

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5826 -

Seeing that the money was open, Zhao Laosi (Reed) saw that the other party handed over several hundred yuan. He didn't care to check how many pieces there were, so he quickly withdrew the money. To be honest, this finger pull is not something I can sell as soon as I say it, it is my elder brother's thing, and it is for me to wear it, and it is for me to make a token when I come to pick up people at the airport." "Treasure?" Willie frowned slightly.

It's not like he hasn't doubted why there is a magic weapon in the hands of an ordinary person.

If it was just a coincidence that this guy got it, and I bought it from him at a slightly higher price, then I was lucky.

However, this person said that this thing was a token given to him by others, which made Willie a little vigilant.

So, he deliberately asked Zhao Laosi (Reed) (Reed), "Brother, what is the explanation for this token? Can you tell me?"

" Hehe smiled, and said in a low voice, "My elder brother asked me to pick up Hong Kong businessmen here. Hong Kong businessmen have always been big customers in our antique circle, and there are some gray transactions that are not convenient to explain to outsiders, just like secret agents. It's like conveying information, there must be a token."

Then, Zhao Laosi (Reed) pointed to the signboard on which he received people, and said with a firm face, "I speculate, what Colin says on my signboard is a fake at all. Yes, when Hong Kong businessmen come to buy cultural relics, they must not use their real names, so they will probably have to rely on the wrench in my hand to confirm whether I am from the family!" Fourth Zhao Laosi (Reed) did not lie to Willie

Zhang Ermao (Cade) (Cade) himself didn't explain things clearly to them, and deliberately concealed and ambiguous, leaving them a lot of room for speculation.

Why do you say that there is no confirmation letter when the person will arrive? That must be because you have to be careful and be careful!

Besides, why do you have to wear a finger wrench from a death pit when you pick someone up? That must be the key to let the Hong Kong businessman identify the authenticity of the connector as agreed!

Besides, why would you want to wear a life-threatening wrench? Then maybe this Ermao hooked up with the tomb robbers, and now he is thinking of helping those people sell their stolen goods!

Zhao Laosi (Reed) also felt that no matter which dynasty the thing from the life pit is, as long as it is dug up and not handed in, it is illegal. If it is dug out and not handed in, and it is secretly traded by itself, it will be an extra crime, Zhang Ermao (Cade) So willing to give myself and Xiao Teng (Otto) three thousand labor fees a day? This proves that he must be planning a big deal, and he doesn't care about such a small amount of money at all!

It is precisely because of the space for these imaginations that Zhao Laosi (Reed) firmly believes that his judgment must be correct, and he has definitely grasped Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s veins!

Willie was also a little tangled at this time.

On the one hand, he felt that this thing might be fraudulent, and on the other hand, after hearing what Zhao Laosi (Reed) had said, he also felt that this fucking gang was a gang that provided one-stop services for tomb robbery, processing and selling stolen goods.

Thinking of this, he deliberately asked tentatively, "Brother, do you dare to ask, is your big brother a professional antique maker?" "

Yes!" Zhao Laosi (Reed) said without thinking, "He has been making antiques for twenty or thirty years, definitely Stealing and cheating, no, he is proficient in all kinds of antique calligraphy and painting!"

Willie nodded, took out a few hundred yuan bills and handed them over, and said with a smile, "Brother, can you introduce me to your elder brother? I really want to get to know him."

Zhao Laosi (Reed) (Reed) glanced at the old man, seeing that the old man was very happy to pay, so he had a plan in his heart.

So, he deliberately coughed twice, and said seriously, "Old man, you also know that our industry has its own rules. I don't know who you are, and I definitely can't take it from my elder brother casually! In case you are Leizi, if we are ordered, won't I be finished in this life?"

Willie hurriedly said, "Oh brother, you really misunderstood me! How could I be a Leizi, to tell you the truth, I They are overseas Chinese who have returned from overseas, and they have just returned to China for a few days."

As he said that, he quickly took out his passport and handed it to Zhao Laosi (Reed), and said seriously, "Look, brother, I am an Argentine passport, and the time for entering the country is already on it." Zhao Laosi (Reed) himself was in Nonsense, so he didn't think that the old man in front of him would be an undercover agent sent by the police.

The reason for saying this is nothing more than to increase the difficulty and threshold of this matter, so as to come to this old man to ask for more money.

So, he said with a serious face, "Old man, I am also the master who eats and eats a lot. If you throw this thing in your hand in an alley on the side of our antique street, as long as you throw a thousand dollars, it will definitely be worth it." You can do as much as you want, and you can't count it."

Seeing that he didn't believe him, Willie hurriedly added some more money and stuffed it to him together, and said sincerely, "Brother, let's not talk about anything else, look at me. At a young age, even a policeman should retire, how could he come to be an undercover agent?"

Then, Willie further explained, "Brother, I really like this finger wrench in your hand, so I sincerely want to buy it. How about this, tell your elder brother for me to ask him to make a price, as long as it is within my tolerance, I will transfer the money to him on the spot!"

Seeing that the other party put money into his hands, Zhao Laosi (Reed) deliberately evaded. "Oh, what are you doing, old man? Didn't you make me make a mistake? Later, my elder brother blamed me and said that I have no bottom line, so I won't play with me in the future." He said, he deliberately wanted to give Willie some points

. As a bait, he deliberately put the jade finger under Uncle Changsheng's nose, and said mysteriously, "Old man, I won't say much, you smell the finger, and the hairband in the jade gap after you smell the finger." That little smell! I'll tell you absolutely! If you're an expert, you'll know what's going on right away when you smell it!"

Willie put his nose up suspiciously, and sniffed cautiously. After taking a sip, he frowned and asked, "There's a rancid smell, and there's a bit of anger, and there's also a bit of earthy smell..."

"Yes!" Zhao Laosi (Reed) (Reed) gave a thumbs up and said with a look of praise, "Master, your sense of smell still seems to be very sensitive! You can smell so many smells, so I don't need to tell you what the origin of this thing is. "

"Oh... I see..." Willie nodded slightly, seeing Zhao Laosi (Reed)'s face as a chicken thief, and adding that he said these words without any trace of lying, Willie Judging from a hundred and fifty-six years of life experience, what this kid said is absolutely true!

So, he carefully stated his conclusion, “Brother, these things are all dug out from the ground, right?”

Zhao Laosi (Reed)’s eyes widened instantly, he put the receiving sign under his arm, and took the initiative to hold it. Holding Willie’s hands, he held the few pieces of cash in Willie’s hand in his palm, while admiring and cautiously said, “Old man, congratulations, you got it right!”
