

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5626 -

The Governor's Mansion of the Right Army is one of the Governor's Mansions of the Five Armies of the Po Qinghui (Benn).

The five-army governor's mansion is divided with Huaxia as the center, and the ancient emperors sit north and face south.

The military governor's office covers most of Southeast Asia, South Asia, and West Asia, including China; the rear military governor's office covers the entire Russia, Mongolia, and the Arctic Circle, as well as Turkmenistan, Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan, Kyrgyzstan, and Tajikistan in Central Asia. Stan;

the former military governor's mansion covers all the southern island countries in Southeast Asia, including the Philippines, Singapore, Malaysia, and Indonesia. In addition, the entire Oceania and Antarctica are also covered by the former military governor's mansion; the right army governor The government covers other parts of Europe except Russia, as well as the whole of Africa; the governor's office of the left army covers

North America and South America;

So powerful, but the overall combat power of his subordinates is enough to kill the four earls in turn.

At this time, Russell, Ou Bojun, was taken by Andre to the innermost box on the third floor.

Pushing open the heavy box door, the inside is actually one or two hundred square meters in size.

And what surprised Ou Bojun was that when he stepped into this huge box, he felt a tinnitus in his ears.

It is said that it is tinnitus, but it is actually because the ears are completely quiet all of a sudden, and the white noise that is full of daily life no longer exists here, so the ears can't hear any sound at once, and there is a strange feeling Discomfort.

Ou Bojun knew that this situation must be due to the super sound insulation and sound absorption in the box, where no noise from the external environment can be transmitted in, so there is this illusion like a vacuum.

At this time, a middle-aged man in his forties stood up in front of the huge dining table in the box. He smiled and walked towards Auber-Jun. He stretched out his hands a few meters ahead and said with a smile, "My subordinate Wu Shutong welcomes Russell. Uncle is here! I failed to go to the airport to meet him in person, please make amends!"

Ou Bojun instantly felt a strong sense of unreality.

Don't look at how respectful Wu Shutong is to him, and even calls himself a subordinate, in fact, his status is infinitely higher than his own.

I only found out today that the governor of the right army's governor's mansion is named Wu Shutong. Before that, I didn't know anything about him.

It can be said that his level in the Clearing Society is not enough to know his true identity.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5627 -

If you say that you are a master of the inner circle next to the emperor, then Wu Shutong in front of you is the important minister of the princes who dominates one side.

Moreover, he is also very keenly aware that now the Lord of England has begun to allow himself to get in touch with these real core members, which means that he will gradually be reused in the future.

So, he also stepped forward very politely, shook hands with Wu Shutong, and said with a smile, "Everyone is loyal to the Lord, so the Governor Wu and I naturally don't have to be so polite!

" An important minister who serves, you have a great style!"

After finishing speaking, he pointed at the dining table and said with a smile, "This subordinate prepares a little wine to clean up Uncle Russell, please sit down!" Uncle Russell cupped his hands and said politely, "Let's go together! "

The two were polite and sat next to each other at the huge dining table.

Wu Shutong ordered the other idlers to go out, and after the door was closed, he filled a glass of wine for Ou Bojun with his own hands, and said with a smile, "Uncle Russell, this is the first time this subordinate meets you, so I would like to offer you a glass, and please treat me with a face!" "

Ou Bojun could see that although Wu Shutong's cultivation had only reached the stage of transformation, he didn't dare to underestimate him. He quickly picked up the wine glass and said with a smile, "You are welcome, Dudu Wu. Come, let's drink this cup together!"

The two of them lightly touched their wine glasses, and both raised their heads and drank it all.

