Chapter 951 World Government Arrangements, Navy Preparations

"This is a matter decided by the five old stars. Even if he is the admiral of the navy, he has no right to change it. But I didn't expect that guy to be Roger's child. He escaped the search at that time. It's unbelievable."

The information on the table made him unbelievable. In order to eradicate Roger's blood, they worked hard at the beginning, but they did not expect that the other party survived, and there seemed to be some very special people involved.

"Don't think about that kind of thing. How to deal with Qi Wuhai's problem? Hawkeye is okay, he will keep his promise, and there is still some time before the war, enough for him to arrive.

What about the remaining three? "

Qiwuhai's combat strength is one aspect, and attitude is another problem. This is the first group recruitment since the establishment of Qiwuhai Organization. These Qiwuhai enjoy the convenience brought by Qiwuhai's identity. It is impossible not to participate in the war at this time of.

If you refuse to recruit, then you have to consider the issue of delisting.

"That guy Doflamingo should be looking for greater benefits. This guy has always been like this, but it is not difficult to deal with. The attitude of the Pirate Queen is said to be very strange. It is impossible to explain to her from the phone. Let the navy Send someone to deal with this problem.

As for Kaixia Jinpei, he has some ambiguity with the Whitebeard Pirates. Maybe there is a possibility of betrayal on the battlefield. This kind of hidden danger must be eliminated. "

"There is still time, how is the mobilization of the navy going?"

"50,000 elites have arrived at the headquarters, 20,000 people are still on the way, and 30,000 people are being transferred from other areas. The defense work in other areas has also been arranged, and the surveillance ships have also been dispatched. There is nothing we can do about the rest. gone."

Several people put down the paper and pen in their hands. They are also high-level officials of the world government. Although they have various activities on weekdays, they all hope that the world government can develop more stably.

They can achieve this position not because of how clean they are, but because they are the most capable of that group of people.

The world government needs excellent talents, and Wu Laoxing also knows this. The position that pure waste can climb is still limited, and Spandain and Spadam father and son are the limit.

"Speaking of which, Moria seems to have been defeated by a rookie before?"

"Don't worry about such small things, just update the bounty. This year, there are more than 10 supernovae. It's really a turbulent era."

"It doesn't matter. These people together are not as important as the white beard's problem. New World will help them reduce their staff."

While they were discussing specific matters, in Wulaoxing's room, Warring States was also protesting.

"I don't agree! Wu Laoxing, is this war too hasty? You know the character of Whitebeard, and the identity of Fire Fist Ace is impossible for him to be indifferent. If Roger's blood is really to be wiped out, secret execution is enough. The consequences of the public execution"

Whitebeard will do everything for the living family, but if the family is dead, he will think about many things.

In the original timeline, he did not attack Wano Country for this reason. Wano Country's terrain is easy to defend and difficult to attack. He will not easily take more lives for those who have already died.

To kill Ace publicly, this is an overt conspiracy, one that will drive Whitebeard crazy.

"Warring States! Don't pretend to be stupid. You, who is called a wise general, can't you see the purpose of this war? Fire Fist Ace is just an introduction. Roger is dead. Whether it's his bloodline or his subordinates, it doesn't matter. It's not something important.

But Whitebeard needs a curtain call, this turbulent sea does not need so many powerful pirates. "

The five old star scabbard holding the knife was stuck on the ground, sternly reprimanding the Warring States.

"Kaido, Whitebeard, Charlotte Lingling, and Red-haired Shanks, if these four people are mixed together, it will be a terrorist force not inferior to Lockes back then. Before they join forces, we need to reduce their numbers. "

"If they have already reached a joint, wouldn't it be more troublesome?!"

"The four of them cannot work together. If we take the initiative to attack the New World and want to destroy them, they may be twisted into one rope under the influence of external forces.

But this time is different, Whitebeard will definitely come to rescue Ace, if he doesn't come, the Whitebeard Pirates will also lose face, and we will lose nothing.

But pirates are greedy, as long as he comes, other people will not let go of the opportunity of his territory to be empty. Stable, but wary of each other.

After killing Whitebeard, the morale of the navy can be improved. Although it will cost casualties, it is definitely worth it.

The three generals of the headquarters and the king Shichibukai, you have enough ability to deal with him. "

The judgment of the five old stars is reasonable to some extent, but the problem is that they don't know how many actors there are in the navy.

The factions of the navy are more complicated than they think. The justice in the eyes of the world government does not match the justice in the eyes of some generals.

"Is there no room for negotiation?"

"Warring States, you are the admiral of the navy, but only the admiral of the navy, do you understand?"

"I need the full support of the scientific troops. If I want to launch this kind of war, the current headquarters is not enough. You know how much damage Whitebeard's ability can cause."

Warring States didn't want to go to war at this time, but he was powerless to interfere with the decisions above. As a marshal, when the order was issued, all he could do was to carry out the task thoroughly.

"Of course, you can mobilize all resources. The World Government will cooperate with you in this regard. However, we can turn a blind eye to the Warring States and Karp's affairs, but don't let him do anything strange. You understand our the meaning of."

"clear."

Arranging tactics and coordinating subordinates, many things have to be arranged by Zhan Guo himself, and he has a bigger problem to solve.

After leaving the Red Earth Continent, he quickly returned to Marin Vanduo. He also saw Garp who had been waiting in his office for a long time. There were many senbei on the table. It can be seen that Garp was not in a good mood.

"how's it going?"

Facing Garp's question, Sengoku just shook his head. As an old comrade in arms for decades, Garp also understood what Sengoku meant.

"Why! There are so many pirates on the sixth floor, and those pirates have committed more serious crimes than Ace! They can all be imprisoned in Advance City, but can't Ace? Just because of his identity? Roger has so many Crew, why are you targeting Ace!"

"Garp, don't be like a child. This is a problem of the situation at sea, and it is also a problem of the relationship between Ace and Whitebeard. From the day he went to sea and became a pirate, this situation may have happened."

Speechless for a moment, after a brief silence, Garp walked out the door silently

Chapter 952: The supernovas of Chambord, Luo who doubts life

"Karp! Where are you going? This matter has been decided, and neither you nor I have the ability to change it!"

Warring States originally thought that there was still a chance to recover before the news of the war was published in the newspapers, but the resolute attitude of the world government was beyond his expectations. He knew very well that even if Karp went to Marie Gioia, it would be impossible to recover this matter.

"I'm just going to see him, as a grandfather. Arrange me a boat to Imperton, no problem?"

"I see."

Garp's steps are a bit heavy. He has always hoped that his grandson can become a navy, but he is not very good at teaching people. In other words, there are few people in this world who can educate the next generation. Growth depends entirely on himself.

At this time, the Warring States still believed in Garp's integrity, and felt that he would not do such outrageous things as robbery, so he let him go. He still would not stop this kind of visit.

And it's not easy to stop, if you don't feel at ease, then it's not easy for Garp to come forward during the war.

As a naval hero, Karp's absence from this war has a very serious impact on the morale of the army.

After Garp left, Marin Vanduo was also temporarily closed. People from the scientific troops were transforming the coastal forts and installing special equipment. The manufactured pacifists also began to be shipped to the Chambord Islands for the final pre-war test.

Chambord Islands, here is the same as usual, chaos and prosperity coexist, but the number of supernovas this year is a little more, and newcomers from all sea areas appear on this island of departure again, as if they had counted the time. , Lu Fei and others are naturally the same.

