Chapter 891 The Special Information of the Millennium Dragon

"Just kidding, what kind of monster is this?"

The Merry was frozen by Yamato, and Luffy and others came out at a much slower pace. When they chased out, they saw rows of destroyed warships on the ice.

Usually, when they see warships, they will go around. Even a weaker navy will choose to flee. This is the choice most pirates will make. After all, there are very few pirates who can confront the navy.

But now, someone has lightly destroyed a warship group in front of them.

"I said Luffy. Have you really thought about it?"

Looking at the scene in front of him, Sauron couldn't help asking.

Before this, the strongest person they had ever seen was Hawkeye. In terms of strength alone, Hawkeye is already at the top of the pyramid. Swordsmen in the world have more or less heard of the world's largest sword Howe's name.

But Hawkeye's expressive power is far inferior to the exaggeration of Ulti and Peggy Wanlai at this time. It's just a Crick. If it wasn't for "boring boredom", Hawkeye wouldn't talk to him at all.

Under such circumstances, outsiders will naturally not realize how terrifying Hawkeye's strength is.

Splitting a pirate ship is not as deterrent as destroying an entire fleet.

Luffy made it clear that One Piece is his goal, but to become One Piece, these people in front of him are the mountains that must be crossed.

"Ah, I have thought about it, I have thought about it a long time ago, I have decided that I will eat six meals a day in the future."

"Is there something wrong with you? What does this have to do with eating!"

As the chef on board, Luffy's appetite already gave Sanji a headache. Hearing that Luffy had another meal for no reason, Sanji began to suspect that the crew on the boat might starve to death in the end.

"Because only when you are full can you continue to grow stronger."

"Nami-chan, hurry up and buy a refrigerator with a lock, otherwise we will really starve to death at sea."

"The refrigerator is not important, the question is, do we really have to defeat this monster? Can't we go around it?"

"Yes, yes, in fact, I have a disease that will kill people who are stronger than me. I think it is a good way to go around. With Nami's sailing skills, it will definitely be possible."

As the weak duo on the ship at this time, they have strong resistance to fighting monsters.

"Who knows, but if the target is the One Piece, I'm afraid there will be a battle. After all, if you know her, hehe, do you know who her father is?"

"Hey [a very strong pirate, it's hard for you to understand how strong it is]."

Although they are members of the first generation of Heracross, they only know the forces around Arceus, they don't know the detailed information, and even if they know, Hero won't tell Luffy so much.

Luffy is an important partner, but compared with its creator, there is an essential difference. These things are still too early for Luffy.

When he really gets to that point, he will eventually understand these things.

It was at this time that there was a cry in the sky, and more and more thousand-year-old dragons showed themselves, and all the thousand-year-old dragons all over the world returned to the dragon lair at this moment.

The weak Master Long looked at the thousand-year-old dragons flying in the sky and regained his energy. Looking at Abis in front of him, there was a little more tenderness in the old eyes.

"Roar"

"Ah? Dragon Lord, you let me ride on your back?"

"Roar"

"Well, are you better now? That's really good."

Due to the relatively long distance, Abis did not see what happened on the battlefield, but only saw the warships being destroyed one by one.

In her world view, the navy who wanted to capture her and hurt Master Long was not a good person, so she didn't take it to heart.

Master Long kept telling her that as long as she returned to the dragon's lair, her illness would be cured, so she was only happy to see Master Long cheer up again.

At this time, she still doesn't understand what it means to return to the light.

With his last ounce of strength, Master Long took Abis up to the sky, circling along with other thousand-year-old dragons.

On the ice surface, the ice layer made by Yamato suddenly shook, and a huge shadow appeared under the ice surface, and an island just rose from the sea.

The ice layer is broken, and the dragon's cave with a lot of strange rocks has revealed its true colors again after a thousand years.

"What, it turns out that this island has been on the bottom of the sea, no wonder I couldn't find it for so long."

Standing on one part of the island, Yamato looked at this wonderful scene, took out Rotom's phone and took a photo, and updated his status along the way.

The island is full of rocks in the shape of a thousand-year-old dragon, but they are not real rocks, but the legendary keel, which is the proof left behind by the thousand-year-old dragon after his death on this island.

As the millennium gathered, they also began to greet each other, and the group of Faerun also began to ask about the whereabouts of the stone slabs, as agreed decades ago.

And the news they obtained also makes people feel very confused.

Since they lived long enough, the problem goes back hundreds of years.

【I seem to have seen that kind of stone falling from the sky, but it was taken away by a group of black-winged humans. I don't know where they went, but I remember that the egg should have fallen on the red land. 】

【Well, the old man seems to have seen it once, flying westward from here for 30 days, and then flying northward for more than 20 days, the meteorite should have fallen there back then. 】

【I remember the same, the specific location should be almost there, you can remember it. 】

[I saw the same thing as the old dragon, there is no new news, but in the future, be careful of those people in white clothes, my clansman was attacked by those guys, you are very strong, so many human ships have been disposed of . 】

All kinds of news came out of the mouth, and then these millennium dragons also started the industry mutual bragging mode, touting the experience or appearance of the same clan, after all, reunion once in a thousand years, there is no need to find it unpleasant.

Phelan has indeed integrated some news, and it has certain value, but it still needs a lot of attempts to turn it into news of actual value.

Except for its own residence and dragon lair, the Millennium Dragon has little interest in other islands, nor is it like Faerun's ethnic group that has always mixed with humans, and has begun to call those islands in human terms.

They remember the islands according to their moving distance. After Faerun's message, Yamato's map has many more markers, and some of them are even islands where stone slabs have been found.

This confirms the feasibility of these news, but it also means that they will have a heavy workload in the future, and it will take a lot of effort to find all these places.

During the communication with other millennium dragons, Master Long put Abis off his body and found a flat ground, and then the whole dragon lay down powerlessly

Chapter 892 Donghai Express, Kaido's special support

"Master Long, Master Long! What's wrong with you, Master Long!"

Looking at Master Long lying powerlessly in the puddle, Abis's heart that had just let go hangs again, but no matter how she shakes, Master Long has no response.

"It's time for the old man. This is the dragon's lair of the thousand-year-old dragon, and it's also our cemetery."

Ferren transformed into a dragon man again, and explained to her beside Abis.

"The old man lost his way due to an accident. He has always felt very lonely after being separated from his group. He is very happy when he is with you.

Can come back here, its last dream has come true, flying is its memory for you, you don't have to be sad.

Here is the end, and likewise, the beginning. "

There were a few thousand-year-old dragons similar to Lord Long, and at almost the same moment they died, the cry of a new-born thousand-year-old dragon came from the island. prelude.

The millennium dragon group didn't stay here for long. The newly born millennium dragon babies soon began to flap their wings, and mastered the ability to fly in a very short period of time. According to the differences of the groups, they were separated again.

The rise of Long Island caused the ice made by Yamato to shatter. Under the influence of the current, the ice spread quickly, and the Merry was able to sail again, and the Straw Hats embarked on their own journey again.

Abis returned to her tribe, and with the memory of Master Long, she started her own inheritance.

Yamato and Ulti were staring at a map in a daze.

"No, this location is a bit wrong. Based on the speed of the Millennium Dragon, it should be around here."

He took out a pair of plain glasses from nowhere, and Yamato was gesticulating on the map with his glasses on and holding a scale.

