of Guima, very similar to his previous appearance, but the color has become mainly black and gray.

The swollen body hair made his body slightly bloated, but the originally fluffy hair was completely made of steel at this time, and the top of the head was also decorated like a Viking helmet.

Wrapped his original horn inside, this is the new ability he acquired, the Viking Pokémon-Meow Boss, the evolution of Meow in the Galar region.

Miaomiao was originally a Pokémon like a house cat, but as the living environment changed, Miaomiao also evolved into different branches.

There were no meows in the Alola area. After a few were paid tribute to the Alola area, they lived with the nobles and gradually developed a proud self-esteem.

The Miaomiao in the Galar area is the helper of the fishermen. They have always lived with the warlike sea peoples, and even participated in foreign plundering activities, which has evolved into a more warlike appearance.

"I don't understand what you're talking about."

"It's already at this time, it's meaningless to be stubborn, Senior Guima, your memory isn't so bad, is it?"

Foz Fau lifted his transformation and revealed his original appearance. Only then did Guima understand what happened. nOvElusB.cOm

"You traitor"

So far, he has not thought of any flaws in himself, and even thinks that this is just a surprise activity planned by Tezolo.

He is still very confident in his undercover, but now Guima understands why Tezolo insists that there is a problem with his identity. He met a * old acquaintance.

For those who perform undercover work, encountering old acquaintances is undoubtedly a very fatal thing. A word from them may expose an operation.

Guima is different, he encountered a more fatal thing, the other party is not only an old acquaintance, but also an old acquaintance who rebelled.

He knew before that Foz Fu had betrayed CP9 and joined Hundred Beasts, but according to past information, the cadres of Hundred Beasts rarely appeared on Gulan Tezolo, and Foz Foz even once Never been here.

He even, like Quinn, hasn't shown his face outside for a while. The last time there was news was in the battle of beasts.

Even if he came here, the average daily traffic on Gulan Tezzolo exceeded 30,000 people. Without accurate information, he would not be exposed. As a result, his luck was so bad that he was discovered by the other party.

He didn't know that the person who operated the monitor that day was called Bacala, and her fruit ability was the deepest hidden by Tezoro. The effect of lucky fruit can play a miraculous effect in many inconspicuous places.

"Don't say that, senior, I just want to live. I'm not like you, I would rather die for them. Since you said back then that you would support me well, then you can help me."

"You bastard! Is this what you understand as support?!"

At the beginning, his team was short of people, so he wanted to include Foz Fu after he was promoted. In Guima's eyes, Foz Fu was also a good seed.

At the beginning, he really wanted to support the other party, but now, he wants to trade his life for his future.

"It's up to each other, or do you consider surrendering? I can introduce you to Mr. Kaido. Although many big cadres hate the status of being a member of the World Government, they will accept it if they really join."

Shaina and Jhin still hate the members of the World Government. When he first joined, he was often looked down upon.

"Heh, Foz Fau, don't you overestimate your own ability? You think too highly of yourself!"

Listening to Foz Ferrer's words, Guima's eyes were full of disdain. People like them are unlikely to betray. After all, they dare to carry out tasks that are clearly killing Kaido, such as interfering with Kaido's battle.

It's just that he doesn't understand why a little former CP9 should be so confident.

"Don't say it's you, even Rob Lucci is no match for me!"

Stepping on the ground dozens of times, Gui Mali appeared directly in front of Foz Ferrer with a shave, and stabbed Foz Ferrer with finger guns side by side.

The gap between CP9 and CP0 is strength. They can't beat Quinn, and a mere Foz Forta is still not in his eyes.

"I hate people comparing me to that bastard!"

A strange thing about CP9, mentioning Rob Lucci, the most talented rookie in the past 800 years, mentioning Foz Fu, he is as famous as Rob Lucci, no one likes to be used as a foil, especially he thinks he is not inferior to the other .

In the battle between the former CP9 and the current CP0, Foz Fu also chose to use the six styles to fight.

"Idiot, your iron block can't stop me, finger gun and impact hammer!"

His finger bones seemed to have disappeared, and the fingers retracted back into the palm strangely, and finally bounced out like a spring.

The earthworm fruit brought him not only the ability to regenerate, but also the changes of strong muscles and bones. His whole body can evolve into a state of physical springs, thus launching stronger attacks.

Iron blocks and finger guns are the spears and shields in the six styles. People who overestimate the quality of their shields usually end badly, but this time, it is not the shields that overestimate themselves, but the spears.

Foz Foz's body surface hair faced Guima's finger gun and completely blocked it.