Although the news of Moria's defeat came out, the Straw Hat Pirates did not qualify for the bounty offered by all members. Although the bounty offered by him and Sauron was still over 100 million, it was not outstanding compared with the supernovas of the same class. There are also some unremarkable ones.

Now they are preparing for the coating of the ship, and they are also listening to Xia Qi's talk about the island, but they don't pay too much attention to it, but Hero listens with gusto.

On the other side, besides these supernovas, there are Iska and Lamy on the island.

"Sister Iska, Sister Misu has conveyed the news to me. The latest order from Ghost Island, the outside cadres hurry up to deal with the matter at hand, and then return to Ghost Island. It seems that there is going to be a big move."

"How is everything going?"

"Soon, it will be finished before dark today."

"Well, then let's get out of here after we've dealt with this matter. Today, this island makes me upset, and there are more annoying guys."

"Okay, I'll go to the restaurant over there to buy some food, come on kids, I'll take you to dinner."

It's the same as before, but now Lamy has matured a lot, and he has become more stable in doing things.

When I came to Chambord a few years ago, Lamy would also buy food from this restaurant.

It's just that the restaurant is going through some unbearable stress. novelUSB.com

People dressed as gangsters occupied a corner of the restaurant, and the leading man dressed like a godfather was eating, looking at the people around him with bored eyes.

"Vulgar woman, unappetizing, go and gag her."

Captain of the Flame Tank Pirates, gangster-Capone Becky, with a bounty of 138 million Baileys.

The person she despises as vulgar is another supernova, the captain of the Bonnie Pirates, Joelle Bonney, a girl with a big stomach, who has a bounty of 140 million Baileys. She is eating on the table with her pink hair.

"This can't be done, Godfather, this place is under the eyes of the Navy, if it causes a large-scale commotion"

The younger brother made some sense, but Becky still did it because the younger brother's dissuasion violated the rules of his gang.

At the same time, Bonnie was yelling for more food. The waiter in the restaurant bumped into someone else in a panic, and was immediately supported by Lamy who entered the restaurant.

"Be careful, Mr. Waiter."

"Thank you."

"Hey! What do you mean by buttoning spaghetti up my pants?"

Lamy supported the waiter, but the plate in his hand still flew onto someone else. On this day when all the pirates gathered, one pirate was caught by him just like that.

"Sir, it's not good to fight and kill. There are so many children here, can you not be too presumptuous?"

The pirate was about to draw his sword, but Lamy pushed it back all of a sudden, and dissuaded him with a kind smile.

"you!"

He is not a good man, and he doesn't care about children or not, but the strength in Lamy's hand prevents him from drawing his own weapon. Just when he wanted to take out other weapons, his own captain stopped him.

"Stop it."

"Captain?"

"The defeat rate is 100%, and the death rate is 100%. This is the future of your hands, and the death is already spinning on you."

Long blond hair, nail-like eyebrows, and a cross tattooed on his chest.

The captain of the Hawkins Pirates, the magician-Basil Hawkins, has a bounty of 249 million Baileys.

The most superstitious person in the supernova, he basically relies on his own divination to do things, and usually uses the results of divination to determine the next step.

The divination of the card gave him a very clear message that nothing will happen if you don't make a move, and the winning rate is zero. In this case, he will naturally stop his subordinates.

From a metaphysical point of view, he predicted Lamy's next plan. If the pirate continued to attack, Lamy would release the toxin he had prepared, causing him to die suddenly and inexplicably a few minutes later.

Looking at the Hawkins Pirates who were also dressed like a religious group, Lamy didn't say anything, but just packed a lot of food and left here.

It's just that the chaos is not only here, this restaurant can be said to be restrained, and outside, some people have already fought.

As far as the pirates are concerned, this is not surprising, fighting bravely is their normal state, but near these people, another spectator is rubbing his eyes.

"Captain, that woman looks a bit like you. If you are also a girl, you might be her sister."

"Captain? Captain? What's wrong with you?"

Xia Qi and Pei Jin joked about Luo, but Luo didn't respond, just stared at that face blankly.

"Sister Lamy, can I eat now?"

"Wait a minute, it's windy here, eating will hurt your stomach, just wait until you get on the boat."

The child's voice reached Luo's ears, and Lamy's voice also brought back Luo's memories.

"Wait, Rummy!"

"Huh? Who are you, do we know each other?"

Chapter 953: strange siblings

Lami's face is very different from when he was a child. Luo, who saw Lamy in the newspaper, couldn't be sure for a while whether it was his sister or not.

After that, Luo went through long preparations and finally entered the great route. During the voyage, he, like some others, became a collector of bounty orders, mainly collecting Lamy's bounty orders.

The people of the Arceus religion are generally relatively low-key outside. Except for extremely special circumstances, they will not participate in battles, and they will even take the initiative to fight against pirates. However, in the eyes of the world government and the navy, this is still a subordinate of the Hundred Beasts Pirates branch.

Lamy, who often followed Iska in Chambord, finally got a reward order. Even if she didn't kill many people, the ability to bring down a team of marines with a wave of her hand would scare people who didn't know.

She is a walking humanoid biochemical weapon. If it weren't for Quinn standing in front of her, Lamy might have received more attention.

Luo didn't know this, but found some clues through the reward order. Through the analysis of the photos, he refined Lamy's facial features into data, and then compared them with himself, and found some similarities.

This doesn't prove anything, but the overlapping data and the same name give him more hope.

It was a surprise to meet Lamy in Chambord Islands.

Xia Qi and Pei Jin didn't notice that Lamy was the woman on the reward order that Luo Tiantian paid attention to. In the photo of the reward order, Lamy was wearing casual clothes, but at this time Lamy was wearing a decent nun's attire.

According to Misu, she is already a qualified nun.

The style of the nun's clothing has not changed much, but the logo of the universe wrist has been subtly integrated into the neckline, cuffs and other positions.

If you look carefully, you can see that the metal decorations left on the clothes just form a simple thousand universe wrist.

The original designer of the costume was Misu, but then a starfish from Murloc Island made some suggestions and finally finalized the new religious costume.

The biggest change is the part of the headscarf. This wrapping method comes from the ancient Sinnoh region, which is similar to the female characters in the Xicui version.

After a big change in her costume, people who don't pay attention to her can't recognize her at all. In this world where face blindness is common, it's not easy for Pei Jin and Xia Qi to feel that they have a little similarity.

【Who are you? 】

"I"

These three words made Luo feel cold. He was about to reveal his identity, but was interrupted by Lamy, and what Lamy said made him hope again.

"Ah, I remembered who you are. The captain of the Heart Pirates, Trafalgar Law, has a bounty of 200 million Baileys."

The hope that had just been ignited was extinguished again. With a few short words, Lamy made Luo experience the ups and downs of life. At first, he was unfamiliar. Later, Luo thought that the other party recognized him, but it turned out to be such a title.

Recognition is recognized, but this method is not what Luo hoped, and his sister would not use this method to call herself.

Taking a few deep breaths, Luo calmed down his excitement. He thought about many possible situations, and there were probably worse ones than this.

It is still not 100% sure that Lamy is Lamy, and Luo will not lose his composure directly.

"May I interrupt you for a few minutes, Miss Remy?"

"Not interested, I have nothing to talk about with you."

