Chapter 851 Struggle Jack, Lost Cavendish

The King Bronze Elephant's super giant skill, super giant steel formation, in layman's terms, this is a large Sa Ling, which can plant more steel spikes in the field, causing higher damage to new enemies.

But this is not a game. The super giant steel formation has more functions, and the most intuitive effect is to change the battlefield.

Those steel thorns range in size from a few meters to as small as a sword, and they are all within the control range of Jack's ability. Although they consume a lot of energy, they can clear the screen in the area, making up for his slow attack speed and his shortcomings of being easily kited by the enemy.

At the same time, Jack's elephant trunk protruded into the seawater beside him, and a large amount of seawater was sucked into his body, and then spewed out again in the way of murloc jujitsu, and fused with the steel made by the super giant steel formation Swept towards the instant. nOveluS&.cOm

"Murloc Jiu-Jitsu Dead Sea!"

At this moment, Jack's attack turned into a real "steel torrent". Once ordinary people are involved in this water flow, they will be crushed instantly.

In the face of Jack's attack, the instant counterattack was merciless. The power of thunder and waveguide formed a special shield. With the increase of the moon lion state, the electromagnetic levitation is not just floating, but a special shield capable of high-speed flight. Skill.

Jack's attack was impenetrable, but Setsuna still found a gap. Although there was a bloodstain on her arm, she still got close to Jack, and she also had a special throwing gun in her hand.

Thunderbolt, waveguide, domineering, and various forces were compressed and fused by her, and finally formed a spear in her hand. The reason why she didn't use a bow was because there was no need to use the power of a bow and arrow in this state, and Jack was of a size, she Even if you close your eyes, you won't miss it.

Relying on brute force, she threw the throwing spear in Jack's eyes, which was where Jack's defense was weakest.

Jack didn't dodge, but swung his arms and smashed at Setsuna, trying to defeat the opponent at the cost of catching the shot, but neither Jack's fist nor Setsu's throwing the gun finally hit the target.

The surrounding time and space seemed to have fallen into a standstill, and the attacks of the two slowly dissipated into the air.

"The battle is over, this is a draw."

There is a huge difference between the upgrade battle that challenges the disaster and the transposition battle, that is, the participants can't keep their hands. It is very troublesome for people of this level to decide the winner. Ten days and half a month can't finish it.

And this kind of combat power is a treasure for every force, and it cannot be lost in internal friction, so a person is needed to act as a referee.

Apart from Arceus among the beasts today, only Kaido can guarantee that he can judge the outcome of the battle between the two and interrupt them in time.

In the days when Kaido was missing every day, Arceus could only act as the referee.

"Well done Jack, if you work hard for a while, you should be able to achieve your goal.

The same goes for you in a moment, when you can master this power under normal conditions, it will be even more perfect. "

After a little review, Arceus ended the battle.

The two attacks just now were solid, and both of them were seriously injured. Their defenses have already been used up. It is not appropriate to gamble on luck at this time.

Neither Setsuna nor Jack refuted Arceus' judgment. The curtain of this challenge came to an end temporarily, but Jack did not give up. He left Ghost Island not long after, and began to continue to hone himself in the battle to prepare for the new challenge in the future. Get ready.

Setsuna also returned to the days when he worked in Zou, and Yang Jisihan took advantage of his vacation to vacation in Wano Country. After working hard for most of his life, he also had time to enjoy.

Kaido returned without success after a series of searches, but he caused a lot of trouble for the Navy.

They couldn't figure out what Kaido wanted to do. In order to prevent him from reacting in time when he did something terrible, they had to order the navy of various branches to be on standby at all times and pay attention to Kaido's intelligence.

The actions of Jack and Kaido made them appear in the newspapers frequently, and the entertainment news of Baishou Fruit often occupied the news headlines. Under Tezolo's management, Uta has become a world-class rookie, and is famous all over the world. I have a lot of fans.

For a while, it can be said that there is no second in the limelight, and it can be said that the news during this period cannot avoid the word "hundred beasts".

Even if they are not directly involved, there are shadows behind them, and their every move is closely related to the whole world.

This kind of thing has no effect at all, at most it just makes others sigh, but some people gnash their teeth because of it.

Pirates who go to sea have their own goals, wealth, power, and fame. They do various things for their goals.

In the context of the era of great pirates, even if the great route is full of dangers of death, there will still be a steady stream of pirates arriving at the Chambord Islands, and there will be a special "leader" among these people.

The leader does not mean that they lead other teams, but that these people have the highest bounty in the same period. Pirates with a bounty of over 100 million can be found everywhere in the new world, but in the first half of the great voyage, there are only a handful of such pirates.

Every pirate worth over 100 million is named a supernova, and among this year's supernovas, the strongest is the captain of the handsome pirates, White Horse Cavendish, who has a bounty of 280 million Baileys.

Originally, he was the prince of the Brujoia Kingdom. Because of his handsome face, all the women in the kingdom were obsessed with him, and even affected the normal life of the kingdom, so he was expelled.

This is nothing at all, but he has a dual personality in his body. The other personality is different from Cavendish and loves killing very much. When he was in the Rommel area, Cavendish's personality committed many crimes, so he was called Rommel sickle weasel.

This incident forced him to become a pirate, but he himself enjoyed the fame brought by this incident very much, so he embarked on the road of pirates.

Gorgeous supernova, noble son of the pirate, white horse, Rommel's weasel, he has gathered too many titles, but recently, he found that the direction of the news has changed.

In the first half, he could often see his own new news, but now, apart from beasts, there are beasts, either Kaido or Jack.

This is especially the case after Tezolo's operation plan is launched. The space of the newspaper is limited. When Uta, Tezolo and others occupy most of the content of the entertainment section, the pirate rewards are staring at the active sea. The emperor, Cavendish naturally lost his heat.

This made him, who has always been the focus of the world, feel a serious sense of frustration, and wanted to regain his own popularity. .

Chapter 852 I like you very much, come to the boat with me

"Boat captain, do you really stop thinking about it?"

Listening to the decision made by Cavendish, his crew could not help being a little shocked.

"Of course, I didn't make any efforts to get to where I am today. With my talent alone, I have achieved countless things that pirates can't do. I want to get back the fame I lost!"

In today's era of great pirates, the easiest way to get in the newspaper is to find a suitable opponent to fight.

The photographers hiding in every corner will always take the opportunity to snap photos and write articles about what happened in newspapers.

Cavendish's decision at this time was to challenge the person who stole his popularity. As long as he defeated and killed the opponent, his popularity would return to him.

He didn't frantically stare at the actors in the Beast Fruit Performing Arts Department, but at Jack, who has been in the limelight recently, although he would be even more unlucky if he did that.

Challenging Jack, offending one royal group at most, and mobilizing the performing arts department of Beasts, then it is not a problem of the royal group.

As for why it is Jack and not Kaido.

He is not crazy yet. Although he longs for fame and enjoys fame and fortune, he is still far away from madness. He knows that challenging Kaido, the strongest creature, may be terrible.

But this also led to, after a while, an extremely strange situation appeared on Jack's Iron Mammoth.

