

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5786 -

On the phone, Jasmine moore reported what Asher just mentioned to charlie in detail, and after listening to charlie, he couldn't help laughing and said, "It seems that my uncle is really sincere. If Song If these two cooperations between the Moore Group and Anjia can be implemented, the market value of the Moore Group may double or even more in the next year." Then, charlie said, "In addition, my uncle's discussion about Aurous Hill Kangyang The idea of development almost coincides with my previous plan. With my current ability, if I want to help Aurous Hill increase its international influence and attract more capital, the best way is indeed the health care and medical care. line, if it is operated well, maybe it will take a few years to make Aurous Hill the fifth first-tier city in China."

Speaking of this, charlie sighed softly, and said, "However, this plan may not go so smoothly, and to advance so quickly, at least I will have to wait for some hidden dangers at hand to be resolved, but this is also an advance plan." It's a good opportunity for layout. Anjia's capital operation is high-level and the layout is also large. Wanting, you will benefit a lot from cooperating with them. Don't miss such a good opportunity." Jasmine moore said a little nervously, "Master Wade..."

you The conditions offered by my uncle are really too generous. To put it bluntly, these two cooperation projects are completely giving money to the Moore Group, and not only the money but also Anjia's popularity and influence... Wan Ting really deserves it..."

charlie said with a smile, "Jasmine, you don't need to have such a psychological burden. The two conditions that An's family gave you are not simply giving you money;" "Since they want to For the development of Aurous Hill and the establishment of an Asian headquarters in Aurous Hill, it is necessary to spend money on large-scale construction projects. Moreover, it is unrealistic for you to ask them to bring a team from the United States to construct such a large project, so he still has to cooperate with local companies. He contributes money and you work hard, and you earn his money, isn't that justified?" "

As for the health care project he mentioned, you don't have to have any psychological burden. The reason why he wants to cooperate with the Moore Group is that And give the Moore Group 10The purpose of the shares is to get me through the Moore Group. To put it bluntly, if I don't come up with the Rejuvenation Pill, this project will be just talk on paper. If this project wants to make money and make a lot of money, it must have my cooperation. Therefore, it is reasonable to sell more benefits. "

Jasmine moore was silent for a moment, and still said with some entanglement, "Master Wade... This... Is this appropriate..."

charlie smiled and said, "There is nothing inappropriate. The current market value and profit of the Moore Group are still relatively low among domestic private enterprises." If you don't rank in the top 50, if you want the Moore Group to stand out from so many private enterprises, this time is the best opportunity

; The advantage of this is that it is also helping An's family to build a bridge. Only if you have a good relationship with An's family, can I establish contact with An's family through you in the future without revealing my identity;" "To take a step back, my grandfather has always been in poor health , in case he is seriously ill one day and needs pills, and it is not convenient for me to come forward, it is most suitable for you to come forward to deliver the medicines for me, so no matter what, you cannot refuse An Jia's proposal. "

Hearing this, Jasmine moore's entangled heart finally became firm, and she said without thinking, "Okay, Master Wade, then I'll give your uncle a message. "

charlie smiled slightly and said, "There is no need to be so anxious. My uncle is such a smart person. The reason why he didn't ask you to give him an answer immediately is because he knew that you would definitely ask me for advice. If you reply now He, then he will only feel that you can establish contact with me anytime and anywhere, which will make him feel that we are very familiar with each other, and even make him feel that I am even in the same time zone as you, you'd better hang out with him first I will reply to him later. "

Jasmine moore came back to her senses, and quickly said, "Okay, Master Wade, Jasmine understands!" "

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5787 -

On the way back to Wanliu Villa, Asher had been waiting for Jasmine moore's assistant to call.

He knew that the conditions he offered to Jasmine moore today were very sincere, and Jasmine moore would definitely ask her benefactor first, and then give herself a clear answer.

However, he didn't know where that benefactor was at this time, whether he was in Aurous Hill, or in Huaxia, was still unknown.

Therefore, Asher speculated in his heart that if the benefactor was in Huaxia, or even in Aurous Hill, Jasmine moore would definitely contact him as soon as possible and report the matter to him, and Jasmine moore would be very happy to agree to her own conditions. Get someone to give you an answer.

If the reply comes quickly, then perhaps the benefactor is in Aurous Hill.

However, until Asher arrived at Wanliu Villa, Jasmine moore still did not respond.

When he returned home, the An family immediately put down their work and came to the front, waiting to bring his latest news.

The old lady asked him nervously, "Asher, how did you go to chat with Miss moore from the Moore Group today? Did you get any valuable news?"

