

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5779 -

Seeing Jasmine moore, Asher smiled very modestly and said, "Hello, miss Jasmine, we meet again. Thank you for taking time out of your busy schedule to see me."

Jasmine moore smiled and said, "You are welcome."

She then invited Asher sat down in the sofa area, while he himself sat opposite Asher, and asked curiously, "I don't know why Mr. An came to see me this time, what's your business?"

"At the Rejuvenation Pill Auction, An Mou was indeed a little abrupt and broke the rules of the auction, so I have been a little embarrassed, and I came here today to apologize to you and the owner of the Rejuvenation Pill behind you." Jasmine moore smiled

, He opened the mouth and said, "Mr. An doesn't need to make a special trip to apologize for this. The auction has already made its own opinion on your behavior. You have already paid the corresponding price for your behavior at that time, so there is no need to pay extra for it." Apologize."

Asher smacked his lips secretly, but he didn't expect Jasmine moore to be really awkward, and she wanted to take the initiative to apologize, which was a sign of inferiority, but she didn't even give herself the chance to bow her head.

In fact, Jasmine moore respected Asher in her heart.

This respect has nothing to do with his status as An's eldest son, but because he is charlie's uncle.

To charlie, Jasmine moore has long felt that there is nothing to repay, and she naturally has to respect charlie's elders.

But the problem is, charlie doesn't plan to recognize An's family yet, so Jasmine moore doesn't dare to be polite to Asher, because Asher knew that he would bow his head even when he came to the door about the previous auction. If he is too polite, he will definitely notice something abnormal.

At this moment, Asher didn't dare to be angry or displeased, so he could only smile and ask cautiously, "miss Jasmine, to tell you the truth, An has always admired the owner of the Rejuvenation Pill. At the meeting, my father was seriously ill and urgently needed good medicine to heal him, so I was a little abrupt because of my impatience, I hope miss Jasmine can help me explain it to him and ask for his forgiveness."

Jasmine moore smiled and said, "Mr. An is thinking too much. What you broke the rules of the auction that day has nothing to do with him. This logic is like the traffic rules are formulated by the traffic control department, but if you bump into someone while driving, there is no need to report to the traffic control department.” Apologize, and don’t need to be forgiven by the traffic control department.”

Asher felt like being kicked back to the spot repeatedly like a football.

Because of repeated repetitions, he still summoned up his courage and said, “miss Jasmine, let me tell you straight, I have something, I want to verify it with the owner of Huichun Pill in person, and I hope you can introduce me, regardless of success or failure. No, the An family will always remember miss Jasmine’s kindness!”

Jasmine moore pursed her lips and said seriously, “Mr. An, it’s not that I don’t want to help you, it’s just that the gentleman you want to see has left Aurous Hill since the last auction. “

Leaving Aurous Hill?” Asher hurriedly asked, “Excuse me, does miss Jasmine know the name of this gentleman?”

Jasmine moore shook her head, “I don’t know.”

Asher asked suspiciously, “miss Jasmine, This gentleman is cooperating with your Moore Group. You auctioned his Rejuvenation Pill on your behalf, and you also collected the huge amount of money sold. With such a close cooperation, how can you not know his real identity? If miss Jasmine can give you some pointers One or two, the An family will do their best to repay it!”

Jasmine moore replied, “Mr., the dragon can see the end, and my Song family is lucky to be selected by him to organize the Huichundan auction for him. Real identity? As for the proceeds from the auction you mentioned, if I tell you that the funds are still in the account of the auction, and the husband never took them away, would you believe me?” Asher fell silent suddenly

He knew that it was up to him to believe or not to believe this kind of thing, and he had nowhere to prove whether he believed it or not.

In desperation, he could only explain in an extremely sincere tone, “miss Jasmine, to tell you the truth, some time ago, my An family suffered a catastrophe. Fortunately, a mysterious person came to help at a critical moment, and then this mysterious person even sent me A dying friend of mine was also rescued, and I came this time to verify whether the savior and the gentleman you mentioned are the same person.”

After that, he said pleadingly, "moore Miss must have the contact information of that gentleman, An Mou does not ask you to give me his contact information, but please help me to verify it with him..."

Jasmine moore smiled slightly, nodded slightly, and then she looked Looking at Asher, the words were not surprising and he said endlessly, "Mr. An is talking about the fact that the An family and Inspector Li were in danger in New York before and were rescued halfway?" Asher's expression suddenly became horrified

What happened to An's family was dangerous and never disclosed to the outside world, so so far, no outsiders know about it.

And when I mentioned this matter just now, I didn't explain any actual clues, I didn't mention New York, let alone why.