After the draw, Jack started his own experience, took his younger brothers out to fight, and constantly tempered himself. Whether it is a pirate or a navy, as long as it is not his own, a war is inevitable.

The bronze elephant of the king and the ability of the murlocs made Jack very difficult to deal with. He became a ghost in the new world for a while, and the navy didn't want to talk to him when they saw him.

Fortunately, Jack's Iron Mammoth is not moving fast due to its own weight, and it is not so easy to catch up with people who want to run.

"Supernova? Hope it's interesting, pull the boat over and get ready for battle!"

Those who are capable, he will go on the field in person, and those who are not strong enough will be handed over to his younger brother for training. But before his boat moved, the watchman made an unbelievable sound.

"Master Jack Jack! They came over on their own initiative!"

They haven't encountered this kind of situation for a while. Seeing the enemy not running but actively attacking, the watchmen will suspect that they are dazzled.

"Sipshead, Intelligence."

Jack stood up abruptly, even the Frost Fairy on his shoulder shook, and then an unhappy expression appeared on his small face.

"Ah yes! This is the handsome pirate group, the captain's reward is 280 million"

"Two hundred and eighty million, heh, it'd better bring me a little fun. Be good, wait for me for 10 minutes, I'll finish them in 10 minutes."

The last gentle words were obviously not addressed to his subordinates, but to his own Milk Fairy. After putting it back in the cabin, Jack also came to the bow.

"Full speed ahead!"

Jack's purpose was to train his men's combat effectiveness, not the hit rate of the shelling, so the gunner on the ship didn't fire at all, but directly slammed into the opponent's artillery fire.novelusb.com

As the two ships charged at each other, they quickly approached each other, and then Jack's crew was shocked again by Cavendish's actions, and he rushed aboard Jack's ship.

"Where's that Jack? Get out! Get out of here, you bastards!"

Cavendish looked a little disdainful as he watched the pirates approaching him. The style of painting on Jack's boat was very novel. Although there were normal people like Sips Head and Kim Rummy, most of them were The muscular man is completely different from Cavendish's aesthetics.

It's just that there is some satisfaction hidden under the disdain, even if these are enemies, Cavendish still enjoys the feeling of being watched by them.

"You don't need Master Jack to take action, you are a newcomer who doesn't know the heights of the sky and the earth, I will be enough!"

After rushing onto the boat, he ignored them and challenged the captain directly. This was slapping them in the face. Sipps Head turned into a mammoth and wanted to kill Cavendish, but was held down by the shoulder.

"Get out of the way, this guy asked me to come, you and Kim Rummy take someone to deal with other people, catch alive."

"Yes! Come with me!"

Jack's order cannot be violated by them. After he made a decision, Sipps Head changed direction and left this place to Jack.

"Boy, I like you very much, I will give you a chance to join us."

Cavendish's "reckless behavior" just made Jack feel very sleepy. The status of a supernova is a stepping stone to recruitment for today's Four Emperors.

Cavendish's character and rewards at this time have passed, so Jack put forward the words of solicitation.

"Master, I don't want to join your barbaric team. The gorgeous me is not the same as you. The reason why I came here is because you stole my fame."

Supporting the cowboy hat on top of his head, Cavendish ate the rose in his hand, pulled out the sword around his waist, and danced a few sword flowers in the air. It was the famous sword Durandal, also a sword A rare good sword.

"Get ready to exit, your activity should come to an end."

"Your nonsense and useless actions took up two minutes of your time."

"What did you say."

Hearing Jack's evaluation of himself, Cavendish had a look of anger on his face, but Jack didn't care about it, but said to himself:

"It took three minutes for the ships to approach each other, and it took you two minutes to talk nonsense, so you only have five minutes left. Since you refused my solicitation, then you are enemies."

"Bastard... Beautiful Sword Round Table!"

Jack's contempt made Cavendish very displeased, and he rushed towards Jack at high speed with Durandil in his hand. When he reached Jack's vicinity, Cavendish leaped high, and finally drew a beautiful arc in mid-air and slashed towards Jack. Jack's neck.

Cavendish is a natural swordsmanship genius who has reached a very high level without much study. He once used this trick to behead countless people.

Jack is the best type to deal with a simple-minded big man like Jack, but the sharp edge that has been invincible in the past voyages has hit a wall at this moment.

Zheng!

Jack stood in place like an iron tower, and Cavendish's slash didn't even make him move a step. Only the strong arrogance showed that Jack did defend.

"So-so, but too weak."

Jack slapped Cavendish directly with his big hand, and his sword was caught in this way with all his strength. Cavendish was doubting his life, and before he could react, he was swatted away like a fly.

Chapter 853 The Most Beautiful - Reserve Miners

"Bastard, you * actually used such a rude way!"

"Is there something wrong with your brain? Isn't it enough that the way of fighting is effective?"

Jack originally thought that Cavendish was a brave warrior. It is not uncommon for him to dare to challenge beasts before, but it is still rare for him to rush forward so actively.

But now his thinking has changed, he thinks that Cavendish is simply not in a good mind.

"Brutal guy, Meiken Blue Bird!"

Cavendish, who got back up again, launched a violent stab at Jack. The speed of this strike was extremely fast. Due to the speed of the stab, both sides of the blade were swept up by air, but this There is no difference compared to the slash just now.

The gap between the new world and the first half is revealed. In the first half of the great route, Cavendish is a talented swordsman. Let him hone in the new world for a while, and he can become a real strong man.

But before he develops his arrogance, as a swordsman, it is difficult for him to hurt Jack.

Although his speed is much ahead of Jack, Jack only needs to use his domineering power to prevent Cavendish from breaking through the defense, so what happened just now happened again, Cavendish was slapped again, and was slapped back again in place. novelus6.com

This time Jack hit the other side of the face, making him look a lot more symmetrical.

"As a newcomer, you are very good, so I will give you another chance."

From the corner of his eye, he glanced at the battlefields of Sipshead and Gin Rummy. The Mammoth and the Elephant have already led the team to tear through the enemy's defenses. It seems that the end of the battle is only a matter of time.

"I refuse, my young master, don't join a rude group like yours!"

"Well, it seems that we have to change the method."

According to Kaido's teaching, when you want to recruit someone, you must first show your strength to deter the opponent. If the opponent surrenders directly, you can consider the next step.

If the opponent refuses, then beat the opponent up, let him fully understand the gap in strength, and then recruit him.

If the other party still refuses, then take him back and let him know the consequences of the rejection.

"I'll let you work gracefully, and you can discuss etiquette with those guys."

Elegance always has a price, such as elegant mining.

But Cavendish did not continue to attack. Although he was slapped twice in a row, it also made him understand the huge gap in strength between the two sides. He had never encountered an opponent who could not even cut the skin.

Eyes closed slightly, Cavendish seemed to have lost consciousness. When he opened his eyes again, his eyes had begun to turn white, and the corners of his mouth grinned to an exaggerated extent. He awakened his personality.

Cavendish is very familiar with the personality who likes to kill. This personality is extremely crazy and almost irrational. So Cavendish usually suppresses him, and only when he sleeps does this personality have a chance to appear.

