

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4609 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4609)

Originally, in order to avoid unnecessary trouble, charlie even planned to have Stefanie sun's first concert in New York tomorrow, but he would not come first.

It is also very clear that if he really does not come, not only will Stefanie sun feel disappointed, but his wife Claire will also be very sorry.

However, after actually watching the venue, he was suddenly relieved.

At that time, I can take my wife to watch Stefanie sun's concert in the VIP box, which will greatly avoid the possibility of exposure.

Zuri also knew something about charlie, so after hearing that he wanted a private box, he didn't say much, and happily agreed, saying, "No problem, I'll take you up there to have a look."

charlie nodded, followed Zuri to the box, Zuri opened the door, and introduced to charlie: "Mr. wade, the VIP box in this venue is very large, usually more than 50 square meters, with a separate toilet inside. It is possible to have a party inside. After you come in, anything you need will be delivered by the staff, so you don't have to go out, and it will hardly be seen by other people. Moreover, the glass is also a one-way privacy glass, and the outside audience can't see it at all. in."

charlie looked at the environment, the box was very luxuriously decorated, and at first glance it was a gathering place for the top wealthy people in New York.

So, he opened his mouth and said, "Okay, just this one."

Zuri agreed and said, "If Mr. wade wants to be as low-key as possible, then I will arrange for you to go directly to the VIP channel. The VIP box is physically separated from the other auditoriums below, so you can go directly from the VIP channel. Come up, no one else will see you."

"Okay!" charlie nodded with satisfaction and said, "That's settled. Before the concert tomorrow, you can help me arrange a matching staff member, and then I will find him directly."

Zuri said quickly: "Mr. wade, how can a distinguished guest like you arrange for other staff to come and connect? I must be responsible for it myself!"

charlie quickly waved his hand and said, "Farewell, you must be very busy by then, so I won't bother you with this kind of thing, just find someone who doesn't know me and tell him that I'm your feng shui master. ."

When Zuri saw charlie rejecting him in seconds, he immediately realized what charlie was worried about, and immediately said, "Mr. wade, you don't need to worry so much, although I, Zuri, are not a good person, I'm definitely not the kind of bad person who harms others and benefits oneself. I know you'll come with your wife tomorrow, and I'm sure I won't say anything wrong in front of your wife."

charlie wanted to say that I couldn't trust you, but on second thought, although the girl Zuri was a little hot-tempered, she must have a good mind when she was doing things, otherwise it would be impossible to cooperate with Stefanie for so many years.

So, he didn't refuse any more, nodded and said, "Then it will be hard for you."

With that said, he walked to the huge floor-to-ceiling glass window in front of the box and looked towards the stage.

On the stage, Stefanie sun is rehearsing a very fast-paced singing and dancing song with the dance team. Although the distance is a bit far, it is fortunate that the viewing angle can overlook the entire stage. In addition, there are huge LED screens on both sides of the stage. They are all playing close-up pictures of cameras from various angles, so the look and feel is also very good.

In this case, it can also guarantee the experience of his wife Claire when she watches the show tomorrow night.

When charlie was watching Stefanie sun's rehearsal at the venue, the atmosphere in the Fei Group headquarters building became more and more awkward.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4610 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4610)

A large number of members of the special operations team entered the building one after another and carried out a carpet search of the entire building. However, after searching the entire building, they did not find the shadow of Xion.

You must know that the equipment used by the members of the special operations team is the most advanced. The life detectors they use will not cause any impact even if they are reinforced concrete, and it is almost difficult to be interfered by humans. Strong, but also unable to escape the search of this instrument.

In addition, there are dozens of well-trained police dogs at the scene, even if there are people hiding across a few walls, the police dogs will be aware of it.

Therefore, this two-pronged approach can almost ignore any interference. As long as Xion is still at the headquarters of the Fei Group, he will definitely be discovered.

But even with such advanced detection capabilities, Xion may still not be found.

This made Li Yalin feel extremely surprised, and at the same time, he couldn't help but think about a question: Did Xion escape earlier?

But after thinking about it, he felt that it was unlikely.

His actions were already very fast, and he had never given Fei Kexin a chance to inform him. How could Xion escape in such a timely manner? !

The chief of the New York Police Department was already restless at this time, and none of the media reporters outside who had been identified and approved for release left, and were all reporting on the scene.

The dissatisfaction of the American people with the New York police has grown stronger as the reports continue.

Although everyone knows that the New York police are so aggressive to capture the murderers of Jamura and other scumbags.

However, the vast majority of people rely on their own view of right and wrong to judge the problem, not from the perspective of justice.