"Wait a minute, I just want to know about your relationship with Sister Missu"

Seeing that Lamy was about to leave directly, Luo directly said Misu's name.

In the state where Lamy's specific situation is not clear, this is the only survivor of Frevans other than himself that he knows.

"Do you know Sister Missu? Are you a child she took care of outside?"

Different from Lamy, although Misu has a higher status in Arceus, she has not been offered a reward. Most of her participation is in secret operations, and there is very little intersection with the navy.

Even people from the Navy Dojo used to have little impression of this because of the Seven Star Sword. Not many people outside know the name Misu.

She thought that Luo had been favored by Misu, and because of the sect's clothing, she recognized that she and Misu belonged to the same sect, so she stopped her.

"Well, I was born in Frevance, and I have listened to nuns before."

Luo said Frevans' name word by word, carefully observing Lamy's reaction.

"Eh? Are you also from Frevance? That's great. The nun must be very happy to know. She always thought that there were no survivors in Frevance."

"and you."

"Huh? I am the adopted daughter of a nun. She adopted me outside and gave me a home at that time."

Due to platinum lead poisoning, Lamy suffered from severe amnesia at the time, and could not remember what happened before.

In order to prevent Lamy from being immersed in grief, Misu fabricated a false life experience and let Lamy start his new life.

Misu doesn't care about the pirate information from the outside world, and never noticed Luo's news, so he never mentioned this kind of thing to Lamy.

Even the previous things have been vague, so Lamy didn't know when Misu began to believe in Arceus, and didn't notice what Frevans in Luo's words meant.

In Lamy's perception, he is just an orphan adopted by Misu.

"What about your first name? No, what about your last name? And don't you have a brother or something?"

Lami's previous words made Luo feel that something was wrong, so he didn't say abruptly that he might be her brother.

If the Lamy in front of him is his sister, it is obvious that he has lost that memory, and the sudden stimulation may have a bad effect, so Luo is only slowly inducing Lamy.

"No, Mr. Pirate.

Rami is the name given to me by the nun. You are a bit strange. If you are concerned about the nun, then I will say hello to the nun for you.

If you have the ability and can pass the review, you can join us. "

Recruiting newcomers for the Pirates is not what Lamy does. Misu helps many people outside, and if he doesn't have this relationship, he can directly join them.

Gululu.

A stomach growl sounded into Lamy's ears. Looking at the drooling children beside her, she knew that she had delayed too long.

"I still have something to do. If there is a chance, see you in the new world, Mr. Pirate."

Lamy wanted to leave, and Luo certainly would not let go of the opportunity that came so hard. He wanted to make it clear that he did not believe that Misu would specially adopt a girl who was somewhat similar to his sister at that time, and give her a named his sister.

But before he could continue to ask, the wall next to him burst suddenly, and a large number of tiles flew towards this side

"careful!"

With a snap of his fingers, a hemispherical space enveloped the nearby area. In Luo's heart, Lamy was probably his sister. Even if he hadn't confirmed it yet, a desire to protect him arose in his heart, wanting to transfer Lamy to a safe place. The place.

As for the kids next to her.

Luo didn't care, he was no longer that innocent child.

People will always change. Luo's original dream was very ordinary, wanting to become a great doctor like his father.

But after the Freyfans incident, when his family and classmates died, he had a nervous breakdown and became ruthless.

The goal of living is to take revenge on the world and destroy everything in the last time.

Rosinanti's gentleness redeemed him, and Luo began to cherish his partners in his later life, but the coldness in his heart did not dissipate. He didn't want to do anything to people who had nothing to do with him and could not bring any benefits.

He could only transfer one person at the first time, and of course he would protect the person suspected of being his sister, but an embarrassing problem came up.

When he successfully used the room slaughterhouse to move Lamy, bringing her to a safe position, but at the next moment, Lamy returned to the position just now, and she grabbed all the bricks and rubble in her hands.

"Captain, she seems to be better than you."

Luo didn't care about his subordinates' complaints, but looked at Lamy's wrist exposed due to the increased range of motion, and a faint birthmark came into view.

That was the same birthmark as her biological sister. With this birthmark, coupled with that special relationship, he had already identified her as his sister.

But when everything came to fruition, he didn't want to forcefully recognize each other.

If Lamy still remembers himself, the situation will be different, but at this time Lamy is obviously in a state of amnesia and has no memory of himself.

And he has something to do, he has a huge hatred with Doflamingo, and he wants to avenge Rosindi.

If not, then the recognition of Lamy will only increase the sadness. It is enough for him to be sure that his sister is still alive and seems to be living well.

The matter of meeting each other, let's wait until he defeats Doflamingo.

"It's so cool, sister Lamy, you are so amazing!"

"Sister Lamy, you are so strong, can you even crush bricks?"

In the eyes of the children in the slums, the image of Lamy who brought them food and protected them is constantly rising.

"You can do it after you study. Now go to the boat with these two uncles and go to find sister Iska, okay? My sister will go find you soon."

Lamy waved and called a few employees of Baishou Fruit who were watching the excitement.

Bricks and rubble don't fly out of nowhere, the restaurant next door exploded just now, and that's why this happened.

Ordinary people have already fled to the surroundings, but the employees of Baishou Fruit are used to it. They wanted to see what kind of stunned youths were fighting here, and Lamy happened to see it.

Because they often come to Chambord for operations, the employees here are very familiar with Lamy and Iska, and it is no problem to order some small things.

The situation here is no longer suitable for children to stay, so let them leave first.

"Ok~"

Amid a burst of responses, they left with the staff of Beast Fruit, and Lamy looked at Luo. Now she felt that Luo was a little strange. His goal seemed not to say hello to the nun, but himself.

In order to prevent Luo Bo from getting involved with those children, she did not leave with them.

"Mr. Pirate, your method of striking up conversations is not very good."

"Cough, cough, strike up a conversation?!"

Luo was almost choked to death by his own saliva. Lamy's words allowed him to break through the defense in advance without meeting Luffy. After all, it's not a good experience to be picked up by his own sister.

But in the eyes of Lamy, a strange man who has nothing to do with him suddenly finds a reason to talk, which can only be regarded as striking up a conversation.

"Isn't it? I'm not interested in your type at all."

"That's really a pity"

Luo did not argue, but followed what Lamy said.

Boom!

Originally, Luo wanted to find out more about Lamy's situation, but there was a bigger explosion on the wall next to him. This time it was no longer ordinary rubble, but a big hole was directly blown out, and a figure came out of it. flew out.

"If you want to fight, come out and accompany me, you don't know how powerful I am?!"

A long-handed clan yelled at the hole in the wall. He was also one of the supernovas, the captain of the Radio Pirates - Hai Ming - Skulachman Apu, and offered a bounty of 198 million Baileys.

He was just eating in a restaurant, but when he disagreed with someone, he started a fight. To be precise, it was because he and the person didn't like each other, which led to the current situation.

"Then don't stare at me, you disgusting guy, I can kill you right now!"

Apu's opponent also came out of the tavern. He has red hair and is still a healthy person for the time being.

The captain of the Kidd Pirates - Ustaki Kidd, has a bounty of 315 million Baileys. He is also the man with the highest bounty among these supernovas.

"Captain! You can't do anything, this is Chambord!"

"Mr. App! Calm down!"

Seeing that their boss was about to fight, their younger brothers began to dissuade them one after another. Making too much noise in the Shampoo field is not good for anyone.

