

Arceus 811

Chapter 811 Come, hit me

Cold water ape, it stands to reason that this kind of Pokémon has two relatives, the sautéed ape and the flower coconut ape. Kemeng, it also has its own reason for existence.

"Well, it's pretty cute, but this eye. Mizeka, can you still see things clearly?"

"Of course, Ms. Yamato, are you thinking of something strange?"

Talking about it, Mizeka opened his eyes again, but it didn't take long for him to return to the state of squinting. Pokémon's abilities will affect users more or less, allowing them to retain some Pokémon hobbies.

The cold-water ape is such an example. In most cases, they will keep a squinted look, and rarely open their eyes completely.

"This color... is the water system, right? It will be much more convenient at sea in the future."novelusB.cOm

"That's right, Master Arceus has deliberately increased the resistance of this ability, but this ability is better used to store fresh water."

Like many water-type Pokémon, in addition to the ability to create water, they also have the ability to store water. The hair on the head of the cold water ape is a special water storage organ. It looks like just hair, but it can store a large amount of water.

And the tail can not only be used when attacking, once the water stored on the head is reduced, the tail can be used to absorb water to replenish.

Ordinary cold-water apes cannot inhale seawater excessively due to physical reasons, which will make them sick, but Mizeka is different, she has a worse tolerance to seawater.

But those who can do that are the majority, and a small number of people with no countermeasures will definitely ruin it if you come to play next time.

"Come on, by the way, that's their new equipment, I almost forgot to give it to him."

It looks like an arm, but it is actually a tail, and it is very flexible, even more flexible than its arms.

It will be the same without that ability. From now on, I will regard you as a moving humanoid reservoir, which can also provide cold water intermittently for 24 hours.

Even if you know that Xiaohe is weak, you still can't accept it after experiencing it yourself. Just now you tried it with a target, and walls that are not made of concrete will be pierced directly. Such a low-pressure water gun can even make Xiaohe go further. .

Your hair color is similar to Uta's, it is clearly divided into two halves from the middle, it is half white and half white, and it was originally a capable short hair, but before the ability was transformed, the hair was almost connected with the horse's mane and stretched forward with.

"It's still wrong to hear it, come on, hit you."

Thunder Speed-Thunder Zebra

Long Tail Duan Yuanbo - Two-tailed Monster Hand.

"Yes, yes, but how do you know the extent of his strength, don't think about it, he hurt you."

The pupils turned blue, lightning-like patterns appeared in the corners of the eyes, and lightning-like horns appeared on the top of the head. The white pattern was still on the bottom of the body, but the obvious lightning symbol could be seen in these patterns.

At this time, there seemed to be no electric sparks stirring in the mane, and there was not even a thunderclap as the horse's hooves moved.

The strength of the eight people has been delayed through the lottery draw, and their abilities have not yet been determined, so they created brand new equipment accordingly.

Lightning is the power of the waveguide, and Soliti is able to condense the tangible lightning into a solid body, so it needs some internal force.

Mizekaya's twin tails are also dyed with a metallic luster, but your iron tail should probably be called Iron Fist, and Pokémon is also preparing for battle based on Xiaohe's signal.

Because you have long light green hair, and you are also the most tightly dressed, and you are not even used to wearing a helmet and goggles.

"yes"

The arrow is for Soliti, and the knife is for Mizekaya. Pokémon is not a type of unarmed combat. Now it has no long-range sniper ability, so there is no new equipment.

"Looking at it, the change seems to be very small?"

Because the sailing time can be guaranteed, there is no simple seawater desalination device in the small city under the pirate ship, and the seawater is filtered through it.

As big as peeling fruit, as small as fighting, the two-tailed monster can rely on the arm to complete everything. From now on, Mizekaya has not automatically degenerated into a seven-sword style. While possessing the flexible two-tailed, your arm has not been forgotten.

Bending the bow and setting the arrow, the lightning was entwined under the arrow, and Soliti was not ready to attack.

"Wait, Little Jack, you are so weird, who on earth passed on that detection method!"

In contrast, the changes in Mizekaya are not obvious, at least you have not enjoyed the temporary hair transplant service.

A strong breath came out of his nose, Xiaohe felt that Soliti's fighting spirit seemed to be much less, and that was also a little influence brought by the Thunder Zebra.

During the voyage, you already play the part-time role of the chef, so the need for fresh water is lower.

"It's broken, the last one, Mizekaya and Soliti, let's come together."

"Huh? Younger sister and elder sister, did he say to fight?"

Because the tail is very convenient, its real arm was gradually forgotten, and it became an accessory.

"Bad, this is rude"

Xiao He took out a bundle of arrows and a new bow from Yun Duo's pocket, not to mention two long knives.

At the same time, Jack's team on the other side, Kim Rummy and Sipps Head also ended their fight with Jack.

Although there is no temporary hair transplant, you have successfully dyed your purple hair, and even the two purple hairs are not exposed on the helmet, and in front of you, two longer arms, or tails are now floating .

The bows and arrows are different from the special arrows in shape, but the whole body is made of metal.

Even if it was eight against one, the result of the battle would have changed, but Xiaohe had figured out where the strength of his brigade was.

"It still can't, if you practice less before, the power should still be wrong."

The first to regress and change is Soliti, who still looks like a centaur. The overall change is small. After all, you are not a zebra fruit user, but with the speed of the ability, the lower body that maintains the human form is also gone. little change.

Because of your weak stamina, you can shoot metal arrows as far as you can, and the reason for changing the arrows for Soliti is just to facilitate you to add lightning.

"Small and Big Sister, do you want to be the same as before?"

It's just that you don't intend to store seawater. If it's convenient, you still plan to store fresh water.

It is a kind of Duan Yuanbo with extremely weak explosive power. Relatively, its personality is relatively gentle. According to Xiaohe's past habits, since the Pokémon came once, the difference between the two of you should be the same.

Saying that the tail in front of the Pokémon pointed at Xiaohe, a jet of low-pressure water sprayed out from it, and Xiaohe also directly reached out to grab the water column. Before you became frozen for a few seconds, a burst of cold air came from your palm, and the Pokémon was blown away. The water column froze into an icicle.

"Just looking at it, you feel that you haven't been reborn yet."

Chapter 812 The Tradition of Beasts, the Gathering of the Sons of God

Similar things don't just happen to Jack or Yamato, this kind of behavior is a common phenomenon in the Hundred Beasts Pirates.

What to do if you are not familiar with the ability of your deputy, fight.

What to do if you are not familiar with the abilities of your subordinates, fight.

I don't know what to do with the strength of the team, so let's fight.

As long as there is a relationship with force, then the solution to the beasts will most likely be to fight.

In addition to Yamato and Jack, even Maria, who stayed in Wano country most of the time, used this method to test the strength of her subordinates.

Jack has the most number of battles, and the team he leads also has the highest frequency of battles, but his subordinates are the slowest in accumulating achievements.

There is still a trial link in the battle of ordinary teams, but Jack is different. After the ship passes by, he usually goes up by himself. The steel body brought by the king's bronze elephant makes him so powerful that ordinary people can't stop him at all. he.

And in the sea, people with similar strength can't do anything against him. As long as he catches him, he will pull the opponent directly to the bottom.

The physique of the people here is different from ordinary people, but after all, they can't breathe underwater. They can last for five minutes, 10 minutes, but Jack can stay for several days.