She can still make simple drawings, and she can understand a chart if given to her, but according to the data given by Ferran, she can't match it no matter what.

"Those thousand-year-old dragons can't remember wrongly, after all, they are quite old, so it's normal to make mistakes."

"Sister Dahe, tell me. Should you change the map? Those thousand-year-old dragons are talking about news from hundreds of years ago. Many islands have disappeared inexplicably with the passage of time. Maybe you can change it to a map hundreds of years ago. There is news."

In the normal world, in hundreds of years, an island may disappear due to natural disasters, let alone here.

Being eaten by giant sea kings, digested by island eaters, and blasted away by the king of heaven, there are too many reasons for an island to disappear.

Even if it is a member country of the world government, it may become the object of erasure due to various reasons. It may not be possible to find the place with the current map.

"It makes sense, it's time to find Robin to play with. She should be better at this. Just now, she said that she was going to beat someone up, but before that, there is one more thing to do."

"What?"

"Go and find out here, Hero said that the navy of that branch captured a large number of Heracros, and the colonel of the branch is also a bastard, just to teach them a lesson."

ding~

Yamato's Rotom suddenly heard a notification sound, and Yamato's face suddenly turned livid as he looked at the screen of Rotom.

"What's the matter with you? Did you eat your stomach?" novelusb.COM

"Buwuta reposted my latest news."

This is their private circle, which is a special information group that can only be seen within Beasts. Only those who have an exclusive Rotom can post or reply to similar news, and Uta is one of them.

"Repost it, just repost it, is your face so ugly?"

"But sister Stella also retweeted, and Tezolo would retweet what she retweeted. He never blocked people when he retweeted! It would be troublesome for that old man to see me!

No, I want to discuss with my adoptive father, Rotom phone needs to add a function of prohibiting forwarding. "

"This should be Quinn, but it doesn't matter. Captain Kaido doesn't seem like a person who can watch the news."

"No, Xiao Pei, you don't understand, you can't measure my father with the thinking of a normal person. What he sees may be all illusions."

Based on what she knew about Kaido, Kaido wished that she would train 25 hours a day and let him see that he was living so comfortably. It might be nothing at first, but once Kaido gets drunk, the trouble will be big.

Even if there is improvement, that will be something later. At this time, Yamato is leading Ulti and Peggy Wan to the 16th branch of the navy, intending to teach the navy there a painful lesson.

While the mouse was recuperating in the branch covered in bandages, Yamato fell from the sky, and the defense of the sixteenth branch seemed useless to her. The three of them destroyed the sixteenth branch of the navy lightly.

The base building where the mouse lived was also smashed down with a stick, which saved the mouse's reputation and made him a base leader who died in the line of duty.

Because the attack was inside the branch, the people of the 16th branch managed to send the news out, but the reporters of the World Economic News Agency scattered in various places responded faster to this big movement.

In addition to the news of the survivors of the Nelson Fleet of the Eighth Branch, a piece of news was quickly released by Morgans.

【Ghost Ji who ravages the East China Sea, the Nelson fleet of the eighth branch of the East China Sea is completely destroyed, and the sixteenth branch of the East China Sea is destroyed! 】

There is no exaggerated title, just stating the objective facts and the task name, this matter is enough to attract the attention of most people, this time it is Morgans' favorite big news.

The newspapers of the World Economic News Agency have spread to all parts of the world with the news bird, and their influence remains the same as before, and Kaido has also taken new actions because of this.

"Hey, this girl, Yamato, has done a good job. Although she is from the East China Sea, she finally looks a bit like this. This is my daughter."

For Kaido, Yamato, who took the initiative to pick things up, is a good daughter, setting up a naval branch. Although it is only a weak branch in the East China Sea, it is also a major improvement.

"Where are you going?"

He said he was satisfied, but Kaido had already walked towards the gate of Onigami Island with his stick in his hand. Seeing Kaido's appearance, Arceus instinctively felt that he was going to make another big move.

"Hey lol, needless to say? Young people's journey shouldn't be interrupted like this. I'll go and find something for those navies to do."

If Yamato continues to travel leisurely, Kaido will plan a new round of supplementary lessons for her, but since she has made a lot of noise, he can also help Yamato extend the travel time.

In her capacity, the Navy will not ignore such a commotion in the East China Sea. Although they may not be able to find Yamato, her trip cannot continue.

So Kaido used his own method to help Yamato solve this hidden danger, that is, to create a bigger movement in the new world, so that the navy dare not be distracted.

Chapter 893 A restless family

"Why do I think you want to go out and fight again because your hands are itchy?"

Kaido said to help Yamato attract firepower. This kind of thing sounds wrong. In his situation, it is restrained not to take the initiative to throw Yamato into the crowd, let alone make such a kind move.

Based on his character, the biggest possibility is that he wants to fight.

"How come, I will choose a special method. This method does not require fighting, but the effect is the same."

Shaking his neck, Kaido picked up a bunch of wine jars, as if he had a new idea.

"Aren't you going to have a drink with the red-haired guy?"

"Yeah, after all, that kid got the position of Emperor of the Sea in a very short time.

Although I played a few times, I didn't enjoy myself at all.

Go and have a good drink with him this time, forget it, hehehe! "

Kaido is very aware of the navy's psychology. Today's Four Emperors are fighting each other, and the navy may not be nervous.

Although their war will cause great aftermath, it also gives the navy a chance, a good opportunity to weaken the Four Emperors.

So for the navy, fighting among the four emperors is not a bad thing, as long as the situation is well controlled, it can achieve good results.

But if the two four emperors sat together and chatted nonsense, the navy would really be nervous.

Today's sea emperor doesn't have a fuel-efficient lamp, and if one goes crazy alone, the navy will have a headache.

The overall strength of the navy is strong enough to deal with the royal regiment, but the sea is too big. Many generals and elite soldiers of the navy headquarters are scattered in various sea areas, and they have to protect the nobles of the world.

If there is no preparation in advance, the naval branches scattered in various places can only give an early warning, and nothing else can be done.

If two people join forces to make a big move, it will be enough to keep the navy busy.

The navy monitors the emperors of the sea, but there is no way to eavesdrop on their words and deeds. Kaido and red hair sit together for more than ten minutes, and the navy has to put all its energy to prevent them from being unable to deal with it when they really make a big noise .

There is only a thousand days to be a thief, not a thousand days to guard against a thief. Although the sea today is turbulent, it is also in a delicate balance.

Assuming that they take the initiative to attack a sea emperor, they can destroy each other without external interference, but they are not fully sure to keep the sea emperor.

And assuming they let people like Kaido or Charlotte Lingling get away after they act, then the navies all over the world have to be careful of these monsters' indiscriminate attacks. crazy them.

Plus their original policy is like this, the high level of the world government will acquiesce to this situation. If such a thing really happens and alarms the Hanaman, they will definitely be labeled as incompetent.

"That guy's character may not be able to have a good chat with you."

"It's okay, he doesn't agree, next time I will take his daughter to him and see if he can talk."

Kaido is not trying to use Uta to threaten Hongfa, but Hongfa is afraid that Uta will come to his door now. In Hongfa's view, Uta's life now is much better than being a pirate with him.

A world-renowned singer is much better than a wanted criminal. Although she keeps in touch, she keeps refusing Uta's request to meet.

For Beasts, the current Uta brings more benefits, so naturally they intend to maintain the status quo.