It's just that the supernovas who can go here are the thorns among the thorns, and not all people can think calmly.

A magnetic force condensed in Kidd's hands, and the knives and forks in the restaurant, as well as the surrounding metal objects, flew towards Apu after being controlled by him.

He is a magnetic man who ate the superman-magic fruit. He can create a magnetic field, magnetize metal objects and manipulate them.

In terms of personality, Kidd is the cruelest of the supernovas this year. He is easily irritable because of trivial things. His attacks don't care about the people around him. The flying knives and forks also included Lamy and Luo in the attack range.

It is not difficult to dodge this kind of attack with their skills. Normally, Luo would not be angry because of this kind of thing at all, and he would still greet Kidd with a smile, but this time it was different, seeing the indiscriminate attack Kidd, Luo felt angry in his heart.

"ROOM!"

The space of the fruit of the operation unfolded again, and Luo had already drawn his knife and slashed at Kidd who planned to continue attacking Apu.

Although Kidd dodged the slash, he also had a bad premonition in his heart when he saw the floating stones behind him.

"Baton!"

Luo raised his finger upwards, and a large number of stone tables and chairs flew towards Kidd from behind, as if they were about to bury him alive. At the same time, a rotating scimitar also slashed at Luo, and a thick pillar hit the person who wanted to kill Luo again.

The peaceful scene dissipated in an instant, turning into a chaotic battlefield gathering forces from all sides.

Chapter 955: There are two kinds of red hair, one is called red hair, and the other is called base hair.

The one who attacked Luo was Kira, a member of the Kidd Pirates, with a bounty of 162 million Baileys, and the one who attacked Kira was Urki, the captain of the Pirates who broke the precepts, the strange monk, with a bounty 108 million Baileys.

The character of the captain will determine the style of his subordinates. The pirates under Hawkins are dressed like a religious order, Becky's subordinates are all mafia costumes, and Luo's subordinates also have uniform costumes.

This is only the appearance that can be seen, and there are more invisible behavior styles that have a greater impact, such as the aggressiveness of the Kidd Pirates. When Kidd and Apu disliked, Urki and Kira He also moved his hands, and gradually approached Kidd.

Urki is huge but not as flexible as Kira. After Kira found out about Luo's behavior, he left Urki and turned to attack Luo. Urki felt very uncomfortable and naturally followed.

"You are not allowed to attack Kidd!"

"Where are you looking? Masked bastard! Your opponent is me!"

Boom!

The pillar in Urki's hand did not hit Kira, but hit the ground beside him. Kira swung the sickle in his hand and slashed at Urki behind him.

The blade scraped a series of sparks on Urki's pillar, forcing Urki to temporarily let go of his weapon and punch Kira with his fist.

This punch should not have hit, but when Kira attacked Luo, he had already entered Luo's domain. With a wave of Luo's finger, Kira's position changed, and Urba's punch that should have missed was right in the middle bullseye.

"Is the cooperation good, do you want to join hands to solve these guys?"

An enemy's enemy is a friend, Kan Luo took the initiative to cooperate with him, and Urki immediately proposed to join forces.

"Ah ba ba ba ba, do you want to deal with that guy? Then count me in, I've seen him upset for a long time."

Luo hadn't given an answer yet, but Apu on the side came up. He was the one who started the fight with Kidd, so naturally he wouldn't let this opportunity pass.

"I just want to teach him a lesson."

Looking at Lamy, who was tilting his head to watch the excitement, Luo intended to leave a better impression and didn't want to be too violent, but he didn't want to, which didn't mean Kidd agreed.

"Trafalgar! You bastard!"

Kidd, who was buried in the ruins, also crawled out at this time, looked at Kira who had been punched by Urki, and then looked at Luo who attacked him, Kidd, who was already in a bad mood, became even more angry .

"Joining forces? If that's the case, you all should die for me!"

Seeing the three captains who intend to join forces, Kidd is not only not afraid, but instead starts to attract the surrounding weapons, the metal is gradually gathered by him, and finally forms two hideous mechanical arms.

In terms of bravery and recklessness, Kidd is not inferior to anyone. In the original timeline, he dared to provoke the red-haired person shortly after entering the new world, and lost an arm without even seeing him.

Then he met Kaido again, Lei Ming and gossip failed to convince him, and he also showed confidence in the battle on Onijima, and challenged the red hair again.

He didn't realize that even in the battle with Big Mom, the main output is Luo. He lost the camp buffs of Straw Hat Luffy and Good Boy Oden, and he is not the opponent of the real Four Emperors at all.

Facing the red-haired man, he acted very bravely, and played gg under the shelter of God.

He who has not experienced severe beatings is even braver. Even if these people really join forces, he will dare to try.

"Miss Lamy, this is not a safe place, why don't I send you out of here first."

"Is this the follow-up to your flirtation? These people seem to know you."

"I think you misunderstood Miss Ramy"

Rami was just joking. When she saw the awkward and helpless expression on Luo's face, she thought it was very funny and had an inexplicable sense of familiarity, so she simply joked with him a few more words.

Lami doesn't think he has the kind of charm that makes others unable to extricate themselves at a glance.

"Don't flirt with me there! If you have the ability to block all the attacks!"

Kidd's hands began to close together, and the two mechanical arms also slapped in the direction of Lamy and others. Although Urki and Apu both proposed to join forces, they both chose to avoid rather than defend at this time.

The most lacking thing in the Pirate Alliance is trust. Even if they have a common enemy, they will be wary of each other. It is not a moment of life and death, and they will not help withstand attacks at all.

Luo Gang wanted to transfer Lamy as before, but Lamy stopped him in advance.

"Mr. Pirate, it's very rude to always use your ability on others."

Rami's finger liquefied, and a few drops of colored liquid were thrown out of her hand, and dropped on Kidd's mechanical arm impartially.

At the moment of contact with those metals, a large amount of foam began to grow and Kidd's mechanical arm turned into nothingness in the blink of an eye, leaving only a liquid with a pungent smell.

"What?!"

"Ironphagus."

One of the bacteria bred in Alola's smelly mud, the special metal-eating bacteria faced Kidd's mechanical arm, and this bacteria just happened to be able to counter it.

At first it was an accidental injury, Lamy didn't care, but Kidd took the initiative to attack her, she won't save face for the other party, also has red hair, he didn't eat the fruit of face, and he didn't have that strength.

Before Kidd could react, Lamy came up to him with a razor, and slapped Kidd lightly on the face in front of several pirate groups.

The direct damage is not high, but the insult has reached the extreme.

Being slapped in the face by a woman in public is a great shame to Kidd. Everyone in the Kidd Pirates thought that Kidd was about to explode, but Kidd didn't say anything.

"Kidd, Kidd, what's wrong with you?!"

Kira just wanted to ask Kidd about his plan, but found that Kidd's face had a touch of turquoise, and his eyes were bloodshot, no matter how much they shouted, there was no response.

"Stop!"

Kira wanted to stop Rami, but his body also stiffened.

"Ah la la, I'm sorry, I forgot to mention the name of the move. Your captain has been poisoned by me, and it will be relieved in an hour or two when his physique recovers. Remember not to touch him, or it will be contagious.

Moses Moses, Uncle Tiger? What's matter? "

While speaking, Lamy picked up the phone, and walked in the direction where the children left just now.

