

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5735 -

At 9:00 p.m. New York time, this Boeing 748 modified private jet took off from Kennedy Airport and headed for China Aurous Hill, 10,000 kilometers away.

After twelve hours of flight, An Jia's plane landed at Aurous Hill International Airport at nine o'clock local time in Aurous Hill.

The staff who arrived in Aurous Hill ahead of time arranged for a convoy to take the old couple, Asher, Li Yalin and others to Wanliu Villa.

It was already late at night when the convoy arrived at Wanliu Villa. At this time, Wanliu Villa was exceptionally quiet and comfortable, and the butler of the An family directly brought the four of them to the central villa.

After more than ten hours of exhaustion, the four of you were somewhat exhausted. After you assigned the room, you went back to your room to rest.

The single villas of Wanliu Villa have a large area, with a structure of three floors above the ground and one basement, with a usable area of at least 800 to 900 square meters. Because the area is large enough, each room is designed to have an independent In the bathroom suite, the old couple lived in the largest room on the third floor, Asher lived next door to them, and Li Yalin temporarily lived opposite Asher.

Back in the room, Li Yalin didn't care about rest, so he sent a message to charlie, telling him that he had arrived at Wanliu Villa.

At this time, charlie was lying beside Claire, waiting for Li Yalin's report.

Claire beside him had already fallen asleep, and when he received the news from Li Yalin, he was filled with emotions for a moment.

The arrival of grandpa and grandma is not the key to really touch him.

What really made him unable to calm down for a long time was the arrival of his grandparents, which reminded him involuntarily of the past, the day when his parents were killed.

From the moment when grandpa and grandma's plane took off, charlie's mind was full of various fragments of the incident.

When his parents had an accident, charlie was still attending classes at school. The weather at that time was already in mid-to-late June, and the summer vacation was about to begin. The weather in Aurous Hill was extremely hot that day, with dark clouds covering the sky for a long time. Depressed, until the afternoon, with the sound of thunder, the sky suddenly rained heavily.

The rain was so fierce that it took only ten minutes to completely cover the entire school playground. Charlie still remembered that at that time, there was thunder and rain, and many children in the class were even scared, shivering.

And at that moment, the door of the classroom was suddenly pushed open. Stephen Thompson, who was already drenched and covered in rain, rushed into the classroom regardless of the teacher's obstruction, picked up Charlie who was sitting on the seat, and rushed out of the classroom.

Charlie still remembered that in the rain, there were more than a dozen middle-aged men in black clothes. Their faces were covered with rain, and their clothes were tightly attached to their bodies because of the soaked rain, making them look extremely embarrassed.

What surprised Charlie even more was that each of them was holding a boy in their arms that was very similar in age, figure, and clothes to him. After Stephen Thompson gave an order, a dozen people took a dozen children and quickly gathered in the original place. The ground scattered in all directions, and he was hugged by Stephen Thompson, running wildly in the rain.

Later, Charlie was sent to the orphanage where he grew up. Before leaving, he told Charlie that his parents had been killed, and told Charlie not to reveal his true identity to anyone in this life.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5736 -

The ignorant Charlie didn't have time to be sad, Stephen Thompson disappeared from the orphanage, and from that day on, Charlie lived in the orphanage as an orphan for ten full years.

In the first few years of the ten years, he lived a life that was almost isolated from the world.

At that time, they received primary education in the orphanage. The orphanage never organized them to go out. There were no spring outings, tomb-sweeping, visits, or performances. These children stayed in the orphanage every day. The aunts in the orphanage do some housework within their ability, and even the vegetable fields in the orphanage often need their children to help maintain them.

At that time, Charlie always thought that the orphanage must have no funds, and it was very rare to ensure that they could receive education and have enough food.

But it wasn't until he got to know Stefanie again and asked Stephen Thompson that he found out that in fact, all of this was arranged by Stephen Thompson early on. The reason why the orphanage isolated them was to protect him alone.

It was also those years of isolation from the world that helped him avoid everyone's search.

Whether it was Charlie's relatives, parents' friends, or the enemies who wanted Charlie's life and exterminated them, they all set their targets in places other than Aurous Hill after several years of searching to no avail.

No one could have imagined that after so many years and so many people digging in Aurous Hill, Charlie is still in this city.

Now, after a lapse of twenty years, Grandpa, Grandma and Uncle came here again, and through the descriptions of Li Yalin and Stefanie, Charlie knew that Grandpa and Grandma had never given up looking for themselves for so many years, so in Charlie's heart deep down, he also wanted to recognize his grandmother's family, at least so that the two old people would stop worrying and blaming themselves for their unknown life and death.