Asher nodded and said, "I have already Ms. moore asked for proof, the benefactor who was like our family in New York, and later saved Yalin, is actually the owner of Rejuvenation Pill!" "

What?!" An's family was shocked!

The old lady asked a little excitedly, "Asher, is this matter sure? Engong is really the owner of the Huichun Pill?" "Yes!"

Asher nodded solemnly and said, "I am not sure about this matter." I didn't reveal anything to Ms. moore. Ms. moore took the initiative to tell me. I just said that I wanted the contact information of the owner of Huichun Pill, and said that I wanted to ask him for confirmation. Ms. moore directly said that we were attacked in New York Moreover, Ms. moore also said that Engong instructed her to tell me so two days ago."

The old lady said in horror, "This...that is to say... Engong knew about our coming to Aurous Hill, so he also Knowing that we have arrived in Aurous Hill, we will definitely find a way to verify his identity..."

"Yes!" Asher said, "Engong is very clear about what I want to do when I go to the Moore Group this time. He knows that I want to ask Ms. moore about his identity, and he also knows that our intention is not to expect Ms. moore He can really tell us his identity, but I hope that Ms. moore can help us with a sentence, so he has already greeted Ms. moore in advance..."

The old lady was a little excited, and said with trembling hands, "This is a good thing , This is a great thing! We didn't have any clues about Engong before, but we have now, and what we can confirm now is that if we want to have any contact with Engong, or want to convey any information to Engong, we can It was realized through this Ms. moore! Although it is not a direct connection, it is already a very big breakthrough!"

As she spoke, the old lady said again, "Engong can hold the Huichun Pill Auction in Aurous Hill, not other places in Huaxia. City, this also proves that he is a native of Aurous Hill with a high probability, even if he is not, then he has an inseparable connection with Aurous Hill, and our visit to Aurous Hill this time is equivalent to coming to his home field!" Homula asked at this time "Brother, have you mentioned our conditions to Ms. moore?"

" 10 shares of the Moore Group."

Homula hurriedly asked, "Then what did Miss moore say?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5788 -

Asher replied, "Miss moore didn't give me a clear answer, she said she would think about it, I think she must be I need to report to Engong, and see what Engong means."

Homula patted his thigh, "Oh! Brother, you have to drive for more than half an hour to come back. Did Miss moore reply to your message?"

Asher said, " Not yet."

Homula was a little disappointed, and sighed, "It seems that Engong is probably not in Aurous Hill..."

Asher nodded, "I think the same as you. If this reply takes a long time, then I It is estimated that there is a high probability that En Gong is not in Aurous Hill."

As he said that, Asher said again, "And when I was talking to Ms. moore, she also mentioned that Engong had left Aurous Hill. After I wondered whether Engong was in New York, I kept going Stay overseas."

Homula smacked his lips and said, "I can't tell, maybe I never came back."

Li Yalin witnessed that the two gradually deviated from the direction, so he coughed twice and said, "Ahem...you two can't be simple. You can judge whether the person you are looking for is in Aurous Hill based on the time it takes for others to reply. Those criminals with a little brain know how to deal with the temperature and environment of the body after killing someone, so as to interfere with the police and the police. The forensic doctor judged the accuracy of the time of death, why do you think that as long as people reply, they are already in Aurous Hill, and as long as they reply late, they are not there?" Asher said, "Old

Li, I am not so absolute, I just think , if Ms. moore knows that the other person is in Aurous Hill, according to our habits, we know that this person is by our side, and we will subconsciously think of calling him directly for anything; " "But if we know that this person is currently in another place, Then before we make a call, we will first consider whether our business is urgent, whether the other party is busy, whether we will disturb the other party if we rashly call, if the matter is not very urgent, should we wait untilContact the other party at night when most people are not too busy;" "

If the other party is abroad, we have to consider the time difference. Although it is already afternoon here, we are on the other side of the earth. Maybe it hasn't been lit yet..."

Li Yalin smiled and said, "So your judgment is very one-sided. You can only be sure that if that Miss Moore returns to you soon, then there is a high probability that this benefactor is in Aurous Hill, but now she is not. I'll get back to you soon, so you can't relax your vigilance and conclude that this person is not in Aurous Hill. You can consider that the other party may also consider this, so as long as the other party instructs Miss Moore to reply to you later, it can interfere with your judgment."

When he said this, Li Yalin couldn't help sighing in his heart, "You two brothers, don't be fooled by your cleverness...Although I promised Charlie not to reveal his identity information, but you have already touched Aurous Hill. , just don't take yourself out again, follow this line, you will definitely have surprises..."