Although it is crazy, this character has stronger swordsmanship than Cavendish, who is already a swordsmanship genius.

Because he shares a body with Cavendish, while Cavendish becomes stronger, his personality will also be stronger.

When facing an enemy that is too powerful, Cavendish will take the initiative to let this personality come out to fight his enemy.

The speed of Cavendish in the personality state increased by one step, and there were bursts of piercing sounds in the air. Cavendish in the personality state had come to Jack, and Durandal swung a dense sword net in his hand. , and successfully chopped Jack's waistcoat.

"I kind of like this dress."

Jack's upper body is exposed with well-developed muscles. Although the attack frequency of the personality is very high, and the swordsmanship is also very good, but still did not break Jack's defense, but left some white marks on it.

Even for this rampant Li personality, there is a touch of consternation on his exaggerated expression.

Immediately afterwards, as the personality of Li, he was slapped firmly by Jack just like Cavendish.

Cavendish and Qili personality can communicate. When the other party has not completely fallen asleep, they can know what is happening in the outside world. Therefore, this slap made Cavendish's Li personality completely crazy.

"Bastard, bastard! I'm going to tear you apart, tear you apart!"

In the Rommel Kingdom, murders would happen whenever night fell, and the navy that went to support was not an opponent, and they couldn't even see who the enemy was.

Fastness itself is the characteristic of Cavendish Li's personality. Because the speed of the instant killing is as fast as a gust of wind, those people call the murder of unknown person "Rommel's weasel".

At this time, he was constantly attacking around Jack, trying to find Jack's weakness. Under extreme speed, it was difficult for Jack's attack to hit the opponent, but Jack already had a way to deal with it.

I saw him get off his horse, and made a gesture of swinging a positive fist.

"Murloc Karate · Tang Caowa Righteous Fist!"

The essence of murloc karate is to cause greater damage by hitting the water in the human body. Tang Caowa Zhengquan is a special technique that uses punches to generate 360-degree shock waves.

Facing such a high-speed but crispy opponent, this technique is very easy to use.

Cavendish had to get close to Jack if he wanted to hit him, and the punch just knocked him out.

Jack didn't slap him away this time, but grabbed him in his hands, without giving him a chance to continue attacking.

"9 minutes, just right, hey! Sipshead, you are too slow!"

"Master Jack, it will be over soon, please wait a moment."

Listening to Jack's urging, Sipshead and the others accelerated their fighting speed, and soon wiped out the Handsome Pirates.

"Report to Mr. Jack, including the captain, we have captured 74 members of the handsome pirates, a white horse, several treasures and countless love letters."

They fulfilled Jack's order perfectly and captured each other alive. Compared with the captain's gap, the gap between ordinary members in the new world is more terrifying.

Under the leadership of the small cadres, they were routed extremely quickly, and everything on board was also in the hands of the beasts.

"Master Jack, why are we arresting them?"

"Recruit them to see, and the mines in Wano Country seem to be understaffed recently, these energetic guys should be quite suitable.

Find a Hailoushi chain and lock him up. This guy has a problem. "

After defeating Cavendish's Li personality, Cavendish did not come back, but fell into a deep sleep. When the personality is completely asleep, the waking personality can exert its full power.

It's just that he didn't expect that his trump card was still fragile in Jack's eyes, and it just allowed him to use some formal moves.

Chapter 854 The five big and three rough don't match the small and cute style of painting

No one in Jack's subordinates was surprised that these pirates raised a horse on board. Even if the quality of life of this horse is very high, it is only normal in the eyes of the beasts.

Many Pokémon in Hundred Beasts are treated better than humans. For example, Jack's Frost Milk Fairy, Kojiro's Wind Speed Dog, each of them lives extremely well. Under the care of their partners, ordinary people can't get along with them. They compare.

The pirates outside don't have Pokémon, so raising a horse is a very reasonable thing for them.

This horse is named Faruru, and it is Cavendish's favorite horse. He has been with him since he was a child. The title of his white horse is also because of Faruru.

It's just that Jack's men didn't prepare a horse pen for it alone, but locked it up with the handsome pirates, and not only people can dig mines, but horses can also pull carts, and their strength is much stronger than ordinary people .

For the people of beasts, this horse is easier to manage than those pirates, but it is simply tied to the side with the rein.

Even if it wants to resist, a horse can't do much, but Cavendish makes them a little troublesome.

"This guy is really special."

"Yeah, after letting Brother Jack come like that, he still has the strength to resist."

At this time, Cavendish was locked up with his subordinates, and his body was tied tightly by two sea stone chains.

The most indispensable thing for all beasts is the Hailou Stone, and this kind of stone has a wide range of uses. In addition to suppressing those with abilities, it is also an extremely hard chain for ordinary people. When dealing with difficult captives, Hailou Stone The Loushi chain can give them a lot of peace of mind.

Jack gave all the keys to the chain to Frost Fairy. Because its body is made of cream, it can also put some things inside, but it can't put too much because of its size.

So the chains on Jack's boat are very special. All the locks are of the same model, and they can all be opened with only one key.

This most important key was also handed over to Frost Fairy by Jack, and he was not worried that someone would steal the key.

At this time, Cavendish was still struggling, his expression was like his personality, and the chains on his body kept ringing, which caused the handsome pirates on one side to be terrified.

"Hey, that...can you tie the captain up a bit?"

"Yeah, at least tie him up!"

"I heard you right, did you say that the bundle should be firmer?"

Sipshead scratched his head, a little confused about the brain circuits of these newcomers.

Logically speaking, they should plan how to escape. According to the customs of the sea, the captured pirates have no good end. They are sold to traffickers or handed over to the navy is the most common situation.

At this time, they should be thinking about escaping, not "betrayal".

"You don't understand that the sleeping captain is not the captain"

This is the characteristic of Cavendish. After he discovered the problem of his personality, he had to lock himself up firmly when he slept. If Cavendish is now freed from the shackles, the first thing he does may not be Escape from prison, but kill your own people.

What the people of beasts are going to do, they don't know, but if Cavendish breaks free, they are finished.

Having been on the voyage with Cavendish for so long, they can see that Cavendish is obviously in a state where he cannot suppress his personality.

"Stay calm, Hailoushi's chains are not something you can break free.

You should feel honored to be able to see Mr. Jack, otherwise you would have already fed the fish.

Not paying attention to what the pirates said, Sipshead turned his head and left the cabin.

Since Jack has taken a fancy to them, they will enjoy the highest treatment as captives of beasts, and they will be pulled back to the mine in Wano Country.

After a while, Cavendish woke up in a daze, and the sense of restraint on his body made him understand what happened.

"Hakuba also failed?"

This is the name of his personality, an opponent that even the personality cannot beat, which means that they have already kicked the steel plate.

The environment here is not bad, it is not luxurious but tidy, similar to a warehouse.

Not to mention comfortable, at least it is better than the treatment of some people during the triangular trade period. After all, Jack wants to recruit this guy, not to kill him.

It's just that this environment is still extremely bad for Cavendish.

