

Arceus 871

Chapter 871 is all blue, who else can it be if it's not Shippo

"You people can really cause trouble for others."

After the warship arrived, the silver-haired crane walked down from the warship, looking at San Juan Wolf lying in the sea with only one nose exposed, with a slightly disgusted expression on his face.

For the world government to pull out such a dangerous guy for experimentation and let him escape, Crane is very disgusted, which is completely inconsistent with the "pure justice" she believes in.

But she has nothing to do. As the navy of Garp during the Warring States Period, the current Crane looks very old. At least compared to Sengoku and Garp, her face is much more vicissitudes.

But when she was young, she was also a military beauty in the navy.

The current situation is related to the fact that she has too many things to worry about. As the chief staff officer of the Navy Headquarters, she has a heavy burden on her shoulders.

"Lieutenant General He, I'm sorry for your trouble."

Although these CP agents have an arrogant attitude towards Shichibukai, they are very respectful to Tsuru. Although Tsuru spends most of his time just documenting and sorting out countermeasures, no one dares to underestimate this woman.

The strength of the lieutenant generals in this department varies greatly. He is undoubtedly the first rank. There are not many lieutenant generals who can make Doflamingo avoid being like a snake. He is one of them. Whether it is strength, seniority, connections or prestige, she None of these ordinary agents can compare.

"Can't you find a way to let this guy cooperate? It's always troublesome like this."

"If he can cooperate, we won't be in such trouble, but you don't have to worry, Lieutenant General. According to the meaning above, you won't use this guy for anything in the future, and you don't need to deal with him."

"Really, I'm a lot older, and I still have to take care of these **** things."

Following the pedals, Crane came to San Juan Dire Wolf, and then activated his ability to successfully wash it into clothes.

She is a Superman with the ability to wash fruit.

It can turn people and things into clothes and dry them after washing. The crane can rinse any item, whether it is a living animal or an inanimate object.
noVELuSb.cOm

The washed objects and people will lose their original shape, and will become like clothes that have just been dried. Even the mind will be temporarily washed clean, and the washed living body will lose its strength and cannot move freely.

San Juan Wolf is too big to cooperate with the navy's actions, so it needs some external influence. The ability of the crane can minimize the trouble in the **** process, and it can also take the uncooperative San Juan · The wolf crammed into a smaller space.

After being washed by the crane's power, San Juan Wolf turned into a flat clothes-like creature.

After that, it was skillfully rolled up by the soldiers on the ship with the anchor's runner, and finally folded into a block of tofu, which was stuffed into the **** ship.

This is how they got San Juan Bad Wolf out. After all, ordinary people can't restrain this guy if he doesn't cooperate. His handcuffs are all specially made, and it took a lot of money to make those handcuffs A lot of work.

The location of New Murloc Island is not very far from Marin Fando, but it is only separated by the Red Earth Continent. If they didn't want to cover up the scandal, they would have mobilized their troops to deal with the wolf.

But if you want to quickly deal with the wolf, the most effective way is to send out the generals of the headquarters, but they all have their own tasks, and rashly mobilizing may expose this scandal. In the eyes of the world government, the value of the island newly built by the murlocs is not Not big, so there is no support.

It was not until Jinbei and Tiger dealt with the wolf that they sent out the people who cleaned the ground.

After He and the others left, the agents of the World Government did not leave. The cleansing of the land was not only about transporting the evil wolves away, but also had to deal with other issues, such as partial compensation for the attack.

In most cases, the world government doesn't care about this kind of thing, not to mention the non-affiliated countries in extrajudicial places. Even if they are affiliated countries, they have to admit that they are unlucky if they are attacked by pirates. Do you want compensation? Okay, go find that pirate by yourself, don't come to us.

But the evil wolf is a criminal who the world government wants to erase.

But if Shibe or the Ryugu Kingdom speak as Shichibukai or a member country and let Morgans' report that he is not afraid of big things go out, the world government will lose face.

It is not so much compensation as hush money.

The difficulty of this matter is not high. The decision makers of the Dragon Kingdom are Otohime and Neptune. At present, they need to have a friendly relationship with the World Government, even if it is only on the surface.

This is something that Tiger and Jinbe also agreed to. Now these agents are more concerned about the strength of the murlocs.

LV.6's serious criminals are not easy to find. San Juan Dire Wolf is also very powerful among this group of people, but it doesn't seem to take much time for the murlocs to solve him.

Except for Mianjin's assist, they didn't see who else participated in the attack.

In order not to be affected by the aftermath of the wolf battle, they hid far away and only saw Jinbei.

The establishment of Qiwuhai is to balance the increasing number of pirates. Although the people of Qiwuhai have different personalities, and some people even actively seek the position of Qiwuhai with special purposes, they all have terrifying strength.

Even if he can't do it himself, his subordinates have gathered a huge force.

For these Qiwuhai, although the world government doesn't care what they usually do, they must understand the specific strength of these people.

Although they joined the Shichibukai under the king, these guys are still pirates, and they might stab themselves at any time.

If there is a murloc on Murloc Island that is stronger than Jinbe, then this faction must be dealt with again.

"By the way, that murloc is also blue, right?"

"Yes what's the matter?"

"It should be Shiping. I haven't heard of the Sun Pirates and other murlocs having such strength."

"Are you kidding, how can you make a judgment so easily? At least you have to inquire about it."

It is not easy for CP agents to detect these minority races. They can pretend to be others, but they cannot pretend to be fur tribes and murlocs unless there is an Arceus behind them.

Moreover, Fishman Island has always been a troublesome place in the eyes of the world government, and some people don't want to waste time there.

Although some of the agents were careless, with the insistence of their teammates, they still did some investigative work, such as entering the Fishman Island to inquire about some information, but except for Jinbei, they did not inquire about the second blue powerful Murloc information.

also reported it according to the original speculation.

While on Fishman Island, Jinbe also brought a new message to Tiger.

"Brother Tai, you guessed right, someone is looking for information about you, but why do you think about it?"

"It's nothing, I just learned a little thing over there."

Chapter 872 As we all know, a warship is a unit of measurement

In the past, the Murloc Island was never wary of outsiders, which is one of the reasons why the population of the Murloc Island was trafficked.

In order to better manage Murloc Street, Tiger proposed to update the household registration system of Murloc Island, and after this action, Jinbe sent people to keep an eye on all new humans entering the island.

This is not something that the previous Tiger could do.

And all of this is ultimately due to Quinn.

Persecution paranoia is sometimes contagious, but Tiger is not like Quinn, who feels that someone is going to stab him in the back all day long. This time he just wants to prevent it from happening.

At this time, Aladdin came over on behalf of the other members of the Sun Pirates.

As pirates, they also inherited the tradition of having a banquet. Neptune and Otohime were still arguing with those people, and neither Tiger nor Shipin meant to get involved in that kind of thing.

This banquet was to celebrate the soaring of Tiger's strength, but the opening of the banquet was a bit strange. Tiger didn't say any bold words like ordinary pirates, but just babbled familiar topics to the team members with teachings .

San Juan Dire Wolf was finally stuffed back to the sixth floor of Imperton, living a life of darkness, and the stuffing of the test object meant that the experiment on him was over.

The operator of this experiment is not Vegapunk, but the idea of the experiment is based on some of his previous research.