Hearing this, Asher couldn't help asking him, "Lao Li, what do you mean by your words?" What do you mean, if we want to find this benefactor, he is probably still in Aurous Hill? Li Yalin hurriedly said, "

I didn't say anything, he might definitely be there, I just think everyone should not be so anxious, the next negative judgment, like us solving a case together, the most fearful thing is to deny one thing in a hurry. Blocking your own way is like we solve the disappearance case. Although it seems that the people around the missing person love him and care about him, but you must not deny the suspicion of any one of them in your heart, even his father. Mom, you can't deny their suspicions until the evidence is sufficient."

Speaking, Li Yalin said again, "Since we have come to Aurous Hill this time, I think we should not deny Aurous Hill easily, we must first believe in our hearts that Charlie may be in Aurous Hill, and benefactor may also be there!" "

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5789 -

After Li Yalin finished speaking, the old man An Qishan, whose condition has improved a lot in the past few days and his memory is gradually recovering, suddenly said with a serious face: "Yalin is right! We used to be too easy to deny by intuition. One thing, that's why I haven't been able to find Charlie for so many years! Sometimes when doing things, I have to go against my intuition!"

Asher nodded and said, "After my sister's accident, we searched for it in Aurous Hill for a while. , did not find Charlie's whereabouts. At that time, we judged by intuition that Charlie must have left Aurous Hill. Since then, we have been looking for Charlie in places other than Aurous Hill. After twenty years of searching, we have not found anything. Maybe, Charlie I never left Aurous Hill before!"

Homula was silent for a moment, then suddenly raised his head, frowned and said, "Now that I think about it, the water in Aurous Hill is really unfathomable! Besides, according to what we can From the scattered clues I have, I speculate that Engong should be from Aurous Hill!"

"Indeed." Asher also agreed: "Engong chose to hold the Huichun Pill Auction in Aurous Hill, and gave this opportunity to the local moore family in Aurous Hill. Group, and I got some news that after the Huichundan auction, the Moore Group contributed more than 10 billion U.S. dollars in taxes to Aurous Hill, and also donated tens of billions of U.S. dollars in charitable funds. The money should be auctioned for Huichundan The auction money I got!"

said, Asher said: "Besides, there is one more thing, the Moore Group invested over 100 million US dollars after the auction , A large-scale welfare home was built in Aurous Hill. It is said that the design scale of this welfare home is the largest in the world. It can not only provide the living needs of tens of thousands of orphans, but also provide them with excellent educational resources. Maybe make such a decision!"

Li Yalin's eyes lit up immediately, and he blurted out: "Building a welfare home? It seems that this benefactor attaches great importance to orphans! Could it be that he was also born as an orphan, so he takes care of orphans so much? "

Asher nodded and said: "It's also possible what Lao Li said."

charlie's aunt Tablita couldn't help but said: "If you investigate the welfare home in Aurous Hill, will you have a chance to find out the identity of your benefactor?"

Hearing this, Li Yalin's eyes lit up, and he exclaimed in his heart: "Isn't this just drawing inferences? Following this line of investigation, not only can you find out Engong, but you can also find out that Engong is actually the grandson of the An family!"

At this time, Asher waved his hand suddenly and said: "I think we should stop searching for the identity of our benefactor, he knows every step of our way, if we go to search for his identity rashly, I am afraid that the benefactor will treat us Feeling dissatisfied."

Homula agreed and said: "Brother is right, since we have come to Aurous Hill, it is tantamount to being under the watchful eye of benefactor. At this time, we should try to keep a low profile and try not to make any small moves. "

Li Yalin looked at the serious two brothers, and felt anxious for a while, but he didn't dare to reveal too much, so he could only sigh in his heart: "You two brothers are really crouching dragons and phoenixes. Chen, I'm afraid it will be as difficult as climbing to the sky!"

At dawn the next day, in the northern suburbs of Aurous Hill.

Before the sky really brightened, Zhang Ermao was already standing by the dry toilet in a farmyard.

Holding a shovel in his hand, he dug out the three magical artifacts that Charlie had given him from the smelly soil beside the toilet pit.

These three artifacts were mixed with the rotten and smelly pig internal organs and buried for two days. When they were dug out, there was a pungent stench.

He pinched his nose to pick out the three magic artifacts from the soil, and carefully brushed off the dirt around the magic artifacts with a soft brush, then wiped them carefully with a dry towel, and put them under his nose to smell them vigorously.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5790 -

At this time, the smell of blood and fishy smell has faded a lot. According to Zhang Ermao's previous experience of disposing of antiques, this smell is very close to the smell of jade wares newly produced in the raw pit.

