

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5914 -

“Sara?”

charlie Wade’s eyes widened, “The hero who broke the Qing Dynasty is a woman?!” “

Yes.” Lin Wan’er (Alani) nodded, and said through gritted teeth, “Not only a woman, but also the most vicious woman in the world!

Charlie wade asked in surprise, “She is the younger sister of your father’s brother, so hasn’t she lived for three or four hundred years?!”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) thought for a while, and said, “Sara is one year younger than my father and twenty-three years older than me. Now Already 400 years old.”

charlie Wade said, “Then she should have taken the Evergreen Pill too?”

“Of course.” Lin Wan’er (Alani) said with emotion, “The Evergreen Pill is the common master of my father and Sara, and it will be left to them before the deadline is approaching.” Originally, each of them had one pill, and I hope they can continue to fight against the great cause of the Qing Dynasty;”

“In addition to each person having one everlasting green pill, the master will also give the young master the one in his hand. I gave the ring to my father and let him keep it safe. One day when the opportunity comes, I will be able to get the alchemy and exercises left by him. It is said that there is a secret of being able to live for a thousand years

; Afterwards, Sara suddenly made a sudden move to seriously injure my father, and wanted to take away his ring and the everlasting green pill; “”At the critical moment, the ring sent my father to me, and my father gave his blood-scattering and heart-saving pill to me. I...”

Speaking of this, Lin Wan’er (Alani) sighed, adjusted her mood, and said, “I’d better start talking to you in detail from the time when the Poqing Society was first established, otherwise I’m afraid you won’t understand “ charlie Wade nodded, and hurriedly said, “Please tell me!”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) took a sip of tea and said, "My father, Lin Hongen, was born in the second year of Tianqi, which is also 1622 in the Gregorian calendar;" "The

Lin family started from the founding day of the Ming Dynasty." , all generations are loyal and good;"

"The ancestors of the Lin family first served as officials in Aurous Hill, and then moved to Eastcliff with Chengzu and his family;"

"It's just that the eunuchs were in power at the end of the Ming Dynasty, and the current situation was turbulent. The Lin family's family status gradually declined. When my father became an adult and married my mother, the Lin family had no official positions." There was an opportunity to revive the Lin family business, but after the Qing army entered the customs, my father joined the army and changed his name to Aasif, and co-founded the Qing

Dynasty Society with Sarag, vowing to drive the Manchus from inside the pass to outside the pass; He is a distant relative of the big traitor Wu Sangui, but because he is not ashamed of Wu Sangui for betraying his country and seeking glory, he determined to fight against the Qing Dynasty and restore the Ming Dynasty ; Yes;"

"Since then, my father has been taking my mother with me to travel around and fight against the Qing army;" "

When I was born, my mother had been living with my father because of poor conditions, and she already had a healthy body. Many problems, I passed away when I was less than a month old. At that time, the frontline war was tense, and my father sent me to my grandma's house in southern Yunnan. I grew up in southern Yunnan

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5915 -

In 1650, the Qing army went all the way south to attack Huguang, and the Nanming army retreated steadily, and the Poqinghui, which fought with Nanming, also suffered heavy losses; "My father's good brother Sarag died in the battle in Huguang that year;" "

Before Aamir died, he entrusted his younger sister Sara to his father, but his father and the others were also surrounded by the Qing army at that time, and they had nowhere to escape. With nowhere to go, my father had to take Sara to hide in the Shiwan Mountain

; He almost lost his life in the 100,000 mountains, but fortunately he was rescued by a monk who lived in seclusion in the 100,000 mountains; “The monk is also a Han Chinese. Seeing that the two of them were being chased and killed by the Tartar officers and soldiers, he felt compassionate and took him in. The two were apprentices, and they stayed in the 100,000 mountains to practice;”

“In the twelfth year of the Yongli calendar, which was also 1658 in the Gregorian calendar, the Qing army attacked Yunnan and Guizhou from multiple directions. clear;”

