

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5719 -

charlie's grandmother has always been very convinced of feng shui. The An family has experienced many hardships during this period, but they have been able to turn bad luck into good luck. This makes her feel that this is the heaven's favor for the An family. Pay more attention to Feng Shui.

It happened that Hong Changqing had been in Aurous Hill all the time, so she thought, before leaving for Aurous Hill, she would ask Hong Changqing to take a look at the Feng Shui of the new house.

Hong Changqing respected charlie's grandmother very much, and naturally he would not refuse this request, not to mention that there is also a relationship with charlie, which is even more obligatory.

Seeing that Hong Changqing readily agreed, charlie's grandmother couldn't help thanking, "Then thank you Hong Tianshi! This matter will not affect Hong Tianshi's original plan, right?" Hong Changqing smiled and said, "Mrs. An, to tell you the truth

, I have already planned to settle down in Aurous Hill for a long time, and even the entire Taizhen Dao has been moved here." "

Really?" charlie's grandmother asked in surprise, "Why did Hong Tianshi suddenly make such an important decision?" Decided?"

Hong Changqing said, "The environment in Aurous Hill is more suitable for our martial arts practitioners to practice, and I also believe that all the disciples of Taizhen Dao can achieve different degrees of breakthrough here." charlie's grandmother said with a smile, "That's really great Yes, we may take it with us for a long time when we go to Aurous Hill this time."

Hong Changqing smiled and said, "Mrs. An, there are now more than 200 members of Taizhen Taoism in Aurous Hill. If you have any needs, just ask."

charlie's Grandma smiled and said, "Then I will thank Tianshi Hong first."

Hong Changqing hurriedly said, "Mrs. An and Hong, why are you so polite? If you need Hong to do anything at any time, you only need to say a word, and Hong will definitely go all out." After that , he said again, "By the way, Mrs. An, please have someone send me the address of the new house, and I will go over to have a look right now."

charlie's grandmother hurriedly said, "Okay Hong Tianshi, I'm here Someone send you the address!"

After thanking charlie's grandmother for a while, she ordered someone to send the address to Hong Changqing.

Hong Changqing looked at the address named Wanliu Villa, handed the phone to Maxton, and urged, "Maxton, let's navigate here first."

After entering the address into the navigation, Maxton said in surprise, "Master, this place is very close to the Champs Elysees Hot Spring Hotel!"

Hearing this, Hong Changqing quickly looked at the navigation screen and found that Wanliu Villa and Champs Elysees Hot Spring are only separated by a few mountains, and the straight-line distance is two kilometers None.

He said in amazement, "This... this is too close..."

Maxton on the side zoomed in on the map, looked at the road information on the map, and said, "Master, although the straight-line distance is quite close, it is only two places away. They are all dead-end roads, if you really drive from Champs-Elysees, there is still a distance."

She reset the navigation, set Wanliu Villa as the destination, and Champs-Elysees Hot Spring Hotel as the departure On the ground, the navigation quickly calculated the route, and the whole journey was about five kilometers.

After Hong Changqing saw the route, he breathed a sigh of relief. He knew that charlie didn't plan to recognize An's family yet. If they were really close, charlie might be at risk of being exposed.

Fortunately, both Wanliu Mountain Villa and Champs Elysees Hot Spring Hotel are built on the hillside. There are several mountains between the two places. It is very difficult to walk, and ordinary people will not choose such a road. As for driving, after all, it is five kilometers away, and the Champs Elysees Hot Spring Hotel is currently closed to the public, so the privacy is guaranteed enough.

So, he asked Maxton to pull over and stop, and he got out of the car quickly, walked to a place where there was no one, and called charlie.

As soon as the phone was connected, he hurriedly said courteously, "Master Wade, I just received a call from your grandmother. She said on the phone that your uncle has asked the housekeeper to buy a real estate in Aurous Hill. Come to Aurous Hill."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5720 -

charlie was slightly startled, but soon returned to normal, he already knew that his grandmother's family was coming to Aurous Hill, so he was not surprised to hear the news.

He paused, and asked Hong Changqing, "Did my grandma say when she will come over?"

Hong Changqing hurriedly said, "Back to Master Wade, your grandmother wants me to help her go to the newly purchased house to check Fengshui. If there is no problem, I think I will leave soon." Then, he quickly asked, "By the way, Master wade, do you want my subordinates to pick up some feng shui problems, and then help you drag it on for a while?" "

No need." charlie sighed softly, and said calmly, "Sooner or later, the one who should come will come, and I will find various reasons repeatedly. If you stop it, it will be counterproductive."

After that, he asked again, "By the way, where is the newly purchased real estate of my grandmother?"

Hong Changqing hurriedly said, "Back to Master Wade, it is in a place called Wanliu Villa. I am not very familiar with Aurous Hill, and I have never been there, but just now my subordinate asked Maxton to look on the navigation, it seems that the Wanliu Villa is not far from the Champs Elysees Hot Spring Hotel, and the straight-line distance is only one or two kilometers away, It should be less than five kilometers by car."

charlie had never heard of Wanliu Villa, after all, the location of Champs-Elysees Hot Spring was considered a relatively remote suburb, and he was not familiar with the suburbs of Aurous Hill.

However, hearing from Hong Changqing that the Wanliu Villa is very close to the Xiangxie and the hot springs, this also made charlie somewhat worried.

After all, I am not yet ready to recognize my grandmother's family, and there is always a risk of being exposed if I get too close.