Due to the failure of this experiment and some intelligence collected by the world government, a special commissioner came to Vegapunk.

"Dr. Vegapunk, I am a commissioner representing the Five Old Stars, please answer these questions truthfully."

"I'm very busy, don't you already know these things? Why do you have to ask again?"

"This is what the above said. I'm just a little clerk, please don't make things difficult for me."

His attitude is very respectful, not only because Vegapunk still has a high status in the world government at this time, and he has not mixed up to the status of being wiped out.

The man sharpening the ax next to him and Polusalino manicuring his nails are the source of his tension.

"Then hurry up."nOVelusB.cOm

"Then I'll start."

As he spoke, the person turned on the video phone bug and began to record the situation, and took out several people's information.

"Doctor, you should be familiar with these people, right? Vinsmoke Gage, Caesar Courant, Quinn, Pakingom Stussy.

They are all members of the MADS research team and your former colleagues. "

"Didn't you already know this kind of thing? Shall I explain my gender and name again?"

Listening to the agent's question, Vegapunk didn't respond positively. He didn't want to waste time at all when he asked this kind of question knowingly, so he picked up a laptop-like thing in front of them and started calculating. new data.

"This is the process, but you don't know much about them now, I still have to repeat, ladies first, let's start with Bakingom Stussy.

This is her so-called son, Edward Weibull. I won't talk nonsense about what he has done and what abilities he has, and this is relatively the simplest of the four. "

Then he brought several other documents to Vegapunk one by one.

"This is Quinn, you must have heard his name recently, it should be said that he has been very active in recent years.

In addition to this bounty, things related to him include but are not limited to further research on bloodline factors, various cadres who can use Kaido's internal abilities, war robots, devil fruit animation, and war behemoths.

There are a lot of details, so I won't list them all.

And this is your former colleague who escaped from prison not long ago, Caesar Courant, do you have anything to say about the devil fruit he made? "

Mentioning the so-called man-made devil fruit, Vegapunk became a little interested.

"Oh, you mean that kind of failed product? If you want that kind of nondescript thing, I can make a large batch for you at any time. Why, are you interested in this again?"

"Doctor, please don't pretend to be stupid, there are perfect products in there, you should have seen it."

"Perfect product? In fact, there are still some flaws, but there is indeed something about the so-called perfect product. It seems that someone used glue to forcefully put together a bunch of fragments. So, what is your focus?"

"Don't worry, Doctor, there is one last point. First of all, according to the records you left before, our experiment failed."

"Oh, that, I said not long ago, those things are dangerous goods for failure, let you be careful?"

"Yes, but please take a look at this again. This is Germa's latest battle video."

After failing to collide with Quinn, Gage fled in a hurry, and then started a new research, while Germa was still doing his original work. In this video, his children have undergone tremendous changes.

During the battle, they all carried a large box on their backs, and during the battle, those boxes actually turned into mechas, and the appearance was still imitating the ability users of the animal system.

"Vinsmoke Gage has been researching this so-called mech for a long time, and most of the funds were used by him to acquire the **** gold. Only recently did he come up with this experimental model. According to intelligence analysis, their cost is comparable to two warship

Dr., Wu Laoxing has a question, why do these MADS members have such brilliant achievements after leaving this group?

And similar things, you, who can be said to be five hundred years ahead of the world in technology, can't do it?

Except for those imitation dragons, you haven't produced anything the government needs, and some people's patience has almost worn out. "

Vegapunk's research consumes a huge amount of funds every day, and now Vegapunk lacks effective results, but his colleagues are doing well, which is why this investigator was born.

At this time, Vegapunk also understood that there are some things that cannot be fooled any longer, so he took him to another laboratory and saw a body like a bone frame.

"The pacifist you want is equipped with a personnel identification system on the head, which can distinguish pirates from colleagues, and the laser cannon researched based on the blood factor of the admiral Kizaru has also been equipped.

The specific shape comes from Shichibukai, Bartholomew Okuma, the cost only needs one warship, and mass production can already be achieved.

As for other things, it will take time. If you are not satisfied with this, then I have nothing to do. "

Chapter 873 Prologue of the Age, Kaido's Logic

"As for your previous question, maybe they are really geniuses, but this environment makes people don't want to struggle, and they can't be motivated at all."

Regarding the agent's suggestion to Vegapunk's former colleagues, Vegapunk just replied flatly and didn't take it seriously.

Similarly, the people from the world government did not delve into it, because his goal has already been achieved.

Before, their intelligence department analyzed that Vegapunk had something in his hand, but he never took it out. The main reason for mentioning Gaji was to give Vegapunk a sense of urgency.

The world government uses the entire world as its funding, and Vegapunk has an incomparable flow of funds, but cannot produce suitable results. This is not right no matter what.

Originally they thought Vegapunk was the most honest in MADS, but now it seems that he is also an old fritters, and he is a first-class paddler to cheat money.

Don't oppress him, he can really fish.

Looking at the former members of MADS, Quinn is actually the most conscientious now. Gaji is his own boss, and the funds used are his own. Caesar is also a fisherman, and he is so courageous that he is cheating on the funds of the Four Emperors. be free and easy.

Barkin doesn't have any projects right now, and Vegapunk's goal is to use government funds to study his own preferences, only Quinn is different.

If he learns from these former colleagues, the one who communicates with him will be a mace.

Quinn's salary has been fully paid, most of his hobbies are satisfied, and he even has Xie Mi as a partner. In this case, if he cheats money, he will really see the gate of **** in advance.

So far, the pacifist has entered the mass production stage, and the quotation for a warship is still acceptable.

And according to the special commissioner's test of the power of the experimental machine, he believes that this pacifist is enough to deal with most pirates and can add a lot of core combat power to the basic navy.

Time is still passing, but there is another big news on the calm sea, the killing order from Whitebeard.

Blackbeard-Marshall D. Teach violated the only iron law of the Whitebeard Pirates - not to kill companions.

For the dark fruit, he finally revealed the fangs that had been hidden for many years, killed Saqi who got the fruit, and started his own escape.

While the current White Beard has not yet reached the point where he has a bottle of infusion all over his body, although he is old, he is still healthy thanks to the conditioning of the medicine, and immediately issued a hunting order for Black Beard in the sea.

This news shocked many people in the sea. Before this, no one thought that members of the Whitebeard Pirates would touch the taboo of Whitebeard.

This news caused a lot of shock even in Hundred Beasts, as well as Yamato's vigilance, because she is now facing Kaido.

Her hands tightly hold Ajan 7.0. Ajan 7.0, who survived the sixth life, did not experience the pain of the second death, and has persisted until today. It has become Yamato's most convenient weapon.

"Father, what are you going to tell me?"

"Hey, don't be so nervous, I just want to reason with you, my silly daughter."

"Come on! I don't believe it! My adoptive father is not here now, you just want me to let my guard down, then hit me with a stick, and finally mocked me, saying that I am still too weak! I won't be fooled again!"

This is not the first time you have done this. A person will not fail two...five times...in short, I don't believe you! "

Briefly recalling her past experience, she found that she seemed to have been cheated by Kaido more than once. In short, this time she did not intend to relax her vigilance, and she directly entered the human-beast form as she spoke, showing her respect for Kaido. Pay attention to.

