What's important is that as long as he practices martial arts hard, he can always be by charlie's side for a long, long time in the future.

the next day.

An Qishan in Wanliu Villa didn't wake up until after eight o'clock.

He slept very soundly yesterday and today, almost like he has never slept in the past twenty years.

And the wife on the other side, after visiting Du Haiqing yesterday, went to many places in Aurous Hill to search for clues, and his body was a little tired, so he was still sleeping soundly at this time, while he was sitting alone on the desk in front of the window, and began to use paper. The pen is writing something.

An hour later, the old lady woke up. After this night, her body was the same as when she woke up yesterday. She felt very relaxed and comfortable, and even her breathing became much smoother than before.

When she saw that the old man was writing something at the desk, she walked up to him and asked him, "Qishan, what are you writing?"

An Qishan turned around and said to the old lady, "Write what I can remember about yesterday." Things."

When the old lady heard this, she immediately asked nervously, "How, what do you remember?"

An Qishan said seriously, "I seem to remember everything."

"Remember?" the old lady asked in surprise, "Do you still remember the whole day? Do you remember what happened in the morning?" An Qishan nodded and said, "

When I got up yesterday, you asked me how I was resting. In the same way, I said that I have not slept so well for many years, and then I said that maybe I was a little tired from the flight the day before, and you were surprised at that time, and asked me what I still remember..." The old lady asked excitedly

"What's next? Do you remember what happened next?"

"Yes." An Qishan said again, "Then you took me to see Asher and Yalin, and you even suggested that I try to remember everything, and replay today Let's see how much I remember..."

After speaking, An Qishan said again, "Then I remember everyone was discussing whether it was the environment of Wanliu Villa that improved me, or the metaphysics of this villa played a role... .."

"My God..." The old lady said dumbfounded, "It sounds like you remember everything..."

An Qishan nodded, and said seriously, "I didn't feel any fault, but, further on I don't have much impression of what happened a while ago..."

The old lady was a little incoherent with excitement, and kept murmuring, "Great! Really great! Not only did your condition not continue to deteriorate, but it has improved greatly, your memory of yesterday is much clearer than mine. As for your previous memory, I believe you will be able to get it back slowly. Even if you can't get it back, it doesn't matter. Your memory has been greatly improved, as long as we help you review the game, you will definitely remember it!" As she spoke, she quickly said, "Let's go downstairs and tell Asher and the others the good news!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5757 -

In the restaurant on the first floor at that time, An Asher said to Li Yalin while eating, "Yalin, yesterday's video has been edited and synthesized according to the normal time. How much do you think the old man can remember yesterday?" Li Yalin smiled

. Said, "I think it's at least a little concrete, the old man should be able to remember it!"

Li Yalin had great trust in charlie. Thinking about it, charlie must have tampered with this house.

At the same time, charlie also drove to Mrs. Lewis (Aunt Angie)'s house as scheduled, preparing to accompany Claudia to report to Aurous Hill University.

At this time, Claudia has prepared her certificate and admission letter, and is ready to go to Aurous Hill University.

Facing the upcoming college life, although Claudia was calm on the surface, she inevitably had some expectations in her heart.

After all, college life is a dream that most young people have been looking forward to for many years since they were teenagers.

At the same time, Lin Wan'er (Alani) from Zijin Villa is also full of expectations.

However, what she was looking forward to was not college life at all, what she was looking forward to was the moment when she met charlie.

For this moment to come, Lin Wan'er (Alani) has prepared for a long time and rehearsed in her heart for a long time.

She also prepared her own documents and admission notice, and asked Sister Xian to drive her to the parking lot of a shopping mall near Aurous Hill University early to wait.

It is about ten minutes' drive from Aurous Hill University. Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s plan is that as long as Claudia arrives at the school to complete the registration, she will let sister Xian drive there.

She has already learned about the registration process in advance. Regardless of any major, freshmen must first complete the registration. After checking the information, the school will register for the students, apply for a student card and a campus card, and at the same time send the new students to the school. Inform the new students of their class information, including the class number, classroom address, and the name of the instructor.

In addition, the school will also inform the freshmen of the dormitory building number and give the dormitory keys to the freshmen, and then the freshmen can go to their dormitories to pack their own beds.

Considering that charlie will be very, very shocked when he sees him, and it is even very likely that he will have to find a way to determine whether he really remembers him on the spot. When Claudia finished the registration process and went to the dormitory, she went to register again.

In this way, he could avoid meeting charlie in public, and set the place where he and charlie would meet again in the relatively private environment of the dormitory.

However, Lin Wan'er (Alani) was not sure whether charlie would show up today.

But according to Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s speculation, if charlie accompanied Claudia to report for duty, then he would most likely accompany Claudia to the dormitory, and the freshmen entered the school, and the girls' dormitory has not yet started to move in, so male parents will definitely not be rejected And the accompanying staff, when he arrived at the dormitory one step later than Claudia, charlie should be there.

If charlie doesn't accompany Claudia to report to school today, Lin Wan'er (Alani) is not worried.

After all, she had already greeted the school in advance and arranged herself and Lin Wan'er (Alani) in the same dormitory. Even if she couldn't see charlie today, she could build a good relationship with Claudia and find an opportunity to meet charlie !