The captain and deputy of the Kidd Pirates were frozen at this moment, and the rest of the men didn't know what to do, so they had to stand still and watch the other pirates around vigilantly.

Others did not dare to take a step closer to Lamy. The pirate who offered a bounty of 315 million Baileys was knocked down by her with a slap in the face. This has long been beyond the knowledge of these pirates.

Even Drake, who was hiding in the dark and looking for opportunities to show his presence in front of the beasts, was stunned. This was completely different from what he thought.

Chapter 956: Introversion is not friendly to undercover, Kidd to Drake

Drake's undercover journey has just begun, and the introversion of beasts has led to an increase in overall strength. This is not good news for the Navy and Drake who is about to go undercover.

If you want to find out key information, you have to find a way to enter the high-level of Beasts, and it becomes more difficult to enter the high-level under the huge involution environment of Beasts.

Drake's current bounty has a lot to do with the Warring States Period. With his help, he, a fallen rear admiral, can quickly become a supernova and reach the Chambord Islands.

But that's not enough. Drake's reward is only his graduation diploma. With this thing, he has a stepping stone to join the beasts. The ability of the ancient species means that he is a professional counterpart, but that's all.

A young man who just graduated has a huge disadvantage compared to the young man cultivated by Beast himself.

And in the ever-increasing era of great pirates, there are more and more pirates with the same level as him, which makes Drake's competition more intense.

When he found the hands of Beasts in Chambord, he planned to take the opportunity to brush up his presence and make those "interviewers" more familiar with him, which would be beneficial for later actions.

So when the conflict just broke out, he has been hiding in the dark with a mentality of watching a show, waiting for the opportunity to make a move.

But the facts dealt him a painful blow. Although Lamy slapped Kidd on the face, the damage was simultaneously felt in Drake's heart.

"Two attacks. No, just one hit defeated the bounty criminal with the highest bounty?"

The first shot corroded Kidd's metal arm, and the second time directly made Kidd stiff. This is one of the few performances of Lamy, and it also made Drake realize for the first time that the beasts of this giant How many monsters are there under his command?

"Captain Drake, is that woman a pirate from the new world?"

Drake's subordinates don't know the specific situation of Drake. In their eyes, Drake is a former rear admiral who betrayed the navy, and because of his status as a former rear admiral, he knows much more than those fledgling pirates.

"Yes, a member of the Beast Pirates, the religious force under their command, the poisonous nun-Rami, has a bounty of 165 million Baileys."

Drake's goal is to undercover Beasts. In order to find opportunities, he has a certain impression of famous people among Beasts.

"100 million. She just killed the 300 million Kidd directly."

"The bounty doesn't fully represent strength, but this woman... the Navy may really underestimate her."

Listening to the complaints of his subordinates, Drake didn't know what to say. The Navy's intelligence department is a bit unreliable, but there are usually merits in the formulation of bounties.

Ramy's ability is not simple, but compared to Jack who is looking for fights everywhere, Kaido who always makes big news, and Quinn who makes a lot of troubles from time to time, Lamy is not so scary.

In addition, she is just a nun, and what she usually does is not fighting and killing. Even the navy has no casualties in her hands, so the bounty is not terrible.

In the new world, Lamy's ability performance is not too terrifying. People with strong physique and arrogance can resist the toxins she releases, but it is different here. She is just like Quinn. The weaker the enemy, the more terrifying her expressiveness.

If Kidd met a fighting faction like Batman, he could still fight for a few rounds with his ability, even Iska might be able to be a sandbag for a while, but he happened to meet Rummy.

"Captain, the girl you strike up with seems to be not easy"

"I told you I'm not flirting with you!"

The timing of Luo's breakout is constantly being advanced, but looking at the stiff Kidd, Luo's heart is actually very complicated.

He is delighted that Lamy has such strength, which means that Lamy's life will be safer in the future. At the same time, he feels sorry for Lamy's experience. He doesn't know what Lamy has gone through to change from a crybaby to today. This way.

"Captain Hawkins, is that why you stopped me?"

Drake was not the only one watching the excitement, the Hawkins Pirates were also watching the situation in the tavern.

Just about to make a move, but the pirate who was stopped by Hawkins felt a little weak. Even the brutal Kidd was killed in seconds. If he made a move, he might not know what the result would be.

"This is fate, you don't have to worry, you don't have a dead face on your face, but it's different for others."

Several straws protruded from Hawkins' body, and several cards floated in mid-air under the control of the straws. Hawkins was also silently changing the positions of the cards.

"What are you talking about?"

"The probability of conflict is 99.5%, the mortality rate is 50%, and the success rate of escape is 69.6%. Half of his body has the appearance of death."

Metaphysics may not be credible, but compared with the words of my grandmother in my hometown, it is relatively reliable. When Hawkins' divination ended, Kidd moved again.

Poof! puff!

A few clusters of blood exploded on Kidd's arms. It was not the enemy's attack, but an internal explosion, which caused his blood vessels to burst. As the blood flowed all over his arms, his body actually moved again. stand up.

"Magnetism. Reflection!"

The remaining metal around was once again attracted by his ability, and bounced towards Lamy.

However, Lamy is not even interested in resisting. Although she is an "animal-type" ability user, she has a "natural-type" mud body, which makes her basically invincible in the first half.

"I have underestimated the physique and perseverance of these newcomers. It seems that the toxicity has been reduced too much."

Lami can control the intensity of her own poison. She just wanted to teach these people a lesson, and she didn't want to create a biohazard in Shampoo Land, so she diluted her poison.

It's just that she underestimated Kidd's physique so much that Kidd still has the ability to resist.

While Lamy was thinking about whether to give Kidd a hard time, a blue figure appeared in front of her.

Clang!

Drake, who was originally watching the show in the corner, suddenly appeared on the track of Kidd's attack, and bounced off Kidd's attack towards Rami.

"Go to the new world to fight again, don't make trouble here!"

This is his superficial reason. The Chambord Islands are too close to the Navy headquarters. If there is a big commotion, it will not be good for everyone. Moreover, it can give a sense of presence in front of Lamy. At this time, he is a little grateful Kidd's impulsiveness gave him a chance to feel his presence.

For this reason, he even made a cool gesture, but the development of the matter once again exceeded his expectations.

He didn't wait for Lamy's question, but instead waited for Luo's knife.

"Trafalgar Law, this is not a place to fight, don't you understand?"

"You don't need to teach me how to do things. I just want to kill you because I see you are upset."

Chapter 957: Messed up shampoo

Luo is very upset, very upset. In his mind, Drake has been dissected by him several times.

I talked to Lamy because it might be my own sister, and Luo also confirmed this in the follow-up conversation, but what is Drake doing?

Playing handsome in front of his sister, what does this guy want to do? !

"Trafalgar, I didn't come to fight."

"I didn't want to fight, I just wanted to kill you."

He has also commented on his supernovas of the same period. According to his analysis, Kidd and his gang are the most unstable factors. Luo is more scheming, but relatively calm. He should know the result of his actions in Chambord.

As a result, Luo looked more like a lunatic after he made the move. On the contrary, Kidd did not continue to do it due to physical reasons, but just watched the other pirates around vigilantly.

Seeing Luo Fei's unreasonable look, Drake's anger also came up. He is not a pirate, but a sword's undercover agent. It's not good to see these pirates. If Luo Fei wants to fight, he doesn't mind. , just to show their own value.

