

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5961 -

When charlie returned to Tangchen Yipin, Jacob was arguing with Elaine.

As soon as he entered the door with the cylinder storing Meng Changsheng's portrait, he heard Jacob complaining, "You said you don't do anything every day, you don't even cook breakfast, don't cook if you don't cook, you order too much It's okay to order one portion, you're full after you've ordered it yourself, and you don't even give me any leftovers, I'm still in a hurry to go to the association, you can't let me go hungry!" Elaine said confidently He said completely, "Didn't you hear that, do it yourself, have enough food and clothing, why don't you get up early and cook for me? It's a beautiful idea to ask me to cook for you! Besides, it doesn't cost you to order food? You If you give me one hundred and eighty thousand pocket money a month, I will arrange three meals a day for you clearly!"

Jacob said angrily, "You really missed your money!"

After finishing speaking, he walked out.

Just as he was leaving the living room, he saw charlie coming in, and asked quickly, "Good son-in-law, why did you come back so early?"

charlie smiled and said, "The client's business is almost done, so I hurried back."

said, charlie took the initiative to ask him, "By the way, Dad, how is the calligraphy and painting exhibition of your Painting and Calligraphy Association?

" Isn't it still in preparation, our Aurous Hill's cultural department is also very supportive, a lot of help, members of the association have also found some excellent paintings, and now the number of exhibits that have been finalized has more than 300 pieces." Charlie smiled and said,

" That's great, why do you look sad?"

Jacob said depressedly, "I'm worried because everyone can find good works, but I can't find them... They have been in this industry for a long time, and they know more or less. Some collectors can borrow some works to participate in the exhibition if they say something nice. My eyes are darkened, and I don't know who to borrow! I went to Zhang Ermao (Cade) before, and that Ermao doesn't mess around with calligraphy and painting now, and concentrates on slaughtering People's business, a piece of broken wood sells for several million, more money addict than your mother, apart from him, I don't know any other way..."

Speaking of this, Jacob complained with a look of displeasure, "The most hateful thing is the members of the association. I can't find the work. It's fine. Every time they find a work, it's like an agreement. Let me comment on it. Many of them are works of painters of the Aurous Hill School of Painting in the late Ming and early Qing Dynasties, but the Aurous Hill School of Painting is not well-known, and I don't even know who their representative figures are. A lot of jokes were made one after another."

Elaine came out of the restaurant at this time, and said mockingly, "Jacob, if you ask me to say that you have no self-knowledge! You know nothing about antique calligraphy and painting, so you dare to enter the restaurant with a calm face. Calligraphy and Painting Association, isn't this just a standard sham? In the past, when we played together, we couldn't show that you are a parallel importer. Now that you are a parallel importer to come out and comment, it's strange that you don't leak anything!" Jacob was poked by Elaine He gave her a blank look, and said angrily, "Elaine! I'm talking to my good son-in-law. What's the matter with you? Are you full?" Elaine curled her lips, "Yeah, I'm full

. What's the matter, do you have an opinion?"

Jacob waved his hand impatiently, "It's too cool to stay, I don't bother to talk to you."

Elaine sneered disdainfully, "Aren't you lazy? It doesn't matter to me, but your position as the executive vice president may not be long, why do people ask you for comments? It must be because everyone knows that you are a parallel importer, and they want to reveal your true colors quickly!" Jacob's face was even more ugly , Hastily pulled charlie's clothes, and whispered, "Good son-in-law, let's talk outside!"

charlie nodded with a smile, and followed Jacob to the yard.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5962 -

Jacob said to charlie with a sad face, "Good son-in-law, Dad's current situation is really a bit passive... Now there are a lot of gossip in the association, and many people say that I have no real talents and can be the executive vice president of this second-in-command." President, it is all supported by Chairman Pei, saying that I am a related household, and now Chairman Pei is also very passive..."

As he said that, Jacob lowered his voice and continued, "Chairman Pei asked me for a meal yesterday, and ordered me a few words in a cryptic manner, which means that too many people have asked him for advice recently, and everyone wants to impeach me. , if I can't come up with anything else, it's really hard to convince everyone..."

charlie nodded and said with a smile, "Dad, this is easy to handle. There are a lot of paintings, and it happens that your Painting and Calligraphy Association is going to hold a painting and calligraphy exhibition, so I asked him if he can lend you some paintings."

