Chapter 201: The Night Meeting Was Reported

Shu Pan saw that Gu Shaoting was sticking to her like a plaster and couldn't be gotten rid of. So she planned to go to the market, get some groceries and make some food for him before sending him back.

Gu Shaoting suggested going to the supermarket to buy groceries, but Shu Pan refused. "The groceries in the market are fresher and cheaper."

When Shu Pan got out of the car, Gu Shaoting followed her. He saw that the market was wet everywhere, but he didn't dislike it at all. Instead, he felt that it was a refreshing experience to buy groceries with Shu Pan. Seeing Shu Pan pick on the vegetables and bargain with others, he felt that he saw another side of Shu Pan, a very down-to-earth one.

Gu Shaoting would always take the initiative to help carry the vegetables when they bought them. It was rare to see a man in a suit and leather shoes carrying vegetables in the market. Sometimes, it attracted people's attention.

"Madam, you're so lucky. Not only is your husband handsome, but he also dotes on you so much that he carries the groceries for you when you buy them." The fish vendor saw Gu Shaoting beside Shu Pan and couldn't help but say enviously.

"You misunderstood..." Shu Pan wanted to explain.

"Thank you for your compliment." Gu Shaoting interrupted Shu Pan's words, causing her to roll her eyes.

Back home, Shu Pan went to cook. Gu Shaoting wanted to help, but thinking of his past performance, Shu Pan chased him out of the kitchen.

Shu Pan looked at the clock hanging on the wall in the living room. It was already past seven o'clock. "Wait a little longer. It'll be done soon."

Due to Shu Pan's quick movements, a few home-cooked dishes were quickly served on the table.

During dinner, the atmosphere was a little awkward because it was relatively quiet. Shu Pan turned on the television in the living room. This television was a relatively old model and was usually used as a decoration.

At this time, most channels on the TV were reporting the news. Shu Pan casually clicked on an entertainment news. It would not be too boring to watch while eating.

Gu Shaoting was probably really hungry, he kept eating with his head down. On the other hand, Shu Pan ate absent-mindedly because Tang Wei told her that the company was going to change its boss today.

She was worried that she would be laid off. After all, finding a stable job with a higher income was not easy.

She didn't know that the culprit who made her so worried was sitting in front of her and wolfing down her food.

While she was eating, she glanced at the television. The host was casually talking when her tone suddenly changed. With a tone of mystery and gossip, the host said, "The following is a report from overseas that many fans are concerned about..."

A man appeared on the screen. He was handsome and extraordinary. Although it was only his side profile, his facial features were smooth and his nose was high. He had a tall figure that made people unable to look away.

He was standing at the door, and another woman in sexy clothes was saying goodbye to him reluctantly.

The man's face was a little blurry, but the woman's face was very clear. It was the supermodel, Tong Fei. The caption covered the sexy outfit, and the large caption read, "Supermodel Met A Handsome Man at Night."

Linking to the scene at the airport, the caption changed again. Judging from his height and profile, this man was guessed to be Tong Fei's fiancé and the two of them were having a tryst in France. Because Tong Fei was going to attend an award ceremony, her fiancé couldn't stand the torment of being apart from her, so he accompanied her...

Shu Pan looked at it, and for some reason, her heart ached. This scene had happened countless times. She should be numb.

After all, they had nothing to do with each other now. But when she thought about how Gu Shaoting would tease her from time to time saying he missed her and then turn around to meet another woman, she really wanted to laugh. He was really a beast in human clothing, despicable and shameless..

Chapter 202: An Explanation

Gu Shaoting saw Shupan staring at the television, so he also looked at it curiously.

Suddenly, he was stunned. Why did this scene look so familiar? Wasn't this him and Tong Fei? But they didn't do anything that day. Why was the current scene so ambiguous?

The worst thing was that Shu Pan saw it. Others might not know, but Shu Pan would definitely recognize him at a glance.

He carefully looked at her expression, hoping to find some clues, but it was obvious that she didn't show any. Shu Pan was still eating casually.