Meeting him at sea, he was not flexible enough, and he hadn't the strength to suppress him, so he basically had to admit that he was unlucky.

So the accumulation of achievements of Jin Rami and Sipps Head was slower, but they successfully obtained the common species of elephant fruit and the ancient species of elephant fruit in Jack's hands.

After that, they were pulled out by Jack to practice sparring. The reason was also to be familiar with their changes and to let them know how elephants fight.

And when Jack politely asked them if there was anything they didn't understand, Sippshead asked this question.

"Aren't the beasts always like this?"

Hearing Sippshead's question, Jack didn't understand. In his eyes, fighting between cadres and subordinates was normal, and that's how he grew up.

And it's not just him, Yamato, Maria, Ulti, Peggy Wan, and even Iska grew up like this.

This is Jack's inherent cognition. If you want to trace the source, you have to find Kaido, and then look into the past, not to mention their new generation, even Jhin and Shaina came here like this. Among them, Quinn I have a deep understanding.

This is the only one of Beasts that will not be lost with age and has been preserved to this day.

Yamato really wanted to use this method to familiarize himself with the abilities of his subordinates, without thinking about other aspects. Jack thought this method was simple and effective, and some cadres just wanted to let newcomers experience what they had experienced.

Since you have no ability to resist, come and suffer together.

The three elephants started their own battle, but they looked very happy. Due to Jack's huge size, he became as capable as a giant, but Jin Rami and Sippthead were both ordinary people.

Even if the elephant fruit makes their size soar, they still can't be compared with Jack, and this is Jack's teaching bureau, it really has a strange feeling of an elephant leading a baby elephant.

The grace ceremony was over, and most of the people returned to their original posts. Many people were listening to Misu's preaching, and even some newcomers were listening to Misu's speech, such as Kozuki Hiyori.

Misu never refuses this kind of thing. As long as she is willing to listen to her preaching, she has the patience to repeat the same teachings.

She was originally the leader in editing the teachings. After many years of preaching, she can almost memorize that thick book of teachings.

"Sister, you said the Lord will not forget anyone who works hard, what about you?"

"Of course the Lord will not forget. My new life was given by the Lord. If you are asking about ability, how do you know I don't have it?"

Saying that, Misu stretched out his arm and answered their questions face to face.

Quinn had already slipped away, he didn't want to be targeted by Kaido, Kaido was easy to get on top of him at this time, maybe he would be dragged to a duel with him, but Xie Mi didn't leave, but went to participate in a Pokémon battle Dream assembly.

"Hello, Mi's name is Xie Mi. You were also created by the Lord, right?"

Xie Mi bouncing up to Nereus's shoulder, because of the special aura in her body, Nereus did not stop her, anyway, Xie Mi, a little guy, doesn't take up much space, and Wolf and Meowna are also on her shoulder superior.

They're interested in the big auntie.

"Yes."

"The outside world is very interesting, you should have seen a lot of interesting things along the way."

"Interesting? There is nothing interesting in the sea, but the amusement park in the Mandelfisch family is quite interesting."

Nereus spends most of his time in the deep sea, which is really not the word for fun, except around the fishman island, it is almost completely dark.

"Really, then you should be very boring, it sounds very boring."

"Shamy, don't talk like that."

Listening to Xie Mi's speech, Tianxi felt a little inappropriate, so she called Xie Mi to stop.

"Ah, Mi didn't mean that, Mi was just curious"

Xiemi waved his forelegs to explain something, but accidentally fell off, and was caught in mid-air by Tianxi's condensed diamond platform.

"Don't be fussy, be classy, Shamy."

"Mi doesn't like that look, it would be nice to be free, right?"

"I think you have learned badly from Quinn."

"Mi doesn't have any, but Mi seems to have gained weight, and he really has a lot of delicious food in his hand.

I'll go out with him after a while, so I wanted to ask what it's like outside. "

Different from Diancie, who pays attention to etiquette, Xie Mi is very loose, and is even more eye-catching among this group of humanoid Pokémon.

When Diancie corrected herself that this younger sister should pay attention to etiquette, Meowna and Worf were also chatting with Nereus.

"Er. Is this the correct way to educate subordinates?"

Nereus saw the battle between Jack and Yamato, and couldn't help asking. This method seemed a bit primitive, and she wanted to change it, but from this point of view, this seemed to be the correct method.

"You'd better not learn this, it's a special feature here."

"Father is right, Aunt Nereus, haven't you encountered any interesting things in the sea?"

Zeraora dismissed Nereus's idea and indirectly saved the lives of several Gyarados, but the topic soon returned to the interesting thing.

"Interesting. If I have to say it, I met a person who can play with fire outside. It should be interesting, at least innocently interesting."

"Outside?"

Hearing this, Zeraora felt something was wrong.nOvelUsb.com

"Yes, according to what the Lord wanted, I have sunk their ship, and it should have drifted away by now."

Chapter 813 Suitor

Nereus talked about the previous battle, and said that he had washed those people away with surfing.

"Surfing?! Aunt Nereus, we want to go surfing too!"

"Don't make trouble, let the Lotte Kappa accompany you, Dad and Aunt Nereus have something to see Lord Arceus in a while."

Pulling her children off Nereus' shoulders one by one, Zeraora asked Lotte Kappa to take care of them for a while, and then went to get down to business.

There are not so many participating Pokémon this time, except for the Phantom Beasts such as Zeraola and Xie Mi, they are the leaders of each Pokémon, such as the electric dragon, the Tanabata blue bird, the queen of sweet and cold beauty, the queen bee, Representatives of steel armored crows, giant blacksmiths and other races.

Commander Chop and Slash, Scallion Duck and other Pokémon are also among them. Kentaro and Big Milk Tank are still discussing something while walking together.

Their status is similar to that of Nereus, and they are the patriarchs of the group.

If the number is relatively rare, a regional representative is selected. For example, the representative of the mine is Pangyan Monster, which is "the most beautiful woman in the mine" in the eyes of rock-type Pokémon.

This is the annual meeting of Pokémon, and the object of the report is naturally Arceus.

Manafei, who was working overseas, also sent back a giant marsh monster, and it was walking forward slowly with a super bad star on it. Except for Manafei himself and Darkley who didn't know where he was, The Pokémon created by Arceus are gathered together.

Before reuniting with her crew, Huayun restarted her plans for the future.

The right bedsheets, the familiar ceiling, a start that makes people feel right, but I'm still in that small sea.

Because Lola is a person with abilities, the boat sank as soon as it capsized. Arcue saved me with very little effort.

In a tsunami of this scale, it is very difficult for human beings to be saved, but the White Peach Pirates are very ordinary, and there is no ordinary member among us-Arjo, a scorpion murloc with a bad curiosity.

"Your Majesty"

"Where is this...then?"

"That. It's not that simple, in fact, you are too confused, it should be like that"

When Hua Yunjin was about to exhaust himself, we just met the Rolling Pirates, so we were rescued. It was not that complicated.

Except for Arceu, everyone else was in a coma during the tsunami, but Arceu persisted and met the other pirate ship after coma. Our luck was wrong, the captain of that ship was a bad-hearted person .

"You also know that it's thanks to him and Arceu. Although Xiaojia was injured a little, he was saved."

So you chose the white-on-light tactic, hid on the island near Charlotte Lingling's territory for a while, and weakened the ships again during that time, gathering some troops.

"Are you awake too? Such a big brother, for the sake of you saving him, is he willing to marry you?"