Hearing this, Jacob asked excitedly, "Good son-in-law, what did your client say? Would you like to lend us?"

charlie said, "My client has a special status, and many of his collections are not convenient to exhibit, but he is still very interesting. Knowing that my father-in-law is going to hold an art exhibition, he specially took out a painting and said yes Donate to this painting and calligraphy exhibition."

After speaking, charlie handed over the painting tube in his hand to Jacob.

Jacob asked in surprise, "Want to donate a painting to the calligraphy and painting exhibition?! What painting?"

charlie said casually, "I don't know, this painting is quite mysterious. There is no author's signature, no seal, only a paragraph of mention Open it and have a look."

Jacob was overjoyed, quickly took the microphone, and pulled out the portrait of Meng Changsheng from it.

Regardless of going into the room to have a look, Jacob unfolded the painting scroll directly, held it in his hand and said in amazement, "I'll go! This painting is really good!"

charlie raised his eyebrows and asked curiously, "Dad, what do you think? Speaking of this painting, what's so good about it?"

Jacob smacked his lips and said, "If you want me to say, I really can't say for sure, but I just think that the painting skills of this painting are very good, realistic! And it is definitely a realism that is rarely seen in the field of Chinese painting. You see, the little old man asked him to draw it, it looks like it is f*cking real! And this little old man is really reluctant to stand on this big rock. Who the hell do I mean! The painting is so f*cking good!"

charlie was a little dumbfounded, but he didn't expect the old man's comment to be so down-to-earth. If Meng Changsheng heard this, no matter how strong his Taoist heart is, he would be offended. That's enough.

At this time, Jacob looked at the words on the painting, and said in his mouth, "Meng Sheng, styled Changming, from Chang'an, born in the first year of Linde in the Tang Dynasty..." As he spoke, his eyes widened suddenly, and he blurted out, "

Ouch f*ck, the old man in this painting is from the Tang Dynasty? Does that mean that this painting was also painted by the people from the Tang Dynasty?"

charlie smiled and said, "Maybe, but the artist didn't leave his name and time, so you can just treat it as it It's a painting from the Tang Dynasty."

Jacob beamed with joy, and blurted out, "The painters of the Tang Dynasty have been around for more than a thousand years, and their paintings are still so good. If this is brought to the calligraphy and painting exhibition, how about it?"

charlie shrugged his shoulders and said with a smile, "The key point is that there is no signature on this painting. Even if it is a painting by a Tang Dynasty painter, it is impossible to find out the actual creator. This kind of painting is difficult to sell at a price in the calligraphy and painting market. It won't cause too much trouble."

Jacob said, "Whatever he is, the painting is good and it's from the Tang Dynasty. The performance review is over!"

After that, he quickly asked charlie, "Good son-in-law, then I will take this painting?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5963 -

charlie nodded and said with a smile, "Dad, if someone asks about your painting, You just say that you bought it from a person who can't remember his face clearly. As for the process of picking up the leak, you can give full play to your imagination, brag and talk as you like, as long as you don't deviate from the central idea, there is nothing wrong with bragging. Question."

Jacob asked in surprise, "Good son-in-law, I'll just say it was given by my friend, or it's my own collection, wouldn't that be more face-saving?" charlie said seriously, "Dad, others don't know this painting. , My client recognizes it. If people find out that you are bragging about their paintings, they will probably blame me. If you do what I say, they will know that we are protecting their privacy, not putting stickers on their faces. Jin, I will feel more at ease."