Gu Shaoting felt very depressed. Her lack of expression proved that she didn't care. It turned out that she really didn't care about him.

However, he still explained, "That... Actually, nothing happened. I just went to tell her that I have nothing to do with her and that she shouldn't spread such rumours around."

However, such an explanation seemed a little weak. Shu Pan despised him in her heart. Did he think she was an idiot? Discussing business with a woman dressed like this in the middle of the night? It looks more like a date.

However, she still replied calmly, 'You don't have to explain anything to me.

I'm not anyone to you."

Gu Shaoting didn't know how to reply but he was hurt.

"Shu Pan, although our relationship is not considered close, I have to explain to you clearly that I have nothing to do with her. If she doesn't announce it, I'll find an opportunity to explain it clearly."

Gu Shaoting said with certainty. He still had to find out why there was such a report. Had he been tricked?

After dinner, Shu Pan found an excuse to send Gu Shaoting away. There was finally peace.

"Shaoting, what should we do? We were followed when we met that day. The report was out, and I only just found out." Tong Fei sounded anxious and at a loss.

"Why is there someone following us so late at night? And the angle is so clear?" Gu Shaoting asked suspiciously.

"Don't let me find out that you are the one playing tricks. Otherwise, you won't be able to bear the consequences."

Gu Shaoting's harsh words made Tong Fei tremble.

However, she immediately squeezed out two drops of tears. "Shaoting, I just found out about it too. I wonder if it's someone who's following us?"

Gu Shaoting thought about it calmly not wanting to hear her cry.

"Tong Fei, I hope you can announce the news of our annulment and clarify this news."

Gu Shaoting gave the initiative to Tong Fei. After all, she was a woman and a famous person. Reputation was more important to her.

"Shaoting, I really... I love you very much, and I hope you... can think about it carefully. What do you want me... how do you want me to do.... it can all be changed."

Tong Fei sobbed, but this time Gu Shaoting had decided firmly and there was no turning back for him.

"Tong Fei, there's really no meaning in this. There's no happiness between two people who don't love each other." Gu Shaoting said emotionally.

Before he realized that he loved Shu Pan, he had felt that it would be the same no matter who he married. But now that he had someone he liked, he did not want to make do with anyone. After all, his life was still very long.

Tong Fei refused to give up and asked, "Who is the person who can give you happiness? Shu pan?"

"That person is not you." Gu Shaoting gave her another cruel blow.

His words made Tong Fei feel as if she was in an ice cellar.

She hung up the phone slowly and pursed her lips tightly. Her eyes were filled with unwillingness.

No one could take away her happiness. It was not easy for her to get to this position..

Chapter 203: Welcoming the New Boss

The next day, Shu Pan came to the company early. If it was really as Tang Wei said, the company had such a situation, then she had to perform better. Otherwise, she would definitely be the first to be sacked.

Shu Pan was most nervous about her job. After Tang Wei told her the news, she had been restless.

During lunch, Tang Wei brought another news. She heard that the company had been acquired by a large corporation. The specific company was still confidential.

When Shu Pan heard that it was a large corporation, she felt a little more at ease.

He Ming had to admire his ability to get things done. Under the pressure of such a boss, his work efficiency was extremely high. It only took him two days to discuss the initial acquisition plan with the boss of Sunrise Architecture.

After all the Procedures and the handover were done, they waited for the new boss to meet the staff.

Shu Pan and Tang Wei were whispering. Most of the time, Tang Wei gossiped while Shu Pan listened.

“Everyone, the reporters from the major media outlets are almost here. Be on your toes, the new CEO will be here soon. If you don’t want to get fired, stop dazing.”

Xu Na, the manager of the public relations department, said sternly, “Everyone gather your thoughts, correct your attitude and wait for the arrival of the new boss.”

Xu Na looked at Shu Pan and Tang Wei, then raised her voice and said to them, "Although you are from the design department, you still have to pay attention to your image. Don't hold us back, we have to give the new CEO a good impression."

