Chapter 801 I hate fire

"It's not peaceful here, a fool like you should stay away from here."

Taking the last piece of food and rejecting the banknotes Ace handed them, the slum kids said to Ace.

Ace's kindness did not receive much gratitude, or that's how they showed their kindness.

In their view, people like Ace who reveal their wealth will be targeted soon. They have no understanding of force. In their view, the boss of the block is the scariest person.

"Let's go, Deus, go over there and see what's going on."

Ace didn't care about the title, just pressed his hat and walked in the direction they said before. He wanted to go there and see who was doing that kind of thing.

Although he sometimes looks like a fool, he also knows that no one does good things for no reason.

On the other hand, Iska continues to absorb children who are willing to leave with her. They are naive and willing to believe Iska's words, so they are more likely to be plastic. The previous kind of kid who was full of vigilance and has turned into an old man is not her this time. The target of the action.

For better or for worse, they've found a way to survive here, and Iska's target is the weaker children.

"Big sister, do you want us to be cannon fodder?"

"No, why do you think so?"

"Those gangs have done this kind of thing before, fighting for them with a full meal, but you give more than them. If you can eat a few more meals, you can be cannon fodder."

"No, I will take you to school. We will arrange a suitable position for you after seeing what you are good at."

Strictly speaking, the people she recruited were to train future grassroots officers. Depending on the talent, they would also be assigned to factories or Beast Fruit companies as managers.

Their huge enterprises need manpower to manage, which is why Iska is doing her best to do this. If she recruits cannon fodder, she really can't do it with her personality.

In her opinion, this kind of development is much better than wandering here.

"We will end this era, and when the glory of God returns, no one will live like this again."

The voice of Lamy's speech was heard here, but judging from the feedback from the people below, not many people believed in this sentence. They were more concerned about the food in front of them and Lamy's magical ability.

At this time, Ace and Deus came here, seeing the weird behavior of those people inside, especially the children who planned to leave with Iska, Ace always felt that there was something wrong with them.

He is not a chivalrous man, he just looks at things that he thinks are bad, and he will also block them, but just as he put forward his views with Deus, Deus grabbed his arm.

"What's wrong?"

"Ace, let's leave first, there are too many things like this, you can't control them, and those people... are members of the Beast Pirates"

He saw a pattern on the back of a suit. Kaido's ghost skull and Arceus's thousand-dimensional wrist were embroidered on the back on the left and right, as if a pair of wings were spread out.

Before he came to look for Ace, Skaar emphasized again that he was optimistic about Ace.

【Boss Deus, although the goal of Boss Ace is definitely to surpass One Piece, but now is not the time, especially for those monsters, it is not the time to provoke them. 】

As an intelligence officer on board, Skaar has a certain understanding of the new world, and knows that the Four Emperors are all terrifying big pirates, even the youngest Shanks is no exception.

If you want to challenge them, at least you have to reach the new world smoothly, so you will tell Deus to be optimistic about Ace, and don't make trouble at this time when the ship has not been coated.

"Deuce, I should have told you."

"ah"

"On the way to the top, I don't want to take a detour. Both Kaido and Whitebeard are the targets I want to challenge. I have sworn to my Pirate Flag."

Looking at Ace's appearance, Deus knew that he had failed. At this time, he did not continue to dissuade him, but followed the pace of his captain.

"I really can't do anything about you."

"Hey! Wait a minute!"

On the way out of the slums, Ace stopped Iska and his party.

"Excuse me, where are you taking these children?"

Blocking the road with open arms, Ace asked Iska politely.

Iska didn't answer him, but looked at the pirate beside him.

"Master Iska, this year's supernova, Fire Fist Ace, has a bounty of 290 million Baileys."

The people under him quickly gave the answer, which also made Iska's face cold. She is now a member of Hundred Beasts, but she doesn't like other pirates, even those who have some cooperation with Hundred Beasts The same goes for the BIG MOM Pirates.

"It has nothing to do with you, get out of the way, don't get in the way."

After waving their hands, the pirates understood Iska's meaning and stepped forward to drive Ace away. Iska also took advantage of the situation and changed his route.

Several more robust pirates stood in front of the children, blocking their sight. nOveluSB.com

Although they are supernovas this year, people under the command of the Four Emperors generally look down on these stunned youths who have just arrived in Chambord.

Iska's ignorance made Ace misunderstand, looking at Iska who wanted to leave, he waved his arm.

"Yan Shanggan!"

A wall of fire shot up into the sky, blocking Iska's way.

"Well, I'm sorry, if you let them leave with you, I'm not very relieved."

He meant well, but he used the most wrong method.

"Stupid idiot! What are you doing idiot?!"

Seeing Ace's actions, the expressions of the two pirates who wanted to get rid of him became very ugly. They followed their boss, of course they knew what kind of personality the boss had, and what Iska hated the most was fire, especially Such a sea of fire.

Whenever she sees a similar flame barrier, she will think of the nightmare back then. Even though she has overcome her fear, she still hates such things.

She can still accept the means of friendly forces, but the flames released by the enemy.

The two pirates who rushed to Ace were knocked down. Although they did not cause any trouble, it also made Ace realize that they were different from ordinary pirates. Their fists could hit him. Something he never encountered.

Before he could think about it, a sense of crisis suddenly appeared in his heart, and a crimson figure had already appeared beside him.

"What I hate the most is fire!"

A side kick passed in front of him, even though he chose to possess him in time, there was still a pain in his nose, he stretched out his hand, and blood was slowly flowing from the side of his nose

Chapter 802 The wind that cuts through the flames

"Ace?!"

Deus was surprised to see the bleeding Ace. He and Ace found the burning fruit together. At that time, they didn't understand the mystery of the devil fruit. They wanted to gain the power together, so they ate the burning fruit together. But only Ace who took the first bite gained the ability.

After that, the abilities of the nature department made them invincible all the way. Few people in the first half of the great route had a way to target those with the ability of the nature department. Except for the navy's prison bullets and sea tower stones, the only thing they were afraid of was falling into the water.

The previous two pirates attacked Ace with carelessness. He is a natural ability user, but his physical skills can be regarded as hammered out by Garp. Ordinary people are really not his opponents, but I didn't expect them to be able to attack. Natural body.

When Iska came here, it was entirely his inner instinct that made him choose to evade, but he was still rubbed on his body.

Seeing Ace being frustrated one after another, this was completely unexpected by Deus, and the surrounding pirates also showed unkind eyes. No matter what the reason is, it is a kind of face-slapping behavior for their boss to take action directly .

If it's a monster like the Emperor of the Sea, it's fine, a newcomer in the first half, which makes their face a bit ugly.

It is not easy for them to intervene in the battle of the boss, so they naturally looked at Deus.

"You go and take the kids away, he asked me to."

"Miss Ramy."

"It's okay, this is paradise, isn't it? And I also exercised a little bit."

Arceus, a very peculiar religious organization, except for ordinary believers, put those clergy together, except for the navy and the imperial regiment, other forces have nothing to do with them.

As a member of the sect, being able to play is a rigid need. It is not easy to play rummy in the new world, but it is different here.

And according to the management method of Beasts, when Iska started fighting, Lamy really had temporary jurisdiction over them.

"yes!"

"Come on, kids, go this way, we will protect you."

