

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5846 -

Willie knew it very well.

In view of the fact that I had disobeyed orders and postponed my time to come to Aurous Hill when I was in Eastcliff, so if there is no suitable reason this time, I can no longer disobey orders anyway.

If he doesn't disobey, it means that he will go to Wanliu Villa immediately, and kill the sleeping An family and all those who protect them.

Such a big move will surely shock the whole world.

It is conceivable that Aurous Hill, as the place where the incident occurred, will definitely enter an unprecedented state of martial law.

If that's the case, how can I dig out clues about Zhang Ermao (Cade) and his family?

Therefore, if you want to delay the time to do it, the best way is to take the initiative to explain the magic weapon.

After all, the magic weapon is not only very precious to himself, but also to the hero.

Willie wanted to detain the piece of lightning strike wood that could summon thunder from the sky, and take out the ring, so that the British Lord could give him a few days of grace.

The British Lord heard him say the word magic weapon, his voice stagnated for two or three seconds, and then he asked in a cold voice, "You got the magic weapon? What kind of magic weapon?!"

Willie quickly explained, "Back to the British Lord, my subordinates By chance, I met a dealer who dumped antiques. They just dug an ancient tomb in Aurous Hill some time ago and sold the antiques. Among them was a Qing Dynasty jade ring finger. Inside the finger ring, there was a complete formation! The British Lord immediately asked, "What about the effect? Have you tried the effect of that formation?!"

Willie replied, "The formation is a passive acupuncture method. My subordinates speculate that it should be some kind of passive formation."

The Lord was surprised and said, "This statement is true?!"

Willie said firmly, "My Lord, how dare I lie to you... If you don't believe me, I will take this magic weapon back for you to have a look at after the subordinate completes the task."

Lord Ying paused for a moment, smiled, and said, "Uncle Willie, it seems that you have selfish intentions towards me."

Willie hurriedly said, "I don't dare! This subordinate originally planned to confirm the authenticity first, and then report to the British Lord. Besides, this subordinate also thought that if they could take the opportunity to find a few more magical artifacts and go back to offer them The hero, it can be regarded as a great achievement..."

The hero sneered, and said, "Since this is the case, you have a heart."

After that, the hero said again, "Well, I will give you three more days. If you can find more magical artifacts, I will give you a great credit when you come back. If you can't find the magical artifacts, you must not delay any longer. After three days, you must destroy An's entire family!" Willie breathed a sigh of relief and won The three-day window period should be enough for him to dig deep into Zhang Ermao (Cade).

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5847 -

If you can find more and better magical artifacts, then you will screen out the poor ones and return to the Lord, if you can't find other magical artifacts, then you can only take the jade finger back to the British Lord , just use this jade wrench to exchange for a chance to make a big fortune with a small one.

in ten minutes.

Russian Far East.

At this time, Dingyuan Boyun was like a song, meditating where he temporarily stayed.

For people like her and Willie who have mastered aura, sleeping is no longer a rigid need. They prefer to spend their sleeping time meditating and breathing. Although there is no aura in the world for them to absorb and transform, at least they can meditate and breathe. Help them refine the aura in their bodies to be more pure.

At this moment, Ruge's cell phone vibrated suddenly.

Apart from the other two earls, the only person who could make a call to this phone was the English Lord, so she immediately opened her eyes and unlocked the phone.

The special software showed that it was the English Lord who called him.

Ruge quickly pressed the answer button, and said respectfully, "My lord!"

The lord on the other end of the phone asked softly, "Ruge, where are you now?"

Ruge frowned, she knew that with the mobile phone given to her by Yingzhu, Yingzhu could not only contact her 24 hours a day, but also know her real-time location.

But Yingzhu knew his position, and deliberately greeted him politely. It seemed that Yingzhu wanted to get close to him.

Thinking of this, Ruge respectfully said, "Back to the British lord, this subordinate is still in the Far East." The British lord hummed, and asked her, "Is there any clue that Lin Wan'er has been to the Far East?"

Ruge hurriedly said, "Back to the lord, my subordinates are incompetent, and I haven't found any information related to Lin Waner (Alani) yet."

The lord smiled and said, "Lin Waner (Alani) is very cunning, and it's not because you are incompetent if you can't find her."

Then, the lord said seriously, "Ruge, there is something that I need you to set off to do immediately."

Ruge knew that these few polite words from the Lord Ying were the real highlight right now.

So, without thinking, she said, "Please give orders from the British lord, and the subordinates will go all out!"

The British lord said, "I want you to rush to Aurous Hill as quickly as possible."

Ruge asked in surprise, "My lord, are you Do you want your subordinates to go to Aurous Hill to assist Willie?"

"No!" The Lord Ying said coldly, "I want you to secretly monitor Willie's every move, I doubt he will have a second heart about Po Qing!"

Ruge was shocked, Hastily said, "My Lord... Willie has been loyal for so many years, how could he have two minds about Po Qing?"

