Chapter 136 Hu city

” let’s go. ” jiang li led the meches out of the city of beasts with a full harvest.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

after that.

The mechanical artilleries were lined up and bombarded the city of beasts. One by one, the shells rose into the sky and fell into the city. They exploded, destroying houses and collapsing buildings.

The sky was filled with dust and fire.

“ah!”

The screams, curses, and cries of the demons mixed together and came from the city.

It was a little scary.

what’s going on? ” Jiang Li looked at them coldly. He wasn’t really affected. It wasn’t the first time he had destroyed a city. Humans and monsters were always at odds with each other.

Of course.

This was because Jiang Li didn’t have a channel to sell the demon slaves and he didn’t want to sell them to the great Qian dynasty, so he had to massacre the entire city.

Half an hour later.

the city of beasts was destroyed by the artillery fire and turned into ruins. a large amount of smoke and dust rose into the sky, covering the entire sky. it was filled with the smell of gunpowder.

The smell of blood was strong.

In the surroundings.

There were demons from various villages. They hid themselves and secretly watched from afar. They clearly saw how the city of beasts was destroyed.

Their faces were pale and their bodies were trembling.

the city of beasts was destroyed just like that.

“what happened? How could the human army enter Red Dragon County so easily? did the demon soldiers of Red Dragon County not care? Does Lord Red Dragon not care? The red eyebrows Yao Kingdom doesn’t care?”

“ai, ai, ai, ai.”

“Let’s go. We can’t be discovered.”

“.....”

BOOM!

The next moment.

A few cannonballs fell from the sky and exploded among the demons. Flames soared into the sky and shrapnel flew in all directions, tearing apart their bodies.

the demons who were hiding in the surroundings were directly killed by the explosion.

The demon villagers had no idea that their Lord Red Dragon had died and that the 100000 demon soldiers of Red Dragon County had been completely annihilated. The red eyebrows demon Kingdom had not received the news yet.

Otherwise ...

Jiang Li wouldn't enter the Red Dragon County to Rob the demon City either.

In reality.

the reason why jiang li acted so quickly was to seize the time difference and plunder the four demon cities and wealth of red dragon county before the red eyebrow yao kingdom reacted.

He was racing against time.

“Let's go!”

let's go. Jiang Li waved his hand and the mech Army set off again to 'yexue city'.

time passed by quickly.

In the evening.

Jiang Li hadn't left the Red Dragon County yet. He had just finished looting the Night Owl City, which was even poorer than the beast city and had weaker soldiers.

In less than half an hour, it was occupied by Jiang Li.

He didn't get any spiritual crystals.

If it wasn't for the fact that it would take a long time to plunder the resources in Demon City, Jiang Li would have returned to the great Xia city long ago.

It was rather easy to take down a city.

Hu city. Jiang Li was on his way to the last of the five demon cities in Red Dragon County-Hu city.

Within the five demon cities.

The green scale city was ranked third, the beast city was ranked fourth, the Night Owl City was ranked fifth, the long snake City was ranked second, and the Fox city was ranked first.

Hu city was the strongest and also the richest.

More than ten minutes passed.

Jiang Li arrived at Hu city.

“This is the last demon throne.”

Jiang Li looked at the city in front of him. It was magnificent, like a beast lying on the ground.

“attack!”

jiang li took a deep breath and gave the order.

boom! BOOM! boom!

The artilleries bombarded the city from a distance, and the artillery shells rained down on the city walls.

“Ah!”

The demon soldiers guarding Hu city were stunned.

“Continue!”

stop! Jiang Li shouted.

The 500 artillerymen formed a team and split into 4 teams, firing continuously. Round after round of cannonballs landed in Hu city, and it was a one-sided battle.

It had to be said.

The demon soldiers guarding Hu city were indeed much stronger than those in long snake City. Their numbers were almost double, and they even had giant crossbows.

However ...

The artillery was about 20 kilometers away from Hu city, which was far beyond the range of the giant crossbows. The arrows could not harm the artillery at all.

Unless they left the city.

Or Jiang Li could lead his troops closer.

“The distance is too far.”

“Damn it, if this continues, we can only be beaten up.”

“Many demon soldiers have already died.”

“What do we do now?”

“The city wall can’t hold on much longer.”

The generals of Hu city were at a loss. They couldn’t think of any way. The artillery shells in the air bombarded them, not giving them a chance to breathe.

“All level-one demons, follow me out of the city!” He ordered.

At this moment.

the vice city lord of hu city, hu weiquan, had a serious look in his eyes. he took a deep breath and said in a deep voice, ” if the current situation continues, our Hu city will definitely be breached.

“Only by turning from defense to attack can we fight for a chance of survival.”

“My Lord,”

Immediately after.

A fox demon covered in white fur walked out from the generals, his eyes shining. He said in a deep voice, ” “this subordinate thinks that leaving the city at this time is completely seeking death.”

we don’t know the enemy’s strength. Blindly attacking will only put us in an even more dangerous situation.

so, I think that we should show weakness to the enemy and lure them in. We can pretend that we can’t defend Hu city and show the enemy that we have been defeated. Then, we can lure the enemy into Hu city and engage in guerilla warfare and street fighting.

” you have to know that compared to the enemy, we are more familiar with the terrain of hu city. we can use the advantage of the terrain to fight with the enemy and even turn defeat into victory. ”

“That makes sense!”