Putting down his wine glass, Wu Shutong's expression suddenly became sad, and he sighed, "Uncle Russell, to tell you the truth, this subordinate also knows why you came to the Governor's Mansion of the Right Army this time. The subordinate has always been extremely guilty of a major mistake, and knows that it is difficult to get rid of the suspicion. This time, I also ask Uncle to find out what happened and make the subordinate innocent!" Ou Bojun did not expect that Wu Shutong would suddenly cut to the point so quickly, put down the wine glass, and said seriously, "Wu Dudu, Oumou would like to know how the secret order of the British lord was conveyed down after it was given to you?" Wu Shutong said frankly, "The command of the British lord is directly given to the subordinate Under the principle that the fewer people who know, the lower the possibility of exposure and the lower the overall risk, the subordinates did not tell the person in charge of the intermediate links, but directly gave the secret order to the person in charge. Bick, the Jiedu envoy of the dead man's station, asked him to select the most elite members from the Xiaoqiguards (Bickford guards) (Bickford guards) to go to Northern Europe."

Ou Bojun asked, "Then those who have come into contact with the secret orders, do they know Lin Wan'er (Alani) identity?"

"I don't know." Wu Shutong said without hesitation He blurted out, "Uncle Russell, I am the only one who knows Lin Wan'er's identity in the entire Right Army Governor's Mansion. I passed the secret order to Bick that day, and I just told him to go to Northern Europe to catch a girl. Even he I don't know Lin Wan'er's identity, and as for the knight guards who went to carry out the mission, it is even more impossible to know, they only know that the girl is the master of Ying, and there will be rewards for catching her." Ou Bojun nodded, he had already guessed that it would be so In one case, this is the hero's behavior style. The hero hopes that the people who arrest Lin Wan'er don't know what Lin Wan'er's identity is and what's special about her, so as to avoid any risk factors in the middle as much as possible.

Thinking of this, he asked Wu Shutong, "Wu Dudu, did you ask Bick about this matter? He sent the person out. If there is a traitor in this matter, then the traitor must be him or his subordinates. It may even be him and his men!"

Comrade Wu Shu said, "Uncle Russell, his subordinates reported the whole incident to the Lord Ying. He and I felt that there should be no traitors among us, because Bick and the others didn't even know who they were going to arrest. Moreover, In order not to expose the importance of the target to the public, Bick himself wanted to lead the team himself, but I did not allow it, because according to the information we got, Lin Wan'er did not have any masters around her, and a few Xiao cavalry guards were enough to catch her and bring her back; "

"So, the logic of the whole matter is a bit weird. Only the Lord and his subordinates know that Lin Wan'er is going to be arrested. The subordinates are loyal to the Lord, so it is impossible to leak it to the outside world. Therefore, the subordinates feel that there is a bigger It may be that the other party has planted a dark line here, or that the other party has grasped our movements through some means that we do not know." Speaking of this, Wu Shutong said again, "Before you arrived in Naples, the British Lord explained to his subordinates that he The old man hopes that you can find out at which link we were caught by the other party, could it be that the other party has lurked into the dead man's garrison, or has secretly monitored the dead man's garrison, but we don't know it?"

Oberjun was silent for a moment, his brain was running fast.

Unfortunately, he is not Li Yalin.

If he were Li Yalin, he would definitely sort out all possible flaws in the whole operation.

As long as he is given enough time, he will definitely be able to focus the problem on the air express company that is specially used to transport the dead.

No matter how capable you are, it is impossible to hide the trajectory of an aircraft with a take-off weight of 200 to 300 tons in the sky. In fact, even a small aircraft may escape the radar. , will be multiple at the same time Radar station tracking lock.

Moreover, all radars are operated by the aviation security departments of sovereign countries, and intercontinental navigation must be relayed and controlled by multiple radar stations in multiple countries.

Therefore, Li Yalin's train of thought hit the weakness of the Po Qinghui (Benn). What he was eyeing was not the station of the dead soldiers, but the plane that dispatched the dead soldiers and the Xiaoqiguards (Bickford guards) (Bickford guards).

Cracking the clearing will require people around the world to maneuver quickly, but they have no way to hide the flight path of the plane. Even if they hide the shipping company very deeply, as long as they carefully check the civil aviation system data, they will be able to find their clues.