The Lord did not hide it, and said directly, "Uncle Willie said that he was Aurous Hill got a magic weapon. ""

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5848 -

A magic weapon? ! "Ruge was shocked, "Could it be that there are monks in Aurous Hill who can master aura? "

Yingzhudao" According to Willie, it was accidentally stolen by tomb robbers and discovered by him by accident. "

Ruge exclaimed, "There is such a good thing..."

Yingzhu said, "I checked Willie's trajectory just now, and he did go to the antique street in Aurous Hill twice, so the matter he said, everyone Probability is true. "

Ruge asked puzzledly, "My lord, my subordinates are puzzled, since Bo Willie told you the truth, why do you still say he has two hearts?" The Lord Ying sneered, "What Bo Willie told me was indeed the truth, but he only told a part of it!" "

After that, the British Lord said again, "He said that what he got was a passive magic weapon that he didn't know the effect of, but I checked his movements during the day. After he left the Antique Street for the first time, he went to In an inaccessible mountain in Aurous Hill, he stayed there for dozens of minutes before returning to Antique Street again. I suspect that he should have obtained some offensive magic weapon! "

Ruge was even more puzzled, "My lord, my subordinates dare to say, just because Uncle Willie went to a remote mountain, it may be difficult to prove that he got some offensive magic weapon, right?

The British Lord snorted coldly, and said darkly, "Of course it cannot be proved by the movement trajectory alone. " However, today the Aurous Hill Meteorological Bureau suddenly issued an extreme weather warning, which was issued 20 minutes after Willie arrived in the mountains! "

Besides, I searched Aurous Hill's local Weibo and short video platforms just now. Many people are discussing the thunderstorm near Phoenix Mountain in Aurous Hill this afternoon. According to many people's descriptions, the thunderstorm was deafening. Been such a loud thunder! "

" Coincidentally, the valley Willie went to is not far from the Phoenix Mountain in Aurous Hill!" "

Hearing the Lord Ying's words, Ruge was extremely depressed.

Sure enough, as she guessed, the Lord of England always has the location information of several earls.

And this is not the most frightening thing, the most frightening thing is that the British Lord can analyze everyone's every move in more detail based on the time and place, combined with the information that can be searched on the local Internet.

This also means that I am afraid that it is impossible to get rid of the control of the British lord in my lifetime.

Don't look at these earls who may not go back to report for a long time when they come out to perform missions, but their bodies still have the poison prepared by the British lord.

It's just that those who master spiritual energy have a long enough lifespan, so the time nodes given to them by the British Lord are relatively wider than others. Others take the antidote every two weeks, three months or half a year, while they, it is taken every three years.

But what about three years? If everyone was flying kites by the Lord of England, the earls of them would just have a longer kite line, and they still couldn't get rid of the Lord of England's control.

Frustrated, she also analyzed these key points in her heart that the Lord Ying said.

Willie went to the mountains from the Antique Street, it was really strange, and it was even more unbelievable that the unexpected thunder explosion happened suddenly in the place Willie had been to.

Combining and analyzing these points, I can guess the general context of the matter.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5849 -

It is very likely that Willie got an offensive magic weapon, and even this offensive magic weapon can summon heavenly thunder!

But Willie just didn't tell the British Lord that he got the offensive magic weapon.

No wonder the hero said that Willie had two hearts. Willie thought that he could gain the trust of the hero by taking out the passive magic weapon, but he didn't expect that the hero could guess that he was lying even thousands of miles away through various clues.

Thinking of this, Ruge asked the British lord, "My lord, my subordinates are not as strong as Willie, if Willie finds out, how should I explain to him?" The British lord said flatly, "No, I will teach you later A formula for hiding aura and cultivation. There is not much difference in strength between you and Willie. With the help of this formula, as long as you don't be seen by him and don't use your aura within a hundred feet of him, he is not found Besides, I can see his location all the time, and I will share his location to your mobile phone in real time, so that you will not be discovered by him if he is in the dark. "

Ruge immediately said, "This subordinate understands!" "

The Lord Ying said again, "Ruge, you have two missions when you go this time. One is to spy on Willie and find out how many magic weapons he has obtained; Bo helped. "

Ruge asked in surprise, "My lord, is there any major threat to Aurous Hill, so that you feel that even Willie can't deal with it?" "

The British Lord sighed, "It's unknown at the moment, but too many things have happened recently, and many of them have not been able to sort out the clues, which makes me feel uneasy all the time. You know about Uncle Nakul. Who knows what kind of danger Aurous Hill will face if it is beaten into a meat paste. "

Speaking of this, the Lord Ying added, "But you don't have to worry too much. I'm telling you this just in case. Willie is in the light and you are in the dark, so that nothing will go wrong. It would be best if Uncle Willie is not in danger. If there is, you can help him at the critical moment in Aurous Hill. Although he has a second heart, he is still an indispensable general of the Poqing Society. The four Earls of the Poqing Society , there is no one Nakul, and the others can't make mistakes anymore! "

Ruge blurted out immediately, "Don't worry, Lord Ying, your subordinates understand!" "

The Lord Ying hummed, and then said, "Also, if Uncle Willie encounters greater pressure from the Huaxia after the destruction of An's family, I will ask him to withdraw from Aurous Hill in time. At that time, you will stay in Aurous Hill and wait for bruce." And Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom)'s son appeared. "

After hanging up the phone, Ruge felt ten thousand reluctances in her heart.