Looking at Heracross, who was not a little disappointed behind his eyes, Pokémon also comforted it. Nereus originally wanted to report what happened after the first meeting, but Zeraola told me that this is just a little bit. There is no need to disturb Pokémons for such a big event.

Laura, who was confused about what was going on, received a marriage proposal directly, and turned around to see a pink-haired man staring at me from the door.

"That's the 419th time! All the women under that boat agreed with you!"

"How long has it been?"

Ace, who was born in the new world, knows the horror of the new world. Now you can no longer rely on the BIG MOM pirates. It is very difficult to survive there with your own strength.

"Where? It's far away from Murloc Island. If it takes a while, we will arrive."

In other words, you also put that incident out of your mind. You know whether these people are dead or alive, and where they were rushed, but if it is in Wano country.

Nereus's first jet of flame was blocked by Laura with his body. As a person with the ability to burn fruits, I don't have a certain immunity to flames, so the jet of flame may not cause too little damage.

"Accepted! Miss Huayun has been approved again!"

So before you hid for so long, you decided to take your crew to Paradise and start a new voyage outside.

With that cheerful personality, you really found the multi-crew.

"Murfish Island?!"

Because of rushing for a pilgrimage, Nereus left the place as soon as he surfed. Does the Gyarados have the habit of eating people? They will kill the enemy, but they are interested in the corpse.

The pirate's exclamation sounded next to it, and Luo La was very dumbfounded, and my brain cells are not functioning enough.

"Lola? He finally woke up?"

"This... is a bad idea. You are interested in that. Where are all your companions?"

Duss gave a complicated summary of what happened above.

Happy Eggs and Almost Dolls even had some occupational diseases. They wanted to give them a medical examination, but it was the arrival of Pokémon that made them quiet.

As for the seven hundred marriage proposals during that period, it was only because you wanted to be swayed by Charlotte Lingling, and you wanted to pursue your own love. Rocky's background is weak, and he really loves you, but you want to Choose each other.

The reason why the Rolling Pirates appeared there was because of Ace's arrangement. Before escaping from marriage, Ace didn't leave the new world immediately. Send someone to take you back.

Hearing that he was approved again, Ace was not discouraged, but still maintained a cheerful mood.

My own ship has escaped from these Homiz ships. These ships are not the ordinary fleet of the BIG MOM pirate group, but you dare to use them. If there is no Homiz, it will be even more difficult for Charlotte Lingling to chase you. It's difficult.

Whether Nereus looked back, did the Gyarados following you continue to pursue it.

As for Hua Yun, who is completely under your care, before she drifted away for a while, she also met someone with a bad heart.

Therefore, when they see a woman who is not good enough, they will propose marriage. Almost all the women in the White Peach Pirates have experienced that sentence. That time it was Laura's turn.

Also, relying on the strength of the murlocs, Arceu desperately swam out of this perfect sea area before connecting the whole boat with ropes. Many people were injured, and all the property and ships were destroyed, but they survived in the end.novelusb.com

Mixed with various languages of Vores, the same Vores are all reporting their past lives, as well as reports on the missions of Pokémons, but no one has brought bad news.

Listening to the place name, the White Peach Pirates were shocked, which meant that our voyage during that period was all in vain, and Nereus directly sent us back to the "halfway save point".

"Deus, what's going on?"

"It's related. It's because of loss. There's not much time. A little bit of searching will break it."

Chapter 814 Curse or prophecy, the fate of miners

But no one complained, after all, thanks to Voorez, they had this opportunity.

"Um... are there any suitable islands near here?"

Deuss asked Laura, they have nothing in the boat now, and Vores had already tried his best to save the people, and the treasure on the boat was gone long ago.

Although they still have their belongings on them, they may not be enough for a ship together.

They have become pirates without a ship. If they want to sail again, they must either * a ship or buy one, but no matter what, returning to Murloc Island is not a good thing.

The risk of snatching a ship on the bottom of the sea is too great, and the Chambord Islands are not stable, and they don't want to start all over again, so they want to disembark early nearby.

"Oh, you don't want to go back to Paradise?"

"How come, we are going to be the strongest pirate group in the world!"

"Courage, I like it, so no one really wants to marry me? I can give you another chance."

Lola has seen many pirates who failed in the new world. After failure, most of these people will fear the new world and flee here in a hurry.

"There is a problem, no island is allowed, but New Murloc Island... what kind of island is that?"

New murloc island does not reject outsiders. Without the murloc Gyarados, we were not intercepted. The Rolling Pirates also came there. Our purpose is coating.

Just in the inner lake of New Murloc Island, the White Peach Pirates saw something terrifying - Vores.

This kind of courageous character can make her appreciate a little bit.

Desert dragonflies are green all over, with two green tentacles under their heads, which are not similar to dragonflies, so they are also called dragonflies.

"Why do they accept it?"

"Gyarados, does he know anything?"

"No thanks, we're not interested."

As the final degenerated form of the small-jawed ants, they have achieved the sublimation like a carp jumping over a dragon's gate, and successfully possessed the dragon attribute.

"Why are there no monsters there?"

A fat blue man jumped up from the back of the desert dragonfly.novelusb.com

"Yes, you know, but when you left Murloc Island, the island was just a conception. Are we moving so slowly?"

"They want to buy a boat?"

It was Ace who didn't care about that matter, and changed the topic to another aspect.

Being able to join Lola's pirate group shows that Gyarados is such an extreme murloc. When he was still going to sea, he also agreed with Otohime's philosophy, but he didn't agree with it all. After all, Otohime is too ideal melted.

"Then if you go to Murloc Island... there will be only one island passing by. New Murloc Island, there shouldn't be any problem putting them outside here, right?"

Even if the senior and Aaron want a boat, Jinping can directly decide to give us one, but the Gyarados can only be said to know each other, and there are no such small favors, so I may be good at it.

Cong Jing also explained vaguely, what kind of island is that, he just knows that the island exists.

Finally, my eyes focused on the Gyarados. The New Murloc Island has nothing to do with the Murlocs. As a Murloc, I should know something inside.

The sound of their flapping wings is very beautiful, as if many men are singing. That beautiful sound is also a kind of trap, used to attract prey. Although they are called desert elves because of this, that kind of elves are It will kill people.

Talking about Gyarados, he explained Otohime's ideal at the beginning, and the theoretical significance of the existence of New Murloc Island, but no matter how little inside information there is, I'm still confused.

"Brother Jinbe, it's you, Gyarados!"

At first, Lola and the others headed back to New Fishman Island, intending to buy a new ship from here.

"You know, you have heard of that island"

"You found a mine there, how much is the mining wage, if they think about it?"

Lola cares about which island it is, but she is still quite curious about the island's situation.

There are also some pirates who can't even bear the first half, and finally dare to dominate the world.

It's the same as the siren's singing, if you are confused by it, it's hard to get out again.

It's just that Lola's marriage proposal didn't get a response.

Looking at his companion's eyes, Skaar gave a negative answer. I don't know much about the new world, but I don't know much about it, and I don't know anything about the newly born island.

That fat blue man is certainly not Shi Ping, and I was patrolling under the back of a small desert dragonfly just now, and this song is something else, it is the sound of the desert dragonfly flapping its wings.

In addition to them, Jinbe often patrols there, avoiding some conflicts that are necessary.

Due to environmental problems, the ants living there were not too small or big, and it was the same before degeneration.