"cut"

"You cut it just now, right! You must have a conspiracy!"

It seemed that Kaido was a little upset when he realized that his daughter was not easy to fool around, but he still threw the nearest newspaper to Yamato.

"New news about that old guy in Newgate, his son killed his other son, he's probably going crazy, no, with that guy's character, it should be mixed with grief and anger.

When I was in the same boat with him, this guy was a different kind of guy, he was not interested in wealth and reputation, but wanted the so-called family, but Yamato, do you know why Newgate is like this? "

"For why?"

"Because his so-called son is too weak!"

Hearing this, Yamato trembled all over. Every time Kaido said someone was too weak, she might be unlucky. Fortunately, Kaido didn't do it directly this time, but picked up the wine gourd and drank it again.

"That old guy, as long as he is willing to call him Daddy, most people can join him directly, and no matter who it is, as long as he calls him Daddy, he will be protected by him.

How could he be safe like this? If his son is strong enough to prevent others from killing him, wouldn't there be so many troubles? "

In Kaido's view, most things can be described in one sentence in the end-weak strength. In his opinion, as long as he is strong enough, there is nothing that cannot be solved.

It's not been a day or two since Kaido talked about his own set of principles, but Yamato still felt that something was wrong. With the smell of alcohol passing into her nose, she finally understood what the problem was. It seemed that this was not usual. The spirits, but the product of that accident.

"Wait, father, what are you drinking?!"

"Oh? It's just eggnog. Today I want to teach you another thing. When there is a gap in strength, even if you discover the enemy's conspiracy, it will be useless. Compared with conspiracy, the most terrifying thing .

Collapse the mountain gossip! NoVeLuSb.COM

Yamato didn't take the trap this time, Kaido is quite satisfied with it, this is also a part of growth.

But this does not mean that he will stop. Although Yamato did not relax his vigilance, he can still attack head-on. With Yamato fully prepared, Kaido's onslaught still suppressed Yamato.

Boom! boom! boom!

As the two collided, bursts of loud noises came one after another. The pirates on Ghost Island knew that their governor and their eldest lady had started their daily sparring again.

No one took it seriously, and they still did what they had to do. Only Peggy Wan, who was fishing, had a big head, and the fish was about to bite, so he just ran away.

It wasn't just the fish that ran away, but also Blackbeard. Whitebeard didn't block him in the New World, but let him pass through the Murloc Island, and even wounded several Murloc Island guards.

In this regard, Whitebeard doesn't want to chase, but he can't. The confrontation in the new world is more intense than before. If he leaves the new world to hunt down Blackbeard, the other pirates who are staring at his territory will not show mercy. Stabbed him hard from behind.

Chapter 874 The Millennium Covenant

"Stop it, Ace! Calm down!"

"Dad said it all, this time is a special case! You don't need to chase Tiki!"

On the Moby Dick, members of the Whitebeard Pirates tried to dissuade Ace, but it was of no use.

"Let go of me! That guy is my subordinate, if he ignores it, how will the killed Sage rest in peace?!"

Blackbeard has been hiding himself, and has been in the second team of the Whitebeard Pirates. Ace, who succeeded the captain of the second team, has a very good relationship with Sage of the fourth team. For Blackbeard who killed Sage, he simply unacceptable.

"Ace, forget it, only this time, I have an ominous premonition, that guy's ambition will not keep running away, he will come back sooner or later, and he will naturally be dealt with at that time."

"That guy killed his companion and escaped! He has been taken care of by you for decades, but he has lost all face. Dad, your reputation has been damaged! How can you just sit idly by? I'm going to find him settle accounts!"

Ace embarked on the road of chasing and killing Blackbeard regardless of the obstacles. He violated Whitebeard's iron law by slapping Whitebeard in the face, allowing him to escape from the New World smoothly, but he slapped him backhand again.

Ace got that recognition from Whitebeard, he couldn't tolerate this kind of thing happening, and finally sat on his own special boat and embarked on the road of chasing and killing Blackbeard.

In fact, there is another group of people, or dragons, who are also preparing to move.

On Ghost Island, the group of millennium dragons gathered together again. The day when the millennium dragons return once every thousand years is approaching, and they are about to embark on a journey back to their ancestral land.

Before, the reconnaissance team formed by the Millennium Dragon was scattered in various territories of Beasts. They partnered with other pirates in groups of three or five to carry out their own missions, but now, they all returned to Ghost Island.

As the last millennium dragon returned from Zowu lifted the appearance of the ancestor bird and landed, the group of millennium dragons has also assembled.

Ferren, who ate the fruit of the primitive man, also turned into a dragon man and landed on the ground.

This is the original agreement, Beasts will provide them with a safe gathering place, they will serve as members of the Beasts Air Cavalry, and on the day when the Millennium Dragons from all over the world regroup, they will inquire about the information about the slate and the historical text from other partners .

The Millennium Dragon began to eat under the leadership of the patriarch to store up his energy for future travel, while Faerun entered the building on Ghost Island alone, and he wanted to tell the Beasts that they were about to set off.

This is something that has been agreed long ago. It was just a daily notification, but Yamato, who felt that Onijima had become more dangerous, planned to take this opportunity to leave together.

She found that Kaido had changed, and explained what Yangmou was in an alternative way.

In the past, when he did something, he would make up a reason. Although most of them were because he was too weak, he still had to do face-saving projects.

It's different now, Yamato's resistance ability is getting stronger and stronger, Kaido is getting more and more excited, and he simply has a showdown, I just want to fight you, if you can't beat me, then you will consider yourself unlucky.

Ghost Island is not a place to stay for a long time, she decided to leave here as soon as Kaido's madness period is over.

"Ferren, wait, where is the place where you gather?"nOveIusb.cOm

"According to what you humans say, it is in the Dongfanglan sea area. As long as we get there, our Millennium Dragon will naturally know where it is."

Thousands of years, the vicissitudes of life, the location of their Dragon Island can be said to be in a "special place" every year. Only the Millennium Dragon can successfully find the location of the Dragon Island by relying on the breath inherited in the blood.

"Dongfang Lan, Donghai, isn't it too early for you to start now?"

"Our path is very special, and there are other things to do along the way, so we will take a detour and delay some time. If we start now, it's just right."

"Very good!"

"Um?"

"I don't mean that, I mean, do you mind if I go with you?"

"That kind of thing doesn't matter, but the journey will be very boring. For you humans, there are no surprises along the way."

The gathering place of the Millennium Dragon is a secret, but it only appears there once every thousand years. Every time, there will be some predestined people who meet the Millennium Dragon by chance and luckily see the whole picture of Dragon Island.

Those are people who have been recognized by the Millennium Dragon, and some old Millennium Dragons will even take the initiative to find trustworthy people to help them return to Dragon Island.

This group of millennium dragons has been joining Hundred Beasts for a long time, and Yamato's request is not too much.

"It's okay, it's okay, it's better to wait a little longer."

She can leave Ghost Island anytime she wants, she is very free now, but on the other hand, she feels that she is already an adult, and she can't go out and run around casually for the purpose of playing.

So I have been looking for a legitimate reason, and it just so happened that the Millennium Dragon sent the reason to her.