But just when he was about to transform himself and let the future "examiner" see his "professional certificate", he found that Lamy had already left, leaving only a back, and he didn't care about them at all.

And from the beginning to the end, Lamy was just on the phone and never looked at him.

"This is different from what I thought"

With the Beasts gone, it would be meaningless for him to fight. He seldom contacted the Navy Headquarters, but not long ago, the Navy Headquarters sent him a message, asking him not to delay, let alone break out in Chambord. Enter the new world as soon as possible to find opportunities.

There was no information disclosed, but he also understood that the navy might have some big moves, so he came out to mediate the battle.

It's a pity that he doesn't have the face of red hair, or Luo, who is already in the top, doesn't intend to give him this face.

The most calm and persuasive fights started, let alone other pirates. A big melee between supernovas broke out on the Chambord Islands. It was not until the arrival of the Tianlong people that they temporarily ceased fighting. Finally, each leave.

Provoking the Celestial Dragons will provoke the admirals. This is no secret in the sea. Most people still care about this, even these supernovas.

"Uncle Tiger, I'm sorry, I have something to say just now, you can continue talking."

"Well, as I said before, something happened on Murloc Island, and there might be something wrong with a mermaid.

Olga's Rotom is turned off, and I don't have her phone number, so I can't reach her.

According to the itinerary, she should join you soon, so let her help you when the time comes. "

Rotom's mobile phone has a shutdown function, unless it comes from the highest authority, that is, the contact from Arceus can forcibly wake up the shutdown Rotom, other people cannot contact the person whose mobile phone is switched off.

From the perspective of beating workers, this design is very inhumane, but except for very special cases, this authority has never been used. Arceus has no intention of waking up people to work overtime at three o'clock in the morning.

"Understood, there are still two hours before the rendezvous time, I will tell Miss Olga at that time."

"Big Sister" and "Sister" don't mean the same thing. In the world of pirates, Big Sister is a title of status, and Sister is an intimate relationship. Due to Olga's age and appearance, the seniority of the Beasts It's been a mess.

It's just that the pirates don't care about this issue. When the difference in strength is obvious enough, and the two sides have no close personal contact, even if they are old enough to be grandpas, they have to call each other big brother.

When Lamy returned to the boat, Olga had already arrived at the meeting point ahead of time, and she was lying carelessly on the rocking chair. According to her own statement, she was over two hundred years old, and it was very reasonable to support her.

Unlike other pirates who have to take care of their own ships, Olga's Shadow Fox parked majestically on the commercial pier, but the people around turned a blind eye to it. Under the influence of the illusion, this place was no longer what they thought it was. pier.novelus&.Com

"Big sister Olga, sister Iska."

"Come back? I heard that you played with those newcomers for a while?"

"They're all weirdos, and few seem normal."

By the way, Sister Olga, Uncle Tiger just sent me a message, saying that a merman is missing here, and I want you to help find it. This is the specific information that has been sent to your mobile phone. You first Take a look. "

Rami repeated Tiger's words, and reminded Olga to check her inbox.

"Tiger? Why didn't he contact me directly?"

Listening to Lamy's words, Olga called Elizabeth who was on the side, and rummaged through the backpack on her back.

"Your phone is turned off and he can't find you"

"Oh, it was shut down at Hancock before, no wonder it feels like something is missing recently."

As Olga's Rotom phone was turned on again, Rotom who was boarding inside also yawned and greeted. The reason why I have not contacted Olga.

"Oh, did the mermaid who followed that starfish get lost? It's been so many years, why is she still so careless? I remember it was called Kemi, right? Her confused personality still hasn't improved."

Today's Fishman Island is different from the past. Under the strong blows of Tiger and Jinbe, the missing persons in Fishman Island have almost disappeared.

Through Tiger's prestige, the murloc murlocs from Murloc Street formed a special **** team. Apart from joining the mining company's mining operations, they also patrolled the safety of Murloc Island.

But Murloc Island is not a prison. Neither Otohime nor Neptune has imprisoned all citizens in Murloc Island. Whether it is Mermaid or Murloc, it is their freedom to go out.

Kemi didn't intentionally go to a dangerous place. The safety education on Murloc Island is still in place, and both New Murloc Island and Mandelfish's territory are safe tourist destinations, so there's no need to go to Chambord Land for adventure.

But her character is always in a daze, and she is always swallowed by sea beasts without paying attention. It is also a coincidence that she can come here.

The changes in Murloc Island have caused the price of mermaids to soar. It is rare for human traffickers to find mermaids, so of course they will not miss this opportunity.

Pappagu, a very magical starfish, was swallowed together with her. Because she recognized herself as a human being, she learned the human language without knowing it, and even possessed wisdom not weaker than human beings.

Because of participating in the costume design of the Arceus religion, Papagu had Tiger's contact information in his hand, and this indirectly contacted Olga.

"Miss Olga, where should we find her?"

"The population auction house, if something happens to her, she will definitely be there."

Chapter 958: Beast pot culture

"Didn't Ms. Yamato burn all these things at the Population Auction House?"

"Yeah, and I have done this kind of thing, but it is useless. The profit makes these people crazy. Even if these things are completely destroyed, it will not be long before a new population auction house will be born.

The root here is already rotten, and if it is not completely cured, it is useless to remove more bad leaves. "

Olga regularly cleans up a group of human traffickers every year, but this kind of behavior only treats the symptoms but not the root cause. For the sake of profit, some people always go this way, enslaving weaker compatriots in exchange for their own interests.

The Chambord Islands are right under the eyes of the world government. The existence of a population auction house means that this is a matter of acquiescence by the world government. After all, the place with the most slaves in the world is not elsewhere, but the Holy Land-Marie Gioia.

"Those Tianlong people are easy to fool. I think about which vest is better to use this time."

As she grew up, Olga wore more and more vests. Some of the famous pirates killed by her would not be able to survive after death. Olga would often put on vests to carry out some secret operations, which made the navy very confused. .

Some actions Olga did so seamlessly that no one would doubt her, but as long as they did it, traces would eventually be left, and sometimes their vests would reveal some flaws.

Her ability is an illusion, which is not a secret in the eyes of the navy, but her illusion is too real, and the people in the navy cannot be sure whether it is an illusion or the real person, and in the end they can only do both.

"Wait, don't follow me, go back to the voyage first. Recently, except for the cadres stationed on the island, other cadres have been recruited to return to Ghost Island. It is estimated that something big will happen.

I am enough here alone in Shampoo, you guys take these little guys back first. "

Too many subordinates means little to Olga, and it is the most suitable place for her to play without a friendly army in the whole field. NovEplus.com

Neither she nor Quinn can match Jhin in duels, whether it is individual defense, attack, or speed.

Even in terms of skills, Jhin is far ahead of her and Quinn, but in group battles, Jhin is not as good as the two of them. This is the difference brought about by abilities.

Under Olga's arrangement, Lamy and Iska returned early with their newly adopted child, while she and Elizabeth headed for the Population Auction House.

"Where did Papagu go? Isn't he Kemi's master? Why did he disappear at this time?"

"I didn't notice. He seems to have gone to that luxury store to borrow the phone bug. Leave him alone and find a way to get Kemi back. There are still a lot of bonuses and treasures left from the last competition. It should be Enough."

Luffy and others are discussing how to save Kemi. From most people's perspective, these people are just pirates. They can't flaunt justice, but they are a group of qualified friends.