Shu Pan pursed her lips and nodded. 'Manager Xu, I'm sorry. We'll take note.'" Xu Na glanced at Shu Pan before looking away.

Shu Pan secretly stuck out her tongue. She didn't usually work with the public relations department much, so she really didn't know that Manager Xu was such a strict person.

Xu Na clapped her hands and called over a few staff members from the same department who were in charge of receiving their honourable guests.

"We have to do a good job at today's press conference. We can't make any mistakes. If someone makes a mistake on the first day of the new CEO's appointment, then pack up and leave."

As Xu Na spoke, she swept her gaze across every staff member under her seriously.

"Yes, I understand." Everyone said in unison.

Seeing that Xu Na had walked away a little, Tang Wei pulled Shu Pan and started to whisper in her ear again. "I heard that the new boss is the CEO of a large corporation and is not married yet. Look at the unmarried women in our company, they can't wait to wear low-cut dresses and miniskirts. Just now, the toilet was so full that we couldn't walk. They were all touching up their makeup and applying lipstick."

Tang Wei said indignantly.

"Then why aren't you going?" Shu Pan asked curiously.

"Do you think I don't want to? Look at my figure and appearance. Unless the CEO is blind, he won't fall for me. That's why I didn't waste my effort." Tang Wei sighed.

“Why don’t you dress up? You are a beauty, maybe the CEO would take a fancy to you and you can ascend to become a phoenix.” Tang Wei felt that Shu Pan was too stupid.

Shu Pan smiled and thought to herself that she had totally no interest in such things at all.

“Shu Pan, follow the CEO later and see if there’s anything he needs help with. You don’t have to do anything else.” Manager Xu suddenly turned around and instructed. As she looked around the entire office, only Shu Pan was dressed in the simplest and not very flirtatious manner.

Shu Pan nodded helplessly.

A staff member from the public relations department showed an envious expression. “Manager Na is so biased. Shupan is the one who gets the benefits first..”

Chapter 204: So It’s You

It sounded nice to say that she had the chance to stand by the CEO’s side, but if something happened, the people around him would be blamed.

To Shu Pan, this was a hot potato.

Xu Na pulled a long face and glared at the employee. She said seriously, “Be serious. Today concerns the question of whether everyone will stay or leave. If the CEO is not satisfied, everyone will pack up and leave at any moment. I don’t need to emphasize this anymore.”

After being scolded by Xu Na, everyone dared not make any more noise.

Shu Pan secretly sighed. Since she was already here, she should just take it as it is. She cheered herself up and tried her best to bring out her best working condition.

In fact, it was not surprising that everyone was so nervous because this matter had happened too suddenly. After all, it was related to their own interests. The company that was originally running well had suddenly changed hands. Everyone had no idea what the future big boss would be like.

However, who was the new boss? The heads of various departments tried to find out through various channels, but they still could not find anything about him.

Therefore, everyone was worried that they would be fired.

Shu Pan usually didn't gossip about these things, but at this moment, she was also a little curious.

Everyone stood in two pairs, facing each other and making a path to welcome the new boss.

Everyone craned their necks to look at the entrance, wanting to see who this big boss was.

"They're here, they're here. The company's higher-ups and the new president are here." The receptionist's voice was transmitted to everyone's ears through the walkie-talkie.

All the employees couldn't help but straighten their clothes and stand respectfully, hoping to give the president and the higher-ups a good impression.

Shu Pan stood at the front of the line, her eyes fixed on the entrance.

After a while, a man in a silver-grey suit, surrounded by a few men in black suits, walked towards the conference hall with elegant and vigorous steps.

When they passed by the middle aisle, everyone applauded enthusiastically to welcome them. The man's face was cold, but he nodded politely in response to everyone.

Shu Pan was completely stunned. She looked like she had seen a ghost. She was not mentally prepared for this at all.

The tall man in the silver-grey suit walking in front of the crowd was clearly her ex-husband, Gu Shaoting. The guy who had been making his presence known in front of her recently.