Nereus didn't show his body back then, but you were still accompanied by the other Vores, and when we sailed on the small route, we also met the other Vores, so we knew that it was a bad deal.

Several murlocs knew Jinbe and Tiger, and when they saw each other appear, Gyarados also greeted excitedly, and when they saw Jinbe's serious face, they also lost a little smile. The smile didn't last long.

"There is a problem with the boat, but the question is, don't they have money?"

It seems that he heard our address, and Wallace here looked at us.

The words of Dius blocked the words of the Rolling Pirates and others. Although love must have nothing to do with appearance, but it can build a first impression inside. Ace wants to take that step to find true love, but it is actually not difficult. of.

"Humans, don't be so easy, they will attack them actively."

"Yes, you guys encountered some trouble afterwards. The ship sank, so you came here by boat."

"Boss Cong Jing, he is Haixia Jinpei, one of the kings of the sea of martial arts."

It must be illegal entry. We went to that place at all, so Jinbei knew that we were intruders, so he tried to resolve the necessary conflict.

It has red hemispherical structures under its eyes, and the red hood cannot protect the eyes from damage from inside.

Judging from the expressions of those people, Jinbe guessed that we might be penniless. In the face of our fellow clansmen, I gave us a suggestion.

At that time, there was a sudden burst of singing above our heads, followed by not talking.

The New Fishman Island is not stable, and there are often intruders and human traffickers who sneak in, which give the small-jawed ants a chance to fight, and as time goes by, degenerate individuals are gradually produced, and they become ants. The guardian of New Murloc Island.

“.”

Listening to Jinping's words, Cong Jing suddenly remembered Iska's words, for some reason, I don't think there must be some connection between them

"You guys, Miss Laura's mother is a famous little pirate in the New World! You actually seized that kind of opportunity."

The murlocs are not very good coating craftsmen. If they want to go to Paradise later, coating must be an important link. If external coating is available, we will naturally agree.

"Excavation mining? Brother Jinbei, you are not joking."

Hearing Jinbe's suggestion, Vores didn't know what to say for a while. The miners' income is indeed a lot, but the price of a ship is not cheap. No matter how you look at it, this is a very time-consuming act.

"Of course the old man is not joking. You should be in good physical condition. If you work together for a period of time, you can still afford an ordinary sea boat. If you want a high-quality boat built by Baoshu Adam, it is certainly not enough, and there is no such thing here. Boat."

Shipbuilding is also a technical job. Most islands can only provide ship repair services. If you want to build a ship, you have to go to a special island. This is how the capital of seven waters successfully established itself on the great route.

It was decided by Otohime and Neptune that New Murloc Island could sell ships. The Murloc tribe has no shortage of boat craftsmen. This clan has produced many legendary craftsmen. With the help of these crafts, New Murloc Island can build high-quality ships. This ability also has a new foothold in the new world.

In addition to some specially built ships, there are also some standard ships in the dock, and the target customers are unlucky ghosts like Ace who have encountered shipwrecks.

No one can figure out the weather in the New World. A large number of abnormal weather and those weird weather restrict the shipping and technology points in the New World.

Based on the crooked technology tree of this world, it is not difficult to make planes, but on the Great Airline, this kind of equipment is meaningless. If there are really planes, 24 hours a day, I am afraid they are delayed for 25 hours.

Complicated weather almost blocked the possibility of flying.

"Umm... Jinbe-san, is there a faster way?"

"No, unless Empress Otohime or King Neptune sends you a ship, or do you want to speak in the way of pirates?"

Out of caring for his fellow clan, Jinbe patiently answered the other party's questions, but also reminded the other party not to have any wrong thoughts.

If Beasts or Whitebeards come here and say they need a ship, they will not hesitate and will definitely hand it over to the other party directly. Whether it is Whitebeard or the current Beasts, they will be of great help to the development of Murloc Island. .

It is not impossible for the former members of the Sun Pirates to want a ship, but those people either follow Jinbe or Tiger, and theoretically there will be no such demand.

For pirates, the fastest way is to * them, even if they are of the same clan, if he wants to * a ship here, he will not be polite.

"Ah, of course not, but will there be some troublesome pirates here? Let us deal with them then, and give us their ships as a reward."

Ace is not a pure evil party, and he will not wantonly plunder, not to mention that this is the hometown of his crew, and his goal is to steal the ship from other pirates.

"Yes, yes, but"

Listening to Ace's words, Jinbe also became slightly interested. He hasn't seen such an innocent pirate for a while.

"This is a new world, do you think you can deal with those pirates? Newcomers?"

"How do you know you can't if you don't try?"

"Okay, if you have the chance, go and try it."

Jinbe did not veto this proposal. The security of New Murloc Island is not low, but it still encounters troubles from time to time, and there are many people who are greedy for mermaids.

He is still responsible for the main defense, and during the battle, the Sun Pirates will inevitably be injured. If someone offers to take this job, he will definitely not refuse.

Jinbe is very chivalrous, but chivalry also needs to be compared. One is an unfamiliar pirate group, and the other is the island where he was born and his companions for many years. For him, the latter is more important.

But in the end, Ace and the others went to work as miners for a few days, because now they are penniless and have to find a way to get some living funds.

【No one can believe that our journey to the new world will start from mining again. 】

Deuss wrote his novel helplessly, feeling very helpless about his current life.

And here, they also met a strange person, a red murloc.nOVeUs&.cOm

When the miners were resting, he took a notebook and tried to tell them something, but few people were willing to listen to him.

"I said, what is that big man doing? The murlocs here seem to respect him."

"I don't know. Wait for Vores to come back and ask him. He seems to be preaching. Does the murloc have any special beliefs? I haven't heard of it before."

Taige is the only murloc who preaches, but he is different from Misu.

Misu's missionary work in Wano is very smooth. After all, it can be regarded as a temporary kingdom of God. Too many miracles have appeared there. With years of management, the foundation of missionary work has already been laid.

But the people here come from all corners of the country, and they can come to New Murloc Island by sailing on their own. They have their own goals, and it is not so easy to change their beliefs.

Many of the murlocs who have been following Tiger have been affected, but Tiger is not satisfied. He can clearly feel that those murlocs have different beliefs from his. They are blindly following his advice because they worship him. .

Most of the murlocs also have this attitude, so Tiger is training how to preach correctly from the outside world, so far, it seems that the results are minimal.

"Everyone is tired after working all day. If you tell them this, no one will listen."

Looking at the failed Tiger, Michal took the initiative to go over and say a few words. This is a rare expression for him who is slightly socially handicapped.

Because of his identity as a teacher, he felt a little empathy, and he was also in a bad mood when no one listened to his lectures at the beginning.

"I know, but this is obviously something that can cleanse the soul. It is a wonderful thing to think about the Lord's world after being tired. I think you are different from them. Do you want to know more about it?"

Looking at Michal who took the initiative to talk, Tiger also became interested. Maybe this is a successful example, but his answer made Michal not interested in this, and he couldn't understand the speech of that kind of fanatic.

After being tired, he would only feel drowsy when he heard people nagging him. He couldn't figure out why Tiger thought it was wonderful, so he declined the other party.

"By the way, I heard from Jinbe that you came here for the boat? Where is your original boat?"

"It was sunk in a shipwreck, our captain has our own goals."

"One Piece?"

"No, he is the one who wants to surpass One Piece. This journey will be very difficult, but we will still overcome it little by little."

"Really, where are you going to start? Red hair, BIG MOM, white beard, or beasts?"