Even if they just met by chance, they didn't leave. Instead, they came to the Population Auction House after inquiring about the news.

And at the back of the auction house, a group of strange people also appeared here. People from the Heart Pirates and the Kidd Pirates came here with some mentality, but they all seemed to be injured.

Kidd's arms are covered with bandages, Luo's face is covered with a Band-Aid, and Kira's neck is also wrapped with a bandage. It doesn't look very good.

The previous chaos caused injuries to almost everyone involved in the supernovas, especially Kidd and Kira. They almost got trapped in it after attracting a lot of firepower. If it weren't for the appearance of the Celestial Dragons, they might not be able to escape so quickly.

At this time, Kidd was glaring at Luo, as if he wanted to kill him with his eyes, but Luo completely ignored Kidd and looked at the slaves being auctioned on the stage with a little playfulness.

The mermaid as the finale was not pushed out until the end, and Olga also came backstage at this time. Her idea was very simple, leaving an illusion, and then getting people away without anyone noticing.

By the time those people reacted, she had already left with Cammy.

It was just because the phone was turned off, she came a little late. When she came here, all she saw was an old man with white hair.

"Hey, I said that the backstage of this auction is so strong? Even people like you can be caught?"

"What are you talking about? I'm just an ordinary old man. I sold myself because I had no money to drink."

"Is Shirbazz Raleigh, the king of the underworld, an ordinary old man? You are really wicked.

If you are really an ordinary old man, seeing me suddenly appear in front of you, shouldn't you panic or call for help? "

Others can't recognize it, but Olga has seen this face in the information. The former deputy captain of the Roger Pirates, known as the "right arm of the One Piece", is not an auction house even if he is old. Can handle it.

"What about you? Kaido's disaster is also like this old man, come here to find pocket money?"

"Who's the amount."

The guard behind found Olga who was showing her figure, but before he could speak, the transparent tail blade penetrated his skull and his brainstem, and Elizabeth also released the invisible posture.

"Olga, the man is at the front."

"Come on, you can play your game here, I want to see which unlucky guy will buy you."

"I said, shouldn't you respect the elderly and help me untie this explosive collar?"

"Not interested, you can play slowly."

Olga's appearance was just to say hello to this living senior, and to familiarize herself with his way of speaking so that she could wear his vest in the future. After achieving her goal, she walked directly to the front of the stage.

It's just that when she walked out, the auction house was already in chaos. As a Celestial Dragon, Charros had already been knocked down by Luffy at this time, and the reason for the knockdown was very simple. He saw Helo This cherished pet wants to **** it away.

Originally because he bought Kemi, Luffy was very upset to see him, but now he wants to **** Helo, so naturally Luffy will not be polite to him.

"Interesting, this year's rookies are really courageous, they dare to beat Tianlongren like this, it makes my hands itch."

Beating a Tianlongren is the dream of many people, but most people don't have the courage, but now, the opportunity has come.

"There are still two Celestial Dragons, Elizabeth, do you want to beat one?"

"you mean"

"Anyway, someone has already made a move. If this is the case, it's useless to beat him."

Beasts has two traditions, one of which is to pick up children, and this tradition is still going on today.

As for another tradition, it is to throw the blame. Someone will always take the blame for no reason, such as Luffy who was selected by Olga at this time.

Chapter 959: Illusion, sleepwalking, acting as an ape, Uncle Xiong

In this sea, hated characters abound.

Pirates, bandits, mafia, scum in the navy, enemy invasion, for the residents living on the island, these armed forces can bring endless troubles and disasters.

But it can make residents all over the world feel disgusted, and there is only one group of people who dare not speak out-Dragon people.

The navy of the four seas has to be careful to expose what they want to do. Bandits and pirates will be arrested, but Tianlong people are different. Everything they do is legal. They have the world government to endorse them, and the entire navy acts as a backing, so that people simply can't afford them.

When seeing a Celestial Dragon, they either try to hide or kneel down respectfully. This is one of the few reactions that ordinary people can make.

Even if someone beats the person next to Tianlongren, the reaction is to run, for fear of getting burned.

As for the Pirates of the Four Emperors, they are not afraid of the Celestial Dragons, but they are not interested in provoking them. Before the table is completely turned, the two sides usually do not interfere with each other. Even those Celestial Dragons will not go to the New World to be demons.

Marie Joya still has people who can control these Tianlong people. Letting them provoke those sea emperors will not do any good to the Tianlong people.

The upper echelons of the Tianlong people still have brains. The managers of several families are thinking about the future. Otherwise, Tezolo would not be able to go so smoothly. It is very difficult to negotiate conditions with idiots.

Olga is the one who doesn't need to consider the consequences when she goes out to do things. Anyway, she has a lot of vests. As long as it doesn't cause a worldwide chain reaction, the price is nothing to her.

As long as the Tianlong people are not dead, the most they get beaten is to attract the admiral, and someone has already done it first. She beats two more, and the result is the same.

"I'm not interested, but take it easy, it should be troublesome to kill with one punch."

"It's okay, it's okay, don't you see that fat man is quite resistant to beatings, the one in the straw hat was punched in the face and deformed, and he didn't die."

The current Tianlong people are basically too bad to be evaluated, but their ancestors are different, they can establish a world government, and the first 20 kings still have their own abilities.

Luffy did not hold back his angry punch. For him, as long as he is his partner, it is worth his full effort.

A person who wants to take his partner, no matter who he is, is his enemy.

That punch would punch a big hole in the wall. Charlos just lost consciousness, and his body's ability to resist blows was pretty good.

A dark purple energy spread from Olga's feet to the surroundings, gradually covering the population auction house. After that, everyone in the auction house saw an unimaginable scene in this life.

"Is that guy crazy?! He beat up three Celestial Dragons in succession!"

Kidd in the auction room almost dropped his jaw in shock. At first he thought he was fearless enough, but there was another one who was reckless. It can be said that he was angry when he beat the first Tianlongren, but he couldn't see the other two. understood.

"There is no difference, anyway, whether you beat one or three, the result is the same, but if you do this, the admiral will come soon."

"What the hell, leave Kira, we have to get out of here before the admiral gets here."

Luo also made the same move as Kidd, and even the Straw Hats fell into confusion.

"Luffy! Why did you beat up three people in a row!"

"Huh? That guy wants to buy Kemi, and he also wants to steal Helo, and I obviously only beat one, and the other two haven't done anything yet. Did you beat him?"

Looking at Roswald and Charulia with broken glass hoods, Luffy denied what he just did.

"Xiao Feng, did you become me and beat them up?"

"No, although I really wanted to beat them up, but I didn't do this kind of thing, and I also saw that it was you, the little straw hat, who beat up the three of them by yourself."

"Yeah, you just ignored our words and beat the three of them to the ground very badly. Now we should take Kemi and get out."

Sanji lit a cigarette and began to think about where to go next. Olga's illusion is not an illusion that acts on the consciousness of others, but a real illusion that acts on reality.

The Straw Hats don't have the ability to distinguish this illusion. In their view, it was Luffy who really beat these three people.

"Really. Could it be that. I just fell asleep?!"

Listening to what his partner said, Luffy fell into self-doubt, and after a short period of doubt, he came up with a logic that normal people could not come up with. He thought that he might have beaten the remaining two Celestial Dragons together while sleepwalking.

"How is it possible!" xN

"Wait! Kemi is gone!"

