

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5966 -

What's more, the ancestor of the Jiang family has been waiting for Meng Changsheng to come back for the rest of his life. For decades, he painted portraits of Meng Changsheng one after another, and he was so skillful that no one could match him. Satisfied, thousands of strokes, without any flaws or omissions, absolutely perfect!

Another person came forward, carefully observed the details of the portrait with a magnifying glass, and said excitedly, "This painting... this painting is really a silk painting of the Tang Dynasty... the texture is like an old object at first glance, and it is definitely not fake. What's more, what Ma Lao said is right! This drawing skill is so strong that I have never seen it in my life..."

Ma Lao is one of the strongest figures in the Aurous Hill Painting and Calligraphy Association, and he is also a relatively prestigious figure in the Painting and Calligraphy Association today. Members, there have always been calls for him to be the executive vice president of the Painting and Calligraphy Association, so he is also Jacob's biggest competitor in the eyes.

Even the old master said that this painting is indeed from the Tang Dynasty. They were also excited.

Everyone looked at this painting for a long time, and the more they looked at it, the more shocked they became, and the more excited they became, because in their eyes, the painting skills of this painting had surpassed all the painters in the history of the Tang Dynasty. The artistic conception is also really amazing.

The dean asked Jacob excitedly, "Where did you get this painting?!"

Jacob pointed his chin at him, and said disdainfully, "I just said, I picked up this painting!"

"Joke!" The dean He said disdainfully, "How can a piece of painting that has been handed down from the Tang Dynasty to the present be picked up by an idiot like you?" In this life, sometimes people not only look at real talents and learning, but also look at chance!"

As he said, Jacob said again, "This painting was originally hidden in a very inconspicuous painting. I saw that there was another painting pasted on the bottom of the painting, so I bought this painting, went back and tore it open, and it turned out that there was a shocking Tang Dynasty painting hidden there;" "It's not me

! The people in the painting are vivid on the paper, which one of the Tang Dynasty paintings have you seen can have such a charm?"

Tai Dou exclaimed, "Jacob, you really picked up this painting by mistake?!"

Jacob saw him still If you don't believe me, go up and roll up the painting, and while scrolling, you said, "If you don't believe me, don't read it. I will show you my painting, and you will be questioned. I am really too lazy to give up this effort with you.

" See, immediately said politely, "Jacob, oh no, Vice President Jacob, your painting is really amazing, can you let me appreciate it again?"

Jacob asked him back, "You said my painting is amazing, how amazing is it ?"

Tai Dou said without hesitation, "Exquisite painting skills are rare in my life!"

Jacob asked again, "Then are you convinced?"

"Admit it, of course!" The master nodded without hesitation and said, "This kind of painting has subverted my perception of Tang Dynasty paintings, and I am indeed admirable!"

Jacob nodded in satisfaction, handed the painting to him and said, "Since If you are convinced, then let you take a good look and see enough."

After that, he looked at the other people and said, "See, this is the way for two people with real talents to communicate! Like you This kind of nonsense who knows how to twitter with others all day long, chew their tongues behind their backs, and say what others say, is actually bullshit that doesn't understand! The dog in the village barks twice, and the dogs in the whole village Keep barking, but if you really ask why the dog behind barks, no fucking dog really knows!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5967 -

With the approval of the master, this portrait of Meng Changsheng (Willie) immediately caused quite a stir in the Painting and Calligraphy Association.

Jacob finally regained some face, and his waist straightened a lot.

President Pei rushed over after hearing the news and found that the painting was really extraordinary, so he hurriedly called his secretary and asked him to take a video, take pictures of the details of the painting, and send it to the official account of the Painting and Calligraphy Association on the short video platform In order to increase the influence of the painting and calligraphy exhibition.

Soon, charlie saw an introduction to this painting on the official short video account of the Painting and Calligraphy Association.

In the video, the photographer used his mobile phone to capture many details of the painting one by one, especially Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s lifelike portrait of the characters, and besides that, there was the line of writing written by charlie himself.

