

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5739 -

Hearing what the old lady said, Li Yalin was overwhelmed, and blurted out, "Auntie! Your idea is great!"

After that, he immediately took out his mobile phone, turned on the video recording, and said, "Let's take turns to record for Uncle An, Asher, you hurry up and arrange for someone to buy a few action cameras that can be carried with you to record non-stop. When Uncle An rests at night, he will have someone import all the footage into the computer and cut it out. We will replay it tomorrow!"

"Asher was also very excited, and said without hesitation, "Okay! I'll arrange it now!"

The old lady said again, "I think the environment here is really good, Qishan, let's have some food quickly, and I'll take you to the Walking by the lake might have better results!"

Upon hearing this, Li Yalin quickly said, "Auntie, I have some disagreements on this point, I think it's best for you and Uncle An to stay in this villa Don't go anywhere!"

The old lady asked suspiciously, "Yalin, what are your considerations?"

Li Yalin said solemnly, "Auntie, to tell you the truth, I went out for a walk after getting up early in the morning. To be honest, although the environment here is good, it is far from the feeling of a paradise. It is nothing more than a mountainside with a small lake, and then there are more willow trees. To be honest, this kind of environment is not in Aurous Hill. In the city, of course it is considered to be very good, but compared with the Anjia Manor, I think it is still a lot worse, there is no reason why the mountains and rivers here are much better than the Anjia Manor." Speaking of this, Li Yalin concluded "So I feel that if this kind of physical improvement is really a kind of metaphysics, then the mystery of this metaphysics must be in this house, not in the external environment." The old lady said thoughtfully nodded.

She felt that what Li Yalin said made sense.

As far as the natural scenery is concerned, the strength of the hardware outside the gate of Wanliu Villa can't even match the level of a 1A scenic spot in China.

However, the manor that settled in the United States is almost on the same level as a 5a-level scenic spot. If it is said that the changes in everyone's body are affected by the environment, it seems that it is not the case for a place like Wanliu Villa.

Li Yalin said to Asher at this time, "By the way, Asher, do the servants who came here in advance live in other villas?" "Yes

." Asher nodded, and said, "All the servants and bodyguards are If I don't live in this villa, what I thought at the time was that this villa will be reserved for An's family to live in, and the servants only need to come in during the day to do some daily work." Li Yalin said, "You can ask them about it on the sidelines

. Ask them if they have felt any obvious changes in their bodies during the few days they lived here."

Asher immediately took out his mobile phone, made a call to the housekeeper, and consulted on the sidelines.

These housekeepers and servants who arrived early have been living in several surrounding villas, but according to their descriptions, they didn't have any special feelings when they lived here for a few days.

As a result, Asher also agreed with Li Yalin's statement even more, and felt that the reason why his father's memory was relieved and the reason why others felt extremely relaxed, presumably lies in this villa.

Therefore, Asher said, "Dad, Mom, don't go out these few days, try to stay in this villa for 24 hours, and see if Dad's condition will improve. "

The old lady hurriedly said, "I also plan to go to the place where your sister lived in the past today.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5740 -

I asked someone to check it before. It seems that the old house has been bought by the ex-wife of Eastcliff bank's eldest son.

" Asher frowned and asked, "The ex-wife of the eldest son of banks? Is it Zayne's ex-wife?" "

Yes." The old lady nodded slightly.

Asher looked surprised, "Zayne's ex-wife, why did you buy the place where my sister and my brother-in-law lived?

" Or, she has always missed your brother-in-law for so many years. Some time ago, she angered the Su family because of bidding for that old house, and was almost cleared by the banks family. At that time, the incident was quite big, and we heard it in the United States ."

"Yes..." Asher nodded and said, "I don't know the specific details. I only know that the scandal that the old man of the banks family wanted to kill his daughter-in-law was widely known. I didn't expect it to be because of this..." So, An

Asher said again, "In this case, let Dad rest here, and I will accompany you there."

The old man said without thinking, "No, I will go too!"

Asher hurriedly said, "Dad, you should cultivate well in the villa. , we are still waiting to review it with you tomorrow, to see how much you can remember tomorrow."

The old man waved his hand, "You can replay it at any time, and you can replay tomorrow's game the day after tomorrow. Since your mother is going to Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) and I also want to follow the place where bruce lived before."

Asher was about to say something, but the old lady stepped forward and said, "Asher, your father is right, we will live here for a while anyway, The replay is not on today, let's go together!"