“How is that possible? With the Gu Group’s strength, there are all kinds of talents and elites. Why would he want to buy their company? Is there something wrong with his head?” Shu Pan thought that she was hallucinating, so she immediately closed her eyes and opened them again to wake herself up.

However, no matter how clear-headed she was, the man’s appearance did not change. She really could not understand why he did this.

Other people might not recognize him, but she would never mistake Gu Shaoting for someone else.

With his perfectly carved face, deep eyes and tall and muscular body, every step he took was elegant and noble.

“Gu... Shaoting?” Shu Pan stared at Gu Shaoting and subconsciously called his name.

Gu Shaoting seemed to have heard her voice and turned his head slightly. His gaze shifted slightly and stopped on her.

His bright eyes stared at her and Shu Pan suddenly felt her heart beat faster. She pretended not to see it and looked away from him.

The man’s gaze lingered on her for a moment before moving away, but anyone could see the love in his eyes..

Chapter 205: The Press Conference

In just a moment, various thoughts flashed through Shu Pan’s mind.

Shu Pan prayed that Gu Shaoting would treat her as a stranger. Fortunately, he understood her.

Xu Na saw that Shu Pan was behaving unnaturally. She walked over and pulled her, scolding her in a low voice, "Shu Pan, what are you doing on an occasion like this?"

Shu Pan woke up from a daze and was a little angry that she was distracted. Xu

Na scolded softly again, "Hurry up and follow them."

Shu Pan nodded and quickly followed behind the new boss. She didn't think about anything else and focused on looking in front.

Xu Na quickened her pace and caught up to the new boss and the others, She opened the hall for them to receive the media. "Please welcome our new CEO." As Xu Na's high-pitched voice fell, thunderous applause sounded in the huge conference hall.

Everyone stared at the door with wide eyes, waiting for the big boss to appear.

Shu Pan quietly took a breath and followed closely behind the group. After Gu Shaoting sat down at the head of the table, she swiftly handed over the documents. Even though she had no distractions, she was still a little nervous. She trembled and the documents in her hand fell to the ground.

Just as Shu Pan was about to bend down to pick it up, Gu Shaoting had already ignored everyone's gazes and bent down to pick up the documents before she could. Then, she heard him deliberately lower his voice and say in her ear, "I'll go over for dinner tonight. I'll wait for you."

On such an occasion, Shu Pan felt her head explode when she heard him say that. She was so stunned that she forgot what to do.

Fortunately, everyone's attention was not on her, so she quickly adjusted herself. But Gu Shaoting's words were still lingering in her mind.

Although it was a newly acquired company with a new boss, everyone was familiar with the CEO of the Gu Group.

At the end of the press conference, the reporters couldn't resist their urge to gossip. One of the reporters asked what the others were thinking.

"Mr. Gu, can I ask a personal question? When are you going to marry the supermodel, Miss Tong Fei? You've been engaged for some time."

Gu Shaoting's originally cold face was now as cold as ice. He was expressionless and the corners of his mouth were tightly pursed. Everyone present felt an invisible pressure.

Gu Shaoting lifted his eye and looked at Shu Pan. She still had the same expression and he couldn't tell if she was happy or not.

Gu Shaoting initially didn't bother to explain, but seeing that Tong Fei didn't clarify their relationship after being given a chance, he finally said, "Ms. Tong and I are friends. We do not have a wedding."

With just a short sentence, he had disregarded his relationship with Tong Fei.

The people present did not expect him to explain and were all stunned.

Shu Pan also frowned. Wasn't it inappropriate to say this on such an occasion?

Xu Na was indeed in public relations. When she saw that the atmosphere was not right, she quickly came over to smooth things over. "My friends from the media, I'm sorry. Today is the new CEO's press conference, he will not be answering any personal questions. I hope everyone can understand." Xu Na's words were very smooth, and the reporters present did not ask any more personal questions.

The public relations department's deployment was appropriate, everyone cooperated well, and Gu Shaoting had the power to intimidate the scene, so this press conference was considered successful.

When Gu Shaoting left, he stopped by Shu Pan's side and said in a voice that only the two of them could hear, "I'm really innocent."