Many people in this team were brought back by similar methods more than ten years ago, and what they said was not perfunctory. Seeing the girl slowly approaching him, Deus didn't want to get entangled with her, because Ai Si's battle was not smooth.

In such a slum environment, Ace had many concerns, and he didn't even dare to use flames on a large scale. The most direct result of this was that Iska suppressed him.

The giant pincer mantis is indeed weak in fire, but it does not immediately paralyze when it encounters fire. At least until the upper temperature limit is reached, ordinary flames are really ineffective.

In this case, Deus also wants to help the other party.

"Step aside!"

"Ah la la, shouldn't it be you who should get out of the way? After all, you are blocking the way, Mr. Pirate."

Deuss waved his hand and wanted to knock Lamy down. Since the opponent was a woman, he also subconsciously felt that the opponent would not be very strong. He slightly withdrew his fist on the opponent's stomach, but this punch directly sank in.

Rami's abdomen has turned into the colored mud of Alola's smelly mud, and his body also shows a melting posture.

"From the Department of Nature?!" nOveluSB.com

"The answer is wrong, please lie down for a while."

Duss didn't understand what Lamy meant, but he suddenly lost feeling in his arm, and this feeling continued to extend upwards. When he noticed the abnormality, half of his body had already lost feeling.

"you you."

Tongue began to become stiff, Deus hesitated and couldn't speak, and finally fell to the ground with unwilling eyes.

"The skin of the human body is not airtight. The moment you touch it, you will lose."

Rami's body is actually terrifying. When she is attacked, she can control the things in her body to combine into different toxins with just one thought, whether it is paralysis or one-hit kill, or some viruses with unique effects.

Ramy, like Quinn, has the ability to resist toxins. It is a dividing line. Opponents above this dividing line will be relatively difficult to deal with, but for the crowd below, they will show absolute crushing.

"Deuce!"

"It's not a good habit to be distracted in battle, it's just a natural ability user, don't be too arrogant!"

Swinging the steel pliers, Iska's pliers smashed into Ace's chest with a piercing sound. Without arrogance, he couldn't predict the location of Iska's attack, and his physical reaction alone was not enough to make him give up in advance. The location being attacked.

Armed color grabbed the entity of the natural system, and the pincers smashed very firmly.

"Firefly Fire Dharma!"

Ace's hands emitted a light green light, and small fireballs flew out of his palms one by one, and gradually gathered around Iska, and then those small fireballs gathered together, producing a violent explosion.

Just when the explosion started, Iska had already left the range affected by the explosion ahead of time.

The double pliers smashed towards Ace's head.

"Shenhuo Shiranui!"

Ace's hand turned into flames, and the flames gradually extended while waving, facing Iska's attack like a spear.

"Wind pressure · Yan cut."

Iska's attack did not stop, but the moment she saw Ace's attack, the speed of the worm wings waving behind her reached the extreme, and then a strong airflow suddenly spewed out from the pincers, forming a cloud under her control. Take the wind sword.

This is a disadvantage she discovered when she was studying in Wano Country. The fighting method of the giant pincer mantis is smashing, and it is not convenient to use weapons in the transformed state. Therefore, based on the heat dissipation principle of the giant pincer mantis, she developed a new usage .

Compress the airflow generated by the waving insect wings in the body, and then release it from the gap in the pliers, forming a wind blade similar to a high-pressure water gun.

The sharp wind can not only replace the sword, allowing her to have a sharper attack method, but also allow her to cut off the flames she doesn't like.

The flame thrown by Ace was split in two by Iska, and then the pair of pincers stayed on both sides of Ace's neck like a scissors guillotine.

She discovered Ace's problem. As natural ability users, what they are best at is large-scale attacks, which can change the surrounding environment in a short time.

This is the powerful power that can only be brought after the awakening of the superhuman system. For the natural system, this is one of the most basic abilities. They can quickly create their own home field.

It's just that except for Yan Shanggan who blocked the road at the beginning, Ace never used a large-scale flame attack. It seemed that he was worried about something. This made Iska interested, so he just stopped his wind sword on the opponent's neck superior.

But before she asked anything, there was a burst of artillery roaring around, and teams of navies had surrounded the area at some point

Chapter 803 This pirate is different

"The wind can also put out fire."

In addition to domineering and Hailoushi, there is another way of restraint in natural battles, the restraint of elemental attributes, the thunder and lightning of Enilo can't reach a certain rubber man, the sand of Crocodile is afraid of water, and the flame will be pierced by magma .

Iskar's wind blade can also cause damage to the body of the flame. The wind helps the fire, and the wind can also extinguish the fire. When the wind is strong enough, the flame will be blown out directly.

The giant pincer mantis will overheat its body when it moves at high speed. The insect wings on the back are a pair of powerful cooling fans. Now Iska just uses this ability to compress through the gaps in the carapace to form a flame that can hurt the flames. The wind blade of the body.

This method also speeds up her heat dissipation and prolongs the duration of the battle.

Even if it cannot add domineering, it can still cause damage to Ace's body.

The high-speed flowing air blade approached Ace's neck, leaving a red bloodstain on it.

"The newcomers are getting more and more troublesome every year. I advise you to catch it without a fight. Although Lamy's poison can be cured, if it is delayed for a long time, there will be sequelae."

Whether it is the lethal toxin or the anesthetic, those are the microorganisms in Lamy's body. In her body, these microorganisms constitute a delicate balance and are under her control.

But after entering the enemy's body, there is no problem for a short time. Lamy himself doesn't know whether it will mutate into a new species after a long time.

Of course, this time is still very long, and now it is not even an hour, and Iska's words are more to intimidate the other party.

Although Hundred Beasts doesn't have natural ability users, large-scale elemental attacks are not uncommon in previous training.

Everyone's fighting style in the sea is different, but they can be divided into several major categories after all. In Hundred Beasts, whether it's physical skills or elements, they all have top-level powerhouses. It can be said that these new generations have all experienced Certain training.

Fire Fist Ace, his most famous move is the Fire Fist, but he has never used it, and his combat power is different from other natural ability users, as if restricted by something.

At this time, a series of artillery sounds sounded, and the peripheral navy launched an attack on them.

It is normal for the navy to catch pirates, but the reasons for these navy to come here are somewhat special.

Even if they landed in an illegal area, the news that these pirates landed in the Chambord Islands could not be hidden from the local garrison, but they did not act at the beginning.

Since the era of great pirates, the mission of the garrison in Chambord has gradually changed, from guarding the safety of the island to protecting the safety of the world government and world nobles, and even created a buffer zone like an illegal zone.

The Chambord Islands are right under Malinfordo's eyes, and the admiral won't be long to get here. If they're willing to clean it up, Chambord will be the same as the G-1 branch, not this mess.

It is only because of the policy of the world government that this place has become like this.

As long as the passing pirates don't make any big noises, Chambord's navy will turn a blind eye.

They're going to be here at this hour, or because of the ghetto gangs.

Iska's people were not polite to them. These people were bullying and afraid of strength. They didn't dare to do anything by themselves, but they notified the navy.

Under normal circumstances, the navy of Chambord would not be dispatched because of this kind of thing, at least the garrison generals at this time would not make such a choice. As long as the nobles of the world government do not have any problems, they will always let the pirates live in the illegal area
.NoveluSb.cOm

But their promotion also requires military merit. For the navy, there is no more direct way to accumulate military merit than catching pirates. Rather than directly conflicting with pirates, they prefer to benefit after conflicts with pirates themselves.