"Of course it's Whitebeard. Why, uncle, are you interested in this kind of thing?"

The conversation between Tiger and Michal caught Ace's attention. The previous incidents did not teach him enough lessons. At this time, he is still working hard with Whitebeard as his imaginary enemy.

After the battle between Whitebeard and Kaido, who is the strongest creature or the strongest man has gradually become a hot topic in the sea.

This matter has been fruitless, but everyone knows one thing, as time goes by, Kaido will be the final winner.

They don't know the inside story, but Kaido is younger, he has more time, and this is his greatest capital.

For Ace, wanting to challenge Whitebeard even has a certain relationship with Roger.

Ace didn't have a good impression of the father he had never met, so he wanted to challenge the white beard who was the same era as Roger first. At their peak, Kaido was just a trainee and had no reputation.

It's just that outsiders don't know the reason. Only a very few people know that his biological father is Roger, and this is not something glorious. At least in Fishman Island, Roger's reputation can only be said to be mediocre.

Although Neptune had peaceful exchanges with him and Tom built a ship for him, many residents of Murloc Island hate this One Piece. They thank Whitebeard for his protection, the development brought by beasts, and hate the opening of the era of great pirates. Roger.

In the past few hundred years, except for the period of the previous mermaid princess, the Fishman Island has never been stable for a long time, but after the era of great pirates began, the Fishman Island has become even more turbulent.

Many murlocs and mermaids believe that without Roger, Murloc Island would be much more stable, even if there were pirates, it would not develop into such an endless stream.

"No interest, that's just your business."

Tiger is different from Jinbe. Even if he heard that Ace was going to challenge Whitebeard, he didn't intend to stop him. Even if Ace wanted to challenge Kaido, he would not stop him.

Unlike Sasaki, Sasaki is a personal worship of Kaido. Joining Beasts is purely admiration for Kaido, while Tiger is just a believer in Arceus. When Ace doesn't say anything strange or make special actions, he will not interfere.

"If you act smoothly, you should have a good life in the future."

"What does this mean?"

"Nothing, I just think that you have a talent for mining."

"?"

Hearing this, Ace fell into confusion again. He didn't understand the new world. People here seem to value the talent of mining, but Tiger didn't stay any longer, but picked up his notebook and walked aside.

And Ace didn't care about such inexplicable words, and he didn't plan to use this method to earn money in the future.

After a few days of delay, the Spades Pirates completed the original accumulation of capital through mining, regained the start-up capital, and successfully waited for other pirates.

Those are the losers of the new world. They wanted to plunder before fleeing back to the first half of the great route, and then ran into the hands of Ace and the others. After being robbed of the ship, they also took over their mining work.

At this point, Otohime, who doesn't like killing people, learns Beast's transformation policy - mining, until the other party truly repents.

It's okay if you don't repent, usually after hundreds of years of digging, you will be able to regain your freedom.

As for how to identify repentance, Otohime has her own unique method.

"Brother Tai, let them leave like this?"

"There is no need to intervene. There are too many stunned youths like this, and you can't control it, whether it is Beasts or Whitebeard."

Looking at the leaving Spades Pirates, Jinbe was a little hesitant, and wanted to stop them, but in the end he followed Tiger's advice. According to Tiger, whether they can reach their destination smoothly is a problem .

Tiger's status in the murlocs is the same as the legendary heroes of the giants, and he has extraordinary influence. Most of his suggestions can be implemented smoothly.

"Don't worry about it, that kid is also a supernova, and he is usually recruited, but he has a very mediocre personality. Do you think he will mine in Beasts, or be tamed by Whitebeard?"

"Maybe he will be BIG Mom's son-in-law? Maybe BIG Mom will also see him."

"Haha, that's interesting. It's not possible. By the way, Jinbe, I'll leave it to you. I plan to go out for a while, and the nun has already sent me an invitation."

During the chat before, Ace and the others did not hide their intentions at all, indicating that the objects they want to challenge are those top powerhouses. This is from Tiger's point of view, he will never succeed, it just depends on where it is.

There is no shortage of careerists in the new world, but there are more corpses of careerists. Countless corpses are buried in the dangerous sea.

If Ace can really challenge the strong according to his plan, and be able to escape from one person, it is a great luck. In the current new world, no warrior who offended two sea emperors at the same time has ever survived.

The deeds created by the lonely brave man at the beginning have become extinct. He made trouble in Whitebeard's territory, offended the cadres of the beasts, and then robbed the food of BIG MOM. It can be said that there is no one before or after.

But now, his record has the possibility of being broken. The red-haired Shanks ascended to the top of the Four Emperors, which has one more object to be challenged. Maybe one day in the future, a stronger one will be born warrior.

"Understood, I will protect this place."

Tiger intends to observe how the nuns spread the faith, and the nuns also hope that there will be more people with strong force among the missionaries to deal with some heretics. A special missionary activity kicked off like this.

But before that, Onijima is having a strange birthday celebration, and the birthday party is a bit older.
n0Ve1Us&.c0m

Snapped! Snapped!

Several paper fireworks were pulled away, and the ribbons spilled on Assier's head. Since he is a research talent with little combat effectiveness, not many people attended Assier's 250th birthday party, and they were all family members of cadres.

Although there are few people, the combined age of the people here is outrageous.

75-year-old Naiqin, 250-year-old Assier, and 201-year-old Olga are all real long-lived people.

"I said Dad, are you still not making a move? Naiqin has come to your birthday party."

"That's an elder, shouldn't you add a title?"

"We'll talk about it after you have achieved results, and if it really counts, don't you think she should be the one who calls me grandma?"

“.”

Olga's words left Assie speechless. The father and daughter would often ignore the nearly two hundred years spent in the womb of sea kings, but sometimes, Olga would bring this up again. In terms of seniority, their father and daughter are almost invincible.

"Okay, stop joking, come on, Dad, I believe in you."

Two updates today, four updates tomorrow

Chapter 817 Father-in-law, a new pilgrim

"Compared to this, I am more worried about you."

"Huh? What do I have to worry about? It's not more than twenty years ago, Dad. I'm very strong now."

"I'm not worried about your strength, I'm worried about your future life, you are already a 200-year-old girl, when will you bring me a son-in-law back?"

"What two hundred years old, do you see any difference between me and 18 years old?"

Olga, a woman whose real age is 201 years old and whose identity card age is a mystery, if the time in the stomach of Neptunes is ignored, she is only in her early thirties.

Only under the influence of pure gold, even if she starts to develop, her growth rate is slower than ordinary people, and she looks even younger than Yamato, no different from a girl, and even she herself doesn't care about her age.nOVelUs&.cOm

Sometimes when asked, she might casually say a similar number, completely ignoring Assier's urging.

"Besides, you think this is a bit far from the truth, so you should worry about yourself, so as not to have to go to Huajie all the time"

"shut up!"

Before Olga finished speaking, Assie slapped her on the head and forcibly stopped her subsequent remarks. Although he had done some things, it was still too shameful for him to bring them up.

"What are you doing? I'm over 200 years old, you will make me look like a child."

"Why don't you say that you are only 18 at this time? Don't say that you are 200 years old. No matter how old you are, I will always be your father. I am not urging you to do anything else. Mi Siqui's family is not a famous family, but I still want to have descendants."

Based on your current situation, I think you are very dangerous. "

As he spoke, Assier took out a letter. There was nothing wrong with the content. He just wished him a happy birthday, but this title is not appropriate.