However, when he thought that the Poqing Society was still unwilling to let his Grandpa and Grandma's family go, he could only temporarily suppress this thought.

But Grandpa and Grandma have already arrived here after all, and judging by their posture, they should plan to live here for a long time. I will live under their noses for a long time in the future. In this case, I have to make sure not to reveal myself. It's not so easy to think about his identity.

However, even though he was full of emotions in his heart, he still did not change his decision.

I can only hope that my grandparents, who are close at hand, can't find any clues related to me.

This night, Charlie stayed up all night, but his grandparents, Uncle and Li Yalin who lived in Wanliu Villa all slept very soundly.

The old man An Qishan has suffered from sleep disorders for a long time. He has not had a full night's sleep for at least ten years, and in recent years, the time he can really fall asleep is no more than five hours a day.

In most cases, he was lying on the bed around ten o'clock in the evening, tossing and turning. It was around twelve o'clock in the morning before he could barely fall asleep, but he couldn't sleep for more than an hour, so he would definitely wake up before one o'clock, and then it would take another hour or two to fall asleep again.

The long-term sleep disturbance has caused his mental state to be not very good, which also exacerbated the deterioration of his Alzheimer's disease at another level.

But last night, the problem that had persisted for at least ten years seemed to be solved after he came to Aurous Hill.

After he took a shower last night, he slept until dawn.

He didn't wake up once, nor did he have any dreams, and he seemed to be in a rare state of deep sleep throughout the night.

The wife on the side also felt the same way.

Although the old lady does not have Alzheimer's disease yet, she is getting older and it is difficult to guarantee the quality of sleep.

But last night, like the old man, she slept until seven o'clock in the morning, and slept very soundly.

Because I slept so well, the first feeling I felt when I opened my eyes was an indescribable and strong sense of relaxation.

Seeing that the old man looked very good, she subconsciously asked him, "Qishan, how did you rest last night?" An Qishan leaned against the head of the bed, still murmuring in disbelief, "I haven't slept for many years." So at ease."

After that, he said again, "Maybe it's because of the exhaustion and fatigue yesterday, so I slept so soundly..."

Immediately afterwards, he shook his head himself, and murmured, "It shouldn't be just this The reason... Maybe it has something to do with the environment here. I took a look on the way here yesterday. It seems to be on the mountain, and there is a lake. Feng Jing should be good, but it's too late, so I didn't see it clearly. It's so good. In such an environment, people will definitely be able to relax a lot."

The old lady nodded slightly in agreement, and she also felt the same.

The next second, she suddenly looked at An Qishan in horror, and blurted out, "Qishan, do you still remember what happened yesterday?!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5737 -

For Mrs. An, during this period of time, she has long been used to explaining his illness to her husband the first time she wakes up every day, and introducing to him the current time and what happened recently, even yesterday.

This is mainly because An Qishan's memory has deteriorated very severely. He can't even remember the events of the past ten years. What happened every day will definitely be forgotten the next day.

However, the old lady heard from the conversation just now that her wife still remembered what happened yesterday, and the blurry scene she saw under the moonlight when she came to Wanliu Villa by car. Very surprised.

An Qishan was a little surprised at this time, touched his forehead, and asked her, "Do you remember what happened yesterday?"

The old lady said with joy, "It's been a long time since you woke up the next day. I don't remember what happened the day before."

Then, the old lady couldn't wait to ask him, "What do you remember about what happened yesterday? Tell me quickly!"

An Qishan frowned, "I just remember that we seemed to sit The plane came over after a long time, and after getting off the plane, I took a car and drove all the way to the suburbs, and then because I was too tired, I went to bed." The old lady asked hurriedly, "

Then do you still remember what happened earlier? An

Qishan asked her, "How early is it?"

The old lady asked, "Do you remember what happened before we left in the United States? Do you remember that we talked with Asher and Yalin on the plane before we left?" What?"

An Qishan's expression suddenly fell into a daze, he looked around in a daze, and then looked down at his hands, his expression fell into a strong dilemma.

He thought about it for a long time, but he couldn't restore the memory before the plane took off.

He said with a painful expression, "What's going on... The farthest I can remember is getting off the plane and rushing all the way here. I can't remember anything else..."

The old lady quickly comforted, "It's okay, it's okay, Qishan, it's great that you can remember these, because you couldn't even remember anything that happened the day before." As she spoke, the old lady couldn't help saying excitedly,

"Over the years, your condition has been deteriorating, and I have never seen the hope of a reversal, but now it is a very, very good signal! It seems that Hong Tianshi told me that this place is a treasured place of geomantic omen, and it is true. It's true! It's really the right time to come to Aurous Hill!"