“hu changqing’s plan is very likely to succeed.”

“My Lord!”

The other demon generals nodded in agreement with Hu Changqing’s plan. Then, they looked at Hu weiquan and waited for his decision.

“Alright!”

The Fox guard Quan thought for a moment, ” then we will follow Hu Changqing’s plan.

“Yes!”

“Yes, sir!”

the demon generals responded in unison and immediately began to move.

A few minutes later.

” run!!! ”

“we can’t stop them. we can’t stop them at all.”

“The enemy’s attacks are too powerful, and they’re too far away. We can only passively take the hits. You’re just courting death.”

“I don’t want to die Here.”

On the city wall.

fear appeared in the demon soldiers ‘eyes as their morale plummeted. they threw away their helmets and armors and retreated from the city wall, fleeing in panic.

“What?”

jiang li looked into the distance. ” that’s it? Were these demon soldiers so weak-willed? In just a few minutes, the morale had collapsed? They all ran away?”

“You must know that the demon soldiers guarding long snake City were the ones who held on until the very end.”

“This is interesting.”

I see. Jiang Li pondered for a moment. is he showing weakness on purpose? ” the range of the mechanical artilleries is extremely far. They are too far away from Hu city, so they can only passively take the attacks. Is that why they want to lure me into charging and fighting inside the city? ”

“hehe, that’s a good idea.”

Jiang Li smiled and waved his right hand. keep firing until the walls of Hu city are destroyed.

“Yes!”

The mechanical artilleries responded in unison.

BOOM! BOOM! BOOM!

The shells continued to bombard the city, but Jiang Li didn’t intend to charge at all. Who knew what traps the monsters had prepared in the city? Jiang Li wouldn’t risk it.

In Hu city.

“How is it? Have all the demon soldiers been withdrawn?”

“They’ve all been withdrawn.”

“Hu ~~ Hu ~ Hu ~”

“Let’s see the results now.”

The demon soldiers and generals discussed in low voices.

“Rumble!”

Suddenly.

The cannonballs exploded not far away from them, directly destroying a building. The demi-humans who could not escape in time were sent flying and died on the spot.

boom! BOOM! BOOM!

In the surroundings.

Cannonballs exploded one after another.

“Damn it!”

“they didn’t fall for the trap!”

“I miscalculated!”

The expressions of the Fox guard Quan and the others were dark.

“This bi an ...”

Hu Changqing's eyes widened and his face was filled with shock. They clearly have such a huge advantage, yet they are still so cautious. Even in such a situation, they are not charging."

"I'm Yingying!"

Hu Changqing was in despair.

This was the only solution he could think of.

"My Lord!"

The demon soldiers all looked at Hu weiquan.

"Hu ~ ~ Hu ~ Hu ~"

Fox guard Quan took in a deep breath and gripped the green long blade in his hand tightly. The power of his bloodline surged, and the aura of a late stage rank two expert was revealed. everyone, follow me out of the city and fight it out with them. We won't lose out if we kill one, but we'll profit if we kill two.

The Fox guard Quan shouted.

kill!!!

kill!!!

All the Yao soldiers were infected by the aura of the Fox guard Quan. Their blood and Qi surged, and their battle cries shook the sky. They formed a murderous aura that shot into the sky, and their morale increased greatly.

“.....”

Hu Changqing chuckled wryly.

“Rumble!”

Suddenly.

The huge city wall couldn't withstand the continuous bombardment of the artillery shells and collapsed directly. Countless gravel fell to the ground and rolled around, shaking the ground.

“The city's armors and walls have fallen.”

“Si si si ...”

The demon people in Hu city looked at this scene in horror.

“Get into formation!”

The Fox guard Quan took in a deep breath and raised the long green blade in his hand. He charged to the front, ignoring the already collapsed city wall, ” all troops, charge!

“Charge!”

kill!!!

“Roar!”

Behind the Fox guard Quan.

All the demon soldiers of Hu city followed closely behind, forming an army formation. The military Qi gathered and circulated with the power of their bloodlines, forming a huge beast shadow.

It was a blood-red three-tailed demon fox with a huge body that was a hundred meters long.

“Out of the city,”

Jiang Li raised his eyebrows. After the city wall collapsed, the demon soldiers all rushed out and formed a level-one battle formation. Above the formation was a giant three-tailed demon fox.

Right in front.

The Fox guards at the late stage of Tier 2 all charged forward.

“You have the guts to kill your way out.”

Jiang Li smiled. ynsh01, go ahead and destroy the formation. Give them a decent death as a reward for their courage.

“Yes.”

Shua!

Ynsh01 nodded and walked out from behind Jiang Li. His mechanical psionic energy was activated and his body glowed with psionic light. His arms changed into scythes.

“Kill!”

BOOM!

Ynsh01's charge was like a Black bolt of lightning, cutting through the night sky and charging at the demon soldiers at an extremely fast speed.

“Eat my knife!”

green light slash! Fox guard Quan roared and gathered all his strength. The power of his bloodline condensed into a blade, and a Green Flash appeared. Like a green lightning, he slashed out, ” green light slash!

Shua!

“Crack!”

Ynsh01 slashed out with his blade. A black blade light flashed and the green lightning was cut in half in midair. The blade light slashed across Hu weiquan’s body.

the two figures passed by each other.