Jacob felt a little resentful, and sighed, "Okay, then do as you said."

charlie smiled slightly, put his hand on his arm, and said seriously, "Dad, don't forget that from now on, you bought this painting by mistake, and it was at the gate of Tangchen Yipin. There is a person who can't remember clearly." Good-looking people stop you and insist on paying a price of 100 yuanSold to you. "

After all, a trace of aura entered Jacob's mind, quietly imposing a psychological hint on him. This psychological hint would only be triggered when someone asked about the origin of this painting. Jacob nodded subconsciously. At this time In the depths of his heart, a seed had already been planted.

charlie asked him with a smile, "Dad, where did you get this painting in your hand? "

Jacob blurted out excitedly, "I picked it up by picking it up!" Let me tell you, son-in-law, if I hadn't had a good eye for discerning things, this painting would still be hidden under another fake painting! At that time, in Antique Street, someone tried to fool me with a fake celebrity calligraphy and painting. My eyes are so poisonous, how could I fall into this scam? At that time, I just took a picture and found that the painting was not right, it was thicker than ordinary words! At that time, I guessed that there were other mysteries hidden in it, so I pretended to be fooled and bought the fake painting back for 5,000 yuan. Hiding this masterpiece of the Tang Dynasty! " charlie was speechless secretly, thinking that as an old man, he was really born with the ability to brag.

However, what he wanted was Jacob's natural performance.

He believed that Sara would not dare to check the background of this painting, but he did not dare Excluding himself as the old man who was talking nonsense outside, and then spread it to Sara, so for the sake of caution, he gave Jacob this special psychological hint. Seeing that the old man has completely entered the drama, charlie nodded in satisfaction, it seems The father-in-law not only remembered his psychological hints, but also remembered his instructions to let him brag casually.

He knew that deep in Jacob's heart at this moment, he firmly believed that this painting was picked up by himself. Yes, but, I don't want people to think that I'm totally lucky, so I have to make up a legendary story to improve my technical content and make myself look good. So, Ye charlie He deliberately asked tentatively, "Dad, is it too much to brag to your family like this? Tell your conscience, how did this painting come about? "

Jacob smiled and said, "My good son-in-law knows me well, and he can tell at a glance that I'm bragging."

Then, Jacob said mysteriously, "I won't hide it from you, I did buy this painting by mistake, but I didn't What I just said is so mysterious, that is, when I went out yesterday, a guy stopped me at the door of our Tangchen Yipin, and insisted on selling me this painting, and the asking price was only one hundred yuan. I think this painting is good, even if it is a modern painting. The work is more than 100 yuan, isn't it clear that I will take advantage of it as a gift? So I bought it!" charlie nodded in satisfaction, and said with a smile, "

Okay, Dad, hurry up and find a place in the Painting and Calligraphy Association. Come on, don't be more high-profile, you, the executive vice president, probably won't be able to continue working!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5964 -

When the Boeing 777 carrying the three elders was still passing through the ocean, Jacob, who was so excited, hugged the portrait Charlie gave him, and drove the Rolls-Royce Cullinan that Fei Kexin gave him. , came to the downstairs of the Painting and Calligraphy Association.

At this time, Jacob's face was full of confidence, as if a miscellaneous army who had just won a key victory was waiting to stand proudly in front of the regular army.

In the Painting and Calligraphy Association, Jacob was indeed a little unpopular.

Most of the people here are literati and scholars. Although some people have no real talent and learning, and they are purely arty, they know what "vassal" is. I have no professional level, so I come here to serve as a foil and give professionals more room to pretend to be aggressive. This is called "vassalage";

Forcibly acting forcefully, this is not arty, but redefining elegance.

The former is an indispensable living soil for literati and refined scholars, while the latter is the old enemy of literati and refined scholars.

Jacob is the old enemy who redefines Fengya.

In fact, he doesn't know anything about antique calligraphy and painting. When he saw others playing, he would follow suit, but his playing was superficial and he had almost no real skills.

is more or less unqualified to enter the Calligraphy and Painting Association as a foil, but he was allowed to climb up to the position of executive vice president step by step, which naturally made many people jealous and unhappy, so everyone has great opinions on him.

Chairman Pei also knew that Jacob was a big parallel importer, but he didn't dare to offend Jacob. After all, Jacob had a lot of face in front of Don Albert. Only then did he overcome all opinions and helped him become the executive vice president.

However, other people are not like President Pei, who covet Jacob's connections, so just because President Pei can bear Jacob, it doesn't mean that others can also bear him.

When Jacob parked the car and came to the gate of the Painting and Calligraphy Association with the painting in his arms, he heard someone inside saying, "Hey, my executive willson hasn't found any exhibits that can be sold, right?"