“It’s just that the abilities of the two are limited. At that time, the Qing army was strong and strong, and there were a large number of Han people, including Wu Sangui, who were helping the king, so they broke through southern Yunnan the next year. The Southern Ming tragedy that later generations said was at that time...” “The next two years , my father and Sara recruited some righteous men who were determined to fight against the Qing Dynasty and restore the Ming

killed Emperor Yongli in southern Yunnan. My father was deeply saddened. All of them have been occupied by the Qing court. In desperation, the two planned to go to Taiwan and join Zheng Chenggong to continue fighting against the Qing Dynasty

; I had no choice but to go back to Shiwan Dashan, find their master, and want to practice in seclusion for a few more years, first to avoid the limelight, and second, to improve my strength; “”

However, in the second year of returning to Shiwan Dashan, That is, in 1663 of the Gregorian calendar, Shigong felt that his time was approaching, so he arranged for his funeral, and presented two eternal green pills to my father and Sara, hoping that the two of them would one day restore the Han people's land..." Lin Wan'er (Alani) sighed

, His expression was angry and melancholy.

Seeing that she stopped talking, Charlie Wade asked tentatively, "Sara has been fighting with your father for many years, and he wanted to kill your father for a pill?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) pursed her lips, shook her head and said, "Not really, Sara actually has always loved my father deeply, but my father never forgets my mother in his heart, and has no affection for her, so he has always rejected her for thousands of miles

; After the master's funeral, Sara took the Eternal Evergreen Pill, and then proposed that my father give up his plan to fight against the Qing Dynasty and restore the Ming Dynasty, and stay together with her in Shiwanda Mountain. The two will be a couple of immortals for five hundred years, but my father rejected again, and scolded her for forgetting the hatred of the country and the family, and for being sorry for her dead brother, and the two had a dispute;

"My father didn't want to abandon me and live alone for five hundred years, and he didn't want to give up his family and country feelings of anti-Qing and Ming Dynasty, so he made three points to Sara. First, he will not marry again in this life; Me; thirdly, I want to go out and fight the Qing court to the death;"

"Sara may feel that she has suffered a great humiliation. Seeing that her father does not want to stay with her forever, she wants to leave her father's everlasting green pill and her master to her father." He snatched the ring from him, so he suddenly attacked my father; "

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5916 -

"When my father was seriously injured, he was sent to the south of Yunnan by the ring from Shiwan Dashan in an instant, and he told me all this after he tricked me into eating the Evergreen Pill. "

Charlie Wade was extremely shocked. No wonder the man on the spiritual throne is called Aasif. He turned out to be a full-fledged national hero, and he never forgot his original intention of family and country in his whole life, and he did not waver in the face of the temptation of five hundred years of longevity. , such a character, can be called a saint.

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade asked her, "Sara knows that you have eaten the Everlasting Green Pill, and has been chasing you everywhere, is it because of this ring in my hand?" "Yes!" Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded, "What Sara wants most is this ring, because Shigong told my father before, no matter how much Eternal Green Pill is eaten, it can only make people live to be five hundred years old

; The elixir of Hundred Turns and Thousand Returns can prolong a person's lifespan to a thousand years! And the prescription of this Hundred Turns and Thousand Returns Pill is likely to be hidden in this ring." "Interestingly, Evergreen and Evergreen Hundred Turns and Thousand Returns are actually two stages that complement each other, the first five hundred years of the Eternal Green Pill, and the five hundred years after the Hundred Turns and Thousand Returns Pill, if there is no Everlasting Green Pill, it is useless to only eat the Hundreds and Thousands of Pills." He said

. , Lin Wan'er (Alani) said again, "My family also told you just now that although you can live for 500 years after taking the Everlasting Green Pill, in the last 100 years, your body will no longer be able to maintain youth forever," "Sara is already 400 years old

. If she doesn't take Baizhuanqianhui Dan, then her lifespan is only 100 years, and in the last fifty years, she will become an old woman; ""

If she can take Baizhuanqian before then Returning to Dan, then she can live another five hundred years in her current state;" "

That's why she couldn't wait to find the slave's house and find this ring."