Kaido knows exactly what the red hair is worried about, so he is not afraid of his rejection at all.

"But there is one more problem."

"What?"

"Do you think I should drink before beating, or should I be beating before drinking?"

In a sense, Arceus guessed Kaido's plan correctly, he neither gave up the idea of fighting nor the idea of drinking, and planned to do both things together.

Amidst a burst of wild laughter, Kaido left Onigami Island, and purposely flew twice in front of the navy's surveillance ship before flying towards the red-haired territory.

The next day, in the Naval Headquarters, in the Sengoku office.

"Reporting to Marshal Sengoku, here is the follow-up report from surveillance ship 174. Kaido has not returned since leaving Onishima at noon yesterday. The current destination is unknown, and the report is over."

Originally, this was just an ordinary report, which did not attract the attention of the Navy Headquarters. They still had the impact of Yamato on the East China Sea on their desks, and they were deciding on the next step.

Kaido's movement just made them suspect that Beasts had some new big moves. After all, it is totally illogical for a person of Yamato's weight to appear in the East China Sea inexplicably.

Warring States couldn't figure out what the beasts in the East China Sea should be interested in.

It is not uncommon for the emperor of the sea to be restless, and it is common for Kaido to run around. Compared with this, some things made Sengoku's head a few more circles. novelusb.com

"Karp! Look! It's your family again! Doesn't your family save others?!"

Luffy's reward orders are just laid out on the table of the Warring States Period. Logically speaking, this level of reward criminals will not attract the attention of the Warring States Period. Even if his reward is 10 times the average reward in the East China Sea, it is only in the East China Sea. striking.

"Attacking the Donghai Navy branch is really your good grandson!"

Luffy's reward order can be placed here only because his grandfather is Garp. As a naval hero, his son is now the most ferocious criminal in the world. Became a pirate with an initial reward of 30 million.

At this time, Sengoku was venting his anger on the phone bug. After all, Karp ran to the East China Sea as soon as he received the news, and now he can't find anyone.

"Hahahaha, the old man knows, I am not here in the East China Sea, I will arrest him and bring him to justice."

"Come on! Don't fool me here! Garp, you should know what happened in the East China Sea."

"Ah, Kaido's daughter? It's really a big trouble, do you have any news about her?"

From the perspective of Sengoku, Luffy is not a problem at all now. Compared with Luffy, Yamato, whose purpose is currently unknown, is the real problem.

He thinks Garp's grandson should be more peaceful than Kaido's daughter.

It is not easy for the navy to catch a certain pirate. In the vast sea, it is not easy for them to find the target.

"Not yet, but."

Before the words of the Warring States Period were finished, there was a sound of panicked footsteps outside the door, and an intelligence officer pushed the door in a little panic.

This is something allowed by the Warring States Period. If you really have urgent information, you can ignore those rules and explain it to him directly.

"Report to the Marshal! The 277th surveillance ship sent news that just now, the red-haired Shanks made contact with Kaido the Beast! Kaido still hasn't left, and there is no fluctuation in the battle on the island."

"What did you say?!"

Chapter 894 Confused Warring States Period and Red Hair

"Red-haired Shanks and Beast Kaido made contact without detecting combat fluctuations"

"Karp, something happened here, you are always on call."

Hanging up the phone bug that was in contact with Garp, Sengoku sorted out his expression. He is the admiral of the navy, and he can't easily show his emotions on his face. If he panics, the soldiers under his command will be even less confident.

"Is the news true?"

"The surveillance ship just sent the information, there is no follow-up news yet, the surveillance ship is trying to get close to them"

"Notify the people above the general in the headquarters to stand by in the conference room and let the intelligence department come over."

Warring States seemed to be cursed. He said that the Garp family would not let him worry about it, but he encountered a more troublesome family. At least the Garp family had a grandfather who served in the navy.

And Kaido, the father and daughter, is an out-and-out disaster.

While waiting for others to arrive in the meeting room, Sengoku also looked through the recent information about Kaido and Yamato.

He is the admiral of the navy. There are too many things to deal with. It is normal that many details cannot be remembered clearly.

Yamato's previous existence was well covered up, and the outside world didn't know much about Kaido's daughter, but the first time she appeared in the eyes of everyone, it made people understand that this was a huge threat.

Suppressed the commander-in-chief of Germa 66 when it appeared for the first time. The reward of 170 million was the highest for the first time in that era when there was no inflation.

The initial reward was given by the World Government and the Navy based on the threat of the other party. Although Yamato's reward has the bonus brought by Kaido, it also has the threat of her own strength.

From 170 million to 1.78 billion, there have been several battles among them, and several veteran lieutenant generals were defeated in his hands.

The Navy's last record was that she calmly retreated from the battle with Kuzan a year ago, and with the blessing of the beast camp, she got this high reward.

If the golden lion hadn't died in obscurity, her reward might be redefined.

As for Kaido

The series of fatal records become more and more headaches. Today's Kaido is definitely the most restless one. You can never predict where this guy will appear from tomorrow, and what outrageous things he will do.

Under the mobilization of the Warring States Period, except for Garp who was in the East China Sea at this time, the yellow monkey next to Vegapunk, and Akainu who was stationed at Marie Gioia, all the senior management of the headquarters have come to the conference room.

And a piece of new information also came.

"Report! The clouds in the nearby sky are cracking, and there seems to be a conflict between Kaido and Red Hair!"

Hearing this sentence, the people present were relieved. It is better to fight than not to fight.

"Report! The aftermath of the battle has disappeared, and there is no trace of Kaido leaving."

Looking at the wall watch in the meeting room, the minute hand has moved less than three marks, and it is impossible for these two people to decide the winner in three minutes.

A few minutes later, the last message came from the surveillance ship.

Kaido still did not leave, but the red-haired deputy Beckman shot down the surveillance ship.

"Some time ago, the Nelson fleet of the eighth branch of the East China Sea was destroyed. Three days later, the sixteenth branch was attacked, and the captain of the branch was killed. The instigator of all this was the daughter of Kaido.

Now that Kaido suddenly talks with the red hair, you should know what this means. "

"It's not just the two of them, don't forget BIG MOM and Whitebeard, Whitebeard and Kaido have conflicts, but Charlotte Lingling is different, their pirate team is in private contact.

If Kaido really makes a big move, Charlotte Lingling will probably also intervene. If that happens, the new world will be turned upside down, and it is impossible for Whitebeard to sit idly by.

The worst possibility is that we may have to face those four monsters at the same time.

"novelusb.COM

Crane's head also grew bigger. Whitebeard has no possibility of cooperating with Kaido, but he will not join forces with the navy to deal with pirates, and he will definitely have his own actions at that time.

Facing a sea emperor, the navy will not worry about its combat power, but there are too many things that follow-up, but four .

The chain reaction triggered by this is unbearable, and it may even collapse the order of the sea today.

"All soldiers' vacations are cancelled, all generals are on standby at all times, let that guy Garp get back immediately, the East China Sea matter can be put aside for now, and now this is the big head.

He, go and try to persuade Zefa.

Kuzan, order Red Hair and the spies of the Beasts to find out what those two guys did at all costs! "

If Kaido really makes any big moves, then the great route and the new world must be the focus. On the contrary, Yamato in the East China Sea feels like fishing on purpose.

After the sixteenth branch was destroyed, Yamato seemed to have evaporated from the world, and he didn't know where he went. If Karp continued to delay there, but finally rushed to nothing, it would not be worthwhile.