Cavendish is still very ostentatious, and if he can recognize the enemy, he will be treated accordingly. This place is not even as good as the stable on his ship.

"Did these guys say what they were going to do?"

Looking around, he found that there were not a single crew member missing, and even the horses were still there, which made Cavendish feel a little puzzled.

"No, they didn't say anything."

"Strange people, don't be dumbfounded. Try to get this lock open, but there is not even a guard. These rude guys are really careless."

"Captain, there are still guards."

A handcuffed crew member pointed outside, and the Frost Milk Fairy was sitting outside holding a picture book. Due to the influence of the era and environment, this kind of picture book was usually regarded as a cartoon, and the cover was the popular Seven Monkey Pearl.

"Stupid, how could such a cute creature get mixed up with those savage creatures? It must have been coerced or tricked."

Cavendish, who likes to be famous, is also a standard face value party. The small and cute Frost Fairy has been automated to another faction. The little guy who looks so cute, no matter how you think about it, he will not have anything to do with Jack, the five big and three thick guys connect.

"Little guy? Look here, look here, help me unlock the chain, how about I take you out from here?"

He doesn't understand Pokémon, and he doesn't know what kind of creature it is, but it can sit there and read picture books, so it should be able to understand human speech.

There are quite a few animals in this sea that are as intelligent as humans, but most of them can't speak human words. In order to prevent the Frost Fairy from understanding, he also tried to express himself with body language.

But the actions he can make while being tied into a zongzi are very limited.

The chains rattled, and Cavendish successfully attracted the attention of the Frosty Milk Fairy, but the Frost Milk Fairy's eyes were completely looking at a fool.

Blinking his own eyes, Cavendish couldn't believe the current scene, thinking that it was just that it didn't understand what he meant, so he continued to chatter.

Finally succeeded in wearing out the patience of Milk Fairy, only to see it took out a whistle, took a deep breath and blew it.

The ear-piercing whistle also summoned Jack directly.

"The physical fitness is not bad, do you have the strength to chatter so soon?"

Frost Fairy expressed her meaning with richer body movements and language, but Jack was not furious. It is normal for others to like such a cute Frost Fairy, and they can't abduct her anyway.

"What method did you use to brainwash that creature! Let me go, I don't deserve to be in this kind of place!"

"Okay, as long as you join us, I can let you go."

Formal joining still needs to be assessed, but as long as the other party agrees, Jack can temporarily increase Cavendish's treatment.

"Dream! This young master will not be with such barbaric guys as you!"

"Well, it's okay, you'll change your mind."

According to Kaido's teaching, when you see a person's combat power, you must have enough patience with him. Jack has learned this essence.

"Sippshead, come and watch these guys, let's talk about it if there is a situation."

Cream Fairy was just a key custodian, not a guard. After changing someone to act as a temporary jailer, Jack planned to leave here.

"Wait! Give me back the sword! That's a famous sword!"

"You don't need it now, you will have a new "sword"."

After a period of time, Jack had returned to Wano Country, and Cavendish was also brought back to the headquarters of Beasts by Jack, and then sent to the Rabbit Bowl.

This is the only way to enter Wano Country without checking their identity. They enter as prisoners, and they have no chance to make trouble when they go directly to the prison.

And Cavendish also saw the "new sword" in his hand.

It is also the holy sword in physics. Generally speaking, this thing is called a crowbar.

"Bastards! You bastards! Can this thing be called a sword?!"

"According to Master Jack, when you figure it out, I will return your things to you."

The pirates staying at the quarry looked at Cavendish playfully. Here, the prisoners are also graded.

The most common ones are those wearing prison uniforms. Most of those people are reformed through labor, and they may be released. The most serious ones are those with heavy shackles on their feet. Most of these people will never have the chance to go out. , A felon who can only be * to death.

The most special ones are people like Cavendish who haven't put on prison uniforms, which means that someone from Beasts wanted to recruit them, but they didn't agree, so they were sent here to experience life.

"Before that, you just get used to your new weapon."ηOvelusb.com

This is a quarry. Hammers, chisels, and crowbars are all commonly used tools. Jack fulfilled his original words and picked the one that resembled a sword most among the many tools and handed it to him.

Cavendish did not choose to pretend to join and then took the opportunity to leave, because at this time he did not want to join any forces.

No matter which sea emperor's power, they don't come and leave whenever they want. There is no difference between leaving after falsely joining and declaring war.

Unless you join other big forces to save your life, you will have to live on the run for the rest of your life.

There are such people, but this is not the root cause of Cavendish's refusal. If he is afraid of this, he will not be able to take the initiative to challenge Jack. It is more because his character makes him refuse to do this. an act of deception.

In the end, he was forced to stay here and began to plan how to escape. Under the threat of no food if he didn't work, he was forced to start working. Faruru also transformed from a war horse to a pack horse.

Although it is a prison, there is no one who is the boss here. All the prisoners know one thing. Only the beasts are the boss here.

Ding! Ding! Bang!

The hammer collided with the stone, and the prisoners in the quarry were working under the guard of the jailer, but Cavendish saw some people with some expectations on their faces.

"What are you happy about?"

"People from outside will come in to visit today. If you cooperate with them, you can get a chance to reduce your sentence."

"Visit? What's there to see in this place?"

Looking around the entire quarry, Cavendish didn't see anything worth seeing.

"We are the ones to be visited. If we violate the laws here, we will be sent to mine. This is a warning to the children here."

This is a daily warning activity in Wano Country. The general sends manpower to organize domestic school-age children to visit here, let them know what life in violation of the law looks like, and stabilize the domestic situation.

The specific implementation time was after Guangyue Day and the assassination. So far, no results have been seen, but according to the feedback from the parents, those children have behaved a lot after returning home.

"That is to say... there will be outsiders entering this prison, right?"

"You can also say that, what's the problem?"

"Are you a local? I have a plan that might allow us to escape, as long as you tell me the terrain around here"

"Wait! You mean.. jailbreak?!"

Listening to Cavendish's words, the man seemed very excited.

"Yeah, but I need more people."

Looking at the other party's eyes, Cavendish thought that the other party was moved, but the next moment, the other party made a behavior that Cavendish couldn't understand.

"I report! Someone wants to escape from prison!! Come on! Someone wants to escape from prison!"

I saw him drop the pickaxe in his hand, and yelled at the jailer on the side. Before Cavendish could react, the people of Beasts had already approached.

"What are you shouting for? Who wants to escape?!"

"It's him! This is the new guy! I heard him say that he is going to escape from prison, and he wants to drag me along!"

"You bastard!"

Seeing his plan being exposed in this way, Cavendish was very angry, but before he could react, he was slapped to the ground, and Babanuki, who was the warden, appeared at some time behind him.

The strange force coming from behind made him feel very familiar. Not long ago, Jack had pushed him down like this, but his attention was not here, but on the informant.

"Asshole, why did you betray me? Don't you want to escape?"

"Idiot, I came in because I got into a fight with people in Huajie, and I went out for a month at most. I am a fool who wants to escape with you. That, Mr. Babanuki, do you think it is meritorious service?"

"Wait a minute, for the sake of your merits in reporting, you should be a good example this time, and this newcomer should be a bad example."