As long as the pirate is caught, no one cares how it was caught, it is almost a free gift.

Even if there is external help, the above will focus on the achievements of the navy.

Because of this, when they heard that Hundred Beasts' team had clashed with this year's supernova, they seized the time to surround this place.

Whether it is a mutual injury or a one-sided sling, it is an opportunity for them.

The subordinates of the Emperor of the Sea are indeed reticent, but it does not mean that the navy is completely afraid to move. The people below will still choose to arrest the other party if they have the opportunity, and the subsequent incidents have nothing to do with them.

Even if a larger conflict is triggered, it is still a matter of the above, and they can still get actual military merit.

It's just that the admiral is a little impatient this time. Seeing the opponent's fight back and forth, he wants to capture them at the same time. Whether it is a supernova or a member of Beasts, it is a great achievement for him. Get away from this * place.

There are good people in the navy who care about civilians, but this general is obviously not among them. Anyway, it is also a slum, and he is not worried about affecting anyone with status, so he directly gave the order to bombard.

The large-scale bombardment affected not only Iska and Ace, but also Iska's subordinates, the children they took away, and the people who originally lived here.

"fire punch!"

After the body completely turned into flames and flashed aside, Ace's arms also turned into flames and extended to the distance. The huge flaming fists swept across the sky, blocking the shells fired by the navy in midair.

Under the impact and roasting of the flames, the cannonball was detonated in mid-air, and the aftermath of the explosion did not cause any harm to ordinary people below.

"I said, no matter what, everyone is a pirate, so let's call it a truce and let's deal with these navies, how about it?"

"You are very brave."

The most basic requirement for the cadres of the New World Pirates is to be domineering. The domineering color is purely based on talent, but the armed color and knowledge color have a lot of proficiency through training.

Facing opponents who are not domineering, they can be predictable. Ace's fire fist is within Iska's perception range, and it is precisely because she senses the attack direction of his fire fist that she does not block the opponent.

She said that the other party's courage is also because of this. Ace is not knowledgeable now. When he chooses to block those shells, he just gave up defense.

Even if his body was completely turned into flames, just now she had the ability to grab the opponent's entity. Even without armed color, her wind blade could still cause a lot of damage to his body.

Of course she also heard the sound of the shelling, but she didn't care. Those who followed her were also the elite of the New World.

Unexpectedly, Ace shot first.

Looking at it this way, this pirate seems a little different.

Chapter 804 Peerless Mowing

"Use prison bullets! That guy is a natural ability user! Do I need to remind you of this?!"

In order to deal with those with abilities, the Navy has developed special ammunition that fires sea stone nets. Because the fired iron nets are fixed with sea stones, as long as they hit the ability people, they can restrain their actions and achieve the effect of a small prison, hence the name prison. bomb.

Prison ammunition has a slow rate of fire, and it is usually difficult to directly hit pirates with a bounty of over 100 million. The navy's practice is still to use ordinary shells to waste energy, and then consider using prison ammunition.

Due to the price of Hailou Stone, the price of Prison Ammo remains high. Even if that kind of net can be recycled, it will still cause wear and tear, so Prison Ammo is not commonly used equipment, and the number of equipment is limited.

If they run out first, they will lose their countermeasures, but that is the way to deal with animal-type and superhuman-type abilities. Facing nature-type, shells can't consume physical strength at all.

Ace is their priority capture target, and being able to intercept a supernova in the Chambord Islands is considered a great achievement. In this case, there is no need to go head-to-head with the pirates in the new world.

According to the development of the original timeline, there is still a vacancy in the Qibuhai at this time, and Ace, as a rising star and a rare natural-type ability user, obtained the invitation qualification of the Qiwuhai under the proposal of the navy version Iska .

Iska in the original timeline naturally didn't have this ability. At this time, the report was seen by Garp. He originally hoped that Ace and Luffy could become navy, but they both took the road of pirates.

Compared to ordinary pirates, Garp thinks that Shichibukai's position is more suitable, so he secretly helped a little.

But Ace was not interested in Shichibukai at all, so he directly rejected the invitation.

But it is different now. The expansion of beasts has accelerated the struggle in the sea, and Qiwuhai has already been full. At the same time, he has no guides, and there is no possibility of accepting Qiwuhai's invitation. He is just a threatening pirate.

It's just that in the eyes of the navy, a pirate who has not yet entered the new world, even if it is a person with natural abilities, is far less threatening than the cadres of the emperor of the sea. Bring all the prison bullets.

"It seems that you agree."

Ace doesn't get a reply from Iska when the navy starts changing ammo, but doesn't get attacked either.

In this case, he thought it was Iska who acquiesced to this request.

"I admit that I have changed my opinion of you a little bit, but the pirates in Paradise are still so naive, Rummy, deal with it, it's time to withdraw."

"Leave it to me, Sister Iska."

Different people have different focuses. Iska is not good at group battles. She lacks large-scale AOE skills, not at all, but that kind of attack is not easy to control the aftermath.

Iska doesn't like that. Unlike Iska, Lamy is more suitable for this kind of battle.

"Move faster!"

There are also differences in the strength of the naval branches. There is no possibility of comparison between the Four Seas Branch and the Great Airline Branch.

But there is also a big difference between the branches of the Great Route. For example, G-5 is the worst naval branch.

The navy of Chambord is not individually numbered, but they are definitely the most chaotic wave of people in the great route.

The sneak attack did not achieve results, and the two groups of pirates even stopped fighting. This is not a good thing for him. The enemy of the enemy can join forces, which is a superficial truth that pirates also understand.

Of course, the development of the matter was completely different from what he thought. Just when he wanted to order his men to continue attacking, a girl suddenly appeared in front of him. Iska, who was still in front of Ace just now, had already arrived at the major general before.

"Bullets and punches."

The pair of pincers waved a red afterimage, and the bullet punches hit the major general's chest one after another, and then kicked him sideways, directly kicking him into the dilapidated ruins beside him.

The dilapidated and dilapidated building collapsed directly under the influence of the impact, burying the major general inside.

"Your Excellency, Major General!"

Even the adjutants around him didn't realize what happened. During the battle, he didn't have time to check on his commander's situation, because bigger troubles had already appeared in the team.

A colorful figure flickered around in the navy ranks, waving two liquid whips in its hands indiscriminately, but as soon as the whips touched their bodies, within 10 seconds, those soldiers would fall stiffly to the ground .

The crowd fell like harvesting wheat. Whenever the soldiers' attention gathered at one point, the figure would move to a new place. Although it couldn't use it itself, the adjutant immediately saw the movement. What is the way.

"Shaved?! Why do you do this thing!"

"Are you the young master who came here to be gilded? No enemy will give you such a thing as popular science."

Iska didn't even intend to attack him, because a hand was already on his shoulder.

"Sleep with peace of mind, Mr. Navy."

Rami's hand patted the back of his neck, and the liquid left behind quickly penetrated into the skin. In a few seconds, he felt the same feeling as the soldiers.

The feeling of paralysis spread to the central nervous system, and he soon lost his consciousness and collapsed on the ground.

"Sister Iska, I'm faster than you this time."

"I didn't do anything when you came."