"yes!"

Preparing for war is the only plan Sengoku can make, but Sengoku doesn't know that Kaido's goal has been achieved.

Not long ago, in the red-haired territory, a lively banquet was being held here. As for the reason for the banquet, the kid from Windmill Village had already gone out to sea and became a pirate. For the members of the red-haired pirates It's a good reason.

What's more, the redhead met Hawkeye.

Hawkeye chased Klick back to Donghai, and saw the familiar straw hat.

Later, he saw Luffy's reward order, so he found the red hair.

He did not return the same way, but directly crossed the Red Earth Continent and entered the New World.

As for the small boat, it's easy to solve.

There is no way for large ships to cross the Red Earth Continent, but for this kind of small boat, Hawkeye can carry it on his back. He only needs to fold up the sails, and the coffin board boat can be turned into a ready-made backpack. path.

That is, when Hawkeye was drunk by the red hair, Kaido's domineering color covered the island.

Between fighting first and then drinking or drinking first and then fighting, he chose the former, because if he drinks first and then fights, the Navy may feel that their talk has collapsed, which will not achieve his previous purpose.

Looking at Kaido who appeared here, Shanks and Beckman also had the same doubts as Sengoku.

The two of them couldn't understand why Kaido appeared here inexplicably.

Although Uta is an artist under Beast Fruit, they are not so familiar.

It wouldn't be strange for Kaido to fight the redhead, but it's a bit intriguing for this guy to carry a bunch of wine jars.

Chapter 895: Kaido: Give me face, redhead

"Kaido, you bastard, what do you want to do?!"

Four emperors meet the classic way of greeting - overlord-colored hedging, and this way is unlucky for the people who eat melons next to them. The red hair also has its own big boat group, and the quality seems to be worrying.

On weekdays, apart from the main force of the Redvers, other affiliated pirate groups would also follow Red Hair. Kaido's overlord looks like this, the Red Hair cadres are fine. on the deck of the ship.

"Hey, Shanks, your subordinates are too weak, isn't this your hobby?"

"This has nothing to do with you, Kaido, do you want to fight?!"

The same powerful overlord pushed back Kaido's overlord, and Griffin had already unsheathed. Faced with Kaido, a moody guy, Shanks did not let down his vigilance.

"It's really a powerful domineering color. The kid on Roger's boat has grown to this point. It just so happens that it won't be too boring now."

Zheng!

Griffin collided with Ba Zhaijie, and the overlord-colored confrontation also rose from momentum to reality.

Shanks had already seen all this and was not surprised.

In terms of knowledge, Shanks has a unique advantage. His knowledge itself has reached the point of predicting the future, and he also has the special ability of knowledge killing, which can make him immune to other people's knowledge perception.

With these two abilities, he can always take the lead in battle.

The other members of the red-haired pirates did not intend to intervene. This is the battle of their big boss. If no one else joins in, they will only lose Shanks' face if they attack first.

"Kaido, what the * are you trying to do?!"

Shanks even suspected that there was something wrong with his knowledge, because he saw the picture of Kaido sitting down to drink. The most important thing is that Kaido really drank on the spot after a few simple encounters. After that, he lost his observation of Kaido's future.

Kaido seems to disappear into the future out of thin air. That ability is very similar to his knowledge killing, but Kaido seems to be relying on some kind of external force.

"Ah, I'm just bored, so I plan to come to your place to sit and sit. Didn't you see that I brought all the wine? It's Xihai's wine."

"How do you know such a thing Uta?!"

"Yeah, that little girl never forgets you, but I only found out about this preference after asking a special question on the way here.

And according to your habits, I should say so.

Give me a face, sit down and have a good drink, or I will bring that little girl over and let her rejoin your pirate group, you are also the Four Emperors now, and that girl can be regarded as a famous singer in the world, which is not considered breach of contract. "novelusb.COM"

This is not a threat, but it has a good effect on Shanks. He really doesn't want Uta to return to the pirate road, so he let Kaido join the banquet, and he also has some questions to ask.

"Kaido, don't you have anything to say about what happened to Mr. Mita?"

"How come you are the same as that old guy with white beard, you are talking about that guy, although that guy is a good opponent, but where is he so attractive?"

If you want to ask, it is the conspiracy of Kurotan Orochi. If you don't believe it, you can also come to Wano Country and see what the current Wano Country is like.

Besides, Oden's daughter is now the general of Wano Country, you can ask her to answer you face to face. "

Shanks was silent for a moment, but in the end he didn't go any further on this issue, he had his own thoughts.

"Shanks, is it true that Uta is not allowed to come back? Although Beast Fruit is not a pirate group, it is a product of Beast after all. If Uta stays there, it will affect many things in the future."

"I know, but Uta's stage should not be our pirate ship, but the whole world. It's better than being wanted by the navy with us, and Kaido is a combat lunatic, he won't. In that way it affects the outcome of the battle."

Now I want to know more, what is the purpose of this guy, he didn't come here on purpose, did he? Speaking of which, the wine is really good, you should ask him where he got it from."

"Speaking of which, I met his daughter when I was in Donghai, and recently his daughter has also made a lot of noise in Donghai."

Hawkeye on the side said silently, Kaido is not a swordsman, and this is the territory of red hair. He has no reason to do it, but just added a little information to Shanks.

When he is not intentionally being funny, Shanks' intelligence is also online, and he brings himself into it, and he seems to want to understand something.

"It seems... was used by that guy."

Less than 10 minutes after Kaido left, a special phone bug on him rang, and a deep voice rang.

"Redhead, Kaido, what did you say to you?"

"Didn't say anything, just had a drink."

"Redhead, do you think we are fools? This kind of reason also wants to fool us? Don't forget what's going on with you."

"If you don't believe me, then do as you please, and don't think that you can order me."

"you"

Shanks hung up the phone directly, then put his arms around Hawkeye's shoulders, and pulled him back to the wine table. The banquet is not over yet.

"Shanks, that phone number."

"Several suspicious guys, ignore them, keep drinking!"

At this moment, Mary Joya, Wu Laoxing looked at the phone bug that gave a busy tone and remained silent for a long time.

"Can the words of the red-haired man be trusted?"

"This brat has his own ideas, let's follow the arrangement of the Warring States Period and strengthen surveillance. Apart from that, there is no other way for the time being."

Because of Kaido's inexplicable actions, almost all the telephone bugs in the Navy have entered a busy state. In addition, some people are also disclosing information to people who have personal acquaintances, and even Kuzan has joined the ranks.

"General Kuzan, what's the matter?"

The phone bug's eyes gradually turned into a pair of dead fish eyes, and the body of the mouth even imitated the shape of a cigar, but it didn't smoke.

"Smog, you should have seen the latest order from the headquarters, right?"

"See"

"I order you as the general of the headquarters, you are not allowed to act rashly, the affairs of the East China Sea are not something you can handle, do you understand?"

"I"

"That woman is not an ordinary pirate, she can even be immune to my attacks, and releases a cold current that is not weaker than mine, Smoker, the headquarters has a big operation, and it is absolutely not allowed to violate the order at this time."

A new feature derived from

Chapter 896, the frozen upper dragon

Most pirates are restless masters, and there are not a few restless ones in the navy, Smoker is one of them.

But his restlessness is not a mouse, Monka's restlessness is a personality problem.