Asher saw that his mother had spoken, so he stopped talking, nodded immediately and said, "Okay, Mom, you and Dad will have dinner first, and I will arrange it."

Immediately, Asher winked at Li Yalin, and the two left the restaurant and came to the courtyard.

At this time, Asher looked at Li Yalin and asked him, "By the way, Lao Li, judging from your experience, will my big nephew go back to that old house after so many years? If we start from the old house, Can you find any relevant clues?"

Li Yalin nodded and said, "It's possible that people are emotional animals after all, and the vast majority of people have this kind of plot, and in all cases where suspects escaped and were arrested, more than half of them The suspects were all caught when they went home quietly or contacted their family members, the last memories of Charlie and his parents are in that old house, and they should all go back and have a look.

" , he said again, "However, it has been twenty years since Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) was killed. Even if charlie came back, in such a long timeline of twenty years, it may be difficult to find any useful clues."

"That's true." Asher nodded lightly, and said, "After all, it has been twenty years. Even if charlie has come back, I am afraid that there is no way to figure it out. My mother wants to visit the old house, probably more because she wants to go to the old house. Take a look at the place where my sister's family lived."

Li Yalin nodded and said, "I understand this very well."

Li Yalin knew very well that charlie's hands and eyes were in Aurous Hill, and this matter must have been settled long ago, even if Asher found him At the door of the house, as long as charlie doesn't want to see him, it's impossible for Asher to find any specific clues.

As for himself, charlie saved his life, so of course it is impossible to betray charlie.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5741 -

What's more, he also feels that charlie is really not suitable to recognize An Jia at the moment, so he can only follow the fake appearance to make suggestions. As long as he finally guides them to prevent them from really discovering charlie's clues, his mission will be completed.

At this time, Asher said again, "By the way, Lao Li, have you ever thought about investigating the benefactor who saved your life?"

Li Yalin was startled, and said, "The benefactor who saved me, whereabouts are here." Even if I want to find him, I don't have any clues."

Asher shook his head, "It's not that there are no clues, and it's in Aurous Hill!"

Li Yalin deliberately asked him, "Asher, what do you mean? "

Asher said seriously, "When I participated in the Huichun Pill Auction in Aurous Hill, I told you that I have always wanted to know who made the Chundan this time, but I have not found any valuable clues until An's family was attacked in New York and our family was rescued by benefactor. I didn't even think about the clue of Huichun Dan. "

Speaking of this, Asher looked at Li Yalin, and said slowly, "But since you said that you were saved by elixir, I feel that the person who refined the Rejuvenation Pill, and the person who saved you and the An family People, it should be the same!

Li Yalin was surprised and asked him, "You mean, the benefactor is in Aurous Hill? " "

Asher said, "I don't know if Mr. En is in Aurous Hill, but there is someone in Aurous Hill who knows him, that is Jasmine moore from the Moore Family in Aurous Hill!" "

"Jasmine moore? " Li Yalin looked puzzled.

Asher explained, "The Moore Family is one of the organizers of the Huichun Pill Auction that day, and Jasmine moore is the head of the Moore Family!" At the same time, she is also the auctioneer of the day's auction! These clues come together, if she doesn't know En Gong, she will be in hell! Li Yalin's heart froze, and he said with hesitation on his face, "Asher, that benefactor has great powers. Since he doesn't want to meet us with his true face, isn't it inappropriate for us to investigate him like this?" "

"It is not suitable." Asher nodded without hesitation, but immediately said firmly, "Old Li, my sister and my brother-in-law were killed in Aurous Hill, and my nephew also disappeared in Aurous Hill. Now, this benefactor The clues to Aurous Hill are also connected to this place, I always feel... there may be some kind of connection here. Li Yalin quickly asked tentatively, "Oh, you don't think that the benefactor we are talking about is your big nephew, do you?" "

Asher waved his hand, "That's very unlikely... I was thinking, since this benefactor is a master of the world, would my eldest nephew just happen to be rescued by him back then? "

Li Yalin coughed twice, and said, "You, don't think about it, you haven't found this kind of assumption, it's very close to the plot of martial arts? Besides, Engong is not the person who settled down in your family. Why did he save your nephew in Aurous Hill twenty years ago, fly to the United States twenty years later to save your family, and then save me? "

Asher said embarrassingly, "Yes... what you said makes sense... but even if benefactor has nothing to do with my nephew's clues, he still saved our family after all, so I want to take the time to visit Jasmine moore and see Let's see if we can get any clues from her, even if she is tight-lipped to us, she will definitely be able to help me bring a few words to Engong."