"Hahaha, if the highest state of an iron block is to pursue steel, then what will be the effect of using a steel body to produce an iron block? Have you ever thought about it? Senior?"

Chapter 768 Meow boss team under preparation

The six styles teach the basic skills. The combination of finger gun, moon step, shaving, haze foot, paper painting and iron block can allow a person to deal with most situations in battle.

But on this basis, people who are proficient in the six styles and use the six styles as their main fighting style have their own derivative skills, and they also have their own specialties.

Foz Foz is best at pointing guns, which is one of the reasons why Guima fell in love with him in the first place. The two of them even have similar areas of expertise.

Foz Foz is also aware of some of Guima's abilities. In the past, he would never use this method to take Guima's attack head-on, but the power Arceus gave him gave him confidence in this.

Among the many attributes of Pokémon, each attribute has a lot of room for development. Even the weakest bug type has a bright future, but the steel type and rock type are undoubtedly the most obvious attributes to improve.

A body of steel and rock can significantly improve a person's lower limit. When transformed into a steel-type Pokémon, ordinary bullets and swords don't need to dodge any. Only relying on the hardness of the body, they can survive this battle without injury. wave attack.

The body of the cat leader is also very special. The Viking horn helmet on the head is not a real helmet, but a product obtained by hardening the body hair. As one of the steel-type Pokémon, their body hair is also made of metal-like substances.

Foz Foz's body hair looks fluffy, but it has an extremely special structure. Thousands of steel hairs are entangled together. It has strong defensive power and can also absorb a certain amount of impact. It is a combination of the hardness of steel and the hair. flexible product.

At the same time, there is also the increase of the iron block. The essence of the iron block is to control the blood flow of the self, so that the body becomes extremely hard, but the iron block is just an adjective, and the upper and lower limits are uncertain. Every year, people die unexpectedly because they believe too much in the iron block. Agents are not in the minority.

The original intention of this thing is to use iron blocks to strengthen the defense and reduce the damage received when facing an attack that cannot be avoided.

It's just that its original intention seems to have changed over time.

The impact force of the Guima Finger Spear was almost completely absorbed, and the remaining attack power was nothing to Foz Fau, and this was not Foz Foz's strongest state. His ability was very special, and the characteristic name was For the will of steel, it can make the attack of the steel system more powerful.

The effect of this characteristic can be superimposed, but due to the limitation of physical strength, the power exerted has an upper limit.

When Foz Foz joined the Beasts Pirates, he brought the subordinates he recruited with him. His original subordinates named CAT'S were the mew boss reserve. Arceus intentionally built them into a special meow boss team, dedicated to Play as a team.novelusb.COM

Foz Foz is one of the rare non-reckless factions among the beasts, and there are still many places where he can be used, but the team is still waiting to be built, and his subordinates are far behind in terms of merit and strength.

"Claw Gun Steel!"

Foz Ferrer had a sinister grin on the corner of his mouth, and the nails of his right hand and the fur on his wrist instantly wrapped his fist, turning it into a large gun head.

This is a skill obtained by the meow bosses during their survival in the wild. Some cat bosses will deliberately grow their nails and use them as daggers. When Foz Fu possesses this ability, with the help of the power of life return, he will have An extra set of weapons.

Noticing that the abnormal Guima dodged backwards, but there was still a bloodstain on his face, he seemed to have underestimated the strange weapon in Foz Foz's hand.

However, with his strong self-healing ability, the * mouth healed quickly. In the past, he would reduce the chance to use his ability and bring some confusion to the enemy. But if the opponent is Foz Fu, then it is meaningless. After all, Foz Foz was well aware of his abilities.

"The saber-toothed tiger is wrong, this is not the power that a saber-toothed tiger should have. Quinn"

"You don't need to understand that kind of thing. I will remember your contribution. You should feel honored. You are the first person to experience this new power!"

"Tooth cut gun wheel!"

The hair on Foz Fu's body condensed into small cones. The fangs and sharp steel claws retained in the form of the saber-toothed tiger formed a sharper edge. The body shrunk slightly into a ball and slammed into the opponent under high-speed rotation. .

The crushing brought about by ability is his biggest advantage. It is also the animal type, and the phantom beast species are stronger than the ancient and ordinary species. The feeling he had facing Sasaki before was all given to this old senior. .

"Teeth gun combo!"

The sharp-toothed flying blades kept attacking Gui Ma. Although Gui Ma came to Foz Fu with his understanding of some of Foz Fu's moves, but before he could make a move, Foz Fu made a sudden conflict. Harsh roar.