Acting in his own way, not obeying control, some people secretly called him a mad dog.

As an ability user of the natural department, it is obviously overkill for him to be stationed in Rogge Town. He will appear in the East China Sea, which is not only a kind of protection, but also a kind of temporary decentralization.

His attitude towards pirates is in line with the overall policy of the navy, but it does not conform to the policies stipulated by the world government. What the world government wants is never to exterminate them.

Letting him come to the East China Sea, on the one hand, is to make him calm and calm, but also to sharpen his temper, and it is best to learn to obey better.

However, his personality is not so easy to change. Under his management, Roger Town, the place where Roger started and ended, has also entered a relatively stable state.

The overall strength of the pirates in the East China Sea is not strong, but they will also loot towns, especially Rogge Town, which has attracted the attention of many people because of the birth of the One Piece King.

Since Smoker was put here, Rogue Town has become the end of the Eastern Sea Pirates.

The same nature department, Kuzan, Sakaski, and Polusalino also have their own temperaments. Whether it is Kuzan's laziness, Polusalino's fishing or Sakasky's ruthlessness, they all swept the world The faces of government officials.

But this does not affect the status of their generals, the reason is that they are strong enough to be an important combat force of the navy.

Smog is similar to the three generals in many ways, but he has a similar temper, but not the corresponding strength. Otherwise, even if someone finds him unhappy, there is nothing they can do about him.

Smog will be stationed in Rogue Town, and it has something to do with him offending some people.

The size of the world government is huge, and those people have different opinions on the navy. Many people even think that the navy has always been a dog of the world government.

They have nothing to do with the general, but they have disgusting methods. The attack on Zefa's family is a mystery within the navy.

Where did the guarded soldiers go, how did those people find Zefa's family, there are too many unexplainable things in it.

Even the original Zefa was spared, let alone Smoker now, but he hasn't reached that point yet, so the people above just let Smoker fade out of their sight temporarily.

It would be a pity to destroy a natural ability user loyal to the navy.

Some people can't understand Smoker's way of doing things, but this does not prevent some people from admiring him. There are also his friends in the Navy, and Kuzan has a good personal relationship with him.

He made a special call to Smoker, just because he didn't want Smoker to do any "suicide".

According to his understanding of Smoker, Yamato's behavior in the East China Sea will definitely attract Smoker's attention. He has a high probability of actively looking for him. It's okay if he can't find him. .

Smoker didn't make too much use of the attributes of the smoke itself. The smoking fruit in his hands is just a prop to avoid attacks. In this way, he can easily be unilaterally hanged when he meets a domineering physical pirate. beat.

"Colonel Smoker, you must obey this order, and you are not allowed to take care of that woman, understand?"

Listening to Smoker not replying on the other side of the phone, Kuzan ordered him again in an extremely formal tone, and even called the other party's military rank.

"Yes, I see."

"You don't have to be unconvinced. This is all for your own good. That woman is not simple. Now she has the ability to hurt me."

It seemed that he could hear a trace of dissatisfaction in Smoker's tone. For the sake of personal friendship, Kuzan said something extra.

Actually, his fight with Yamato a year ago had given him a huge headache.

There is a difference between the upper and lower levels of devil fruit. Weapon fruit and quick cut fruit, ton fruit and kilogram fruit are all direct examples, especially for natural elements.

Frozen fruit has no connection with Dakou Zhenshen, but after Dakou Zhenshen was transformed, the brand-new Kyurem gave birth to a special ability unique to this world.

Devils reside in the devil fruit, but the demon in Dakou True God was erased by Arceus, but after a demon disappears, the vacancy left needs to be filled.

No new demons were born. Yamato's own consciousness completely dominated the fruit, which also made some changes to the original demon power.

As the body of Daolong, Kyurem also has the title of "the strongest". In this case, the new version of Dakou Zhenshen has become the apex of all ice-type devil fruits.

She was born with an additional "ice-eating" feature. Ice-type attacks are ineffective against her. Kuzan not only cannot freeze her, but even frozen ice cubes can be eaten directly as food.

In another world, she could call herself the Ice Slayer Demon Instructor, but she has no interest in eating ice cubes. Although she can recover a little physical strength, the amount of recovery is not as good as she does.

Her own blood bar is too thick, at least she has to eat an iceberg to see some effect.

The absolute restraint in ability forced Kuzan to compete with Yamato in physical skills. In a sense, he couldn't tell whether Yamato retreated calmly, or he didn't want to fight at all.

The suppression of abilities is more absolute than the restraint of high-ranking fruits. Among the three generals today, Kuzan is the easiest opponent for Yamato.

It was also this battle that allowed Kuzan to better understand how strong the opponent's physical skills are. He can be sure that Smoker can't even take a blow from her.

After repeated instructions, Kuzan hung up the phone and left the headquarters, starting his own defense work according to the predetermined location.

The order of the world government is very simple. No matter what happens, Mary Joya must be given priority to ensure that she will not be disturbed. As for other places, they don't care how they are destroyed. The big deal is waiting for a reshuffle.

Anyway, it has been like this for hundreds of years. In the hundreds of years of history, most countries were destroyed because of wars, but there were also many countries that were wiped out by Marie Gioia herself.

As for Smoker, he was silent for a while after hanging up Kuzan's phone, not because he felt underestimated, but because he always wanted to tell Kuzan not to treat himself as a brainless fool.

Sometimes, he will indeed ignore orders, but he hasn't gone crazy, otherwise he should have challenged the Four Emperors alone. The monster with a bounty of more than one billion is not something he can deal with now. clear.

Otherwise, when I saw the dragon in Rogge Town, I wouldn't have compromised so easily.

He doesn't want to try to see if hitting the head with a stick can exercise domineering or awakening ability.

Because of Kuzan's uneasiness, Smoker looked at his adjutant, trying to make sure of something.

"Da Siqu, what kind of person do you think I am?"

Chapter 897 Find out about Fat Express

"Ah, Mr. Smokey must be a good man."

As a cute girl with glasses, she obediently carried out the orders of her boss and sent him a good person card.

"Although it looks vicious, it is also for justice"

"Okay, you don't need to continue."

My own adjutant is not very smart, Smoker can be sure that Da Siqu didn't understand the meaning of his words.

Recalling, Kuzan's series of orders directly blocked the possibility of his answering, and it seemed that his inherent impression really went wrong.

"So Mr. Smoker, what do we do next?"

"What? Of course I went to hunt down the Straw Hat Kid."

There are many reward orders scattered on his desk, the top ones are Yamato and Luffy's.

Yamato's record already shows that he is not someone he can deal with, but the latter one is different. The one who laughed out loud on the execution platform and has some inexplicable relationship with the dragon is still a newcomer.

Although Kuzan forbade him to intervene in Yamato's affairs, he did not forbid him from chasing the Straw Hats.

As for Yamato's reward order on the table.

Navy's consistent style, we may not be able to deal with you for the time being, but if we can increase your bounty, the Four Emperors' bounty will lose its actual value.

The original purpose of the bounty offer was to attract bounty hunters to hunt down pirates, but no bounty hunter who was brave enough to challenge the Four Emperors appeared yet.

There is a steady stream of people who challenge the Four Emperors, but none of these warriors is for the Navy's reward, and they all have greater ambitions.

For them, money is no longer their goal.