Looking at this matter from a judicial point of view, it is like Li Yalin. No matter how these people punish evil and promote good, they have no law enforcement power. Therefore, killing people without law enforcement power is an undoubted criminal act. If they commit a crime, they must be arrested and brought to justice and brought to justice.

However, the vast majority of New Yorkers and the American public view this matter from the perspective of personal right and wrong.

In their eyes, Jamura and these scumbags deserve to die. Whoever kills them is a hero in the eyes of the people.

They have been able to do evil for so long and harm so many innocent girls. It is also the dereliction of duty for the New York police. Since someone has done something for the New York police that they cannot do, the New York police should not bite like a dog. Instead, he should reflect on why he has not been able to discover what Jamura and others have done, instead of focusing on catching those unsung heroes who have done good deeds.

This view of right and wrong of the American people is almost the same as that of Hollywood superhero movies. In the eyes of the public, whether it is Spider-Man, Batman, Iron Man, or The Flash, as long as they are capable people, they should stand up for The society is free from violence and peace. As for what the power of law enforcement is not the power of law enforcement, the people do not care at all.

Therefore, what the New York police are doing now has caused great public anger, and the scolding on the Internet is getting louder and louder.

The mayor even personally called the police chief and asked them to immediately stop the blockade and search of the Fei Group.

The head of the police chief is as big as a fight. After repeatedly confirming that the special operations team has not found any trace of Xion, he immediately rushed into Li Yalin's temporary command center, pointed to his nose, and cursed: "Evacuate everyone immediately! Five minutes. After that, you go and explain to the media the purpose and result of today's action!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4611 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4611)

Li Yalin had been manipulated by the gambler's psychology at this time, and vowed to take this opportunity to fight.

Therefore, when he heard that the director wanted to withdraw people, he immediately retorted angrily: "If you withdraw people now, you will be completely forfeited!"

The director asked back: "Didn't you search thoroughly? When do you want to search? Even if I give you a month to demolish the Fei Group headquarters building bit by bit, you will not be able to destroy anyone. find out!"

Li Yalin blurted out: "Director, you ask the special operations team to find it again. I don't think she can escape. Maybe she is hiding in a corner of the Fei Group!"

The director said angrily: "Li, I know that before you retire, you must be unconvinced when you encounter such a case, but let me tell you, now this matter has caused huge dissatisfaction in front of the media and the public. Now there is a lot of swearing at the New York police on the Internet, and the mayor has received countless calls accusing us!"

Li Yalin hurriedly said: "That's why we have to catch Xion and find a way to force the Wanlong Palace to participate in this matter from her mouth!"

The director scolded: "Have you lost your mind? Regardless of whether those people were killed by Wanlongdian, I will only tell you one thing, now the people of the United States and even the whole world are clapping their hands for the death of this group of people. Applaud, and they all regard the murderer as a hero, even the mayor asked us to stop the investigation, do you still want to disobey the mayor's order?!"

Li Yalin was immediately speechless when asked.

He was silent for a moment, and then asked, "Director, you can close the team now, but what about after the team is closed? Will this matter never be investigated?"

The director waved his hand and said, "You don't need to take care of this matter. You will retire in less than a year. You will hand over your work tomorrow. During the period before retirement, you can rest at home with peace of mind. When you retire, I will give you a grand farewell ceremony and let you retire with honor."

Li Yalin became anxious when he heard this, and immediately said angrily: "You want me to get out now?!"

The director said word by word: "No, I just want you to take a break and leave the rest of the work to others to do."

After speaking, the director patiently persuaded: "Li, you have dedicated so many years to the police station, so you should leave more opportunities for young people before you retire. As for yourself, go and rest well."

"Impossible!" Li Yalin said coldly, "I can't retire early unless this case is solved! I can't allow me to retire with such a humiliating case at the end of my police career for so many years.!"

After that, Li Yalin threatened: "Director, if you want to take this case from me, then I will go to the mayor to complain to you!"

"Complain about me?" The director gave a wry smile, and then said helplessly: "Li, let me tell you clearly, in next year's mayoral election, the current mayor will fight for re-election, and this case has already brought his re-election. It will have a huge negative impact. If we cause public anger now, then the hope of re-election will be completely lost! So, it is not I want you to retire early, but the mayor wants you to retire early!"

As soon as these words came out, Li Yalin was stunned.

He really didn't expect that the mayor, who had repeatedly praised him in public, wanted to retire early.