This is the cooperation between them. Iska handles the leader with the strongest combat power, and Lamy uses her ability to quickly clear up the miscellaneous soldiers. She is the first batch of Foz Fu's students to successfully graduate, and she can flexibly use the six forms .

But due to her own ability, she focused on shaving, using a near-teleporting movement method to come to the crowd, and then knock down the enemy with the toxin synthesized in her body.

A team of hundreds of people is just a few minutes for her.

At this time, Ace was still in the posture of wanting to punch. Even he would choose to retreat in the face of the navy. Originally, he meant to break through the encirclement. Unexpectedly, Iska and Lamy directly wiped out each other. He didn't even have a chance to make a shot.

This is also the reason why Iska said he was naive. Facing a navy of this level, she doesn't need to join forces with others.

"Stop looking, now the trouble is back at us." novelus&.com

"Deuce? Are you alright?"

"I don't know, that girl patted me just now, and I can move again, it's not important, don't you think about it, how should this matter end?"

It took a few minutes to deal with the navy surrounding here, and Iska's eyes returned to Ace.

"Forget it this time, you can go."

Seeing that the other party had no intention of entanglement, Deus hurriedly wanted to pull Ace away, but Ace couldn't move at all.

"Can you tell me, where are you taking those children?"

Chapter 805 You have the potential to be the best miner of the year

"Hey, brat, this kind of thing has nothing to do with you, meddling in our affairs and letting you go is already a shame, you better be sensible."

Although Beasts can gain a higher position through challenges, the hierarchical system is also very strict. They will not violate such orders. Seeing that Ace is so ignorant of good and bad, some people can't stand it anymore.

"Take them to another place first, and I will handle it here."

"Yes! Miss Iska."

The battle was over, and they planned to leave here with the recruited people, and Iska also asked Ace a question.

"Even if we really want to do something, why do you stop me? Even so, do you still want to stand in front?"

"So what, there are always things to do, don't underestimate me, I still have a lot of moves that I haven't used yet."

"No moves can change the fundamental gap between you and me. If you want to win, I'll train in the new world for a year or two before talking about it. You don't even know how to be domineering. You are not qualified to say this.

It's just that you don't have to think too much, we are not human traffickers, we just take them to learn. "

For the sake of Ace's shot to block the shell, Iska explained a few words to him.

"If you are not at ease, you can follow along. How about it? Do you want to join us? Neither Lord Arceus nor Kaido should object to you."

Arceus values character, while Kaido only cares about strength. No matter which aspect, it seems that Ace is qualified for the time being.

Although he is not an animal department, he has passed the baseline of Kaido's recruitment target by virtue of his status as a supernova. This nosy personality can barely be considered a good person.

It is a constant habit of every large pirate group to attract newcomers, and Iska also has the right to make suggestions.

Seeing things suddenly mentioned to him, Ace was a little overwhelmed. This was the first time he heard such words.

Before he could react, several marines got up again.

"Rummy!"

"Ah! I'm sorry, Sister Iska, I made a mistake in the dosage, these physiques are a bit better."

Looking at the rising navy, Lamy repeated her previous actions. She didn't use a lethal dose of poison. If it was Quinn who came here, none of these marines would survive, and he would never show mercy.

It's just that Lamy and Iska are different. They don't like to kill people. After all, relying on Lamy's ability, they can quickly subdue each other.

This is the case with these navies, and they will return to normal after a period of paralysis.

Desperation, this is Quinn's evaluation of Lamy. In Quinn's view, Lamy has completely failed to grasp the essence of ability, and various concerns prevent her from showing the strongest side of this ability.

And this weird situation also convinced Ace that there should be an essential difference between these people and human traffickers, and human traffickers will not show mercy to their enemies.

"Little ghost, do you still hesitate? This is an invitation from beasts. Do you know how many pirates want this and borrow this flag? Do you have the right to become our subordinate? You don't have to be afraid of anything in the new world."

"The new world is different from Paradise. It is difficult to survive there without a backer. You'd better think clearly."

Seeing that Ace has not given an answer, several people next to him began to express their opinions, but Ace didn't mean to be moved.

"Well, I'm sorry, I don't want to join anyone, whether it's Kaido or Whitebeard, they are just obstacles in my way, I will knock them all down!"

The air fell into silence for a while, and several pirates belonging to Hundred Beasts patted their ears in disbelief, but when they remembered that this was Shampoo Land, everything became reasonable again.

"Pfft hahaha.. Haha, I'm not sorry, this is too funny, I can't help it, you continue..."

Rami covered her mouth and walked aside, but her laughter also started. The surrounding pirates laughed one after another, and there was even some contempt in their eyes.

"Interesting, so you want to challenge Mr. Kaido?"

"No, according to the plan, I will visit Shanks first, and then challenge Whitebeard. As for Kaido, let's talk about it after I defeat Whitebeard."

Listening to Ace's lofty ambitions, Iska blinked slightly dully. He almost managed to win the four emperors of the new world by himself.

"There is everything in the dream, even I can't beat it. Where do you have the courage to challenge Mr. Kaido?"

"I said don't underestimate me, if you don't believe me, find a spacious place, that's just part of my strength"

"Not interested, but I look forward to seeing you challenge Mr. Kaido, by the way, do you know how to mine?"

"No, why ask?"

"Because I think you have the potential to become the best miner this year. I wish you can come to our site alive. When that day comes, I will recommend you to Mr. Kaido."

Iska didn't explain what the miner meant, and turned around and left here with his own people.

This kind of newcomers with lofty ideals cannot be persuaded, and they will never admit defeat until they themselves hit a wall.

So Iska felt that she couldn't convince him with words, and a natural ability user really exploded with all his strength, and the damage caused was definitely not small. Her main task was not to recruit such people. Seeing that her good intentions were rejected, she would naturally disappear interest.

Ace didn't know that there were many thorns locked up in Wano Country's mine at this time. They were all aspiring young people with lofty ideals like him. This is also the difference between the sea emperors.

Challenge Charlotte Lingling, there is a small chance of becoming her son-in-law, but more often than not, her life will be taken away.

Challenge Shanks, usually some parts will be cut off, usually the left hand. If he likes this person, he may just hold a banquet to see him off.

Challenging Whitebeard, he doesn't think it's exchanged for money by the navy, but he thinks he's adopted as his son.

Challenge Kaido, throw him into the mine for labor reform, either join or work until he dies.

This is the end of the challenge failure, as for success? That's a joke, these four monsters are not something newcomers without halos can defeat.

After today's chaos ended, Ace and Deus returned to their boat, and they also talked about what they saw today with their partners.NoVELusb.COM

"Boss Ace, it may not be appropriate to say this, but you should understand the gap in strength."

After hearing Ace's narration, Skaar pondered for a while, but still stood up.

"What's wrong?"

"Those two women should have tattoos or patterns similar to numbers?"

"Well, there is no one who used poison. It seems that seven is written on the leader's clothes. What's wrong?"

"That's the way the Beasts Pirates use to show their strength. They will fight each other to determine their own status. She is seven, which means that there are at least six stronger than her. Boss Ace, you understand Does that mean anything?"

Chapter 806 Your brain should be normal!

"Huh, that means there are only five people between me and Kaido?"

Listening to Skaar's words, Ace pondered for a while, and then came to an astonishing conclusion.