The sharp metallic sound came into his mind, as if someone had hammered his mind, Gui Ma's mind unexpectedly went blank for a while.

This is the disadvantage brought by his fruit. The earthworm fruit made him more sensitive to sound. This noise made his nervous system temporarily stiff, and he was stabbed in the stomach by Foz Foy.

Relying on the strong vitality brought by the animal system, the Guima did not fall down, and relied on its own ability to heal its wounds after pulling away.

The intensity of the collision between Guima and Fuzi Fu gradually increased. As time passed, Guima also understood a painful fact that he was no longer the opponent of the younger generation.

The Meow boss and Foz Fu have a high degree of compatibility. The sharp claws have replaced the usual short sword, and the steel fur has made up for the deficiencies in defense, making it extremely difficult to escape.

It was at this time that Gui Ma found Tezolo watching the battle on the high platform from the corner of his eye.

He needed a way to get out of here safely, and Tezzolo seemed to be the opportunity.

He didn't dare to kill the other party. Tezolo's status is very special. Without the order from above, killing him would definitely anger some Tianlongren families, which would cut off the wealth of those Tianlongren.

However, kidnapping and coercion are not a problem. If there is any disadvantage of the modified Meowboss, it is that Foz Fau's flexibility has decreased slightly, and Foz Foz has not yet fully adapted to this heavier body.

Guima traded his right arm in exchange for the opportunity to escape from Foz Fu's entanglement. In mid-air, his arm had been regenerated.

But Tezolo didn't panic at all. He just patted his hand, and the golden stand under his feet turned into a big hand, pinching him in midair.

"Mr. Guima, you seem to have forgotten something. Don't forget, I am also a senior cadre of Hundred Beasts. Since I dare to appear in front of you, how can I have no strength?"

It will be updated again tomorrow, just to adjust the biological clock back, so as to save the update so late in the future

Chapter 769 I know your abilities clearly, but you don't know anything about mine

The CEO of Beast Fruit, the world-famous actor, and the ruler of Gulan Tezolo, this is Tezolo's identity, wealth, and status in the eyes of outsiders. He is already above most people, even ordinary officials You have to give him some face.

Behind the Hundred Beasts Pirates, Tezolo is a ruthless character in the outside world.

It's just that he rarely shows his strength. In most cases, fighting has nothing to do with him.

Even Guima had never seen Tezolo make a move, and he would usually be accompanied by Tanaka or Daisy as his bodyguard. Seeing Tezolo standing alone on the high platform, Guima thought it was Tezolo. Zolo trusted Foz Fu too much.

"This little trick is useless!"

The body has been grasped by the golden hands, but Guima did not appear to be very flustered. Even though he felt that the hardness of the gold was different from ordinary gold, he did not take it seriously. In his opinion, these were all Gulan Taizuo. Part of the Transformation Building on the Los.

Not many people knew that Tezolo had eaten the golden fruit, except for the beasts, and Doflamingo only knew that the fruit was in Tezolo's hands.

But with Doflamingo's character, even if he knew the truth, he would not expose Tezolo's news.

The gold affected by the golden fruit will become very hard, not as easy to damage as ordinary gold, but Guima's body is also special, forcibly drilled out of the gap in the golden giant's hand.

"Shaved Snake."

By using the well-developed muscles of the body, Guima mobilized several times in a row to shave, and with the help of Yuebu's footwork, he came to Tezolo's side,

"It's the first time I've seen a rich man like you who is not afraid of death, but don't worry, I just want to get out of here safely, isn't this too much to ask?"

The fingernails were on Tezolo's throat, and he didn't use any weapons. For these agents, the limbs had been exercised into deadly weapons.

Looking down from here, Foz Fu's face was extremely ugly, which was exactly what Gui Ma wanted to see, but he didn't know that the reason for Foz Fu's face was completely different from what he thought.

It is true that Guima got close to Tezolo, so he showed an ugly expression, but he is not worried about Tezolo's safety, he just feels that his action evaluation will be lowered, but Guima doesn't know the real reason.

Tezolo was even in the mood to joke with him.

"It's not too much, but I refuse. Since you dare to come here, you should be prepared to bear the consequences and let you leave smoothly. Doesn't that mean that people here can be bullied?"

"Do you think I dare not kill you?"

"You dare?" nOveLus.b.cOm

Hearing Guima's threat, Tezuolo showed a disdainful smile. They are all pawns, but the difference is that Tezuolo is the general in this game, and neither side will allow him to appear unless he wants to overturn the table. Accident.

