

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5976 -

Jadiel exclaimed, "This person Could it be that he has something to do with Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) and bruce?!"

Sara gritted her teeth and said, "How is that possible! If he is related to Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) and bruce, then when Willie attacked him and his wife twenty years ago, he I won't sit idly by!"

"This..." Jadiel frowned, "What the Lord said makes sense... The subordinates always feel that this matter is very strange, and there are countless possibilities, but each one seems to have some thoughts. What doesn't make sense..."

Thinking of this, Jadiel lowered his head and thought for a long time, then looked at Sara, and asked, "My lord, do you think there is another possibility?"

Sara said, "Say it!"

Jadiel hurriedly said "My lord, my subordinates feel that the other party may not have any relationship with your master. It is also possible that he just got the painting by chance, and happened to know your identity information from Uncle or Lin Wan'er (Alani). He is Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s disciple, so he deliberately used this painting to scare you! Think about it, if the other party is really powerful, why would he bother to show this painting? It would be more realistic to just wait in Jinling." Sara asked with a frown "You mean, the other party is just bluffing and singing "Empty City Strategies" to me?"

"Yes!" Jadiel said without hesitation, "I think this is a possibility."

Sara nodded, and said coldly, "It's not like I didn't doubt what you said, but I have no way to prove it. If you really want to prove it, let the three elders go there, but if the three elders are also killed in Jinling, the Poqing Society will not only suffer heavy losses, but may even completely anger the other party."

Jadiel thought for a while, and asked: " Lord Ying, can you send an elder to Jinling first to find out the truth?"

"One?" Sara shook her head and said, "Although I don't know how strong that person is, since Bo Changsheng's self-explosion failed to kill him, it proves that His strength is definitely higher than any of the three elders, sending an elder there is no different from sending him to death, if the other party is stronger than me, then sending three of them over will have the same result.” Sara spoke again

. Said, “And have you ever thought about it, the other party may not be using my master’s portrait to scare me, or he may be using my master’s portrait to stimulate me. If this is not an empty city plan but a provocative method, then his ultimate goal, I am afraid They want to lure me out!”

Jadiel said with a shocked expression, “You are right... Empty city tactics and aggressive tactics seem to be almost the same on the surface, but the possible results are one day at a time, one death at a time... the other party We have fought against us several times in secret, and each time we have gained the upper hand, and now I probably want to force you to show up...”

Sara nodded, and said, “Besides, this person is a bit like me.”

Jadiel asked hurriedly “My lord, what are you talking about?”

Sara said, “This person is not only a monk, but also very skilled in the use of firearms!”

After speaking, Sara said again, “I am because of people who understand martial arts and people who practice Taoism.” That’s why you use modern weapons to train dead warriors and knight guards;” “The dead warriors trained by us are like chopping melons and vegetables. Those martial arts masters just don’t know how to deal with the dense bullets. Influential native chicken and tile dog;”

“And this person is even better than me! He could have thought of using a close-in defense cannon to kill a master monk! This man’s method is really not ordinary ruthless!” Jadiel recalled Jiang Gongbo Ou Bojun being bombed by a close-in defense cannon Cheng dna couldn’t help but shuddered, and couldn’t help but said, “Last time we found out that three people from the Blackwater Company bought three near-anti-aircraft guns from the black market in Eastern Europe, and they belonged to the same near-anti-aircraft gun that killed Uncle Model;”

“But at the Blackwater Company, Uncle Sean has been investigating, but he has not found anything special. He has secretly tied up several executives of Blackwater and tortured him, but he has not asked any clues;”

” In the past few days, the Blackwater Company has announced the suspension of sending additional troops overseas due to the bizarre deaths of several high-ranking officials, and the subordinates speculate that the death of Uncle is likely to be deliberately blamed on the Blackwater Company.” Sara hummed and said He said, “Notify Uncle Sean that there is no need to investigate the Blackwater Company anymore. In addition, inform the Governor’s Office of the Five Armies that all external actions will be stopped immediately, and the meeting will be silent for three months!” Jadiel said without hesitation, “Good Lord , This subordinate will inform you!”

Sara said again, “By the way, you inform the crew to prepare, and I will go to Myanmar tomorrow.”

Jadiel exclaimed, “My lord, I dare you, why are you so critical at such a critical moment?” Want to leave the station?”

Sara glared at him with a murderous look, and said coldly, “Bastard! Is this what you should ask?”

Jadiel was so frightened by Sara’s eyes that his whole body trembled, he knelt down on his knees in a hurry, and slammed his forehead on the ground, saying in horror, “This subordinate should die, I beg the Lord to atone for my sin!” Sara snorted coldly, and scolded, “From now on

! In the future, if you say anything more, go back to the Liaodong ancestral mausoleum to fend for yourself!”

The Wu family’s ancestral home is Liaodong, and the Wu family’s ancestral grave is there.

However, for the Wu family in the Qing Dynasty, once the Lord of England asked him to return to Liaodong to guard the ancestral grave, it would be the same as being sent to Ninggu Pagoda by the Qing Dynasty. Once he went there, he could only die there in this life.

Jadiel was terrified, he slapped himself twice, kowtowed and cried, "This subordinate should die, this subordinate should die! Thank you, Lord Hong En!"

Sara ignored him, and said calmly, "Go away, tell me to you Arrangements have been made!"

"Your subordinates obey!" Jadiel kowtowed three times again as if he had been pardoned, and fled out the door.