As soon as this video was released, it caused a great shock in the fan circle of the Calligraphy and Painting Association account.

You have seen many paintings of the Tang Dynasty in various materials, but you have never seen works of this style, so all calligraphy and painting lovers immediately began to comment Get up, and continue to share the video with more people in the circle.

Soon, this video has gained a lot of attention and traffic in the local calligraphy and painting circles, and it has caused a sensation in a small area.

charlie immediately asked the person in charge of the short video platform to make some adjustments to the internal algorithm, to give this video more traffic, and to push this video to many Aurous Hill local users, in order to help this video Break the circle.

This kind of behavior of breaking the circle is very common in the algorithmic logic of short videos.

Sometimes, blindly pushing what the user is interested in according to his preferences will have good results in a short period of time, but over time, the user is always doing subtraction.

For example, there are 10,000 tags of different content in the content library. Users use their own behaviors to gradually eliminate them. In the end, there may be only a dozen or even a few tags of interest.

The information corresponding to other tags is formed by the algorithm as a wall, making it increasingly difficult for users to receive information about new things.

Therefore, after the short video platform gradually adjusts the algorithm, it will not blindly cater to the preferences of users, and occasionally find some popular content in other tags to try to push to users who do not have this tag.

Once users accept the new label, it will have a good effect on improving user viscosity and retention.

And some videos with particularly good conversion data will often become a sharp weapon to break the circle, and they will become popular all of a sudden.

The legal profession itself is a very unpopular profession, and most ordinary people don't pay attention to it, but since Zhang San, an outlaw lunatic, appeared on the Huaxia Network, many people who have little to do with the law have also fallen in love with the outlaw. Related videos of lunatics, this is a typical example of breaking the circle.

charlie didn't intend to let Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s portrait break the circle nationwide, but it is still necessary for it to break the circle in Aurous Hill.

Therefore, with the help of the algorithm and the support of internal traffic, this video soon had hundreds of thousands of views, and even rushed to the local hot list.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5968 -

When charlie started to measure this video, he paid attention to the information of the aircraft departing from Argentina and heading for the northern hemisphere on the aviation software.

He guessed that the CCP would definitely not allow the three elders to take civil airliners, so he ignored all ordinary flights and only focused on private jets and cargo planes.

Therefore, he first paid attention to all private jets and cargo planes flying to the northern hemisphere, and paid attention to their routes. Once this video became popular, a certain plane turned around and flew back to Argentina over the ocean, then this plane must be The car of the three elders.

Right now, on the edge of Antarctica.

Sara was also paying close attention to Aurous Hill's every move.

A cargo plane dispatched by the Chinese military governor's office this morning just flew over Aurous Hill an hour ago. The destination of the plane was Luzhou near Aurous Hill. When passing over Aurous Hill, the flight was lowered according to air traffic control requirements. The height is also just enough to capture the topography of Aurous Hill clearly.

The photos taken on the plane were quickly sent back to the headquarters of the Po Qinghui, and Sara immediately found a circular blank area with a radius of several hundred meters in the valley near Wanliu Villa.

She was able to determine almost immediately that Willie had detonated the formation that she had left in his Niwan Palace.

Uncle Willie had been wiped out, and 2nd Uncle's chances of surviving were very slim. Sara began to worry in her heart, worried that the person who forced Uncle Willie to blow himself up was not dead, and might even be stronger than herself.

Of course, Sara also knew that she couldn't figure out whether that person was dead or not. The best way was to find out the An family and take action against the An family after the three elders arrived in Aurous Hill.

The two times I wanted to destroy An's family, someone suddenly appeared in an emergency and saved An's family from fire and water. This proved that the other party had indeed been secretly protecting An's family.

And if that person hadn't died, he would have stayed in Aurous Hill to protect An's family.

Now, the An family's plane is still parked in Aurous Hill, and I haven't heard the news that the An family has left Aurous Hill. As long as the three elders arrive in Aurous Hill and attack An's family, that person will definitely jump out to protect them. Kill them, and then kill An's family completely.