The things that come out of the pit, especially the items that are buried next to the body, such as jade, will have this faint stench no matter how they are cleaned after being dug out of the ground for a period of time. A year later, there will still be a faint residue. Ordinary people may not be able to smell anything, but people like Zhang Ermao who often deal with antiques can tell the difference as long as they smell it with their noses.

The two pieces of jade were originally old things. Now that they have this kind of smell, people who are knowledgeable will almost conclude that these things came from the pit.

After confirming that the things were all right, Zhang Ermao hurriedly drove back to the city and went straight to the Antique Street.

In the antique industry in Aurous Hill, the business rule of working at sunrise and resting at sunset is still maintained. According to insiders, you can't do antique business when it's dark, because you're afraid that it will be dark. Second, I am afraid that I will be robbed in the dark.

Therefore, merchants and stall owners in Antique Street basically start their business at dawn and close their stalls before dark.

Today coincided with Saturday, so when Zhang Ermao arrived at the antique street, the antique street was already as bustling as a vegetable market in the early morning.

Zhang Ermao is already an old man in Antique Street. After following Hong Wu some time ago, he left here and never came back. So when he suddenly appeared, many people recognized him and greeted him warmly: " Brother Ermao, why do you have time to come back and take a look today?"

"That's right, Brother Ermao, you are now a popular person beside Hong Wuye, why do you still have time to come and see us poor brothers?"

Zhang Ermao I thought to myself: "When I was cheated in the Antique Street, none of you looked down on me. Whoever yelled at me and talked about Zhang Ermao all day long? Now I follow Hong Wuye, You all started calling me Brother Ermao."

Thinking of this, Zhang Ermao sneered, and said to the crowd, "I will tell you all, I am no longer with Hong Wuye." "

What?" Just now he was still enthusiastic The man who called him Brother Ermao immediately asked, "Zhang Ermao, you are doing well with Hong Wuye, why did you suddenly say that you don't want to follow?" "That's right." The other man said, "I said Zhang Ermao, eating and drinking spicy food with Hong Wuye is not much better than tossing these things in the antique street?"

A woman selling fake copper coins said with a smile: "Zhang Ermao, you must have made some mistakes and were caught. Has Master Hong come out?"

Zhang Ermao waved his hand and said casually: "Don't mention these things, I plan to come back and set up my stall again."

Then, he looked at the man who greeted him first, and said, "Mr. Four, after knowing that I have left, I will lend you my original stall for free, and you see that I am back now, you should return my position to me." The man called Zhao Lao Si immediately waved his hand and said

: "Hey, don't, Zhang Ermao, when you left, you made a promise that you would not come back to this antique street, so let me use this stall, this man is a big man, one spit and one nail, you can't go back on your word. "

Zhang Ermao laughed and said: "Fourth, you think I'm a tiger in Pingyang, right? I might as well tell you that I left from Hong Wuye. It wasn't Hong Wuye who drove me away, but Zhang Ermao. I want to go."

"Blow it and you will." Zhao Laosi pouted and said, "We have known each other for so many years, but I still don't know you? How excited, how excited, now you say that you left Hong Wuye voluntarily, why do I not believe it?"

Zhang Ermao laughed and said, "Let me tell you the truth, Mr. Zhao, I used to be a good buddy who made a fortune in antiques, but now he has changed completely. He has become a well-known Hong Kong businessman, and now he asked me to cooperate with him to sell antiques. The kind of shopping I am talking about is not the kind of small business we used to do, but selling antiques to Hong Kong companies worth tens of billions. Boss Dao, maybe he can earn tens of millions with a single order, and I will retire after two years of working for a small goal, isn't this much better than fighting and killing with Master Hong?" Several people gathered together. Hearing this, his eyes widened immediately.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5791 -

Zhao Laosi exchanged glances with the others, stepped forward and said with an apologetic smile: "Brother Ermao, I dare you to find a new way of making money, and you can't look down on working with Master Hong!" "Hey

!" Zhang Ermao raised a hand solemnly, pointed his palm at the crowd, and said solemnly: "It's not that I, Zhang Ermao, look down on Hong Wuye. It is said that Hong Wuye's big tree is not suitable for my development, Zhang Ermao, after all, I have been dealing with antiques for so many years, and I am still the most comfortable in this line of work."