The meeting with the Millennium Dragon was originally for the purpose of helping Arceus find out about the slate, so rounding up, she left with the Millennium Dragon this time, also helping Arceus find the slate, which is much more reasonable.

"We still have a few days to prepare, and we will notify you when the time comes, but remember to stock up on what you need. The interval between our rest is for you humans. No, your words should be fine."

Faerun and the others use flying. If they take a boat, they will definitely not be able to keep up with their speed. They can only sit on their backs to go together, but Yamato's monster physique plus Beast and other flying Pokémon let him react, he was a little worried.

Even without the help of other Pokémon, the stamina of the young lady in front of me is unmatched by ordinary creatures.

A few days later, the millennium dragon group took off on time, formed a long dragon in the clouds, and flew towards the island in the blood, but beside them, there was a steel-clad crow and a flying shark.

In addition to Yamato who wanted to join in the fun, she also abducted a few other people who couldn't stand loneliness, such as Ulti and Peggy Wan.

"Xiao Pei, do you really want to fly by yourself if you don't come up?"

"Ah, no Yamato-san, it's fine for me to fly outside by myself."

Peggy Wan rejected Yamato's invitation in the car, and chose to fly outside alone. On the one hand, he was enjoying the fun of flying, and on the other hand, Ulti was now beside Yamato, so he felt that he was still outside Stopping is better.

After so many years, Yamato has become one of the few people who can suppress Urti in all directions. As a person who has inherited the iron skills of Beasts, few people can convince her.

But Yamato's character perfectly checks and balances Urti, and instead allows her to sit aside obediently.

Chapter 875 It seems reasonable for Kaido's cub to do this kind of thing

The premise of bickering is that the other party has to retaliate. Facing a Yamato who treats her as a friend with a smile no matter what he says, Urti has given up arguing with her. She is convinced that Yamato is full of how to beat her up Kaido, then on his own.

When she has a tendon, even Arceus may not be able to break it back.

"Xiao Pei~ What are you doing flying so far?"

"Ah? The wind is too strong, what are you talking about, old lady? I can't hear clearly!"

He couldn't hear what he said, but Peggy Wan secretly adjusted his flight direction. It can be seen that the distance between him and the steel armored crow taxi has become farther.

It's just that some things can't be avoided at all.

There is a prominent slogan [Do not open the door at high altitude] in the car of the steel-armored crow taxi, although as long as you have a little brain, you will know that opening the door at high altitude is a very dangerous thing.

However, each system has its own reasons, and even a **** lesson has happened. For the sake of its own reputation, Beasts still added warning words in the car in the later stage.

Of course, Ulti and Yamato's strength can still ignore this sentence.

"Hey, I'm going to open the door, you can keep an eye on your Pokémon."

Besides the two of them, there is a happy egg and a big milk pot in the car. Among those Pokémon, they also have a personality that likes to go out, so they come out with Yamato, quite like a sightseeing trip.

And the fact is exactly the same, as long as they don't bump into Garp who is going home to visit relatives, the few of them are enough to walk sideways in the East China Sea without encountering any danger at all.

"Huh? Ur-chan, what are you going to do?"

“.Don't call me that, goosebumps are coming up, anyway, just keep an eye on them!”

Seeing that Yamato fastened their seat belts, Ulti had no more scruples, opened the door and jumped out, playing a free fall in mid-air, and Peggy Wan also felt his back sinking.

During the free fall, she used moon steps to move within a short distance, and landed on Peggy Wan's back smoothly.

"Okay Xiao Pei, now we can fly together."

After the initial excitement ended, traveling in the sky became boring. Facing Ulti's approach, Peggy Wan also took the initiative to return to the car after flying for a while, adding the big milk pot and happiness Damn, they even made a table of flying chess.

In the end, in order to increase the number of people, even Rotom was pulled out, and they also showed the chat content of the Beasts youth senior cadre group in the process.

"How do you feel that Brother Jack's itinerary is more fulfilling than ours?"

Members in the group update their status from time to time. Maria's status is basically Wano Country. After following Yamato's post to join in the fun, what they see is basically blue sky and white clouds.

Every few days, these millennium dragons will stop at some special small empty islands, and move on after a short rest.

The newly born millennium dragons in these groups have never walked this road before, they just fly silently under the guidance of their ancestors, and only in rare cases will they resupply on islands close to the ground.

This led to nothing new in Yamato's dynamics, but Peggy Wan updated the picture of himself catching an empty fish, and Jack's life was much more fulfilling, fighting, fighting, except fighting or fighting, almost always walking on the road to the boat .

"Hurry up, hurry up, it's been a long time since I came out, and I'm going to the East China Sea soon, I should be able to meet a lot of interesting things, but Fei Lun, is your route really okay?"

"This is the route guided by my father. I don't know. He said that two thousand years ago, before I was born, my grandfather led the way like this."

"You guys remember it really well."

Listening to the exaggeratedly long timeline, Yamato's expression was a little surprised, but he didn't take it to heart.

"This is also a special day for our Millennium Dragon. The return will bring new life, and it will also bring parting.

There are none in our group, but there should be many thousand-year-old dragons who passed away in other groups. It is not only the place of birth, but also the final destination of most thousand-year-old dragons. "

After a period of time, the day when Long Island is alive is much closer.

The millennium dragon group of Faerun has been flying along the great air route during this period, and only turned around after a large circle.

At this time, they encountered a new situation.

"Old sister, sister Yamato, look below, those people seem to be being hunted down by something."

Following the direction of Peggy Wan's finger, a row of dense black shadows appeared in their sight. After zooming in through the telescope, it was actually a fleet, and the pirate flag was fluttering in the wind

"It's almost to the East China Sea, and there is such a large pirate fleet."

"But there's... that one at the back. I must have seen him in the information, but I can't remember it."

Yamato's attention quickly focused on the back, a small boat like a coffin board was drifting with the current, and the fleet in front was just being chased by him alone.

"The King's Shichibukai, Hawkeye-Jorakor Mihawk, can't you remember such a highly recognizable guy?"

"I remember! Didn't I forget it for a while, who made that guy's name so long."

During the bickering, the steel armored crow dodged to the side, and the clouds next to it were also shaken away by an invisible impact.

At the same time, a crack was drawn on the sea below, and a pirate ship was also split in two. It was the aftermath of Hawkeye's sword that affected the clouds.

This is nothing to do, but the long and boring trip is making Yamato feel bored. At this time, the gene from Kaido in her body seems to have awakened, and she has some interest in the eagle eye below.

"Xiaopei, Ulti, let's go down and play. I just want to see what the strength of those Qi Wuhai looks like. I heard that there is a big gap between them. The defeated general in my father's hands seems to be the same. What about Shichibukai?"

"Sister Yamato, what do you want to do?"

"Go down and fight that guy, he should look pretty strong."

Ulti and Peggy Wan glanced at each other. If it was Kaido who did this, they would not have any doubts. After all, that is Kaido's character, but Yamato

"Sure enough, genes can be inherited. Are you about to awaken the strange habit that you inherited from Captain Kaido?"

"No, I just don't want my body to be unfamiliar. When we go back, that **** old man will definitely greet me with a stick. I have to keep in good shape.*nOVelUSb.com

Steel Armored Crow! You and Faerun are waiting for us up there, and I will take care of it as soon as possible. "

Speaking the same as Ulti before, she opened the box door and jumped down, but in the process of falling, the power of lightning formed a pair of very special wings on her shoulders.