The navy team in Rogge Town has remained largely unchanged. Smoker started chasing Luffy with a small number of people. Today, the Creek pirates in the East China Sea are wiped out, and the Bucky pirates are missing. Instead, there is no one that needs his special attention. Pirates.

Although the sixteenth branch and the eighth branch have suffered major blows, they are still within the tolerable range.

And Yamato, who caused an uproar, was just about to leave the East China Sea at this time.

The millennium dragon group has returned to the residence of Guidao, leaving only the steel armored crow as a means of transportation.

During the previous period, Yamato tried to find places that might have stone slabs according to the description of the thousand-year dragon.

However, the time is too long, and the map is really not right, so I started to plan to find a professional to deal with it.

Although she could use Rotom to communicate remotely, it would be less fun, so she chose to have a face-to-face interview.

"It's so hard to find, where did the red-nosed pirates go?"

"It's not Red Nose, it's Bucky Pirates, please don't change people's name for no reason."

"It's all the same. I read information that that guy used to be the red-haired brother and Roger's crew member. Then their strength should be about the same. Maybe it will be very interesting."

Yamato didn't care about Ulti's amendments. In her opinion, they are all the same. As a red-haired brother, it is reasonable to name their own pirate group with their own iconic things.

"How could a pirate of that strength stay in the East China Sea? There will be stains on any ship. Don't worry about this kind of thing. Anyway, that guy doesn't know where to hide."

"Yes, this comment is really true, that guy is a bit lucky."

In the column of information about Bucky that I got from Beasts, there was a very special one - luck was too good to be true, and she could only use this reason to explain why she couldn't find anyone.

Hello, Colonel Mouse is not the only one who complained. Bucky also belongs to this category, but Mouse is the base chief of the naval base, and the location is easy to find, but Bucky is different.

The navy couldn't find Yamato who was running around in the East China Sea, and Yamato couldn't find Bucky who disappeared inexplicably.

Boom, boom, boom.

"Come in."

Suddenly there was a knock on the door, and Yamato said casually, please come in, and then realized that this is in the sky, and the steel armored crow did not attack this person. It should be said that it was not a person at all.

When Yamato turned his head to look over, a cute yellow creature was flying outside the steel armored crow taxi. On the satchel on his chest, there seemed to be the words "postal express", and he was holding a special envelope in his hand. Sealant in the shape of the Beast Pirate Flag just sealed the opening of the envelope.

"Huh?"

The Steel Armored Crow temporarily landed on a nearby island, and the other party also handed the envelope to Yamato.

"Are you the Pokémon newly created by the adoptive father?"

Yamato can be sure that she has never seen this kind of Pokémon before she left Onishima. This is obviously a new type of Pokémon that was just born during this period.

"Woo."

While affirming, it also stuffed the envelope in its hand to Yamato. This is a test, a test about the express delivery business that Beast intends to develop internally in the near future.

Phone Bug and Rotom can meet the call needs, but some things must be delivered in kind. The unique environment restricts traffic. Compared with ships, the speed of flight is much faster.

In the past, the purpose of Beasts was to sail slowly when there was nothing to do, and to find Zeraora in case of emergency.

Recently, the sea has become more unstable, and Zeraola is also a little busy. After all, his main job is not a courier. In order to strengthen the connection between the islands in the territory, new couriers were also born on the sea. .

As the name suggests, the most important thing about express delivery is speed and safety, and the fast dragons have been perfectly elected for this position.

Kailong is orange-yellow in color, with two long and thin antennae and a small horn on the top of its head.

There is a pair of small wings on the back. Although it is a dragon-type Pokémon, it looks naive and cute. Coupled with some special translations, Kuailong is often called fat.

But there is a powerful force hidden under this appearance.

Kailong's intelligence is comparable to that of humans. It can do almost everything humans can do. As long as they are given systematic training, it is not impossible to let them type codes.NoVeLusB.cOm

As the Pokémon that appeared in the first generation, every time the world of Pokémon becomes larger, its flying speed becomes faster. According to records, it only takes 16 hours for Kuailong to circle the earth.

Relying on their speed, Kuailong is enough to achieve "one-hour reach" in the Sea of Beasts, and to carry out emergency troop reinforcements during wartime.

In addition to this speed, Kuailong still has powerful strength in his body. Even in the stormy sea, it can fly calmly, which is very suitable for the sea environment of the new world.

This time is a trial operation. After confirming that there are no problems, Kuailong's business will first be spread in the territory of Beasts, connecting each island closely.

At this time, Kuailong took out a small notebook from his satchel, and signaled Yamato to sign for the letter.

Chapter 898 The moment when one word breaks the defense, the timid trio ahead of time

Yamato signed for the letter directly without any precautions, and also asked why Kuailong wanted to engage in express delivery business.

Under Kuailong's explanation, she still didn't understand much, but she found it very meaningful. After all, it was arranged by Arceus, so it was always useful.

"Is the letter to me also a test for you? It sounds like you are really good, but it is more convenient to make a phone call than to write a letter."

Yamato opened the envelope after signing for it, and then stuffed the letter back at a speed that Kuailong didn't even realize.

"That. Let's discuss it. How about you pretend that you didn't find me?"

Kailong's little paw took out a piece of paper from his pocket again, which was Yamato's life card. Looking at the paper gradually approaching him, Yamato understood that this was obviously impossible.

If you can't find anyone with the life card, Kuailong, the courier, should be ready to resign, not to mention that she has already signed the receipt.

Now she regrets signing for it a bit.

There is nothing special in the envelope, it is just an ordinary letter, but the signer of the letter is Kaido.

【Back to Ghost Island, there are surprises. 】

Just one sentence, just like Dashan, directly pressing on Yamato's head, Kaido's surprise, no matter how you think about it, it will not be a good thing.

【The Lord asked you to call him after receiving the letter. 】

Kailong's words rekindled a glimmer of hope for Yamato, maybe things are not as bad as she thought.

After Rotom got through to Onishima, Yamato asked Arceus directly, "Father, what's the matter with this letter?"

"It's just a small test, where are you now?"

"East East China Sea is an island, not too far from Reverse Mountain."

"Is that so? This speed is not bad. There is nothing else. The navy has made a lot of moves recently, so pay attention to yourself."

"Wait foster father, what is the meaning of this letter?"

The test was over, and Arceus didn't intend to continue chatting, but before he hung up, Yamato stopped him.

"content?"

"Yeah, foster father, don't you know the content?"

"I don't know. Originally, I wanted to write something casually, but your father seems to have a new arrangement." NoVeLusB.cOm

The last hope was shattered, and she knew that Kaido would try every means to target her. At this time, she was already thinking about what kind of terrorist attack Kaido would brew.

It's just that Yamato is not pessimistic. What should come will always come, and you can't hide. It's pointless to worry blindly, and it will waste your leisure time.

This is also the truth she concluded from her lessons.

"Let's go, Xiaopei, Ur-chan, enjoy the rest of the trip."

"There is something wrong with what you said, that idiot Kaido is staring at you, why do you say that me and Xiaopei are also unlucky together?"

"Because I will pull you together, aren't we friends?"

"Don't talk about the loyalty of friends in such a strange place! Who wants to be tortured by that guy with you!"

"Not bad, Ur-chan, you no longer deny that we are friends, and you don't care about the title. This is a big improvement."

"You are enough! Can you be smarter at critical moments, and don't always use your brain in such strange places!"