The other man stepped forward and gave Zhang Ermao a light kick with his arm, and said with a smile: "Brother Ermao, since you have such a way to make money, can't you take me with you? You see, my brother and I are in Antique Street. After so many years, I haven't caught a big fish, and I can't earn a Passat all year round. If you have a good way of making money, you can help your brother, okay?" He said, and took out a car from his pocket.

A pack of cigarettes came, took out one and handed it to Zhang Ermao, and said courteously: "Come here, Brother Ermao, smoke a cigarette!"

Zhang Ermao took the cigarette, put it in his mouth, and said with a smile: "Xiao Teng, if you really want to make money with me, it's not that I can't think about it, but I don't know if you're a solid person or willing to do it..." The man called Xiao Teng quickly took out his lighter.

While lighting a cigarette for Zhang Ermao, he said respectfully: "Brother Ermao, as long as you are willing to take me with you, I will definitely work hard without complaint!" The fourth brother Zhao also said quickly: "Brother Ermao, take me too."

"Let's go together! I have no other advantages as a person, but I am obedient! As long as you bring me with you, I will absolutely obey you and fight wherever you point!" Others also expressed their sincerity to Zhang Ermao at this time. Come on, since Zhang Ermao is willing to give up his position as a big celebrity next to Hong Wuye, it proves that he has definitely found a bigger source of income, and he also said that this new source of income itself is related to antiques, not only Zhang Ermao It is handy, and everyone is familiar with it, so everyone wants to share a share with Zhang Ermao.

At this time, Zhang Ermao said calmly: "Everyone, I just came back here, and the new business has not been completely smoothed out, so I don't need so many people, so at this initial stage, let Zhao Laosi and Xiao Teng call me first." Let's do it, don't worry if it's not the other's turn, when I straighten out the business, everyone will have a share!" The others couldn't help but feel a little disappointed, but Zhao Laosi and Xiao Teng were extremely excited.

The two hurriedly dragged Zhang Ermao to a place where there was no one else, and Zhao Laosi said flatteringly: "Brother Ermao, you can use your booth anytime you want, and if you don't have enough, you can even use mine. If you need me and Xiao Teng Whatever you do, just tell me."

Zhang Ermao took a puff of cigarette and asked the two of them, "Give me a solid explanation, how much money do you make a month now?"

Zhao Laosi raised his hand and said, "Brother Ermao, let me tell you about my situation first." You know, I am not as talkative as you, and I am not as good at fooling around as you. If I do well in a month, I can only earn 10,000 to 20,000 yuan. Sometimes I don't open much for a month, and I even earn a booth fee. I can't come out..."

Xiao Teng also said repeatedly: "Yes, yes, Brother Ermao, my situation is not much better than that of the old four. It's the end of August, and I don't even have a net profit of 3,000 yuan this month, and Now the competition in the antique street is fierce, and all these shits can't be rolled up. I used to sell a bunch of fake five emperor coins. Why don't you give them ten or twenty yuan if you want? If you are wronged, you want three or five. It's not impossible, but now those new idiots sell it for three to five yuan. Tell me, the purchase price of this bunch is eighty cents. He sells it for three to five fucking yuan Qian, I can't get enough of the Northwest Wind!"

Zhang Ermao smiled, and said to the two of them, "Well, let's not say that Brother Ermao doesn't take care of you, my family will introduce some Hong Kong Businessmen have come to our Aurous Hill one after another, from now on, you two don't need to set up a stall, one goes to the airport, the other goes to the high-speed rail station, hold a sign for me to pick you up!" "Pick up?" Zhao Laosi and Xiao

Teng Glancing at each other, the latter asked, "Brother Ermao, the work of picking up people is too unskilled, how much can I pay for picking up people..."

Zhang Ermao smiled inscrutably, and said : "The ones I asked you to pick up are all big customers who spend a lot of money. Sometimes they are not convenient to come forward, so they will send their people over. You two just hold signs and wait at the airport and high-speed rail station. I made an agreement with them, as long as they arrive and see you, they will take the initiative to meet you, and don't think this job has no technical content, I will give each of you three thousand yuan a day!" "Three thousand yuan per person?!"

two I was speechless, but at the same time I couldn't help being a little excited. Three thousand yuan a day, this income is much higher than that of their stalls.

Zhang Ermao said again at this time: "But I'm ugly, I'm not sure when the big client will come, so you have to go to the airport and the high-speed rail station every day to guard, the two of you have to go early every morning, You can go home and rest until the flight and the high-speed rail are stopped. During this period, you can't miss any flight or any high-speed rail. If anyone receives a customer, I will reward 10,000. If anyone misses a customer, I will never forgive He, do you understand?"