"What are you thinking!!"

"That's right, how could Kaido number himself, there are at least six of you missing..."

"Is that so? There are six people."

Listening to what Deus said, Ace clenched his left hand and tapped it on the palm of his right hand, showing an expression of sudden realization. He didn't expect that he had missed one.

"Shut up, you guys!"

The notebook in Skaar's hand fell to the ground, and he couldn't understand the brain circuit of his own captain.

"Isn't that what you said, she is No.7, then there must be No.6-No.1 on it, and there must be Kaido at the top, just knock them all down.

Although the woman is very strong, the difference in the number of people is not particularly large, only five or six people."

"Maybe I didn't quite understand what I said. This is just a part of the cadres of the Beasts Pirates, and then there are the big cadres named Three Disasters, plus Kaido's daughter and the deputy captain named Arceus. Just showing the strength outside is already terrifying."

Back then, Skaar had also arrived at some ports in the New World, so he knew more about these sea emperors. Although he couldn't figure out the specific sequence of beasts, at least he didn't know anything like Ace.

"So we have to add five?"

"It's not that simple! I don't understand the red hair, he is considered a newcomer among the emperors of the sea, but the other three, the children of BIG MOM, and the team directly under Whitebeard's command, are all monsters.

Beasts is the most special one. In addition to their own pirate group, they also have a special religious organization inside.

Members of this religion are usually very kind, but as long as you commit their taboos, you will understand what a lunatic is. "

In the past, he met people from the Arceus religion by chance, and he also knew what those seemingly ordinary missionaries were hiding.

Under normal circumstances, the pirate troops directly under Kaido are more unreasonable, but when taboos are violated, the people of Arceus will be crazier than them. .

This violent group of religions is terrifying in battle.

The inner madness of fanatics is something ordinary people can't understand at all, but its current spread is not very wide, so Skaar only knows some superficial.

"Is the sect you're talking about a special circular cross pattern?"

"Yes, probably. Such a pattern, Boss Deus, have you met them?"

"Yeah, I did, and it didn't feel good."

Recalling Lamy's weird method, which made him fall to the ground with one touch, and made hundreds of marines incapacitated, Deus understood what Skar meant.

"So, they are stronger than I imagined, that's what they mean."

"Yes, Boss Ace, although you are also very strong, I still think it is too early to challenge them after entering the new world. We should at least get familiar with the environment of the new world before challenging them."

Ace recognized his dream, and he also joined the Spade Pirates. In this case, he naturally supported Ace's decision, but knowing some secrets of the new world, he thought that such things should not be rushed, and wanted to let Ace Si paused his pace.

"Is anyone afraid? As I said before, the so-called emperor of the sea is also the target I want to challenge. If you regret it now, there is still time."

At this time, Ace did not directly draw a conclusion, but asked his crew for their opinions.

"No, Captain, you can do whatever you want!"

"That's right, since we're on your boat, we're going to go all the way to the dark! We've overcome the danger in the first half, so we won't back down at this time!"

"Scarl, what about you?"

"As expected of you, Boss Ace, although I don't recommend doing this, but if you must challenge them, of course I will accompany you to the end."

"Since this is the case, the plan remains the same, let's practice first."

In the final analysis, they still haven't seen what the top combat power looks like so far. Even if the opponent's subordinates are very strong, they can't imagine how big the gap between the top and the top is.

The smaller the number of the number, the bigger the gap between them, especially the strength of the Sea Emperor, which is no longer a monster that can be defeated by quantity. Only by improving your quality can you be able to match it.

Although Ace was often taught by Garp, Garp who taught his grandson would not show his true strength. It is because of their ignorance that they have great courage now.

At this time, Ace's practice is also ready on the ship, a target with a pattern of white beard, inlaid with flame shells from Sky Island.

There are many sky islands in the world. The sky island that Ace passed by is not the sky island ruled by beasts now. These flame shells are also the materials they collected at the beginning.

As long as the upper limit of the Yanbei's capacity is not exceeded, Ace's flames will be absorbed by the Yanbei, so you can practice freely on the boat, and supplement the flames needed for cooking and boiling water by the way.

After the coating work was completed, the Spades Pirates had left the Chambord Islands, but Iska's ship did not return directly, but went to the direction of the nine snakes to deliver some supplies to them.

Originally, Olga should have come to this matter, but she was busy with Assier's 250th birthday recently, so she didn't come here.

The navy who was poisoned by Lamy also returned to his base. The slums are not in the illegal area, and the people there still dare not attack the navy.

The pirates gathered in the illegal area dare to hang the sign of the Navy's forbidden area at the entrance, and treat the Navy as nothing. They are arrogant. They don't know what kind of revenge the navy will usher in if they really get angry.

The newspaper of the World Economic News Agency still updates what happened at sea, but some people's thinking has been greatly impacted. NoVELusb.COM

Beihai, on a submarine, Pei Jin and Xia Qi took the newspaper sent by Newsbird, and learned about what happened at sea.

This is exactly the Red Heart Pirates. Although Bepo is now serving as a guard beside Setsuna, Luo and his party are still embarking on their own journey.

It's just that compared to those pirates who are in a hurry, Luo's sailing speed is very slow, and he is still developing in the North Sea.

"Brother Luo, is the great route really that dangerous?"

"Of course, it's not the North Sea, there are monsters everywhere."

"If you read the newspaper, you will know that this girl named Lamy was defeated directly"

"What did you say?!"

Chapter 807 Calmness and impulsiveness, waiting and misfortune

"What...what's the matter, Brother Luo, is something wrong?"

Luo has always been very cold on weekdays, and this personality has not changed since he went to sea.

Both Xia Qi and Pei Jin once went astray after the death of their parents. It was Luo and Wolfe who adopted and cared for Luo at that time who accepted them, lived together, experienced battles together, and finally took the gift that Wolfe gave them. Polar Diving embarked on a journey.

After escaping from Haiyan Island, Luo spent a relatively happy time.

He had companions who could be called friends, and learned the joy of being alive.

However, even this life cannot heal the scars of the past.

There are still dirty things in his heart, the destruction of Frevans, the hatred for Doflamingo, and the anxiety of wanting to realize Corazon's wish.

At first, he once thought that he only needed to go to Dressrosa one day.

By then, everything with Doflamingo will be over.

Later, he experienced a battle, and since then, Luo has longed to know what true freedom is.

Family is a hurdle for me in the past. There is no Flemings thing in the past. Now I may be an excellent physician, but a pirate.

Wen Yanluo snatched the newspaper, browsed the information slowly, and looked for clues under the pictures in the newspaper.

In order to understand the meaning of freedom in Corazon's mouth, he chose to go to sea. In the cognition of this sea, pirates are the most "free" group of people. Under the influence of this general environment, Luo still made this decision .

Brother Duocheng Hongxin still knows my specific situation at this time, but as long as he retreats into the previous route, sooner or later brother Shaocheng Hongxin will know the clues. Luo, who has cultivated in the Don Quixote family, knows that the current self is basically Lesser Roth's opponent.

Not to mention a man of beasts.

"What did he just say this person's name is?"

According to the abnormal situation, even if your sister escaped from Flemings, she would eventually die of platinum-lead disease.