It was a sentence without a beginning or an end but Shu Pan knew that he was trying to clarify the news reported the day before yesterday..

Chapter 206: Jealousy

However, Shu Pan ignored him and continued to pack up the things at hand.

As soon as the new boss left, MO Lan, another female designer from the design department, squeezed her way over. "Oh, Shu Pan, that was a wonderful scene earlier. I want to learn from you. You 'accidentally' dropped the document and successfully attracted our new boss's attention."

Before Shu Pan could react, Tang Wei jumped out from the side. She held Shu Pan's arm and said sarcastically to MO Lan, "You can't learn it. Designer MO, the boss has eyes too. He's not someone anyone could handle. Maybe the boss admires natural beauty and not artificial beauty."

Tang Wei's words implied something. MO Lan was so angry that her face turned red. Because everyone knew that she had plastic surgery.

"You... I can't be bothered to talk to you." MO Lan walked away, swaying her hips.

"Why do you have to lower yourself to her level?" Shu Pan sighed and looked at Tang Wei.

"I don't like that look on her face. You are too nice that's why you get bullied. I guess her target will be the new boss in the future. Didn't you see how her eyes lit up when she saw the boss just now?" Tang Wei was indignant. How could a person who was addicted to plastic surgery and never satisfied with what she had live so freely?

MO Lan and her had always been like fire and water, and the hatred between the two of them was deep.

“If the boss likes her, it’s also because of her ability. We just have to do our part.” Shu Pan smiled.

“It’s because of your personality that you’re at a disadvantage.” Tang Wei said.

Shu Pan really wanted to say that she was not the kind of person who would submit to adversity in the past. It was just that she had been grounded into this state by life.

However, she was very grateful to Tang Wei for standing up for her. She and Xiaomeng were the same kind of people. They were optimistic, cheerful, and their smiles could infect the people around them.

In the office, she had the best relationship with Tang Wei. Tang Wei was also a designer, so they were in different groups.

It was enough to have a confidant in life, so she was very satisfied with what she had now.

Shu Pan saw that the area was almost empty, she comforted Tang Wei and then turned to Xu Na, “Manager Xu, we are almost done here. I’ll go back to the design department first.”

Xu Na looked around and nodded at her.

Looking at Shu Pan’s departing figure, MO Lan said hatefully, “How shameless, seducing a man in public.”

“That’s enough. Stop stirring up trouble all day. When I asked you to help the CEO, you complained about everything and said that you didn’t want to serve a bald old man. Now that you know that the CEO is handsome, you regret it. If you continue to cause trouble, you might be the next person to leave.” Xu Na glared at MO Lan.

“Ms. Na, I’m regretting it. Why didn’t you tell me earlier that the CEO is so elegant?” MO Lan knew how to suck up, so she had a good relationship with Xu Na. At this moment, her words were filled with blame.

“I only found out today that the Gu Group has acquired our company. But this is a good thing. After all, we are now part of a big corporation, so you have to work harder and do your job better. This way, you will climb higher. Then, you will have the right to be arrogant in the future.” Xu Na knew that MO Lan was unhappy, so she encouraged her.

“I know. I know you’re the best to me. I’ll listen to you, Ms Na.” MO Lan secretly made up her mind that she would do her best to get close to the CEO.

Xu Na patted her shoulder, indicating her to do her best..

Chapter 207: How Lucky

Shu Pan returned to the office. Seeing that it was still early, she took out her phone and walked outside to call Shu Laide. “Dad, have you guys eaten?”

“Yes, we did. It’s already so late and you are out alone, you should take care of yourself.” As a father, he was always worried about his child.

“Okay, I know. I want to go back and pick Joy up this weekend. School is about to start.” Shu Pan didn’t know if some of the company’s rules and regulations had changed after being acquired by the Gu Group. So, she planned to bring Joy out as soon as possible so that she could make arrangements.

“Okay, then come back this weekend to pick her up.” In fact, Shu Laide was very reluctant to part with his granddaughter, but she had to study.