Charlie Wade widened his eyes, "There is such a possibility in the world." Is there an elixir that makes people live for thousands of years?"

"Yes." Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled slightly, and said seriously, "Master, she really lived for a thousand years. He was born in the first year of Tang Linde, which is 664 in the Gregorian calendar. Year, and the year when he died was 1663 in the Gregorian calendar, no more, no less, and he lived for a whole thousand years!" "The first year of Linde..." charlie Wade couldn't help murmuring when he heard this, "This first year of Linde, Why does it sound so familiar?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled slightly and said, "Mr. wade was good at history when he was in school, right?"

"No..." charlie Wade frowned and shook his head slightly, "In the first year of Linde, I seem to have just heard about this time point recently." Immediately, he suddenly thought of something, and asked excitedly, "Miss Lin , the master you mentioned is called Meng Changsheng?!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) was taken aback by the name charlie Wade blurted out!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5917 -

Tonight, charlie Wade was constantly surprised. She was very calm from the beginning to the end, but when she talked about her late father, she felt a little sad.

However, when charlie Wade said the words Meng Changsheng, Lin Wan'er (Alani) was shocked!

She subconsciously exclaimed, "How could the young master know the name of the master?! It has been more than three hundred years since he passed away, and during the thousand years he was alive, he had almost been practicing in retreat in the Hundred Thousand Mountains. At that time, few people knew about it..."

charlie Wade couldn't help sighing, "Meng Sheng, whose name is Changming, was born in Chang'an, the first year of Linde in the Tang Dynasty

. Shocked, "My lord... how can you know so clearly about Shigong?! My father once said that Shigong spends his whole life in asking questions, and the world knows almost nothing about him. Where did you hear about this, young master?"

charlie Wade sighed, "This senior named Meng, before he was five hundred years old, had been practicing in closed doors in southern Shu. By chance, he saved the ancestors of the Jiang family in southern Shu. , because the ancestor of the Jiang family had two bracelets of phoenix bone rattan, so he kept the ancestor of the Jiang family by his side on the condition of one bracelet;” “Later, he When he was nearly 160 years old, he had to find an opportunity to bid farewell to the ancestor of the Jiang family and go out. Presumably it was because he was approaching the limit of his lifespan and needed to find a way to prolong his life; “”Decades later, he did find a way to prolong his life Method, combined with the information that Ms. Lin knows now, this senior Meng Changsheng should have refined the Everlasting Green Pill during that period of time; Nan, wanted to fulfill the opportunity promised to the ancestor of the Jiang family back then, but he didn’t expect that when he returned to Shunan, the ancestor of the Jiang family had just passed away for three days...” Speaking of this, charlie Wade murmured again, ” If the ancestor of the Jiang family lived for three more days, he might be the one who got the everlasting green pill...”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) was horrified and asked, “Who is the ancestor of the Jiang family that the young master is talking about?”

charlie Wade said, “It was a nominal disciple that the ancestor Meng accepted during the first five hundred years of cultivation, but that person did not have the talent for cultivation, and he was not a master of cultivation.” People, in my opinion, the relationship between the two is more like a combination of the three relationships of master and servant, adoptive father and son, and year-end friendship.”

Said, charlie Wade accidentally rescued Mrs. Jiang in Mexico , got the phoenix bone vine, and then came to report to Mrs. Jiang’s mother and son, and then gradually learned about the whole process of Meng Changsheng’s life, and told Lin Wan’er (Alani) everything without reservation.

After hearing this, Lin Wan’er (Alani) was so shocked that she couldn’t speak for a while!