Chapter 876 You refute me! You contradict me!NovELus&.com

The three dragons of the Tao are originally one. After being dispersed, Kyurem, who is the power of the body, loses the ability to fly.

But it has never been classified into the same category as Gulardo, because it can fit together, and both Dark Kyurem and Flame White Kyurem have the ability to fly.

Yamato's lightning wings are not wings in the traditional sense, but a pair of electromagnetic propellers. After so many years, she has not been standing still. Although Lacey Ram's reaction to her was mediocre, Zekrom still slightly recognized it. gave her a little.

All the power can't be used, but part of the lightning power is still fine, and this pair of wings is proof.

The millennium dragon group flew to a small island in the distance to rest temporarily. The millennium dragons are creatures, not alarm clocks. They have a special inheritance in their blood. They can know the exact time when the dragon island appeared, but they cannot be accurate to a certain extent. Minutes and seconds.

In most cases, the Millennium Dragon will arrive nearby ahead of time. Just like catching a train, arriving early means just waiting. If you are late, no one will wait for you.

How long to wait depends on the arrangement of the person in charge. Some people will start an hour earlier, while others will start half a day earlier.

Ferren's father, in order to prevent uncertainties on the road and allow the clansmen to have enough rest time, did not advance by a day or two.

When the new year of 1520 just ended, Phelan's father was preparing for this event.

Now Yamato is going to do some other things halfway, which just makes the time set aside to be useful.

Yamato and the others are just bored, but the people below are different, not Hawkeye, but the fleet of pirates ahead.

This is the "big pirate" Klick from the East China Sea, with a bounty of 17 million Baileys. In the East China Sea, which has been washed several times, he can be regarded as the overlord. He once had 5,000 troops and 50 pirate ships.

The reason why he said it was once is because he has lost more than half of his current troops.

When he was in the East China Sea, he was the largest pirate group in the East China Sea, but when he entered the great route driven by desire, he immediately knew what cruelty is.

His ship was too big to pass the narrow passage of Mount Upside Down, so the Creek Pirates ventured into the Great Passage from the Quiet Zone.

He should be thankful that he is a pirate in the East China Sea. If he directly enters the New World, these 5,000 people may even be the lowest in mining.

No Wind has Sea Kings. It is dangerous for ordinary ships to pass here, but it is not completely impossible. After paying some price, Klick successfully entered the great route, and then met the idle Hawkeye.

Even if most of the manpower was lost, Klick still didn't know why the monster wanted to kill him.

Bass!

The knife flashed, and another ship sank into the sea in front of those pirates. Hawkeye didn't chase closely, just hanging behind leisurely, whenever Creek's people thought they had thrown off After getting Hawkeye, he will suddenly appear, and then chop down a ship with a single knife.

But after this, Hawkeye will return to the state of drifting with the tide, and will catch up again after Klickla is far away.

"Boss Creek! That monster is still behind! He's still there!"

"Fire the cannon."

"But shells are useless to that guy."

"I asked you to aim at the ships behind and let them delay that monster."

"Huh? But. Yes, I see!"

Looking at Klick's terrifying gaze, he didn't say anything later.

Click himself is arrogant, ruthless, and despicable. With a vicious heart, he will never care about the lives of those subordinates, he just wants them to delay time.

With a few cannon shots, the mast of the pirate ship at the back was blown off.

At this time, they have not yet entered the windless zone, and their ships are still relying on the wind to move. After the mast was broken, they temporarily lost the ability to move, and Hawkeye seemed to have really disappeared. In a short time, the devil did not know where it went.

But in fact, Hawkeye did not continue to hunt down, and it had nothing to do with Klick's behavior.

A few minutes ago, Yamato breathed out frost, freezing the sea in front of Hawkeye, and she just fell in front of him.

"Hey! It's just that you are free to swing your sword into the sky. Do you know that you can easily hurt people like this! You...that, Ulti, why are you provoking people? I don't seem to have done such a thing."

Halfway through speaking, she suddenly pulled Ulti over, leaned over and asked about her experience. Yamato had experienced a lot of battles, but she had good reasons before.

When she came down, she didn't think so much about itchy hands, but now she suddenly ran out of words.

"Why do you ask me this kind of thing?"

"You have experience."

“.Why are you looking for a reason to fight? Take your stick and hit him! Just learn from your old man!”

The discussion between the two has not yet reached a conclusion, but Hawkeye has an answer first.

"Did you fly in the sky before? That's really embarrassing."

"No, you refuted me! You refuted me! Aren't you Shichibukai? Shouldn't you be very arrogant and say that so what? How can I fight you like this!"

Yamato never expected that Hawkeye could give such an answer, which made her even more at a loss as to what to do.

"Fighting? Although I'm bored now, and I don't mind changing my mood, why do people like you appear here? Shouldn't the ghost girl with a bounty of 1.78 billion Baileys be active in the New World?"

"Aren't you the same? Anyway, I'm bored, so let's fight!"

In the end, Yamato still couldn't find a suitable reason, but he still fought with Hawkeye. Compared with those helpless miscellaneous fish, Yamato was more worthy of his sword. Although she was not a swordsman, Hawkeye was still strong. approved.

Although he lives alone on an island with baboons, the information in the newspaper can still be seen.

Jumping from the small boat onto the ice made by Yamato, Hawkeye pulled out the long knife behind his back - the supreme big fast knife twelve crafts - black knife - night.

The moment he pulled out the blade, there was an extremely sharp aura from the eagle-like eyes.

But before the battle started, there were some untimely movements, and the sound of shells sounded again.

The ship whose mast was broken by Klick before felt that there was no hope of escape, and was making a final struggle, trying to finish Hawkeye with artillery while he was fighting with others.

"Tch, nasty guy, Ulti, Xiaopei, do me a favor and let those guys be quiet."

"Understood, it actually stained my skirt. It was given to me by Xiaopei. Let Xiaopei go and let these guys know how good we are!"

Chapter 877 Hawkeye's movement method, the unicorn entrusted with a heavy responsibility

Ulti skillfully jumped to Peggy Wan's shoulder, and Peggy Wan also transformed into the appearance of biting the land shark in the process. The two cooperated very tacitly, as if they had experienced many drills.

After practice, Peggy Wan's flying ability became more and more proficient. At first he needed to climb to a high place and then take off, but now he has mastered the technique of catapult takeoff.

"Old sister, take it easy and don't hit the sea."

"Xiao Pei~ Do you finally know how to care about your sister?"

"No, it's just that you did fall, and it's a hassle to fish you out."

"Damn it, you're not cute at all when you grow up, change back to the way you were when you were a child!"

While playing, the two siblings approached the two pirate ships left behind by the Creek Pirates. They seemed very casual, and the pirates they met in this place really didn't interest them.

The old weapons on the ship can tell that the quality of this group of pirates is not high. The entry of Ulti and Peggy Wan is a massacre, and they don't even have the ability to break the defense.

Compared with them, the battle between Yamato and Hawkeye is the focus.

"Okay, no one will bother us now. This is my Ajian. I heard from those warriors that when facing qualified swordsmen, the name of the weapon must be reported."