If you want to become famous, you will be discovered by Brother Shaolei. I heard that Brother Shaocheng Hongxin still has no business dealings with Baishou. He only has one life. I am afraid of death, but I don't want to die at all. value.

"Cheng Hongxin, what's wrong?"

"Lalami, a male pirate belonging to the Chambord Islands, you brought down a small navy by yourself. You seem to be some kind of capable person."

After being infected by Luffy, Luo was still a calm person and made what I think is the safest choice at the moment, but he still slightly slowed down his actions.

At the press conference of Beasts Fruit, Luo saw the living nun. Although according to the nun, there are no other survivors in Flemings, but nothing is wrong. Let me give you another example.

Luo still remembered that sentence.

Unknown ability, same power, same name, those coincidences put together, some hope emerged in Luo's heart.

So I have been staying in the North Sea, and I have taught Pei Jin and Xia Qi some things. Although those are also learned from the Don Quixote family, it does not prevent me from weakening my own strength.

It is not surprising that there are no photos under the newspaper. Whether it is a member of the Navy or the World Economic News Agency, they are enemies when taking photos. The problem is that this young Lamy is far from the Lamy I remember.

Originally, I was slow at first, until I heard the name just now.

However, due to the currents and weather before the new world, before experiencing a series of natural disasters, I was washed to the Riwei sea area of Wano country. Outside there, I encountered the smallest crisis since I came to the new world.

If you want to find Shaolei Luoge, you can go to Drogosa, if you want to find Kaishao, you have to go to Wano Country, but now I have nothing, even if I go to the new world, I am afraid I will see someone else.

"Yes, the original plan has changed, but now is still the time."

"You know it, and you are sure."novELusb.com

Ever since Shaoles Roge seized the throne of Drogossa, Luo has been paying attention to the information under Xiaohai, and even contacted the ground forces in Beihai to take a step back to grasp the information.

It must be true or worse, if I admit the wrong person, the matter about Brother Shaocheng Hongxin will be over.

Relying on my medical skills, I am still a badass in the above world, and I have also detected some information, but the less I know, the more difficult it is for me to deal with Les Luo.

Eight people get along with each other as teenagers, and Pei Jin and Xia Qi also know Luo well. They can see what I am anxious about, and it must have nothing to do with the information in the newspaper just now.

Luo didn't answer, but fell into deep thought. After a long time, I still made a decision.

"Yeah, Frefan, isn't there anyone important?"

It's just that when I saw the side face under the photo, I fell into confusion.

【嗵嗵嗵嗵嗵, Luo, no one is being honest, his eyes deceived him, or, that itself is not a deception, do you know what kind of company Baishou Fruit is? It is the white gloves of beasts. **】

I might forget my sister's name. Xia Qi said that the ability user made my heart tremble. Due to the problem of platinum-lead disease, my sister and I have unlimited life spans. I cured platinum-lead by myself. hidden danger, but there is only one fruit of the operation.

Some people's childhood and adult faces are carved out of the same mold, and some people have no earth-shaking changes. Lamy is not the former. You have grown up completely in those years, so that Luo can't be sure, whether it is true or not The Rami I know is my sister.

He did not rush into the great route because of some concerns. Ever since he knew the big secret of the fruit of the operation, he knew that Doflamingo would not give up this opportunity, the legendary chance of eternal life.

I'm sure this is really my sister, and she should also encounter some kind of safety if she clings to the Emperor Haixia, so I resisted the urge.

Today Lamy is 18 years old, but Luo's memory of Lamy stays 11 years later.

"Frevan, if you set off for the tiny airway."

Luo was in a tangle at this time. I didn't have the ability to do it before I arrived in the new world, but I had to go beyond it for some of my plans.

In the deep sea, the figure of Nereus gradually floated down. Looking at the ships behind you without any marks of beasts, you directly set off a wave and rolled towards the Spatil.

What if other my abilities can also solve that disease?

And some time ago, the White Peach Pirates who rushed back to the new world with a wave of cold blood also encountered their own little troubles. According to Ace's plan, I want to visit the red hair first, and then challenge the white beard. Kai Shao is the last stop.

"Yeah, it's not too bad to be unprepared. You are not ready yet."

Chapter 808 Wano Country's "Dragon Moat"

The Kingdom of Wano originally had two natural moats, the turbulent ocean currents outside and its own tall barriers. After all the beasts entered the Kingdom of Wano, there was a new defense measure here, the tyrannosaurus group.

The giant carp kings of the past have long evolved, and several giant tyrannosaurs live near the Wano country, and ships without the mark of beasts are their targets.

For foreign ships to enter Wano Country smoothly, they must first notify the Beasts. After approval, they will send a pilot ship or leave a special mark on the ship.

A special paint formed by fusing the sap collected from the branches of the tree fruit with the powder ground from Arceus steel. Without this paint, there is no pilot ship, which is not the ship familiar to the Gyarados. Differential attack enemies.

What kind of attack will be encountered is a gamble, because Gyarados have different personalities. If you are lucky, you may just be overturned. If you are not lucky, those Gyarados will also be wiped out.

As for ordinary expulsion

They are tyrannosaurs, nicknamed fierce and cruel. If they don't get their approval, they won't experience the tenderness of that Pokémon.NoVELusb.COM

Ace in the original timeline encountered shipwreck, just like the Whitebeard Pirates, was washed up in Wano Country by coincidence, and happened to be at a time when Kaido was not at home.

But now, such a coincidence does not exist.

"Whoa! What...what's going on!"

"Hold on to the rope! Don't fall! Teacher! Kodaz has fallen to your side, grab it!"

The lynx on the boat almost flew out under the impact of the waves, but Michal flew out the rope in his hand and caught it back.

The sea current before was just relatively turbulent, but I didn't expect it to become like this in the blink of an eye.

Relying on excellent ship control skills, the Spades Pirates barely stabilized the ship.

This is not the first time that such a thing has happened. Inexplicably, a knife fell from the sky, hit a non-existent air wall, and a vortex appeared in the middle of the sea. Various natural disasters made them experience it all over this period of time.

Before encountering any powerful opponents, they have already experienced the cruelty of the new world.

Even Skaar has not experienced this, past experience is of no help at all.

Ace and the others thought that it was because of such a dangerous climate that they didn't encounter any enemies. They didn't know that it was because a changing sea current rushed into the hinterland of Beast's territorial waters and avoided the patrol boats. That's why you can't meet enemies.

The huge waves stopped for a while, and before the people on board took a breath, the crisis came to them again.

The huge figure of Nereus protrudes from the sea water, with only the upper body exposed to the sea is ten meters high, and he is looking at the people on Ace's boat with unfriendly eyes.

"you"

As soon as Ace uttered a word, Nereus raised his arm and smashed towards their ship.

Iska is willing to chat with him, because Iska has a kinder personality, but Nereus is different. Even after eating the transformed fruit, she is still the queen of the Gyarados in essence. , more thinking with the thinking of the Gyarados.

Without pilot ships, without markings, and unknown pirate flags, then they are the enemy, and there is no need to talk nonsense about the enemy.

"fire punch!"

Seeing the giantess in front of her attack without saying a word, Ace also launched his own counterattack, hitting Nereus with a huge flaming fist.

"fire?"

A scornful smile appeared on the corner of Nereus's mouth. Without any worries, Ace, who had just entered the new world, was able to fight Jinbe for days and nights with full firepower, but there was land.