And Jasmine moore not only accurately named the location of New York, but even named Li Yalin's name. It can be seen that she knew exactly what happened to her family in New York that day.

So, he hurriedly asked, "miss Jasmine, how did you know about this?"

Jasmine moore said indifferently, "Because Mr. contacted me two days ago, Mr. said that if An's family finds him, he will bring you a message. Asher was very excited, and quickly asked her,

"What?"

, you don't need to take it to heart."

Asher's eyes widened, and his voice was trembling with excitement, "It's him! It's really him! This is really great! Great!!

", he continued to ask with great joy, "miss Jasmine, may I ask your benefactor what else did he say?"

"No more." Jasmine moore shook her head, and said, "Mr. An knows that Mr. An wants to verify this matter, so it can be regarded as a solution to Mr. An's doubts. Is Mr. An satisfied now?" Asher said with emotion, "The An family and Mr.

An Mr. An didn't have any friendship, and An Mou even talked nonsense at Mr.'s auction, but instead of blaming Mr. An, he even saved the lives of more than a dozen members of my An's family and the life of my friend Li Yalin. I can't repay you forever..."

Jasmine moore said earnestly, "Mr. An, don't worry about it. Mr. An said, but if you do good deeds, don't worry about your future. You must be saved because you are worth saving."

Asher cupped his fists respectfully "miss Jasmine, if there is a chance, please take me to convey the An family's thanks to Mr. An! In addition, there is another matter that the An family would like to ask him to help, and I would like to ask miss Jasmine to convey it on my behalf. If he can agree, the An family is willing to give half of the family property Give it up!"

Jasmine moore said, "Mr. An, tell me."

Asher said, "An has a nephew who has been missing for twenty years. His name is charlie, he is twenty-eight years old, and he is my sister Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom). , and my brother-in-law Bruce's only son, who has been looking for changes in the world for 20 years and can't find him in the family. Look for charlie's whereabouts, and once you find charlie, the An family will definitely hand over half of the family property!"

Jasmine moore was dumbfounded.

She didn't expect that the An family would even give away half of their property in order to find charlie.

However, for Asher and the An family as a whole, making such a promise is not just in vain.

Before Asher came, the An family had discussed it at a family meeting. Judging from the situation of An's family, if the Qing Dynasty would still hold on to An's family, then An's family would be safe for the time being. I am afraid that it would be doomed in the future. After all, the strength of both sides The disparity is huge, and An Jia has no chance of winning.

In the eyes of the An family, the person who is most likely to save An's family from being wiped out is the mysterious benefactor who rescued more than a dozen members of An's family in New York that day.

As long as it can be confirmed that En Gong is the owner of Huichun Pill, not only will there be a strong guarantee for Anjia's crisis, but even the old man's illness may have a great chance of being completely cured.

In that case, this person is the key to the survival of the entire An family.

And he himself has great powers, if he is willing to help and find out charlie's whereabouts, it will be absolutely no problem.

Therefore, if you can guarantee your own safety and have a chance to make the old man completely heal, if you can also find charlie, it will kill three birds with one stone for An's family, so what if they hand over half of their assets?

After a while, Jasmine moore recovered from the shock, and said, "Since Mr. An said so, I will try my best to find a chance to convey it to you." Asher stood up, clasped his fists and said, "Thank you miss Jasmine!

"Forget it, he quickly said, "miss Jasmine, there is one more thing, I want to ask you for help!"

Jasmine moore said, "Tell me, Mr. An, if I can do it, I will definitely help." An Asher said seriously, "I'm not going to hide it from you Speaking of Ms. moore, the An family has decided that they will stay in Aurous Hill for a long time to come. Therefore, the An family is currently planning to establish a new business center in Aurous Hill. At that time, more than half of the An family's business will be from the The United States moved to Aurous Hill;"

"However, this process will take at least several years to gradually realize. The first stage is to first obtain a large enough land in Aurous Hill and invest in building an office center no less than the size of Apple's headquarters in California. , the total investment budget is not less than eight billion US dollars. I heard that the Moore Group has strong strength in Aurous Hill and has experience in commercial real estate development. If Ms. moore does not dislike it, please ask the Moore Group to implement this project of Anjia Developed!"

"Eight billion dollars?!" Jasmine moore blurted out in extreme shock, "Mr. An... such a large scale of investment is unheard of in the history of Aurous Hill, the largest commercial real estate project undertaken by the Moore Group so far. Including a skyscraper, several annex buildings, and a large shopping mall, the total cost is only 500 million U.S. dollars... let alone an 8 billion U.S. dollar project, the Moore Group can't even think of it..."