"Hei Dao, Ye."

Hawkeye gave his own response, and then made a gesture of swinging a sword.

"Although I don't know why you are here, you should have your own things to do."

"Almost, any questions?"

"I also have to deal with some private matters. Although the cause is boring, some things cannot be left halfway, so let's settle the battle quickly. How about taking the time when your companion ends the battle as a benchmark?"

"so be it."

Yamato just wanted to maintain his state, so as not to be overwhelmed when he went home. He didn't want to fight Hawkeye to the end, so he readily agreed to this suggestion.

A stream of sword energy flew out from Hawkeye's blade. Compared with the flying slash towards Klick, Mihawk was more focused at this time, and he was not swaying the sword casually. Although the opponent in front of him was not a swordsman, he was It is also worthy of his attention.

At the same time, the thunder light is wrapped around Yamato's mace, and the swordsman can feed the black knife with domineering, which increases the hardness of the blade. After the weapon is finalized, Yamato is also feeding his own weapon with his own domineering.

Ajian 7.0 is a weapon that inherits the will of the previous generations of Ajian. With its special materials and forging technology, its quality is not inferior to any famous sword. Due to the characteristics of the weapon, it still has many advantages in fighting sharp blades.

"Thunder gossip!"

Hawkeye's moves generally don't have a name. Kaido's basic attack is usually called Thunder Bagua. Yamato's Thunder Bagua is inherited from Kaido, and neither of them intends to fight for their lives. Instead, the battle presents a general attack against A. situation.

After blocking Yamato's swing, Hawkeye turned his wrist and deflected Yamato's strength with a kind of ingenuity. It is not a wise behavior to confront her head-on. Facing the addition of heavy weapons and animal abilities, He can't take advantage of being tough from the front.

Without too much probing, after a few simple encounters, the battle became intense, but it lasted for a short time. The two ships left behind by Crick were not Ulti and Peggy Wan. opponent. novelusb.com

At this time, on those two ships, Ulti and Peggy Wan were like heavy tanks breaking into the medieval phalanx. A simple collision with their huge bodies was enough to defeat their opponents.

The enemy's attacks cannot penetrate their scales at all, but will be scratched by the scales instead.

"So weak, how did these people enter the great route?"

"I don't know, even people from all over the world should know what a person with abilities is. These guys seem to have never even heard of fruits."

Throwing an enemy away, Peggy Wan spit out a flame at the wooden boat next to him, and under the martyrdom of the cannonball, he brought Ulti back to the iceberg where Yamato and Hawkeye fought.

The return of the two also means the end of the battle between Hawkeye and Yamato, but Hawkeye did not return to his boat, but stood silently on the iceberg.

"Isn't it over? Why are you still here?"

"I will leave naturally after a while, you can do whatever you need to do."

"It's really weird, but it seems to be okay."

She knows a lot of Shichibukai, and according to her understanding, one likes **** fantasies, the other always has a fake smile on his face, and doesn't even know what the eyes under the sunglasses look like, and the other is too serious, what to do It's all straight-forward.

Hawkeye is doing things a little abnormally now, and there is nothing wrong with it.

After Yamato and the others left, Hawkeye did not move rashly. After confirming that they had gone far, he re-boarded his coffin board boat and continued his pursuit.

After leaving, Yamato also belatedly discovered a problem.

"There was no sea breeze for a while, right?"

"Yeah, what's the matter?"

"I think he is alone, without oars, and the small boat can't withstand any wind and waves. How did he drive that boat to chase others? He can't really rely on drifting when there is no wind. ."

Yamato's question successfully stumped the siblings, and sparked a series of discussions, and finally even asked the question to Uta, who was preparing for the performance.

Because according to gossip, Hawkeye and Red Hair often communicate, so Red Hair may know the secret.

But unfortunately, Shanks refused to reveal how Hawkeye moved.

Hawkeye was still chasing and killing Klick, Yamato also continued to head towards Dragon Island after reuniting with the millennium dragon group, waiting for that moment to come.

But some time ago, another thing happened in the East China Sea.

East China Sea, Windmill Village, on an ordinary boat, Luffy and his Heracross are ready to sail, and his adventure has officially started at this moment.

After saying goodbye to Dadan, Luffy, like Ace three years ago, came to the port and boarded the boat he had prepared.

"Be careful, you have to protect him when the boat sinks."

"Yeah, this boat doesn't look like it will last long, and he doesn't want to use my old fishing boat. It's all up to you then."

Before leaving, the residents of Windmill Village were saying goodbye to Luffy, and they gave some advice, but it sounded a little unlucky.

"Got it, got it, I'll take care of it."

"Don't be so self-righteous, Luffy, we're not talking to you, we're talking to Hero, Hero, it's not easy to go out, I'll leave this guy to you."

Chapter 878 Without this worm, you would have died long ago

Luffy's voyage is not difficult, and even some things are missing, such as the King of the Sea did not appear.

As a small Neptune, it escaped Garp's plowing operations in the East China Sea, but met the Gyarados living in the East China Sea. Large Neptunes usually can't take advantage of Gyarados, let alone This little guy is gone.

But their voyage was not smooth. In terms of size, Luffy's boat at this time is about the same as Hawkeye's coffin board, but Hawkeye's boat still has a sail. Navigating down is not difficult.

Luffy's boat is different, it doesn't even have sails, only oars, it can be called 100% manual power.

"Hey, you can also stroke for me a few times."

"Hello, hello."

Uncle Heracross sat on the wooden barrel at the bow of the boat, not paying attention to Luffy's request.

"What, why do you want to preserve your energy?"

After getting along for a long time, Luffy can also understand what Heracross's cry is expressing, but other people in Windmill Village still can't understand, only Luffy can understand Heracross' words in detail.

Heracross didn't say anything, just took out a slightly yellowed newspaper from under his body, pointed to the picture on the newspaper, and looked at Luffy with a hint of hatred for iron.

"Ah, isn't this Uta? You still have this. Speaking of which, she seems to have become a very powerful character."

"Hello!"

Heracross stretched out a finger, focusing on another Heracross in the newspaper.

Thinking back then, they were just ordinary unicorns in Wano, and they were randomly assigned to various sea areas, searching for possible things.

It was clearly on the same starting line as Uta's A Xian, but the A Xian in the newspaper knew that life was very nourishing, and even caused a Hercules fever. As a result, he stayed in the small village and talked to this silly boy every day Fishing.

Fishing is fine, but this silly boy has an even more unreliable grandfather. If it weren't for him, he would think that Luffy would have drowned in the lake a few years ago.

In order to prevent him from being accidentally drowned in a shipwreck, it has to maintain its own strength. This ship does not look very reliable.

Heracross can fly, but he is not particularly good at flying. Flying people in a dangerous sea environment requires sufficient physical strength, so he refuses to help.

Facts have proved that its prediction is meaningful. Luffy's ship did not last long in the four seas before encountering a terrifying maelstrom.

Even the big pirates of the new world, there are only a handful of people who can use human beings to counter the mighty power of nature. Luffy's ship was caught in it as expected.

Looking at the sinking ship, Heracross moved his body a bit, intending to take Luffy away from here. At this time, it felt that it had a clever plan, but Luffy's cleverness suddenly broke out.