Whether it is the beasts behind him or the Tianlong people behind Guima, Guima is different, he is just an ordinary pawn, a chess piece that can be abandoned at any time in exchange for greater benefits.

"Why do you think I don't dare? No one can stop me from this distance, let alone Foz Fu!"

As he spoke, he wanted to grab Tezolo's collar, but before he could move, he lost control of his body. No matter how hard his brain tried, his body just couldn't move.

"Can you be more honest with your dirty hands? This is a dress made by Stella herself. It will be very difficult for me to get dirty by you."

"You you bastard"

"The stage has opened, here, I am the master!"

Gulan Tezolo has only one entrance, and whenever a newcomer enters there, a large number of ribbons will be thrown from the sky as a welcome ceremony, and those ribbons are filled with gold powder.

People living here will inevitably be contaminated with these powders. Through the gold affected by the fruit ability, Tezolo can control the actions of most people.

The Guima in front of him doesn't have the strength to forcibly break Tezolo's ability constraints.

"Your technique seems to be a lot rusty, so I will doubt your ability."

Tezolo looked at Foz Fu at the side, and stated his evaluation very bluntly. This was just a small mistake, but in many cases, such a small mistake is enough to cause a fatal impact.

"It was my mistake, I will pay more attention in the future."

Foz Fu didn't explain anything. The more he explained this glaring mistake, the more incompetent he would appear, and there was nothing he could do about it. He didn't expect Guima to use his ability to do such a thing.

He knows Gui Ma's abilities, but only a part of them. Gui Ma is not stupid enough to reveal his full abilities to a junior whom he has not known for a long time.

It wasn't until this time that Guima realized one thing. The strongest person here is not Foz Fu, but Tezolo.

A person who can rely on himself to develop the fruit ability to awaken is by no means a weak person. Now Tezolo has not been blackened, but has a goal that must be protected. In order to protect his beloved, he is constantly getting stronger.

Golden Fruit + Big Needle Bee's dual ability user, in Gulan Tezolo's home court, he can touch even a disaster-level character, let alone such a CPO.

"What are you recruiting bodyguards for?"

Tezolo will always be accompanied by bodyguards when he appears in public, which is also the reason for Guima's misjudgment.

Now it seems that Tezolo is many times stronger than those bodyguards. If he is really in danger, he doesn't know who will protect whom.

"You mean Dess? Don't you think that big man can fill up the show? How can I say that he is also a public figure, so there is still some ostentation. Alright, Foz Foz, let's get rid of him."

For Tezolo, the biggest role of the bodyguard is to take care of Stella when he can't spare, and some fruit abilities can bring great convenience, for example, Tanaka can save him from looking for the door Trouble.

Gui Ma, who was controlled by the golden fruit, was powerless to resist, and could only let Foz Fu's claws pierce his heart, which was not fatal to him. When the earthworm fruit transformed, the heart in his body would not stop one.

Just when he wanted to escape by feigning death again, he heard what Foz Fu said.

"Mr. Tezolo, is there a fire?"

"What do you want fire for?"

"This guy is an animal-type earthworm fruit capable user, and his vitality is very tenacious. This may not kill him. Just in case, it's better to burn it to ashes. After all, he knows a lot."

"Foz Fur! You bastard!"

At this moment, what Gui Ma regrets the most is that he showed some of his abilities in order to attract him back then.

Chapter 770 Quinn's moment of decision

He never imagined that one day in the future, Foz Fau would surrender to the enemy, and the defection became so thorough that he would be fully used.

Don't think about the past friendship at all, and regard him as a stepping stone for promotion.

Thinking differently, he would do the same thing if he was Foz Fowler, but he couldn't accept it when he was the one who was unlucky.

"Really? That's really troublesome."

Talking about trouble, Tezolo still patted his hand. Behind Tezolo, a golden statue appeared behind him, with flowing lines on his body.

"Golden Divine Fire!"

Tezolo used domineering energy as energy, and heated it through the transmission of special lines in the golden statue, generating high-temperature and high-density energy that expanded rapidly, and finally evolved a laser attack that burned all the parts below Guima's head to ashes.

He can't let Gui Ma die without a whole body. What he wants to do is to let Gui Ma die here quietly, but the people behind him must know what happened, otherwise there will be no deterrent effect.

"It should be dead now, even if it is a natural type, it will not survive if it is beaten to only one head."

On the same night, Morgans' newspaper published a news item. A tourist accidentally fell into the water after being drunk and was unfortunately swallowed by a sea beast. When the rescue team found it, only the remains of his face were seen.