I don't know why, but Ulti always feels that Yamato will break her defense, and it will break through all her armor invisibly.

"Okay, okay, it's time to go, first go get a permanent pointer to Alabasta, if I remember correctly, the specialty of the next island is the whirlwind potato tower."

After Yamato and others decided on their destination, Kuailong was also preparing to leave this place. This was a speed test for it, and it had no intention of staying, but before leaving, it handed Yamato and the others a stack of newspapers, which happens to include their new rewards.

It bought it from the news bird, but the news bird was taken aback, and finally flew away in a hurry without even asking for money.

Kailong has always been a kind-hearted Pokémon in the legend. There are even rumors that it evolved into this form from the Hackron family in order to have hands that help others.

It's just that News Bird doesn't know all of this. To News Bird, this fat dragon that caught up is a terrible top predator.

Thanks to his actions in the East China Sea, Yamato's bounty exceeded 2 billion, becoming the fourth highest bounty in Beasts. The bounties of Ulti and Peggy Wan also got a small increase, but neither of them Why do you care about this kind of thing.

In contrast, some people were sweating profusely from their rewards.

On the Golden Merry, Nami is throwing a tantrum at Newsbird.

"Why did the newspaper charge 200 Baileys today! You are raising prices maliciously! I want to sue you!"

Even if there is a gold mine in the family, her greedy character has not improved. This is a habit that has been formed before the discovery of the gold mine.

Newsbird flew out with a helpless expression on his face. It was just a part-time worker, so what would they do if the boss raised the price.

It's just that this price increase is worth the money. In addition to the usual news, there are also serialized special picture books and additional reward orders.

Usopp originally wanted to look at those picture books, but the next moment, he suddenly sat on the ground blankly.

"What's the matter Usopp? What do you see? Get up and take the helm!"

"Offering a Bounty"

Looking at Usopp who fell to the ground, Nami was about to taunt him, but when she saw the reward, she automatically joined Usopp and formed the trembling duo.

The rewards of Peggy Wan and Ulti are still pressed down below, but the reward order at the top has refreshed their three views.

Onihime-Yamato-A bounty of 2.047 billion Baileys is offered.

"Two two billion."

"Luffy! Luffy! Come and see, that guy. That woman is a complete monster!"

Luffy, who was sitting at the bow of the ship, was called over. He was not afraid when he saw Yamato's bounty, but laughed instead.

"She is really strong, but in this case, I must be the one who will become the Pirate King! I will definitely defeat her."

"Please wake me up!"

The "Iron Fist of Love" from Nami hit Luffy * the head, and she was taking this opportunity to vent her fear.

"Your reward is not as high as hers! And she still has a father in her mouth, that guy is probably even more terrifying, why should you be an opponent with such a person. I regret it. Is it too late for us to turn around now?"

"What are you talking about, Nami? Now that we're here, there's no turning back. Even if her father is very strong, I won't admit defeat."

At this time, Luffy was full of confidence, but Hero managed to break through Luffy's defense with a single sentence.

【Her father is a monster stronger than your grandfather. 】

Although they didn't say anything, everyone noticed that Luffy's legs seemed to be shaking a little. They didn't know what Hero said, which actually made Luffy feel fear.

Chapter 899: Evolution of King Carp, a new area in One Piece World

Everyone has things they are afraid of, and some things are more like psychological shadows.

For Yamato, Kaido is her psychological shadow.

Now she is no longer the same as before, and the era when Kaido can deal with her casually has passed.

The same excellent fighting nerves, stronger physical fitness, and the intelligence that will be forced to improve are all the results of Kaido's "training".

Yamato has learned a lot about her abilities, and she has become more and more proficient in using her own abilities. This has caused Kaido to fight her now, and every time he fights, he will do it for real.

Short half a day, as long as two or three days, the movement made bigger and bigger each time.

Although it is not fearful, Kaido is the most difficult opponent for Yamato.

Similarly, even Luffy, who is fearless, has his own psychological shadow - Garp.

Garp threw Luffy into the abyss, left Luffy alone in the dangerous forest, tied Luffy to a balloon and flew into the air.

This is what Garp did to train him into a powerful navy soldier. Coupled with the domineering iron fist of love, Garp gave Luffy a good foundation, but Luffy's development and his It's totally different than expected.

Hero's comparison made him intuitively see the reality, and thought of some not-so-beautiful pictures.

"Grandpa? Is your grandpa a very strong person?"

In addition to Luffy, Nami also has a certain understanding of the language of Heracross, and heard the word grandpa from Hero's tone.

"Ah, grandpa is also a monster, but even grandpa, don't try to stop me from becoming One Piece!"

Luffy quickly came out of his fear, and this little thing didn't make him flinch.

"Okay Nami, continue to take the helm, we are about to enter the great route?"

"It should be. If the clown Bucky's nautical chart is correct, then the entrance to Upside Down Mountain is just ahead."

Fear is nothing but fear, but no one on board stopped because of this. After regrouping, they embarked on the journey. Those monsters are terrifyingly strong, but judging from their current known information, they don't have to fight each other.

"Okay, Usopp, don't be afraid there, don't you want to be a brave sea warrior? It's okay to be afraid."

"So-and-so is afraid, I am not afraid, I just want to read the picture book, yes, I just want to read the picture book."

Picking up the newspaper again, Usopp planned to change his mood, but the news in the newspaper caught his attention again.

【The mysterious meeting between Beast Kaido and the red-haired Shanks, the sea may be destroyed by the two. 】

Morgans' headline-party personality broke out again, and he began to use this "Four Emperors Talks" to make a fuss wantonly, and the word "beasts" also attracted Usopp's attention.

If he remembers correctly, Ulti, Peggy Wan, Yamato and others have mentioned this term in their bounties. In this case, Beast Kaido should be their captain.

"4.677 billion"

The energy just now has not passed, and he saw something more terrifying in a blink of an eye. If this is the person Yamato said he wants to be the Pirate King

Usopp rolled his eyes up, and then passed out foaming at the mouth. He thought of something so horrible that he couldn't describe it, and even triggered the body's self-protection mechanism.

After the people on the boat messed around, Usopp also woke up. At this time, they had reached the vicinity of Upside Down Mountain. At this time, the current began to become turbulent. upside-down mountain peaks along the fairway.

But apart from the Upside Down Mountain, they also saw another wonderful scene. The whole sea was covered in red at this time, and even the only way to the Upside Down Mountain was dyed red.

This is not blood, but the color of the carp king's scales.

This season happens to be the time of pilgrimage for the carp kings from all over the world.

When this time comes, the weak carp king will stay in the original place of residence, while the strong carp king will follow his own group, or cross the reverse mountain, or cross the windless belt to Wano country.

It is relatively easy for the carp kings living in the West Sea or North Sea to return to Wano, but it is relatively difficult for the carp kings in the South China Sea and the East China Sea. Before evolution, the carp kings could not fly, they were just ordinary weak carp. .

This is also a question that some scholars have not studied to understand. They don't understand why these weird carps travel in groups at this time and return to their habitat after roaming, so they have to classify it as the migration of fish schools .

This is also a habit of human beings. People always use their known logic to explain newly discovered things.

The reproductive ability of the king carp is extremely strong. In today's sea, the king carp has reproduced to an unknown number of generations.