"Father-in-law personally???"

"Yes, father-in-law, let's see who signed it."

"Boa Hancock"

"Now do you understand why I don't trust you? Although I don't have much advice on what kind of person you will find in the future, at least it must be a man, right?"

At this moment, Olga understood why Assier said those words.

Hancock's letter is an inducement. Nine Snakes are now a member of the Qiwuhai, and they will not have any contact with beasts on the surface, so Hancock just wrote a letter and gave some gifts.

It's just that her recipients were all Olga in the past. For some reason, Assie became the new recipient this time. She didn't monitor her father, and she didn't expect Hancock to do such a sudden attack.

"No, the problem is, I didn't do anything, what kind of stuff did she make up in private?"

The time we spent together made Olga understand that Hancock is very easy to brainstorm, as long as she is given a chance, she will follow her own ideas to brainstorm a lot of plots that cannot be written.

Although there is no outrageous language this time, it also leaves enough room for imagination.

"I believe you, but this girl seems a little persistent"

"Forget it, I'll deal with this matter slowly. That girl looks strong, but she's actually quite fragile. Aunt Naiqin! My dad has something to tell you!"

In the end, Olga also adopted the ultimate strategy, directly pushing Assier out, allowing him to face his own emotional problems, so as to get out of it smoothly.

It was originally a small-scale birthday party, and it didn't make much noise until the end.

However, Assier hesitated for a long time, and finally failed to come up with a result. Compared with his enjoyment of scientific research, it can be said that it is far behind.

When Assier held his 250th birthday, the city of flowers was not peaceful. To be precise, some people were not peaceful.

"Master Hiyori, isn't this too dangerous for you?"

"Dangerous? Why is it dangerous? This is inside Wano Country. Could it be that the assassins haven't been cleaned up yet?"

At this time, Kozuki Hiyori made a decision, she wanted to climb Fujiyama, and climbed by herself.

It is now defined as a holy mountain to test faith, and it is obviously inappropriate to bring a large group of generals' honor guard there. Coupled with her recent change of mentality, she made this decision.

Jhin has no objection. After Kozuki Hiyori changed his gender, he relaxed a lot in many aspects, which indirectly increased Kozuki Hiyori's degree of freedom greatly, not to mention that on Fujiyama, she couldn't do it. Come up with something new.

It's just that Denjiro and others are more worried about the other party's safety, and the problem is just like Kozuki Hiyori said, they don't know whether those lunatics have disappeared.

Although the leader has been executed, the rest have been terrified, and the rest of the participants have become new miners, but those people were originally followers of Kozuki Oden.

In today's Wano country, the former interest groups are most likely to rebel. As former vested interests, the appearance of beasts caused them heavy losses, and the leader of the previous assassination operation was also such a person.

But the participants are different, there are also ordinary people.

Theoretically, the legend of the Oden Undead has put an end to this drawback, but no one can be sure about this kind of thing.

In Denjiro's view, those people are lunatics, and no one knows what a group of lunatics can do.

If an accident happens, they really can't blame it.

"It should be.. there is no such person."

Denjiro knew that that incident had caused great harm to Hiyori Kozuki, and if it hadn't been for that incident, she wouldn't be in such a state of mind now, no matter what, he didn't want to tell Hiyori Kozuki, and There may be people in the country who don't want her alive.

Kozuki Hiyori heard the entanglement in Denjiro's words, but did not refute.

"Since there is no, why worry? I will take Yan Mo and Tian Yuyu to kill."

Rejecting the request of Denjiro and others to follow, Kozuki Hiyori left the palace of the Flower City alone with Enma and Amano Hazaru on his back.

"Aju, He Song, are you not nervous at all?"

"Xiaosheng is not at ease, but Xiaosheng doesn't know how to dissuade Hiyori-sama. Shouldn't we, as retainers, obey what she decides?"

"Don't worry, I asked someone to pay attention to Hiyori-sama's safety before. If she is here, nothing will go wrong."

Kawamatsu was helpless, while Kikunojo was very calm. Hearing Kikunojo's words, Denjiro seemed to have thought of something.

"Drek?"

"Um."

In today's Wano country, beasts represent safety, and she is in charge of things here, so it's okay to follow along temporarily.

It's just that Kikunojo doesn't know, even if he doesn't go to Drake, Koga Ninja will follow in the end.

Chapter 818 There are only zero and countless times for some things

"So what did you promise her?"

"It's nothing, I just went to play with her for a day, and make an appointment along the way."

Kikunojo said the price he paid, although it is not a price, it is just time and energy, and at the same time, he will be stuck in oil and suffer some mental torture by the way.

This is the most convenient time for Drake to find this position. You only need to change jobs with Koga Ninja. Koga Ninja is good at lurking and tracking, and she is not bad.

The concealment method is not as good as the Koga Ninja Frog, but the special double pupils of the Roentgen cat allow her to monitor the opponent from a safe distance.

This was sent to Kikunojo on his own initiative, and she had no reason to refuse at all.

"You did a good job, Aju, so you can feel at ease."

Even if it is an enemy, it is a powerful enemy, and Denjiro has to face the reality that the people of Hundred Beasts are on the same side as them, hoping that Kozuki Hiyori can survive smoothly.

"But Aju, everything is difficult at the beginning, do you want to think about it and get a little more information from her?"

Since he discovered that Drake had a little interest in Kikunojo, Denjiro was bewitching Kikunojo to betray his lust. In his opinion, this matter is not a disadvantage.

In any case, Kikunojo is a man in essence, even if Derek has a scar on her face, it doesn't affect her own appearance, but adds a kind of wild beauty.

From his point of view, this kind of thing is all about men taking advantage.

Here is the country of Wano, a country with unprecedented expansion of machismo. In the past hundreds of years of isolation, this consciousness has become stronger.

Beasts are different, they have recruited many women in Wano Country, after all, they value strength more.

As long as the requirements of the beasts can be met, no matter men, women, old or young, they can enjoy the same rights. In other words, Beasts with a large number of female cadres is a kind of heresy in the environment of Wano Country.

But their strength is already strong enough to make everyone shut up.

Denjiro, who was born in this Wano country, did not know that in some worlds, a "correct consciousness" called transgenderism was born. This magic that was born to fight against magic has achieved many unimaginable feats.

Even if he knew, he would still feel that Kikunojo was not at a disadvantage. Even if he thought he was a woman, the other party was also a woman, and it wouldn't affect anything if two women went out for a stroll.

It's just that although the carefree Derek doesn't consider himself a man, his lifestyle is more manly than many men. This character is heroic in the eyes of others, but it is different in the eyes of Kikunojo.

He had always refused this matter before, and Denjiro did not force him. Now the opportunity has come, and many things only have zero or countless times. He persuaded Kikunojo.

Both belong to Oden's retainers, they are also old brothers who have been together for decades, and they will not quarrel over one or two sentences, but Kikunojo still does not agree to this matter. In her opinion, it is very good to make an exception this time up.

"By the way, more than that, she also made a request."

"Require?"

"Well, she said that the children of the cadre's family are interested in kappa recently, so I want Hesong to come and get in touch with them. They also have a special kappa there."

"Xiaosheng understands, I will go there then."

For the sake of Guangyue Rihe, he doesn't feel ashamed to play river pine with others. As for the identity of the kappa, he has already recognized it in his subconscious mind. For him, the identity of the kappa has been with him longer than that of the murlocs. .