Seeing that he was speechless, the director continued to add: "Li, there are only two options in front of you now, the first is that you apply for early retirement on your own initiative. Although this case will make you lose some face, But at least it won't ruin your reputation. It's nothing more than a stain. Don't your Chinese ancestors often say that people are not saints and sages, and no one has faults. There is such a stain, it will not have much impact on you. Besides, As the New York Police Commissioner, this case will also leave an indelible stain on my resume, and I can face it calmly, so why do you have to worry about it?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4612 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4612)

Speaking of this, the director cleared his throat and said again: "Cough cough ... Li, if you don't want to, then the New York Police Department can only publicly announce the suspension of your work. As for the reason for suspending your work, it is also in view of the You bear unshirkable responsibilities in many links in this series of cases, including but not limited to failing to discover the criminal facts of Jamura and others for such a long time, and the kidnapping of Jamura until Jamura was torn apart and failed to catch the murderer!"

Li Yalin's whole body suddenly burst into blue veins, and his anger came from his heart.

But the chief said with a serious face: "Li, when something big happens that can't be solved, someone will always take the blame. You have worked in the New York Police Department for so many years, you can't understand this truth, and I don't want you to carry it. This black pot, but if you are really stubborn, then I can only apologize to you in advance!"

Li Yalin gritted his teeth and looked at the other party. Even though he hated him, he also knew that the director was telling the truth.

In fact, most of the time, the New York police system is still very protective of the calf. If you cause trouble for your own people, the above will definitely find a way to solve it for the sake of overall image.

But the NYPD isn't everything.

Over the years, the New York police's violent law enforcement against ethnic minorities has caused huge public anger. At first, the New York police also tried to cover up their own people, but in the end they had to make sacrifices because of the great public anger.

The impact of the series of cases that Jamura is involved in is also extremely bad, but the incident happened suddenly, and the police station has not yet found a way to deal with it. However, it can be guessed from the current situation that it is very likely that this incident is difficult to investigate. Come on, so it won't be long before the NYPD has someone to blame.

It may be a wise choice to retreat now.

Moreover, Li Yalin also knows that now he has no choice.

Either active retirement or passive retirement, there is no second choice except retirement.

So, after weighing the pros and cons, he said dejectedly, "Okay, I accept it."

The director nodded with relief and instructed: "You go to a brief meeting with the media later, and they said that the police got a tip that there are suspects operating in this building, but after searching, it was confirmed that there was no trace of the suspect. , this operation may be a mistake in intelligence, don't explain too much about others."

Li Yalin said helplessly: "Okay, I'll go in a while."

The director nodded and said again: "I will arrange an internal meeting tomorrow morning, and you took the initiative to say at the meeting that you have been under too much pressure recently and you want to take a break. I will take advantage of the situation and agree to it, and then hand over the case to Bruno to continue to be in charge. "

Li Yalin hurriedly asked: "Do you want Bruno to continue the investigation?"

"Investigate shit!" The director waved his hand and said, "I will ask Bruno to change the direction of the investigation. On the one hand, we will investigate the identity information of the victims to see if there are other victims that have not been exposed, and on the other hand, we will also thoroughly investigate Jamura. And his other accomplices, let's see if there are any fish that slip through the net."

Li Yalin blurted out and asked, "What about the murderer? No more arrests?!"

"Catch a fart!" The director sneered and asked him: "You tell me how to catch it? If it wasn't for Wanlong Palace, can the real murderer be found? If Wanlong Palace did it, how would you let me go to Wanlong? The temple arrests people? Let's not say that the Wanlong Palace is not easy to deal with. Even if it is easy to deal with, I went to arrest people. How can I explain it to the people? After all the hard work, won't you be scolded? "

Li Yalin couldn't help but ask: "Director, we are law enforcement officers. If we don't arrest such criminals who blatantly violate the law, what can we do to maintain the dignity of the law?"

The director said indifferently: "At this time, we must learn to compromise. Our top priority is not to maintain the dignity of the law, but to satisfy the public. I intend to render it an unsolved case, and the public will not feel that we are incompetent. They will only feel that the heroes in their minds are more powerful than they imagined, and they won't come to trouble us again because we haven't solved the case!"

Hearing this, Li Yalin couldn't help but say: "Since it's rendered as an unsolved case, then I don't need to retire early, right? I'll obey the arrangement and no longer investigate this case!"

The director shook his head: "No, the mayor knows your temper, so he has told me that you must retire early!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 4612 (The Charismatic Charlie Wade Chapter 4612)

Therefore, what the New York police are doing now has caused great public anger, and the scolding on the Internet is getting louder and louder.