Every time there is such an activity, the Rabbit Bowl Quarry will catch two typical examples to let people outside know the difference between a good transformation and a hidden evil intention.

Chapter 856 Black Charcoal Jade and Onion Rangers

This is a prison for pirates. The word human rights does not exist here. Facing a stabbing head who wants to escape from prison, Babanuki will definitely kill his spirit, even if Jack intends to recruit him.

As long as he hasn't opted in, Babanuki is justified in punishing him.

"Come on, let me see what you can do to Master Ben!"

"I remember you seem to like to be clean."

Babanuki did not choose corporal punishment. He also came from the rookie pirates. People who can become supernovas usually do not succumb to corporal punishment. It is impossible to make them succumb by corporal punishment alone.

The Imperton of the Navy is an example. Prisoners who enter Imperton will undergo a special baptism—they will be sterilized with boiling water. If they are ordinary people, this baptism will kill them.

But those monsters sentenced to level 6 can pass the level without changing their faces. Cavendish is also in a similar situation. Physical punishment such as whipping is difficult to be effective.

"What are you doing?"

"Today's punishment is that you are responsible for cleaning the toilets in the entire quarry. If you dare to make any more moths, I will let you do these things with bare hands."

Listening to Babanuki's words, Cavendish's face turned pale, which was more uncomfortable than killing him.

However, this is the effect that Babanuki wants. A person must be forced to do what he fears and hates the most. This is the punishment of the Rabbit Bowl Quarry for those who make mistakes.

"Dave Ge, you watch him finish these things."

"Brother Ebabanuki, can you change this matter?"

"Brother Jack said, this guy is a little troublesome, I don't worry about others."

"Okay. Hey, boy! Come on!"

As a supervisor, Dave Ge also had to enter the same environment as Cavendish, which made him feel very upset, and his actions were quite rough, and Babanuki also picked up the loudspeaker and began to inform the prisoners here, Don't play to death.

When the rabbit bowl quarry was almost ready, a special team also came here.

Most of them are five or six-year-old children, and many white ducks, some of them are well developed, even taller than those children.

These ducks are not ordinary ducks, but the evolution of Galar's Onion Duck - Onion Rangers.

Note: Scallion Youbing are not scallion pancakes, they are not food.

Due to the weight of scallions, Galar's scallion duck also produced a special evolution type during exercise. NovelUsB.com

Except for the color of the feathers, the onion ranger looks similar to the onion duck, the V on his forehead has become thicker, and what he holds in his hand is no longer a single green onion, but a sword made of onion stems and leaves. shield.

Same as in the period of duck with green onions, this onion is both food and weapon.

The scallion duck group is also fighting non-stop, and the best among them have evolved. They have a calm and calm personality, and take fighting with dignity as their creed, so they act as the guards of these children.

No one can guarantee whether those prisoners will suddenly have a brain twitch and behave extremely irrationally, so some guards need to be arranged.

The reason why the onion rangers came instead of humans is to let them know more about Pokémon and familiarize themselves with the new trend of Wano Country.

Similar activities are held several times a year, so there are not many people each time. This time, most of these children are from the Flower City, and many of them have the surname Heitan.

Since Heitan Orochi's grandfather tried to rebel, the main branch of the Heitan family has been wiped out, but the side branches have not been affected too much, especially these children, except for the same surname, they are completely different from Heitan Orochi's Heitan family thing.

But after Mi Tian's death, their family was still affected. In order to protect themselves, they were the first to surrender to Beasts, and most of them served as maids and servants in the capital of flowers.

Standing at the front is a little purple-haired daughter named Heitanyu.

In the original timeline, her parents died of overwork while working in a factory in Wano Country, and she could only make a living selling bamboo hats.

It can be said that Heitan Orochi did not regard these people as his clansmen, and everything in Wano Country was his target of revenge.

But it is different now. Wano Country retains some factories, but they are far from that crazy point. Her parents also work in the palace of the Flower City, and the family is very happy.

She has already reached the age of school, and this is the practical activity she participated in.

"This stone bed is where we sleep, so you all have to be obedient, study hard, and don't do bad things, otherwise you can only be like us, sleeping on such a hard stone bed, and there is endless work to do every day.

This is the price we pay for what we did wrong, and there are people over there who are being punished more severely. "

It was too profound for them to understand, and this elected representative was teaching these children in as straightforward a way as possible.

After finally winning this opportunity, he can't talk nonsense, and the onion rangers around him also brought some pressure. Although it seems that there is no deterrent force like those rock-type Pokémon like Little Fist Stone, but the flickering Green onion leaves don't seem to be easy to bully.

Can be selected as representatives, these people have committed no serious crimes, and they have all sincerely repented, and those who have never repented have no chance at all.

"Uncle, this is a gift for you, I wish you to return to your own home after completing the renovation soon."

These people also brought some small gifts, but they were all greeting cards and nothing real, at most there was some food, which was the only thing that was allowed to be given to them. No matter how you say it, they are all prisoners, and they came here to accept Punish instead of vacation.

Xiaoyu is very kind to them. This is because she has such a personality. Even if the environment in which she grew up has undergone tremendous changes, her kind nature has not changed.

It's just that her parents are still alive and she hasn't met Ace. Her goal is no longer to become a coquettish ninja, but to become the head maid of the palace.

According to the original timeline, she has already become the ability user of the fruit of the dumpling.

This fruit has no unique effect, but it can control animals. Caesar's semi-finished fruit will also be affected by her ability, and it is also the culprit that caused the large-scale rebellion of the Giver in the original timeline.

But now, that fruit has been ashes in the warehouse of Beasts. Due to the policy of Beasts, that kind of grotesque fruit can be exchanged for huge rewards. As long as you find one, you can directly realize the freedom of wealth, just like winning the lottery.

So after discovering that strange fruit, she handed it in without hesitation.

Then they saw Cavendish who was undergoing punishment.

Because of that handsome face, many children showed a trace of regret in their eyes, as if to express that such a handsome big brother is actually a villain, which caused a new critical injury to Cavendish.

Chapter 857 Debut as an idol

Bang! Bang!

A muffled sound came from the mine, and Cavendish angrily waved the sledgehammer in his hand, venting his anger on the ore in front of him.

Since he was reported, he felt that the people in this mine looked at him strangely, as if they wanted to get wool from him.

In fact, this is exactly the case. Only the newly sent people have the courage to resist, and most of those who have been mining here for a long time have lost the courage to resist.

So in their view, Cavendish is a commutation machine, and some people even try to fish for law enforcement.

So that Cavendish didn't believe them at all, but felt that these people had ulterior motives.

The people here are all pirates, and their methods are extremely rough. He doesn't want to be rubbed in the toilet, so he can only vent his inner inequality by mining.

It's just that he still refuses to give in, and complains about the terrible environment here all the time, thinking that it doesn't match the gorgeous him at all.

In this case, he ended up with a fancy crowbar.

"This thing is a pink diamond??"

Looking at the pink physics sword in his hand, Cavendish looked confused.