Shu Pan had just hung up when Wen Chi called. "Pan, are you at work?"

"Yeah, what's wrong, Chi?" Shu Pan knew that Wen Chi was very busy. He had a full schedule of academic conferences, surgeries and frequent trips to study. They hadn't seen each other for a long time and would occasionally chat on WeChat.

"What's wrong, I can't look for you if there's nothing. I just want to see you. I'll pick you up after you get off work tomorrow." Wen Chi's gentle words were a little overbearing and could not be rejected.

"Hehe, sure. Why wouldn't I be happy to have someone treat me to a meal?" Shu Pan said with a smile. She was always so relaxed when talking to Wen Chi.

The two of them chatted briefly before hanging up.

When she returned to the office, she heard her colleagues discussing the new CEO enthusiastically.

All of them were talking so excitedly as if they were talking about some extraordinary figure.

When the design assistant saw Shu Pan, she quickly came over. "Sister Shu, I'm so envious of you. You're the first woman to stand beside the CEO. Isn't the CEO so handsome up close?"

From her tone, it sounded like being the CEO's side aid was something to be proud of.

Shu Pan smiled faintly. "It's just work. I didn't notice what the CEO looked like. Since you're so envious, I'll send you to do something like this next time."

"Sister Shu, you're joking with me again. I'm probably stunned when I see the CEO. How can I do anything?" The little girl clasped her hands together and made a lovestruck expression.

“The CEO is also a human. He doesn’t have two extra horns. Don’t be so crazy

“A well-fed man doesn’t know the hunger of a hungry man. However, the CEO is so handsome. His gaze is not something that we low-level staff can get close to.” The assistant sighed.

Shu Pan couldn’t help but roll her eyes. Gu Shaoting was also a human, not a god, okay?

“Everyone, hurry back to your seats. The new CEO will come to our office to inspect our work later. Everyone, be on your guard. Do you hear me?” The design director came in and nervously reported the news.

The CEO is coming to inspect the work!

This was big news. The female colleagues began to take out cosmetics to touch up their makeup and tidy up their clothes. Their skirts were so short that they couldn’t reach their thighs.

Shu Pan looked at everyone’s actions and was dumbfounded. Was it necessary?

Such a scene made Shu Pan seem like an anomaly.

When she heard that Gu Shaoting was coming for an inspection, she couldn’t help but swallow her saliva. She was so nervous that her heart was in her throat. She really didn’t expect that one day, he would become her boss.

The others quickly returned to their seats and pretended to work hard. They all wanted to perform well in front of the CEO..

Chapter 208: The Inspection

Seeing that Shu Pan was still standing in a daze while the others had already returned to their seats, the design director asked, "Shu Pan, do you have any questions?"

"Oh, no. I'll go back to my seat now." Shu Pan quickly woke up from her daze and sat back in her seat. She turned on her computer and tried her best to get into work mode.

After a while, the door of the department was pushed open, and Gu Shaoting walked in with vigorous steps surrounded by a crowd. Everyone stood up and applauded to welcome him.

Shu Pan never knew that Gu Shaoting liked to do this.

However, she had really wronged Gu Shaoting. If she wasn't here, Gu Shaoting wouldn't even bother to come. He still had a lot of things to do. If it wasn't for the higher-ups who suggested that he come to boost the morale of his employees and that Shu Pan was also here, he wouldn't have come.

After Gu Shaoting came in, he saw Shu Pan at first glance. She was at her desk, busy with something and did not look in his direction.

Gu Shaoting simply greeted the department staff and said some encouraging words. Then he listened to the design director's report on the department's work and prepared to leave.

Just as Shu Pan thought that he was going to leave, he suddenly turned and walked to Shu Pan's desk, staring at her without saying a word. The director looked at them and leaned over nervously. "CEO is there something wrong?"

He was worried that Shu Pan had made a mistake and offended the CEO.

"She... What position is she in?" Gu Shaoting asked.

"Designer." The director answered nervously.

Shu Pan frowned, not knowing what he wanted to do this time. What was up with him now? Did he still want her in the company? With so many special interactions on the first day.