Although she is one of the four Earls, she has always disliked fighting and killing, let alone being ordered by the British Lord to do evil. What she hopes most is , is to stay in the Po Qinghui all the time, not caring about worldly affairs, and concentrate on cultivation.

Even if you have to come out occasionally to perform English

The task of the master, she is also more inclined to find a suitable opportunity to do foreign work.

For example, the British Lord asked her to look for Lin Wan'er in the Far East this time, and she was indeed looking for it, but she didn't pay much attention, just wandering around.

But unexpectedly, with a phone call from the Lord Ying, he was about to leave for Aurous Hill.

Moreover, this time I went to Aurous Hill to monitor Sheng Bo, so I was doomed to be unable to fish in the next few days.

Although she was reluctant, she didn't dare to delay at all, so she hurriedly set off in the middle of the night.

She bought a car from the hotel owner at a high price, and traveled from her small town to Yakutsk, a city in the Russian Far East.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5850 -

At the same time, Zhang Ermao (Cade) was hugging left and right in the largest nightclub in Aurous Hill with a pair of dark circles under his eyes, holding another jade finger that Xiao Teng (Otto) asked for back, and a bank card that had received more than one million dollars. , Drink freely, drink well! In front of Zhang Ermao (Cade), was filled with expensive foreign wines. A random bottle of champagne would cost at least 10,000 to 20,000 yuan, or even more than 100,000 yuan.

In addition, several young and beautiful girls are gathering around Zhang Ermao (Cade) at this moment, complimenting him in every possible way. The appearance fee of these girls tonight is also as high as five figures.

And the reason why Zhang Ermao (Cade) spends money like water here is entirely because this is charlie's request.

charlie specifically told him in the evening that he didn't need to do anything tonight, all he needed to do was drink and play, and even asked Shangri-La Palace to leave the presidential suite to him.

According to charlie's plan, he knew that the earl who would break the Qing Dynasty tomorrow morning would definitely go to Antique Street to find Zhang Ermao (Cade), so he let Zhang Ermao (Cade) drink happily tonight, spend money like water, and sleep until the sun is three poles tomorrow, and then smell of alcohol Then go to the antique street to set up a stall.

This will not only make Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s character look more real, but also force the earl to adapt to Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s rhythm.

What charlie thought was to try his best to use antiques and magic tools as bait to manipulate the other party's mentality. No matter whether he came to Aurous Hill to kill his grandparents or his family, let him learn to wait and be patient first.

the next morning.

Willie Bo can't wait to leave the hotel at dawn, and goes to Antique Street to wait for Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s appearance; and Dingyuan Boyun is like a song , drove a night train for several hours, and just arrived in Yakutsk, a city in the Russian Far East.

After arriving in Yakutsk, she took the earliest flight in the morning and flew to Harbin in the northeast of China.

When the dilapidated Sukhoi Super 100 airliner landed at Harbin Airport, Ruge went through customs and transit procedures non-stop, and flew from Harbin to Aurous Hill.

Just as she was flying to Aurous Hill, Willie was already wandering around the Antique Street and was about to go berserk.

In order to find Zhang Ermao (Cade) earlier, Willie came earlier today than all the street vendors.

However, after wandering around here for three or four hours, his legs were slender, and he didn't see Zhang Ermao (Cade).

Restless, he paced back and forth in the Antique Street, from east to west, then from west to east, repeating this cycle, but he never waited for the Zhang Ermao (Cade) who haunted him in his dreams.

But he didn't know that the real-time movement of him turning back and forth in Antique Street had long been captured by the surrounding municipal surveillance, and was clearly seen by charlie who was in Shangri-La Palace.

At 12:30 noon, Ruge's plane landed at Aurous Hill Airport against the scorching sun.

Along the way, she was constantly practicing the formulas taught to her by the hero, in order to hide the aura on her body as much as possible.

After getting off the plane, she didn't have any delays. After leaving the airport, she took a taxi directly to Aurous Hill Antique Street.

Although Zhao Laosi (Reed) is still holding up the sign here, hoping to meet another big grievance like Willie, but without the jade ring, he has not attracted Ruge's attention at all.

And just as Ruge was heading to Antique Street by car, charlie, who was sitting in Isaac Cameron's office, ordered Isaac Cameron's subordinates beside him, "Go and wake Zhang Ermao (Cade) up, and tell him that Master wade told him to start work!"