"Yeah, kids are always naive. They think you still have a "chance to turn things around" and they hear you nagging about this kind of thing all the time, so they prepared this for you."

Wano Country's economy is very special. Beasts has a world-class consortium organization, and the underground world is also flourishing, and they are constantly subsidizing Wano Country's internal development. NovelUsB.com

The economy of the country of harmony is not directly linked to the outside world, but completes the cycle through the middleman of Beasts, which is similar to Beibang in a sense.

The price and value of domestic items are completely determined by beasts. The prices outside have nothing to do with this place. Some things that are priceless outside can be found everywhere in Wano Country, such as Wagyu and diamonds.

Tianxi's manufacturing ability has led to the endless diamonds of beasts. Sometimes, a Rubik's Cube made of diamonds is even cheaper than plastic ones. There are no jewelers hyping diamonds here, and the currency in circulation is still the original gold and silver. Tickets for the Cult of Zeus.

Those tickets replaced Bailey and are now being implemented within Wano Country.

"The gorgeousness I'm talking about doesn't mean the gorgeousness of this kind of thing!"

"Oh, what you can get depends not on what you want, but on what we want to give you. I advise you to think more about the future. If Brother Jack loses interest in you one day, it will be too late for you to surrender. ."

Babanuki didn't understand why Jack was interested in Cavendish. He couldn't imagine that Cavendish, who was dazzled by fame at the time, did something more reckless than Jack.

Babanuki knows Jack very well. Jack looks old, but he is the same age as Yamato. Babanuki can be said to have watched Jack grow up.

The current status of the two people is very different, but this fact cannot be concealed. This kind of incident is not an exception. Most of the single-digit numberers today are the new generation of beasts. Many of the original single-digit numberers have witnessed the growth of these new generations.

Jack has two obsessions the most. One is to long for a male companion at the beginning, and the other is to become stronger.

When he needed a partner of the same * the most, Peggy Wan appeared, and his strength gradually became stronger through constant battles. Recruiting Cavendish was on his whim, and he didn't always focus on Cavendish.

After resting for about a week, he took his own boat to set sail again. He will randomly select a few lucky spectators and show them the bravery of being on the boat.

After Jack left, Cavendish seemed to be forgotten, and like everyone else, he was constantly reincarnated in the mining work.

It wasn't until some time later that Tezolo periodically returned to Ghost Island that he was remembered again.

Different from ordinary pirates, Cavendish has a group of brain-dead fans. After he was expelled, a group of women in his country also pulled up a fleet and left their homeland, embarking on the road of chasing stars.

Because of his good looks, his reward orders will be taken away for collection after they are posted.

After he disappeared, there was a brief wave of searching for Cavendish on the sea, and even the naval base had people who were looking for him.

Journalists are not everywhere. These fans don't know that Cavendish encountered misfortune when he challenged Jack.

It's just that this activity lasted for a short time, and there were more fans of passers-by. After Cavendish disappeared for a while, they were attracted by other people.

Tezolo's return to Ghost Island was just a daily report, and he overheard someone mentioning this name, which made him interested in him.

During the period when Cavendish disappeared, the newly debuted artist was a member of Beast Fruit, but the effect was not very good.

They now have top singers and actresses, but apart from Tezolo himself, they still lack a man who can handle it.

And Tezolo himself is not an idol, he just needs a character with good looks. If Cavendish comes back at this time, it will be a good opportunity for him.

After communicating with Jack and confirming that Jack no longer has much interest in him, Tezolo took action.

Stealing people is not very good after all. Although they are all beasts, it is better to say this kind of thing.

"Isn't this Tezolo? Why did you come to my place?"

"Come to recruit someone, I heard that guy Cavendish has fallen into our hands."

"Cavendish. Oh, that hypocritical monster, there is such a thing."

Tezolo's identity is very special, and he deliberately maintains his popularity within Beasts. Most of his peers who know him call him by his first name, and he is the same for people under the big cadres.

"That guy has a very hard mouth. He has been digging here for almost a month, and he has no intention of giving in at all."

"It's okay, it's okay, you didn't find the right method. For this type of person, you have to use a special method. Look at me."

Then under the leadership of Babanuki, Tezolo found Cavendish who was working.

"Cavendish! Your chance is here again, this time you'd better seize it."

"Tch, come again, this young master said, you who won't join your group of barbarians are Tezolo? You really are with the beasts."

As a world-renowned actor, Tezolo is still highly recognizable, not to mention that he is also one of the people who robbed Cavendish of his popularity, so Cavendish still remembers him vividly.

"Yes, it seems that you are in good spirits, but this time is not an ordinary recruitment, Jack has lost interest in you, the question now is, do you have any plans to debut?"

"Debut?"

"That's right, we can cleanse you and make you famous, making you a household name all over the world."

Chapter 858 Debut and steel wool, you have to choose one

Tezolo understands the world and people's hearts better.

When Cavendish touched the hearts of many girls, he sent someone to collect the other party's information.

In general, Cavendish's actions are very conspicuous, so he will spare no effort to make actions that surprise everyone, so as to gain the attention of the audience.

This kind of guy who wants to be famous is the best to deal with in the eyes of Tezolo. He wants popularity, and the most important thing in Tezolo's hands is popularity.

"Famous. Worldwide."

A few words kept ringing in Cavendish's ears, which was more tempting to him than wealth and rights.

Jack has been unable to recruit him. On the one hand, it is because of Cavendish's character, and on the other hand, what he offers makes Cavendish not interested at all. On the contrary, Tezolo hits the nail on the head and hits the nail on the head.

With his current power, it is not difficult to whitewash a rookie pirate. Even if those in the world government know that this person is a pirate, they can turn a blind eye to it for the sake of huge benefits.

As for the identity of his bounty, he has to use other pirates to sacrifice to the sky. Cavendish's bounty is 280 million, so as long as more pirates are eliminated, the problem here can be offset. Luo uses similar Way to become Shichibukai.

Now Tezolo doesn't need the position of Shichibukai, he just wants to whitewash this person. With the current situation of the world government, as long as they operate properly, they can directly blame other people for what happened to Rommel. They are already familiar with similar things. .

Of course, not everyone can do this, and it depends on the pirate's own situation.

"No, why should I trust you! Who is going to debut with you!"

"Of course you don't have to believe it, but this is the news change since you came here to work."

Tezolo brought some newspapers, and the articles on them made Cavendish understand that he was gradually being forgotten.

"You have also seen that if you dig for a while, you may be forgotten, and it is not appropriate to stay here for mining with a face like yours. We also want to do business. You have a bigger Let us dig out the value."

"What do you mean?"

"Wait a minute, I'll find something."

Tezolo smiled very strangely, and then took out his Rotom phone, rummaging through it for something, and soon, a bunch of pictures appeared on it.

"I found it. These things are usually very eye-catching. If I don't need them, I really don't want to save them."

Speaking of which, Tezolo took out a bunch of very special photos. Many things in this world are severely polarized, including appearance. There are people who are as beautiful as heaven, and there are people who are very abstract. The photos Tezolo took out Contains such photos.

"This is."