“Oh... I see.” Gu Shaoting nodded. He saw that Shupan looked a little unhappy, so he didn’t dare to stay any longer.

He found an excuse and left with a group of people.

As soon as he left, the office immediately became noisy. Even the usually steady director had a gossipy look on his face.

Everyone was talking about how this handsome CEO had just said at the press conference that he would not have a wedding with the supermodel. Was that true?

Did that mean that everyone else had a chance?

This shouldn’t be fake. That was a press conference.

The office was originally a place where gossipers gathered. The women were even more eager to try. After all, the title of Mrs. CEO was too attractive.

Shu Pan listened to their heated discussion and didn’t say anything.

“Hey, Shupan, are you still a woman? Such a treasure like the CEO is still not to your taste? Why don’t you look excited?” Tang Wei nudged Shu Pan with her body. She admired that Shu Pan could still be so calm after seeing such a handsome guy. Was she immune to it?

“Don’t worry, I’m a 100% woman. You already said that he is a treasure. This proves that he is not someone ordinary like me or we can touch.” Shu Pan rarely joked.

“Annoying, don’t break my beautiful dream. Let me be intoxicated for a while.” Tang Wei pouted and walked away.

Sigh! Everyone was deceived by Gu Shaoting's appearance. Wasn't she like that back then?

If everyone knew that she was Gu Shaoting's ex-wife, who knew what kind of waves would be set off?

Shu Pan's trembled when she thought of that happening.

So, she had to lay her cards on the table with Gu Shaoting tonight and make things clear..

Chapter 209: A Showdown (1)

This day was like a roller coaster for Shu Pan. It was very torturous. Finally, in the midst of nervousness and uneasiness, the working day was finally about to pass. Her colleagues had all left, and Shu Pan was the last to pack her things and leave.

After walking out of the company, Shu Pan habitually walked for a while before taking the bus because her home was still a little far from her current workplace.

According to what they said at the press conference today, although the Gu Group had acquired Sunrise Architecture, they did not move the entire company to the Gu Group. The office would become a subsidiary of the Gu

Group, mainly responsible for design, interior decoration, and other services. The staff would not change, but the benefits would be better.

Everyone was very happy. With the backing of the Gu Group, the company's performance would definitely flourish. Now that the press conference is done, the industry will probably know about this news. Their goal had been achieved.

Shu Pan was naturally happy to see that the benefits were better, but she was worried when she thought about her relationship with Gu Shaoting. After all, the relationship between ex-husband and ex-wife was shameful, especially in the workplace. It was easy for people to gossip about.

As Shu Pan walked, she thought about how to talk to Gu Shaoting.

Because she was too focused on thinking about the problem, and because the CEO was inspecting the business today, she had muted her phone.

Gu Shaoting looked at the phone that was hung up silently and felt a wave of frustration. He had wanted to pick her up and go back together, but she kept a low profile and didn't want others to know that she knew him, so he planned to leave together after everyone left. Who knew that she wouldn't pick up the phone? He pretended to pass by her department just now and realized that it was closed. Everyone had left.

He had no choice but to go back by himself. He had told her that he would be there tonight, so she should know.

He still couldn't tell anyone about his recovered memory, especially Shu Pan. Otherwise, he was worried that he wouldn't even let her in.

He wanted to slowly make her fall in love with him again before telling her the news.

Shu Pan got on the bus and got off at the bus stop closest to her house. Seeing that it was still early, she planned to go to the market to buy some groceries. No matter what happened, she had to eat.

She knew that Gu Shaoting liked meat, so she bought some and carried them home.

She had just reached downstairs when she saw Gu Shaoting leaning against his car. When he saw her, he immediately walked over and took the things from her hands. Their actions were so natural, just like a normal couple.

“Why didn’t you wait for me? I called you several times, but you didn’t pick up?” Gu Shaoting’s tone sounded like a resentful woman.

“Oh, I didn’t hear that. Actually, it’s very convenient for me to take a bus.” Shu Pan explained. She would definitely not take his car back. If someone saw her, wouldn’t she be eaten alive?

