

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5971 -

This made Sara think of Willie who had died in the explosion, and couldn't help saying, "By the way, Willie discovered the magic weapon as soon as he arrived in Aurous Hill, and it could even cause thunder. Now it seems that this is definitely not Willie. It's luck, but the other party has already set a trap for him!"

"If this is the case, then he has been waiting to kill the person I sent!" "

And he knows that I will definitely send a master who is proficient in aura, so Deliberately using weapons as bait to lure my people into being fooled!"

Thinking of this, Sara no longer cared about sorting out the countless clues and possibilities in her mind, she just wanted to quickly call all the three elders back.

Because, since the opponent is not even afraid of Willie's self-destruction, the three elders may not be his opponents.

If these three people arrived in Aurous Hill and were set up by the other party to kill them all, wouldn't they suffer even more losses? !

Three of the four great earls have already disappeared, and if the three elders are gone, Po Qinghui will lose more than half of its fighting power in terms of aura.

Moreover, she was even more worried that now that the other party released the portrait of the master, it should only be a warning to herself. If she immediately sent the three elders to Aurous Hill, wouldn't it be clear that she would fight the other party to the end? In this way, I am afraid it will completely anger the other party!

Not daring to delay, Sara immediately picked up a satellite phone and called Jadiel on the plane.

At this moment, Jadiel had just calmed down the three elders' fear of the plane for a while, when he suddenly received a call from Sara, he immediately answered the phone, and said respectfully, "My lord, what are your orders?" Sara said without hesitation, "The mission is cancelled, immediately Turn around and come back!"

“Ah?” Jadiel quickly picked up the phone and walked to the back of the Boeing plane, and asked in amazement, “My lord...why did you cancel the mission? The three elders finally left the customs, and they will go to Aurous Hill to find out what happened Ah!”

Sara scolded in a cold voice, “I tell you to come back and you will come back! Who gave you the guts to question my decision?!”

Jadiel was dripping with cold sweat, he slapped himself twice, and said in fear, “I’m talking too much, and I hope the Lord will make amends, please rest assured, the Lord will let the crew return to the flight!”

After hanging up the phone, Jadiel hurried to the cockpit.

passing threeIn the area where the great elder was resting, Wu Bolin (Bick) asked, “Tianlin, what happened? Why did the Lord of England ask us to go back?!”

Jadiel realized how stupid he was just now. Cancellation, among the three elders in front of me, which one is not powerful? Everything I said to the Lord on the phone could not escape their ears, so it was naturally impossible for the Lord to mention any secrets on the phone.

So, he hurriedly said to the three of them, “The British lord suddenly said that the mission was cancelled, but the juniors don’t know the specific reason.

” Tell the crew, what’s the specific situation, let’s wait until we go back and see the hero, and then we’ll see what the hero has to say!” When the three of them heard this, they couldn’t help but feel a little disappointed.

It’s not that they want to go to Aurous Hill to complete the task, they just think that the Lord of England woke them up from the retreat to let them complete this important task. Although their retreat was interrupted, as long as the task is completed, the Lord of England will definitely There will be rewards, and they can continue to retreat with peace of mind.

However, the British Lord suddenly asked them to go back, which means that not only will they not get any rewards, they may even enter an emergency state of being on standby at all times. Once they enter this state, they don’t know when they can get back. Closed again!

The three of them looked at each other, and they could see the doubt and dissatisfaction in each other's eyes, but on this plane that made them uneasy, no one dared to speak out what was in their hearts.

Soon, under Jadiel's instruction, the crew applied to the air traffic control for a return route to Buenos Aires.

Five minutes later, air traffic control approved the aircraft's return application.

Then, the Boeing 777 drew a huge circle over the ocean, turned around and flew towards the airport it came from.

At this moment, charlie, who had monitored many planes, suddenly discovered that most of the transoceanic planes were traveling in a straight line, but only one plane completed a 360-degree turn in the sky and left a circular trajectory map. , Flying in the direction of Buenos Aires.

Seeing this scene, charlie finally breathed a sigh of relief.

He knew that his "Empty City Plan" worked!

The plane of the three elders turned around, and charlie Wade instantly felt the turn of the situation in his heart.

In front of the Po Qinghui ( Benn ), although he was at an absolute disadvantage, he was able to win several times against the Po Qinghui ( Benn ).

Now, the Qing Dynasty has not only lost a garrison of dead soldiers, but also lost three earls. More importantly, this "Empty City Plan" has already begun to make Sara throw a mouse.

charlie Wade had speculated about Sara's heart. Although he had never met her, he could feel several characteristics of this woman. One was suspicious by nature, and the other was extremely cautious. If it weren't for being suspicious by nature, it would never be possible to use cronyism. The core of the entire Poqinghui is in the hands of the Wu family;

He tried his best to hide his identity, for fear that outsiders would know him.

Therefore, the more you have such a personality, the less you dare to gamble.

It was precisely because of this that Charlie Wade concluded that once Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s portrait came out, she would not dare to come to Aurous Hill again.

Charlie Wade breathed a sigh of relief, and planned to call Lin Wan'er (Alani) to say the good news, so as to make her feel more at ease.

Unexpectedly, as soon as he picked up the phone on his side, Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s call arrived first.