The old lady didn't know that the old man's improvement on the first night of living in Wanliu Villa was entirely due to Charlie's presence in this villa. The inconspicuous little formation laid down.

Don't look at this formation, it just uses a rejuvenation pill and some spiritual energy, but the value of this formation is more than 100 billion.

According to the old man's routine after he got sick, his memories every day are like articles written on the beach. As the tide keeps beating the beach, most of the content on the beach will be washed away, and when the tide rises at night, it will disappear. Wash away everything on the beach.

Therefore, when the old man arrived in Aurous Hill last night, most of today's memories have been almost forgotten. He rushed all the way from the airport to Wanliu Villa, when he was in this villa and was secretly nourished by Charlie's rejuvenation pill, his memory was immediately strengthened under the effect of the formation.

That's why, he can still remember what happened after getting off the plane, but he can't remember everything before getting off the plane.

The old lady was very happy at this time, she quickly said to the old man, "I have to tell Asher the good news quickly!"

Then, she pulled the old man and took the elevator to the first floor.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5738 -

At this time, in the huge restaurant on the first floor, the servants had already prepared a sumptuous breakfast, and An Asher and Li Yalin were already sitting at the dining table full of energy, devouring all kinds of exquisite breakfasts.

It wasn't just the old couple who felt that they had a particularly solid and comfortable sleep that night, the two of them felt the same way.

The two felt as if they had returned to the heartless and energetic age of seventeen or eighteen years old. After exhausting all their energy during the day, they could immediately fall asleep in bed.

Seeing the old couple coming, the two quickly stood up and said hello, while An Asher asked with concern, "Mom and Dad, how did you two sleep well last night?" The old lady said excitedly, "You slept so well, And let me tell you some good news, the old man still remembers what happened yesterday!”

“Really?!” An Asher was startled that the fritters fell from his hands, he looked at his ruddy father and asked hastily, “Dad, do you still remember everything from yesterday?!”

The old man said, “I remember part of it... from the time I got off the plane and came here, I remember it very clearly, and I can’t remember it clearly before that.”

An Asher blurted out, “I just remembered I told Yalin that this place seems to be a treasure land of geomantic omen. After I slept here, I felt very relaxed all over my body. He said he felt the same way, and I thought it might be something happened between the two of us. Hallucinations or delusion, I didn’t expect the two of you to feel the same way! What’s even more incredible is that Dad, you can still remember what happened yesterday, which is too amazing!” He looked at Li Yalin who was beside him and asked,

” Yalin, do you think there is something metaphysical in it?”

Li Yalin nodded with a smile on the side, and said, “This matter is indeed a bit magical, and more importantly, I can really feel the wonderfulness of it. Maybe there are some metaphysical things.”

Although Li Yalin said so, he was already keenly aware of this wonderfulThe change is definitely not metaphysics, and it must have an inseparable relationship with charlie.

He was even sure that this was written by charlie.

It turned out that Li Yalin didn’t believe in metaphysics, but since he was rescued by charlie, he not only believed in metaphysics, but also was in awe of it.

Moreover, he was a detective himself and was very sensitive to all kinds of information. Although charlie didn’t tell him the mystery of this villa, but in the phone call with charlie before he came, charlie specifically explained to him, We must ensure that the old man and the old lady live in this villa, and try to let them stay for as long as possible.

Originally, he didn’t understand either. On the one hand, charlie didn’t want to recognize the old couple, and on the other hand, he wanted them to stay here for a longer period of time. There was obviously a contradiction between the two.

But this morning, when his body had this wonderful feeling, he realized that this was actually charlie’s real purpose.

charlie has already made a big fuss here, so that the people who live here can get a lot of physical improvement and improvement.

Maybe, as long as the old man stays here for a few more days, the troubles caused by Alzheimer's disease can be easily resolved.

Thinking of this, Li Yalin also admired Charlie even more. Although he has been unwilling to recognize his grandparents, he really took great pains to settle down!

At this time, the old lady said happily, "It's only a day since I came here that I can see such a big improvement. If I stay here for a few more days, maybe this disease will be cured by itself!" After that, she remembered what, quickly looked at the old man at the side, and said excitedly, "Qishan, from now on, try to remember everything that happened today, every detail, and everything you heard and said to others. In other words, let's review it here tomorrow morning to see how much memory you can retain of today!"