The Straw Hats couldn't understand Luffy's logic at all, and Nami also discovered that Kemi, who was originally placed on the auction block, had disappeared at some point.

At the same time, a giant suddenly walked out of the background, and scattered slaves also fled in different directions. Only Rayleigh, who had untied his collar, was attracted by Luffy's straw hat.

"If you are looking for that mermaid, she has already been rescued. The Murloc Island is protected by Whitebeard and has complicated connections with the beasts. You don't need to worry about the safety of it.

Speaking of which, that girl really made a big fuss. "

Hearing that Kemi was rescued, the straw hats felt relieved and began to think about how to get out of here. At the same time, because of Luffy's straw hat, they and Rayleigh had their first intersection.

Compared to them, some other people are even bigger.

"Marshal of the Warring States Period, someone beat the Tianlong people, and there were three of them, and even took them as hostages, so we have to dispatch."

"Polusalino" NOVELSb.com

"Don't worry, Warring States Marshal, leave it to me."

Tianlongren can't be left alone after being beaten, but there is still Drake on the island, and he can't be arrested together. This requires a person with outstanding acting skills to deal with this problem.

As the general of the headquarters, Huang Yuan was very aware of Drake's mission, and there were some other factors in it, which eventually led him to take over the mission on his own initiative.

At the same time, Kuma followed the other pacifists and Senmomaru to the Chambord Islands.

【Long, as expected of your son, he is as courageous as you, let me help you again】

This is his last mission as a bear. From then on, he will be temporarily offline, but before that, he will help the leader's child to leave this dangerous island smoothly.

When the navy began to gather towards the Chambord Islands, Olga had already escaped with Kemi and embarked on the journey back to Ghost Island. The affairs of the Chambord Islands had nothing to do with her.

Chapter 960: The three ghosts, the prologue to the war

Dressrosa, DoFlamingo just received a call from Chambord Islands.

The owner of the Population Auction House, Disco, was crying to DoFlamingo about his experience, but DoFlamingo laughed out loud at his crying.

"Isn't this ridiculous! Isn't this your shop?! Mr. DoFlamingo, where are you?

Now the credit of the store is gone, and the Roswald family is involved, they will definitely find us in trouble, please calm down this matter quickly. "

"嗷嗷嗷嗷嗷, you, the population auction is outdated, idiot! The trend is no longer like this, some people don't like this kind of transaction, so I'm not interested anymore.

Disco, this store is for you, don't call me again. "

"What?! Are you going to abandon me in this crisis!"

"Shut up! Troublesome guy, when you blame me for the misfortune, a new era has quietly arrived, little Disco, no, it should be said that we have been compulsorily summoned by the Navy Headquarters.

Navy Headquarters + King Shichibukai vs Whitebeard Pirates, what do you think of this future? Disco blah blah blah."

DoFlamingo smiled and hung up Disco's phone. Human trafficking was an important business for him, but after he hooked up with beasts, he has become less and less interested in this business. Especially the top management of Hundred Beasts seems to hate this kind of business.

Almost all the slave traders were sold to Olga by DoFlamingo in order to please the beasts. This is why Olga can always accurately predict their appearance time in the later stage, and then carry out fishing law enforcement.

This business has not been completely abandoned, just because it still has some value, but it is a bit tasteless, and now there is a big trouble, of course DoFlamingo happily writes it off.

On the beach in Dressrosa, DoFlamingo was wearing a resort outfit, holding ice juice and looking at the sea leisurely, as if he was imagining what the sea would look like in the future.

"Dover, the navy has been waiting for two days."

Torrepol came behind DoFlamingo and reported the situation of the nearby navy.

"I see, isn't there still nine days left before the war? Tell them, I will leave in two days. By the way, send a copy of the war situation to all the beasts. That monster will not give up this opportunity.

The future era is becoming more and more interesting, 嗷嗷嗷嗷嗷. "

"Got it, Dover."

At almost the same time, in the waters of Nine Snake Island, a warship had already docked in the calm zone, and there was still a sea king's corpse floating on the sea surface. The flying squirrel was leading his soldiers to negotiate with the Nine Snake Pirates.

"Dare to stop in this sea area, you are really brave."

"Although the ship has new technology, it will still be discovered if it stops for a long time, but there is no way. According to the agreement between your Nine Snakes and the World Government, we cannot approach the coast of Nine Snake Island within three kilometers.

In this way, we can only wait in the middle of the windless belt.

But I can't wait now, I am Vice Admiral Flying Squirrel, King Shichibukai, Pirate Queen, Boa Hancock! Come out, the navy has come to pick you up! "

The flying squirrel stood on the turret on the side of the warship, conveying orders from the navy.

But Hancock didn't come out at all, only the whispers of the woman from the Hydra came to the flying squirrel's ears.

【It's been a long time since I saw a live man. 】

【Yeah, those men outside will run away when they see us. These navies seem to be a bit strong, and they have killed all the big sea kings. 】

【Still not as good as Master Snake. 】

"Although you have promised to summon, you have not taken any action.

The compulsory convening of Qiwuhai this time is an order of the world government. If you refuse, the previous agreement will no longer be established, and your title of Qiwuhai will also be deprived.

Think about what this means, if you lose this title, you will not be able to do whatever you want under the banner of the World Government, did you hear me! Boa Hancock! "

"Are you threatening me? As compensation, I want you to hand over all the goods on board, is that okay?"

"What silly words! Who will agree to this kind of request! Do you think you are a child!"

Listening to Hancock's words, the fire that the flying squirrel had been hanging out for a few days was about to erupt, but his soldiers immediately slapped him in the face.

"Can!"

"Quick, move out all the goods! Give them all!"

"Asshole! Stop it!"

The red-eyed soldiers had begun to lose control of their behavior. Even with the restraint of the flying squirrel, they couldn't help but look at Hancock. At this time, pink light waves enveloped the entire warship, except for the flying squirrel. , everyone turned into stone statues.

"I accept your call and will leave tomorrow."

"Then what are you doing?!"

"Seeing that they are unhappy, I will undo their petrification when I leave."

Leaving the flying squirrel alone on the windless belt, Hancock returned to Nine Snakes and called Olga.

"Sister Olga, have you received the news of the war? I have agreed to their summoning and will appear on the battlefield. If you need it, remember to contact me~"

On New Fishman Island, Jinbe made a different choice. He did not refuse to be recruited, but accepted the navy's order, because all of this was Tiger's intention.

"Brother Tai."

"Jinbe, this is something you can't stop, the murlocs have finally found another safe territory, and refusing their recruitment will do us no good.

And even if you really want to do something, you can only have a chance if you get Marin Fando. "

Tiger put down the Rotom phone in his hand, and it seemed that he had just sent the information.

He is different from Jinbe. He respects Whitebeard, but that's all.

The nominal protection of Murloc Island comes from Whitebeard, but the actual benefits come from Beasts. He is also aware of this kind of thing.

"Okay, there may be new situations at that time, you can adapt to the situation, if there is nothing wrong, there is no need to work hard for others."

"I understand, Big Brother Tai, the Fishman Island will trouble you during this time."

"Isn't this what I should do? Anyway, I am also a member of the murlocs."

Doflamingo, Jinbe, Hancock, the news from the three Shichibukai appeared in Wano Kingdom's conference room almost at the same time, and in this conference room, Kaido's face was filled with undisguised excitement.

"Everyone, war is coming!"