"A woman who can save you decades of struggle. You used to be a prince. You should know that some people are always perverted in their hearts. These are the nobles on the Red Earth Continent. They are very satisfied with your appearance. .

The most profitable way is to sell you to them. These people are generally called rich women. "

If you want to mine quickly, rock-type Pokémon are much easier to use than these people. The workload of Pangyan Monster is stronger than a hundred people in a day, and you only need to bask in the sun, eat stones, and replace it after work. massage.

The people in the quarry are more serving their sentences than working. Even if they move things, their efficiency is not as good as that of Haoli.

"Rich rich woman?? This is a * rich woman! How old is this!"

"This? Over seventy, why, you are really interested? That's a pity, it seems that you can only be with the steel ball."

"Wait! You made me think about it!"

Whether it was threats or lures, Tezolo hit Cavendish's pain and was sold to accompany those rich women.

After imagining that kind of hellish life, Cavendish felt that it would be better to be famous, but he still had his last insistence.

"I have a condition! Give me one of that Jack's pets, and I will obey your arrangements."

"Jack's pet? Frost fairies? I can't decide, unless they are willing to go with you, but I can give you a chance."

"Wait, one more thing, my crew and my horse, what about them?"

"You don't have to worry about this. As long as you join honestly, they will naturally have new places to go. It's not impossible to let them continue to follow you after you pass the test."

Big stick and sweet dates, Cavendish chose the latter. After he freshened up, Tezolo took him to the kitchen of Ghost Island. In the process, Durandal also returned it to him directly.

"You guys are so courageous, do you just trust me like that?"

Even if all his subordinates have not been released, he still has the possibility of rioting.

Although he will not do this, since he promised, he will not go back on his word.

Ketezolo has always been a businessman and star outside of his identity, and Cavendish doesn't think the other party has any strong strength.

There are no other pirates around, which makes Cavendish feel that these people are very big-hearted.

"Believe it? That's right, but more importantly, why do you think you can beat me? I heard that you didn't even break Jack's skin, so you can't pose a threat at all."

No need to suspect, no doubt to employ, but this attitude cannot be applied to pirates, there is still a probation period. Arceus is not as big-hearted as Kaido, and he doesn't want to see traitors every day.

Tezolo is purely capable of suppressing Cavendish alone to allow him to be so free.

Tezolo didn't explain this to him, but took him into the kitchen. At this moment, Cavendish seemed to have entered heaven.

On the counter table, there are cream fairies of various colors decorating the desserts with cream, and there are sweet bamboo bamboos taking a bath next to them, and the feet after the sweet and cold beauty are also soaked in it. This is the special side of the beast kitchen. It is also the most desired partner of the chefs of the Big Mom Pirates.

There is even a chef who ran away from the BIG MOM Pirates because of this, Charlotte Lingling and Kaido scolded each other because of this incident, and finally resolved the conflict by trading a few more tons of cream every month .

The footwash water after sweet and cold beauty is also sweet mangosteen juice in the outside world. Although some people resist this aspect, some people are more obsessed with it.

This also has a lot to do with the appearance of the sweet and cold beauty. The wine that a girl stomps on is not the same as the wine that a big man stomps on. The same logic applies here.

"As you have seen, they are called milk fairies, and they are very strange creatures. If you can get the approval of a certain milk fairy, no one will object to it following you.

But if they don't approve of you, you should let go of this thought, otherwise you will die an ugly death, worse than being rubbed to death by a steel wool ball. "

Chapter 859 Uta's New Occupation

"As long as they agree?"

"Yes, they can understand human speech, and we will respect their individual wishes."

"What if they all want to go with me?"

"You really are. Narcissistic."

Tezolo never expected that Cavendish could ask this question. It seems that he underestimated the other party's confidence in this regard.

"Hmph, that savage guy can be recognized, so why can't I?"

"You can try it. If you can do it, no one will stop you. Maybe that adult will appreciate you for it and prepare something different for you."

If he can get the approval of a group of Pokémon, he can still achieve a class leap, but that kind of thing is destined to be impossible, and the only one who can do this at present is Yamato, who has the power of Viking.

In the end, all he waited for was disgusting looks one after another, without exception.

Even though he tried a few more times, Milk Fairy was still not interested in him, so he just left angrily and followed Tezolo to his new work site.

"Master Holy Beast, that newcomer was finally taken away by Tezolo. This is the future direction of his performing arts department. Do you want to see it?"

"No need, how are Misu and the others?"

"Everything is going well, Misu and Tiger are already preparing to return, and their first voyage is coming to an end."

Misu and Tiger have only one last stop left on their voyage. According to the random selection method, their final destination is Aska Island.

And this is the news a few days ago. According to the speed of their ships, Misu and Tiger should not be far from their destination.

Flipping through the documents in her hand, Shaina continued to report other situations, including the new sailing work, and the task of staying in Wano Country was handed over to Yamato again.

Kaido wandered around outside for a long time before returning in vain. Because he was in a bad mood, he fought with the red hair and the yellow monkey respectively on the way back, making his record even richer.

On the other side, after a period of sailing, Cavendish has arrived at the new headquarters of Beast Fruit.

During this period of time, Beast Fruit has also experienced several developments. With the headquarters of the Red Earth Continent preserved, they built a new headquarters on a nearby island.

And Tezolo also began to think about another problem.

There is nothing wrong with Cavendish alone. Although he is narcissistic, there is nothing wrong with it. The problem is that this guy is a genius. In addition to Cavendish, he also has a Hakuba in his body.

Cavendish can suppress him when he is awake, but the two still use the same body.

Tezolo is not a doctor, and he is not good at dealing with this aspect. Moreover, Cavendish is not the same as the normal sense of essence. It is more like two souls squeezed into one body.

In this situation, Tezolo really knows how to deal with it.

Tezolo positioned Cavendish as an idol actor in the future, so Tezolo decided to take him to gradually get to know the insiders, and this time Tezolo had another purpose, with the help of Uta's song fruit Deal with the personality issue.

The personality here is bloodthirsty, during the day it's okay, Cavendish can control this personality, but it's different when he's asleep.

In order to prevent accidents, this personality problem must be dealt with. NovelUsB.com

Hakuba and Cavendish use the same body, killing Hakuba is no different from killing Cavendish, and Uta's singing fruit can pull people's consciousness into another dimension.

is the level of consciousness, here, they have a way to deal with Hakuba.

As for the Demon King of Songs, last time Darkley ate his fill, he also killed it half to death. Since then, it hasn't appeared again, for fear of being targeted by Darkley again.

"She is Uta. If you follow the newspapers, you should know her. This time we will use her ability to deal with your problems."

"Of course I know, she was the most famous rookie singer at that time."

Cavendish's voice was a little jealous. He was a little jealous of Uta's exaggerated popularity. She had many fans on the day she officially debuted, and they existed all over the world.

"It's good to know, then next, prepare to go to a new world, Uta, are you ready?"

"Ready, leave it to me, Mr. Tezolo."

A melodious singing sounded, and the sleepiness gradually spread to several people.

When Cavendish opened his eyes again, he saw a very similar self standing in front of him, except that he had been bound to the stave by some notes, unable to move at all.