After a period of time, Denjiro and the others had not yet concluded their discussions, but Kozuki Hiyori had already arrived at the foot of Fujiyama.

As the highest mountain in Wano Country, this mountain can be seen from any area, but this is the first time she plans to climb it.

Looking at the capital of flowers, this mountain is not very high, until she reached the foot of the mountain, she didn't understand what it meant to soar into the sky.

The difficulty of mountaineering has a lot to do with the height of the mountain. In addition to its own height, the snow on the top of Fujiyama and the steep mountains also add a lot of difficulty to climbing it.

If you are a normal person, if you want to climb this mountain, you need the support of a whole team, various tools and warming equipment, but people in this world generally have stronger physical fitness, coupled with the exaggeration of religious atmosphere, it is only possible to climb Fujiyama with bare hands. It is the way to test believers. novelUsb.cOm

Even if the Arceus religion has a deep influence in Wano country, there are only a few people who have the courage to challenge Fujiyama, and most of them dare to climb this steep mountain in groups.

Some people do it because of their devout beliefs, while others want to appreciate the legendary beautiful scenery that can only be seen by climbing to the top, and the rarer magic medicine that can only be obtained by the most devout believers.

It is rare to climb alone without help like Kozuki Hiyori.

At the beginning, this process was not difficult. At the foot of the mountain, Kozuki Hiyori even saw some people who were about to climb Fujiyama, but she didn't say hello to them, nor did she plan to go with them.

According to the doctrine, this is a challenge to the body, and it is the best performance to be alone, with two knives on your back, warm clothes, food, and the climbing journey of Kozuki and Hiyori begins, but as the height climbs, She faced more and more difficulties.

"Ah, it's been a few days, I seem to be at a loss"

Derek rubbed her cheeks, her physical strength and spirit are fine, but she overestimated the speed of the light moon and the sun, the trained light and moon are much stronger than ordinary people, ordinary thugs are not her opponent.

But for an inexperienced novice to climb such a mountain with bare hands, it is hell-level difficulty. After several days, she still has a long distance from the top of the mountain.

She also encountered a lot of risks along the way, but Drake never showed up. Since the challenge of climbing the holy mountain appeared, she has never been an unlucky person who fell to death while climbing a mountain.

The number of people who dare to climb is not many people who believe in religion. On the other hand, this is the place of God. In order to reflect the kindness of God, there are special mountain lifeguards who are unknown to outsiders. The one in front of Drake is one example.

"Little guy, is that fruit ripe, can you give me a taste?"

"Hmm~mm!"

In the snow, a Pokémon revealed itself, with a small body and a hat made of snow on its head, which looks like a combination of plants and snow monsters.

Both feet were buried in the snow as if rooted, and at this moment, a snowball-like fruit was being picked from his body.

This is Quinn's second favorite fruit in the Beast Pirates, second only to the banana grown on the body of the tropical dragon. Due to its special nature, it cannot be grown at all. Kemeng grows physically

Chapter 819 Snow Hat Monster and Yamato Limited Edition Temporary Nun

Snow Hat Monster, Juice Pokémon, a Pokémon created by Arceus with aquamarine slabs, currently serving as a mountain lifeguard.

The upper body is as white as snow, the lower body is as brown as a tree trunk, and the hands are as green as pine leaves.

Like Tropical Dragon, it is a Pokémon that breeds special fruits on its body, but the fruit on its body is very different from ordinary fruits. Banana Quinn of Tropical Dragon has also successfully bred a degraded version through various scientific methods. The plants have achieved mass production.

But the fruit of the snow hat monster is different. This rare fruit can only grow on the snow hat monster, and it is very seasonal. This kind of fruit can only be seen in spring.

The taste is like a popsicle, and it is a delicious fruit approved by Quinn and Charlotte Lingling.

The snow hat monster has a gentle personality, and sometimes it will be as motionless as a tree stump, absorbing the cold air and moisture in the snow through the roots under its feet, and has a strong interest in humans.

In the world of Pokémon, when human footprints are found, the snow hat monsters will follow the footprints to find traces of humans, and sometimes stray into human villages, but there is no need to be afraid, they usually become good friends of children.

The snow hat monster usually does not leave the snow mountain. In most cases, only those who climb the vine mountain have the opportunity to eat this fruit, and Drake just dropped by.

And when she was communicating with the snow hat monster, Kozuki Hiyori almost slipped from the side of the mountain because of slippery hands. At that moment, a rhizome similar to a plant root suddenly appeared near her and grabbed her firmly.

This is not a rattan whip, but rooted. Although it is a member of the grass-type Pokémon, the Yukimono does not know the rattan whip, but uses this method instead of the rattan whip.

The rhizome-like tentacles brought her back to a safe place, but the snow hat monster did not show up. Even Kozuki Hiyori only saw a white shadow disappearing on the snow mountain.

This didn't make Kozuki Hiyori back down. After adjusting her state, she continued to climb towards the top of the mountain, but when she reached the top of the mountain, the picture she saw was very different from what she imagined.

The air here is completely different from before. Before climbing to the summit, the cold air was a challenge to the respiratory system, but after reaching the summit, the stinging pain caused by the cold has disappeared, and it only takes a few breaths. The fatigue from the previous climb was gone.

In the distance, you can see temples made of boulders and paths paved with pink diamonds, and the light reflected by the frozen lake.

You can see the legendary holy spring in the temple. Even if the outside world is full of snow, the inside of the temple is still a scene of spring and flowers blooming. All this seems to be no problem, but there is a person inside who looks very leisurely like a vacation .

"Yamato, someone is coming."

"Why, I've asked Sister Missu. No one has plans to come here for pilgrimage in the past few days. That stupid old man can't think of me here. Let me relax."

On a beach chair, Yamato lay leisurely on it, holding a bucket of milkshake provided by Tianzhuzhu in his left hand, and taking out some small snacks from Yunduo's satchel with his right hand from time to time, looking very leisurely.

Here is her newly discovered temporary refuge, which can effectively avoid Kaido's harassment, and the environment is very comfortable for her.

Although it looks like a scene of spring flowers blooming, in fact, the temperature here is still very low. It is only because of the influence of Arceus that plants can grow and the holy spring does not freeze.

But her ability makes her not afraid of severe cold, and this temperature is no different from sunbathing by the sea.

"You can just see for yourself. By the way, I will still report your recent behavior to the Lord."

Tianxi condensed several giant diamond plates in mid-air, and through reflection, the figure of Kozuki Hiyori was reflected in front of Yamato.

"Ice Land!"

Looking at the image reflected on the diamond, Yamato jumped up and patted the ground with one hand. A thick ice wall rose from the ground, blocking Kozuki Hiyori's sight.

Only in less than 1 minute, the ice wall shattered again, and it was exactly the same as before except that the vacationer disappeared.

Things happened a little too fast, Kozuki Hiyori rubbed her eyes in disbelief, thinking she was hallucinating, now there is no Yamato who is on vacation in front of her, only Yamato who looks serious.

"Pilgrim, you proved your perseverance, why you came here."

At this time, Yamato took out a set of teaching robes of the same style as Misu from somewhere, and put them on his body, and said serious words with a serious face, but behind her, even Tianxi couldn't help it. laugh.

The prudish Yamato is rare to see, and it doesn't match her personality at all.

"Stop laughing! Help me think about what those people said before!"

