Chapter 531: Enemies Meet

With the addition of two gentlemen, they thought there would be more outings, but to their surprise, they've been staying in the villa every day since their arrival.

Shu Pan and Ye Xiaomeng were both getting bored. What was the point of spending money to come here if they weren't going out?

They both agreed it was time to go home.

Gu Shaoting and He Ming didn't mind either way; their purpose wasn't about sightseeing, so whether they stayed or left didn't matter.

Ye Xiaomeng regretted it deeply. Why did she have to send photos to Gu Shaoting?

Now that they were here, her plans were completely disrupted. She had planned to cool things down, but with He Ming's arrival, there was no time for her to calm down. He even mentioned registering for marriage as soon as they got back.

Whom had she provoked?

The four of them headed to the airport in grand style, the men handsome and the women pretty.

But the faces of the two women weren't very good, truly returning home disappointed.

Back at home, Shu Pan felt completely exhausted.

She decided to rest well before going back to work; after all, she hadn't used up all her annual leave.

Days passed, but some people's moods changed.

One day, Shu Pan was cleaning the house. Though there would occasionally be a cleaning lady, sometimes she liked to do it herself.

Suddenly, her phone rang.

"Panpan, I left an important document in the study, can you check if it's on the desk?" Gu Shaoting's deep, sexy voice sounded.

"Okay." Shu Pan recognized his urgency from his tone.

She found the document on the desk.

"Can you bring it to the office for me? I need it urgently, and sending the driver back might take too long." Gu Shaoting checked the time, feeling pressed for it.

"Sure." Shu Pan hung up and quickly changed her clothes before heading out.

She put on a loose-fitting top and jeans, looking more like a girl next door than her usual professional self, simple and refreshing.

With a slim-strapped backpack on her shoulders and the document in her hand, she hurried out to catch a taxi.

Since time was pressing, taking the bus would definitely be too slow, so she hailed a taxi at the entrance of the residential area.

It was quite a feat to finally flag one down, and she hurriedly made her way to the Gu Group.

Fortunately, the rush hour traffic had subsided by now, and there were fewer vehicles on the road. She arrived at the Gu Group quickly.

Shu Pan got out of the car and entered the lobby of the Gu Group. Because she was in a hurry, she collided with someone coming towards her.

Obviously, the other person wasn't paying attention either.

"Sorry." Shu Pan apologized quickly, the documents in her hand falling to the ground. She picked them up and also helped the other person pick up theirs.

"Are you blind when walking?" The other person didn't accept the apology, their tone harsh.

"Sorry." In fact, it wasn't all Shu Pan's fault; the other person wasn't paying attention either, which led to the collision.

"Which department are you from?" The person Shu Pan collided with turned out to be Charlene, her tone somewhat aggressive.

"I'm here to deliver documents, and once I'm done, I'll leave." Shu Pan didn't want to dwell on it.

"I'm in a hurry, sorry." Shu Pan picked up the documents and quickly walked towards the elevator.

In the CEO's office, Gu Shaoting was on the phone. When he saw Shu Pan come in, his eyes lit up. Shu Pan, dressed like that, was a rare sight.

With such a radiant demeanor, she looked like a freshly graduated college student.

Shu Pan silently handed over the documents, then pointed towards the door with her finger, indicating she was leaving.

Gu Shaoting held her hand, then bid farewell to the other person and hung up the phone.

"I'm going back, the documents have been delivered anyway." Shu Pan didn't want to disturb him while he was working.