"One person sneered, "He? He doesn't know calligraphy and painting at all. Where can I get good things to participate in the exhibition?"

"If you want to take it to him for tasting, what will he say to me? He said that this painting is not like a mountain, nor is it like a water. It doesn't look like a famous work, and I don't even bother to talk to him.

"He smiled and said, "Our Vice President Jacob is just a typical waste snack. Doesn't he make a lot of jokes here? I'm afraid I can't finish it in a day. If President Pei is not in the way, I will face him. Scold him, if he can't produce anything decent in this exhibition, I will report with my real name and ask the executive vice president to be replaced!" "

"Yes!" The others also echoed, wishing they could join hands with Pei Hui now. long pressure.

Jacob's face was ashen when he heard it at the door. He walked in angrily holding the painting tube, and said with a displeased face, "Everyone is like an old woman, whose tongue are you chewing here?"

"Not taking him seriously, one of them curled his lips and said sarcastically, "Oh, Vice President Jacob, our painting and calligraphy exhibition will start soon, and you, the executive vice president, can't even show a decent work. Is it suitable?"

"Yes!" Someone fanned the flames, "Vice President Jacob, even if you can't borrow any good works, you should at least take one or two fine works from your own collection to participate in the exhibition! As our executive vice president , Don't you have a few decent collections?"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5965 -

A large group of people were incited to ridicule Jacob one after another.

Jacob said coldly, "You guys really don't know Taishan. How can I, Jacob, not have high-quality goods? It's just that some paintings are too big to be taken out!" At this time, Jacob had already substituted himself into The client that charlie was talking about.

When the other people heard his bragging, they all curled their lips in contempt, and didn't take what he said seriously at all.

Jacob didn't say much, and directly put the painting tube on the huge desk used for display and appraisal by the Painting and Calligraphy Association, and said, "Come on, today I will let you open your eyes and take a look at a Tang Dynasty painting I missed. Work!"

"Cut..." The faces of the crowd were full of disdain, calligraphy and painting are not easy to preserve, not to mention that although there are many kinds of paper used in traditional Chinese painting, they are almost not as tough as Western canvases , It is easy to be damaged if it is too long, and it is even more difficult to preserve it. Almost all the paintings that have been handed down from the Tang Dynasty are handed down from generation to generation. They have been handed down to the present after dozens of generations of care. A piece of work from the Tang Dynasty was discovered, and naturally no one at the scene believed it.

Seeing that everyone ignored him, Jacob couldn't help saying angrily, "Why, you don't believe it anymore, right? Well, since you don't believe it, I'll let you see it!" After finishing speaking, he opened the painting tube and painted the picture of Meng Changsheng The portrait was pulled out.

Seeing that he really took out a painting, everyone immediately came to him.

However, everyone came here not to see the elegance of Tang Dynasty paintings, but to see how Jacob made a joke this time.

After all, Jacob made jokes, not once a day or two, once or twice.

However, as Jacob spread out the scroll bit by bit, all the people who were about to see the joke immediately widened their eyes.

No one expected that this painting could be so vivid.

However, because most people had opinions on Jacob, they started to question him at this time.

“Isn’t this the painting style of the Tang Dynasty? Maybe it was invented by modern realistic painters. Those painters who learned Western sketches are best at this realistic style of painting.” “I don’t think it looks like the Tang Dynasty

. The style of painting, the style of the Tang Dynasty should not be so skilled!”

“Yes! If there is such a powerful painter in the Tang Dynasty, I am afraid that he would have been famous long ago!”

When everyone questioned, the old man who was mocking Jacob before blurted out in surprise, “Oh my god, this... this author’s painting skills are simply superb! To be honest, this is the first time I have seen it! Besides, this The painting skills are too strong, every brush stroke is perfect, and the details are so rich that it is outrageous, those painters who have been painting for a lifetime may not be able to have such a brush stroke!

” Fake.

It is really difficult for ordinary people to practice this kind of brushwork.

After all, the ancestor of the Jiang family lived to be one hundred and thirteen years old, which was almost unheard of among the ancients, and the ancestor of the Jiang family didn’t know how to practice, so he spent most of his time practicing painting. Most painters can’t catch up with the flattery.