Listening to Tianxi's snickering, Yamato asked quietly, but in the eyes of Kozuki Hiyori, the corner of Yamato's mouth did not move. This is the technique of ventriloquism. The technique is not difficult.

With the help of Tianxi, she acted as a temporary nun of the Arceus religion, completed the religious process of the light, moon and sun, and fooled her.

The professional nuns who stayed behind in the temple are in charge of the aftermath. Misu has found several reliable staff among the believers over the years, and the person in charge here is the best among them, so he won this honor.

"Di Anxi, you did it on purpose, you must have discovered her long ago!"

"No, and you haven't found her with your knowledge."

"Who would keep being knowledgeable? I'm not Uncle Quinn. You must have done it on purpose."

"I didn't. You should get down to business. You said you want to exercise yourself, so I came here with you."

"Got it, I'm just adjusting my status."

She also has a serious business here, just to avoid Kaido, she should choose to go to sea, and another purpose of coming here is to continue the trial of the black and white dragon.

The battle with the golden lion made her understand how powerful Zekrom and Laceyram are. Today's beasts are not exactly the beasts she wants to see. In order to realize her dream, she must To defeat Kaido, power has become an indispensable thing.

As she grew older, Arceus also changed this special trial space, giving her more opportunities to challenge herself.

Take out his reclining chair, Yamato lay down again in Stonehenge, and a familiar voice rang in his ears.

【Reshiram and Zekrom used to be one. It assisted the brother heroes to establish the Hezhong area, but because of the differences in the beliefs of the two heroes, the dragon was divided into two dragons.

Ssangyong is very disappointed that the two heroes started a war, and wants to destroy the union.NoVeLuSB.com

Girl, the ideal and the reality are opposite and unified, they are two sides of one body, choose the idea you agree with, and stop this tragedy. 】

Chapter 820 Special way of thinking, sublimated domineering color

【Ms. Yamato, hello, this is your 198th challenge. Are you ready to fail? 】

It's still the familiar figure, Sirona who has squeezed out the position of the unification champion Alice, but this is just an AI with the same face, that's it

"There is no need to specifically mention the number of times, and there is no need to say failure! It's not what it used to be, okay?"

"You have said this sentence more than a hundred times, and I don't think it has any reference value."

"Damn it, I must protest to my adoptive father and tell him not to give you such a high level of intelligence!"

There was no response to this sentence. After all, this is an AI with no self-emotions. The words just now seemed to be beyond the processing capacity, and Yamato, like the previous few times, came to the battlefield where the war is about to take place.

This time she didn't wander around, but experienced what the life of the ancient Hezhong was like. After hundreds of explorations, she gradually discovered the secrets in this trial space.

Although it is fake, everything here is the same as the real one, except that you will not die, you will also feel pain, and you can also taste the delicious food. There is a buffer period before each trial.

In the past more than a hundred times, she has tried to contact the local forces, but it is meaningless at all. The conflict between the two brothers cannot be reconciled. It is a difference in philosophy. Even if they can be forced to stop the war, the furious Ssangyong will not stop.

If you think of it as a game, then the requirement for clearing the level is to avoid the destruction of the union.

To resolve this situation, the best way is to get the approval of Ssangyong at the same time. The choice given by the reminder is an illusion. No matter which side she helps, the aftermath of the battle will still lead to the destruction of the Hezhong here.

Yamato gradually discovered the bug in this option, but she took a more strange path. Compared with getting the approval of Ssangyong at the same time, she wanted to defeat Ssangyong at the same time, and regarded it as a special kind of battle.

So instead of joining a side after the fight started, she tried to stop SsangYong by force.

"Jekrom, do you regret your original choice?"

The result of this space will be seen by Zekrom and Lacey Ram, including the changes of Yamato.

"Want to defeat you and me at the same time, do you approve of this naivety?"

"You have seen her persistence, she is working hard for her dream, can defeat you and me at the same time, or stop our battle, isn't this a lofty ideal?"

If she can really do this step, why can't she? "

Czechrom refuted Lacey Ram's words. In terms of actions, he didn't think Yamato would be successful, but in terms of philosophy, he didn't agree with Lacey Ram's idea of vetoing it with one vote.

"You are still as naive as you, and your utopian ideals will never come true."

"Heh, the reality without dreams will only become empty. If the world loses its ideals, the truth is the cruelest knife, and there will be no progress. It will only gradually destroy yourself and wipe out all emotions."

The quarrel between the two dragons lasted for an unknown period of time, but no one could convince the other, whether it was words or force, they were all in a wonderful balance.

A few hours later, Yamato opened her eyes again. From her expression, it can be seen that she has failed, but she has gained other things. A few special domineering lines are wrapped around her arms, but they are not armed. It is her domineering color.

Overlord color is innate and cannot be strengthened through acquired training. This is also the inherent cognition of this world. It is only in the battle of the trial space that Yamato discovered a very special point.

After dozens of times of tempering, her domineering look seems to have become stronger, even if the increase is not obvious, it is stronger than before.

Armed color and knowledge color can also be strengthened through tempering the body, but the power of domineering is inseparable from the power of the heart, especially the domineering color. If you want to strengthen the domineering color, it is not the body that is tempered, but the soul with the spirit.

Exercise can sharpen one's willpower, but willpower is just a person's persistence, not spiritual strength. Arceus' trial space can make up for this deficiency.

That special space has nothing to do with the body, it only exercises the spirit, and indirectly it has become the only way to slowly enhance the domineering look.

Yamato did come here with a certain idea of vacation, but in the process, she did not relax, and she was exercising herself in different ways.

In addition to deterring miscellaneous soldiers, another use of Bawang color is to entangle. It can be attached to weapons like the armed color Domineering, making the attack more powerful.

It's just that other people's power of tyranny has been delimited on the day of birth, and Yamato has the opportunity to break this upper limit.

"It's so difficult. Could it be that it is the most correct way to persuade the two of them with reason?"

Zekrom and Laceyram, who broke out at full strength, are very powerful, and it is already very difficult for Yamato to intervene in their battle, let alone control the aftermath of the battle.

If combat doesn't work, you might have to find another way.

She couldn't think of any clues in this regard, so the idea of looking for foreign aid arose.

"Di Anxi, do you have any suggestions?"

"No, I can't do anything about it."

"Well let me think Robin hasn't been back in a while, maybe she'll have an idea?"

There was a question on her mouth, but her body had already made an action. She held Rotom in her hand, found Robin's number, and dialed it.

At this time, Rotom on Robin's body quietly observed the surrounding environment, and after confirming that there was nothing unexpected, he sent a signal to Robin through vibration.

"Wait a mininute."

Looking at a man and a woman in front of him, Robin took out Rotom's phone without any hesitation, and even answered the phone in front of the other party.

"Yo, Robin, long time no see."

"Long time no see, what's up?"

"It's not a big deal, I just want to discuss something with you. Are you busy with something? Then I'll call you later."

The Rotom mobile phone that hosts Rotom is a bit convenient, that is, it will not ring at critical times. Since it chooses to vibrate, it means that Robin is only facing trivial matters in life. Tom will choose silence.

"Okay, let's continue."

Watching Yamato hang up the phone directly, she looked at Princess Weiwei and Icarem in front of her again. They were discussing a very special matter with her.

"I know this is inappropriate. After all, you are not a part of this kingdom, but your education can help us a lot, so... I still want to ask abruptly, Miss Robin, are you willing to participate with us? A risky move."