On land, the murlocs lost their greatest advantage, but now, here is the ocean.

Put your hands together, a wave of water has been condensed, and it meets Ace's fire fist head-on.

Everyone knows that water can extinguish fire. At the moment when water and fire collided, a large amount of steam blocked the sight of the two of them. Fighting consumption at sea is not a clear choice.

Nereus' dragon tail flicked on the sea surface, and a water dragon rushed onto the deck. Under the attack of the water flow, Ace's flame went silent in an instant, and the people on board were also washed away.

The sporadic counterattacks had no effect. Nereus's body was covered with hard scales, and the attacks of these ordinary members could not do anything to her at all.

Before Ace got up, Nereus opened his mouth wide, and a flame spit out from her mouth, as if to show in this way, who can't spray fire these days.

For example, some Pokémon can breathe fire although they cannot fly.

Looking at the oncoming flames, he still stood up tenaciously. Just being splashed with water would not make him lose his strength, and it would have no effect unless he was soaked in water all the time.

Relying on the flame body, he absorbed all the jet flames, but Nereus' follow-up attack also came, and the tail of the water smashed their boat, and the tsunami caused by the surf covered the place again.

On land, Ace still has the power to fight against Nereus, but on the sea, he has no ability to match the opponent at all. Even if he can barely parry one or two, Nereus is still capable of destroying his ships.

With a flick of the tail, the tide rushed into the distance. As for whether the Spades Pirates were dead or alive, and where they would be washed away, Nereus was not interested. If she read correctly, there seemed to be murlocs on board. If you work hard, you can still be saved.

Confirming that those people have been washed away and will not enter the area of Wano Country, Nereus looked back at his family.

Snapped!

The tail slapped on the sea, and several tyrannosaurs surfaced one after another, looking like the elementary school students who were taught by the class teacher.

"Why, can an unmarked ship reach this place?"

Arceus gave her the status of the king of the group, which no tyrannosaurus can shake. Even if there is a tyrannosaurus who is not convinced, it just complains in private.

Most of these Gyarados are the elders of Nereus. Some Gyarados didn't understand that a junior became king at first, and it was only because of Arceus that they obeyed her orders.

It's just that as Nereus gradually showed her strength, her throne became more and more stable. At this time, she was standing up, and the objects of standing up were those who lived in other sea areas, made a pilgrimage here for the first time, and had never seen her before. New Gyarados.

"King, that boat is too small."

"No matter how big or small, it is a pirate ship! This is the order of the master! If there is another time, don't blame me for being rude!"

"yes"

After a lesson, the sea surface became silent, the Gyarados returned to the water again, and Nereus was also recalling the situation just now.

【The way I learned from Mandelfisch to teach my subordinates, the one just now should be fine, right? 】

Chapter 809 Divine Grace Ritual and Jealousy

Intelligent creatures continue to grow according to their own experience. The fruit that Nereus ate was the phantom beast of the Human Fruit. This fruit significantly improved her wisdom.

Pokémon are very smart, but their way of thinking is still different from that of humans. The thinking logic of Eudemons is closer to that of humans, but this is not the case for other Pokémon. Nereus' previous logical thinking has always been the way of the Gyarados group.

When we meet, let's send flame jets, if not, then let's use a destructive death ray, and if you are unhappy, I will beat you up first.

It was only after she became the king of the clan that she found that this method was not suitable for future development. As the king of the clan, she shouldn't be so irritable, so she learned some management methods from familiar humans.

The objects of her study are basically the murlocs, and people like Mandelfish who have a close relationship with the murlocs, because he lives in an environment where he can swim directly from the sea, so it is more convenient to visit.

Originally, she also consulted Jack, but it was just Jack's management style.

If you don't accept it, fight a fight, whoever wins has the final say, even simpler and rude than Gyarados, most people don't know how to express feelings at all, unless his milk fairy is interested in him.

Among the current cadres, Jack's subordinates have the highest injury rate. After all, his most common tactic is boarding.

Cleaned up the surrounding sea area, Nereus turned into a Gyarados again, entered the Wano Country along the outer waterfall, and landed on the beach of Kuri, dragging a sea king behind him.

The tyrannosaurus group has long been integrated into the ecological chain of the sea. There are too many unknowns hidden in this sea, and the inclusiveness of creatures is also unexpectedly strong. The special group of sea kings and sea beasts can exist in the sea. It illustrates the inclusiveness of the sea.

Ordinary marine creatures are not interested in carp kings, but sea beasts and sea kings can regard them as krill. The huge reproduction number of carp kings ensures the reproduction of the group. When tyrannosaurs are born in a small group, their status in the biological chain will change.

For Nereus, who leads all Gyarados, she has already stood at the top of the marine life chain.

The sea kings who want to attack her will only become her food in the end, or a gift.

This sea king with the head of a sea bream is like this. The pilgrimage is something that the carp king group does every year, but the chances of finding the stone slab are not high. Only Nereus has found that piece for so many years.

But as she studied, she began to think that she couldn't come here empty-handed every time. Arceus didn't like ordinary things, so she would expand the influence of her creator.

"Boom!"

The huge Neptune was thrown to the ground, and a big hole was smashed on the beach, and the nearby fishermen all stared wide-eyed. novelusb.com

The outer seas of Wano Country are full of turbulent whirlpool currents. If you want to fish, you can only fish on a small scale in the inland sea. Inland river fishing can also provide a lot of catches, but seafood is still relatively rare in general, and most people do not have the ability to go fishing.

Usually brought back from the outside world by the Beasts fishing team, the price will be higher.

"Let's divide it up."

After leaving such a sentence, Nereus walked nine miles deep, and the direction she was heading happened to be Zeraola's home. She wanted to discuss something with the "eldest son".

Not long after, a few more figures appeared on Ghost Island. Nereus, who was as large as more than 20 meters, and Diancie, who was as small as half a meter, and most of the Pokémon created by Arceus were watching nearby.

The three bees danced the dance of bees under the leadership of the queen bee, and the electric shock monster grabbed the wind fairy beside them to prevent them from running around.

Little Fist Stone waited silently on the ground, and the Eight-Headed Dragon was just like a good baby.

In the sky, you can see steel-clad crows and Tanabata blue birds soaring, and the giant blacksmith sat obediently by the side, not thinking about anything wrong.

Tian Lengmei drives away the seabirds next to him, protects the sweet bamboo beside him, and the electric dragon controls the group of Mali sheep to prevent innocent people from being electrocuted.

Several Haoli are also competing with each other, wanting to compare who can do more push-ups, and even let a few green onion ducks stand on their backs as extra weight.

Cream Fairy shuttles through the Pokémon community, sharing her own cream.

Most of the Pokémon located in Wano Country gather here, and even Pokémon with a large number of ethnic groups also have their own representatives.

In addition to the Pokémon gathered together, there are also many pirates who are watching. From their eyes, you can see a trace of fanaticism, because the divine grace ceremony is being held here.

Arceus is showing his great power, Pokémon are worshiping the heroic figure of the creator, and pirates are imagining their future.

At the banquet, they can only drink and have fun, and there are at most sideshows, such as dances and songs, but in the divine ceremony, they can obtain the most direct power.

"Dad, when will it be our turn?"

"Yeah, yeah, we want that too."