The pilgrimage has gradually become a part of the group's trial road. During this process, some weak individuals will be eliminated, while strong individuals will evolve. NoVeLusB.cOm

Every time this time comes, the channel of Upside Down Mountain will be temporarily occupied by them, and even the Merry stopped temporarily.

"The road is blocked, what should I do?"

"Don't worry, this will last up to two days, it will be stupid soon! Stop it!"

Sanji knew some of the inside story here because of Bharati's Gyarados. In at most two days, the carp king will pass through this channel, but before he finished speaking, he saw that Luffy wanted to use other way to drive away the fish, and immediately kicked him out.

"What are you doing, Sanji! If we don't drive them away, how can we get there?"

"Listen to what others say, if you really do something, then we will really have trouble!"

Boom! boom!

Two shells landed on the fish shoal of King Carp, a large number of King Carp were stunned by the impact of the explosion, and the source of the shell happened to be another pirate ship.

"Okay, you'll see what's going on"

Looking at the unknown pirate ship, Sanji already regarded them as dead people in his heart.

"Continue! Do some stinky fish also want to block the way of this uncle! I must find the legendary secret treasure for him!"

On the pirate ship, a captain was giving orders. They didn't notice that there was already a terrifying red figure under the ship.

The next moment, the red figure stood up suddenly and rammed towards the pirate ship.

That is not an evolved Gyarados, but a school of carp kings. In this dangerous sea area, some changes have taken place in the carp kings.

The carp kings that can evolve into Gyarados are rare after all, and there will still be some groups that are not protected by Gyarados.

In order to survive in this dangerous sea, they eventually evolved into the same way of life as weak dinghies, forming their own unique "fish school".

Chapter 900 The signs of the threat of beasts

When it comes to weak Pokémon, except for the initial form of the bug-type Pokémon, the weak Dingyu cannot be avoided.

Small and weak dinghies are like dancers in the sea, but this does not conceal the reality of their weakness.

During the process of biological evolution, King Carp has evolved itself into a special state where most of its body is made of bones, reducing the possibility of being eaten by making itself unpalatable.

Weak Dingfish are different from King Carp. They are not only weak, but also very delicious, which attracts a lot of predators.

White sea lions, big-billed gulls, and howling whale kings all wrote weak dinghies on their recipes.

There are dozens of them, and as many as one ton at a time. The weak dinghies are very vulnerable to these predators. In order to survive, the weak dinghies have learned to cooperate.

In order to fight against weak enemies, Dingyu will form a special formation and become a monster of the sea that even Gyarados fear.

Although a single one is very weak, but as long as everyone works together, they can have great strength.

The larger the number, the stronger the weak dinghies. This is what they are proud of. The water guns they fire together are more powerful than water cannons.

In the Pokémon world, not many Pokémon eat Carp King, but here it is different.

Neptunes and sea beasts eat the carp king, and the tyrannosaurus eats them in turn. It can be said that several new links have been added to the original food chain.

The weak carp king was unwilling to be treated as food, so he gradually came out of this form.

Using the energy in the body to maintain a huge group of carp kings, thereby deterring predators in the sea, the attack of this pirate ship angered these carp kings.

Compared with the weaker dinghies, the King Carp does not have much advantage. Due to the limitation of their abilities, they can't learn water guns, but they can hit and splash.

With the concerted efforts of the companions, the King Carp group leaped from the sea together like a whole, and crashed towards the pirate ship.

One carp king is weak, and ten carp kings are also weak, but when they gather in hundreds, thousands, and form a special whole with each other with Pokémon's power, their water splash jumps. It also achieved the effect of Mount Tai pressing down on the top.

The members of the Straw Hat Pirates saw the sinking of the pirate ship that was much larger than the Merry, and they couldn't help looking at Sanji. If Luffy really made something happen, they might be in trouble.

"So what do we do now?"

"Just wait, this process won't take long. No, maybe there is no need to wait."

Sanji saw a familiar figure from the bottom of the water, it was the Gyarados of Baratti, it had no intention of leaving with Sanji, the Gyarados must stay in the four seas to protect the group, or wait for them to come back, His hometown will be stolen. NoVelUsB.com

This Gyarados is one of the left behind, and it came here just to see Sanji off.

Having a relationship with the Gyarados, the Merry has a place in the carp king group and started its journey smoothly.

At this moment, Yamato and others are experiencing the potato banquet on the new island. This island is rich in potatoes, and in the harvest days, a grand harvest season will also be held.

Ulti also got entangled when he saw the whirlwind potato tarts with different flavors. Yamato took Tutu and Happy Egg to participate in the game on the island. Happiness even sat on top of Yamato in a very special posture. .

Given its size, it can't do this kind of thing, but there is a skill called shrinking, which can improve its dodge rate by shrinking its size.

It is reported that in a certain Pokémon world, a genius had a big brain hole and brought a lot of stinky slimes to make them shrink and hide them on his body, giving the enemy a surprise blow.

This happy egg is also in a similar situation, but it is just for the convenience of going out. If you don't pay attention, it is no different from Yamato's headgear now.

Peggy Wan ran to participate in the goldfish fishing activity. There is no fishing competition, and it is also possible to round up the goldfish.

Compared to the leisurely threesome, Onijima is not so leisurely.

Kailong Post is ready to go, and has allocated its territory according to the chart.

"You guys are in charge of the external communication of Ghost Island, you are in charge of area 7, and you are in charge of number 6."

In the ghost island, the fast dragons lined up in a neat square to accept the tasks arranged by Arceus, and the fast dragons that were not assigned to the area were also anxiously waiting for the next arrangement.

"Don't worry about the area. You will be arranged to rotate after a while. The two of you will go to Tezolo later. Stay by his side to help him deal with some things, and protect his family."

Don't worry about the safety of Onijima. In the state of Quinn's frequent attacks of persecution paranoia, Wano Country is built like an iron barrel, and few people who live here can't even see outsiders.

His subordinates are working hard outside, at least they can't let people's backyards catch fire. Arceus doesn't want something similar to Zefa's family being attacked on Ghost Island.

This is something that even the emperor of the sea cannot completely avoid. Auntie went to Ghost Island in the original timeline, and her house was stolen by Blackbeard.

It's just that there are always family members of some cadres who need to go out, or because of their personal life style, they don't live in Ghost Island. Tezolo and Stella are examples.

Arrange two fast dragons to Tezolo's side. On the one hand, his business is relatively busy, the delivery of valuables, and the transfer of special information. These have to be handled by special personnel. In the past, this part of the work was Zeraola's .

With the emergence of Kuailong Post, new manpower can be arranged there, and as the beasts move more and more, the environment around Tezolo becomes more and more complicated.

Especially after the "talk" between Kaido and Red Hair, the world government gave birth to the threat of beasts.

Many people think that compared to the old white beard, the dragon who acts secretly, and the beasts who make big moves from time to time are the biggest threat to the world government.

The annual profit of Beast Fruit is an astronomical figure, and this is only the transaction volume on the surface. How much money is made from those large transactions in private is something that only the top management of Beast knows.

And these funds were gradually transformed into a part of the "force" of Beasts. In their view, Beasts is an ever-expanding powder keg.

But there are many people in the world government who can't refuse this benefit, and are still adding more gunpowder to the bucket, especially there are many Tianlong people in it. They are not interested in the consequences and only see the immediate benefits.

After all, for them, no matter how the world collapses, it is enough to keep their lives undisturbed. Since this company can let them enjoy it, there is a reason for its existence.