If the three elders didn't have any masters to stop them when they beheaded the An family, it would prove that the mysterious opponent had already died from Willie's self-destruct.

Just when she felt that the trip to Aurous Hill by the three elders was safe, a mobile phone in front of her suddenly received a push from a short video platform.

For this phone, Sara changed the phone's i-address and location information, and changed her location to Aurous Hill, in order to be able to know what's going on in Aurous Hill as soon as possible.

Now, Charlie asked the short video platform to break the circle of Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s painting in Aurous Hill, and the target audience of the push is the local users whose location information is in Aurous Hill.

Therefore, Sara was naturally included in this.

The moment Sara saw this push, her eyes widened immediately, and her whole body felt darkened, as if all the blood rushed straight to the sky in an instant!

She thought she had misread it, so she rubbed her eyes subconsciously, and after recovering her vision a little, she held the phone in front of her again.

She looked intently with lingering fears, and saw that the front of this post had a "local" prefix, and the title read "Looking for Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s traditional Chinese painting heritage spanning thousands of years!" "

When Sara confirmed every word of the title, she was already shocked!

Immediately afterwards, her legs gave way and she fell to the ground!

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5969 -

Sara couldn't believe that after living for four hundred years, she would still see the word Meng Changsheng (Willie) again!

That's her master who passed away more than three hundred years ago and drove the crane west!

She quickly picked up the phone again, and clicked on the notification with trembling hands.

The phone immediately jumped to the short video software, and directly opened and played the video from the Painting and Calligraphy Association!

In the picture, Meng Changsheng (Willie) is standing on the edge of the cliff, with long hair, white beard and Taoist robes fluttering in the wind. His whole person is extraordinary and awe-inspiring.

Sara subconsciously covered her mouth, eyes full of fear. She was extremely flustered, and murmured to herself, "How could Master's portrait appear in Aurous Hill... But Master has passed away for more than three hundred years, who painted this painting?!"

As if her heart was being hammered heavily, she thought to herself in fear, "So, at least this painting was painted before Master passed away..." At this time, a narration voice came from the video, "It was appraised by experts from the Aurous Hill Painting and Calligraphy Association. , this portrait of Meng Changsheng (Willie), the silk cloth material and paint used in it are all in line with the characteristics of Tang Dynasty painting, but the artist who painted this painting has a level of realistic painting that is much higher than other Tang Dynasty painters. This style of Tang Dynasty paintings is still a blank in the field of domestic painting and calligraphy."

Sara was even more terrified when she heard this!

She was very nervous and said to herself, "This painting is actually a painting of the Tang Dynasty?! Could it be... Could it be that it was painted by the disciples that Master accepted in the first five hundred years?! Then why did this painting appear in the Aurous Hill?! Moreover, why did this painting come out suddenly today?! Uncle Willie was killed in an explosion yesterday, and 2nd Uncle disappeared yesterday. Today, a painting of Master suddenly appeared in Aurous Hill..." Speaking of which , Sara suddenly exclaimed in panic, "Oops! That person knows my identity! He must have known my true identity and everything about me, so he deliberately took out the portrait of Master to warn me..."

At this thought, Sara suddenly lost control of her emotions, and shouted loudly, “Who the hell are you!! If you are the first disciple accepted by Master within 500 years, then you have lived for nearly a thousand years now?! Could it be... Could it be You’ve already taken the Hundred Turns Thousand Returns Pill?!” “

If that’s the case, I have no grievances with you, and I even went to the same school as my teacher, why do you target me everywhere?! Do you have anything to do with the An family?!” “

“If you have something to do with An’s family, you can tell me clearly, at worst, I won’t touch An’s family anymore, and I won’t look for the secret of longevity, but why do you hide in the dark and keep targeting me?!”

Said Here, Sara has collapsed!

For so many years, she has kept her identity extremely secret, for fear of letting the outside world know that she has lived for three or four hundred years.

However, now that she suddenly saw Master’s portrait appearing in Aurous Hill, she felt as if someone had torn off her fig leaf, making all her concealment disappear without a trace!