Gulan Tezolo apologized for this, and said that he would strengthen the patrol work of the ship in the future, and remind other tourists not to drink too much to prevent tragedy.

The news spread very widely, and the Tianlong people who instructed Guima to act also understood what Tezolo was doing. This kind of aggressive behavior made them very unhappy, but in contrast, the other two Tianlong families did not express their views.

Even teamed up to suppress the family's follow-up actions, and made no secret of protecting Tezolo. After all, Tezolo can bring them huge profits every year.

They were not happy that outsiders wanted to intervene in the affairs there, but there was no evidence and no reason to intervene. Now they just gave them a chance to exert their strength.

Draco people are not monolithic internally, because interests and preferences often produce various conflicts. As long as the interests of the entire Draco people are not harmed, higher levels will not intervene, but those have nothing to do with Tezolo. noVeLuSB.coM

Although there were some small mistakes, Foz Fu's ability was further recognized in the follow-up. During Gulan Tezolo's time, he caught many problematic people. The original undercover and counter-reconnaissance They are not learned in vain.

At the same time, he also understood another truth, that he should not trust his eldest lady too much, to be precise, he could not fully trust her.

After she sets a new goal, she will indeed work hard to achieve this goal, but the process may be tortuous, and sometimes she will do some redundant things.

Like in Gurran Tezolo, no matter how you look at it, she is just playing.

Not only that, he couldn't understand the thinking of the cadres of Hundred Beasts. At this time, he was holding a small book in his hand, which recorded some of Yamato's experiences discussed with the cadres before leaving Onigaoshima.

Severe torture, when they can't stand it, they will naturally say that this is the suggestion given by Jhin. In his opinion, as long as the torture is severe enough, someone will confess sooner or later, but there is a high probability that they will be tortured people.

But what Foz Fu couldn't understand was that Jhin's method was actually a relatively "mild" type.

Kill suspicious elements directly, this is Quinn's suggestion, he spares no effort in maintaining the safety of the pirate group.

As for Shaina, the seemingly gentle person gave more violent results than Jhin. In her opinion, this kind of behavior of trying to sneak in is disrespectful, especially for the believers of Arceus.

True believers are fine, but false believers are likely to be burned to ashes.

After reading those suggestions, Foz Foz felt that it was a miracle that he could get to this point smoothly. There are quite a lot of perverts in this pirate group.

Yamato's play journey, his test journey is basically over, and before leaving, he also saw a result of Yamato.

She taught a parrot how to talk, but only one sentence.

"Help, I was turned into a parrot."

Listening to the slightly panicked tone of the parrot, he didn't know how to evaluate this behavior.

Yamato just set off with him in the test, and the rest of the matter was completely left to him. He had already returned to Ghost Island first, and while Foz Versin was working hard to investigate whether there was something wrong with the outer islands, Quinn I am facing a very difficult choice.

"Is the message OK?"

"Sure, Brother Quinn, I don't know what happened to your banana plantation. Many banana trees have already been infected."

"Burn that part of the diseased banana tree and the surrounding banana trees."

"They have already done it, but it is useless. The surrounding bananas will still be infected in a few days, and the infected banana trees will completely wither in a few days. They have sent the samples, please take a look."

As he spoke, his subordinates handed Quinn a special small box, which contained samples of diseased banana trees.

This is the big trouble Quinn is currently encountering. His banana plantation has a problem.

Although his orchard was relocated after moving to Wano country, the terrain of Wano country is limited, and it is impossible to give him all the fruits to grow.

On the limited land, there are still a lot of tree fruits and rare medicinal materials that need to be cultivated, so Quinn's private plantation only occupies a small part.

In order to meet the needs of external sales and domestic supply, Beasts has many plantations in the outside world, and this banana plantation is the one that Quinn values most.

After so many years, the planting technology there has already matured, and he doesn't need to worry about it, but he didn't expect such an accident today.

Quinn took the sample into his laboratory and analyzed it, but found no problems.

He even asked Naiqin to help him analyze the situation, but he still didn't get any results. There was no problem with the sample, and he could only see traces of some things that had existed before.

"No, it still doesn't work. The cells in these plants were destroyed by something, but they didn't leave any information."

Putting down the instrument in his hand, Naiqin gave his final conclusion.

"Could it be that the transportation process was too long and they died naturally?"

"It's not impossible, but if this is the case... I'm afraid we can only find out what happened on that island."

"It's not right, why do I think this is a conspiracy."

Quinn had an ominous premonition, no matter how you look at this matter, it looks like he wants to lure him out.