But after thinking about it, he felt that this might not be a bad thing, after all, grandma and the others had already been targeted by the Poqing Society, and he could protect them better if he was closer to his grandma's family.

Thinking of this, he said to Hong Changqing, "Go to Wanliu Villa first to see the situation, see how many people the An family has arranged there, and whether there are any immediate family members of the An family, if not, I will bring a mask and go with you Take a look, and tell them when the time comes, I am a disciple of your Taizhen Dao."

"Alright, Master Wade!" Hong Changqing agreed without hesitation, and then said, "Master Wade, if this is the case, then my subordinates will now Hurry over and have a look."

charlie hummed, "I'll wait for your news."

After more than 20 minutes, Maxton drove to Wanliu Villa.

The reason why it is called Wanliu Villa is because the entire villa is located on the edge of a barrier lake halfway up the mountain, and it is full of dense weeping willows.

It is said that it is Wanliu Villa, and it is estimated that there are more than 20,000 to 30,000 willow trees inside and outside the villa.

This barrier lake is not too big, but the scenery is pleasant, and it is located in the middle of the mountain, so it is very quiet.

There are not many houses in Wanliu Villa, but each one is a single-family villa. Most of the people who live here are senior officials and nobles, so the security work here is also very good, and there are security patrols everywhere.

The An family bought six villas in Wanliu Mountain Villa in one go, and these six villas were all close together, showing the shape of a five-pointed star, five of which were on the five corners of the five-pointed star, and the other The villa is in the center of the pentagon.

At this time, a housekeeper of the Anjia is here leading a team to thoroughly clean the five houses and investigate potential safety hazards.

In addition to confirming that these five houses do not have any hidden dangers such as collapse, fire, and electrical circuits, it is also necessary to evaluate the safety level of these five houses, find out the weak points of each house, and then conduct targeted inspections. strengthen.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5721 -

Knowing that Hong Changqing was coming, the housekeeper had already been waiting at the gate of the villa.

After Hong Changqing entered the villa, he began to look at Feng Shui in a decent manner, and at the same time he was chatting with the housekeeper, asking if anyone from the An family would arrive first.

Because Hong Changqing and An's family are old acquaintances, and they have helped An's family a lot, the housekeeper trusted Hong Changqing enough, so he told him about the general situation.

The people who came to Aurous Hill this time were the housekeeper and more than 20 Anjia staff.

Their job is to find the right property, buy it, and remodel it.

After confirming that there were no immediate family members of An's family at the scene, Hong Changqing sent a message to charlie to tell him the situation.

charlie also replied quickly, saying that he would be there soon.

So, Hong Changqing said to the butler, "Oh, by the way, I have a student who has a lot of research on Feng Shui secrets. I'll ask him to come over and have a look later. The two of us will make up for each other's gaps and make up for the omissions. More comprehensive."

The butler blurted out without hesitation, "That's really great, thank you Hong Tianshi!"

Hong Changqing smiled slightly and waved his hands, "It should, it should."

charlie soon drove to the main entrance of Wanliu Villa. He deliberately put on a mask to completely cover half of his face to prevent being recognized by others.

Fortunately, these servants of An's family didn't know much about charlie and bruce, and charlie wore a mask, so no one would connect the two.

When charlie saw Hong Changqing, he pretended to be respectful and called Master.

Although Hong Changqing felt that he could not accept this great gift, but in order to take care of business, he could only bite the bullet and nodded.

Afterwards, he called charlie aside, and gave an overview of the layout of the six villas.

charlie didn't need to guess, he knew that his grandparents would definitely live in the villa in the middle. He roughly looked at the feng shui here, and it was generally facing south, with water in front and mountains in the back, which was helpful for wealth and career.

However, no kind of Feng Shui is perfect. Some Feng Shui bureaus are good for wealth and power, some Feng Shui bureaus are good for children and grandchildren, some Feng Shui bureaus are good for studies or peach blossoms, and some Feng Shui bureaus are good for the body and mental state.

However, it is naturally impossible to want all the characteristics to be strong.

Although it can be good for wealth and career, there is nothing outstanding in other aspects.

Living here, although the body will not be harmed by Feng Shui, it is difficult to get any help from Feng Shui.

Although charlie's grandfather had just recovered from a serious illness, his dementia had not been alleviated. If he could find a place with good geomantic omens and good health, without taking medicine or treatment, the disease would be gradually relieved.

In addition, grandma is also getting older, and for a long-term life, Feng Shui that is good for health is the most important thing.

It's just that the feng shui bureau, which is good for health, can't be effective just by adjusting some decorations casually.

This kind of feng shui bureau also has a very high demand on the surrounding environment.

charlie naturally didn't have time to change the overall environment here, but he came up with a good way, which was to use the records about formations in the "Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures" to set up a small array.

Therefore, he took advantage of his unpreparedness and hid a Rejuvenation Pill in the ceiling of the living room of the villa.

Afterwards, he used a little spiritual energy to form a formation around the Rejuvenation Pill. Once the formation starts to operate, it will release the medicinal power of the Rejuvenation Pill evenly and slowly. At that time, anyone in the formation can absorb it invisibly. Considering the medicinal power of Huichun Pill, if grandpa lives here, the symptoms of dementia will be greatly relieved or even completely cured in a short time.

Although charlie once complained in his heart that his grandfather was harsh to his father back then, after hearing about his previous experiences, charlie felt more sympathy for the old man.

Moreover, charlie doesn't want him to forget his parents one day, and at the same time, he also hopes that when he meets An Jia in the future, he can still remember himself!