Charlie Wade answered the phone, and heard Lin Wan'er (Alani) say on the other end of the phone, "Young master, I just found out that there was a Boeing 777 that took off from Buenos Aires, and it suddenly turned around! The three elders should be on that plane. Come on?"

Charlie Wade asked in surprise, "Did you also pay attention to that plane?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "Go back to my son, my family has been paying attention to the flight situation in South America. After seeing it, I quickly called my son. This phone call from Lai Nu's house is a bit redundant, the young master has already paid attention to it."

Charlie Wade said with a smile, "Not redundant, since both of us have paid attention to the same plane, it proves that our guess is unlikely to be wrong. The three elders must have been called back by Sara."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) giggled, and said, "My lord is indeed a good strategist. After singing 'Empty City Strategies', it not only relieved the immediate urgent need, but also made Sara cast a taboo. Compared with Zhuge Liang's straw boat borrowing arrows back then, it is not much worse!"

"Old Chen's face was a little hot, and he said, "Miss Lin, please don't praise me. How can I be worthy and dare to be compared with Mr. Zhuge?" , it is impossible to have the strength of the young master."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) did not continue to develop on this issue, but asked Charlie Wade, "I don't know what the young master's plan is next?"

Charlie Wade said, "I have no plans for the time being. In Aurous Hill, I plan to meet with them, and it is time for me to clarify the grievances and grievances of so many years face to face."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) agreed and said, "Young Master should indeed go to meet them, from last night to now, trust them I have been waiting for the son to appear again."

Charlie Wade looked at the time, and it was not yet noon, so he said, "Yesterday's battle was indeed exhausting, and now Sara has withdrawn the three elders to the lair of the Po Qinghui (Benn). I can finally breathe a sigh of relief, I will rest at home in the afternoon, and I will go to see my grandfather's family in the evening."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) agreed, "Young Master has experienced too much from last night to now, so you really should take a good rest."

Said Then, she said softly, "In this case, I will not bother you to rest. After the young master handles the matter at hand, if you still want to see the slave, you can contact the slave at any time." Charlie Wade said, "I will start tonight."

"Go to the Champs-Elysees half-mountain villa to meet my grandparents. Later, I will bring the elixir and visit the Zijin Villa. Since I promised the three old gentlemen today that I would give them a chance, naturally I cannot let them wait for too long, especially that grandpa grandpa, his physical condition is already making it difficult to wait any longer."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) heard that Charlie Wade was going to Zijin Villa tonight, and asked excitedly, "Is your son really going to Zijin Villa tonight?"

Charlie Wade said firmly, "Of course, but it also depends on whether it is inconvenient for Ms. Lin and the three old gentlemen. If it is inconvenient, you can choose another day." "Convenient and convenient, naturally convenient!" Toss it, I can fly a helicopter to the Champs-Elysees hot spring to pick up your son!"

charlie Wade said with a smile, "Miss Lin doesn't have to make such a fuss, I will drive there by myself at night, if Miss Lin doesn't want the servants of Zijin Villa to see it, let them avoid it in advance Just a moment."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) hurriedly said, "Master, coming tonight is not the same as leaving this morning. The servants don't have to avoid it in advance, unless..."

charlie Wade asked subconsciously, "Unless what?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said shyly, "Unless... unless The young master is here tonight, so he is not going to leave..."

charlie Wade hurriedly said, "Ahem...how could it be...Miss Lin, don't worry, I can't stay for too long, then let the three old gentlemen stay in your other courtyard Wait..."

Although Lin Wan'er (Alani) on the other end of the phone blushed, her mouth couldn't help pouting, and she couldn't help complaining in her heart, "Is the young master really confused, or is he pretending to be confused? Can the young master play Sara?" Turning around, don't you know the truth about whether a man and a woman should kiss or not? In the Ming and Qing dynasties, girls were considered to have lost their virginity when their arms were seen. What's more, the slave family was seen by the young master last night, and he was still close to the young master. I mean, if you were born in a slave family, if you were so close to a man but couldn't get married, I'm afraid the only way would be to throw yourself into a well..." Although Lin Wan'er (Alani) lived for more than three hundred years, in her bones, she was still the same as when she took the Everlasting Green Pill. That Lin Wan'er (Alani).

That Lin Wan'er (Alani) has firmly believed since she was a child that the most important thing for a woman is chastity and a husband, so when charlie Wade suddenly appeared from the hot spring pool, she told herself in her heart that it was charlie Wade who would not marry in this life!

At this moment, she couldn't help sighing to charlie Wade, "Master, don't you know that, in terms of love, reason, and everything, the only way for my family is to marry the son;"

"Yu Qing, the young master saved the life of the slave family, and the slave family really has a good impression of the young master. This is the first time that the slave family has lived for more than three hundred years. Therefore, the slave family naturally hopes to marry the person they love; “

“Yu Li, the young master has seen all of the slave’s body, and even has skin-to-skin relationship with the slave. If you don’t marry the slave, how will the master let the slave behave in the future?” “If the son is willing to marry the slave, the slave will also I can fully understand the current laws and regulations. Since the son has already married a real wife, the slave family does not require the son to be married with a matchmaker. For the rest of my life, my slave family is willing to be a concubine by the young master’s side;” “

If the young master is unwilling to marry the slave family, then the slave family... will not marry for the rest of their lives!”