"I have a solution!"

"Hello?"

Without giving Heracross a chance to react, Luffy grabbed it and hid in the wooden barrel on the boat, and then began to drift with the tide in the true sense.

"Wow, hehe, let go, why did you bite me, obviously I saved you!"

At this time, on an ordinary passenger ship, Hero was hugging Luffy, biting his face fiercely, and kept beating his head, but because of the fruit's ability, its Fists have no effect.

"Hey! Hey!"

The language content is too much. After omitting most of the harmonious words, it can be summarized as:

【I can fly! Do you know that I can fly! Wouldn't it be enough to just fly away! Do you want me to be buried with you! Do you call this saving lives? Is your mind empty! 】

Take a step back, and the more you think about it, the more angry you become. Thinking about it now, it shouldn't be greedy for that bite, and then have an intersection with this guy. Think about Uta's own kind next to him, the gap is getting bigger and bigger up.

The fruit ability made Luffy not afraid of blunt weapon blows, so Heracross would bite. One person and one unicorn ran around on the deck, but he was stunned by the pirates who were robbing the ship.

"What are you two **** doing!"

The behavior of Luffy and Heracross aroused the anger of the pirate next to him, Iron Rod Alrita, a pirate in the East China Sea, offering a reward of five million Baileys.

Any pirate or samurai drawn from Wano Country can basically kill her, but in the East China Sea, she can still dominate.

My daily hobby is to threaten others to admit my beauty, and to confuse my own cognition with lies.

"Wait a minute, Miss Alita, that big unicorn seems to be quite valuable."

"What did you say?"

"I seem to have heard that this thing is worth two million Baileys in the pet market."

The unicorns already had a place in the pet market. Uta created a wave of Heracross craze, making Heracross the rarest species among unicorns. There are also some people who want to buy them. .

Two million Baileys is not a small amount. I heard that a single horned fairy can sell for two million Baileys. A look of greed appeared in Alrita's eyes.

"Hey, that brat! Leave the pet unicorn on you so we can consider letting you go."

"What did you say?"

As soon as the words fell, Luffy stopped suddenly, and the expression on his face became serious.

"Don't understand? Master Alrita told you to hand over your unicorn!"

Seeing that Luffy didn't respond, several pirates wanted to take Heracross away by force, and surrounded him directly, but all they saw was Luffy's stretched thigh.

"Rubber Whip!"

"It's not a pet, it's my partner! Since you want to take my partner away, you are my enemy! You should have made up your mind."

"What nonsense are you talking about, kid, who would really consider a unicorn fairy as a friend?"

The mace hit Luffy's head. It was the same mace, but the result was very different. Under the rebound of the rubber, Luffy was not affected in any way.

"Rubber Pistol!"

It is for this reason that it has stayed with Luffy, otherwise it would have been far away from this bastard, and food alone cannot restrain it. NoVelusb.cOM

Then Luffy, Heracross and Kebi took the lifeboat on the ship and left here, but Nami did not appear on Alrita's ship to steal the treasure. At this time, she was busy with other things in Cocoyasi Village and the villagers .

Chapter 879 Combination skills of humans and insects, the real overlord of the East China Sea

"The East China Sea is really the weakest sea area, and the pirates here are too hard to fight."

Yamato was bored sitting on a few boxes. After arriving in the East China Sea, they had a skirmish with some local pirates, but the battle situation is difficult to describe. In a nutshell, Yamato stood there doing nothing. Ways to break the defense.

"More than that, if I knew I wouldn't need those things, it would be a big loss."

Peggy Wan, who counted the loot, also expressed his opinion. These pirates are undoubtedly a group of poor ghosts, with no money at all, and they are so weak that Peggy Wan is too lazy to use some explosive weapons.

But war supplies are money-burning things. Counting these spoils, even the loss of equipment he used cannot make up for it.

As for the weapons used by pirates

Old-fashioned muzzle-loading artillery, single-shot pistols, and crude black powder. The gunpowder used in their mines is of higher quality than this.

"But this is also very good, so you don't have to worry about encountering any accidents, Faerun, it's almost here."

"It's coming soon, this time it's really coming soon."

On the other side, the number of members on the Luffy ship began to increase, and Sauron and Usopp appeared on his ship, but the Meri also experienced a lot of hardships in the absence of navigators.

At this time, the three people on board were deprived of the right to sail, and it was up to Hero to decide where to go.

And the way it decides the direction to go is also very special. Hero uses Sauron to guide the way. No matter how he points, it ends up doing the opposite, and it can be regarded as accidentally driving to the sea restaurant Balati.

Under Zhepu's management over the years, Bharati has also become a well-known restaurant in the East China Sea, but today, many people have gathered here, and Klick, who had fled from the great route, also arrived here and stared at the restaurant. Aboard Djap's logbook and Bharati's ship.

Conceited, he did not learn his lesson, and planned to regroup and return to the great route again.

If the pirates of the Great Route meet him, they will definitely admire his courage, because he has the courage to stop Hawkeye.

"Stop! Do you want to leave like this? Didn't you come to take the head of my uncle? Come to take the head of me, the overlord of the East China Sea, the leader of Klick?"

"Originally, I was bored after all, but I met more interesting people along the way, I have had enough fun, and I should go back to sleep, by the way, your joke is very good, but you should not tell it anymore. One more chance."

Hawkeye turned a deaf ear to Klick's provocation. He has the title of the world's number one swordsman. Just because of this title, there are countless clowns who come to challenge him.

The weakness of these people made him completely uninterested, and he didn't even bother to remember their names. He didn't tire of fighting, but at least he had to have some strength. Even if he didn't have strength, it was okay to let him see the future.

Click?

After losing interest in playing around, Klick wasn't even qualified to let Hawkeye swing his sword.

Hawkeye left in his own boat, but his behavior further fueled Creek's arrogance.

But while he was laughing wildly, his cadres were knocked out.

"Hey, get ready, use that to knock that guy down. Curl your eyebrows, get out of the way, and give me the position at the door!"

Pushing away Sanji who was planning to fight Barra, Luffy came to the restaurant door, found a fixed position for his hands and feet, leaned back slightly, and Heracross stood directly on his stomach, Luffy used it as a human flesh launcher.

With the cooperation of one person and one horn fairy, Luffy's body was gradually elongated, and the horn of Heracross also lit up with white light, and the million-ton horn strike was ready.

"Rubber Siege Crossbow!" NoVelusb.cOM

With years of companionship, Heracross and Luffy also have their own cooperation. Using Luffy's body as a bowstring to launch Heracross is a combination technique.

This can greatly increase the power of Heracross's attack, and the seemingly funny preparation action can also make the enemy relax their vigilance.

At least Bara, who was covered in shields in front of them, didn't pay enough attention to this attack. In his opinion, it was impossible for a mere unicorn to break through its own iron wall defense.

The ideal is full, but the reality is cruel. Under the impact force provided by Luffy, Heracross smashed the large shield on Barra's chest with just one blow, and knocked him unconscious into the sea. Then Luffy fought with Klick again, and Bharati's chef also started a melee with other pirates. Even though Zhepu lost a leg and was already old, it was still easy to deal with these ordinary pirates. .

In the case of Bala being knocked into the sea by Heracross, only Ajin can be called difficult here.