Beside Zeraora, the two children showed their desire for power. Even if they already had the power of Waveguide and Thunderbolt, they wanted to have more magical power.

"I can't chew more than I can chew, first grasp the things on my body, and then wait obediently."

The previous words are true, the moon lion, the power of thunder and lightning, the power of waveguide, domineering, these are enough for them to learn.

At the same time, Zeraora felt that they would be even more lawless if they got the ability too early. Otherwise, he would go to Arceus specifically, and he would not refuse to give the two children abilities in advance.

"Speaking of which, why is that woman here?"

After calming down her child, Zeraora looked towards the stands aside, where there was a person who shouldn't be here - Kozuki Hiyori.

"After that assassination, she changed. Before that, she expressed to Jhin that she wanted to observe the mighty power of the Lord, so she brought her here."

The voice of Koga Ninja came from the side, which can be regarded as explaining the reason to the Pokémon here.

"Tch, why are Solitia and the others just because they follow Miss Yamato?"

There are more and more beasts. Not everyone can be normal in the face of colleagues who have acquired abilities. In addition to envy and admiration, jealousy is also growing.

"Lord Saint Beast has never ignored anyone with meritorious deeds. They gained that position through fighting a few years ago, and they have been studying hard and fighting the enemy over the years. This is all accumulated bit by bit.

When you complain about others, why don't you think about what you were doing? "

"Master Sha Shaina."

The cold voice next to their ears made several people tremble, trembling and afraid to answer.

"You guys will follow me later, don't you just want ability, let me see if you are ready for this."

Chapter 810 Professional religious person, Quinn who was disgusted

Fighting to accumulate meritorious deeds is an unchanging truth in Beasts, and in this turbulent era, even the Beasts Pirates have no shortage of battles, skirmishes with the navy, stunned rookie pirates, blinded by wealth A bounty hunter with two eyes.

Not to mention every day, but every three days will attack the outer territories of the beasts.

Since these people want abilities, then Shaina will give them a chance.

Today's benefactors are generally out of fights, even the cadre reserve who was picked up can kill all directions in the training ground.

Luck is not absolute, Mandelfish's luck is very good, but apart from good luck, he himself is a former scout captain.

Good luck is also an opportunity to use his strength to fight, but this has greatly raised his upper limit, pulling him from an ordinary cadre to the level of a large cadre.

"us.."

"Yes! Lady Shaina! They are all ready!"

One person seemed to be hesitant, but the companion next to him directly blocked his mouth and winked wildly, and then they agreed to the matter.

Looking at Shaina's leaving back, he let out a long sigh of relief.

"Idiot! How dare you say that at this time! Has no one told you what to pay attention to?!"

"Why don't you complain?"

"In private, you can just say it. On this occasion, I think you seem to want to refuse just now."

"after all."

"No, after all, where do you think it is? This is a hundred beasts! It is Lord Arceus' confidant, how many of you still want to resist what she decided? Honestly, it will be nothing like the past, after a few battles That's it.

If you are afraid to go at this time, then you are really dead. "

He knew what these people were worried about. It was nothing more than the fear of offending the cadres and being dragged into cannon fodder. This was completely overthinking.

Here, there is no reason not to say anything here, so as not to be sent to die if you complain, but since you refuse to accept it, you have to participate in more tasks.

Usually whoever is complaining, will arrange tasks that are similar to the other party's level. After passing, there will be as many as there should be. novelusb.com

Only verbally dissatisfied, but physically stagnant, not daring to participate in the battle, this kind of behavior is the taboo of beasts.

If they refuse, it will be really miserable.

"Just work hard, by the way, don't be afraid to fight, otherwise"

There are some things that don't need to be said, but they all know what will happen afterwards.

At this time, the divine grace ceremony has officially begun, and they are also unlucky.

Usually gossiping may not be discovered. During the divine grace ceremony, the cadres are usually beside Arceus or Kaido.

But this time is different, the Divine Favor Ceremony ushered in a more professional host - Misu.

As a nun, she has led believers to pray countless times, whether it is the previous religion or the current Arceus religion.

But now, standing behind her is no longer a cold stone statue, but a real god.

"The Lord will witness your efforts, and your efforts will be answered, and the Lord will give you strength"

Misu recited a rather long prayer, which was different from the lively style of the pirates. At this time, it was very quiet below, and these benefactors also half-kneeled devoutly in front of them, waiting for the power that Arceus would give them.

Without any external means, several streamers of light gushed out from Arceus' body, and finally came into the body of the benefactor.

"She is really suitable for this."

On the high platform on the other side, after reprimanding several pirates, Shaina came here, and discussed with Jhin the divine favor ceremony presided over by Misu.

"Indeed, that guy Quinn made Lord Saint Beast's ceremony look like a street performer, and it looks much more solemn now."

Although the ceremony presided over by Quinn is gorgeous and can make ordinary pirates more excited, but for the two survivors of the Lunaria tribe, such a ceremony is a bit superfluous.

Misu didn't add anything extra, just slightly adjusted the roof of Onijima's machinery. The falling sunlight just formed a unique light curtain with the brilliance of the slate, thus forming this solemn scene.

In the battle hundreds of years ago, the priests of the Lunalia tribe fought at the forefront, so that the inheritance of the priests did not survive, otherwise Shaina and Jhin could help.

However, both of them are not very good at this kind of thing, so they have been handed over to Quinn before. At that time, they thought that Quinn could handle it well, but after the comparison, their mentality changed.

"Hey, hey! Can you two stop pretending that I don't exist??"

"Oh, sorry, I won't say it to your face next time."

Shaina gave him an answer flatly, the damage caused was outstanding, and Quinn was silenced directly.

"This is the power given by the gods?"

At this time, the light has dissipated, looking at the new member who is wrapped in elements and is getting familiar with his abilities.

Kozuki Hiyori, who saw this scene for the first time, couldn't help asking, and Derek on the side also gave an answer.

Kozuki Hiyori made a new choice, but not all the beasts have accepted her. Drake is here mainly because he is taking advantage of Kikunojo.

"Of course, this is only part of the power of Lord Arceus, and according to the nun, this is not the full state of Lord Arceus."

"god"

Guang Yue Rihe fell into deep thought again, no one knew what she was thinking.

"Not bad, you guys, show me what abilities your foster father has given you."

Seeing that his subordinates have gained abilities one after another, Yamato also showed a smile on his face. It is really not because the three of Speed gained the ability because of following her. Although these three are her direct subordinates, it does not mean that they have to follow her all the time. she.

These are accumulated bit by bit in their battles with other forces.

"Speed is transformed, so let's start with Mizeka."

"Alright Miss Yamato, wait a minute, I'm not very familiar with this power yet."

Mizeka with blond hair responded that among several people, her dress was very cool, no different from a bikini swimsuit.

At this moment, Mizeka is mobilizing the energy in her body with her thoughts.

The short blonde hair gradually turned blue, and the exposed skin was gradually covered with fur. There was a mass of white fluff on the chest, and a blue tail appeared behind him.

After completing the transformation, the clothes on her body seem to have increased.

Overall, it can be seen that it is an ape, but if you only look at the lower body, there will be a feeling similar to a lion.

Water Pokémon - Cold Water Ape.

A classification that sounds strange, but this classification does not mean that they release water in battle, but have special drainage organs.