After a long while, he murmured, “There is such a coincidence in the world, the young master’s life experience is really beyond the reach of others...”

charlie Wade said at this time, “Now it seems that it is too late for Old Ancestor Meng to refine the everlasting green pill.” Doubtful, but only relying on the Eternal Evergreen Pill can only make him live until the Song Dynasty, but if you say that he lived until 1663 in the late Ming and early Qing Dynasties, it proves that he later refined the Hundred Turns and Thousand Returns Pill; “ said Here, charlie Wade couldn't help sighing, “It's a pity that such a powerful senior has finally stopped outside the door of a thousand-year Yangshou. It seems that it is not so easy to change one's fate against the sky.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5918 -

” It took more than 10,000 years between heaven and earth to trigger the catastrophe, and according to my father, although the master lived for a thousand years, in the end, he just died without a disease. It's not at the level where you need to go through the catastrophe.”

charlie Wade laughed at himself, nodded and said, “That is to say, after living for a thousand years, it's not a problem in front of God, and it's not worth God's thunder.”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded slightly “It should be.”

After finishing speaking, she couldn't help sighing, “However, the son and the master did meet by chance. Although the master had been riding a crane for more than three hundred years when the son was born, you happened to be with him for the first five hundred years, and later. There has been a little connection for five hundred years...”

Speaking of this, Lin Wan'er (Alani) suddenly asked curiously, “I have the courage to ask, how did you enter the Tao? Which elder brought you into the Tao?”

Seeing that Lin Wan'er (Alani) had revealed all the past and secrets, charlie Wade no longer concealed it, and said, “I got an ancient book called “Nine Xuantian Jing” by chance, which contains a lot of content related to cultivation. I entered the Tao by relying on that ancient book.”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) frowned, “The Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures? Wan'er seems to have never heard of it.” “ Really?" charlie Wade said with some disappointment, "I thought , this "Nine Xuantian Jing" may be written by this senior Meng Changsheng Meng..."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "my father never mentioned "Nine Xuantian Jing"... I have never met my master, and I have nothing to say about my master. I only heard about it from my father."

charlie Wade asked curiously, "Have you never met Meng Changsheng?"

"No." Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "My father came back from the mountain for the first time, and my family once heard my father talk about the old ancestor Meng. , my father also tried to let the slave family master the spiritual energy, but the slave family really did not have the root of wisdom, so they have not been able to enter the door of the monks. If the slave family can master the spiritual energy, maybe there is still a chance to meet the ancestor Meng and his old man. Charming."

charlie Wade suddenly remembered something, and said with a smile, "The portrait that Mrs. Jiang gave me is hidden in the Champs Elysees Hot Spring Villa. If you are interested, I will show it to you later."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said with some fascination, "The slave family has not known what the master looks like for so many years, and being able to see his portrait is a wish fulfilled."

charlie Wade nodded lightly, and asked her again, "By the way, although you I don't know the spiritual energy, but I am immune to my method of erasing my memory. This should also be the effect of the Evergreen Pill, right?" "

Yes." Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled slightly, "After taking the Evergreen Pill, although I still can't master the spiritual energy, my family still can't control the spiritual energy. But I have the ability to perceive aura. I can feel the aura of my father, the aura of the pucha tree, and the aura of my son, as well as the aura you tried to erase in Northern Europe that day. I went to the slave family to remember the aura, and it was only at that time that the slave family discovered that the son's method of hypnotizing with aura and erasing memory with aura is useless to the slave family." Ever since Lin Wan'er (Alani) called herself Wan'er in front of him, charlie Wade had guessed Her own means must have no effect on her.

But what Charlie Wade didn't expect was that Lin Wan'er (Alani) had such a keen perception of aura.

He asked in amazement, "You said just now that the pucha tree also had aura, is that true? How can a tree have aura?!" "It's true." Lin Wan'er (Alani) said seriously, "the pucha tree Not only does it have aura, but it's also very powerful, but it's a pity that after being struck to death by the sky thunder, all the aura in its body disappeared."

Charlie Wade was amazed, he couldn't help but look at the piece of lightning strike wood that Lin Wan'er (Alani) took out just now from the corner of his eye, and thought to himself "" The lightning strike wood that Wanting gave me at the beginning was formed by the heart of the blood dragon tree being struck by lightning, and refined into a thunderbolt, which is amazingly powerful. The lightning strike wood that failed in the heavenly tribulation and was struck by the sky lightning, if you can use it to refine the lightning strike wood, the power will be even stronger, right?"