Because of Klick's order, he still started a fight with Sanji, but for some reason, he never saw the nervous look on these cooks' faces.

Sanji didn't fight Bala, his physical strength was not affected, and he fought Akin back and forth, and Akin was still hesitant to kill him. Although he temporarily suppressed Sanji, he didn't achieve greater results. Advantage.

"Leave this ship, you can get a new ship, the leader of Creek has already set his sights on this place, you are not his opponent, if you do this, you will all die!"

"You are quite strong, but unfortunately, when the time comes, the little guy should come back."

"What did you say?"

Boom~Boom~Boom~

Balati restaurant, with the beating of the hour hand, the alarm clock rang again and again, and a look of joy appeared on the faces of the chefs of Bharati.

Shortly after the bell rang, a few more shadows appeared under the sea surface, and a vortex appeared on the sea surface, involving the pirates who fell into the water. With a roar, a blue Gyaradosaurus emerged from the water.

"Roar!"

The carp king that was judged by Nereus as unsuitable to enter the great route also grew up, from that weak carp king to a powerful tyrannosaurus, and has been living here, becoming the patron saint of Balati .

Now it is no longer the weak carp king washed ashore by the waves, but the leader of the nearby carp king.

Because of the experience of this Gyarados and Zhepu, Bharati established a carp king protection organization. There are many carp kings living nearby. Back to Bharati on time.

Bharati's chefs have no fear because of this.

"Yo, you're on time, little guy, but you're going to be late for today's meal.

Except for the guy with the hammer, the guy in the straw hat, the long nose and the green hair, you can take care of the rest of the troubles. "

Chapter 880 The swarm is gathering

"Roar!"

Responding to Sanji's request, a burst of flames spit out from the Gyarados' mouth and burned directly towards Klick. At the same time, a powerful electric current erupted from his body, and the pirates who fell into the sea were blown away. Like an electric fish, it flipped over directly.

"Hey! This guy is my opponent! I still have to use him to pay off my debts! What will you do with my meal money!"

Looking at Gyarados attacking Klick, Luffy felt dissatisfied instead.

However, the Gyarados didn't care about the noisy straw hat boy. It only had eyes on these pirates who destroyed Baratti. It had sufficient experience with the enemies on the sea, and it was always right to destroy the enemy's foothold first.

Klick's weapons and equipment have no effect on Gyarados. Armor and special cloak can resist bullets and fists, but they cannot defend against flames and lightning. Gloves and spears cannot touch Gyarados, and bullets will be submerged by it evade.

Not to mention that there was another Luffy who was attacking him next to him. Just when Klick wanted to use his M·H·5 to knock down these people, the highly toxic gas released was detonated by the flames released by the Gyarados. Can work.

In addition to Ajin, the Klick pirates were wiped out, and his previous men were merciful and finally saved himself.

"Is the legend of sea monsters true?"

Click is cruel and ruthless, but Ajin has a kind of enigmatic following for him. Seeing the defeated and dead Crick, he sits paralyzed on the ground as if he had lost his soul.

At this time, he remembered a legend in the East China Sea, don't eat the king's meal in Bharati, otherwise the sea monster will teach you how to be a human being.

"It's not a sea monster, but a very beautiful girl. Do you want to consider staying as a handyman? You are not the same as those pirates."

"No, give me a boat if it's convenient, maybe we'll see each other later."

Akin left Bharati in despair, and lived a life where everything can be Akin in the legend. Sanji finally joined Luffy's team, but Gyarados did not leave with him, but stayed in Bharat Dee, continue to protect the carp king around here.

On the second day on board, Sanji felt regretful.

"Your navigator is this unicorn??? This green algae head is your compass? How did you get to this place!"

He has seen a navigator with two swords, but he has never seen a unicorn commanding the direction, which is too magical for him.

But Sanji didn't know that there was a new trouble the next day because Hero disappeared.

"Hey! Hey! Where have you been?!"

Searched every corner of the ship, but Luffy didn't see Heracross. At this moment, he lay down on the deck in a daze, and even Sanji's food couldn't make him stand up.

"Hey, Luffy, don't be so lost. It's also a unicorn. It's normal to go out."

"No, Hero never missed breakfast before, something must have happened to it, Usopp! Sauron! Have you seen Hero?!"

In the sound of Luffy's shout, Sauron woke up. The rest time of several people on board was different. Among them, Luffy's sleep time was about five hours, and he fell asleep randomly.

And Zoro will rest for three hours from 4 am to 7 am, and will take time to catch up on sleep during the day. When he was still awake last night, he happened to see Hero.

"A unicorn fairy that resembled it passed by here last night, and then it told me a lot, as if asking me to give this to you, but I don't know what it said."

There is a scribbled drawing on a piece of letter paper, and there are a few paw prints of Hercules. Looking at the scribbled drawing, Sanji and Usopp also fell into confusion.

"This should be a scribbled paw print, right?"

"Yeah, it's ridiculous that the unicorn fairy can draw. It's better to say that dancing will make you stronger."

"Don't be kidding Usopp, how can someone become stronger by dancing."

"Ah, I just said it casually, but I heard"

"Hello said to help a friend fight."

While Sanji and Usopp were talking, Luffy suddenly yelled like enlightenment.

"Damn it, he didn't call me, is he looking down on me!"

"No, how did you understand it!"

"Yeah, what are these paintings?!"

Except for Luffy, the other three couldn't understand the extremely abstract picture at all, so Luffy had no choice but to make a professional commentary.

"Ah, are you idiots? Hero has been drawn very clearly. There is a bad mouse bullying its friends. It is going to help find a place now. Let us wait for it around here for a few days.

No, I'm going to help it. "

"But it has left early, how do you find it?"

At this time, a few Heracrosses just flew over on the sea nearby, and Luffy hurriedly caught up with one Heracrosse, and began to express his meaning with body language.

He also took the blueprint left by Hero to express his purpose. Fortunately, Luffy and Hero have been together for a long time, and he has a certain understanding of the language of Heracross, and finally realized the communication smoothly.

The Golden Merry also changed its course and followed them to a new direction.

If they don't do this, they have nothing to do. After losing the Unicorn, the four men on board were surprised to find that none of them could judge the direction of sailing. nOvelusB.cOm

Hero's departure was not an accident, but a matter of the Heracross group. At the beginning, Heracross dispersed to various islands to form an independent group.

Some Heracrosses are still single, such as Hero, but some have multiplied, giving birth to the second and third generations of Heracrosses.

Individual differences have also become very large. The first generation of Heracross created by Arceus is undoubtedly the strongest. These Heracrosses are enough to occupy a place in the great route, and they are also responsible for returning to the ghost island pilgrimage.

Ordinary Heracross just searched for news near their place of residence, and then reported regularly.

But the first generation of Heracross, due to the different characteristics of the original beetle, has its own strengths and weaknesses, let alone the descendants.

Compared to the original Heracrosses, their descendants are a little weaker and often encounter difficulties.

When they encounter problems that cannot be solved, they will ask the nearby Heracros for help.

For insect-type Pokémon, quantity is their advantage. Hero met Heracross who went out to find a helper.

At this time, the nearby Heracros is approaching the village of Cocoyasi, and the root of all this is the gold mine discovered by Cocoyasi.