In the past, when Cavendish was asleep, Hakuba would come out to make trouble, but this time is different.

But this time is different. Although he fell asleep, Hakuba failed to occupy Cavendish's body, because he also came to Uta's song space. Here, Uta is almost the master. I don't know The person who made the music score couldn't get rid of this * at all.

Originally, Uta didn't dare to use this score casually, but the Demon King of Songs was so frightened that Uta could use this ability with confidence.

"Hakuba, right? You have two choices, either be obedient or be wiped out here."

Tezolo's appearance is very similar to the one who threatened Cavendish back then. Hakuba's combat power is several times stronger than Cavendish, and it can be regarded as a part that can be used, so Tezolo wants to try to see if he can conquer this place. personality.

If it doesn't work, then we have to deal with this personality here.

This space is very special. In theory, it can allow other people's souls to achieve unique "immortality". She can allow souls to live here, and can also destroy souls here, so she can deal with the special existence of Hakuba.

If one day Uta doesn't want to sing anymore, there is a little future in becoming a psychiatrist.

As a special personality, Hakuba seems to have noticed something. Although he didn't speak, there was a fearful expression on his face. Even Cavendish noticed the surprise. Even he saw Hakuba for the first time. Fear.

Before this, Hakuba was never afraid of Cavendish. The only way Cavendish wanted to kill him was to commit suicide.

However, in the face of enemies that cannot be dealt with, Hakuba will still fight obediently. The reason is the same. If Cavendish is dead, he will also die, but the situation is different now. This ability actually pulled him out alone.

A well-known person said that when a person is killed, he will die.

This point is also common to Li personality. With the knife already on his neck, he has to face the new reality.

Chapter 860 The Prompt Sound of the Slate Radar

All things generate and restrain each other. Habaku, who had no scruples at all, met his natural enemy-Uta at this time. Uta's ability can check and balance this personality. Facing the absolute suppression of force, even Habaku had to make a compromise. .

Judging from the results of the current negotiations, Habaku will be safe for a long time in the future.

After dealing with this personality problem, Tezolo began to plan Cavendish's whitewashing work, and how to change him to a new identity became the focus of the next work.

On the other side, on the great route, Aska Island, the missionaries of Arceus came to the last stop of this voyage.

"It looks like a very ordinary island, is there anything special here?"

Although the decision to come here was random, after the destination was determined, Misu seemed to think of something, but he didn't tell Tiger the first time.

"How should I put it, Aska Island was not such an ordinary island before, but a glorious empire, a country under the care of the Aska Seven Star Gods."

"You mean a God like the Lord?"

"No, no, no, the Lord is the only one, God may not be the only one, but no other gods will stay in our world like the Lord.

I'm not sure if it's true, it's some literature I've seen in church before, maybe it's just people making it up. "

A church that has existed for a long time also has a heritage that outsiders can't imagine, and some special documents are one of them.

Seeing that Tiger was interested, Misu also mentioned to him what he knew.

"It is now 1519, almost a hundred years"

According to the legend, nearly a hundred years ago, the Kingdom of Aska was still a powerful country, and it also existed as an overlord in this sea area.

The three princes of the Kingdom of Aska met a beautiful witch for the first time together and fell in love with her at the same time.

At this point, the three princes of the Kingdom of Aska began to fight among themselves. They took out the seven-star sword that symbolizes the royal family of Aska, and kept fighting each other, which turned into a large-scale war, hoping to win the love of the witch. .

"How did the three of them use a sword? And where is the king?"

"Your Excellency Tiger, I'm just telling you what I've heard. I'm afraid only people who lived a hundred years ago knew this detail."

"That's right, but the only ones who can live that long are the giants. Maybe Mr. Sauro will know something."

"I don't know, anyway, ordinary people shouldn't live that long."

The scale of the war continued to expand, more and more innocent people were involved in it, the earth was stained red with blood, and the blood of the dead flowed in the ocean.

Because it has absorbed the sorrow and grievance of countless innocent victims, the sea is crying.

The Seven Star Sword, inherited from the royal family of King Aska, also absorbed the resentment and blood of countless people, and was believed to have attracted killing and destruction, thus becoming a cursed demon sword.

In the end, the Kingdom of Aska was completely destroyed, but the Seven Star Sword did not disappear because of this.

If you want to make this demon knife stronger, you have to let it absorb more blood.

And this demon sword has already given birth to its own consciousness, bewitching other people to start a war for it, thus holding more blood sacrifices.

Then, in order to save everyone from the war, that shrine maiden sacrificed her life to wipe away the blood and hatred absorbed by the Seven Star Sword.

The three princes prayed to the gods in order to repay the death of their beloved witch, and received three gems from the gods of Aska, and sealed the power of the seven-star sword that became a demon sword.

"Is there anything you want to say?"

"Well, with such three princes, it is not surprising that this country will perish."

"Ah, it seems that you have grown a lot, Mr. Tiger. The person who told me this story for the first time blamed the fault on the witch, thinking that she was atonement."

"I can't blame her for this kind of thing..."

Tiger stopped suddenly before he finished speaking. As their boat docked, he heard a crisp ringing, and the source of the ringing was Misu's waist.

Without Tiger's reminder, Misu took it out.

"Sure enough, this method is effective and there is a response!"

It was nothing but the slate radar she borrowed from Shaina. Shaina has been following Arceus recently. Arceus could already sense the location of the slate. Shaina took the radar instead. caused waste.

Therefore, it was given to Misu and others who went out to preach. After a long silence, it responded again, which means that there are traces of stone slabs on this island.

Although it is a missionary group, searching for the slate is the most important goal. Before the slate is completed, this will always be the first goal of Arceus.

The people on the boat are ready to go and head towards the interior of Aska Island.

Compared to the splendor of a hundred years ago, Aska Island at this time is already very desolate. The villages on the island are not prosperous, and even a little primitive, and some traces of ruins can be seen along the way.

The feedback from the radar became stronger and stronger. After crossing a jungle, Misu appeared on a cliff, and some figures could be seen in the distance.

"Here. It doesn't look like a village, it looks more like a ruin? Or at the place of worship, I saw a stone statue, which should be the witch in the legend. Is the location given by the radar here?"

Tiger observed the surrounding situation with a telescope to prevent accidents.

"It's nearby. It looks like it's near the ruins. There seems to be something interfering with the radar's operation. The final location has not been clear."

"Could it be broken? This thing seems to have been made for a long time."

"I don't know, let's go and have a look first. Maybe it's better to be closer. If it's still like this, then I can only contact the Lord and let him make the decision himself."

Misu doesn't understand the working principle of the radar, she just knows that it can find clues to the slate.

Then the members of the Knights began to line up to jump off the cliff, thus shortening the distance they traveled. This height was nothing to these "supermen".

"Your Excellency Missu, do you want me to help you?"

After the members of the Knights left one after another, only Tiger and Misu remained above. Tiger didn't know what condition Misu was in, so he suggested to help.

"No need, I'm not the weak person I was before."

Misu's body also changed, with the purple armor attached to her body, and she left the cliff with the members of the Knights.