When they got home, Gu Shaoting pretended to ask casually, “Panpan, who else is there in your family? Where are they?”

Shu Pan became alert when she heard that. “My father and auntie are in my hometown. I also have a daughter.”

If Joy came, Gu Shaoting would definitely meet her. It was better to tell him in advance, but she would not say that Joy was his daughter.

“Oh.” Gu Shaoting didn’t say anything, but the gentleness in his eyes couldn’t be ignored.

Shu Pan thought that he would continue to ask, but he stopped. She really couldn’t understand him, but it was better not to ask. If he continued to ask, she wouldn’t know how to answer..

Chapter 210: A Showdown (2)

Gu Shaoting watched as Shupan cooked as if she was busy for him. That feeling was really wonderful.

When they were eating, Shu Pan saw that he was eating happily, so she decided to chat with him. “Mr. Gu, I want to talk to you...”

Before Shu Pan could finish her sentence, Gu Shaoting interrupted her. He was so shocked that he almost spat out the food in his mouth.

“Mr.... Gu...” What the hell is this title? “Panpan, we’re at home now, not in the company. Why are you calling me Mr. Gu?”

“From today onwards, you are my boss.” Shu Pan said honestly.

“If it’s in the company where there are outsiders and you don’t want others to know that we know each other, I can accept you calling me Mr. Gu. But when there’s no one around, especially at home, I don’t accept such a title.” Gu Shaoting was so angry that he wanted to vomit blood. Did he buy Sunrise

Architecture just to make her call him Mr. Gu?

“Courtesy is important. Also, why did you buy our company?” Shu Pan finally asked this question that she had been keeping in her heart for a long time. Because there were many companies better than Sunrise Architecture, with the strength of the Gu Group, it would not be difficult to acquire any of them.

“Your company’s development prospects are good.” Gu Shaoting’s answer was very official. In fact, he was also silently responding, ‘It was also because you were in that company. Otherwise, I wouldn’t have paid so much attention.’ Shu Pan put down her chopsticks and said to him solemnly, “Can I ask you for a favour?”

“What is it?” Seeing her so serious, Gu Shaoting couldn’t help but stop his chopsticks and listen to her.

“Let’s be strangers in the company. Please don’t come to our department for no reason, it makes me quite troubled.” Was this what an employee would say to her boss?

“If I do that, what good will it do me?” As expected of a businessman, he would not do something at his disadvantage.

“If you do as I say, you can come over for a meal once in a while.” Shu Pan knew that he loved to eat here recently. This was his weakness.

“Only occasionally? Can’t we do it often?” Gu Shaoting was still haggling. If anyone saw this, they would probably be shocked. Was this the wise and powerful CEO Gu?

“Yes.” Shu Pan didn’t give him any room to negotiate. Just like Xiaomeng said, one couldn’t lose his momentum in any matter, especially in a negotiation. If she wasn’t firm in her stance and was overwhelmed by the other party’s, she would lose.

Shu Pan’s mentality now was that she was fearless and dared to say anything. She had worked hard in this company for three years to achieve her current results. She didn’t want that to change because of Gu Shaoting.

Gu Shaoting replied, feeling wronged, “All right then.”

Being under someone else’s roof, Gu Shaoting had no choice but to lower his head and agree. Such a Gu Shaoting was miles away from his majestic in the office today.

Shu Pan won the negotiation. She knew that Gu Shaoting was a man of his word, so she wasn’t worried that he would go back on his word.

Shu Pan’s worry was unnecessary because he usually worked in the Gu Group. There were dedicated people in charge of the subsidiary company. He would probably go over to take a look when there is something important or on a whim.

But he didn’t want to tell her that he liked to see her anxious.

After the meal, Gu Shaoting took the initiative to clear the dishes. He was already familiar after a few training and enjoyed it.

If He Ming saw this, he would probably be shocked. This was because a young master who never touched the dishwasher knew how to wash dishes. This was really one of the top ten strange stories..