She panicked like a headless chicken, and shouted hysterically, “Also! How did you know my identity?! Did you know everything about me from a long time ago, or did you learn everything about me from Uncle Willie and 2nd Uncle?” Message?! I want to know how strong you are, that you can resist Willie’s self-destruction?!” “

Also! Are you threatening me by releasing the portrait of Master now?!”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5970 -

It has been more than 300 years for Sara, and she has never been as scared as she is today.

That strange sense of fear surged into her heart like a flood that opened the gate instantly, making her feel a sense of falling at an ever-accelerating speed.

Although she lived to be four hundred years old, although her strength became stronger and stronger as she lived, her courage became smaller and smaller as she lived.

Over the years, she has been most afraid of two things, one is that she will grow old and die, and the other is that her identity will be revealed.

Therefore, there are many members of the Chaoqing Society, but there are not many people who really know the identity of the hero.

Except for the four earls, the rest, without exception, are all from the Wu family.

And those Wu family members are all descendants of Sara's tribe. These people all rely on Sara to live a life of luxury, so their loyalty to Sara is also extremely high.

As for the very few rebels in the Wu family, Sara has never been merciful to them. She will kill those who deserve to be killed.

Moreover, she also has reservations about the Wu family.

The Wu family only knew that she had great supernatural powers and gained longevity, but they didn't know where she learned from.

The four earls are the same, knowing that she has lived for four hundred years, but they don't know who her master is.

While Sara was terrified, she also thought of this.

She originally thought that Dingyuan Boyun Ruge didn't die, but leaked his information to the secret enemy.

But thinking about it carefully, he had never told her who his master was.

Apart from herself, there are only three people in this world who know that she is a teacher of Meng Changsheng (Willie).

One is Meng Changsheng (Willie) himself;

the other is Aasif, her senior brother whom she once loved deeply;

The other one is Aasif's daughter, Lin Wan'er (Alani).

Thinking of this, Sara suddenly widened her eyes, gritted her teeth and said in a cold voice, "Lin Wan'er (Alani)... Could it be that you leaked my information?!" Thinking of this,

Sara immediately recalled a detail, and muttered to herself, "The last time I sent someone to When Lin Wan'er (Alani) was arrested, she was assisted by an expert, and she escaped unharmed, and the person sent that time was the Cyprus cavalry guard, and not long after that, Jiangong Bo died in the dead soldier's station in Cyprus, and the whole The slain warriors and guards at the station also disappeared without a trace... Could it be... Could it be that Lin Wan'er (Alani) really found a backer?!" "

Then... where did the master's portrait come from? Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't Having met Master, it is impossible for her to know what Master looks like, so that portrait can never be made by her..." "Could it be that the person who helped him is the author of this portrait?!"

Sara just popped up. Immediately, she felt that this idea was unlikely, and she said to herself, "At present, this mysterious person is more like An's backer than Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s backer. The An family seems to be guarding the An family all the way, since he cares so much about the safety of the An family, how could he separate himself from Northern Europe to protect Lin Wan'er (Alani)?" "But if Lin Wan'er (Alani) hadn't leaked my identity, where did that person come from? Did you know my identity?! Could it be... Could it be that after Master took us in, he went to see Master and learned of my existence from Master?!" "But, after so many years, Why did he choose to show up at this time instead of showing up all the time?!" "What's even more inexplicable is that if this person is really a disciple that Master accepted in the last five hundred years, then he can also be regarded as my senior brother, Sara. The strength must be above me, such a strong person, why should he protect the An family? The An family, what can he do?!" At this moment, a thought flashed through Sara's mind, and she blurted out in surprise, "Is he Want to find the secret of longevity too?!"

Thinking of this, Sara frowned again, and muttered to herself, “If he also wants to find the secret of longevity, then he shouldn’t protect the An family...”

For a moment, all kinds of unclear and unclear clues criss-crossed, making Sara feel that her brain was not enough.

However, there is one thing she can confirm, that is, when the other party took out the painting, it was made clear that it was to send Sara a warning signal. If Sara continued to hold on to An’s family, the other party would definitely return the favor. color.