Sara suddenly yelled, "Stop!"

Jadiel's back felt cold, he hurriedly turned his head, and asked tremblingly, "Ying... British Lord... what do you want?"

Sara asked him, "How are the three elders?"

Seeing that Sara was not pursuing him, Jadiel breathed a sigh of relief, and quickly bowed and said, "Back to the Lord, the three elders are all waiting in the secret meeting hall. "

Sara frowned, and asked him, "When I asked you to return, did you notice any changes in the three of them?"

" At that time, the three elders seemed a little displeased."

"Displeased?" Sara sneered, and said calmly, "These three people are dissatisfied with me for disturbing their retreat, it seems that human nature is like this, you reward him with a bowl of rice Eat, he may not be grateful to you, but if you want to take away half of the food he ate, he will hate you instead."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5978

Jadiel cautiously asked, "My lord, what do you think it should be?"

Sara said calmly, "Award! Naturally, it should be rewarded! Leading troops to fight, you should be rewarded if you win, you should be rewarded if you are tired, and you should be rewarded for running for nothing!"

After all, he said, "However, the award is not for now. Let them hang out and let them complain in their hearts. Rewarding them directly will make them feel that they should be rewarded. It is better to let their own thoughts be random first." Diverge, and when the time is right, let them feel ashamed of their previous complaints."

Jadiel was confused, but he could only flatter and flatter: "The hero is wise, and the subordinates feel inferior!"

Sara knew that he was just innocent. He flirted with flattery, so he waved his hands impatiently and said, "Okay, you go and arrange a place for them. It's good to be with them for a few days. I'll talk about the rest when I come back." Jadiel said without hesitation, "It belongs to Follow orders!"

After Jadiel went out, Sara paced to a world map projected onto the wall with a laser.

The ceiling of the main hall is more than six meters high, and a world map six meters high and twelve meters wide is projected on the entire wall.

She looked at Myanmar on the map, looked at the southern Yunnan next to Myanmar, and looked at the 100,000 mountains thousands of miles away from southern Yunnan, and her thoughts suddenly flew.

She thought of her senior brother, and then of her master.

Thinking of Master's portrait being taken out to warn herself by others today, she couldn't help but whispered to herself, "Master, it seems that you really look down on me and senior brother. Before you left, I was with senior brother and me, but even so, You never told us the secret of longevity, so that I have to learn the details of the secret of longevity from others after more than 300 years of your death. I, Sara, can't get into your eyes like this?!"

Thinking of this, Sara's thoughts instantly returned to 1650, more than three hundred years ago.

Among the 100,000 mountains, there is a forbidden place that is rarely visited by people.

There are no residents here for hundreds of miles. The reason is that since hundreds of years ago, there has been an unimaginable miasma here. No matter where you go, you will end up outside the miasma, and after inhaling the miasma, you will have headaches and nausea that will last for several months, excruciating pain, and even more desperate people want to go inside the miasma to find out, and finally die in it .

Therefore, over time, the surrounding mountain people respected this place and regarded it as an absolute forbidden place.

However, these mountain people didn't know that the center of the miasma was actually the cave where Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) practiced in seclusion.

And those miasmas are nothing more than formations he has set up around to isolate the troubles of mortals.

He wholeheartedly asked questions, only wished for longevity, and lived alone in this mountain for hundreds of years.

When Sara and Aasif were chased by the Qing army to the Shiwan Dashan, they had nowhere to go and plunged into this endless miasma.

If the Qing army hadn't set fire to the mountain and angered Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st), he would not have rescued the two by accident.

It was only after Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) rescued the two that he learned that the outside world had undergone sudden changes, and the dynasty of the Han people had been overthrown by the Jurchen.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5979 -

It was precisely because of this that he accepted Sara and Aasif as disciples, passed on their skills, and let them continue to fight against the Qing Dynasty.

As for himself, he still couldn't give up his wish of longevity and continued to stay in the Hundred Thousand Mountains to practice hard.

At this time, Sara's thoughts flew to 1662 again.

That's right, she still only thought of joining her senior brother Aasif in dedicating herself to the anti-Qing cause and dying.

They assassinated Wu Sangui together, but they never thought that Wu Sangui also attracted many capable people and strangers, and the assassination failed. Almost all the righteous men who participated in the operation with them died in battle, but she and her senior brother fought to the death to make a bloody way.

After the failure of the operation, both of them were very depressed, and at that time, Nanming was almost destroyed, and the mainland had no main force to resist the Qing Dynasty, so Aasif proposed to her that the two of them go to Taiwan to seek refuge with Zheng Chenggong, the surname of the country, hoping to follow The surname of the country, continue to resist the ambition of the Qing Dynasty.

The two struggled to escape from the siege of the Qing army in southern Yunnan. It was a pity that God failed to fulfill their wishes. Before they had finished half the journey, the news of Guo Xingye's sudden death spread back to the mainland.

At that time, the Qing court could not wait for the whole country to celebrate.

And she and Aasif were also disheartened at that moment.

The two knew that their strength was limited and they couldn't do anything with their arms. In addition, the Qing army wanted them everywhere. In desperation, the two had no choice but to return to Shiwan Dashan and seek refuge with Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) again.

But who would have thought that Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) had reached his end at that time.

Thinking of this, Sara fast-forwarded again, and came to the spring of 1663.

The scene from that year resurfaced in her mind again.

She and her senior brother were meditating and breathing. Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st), whose eyebrows and beard were already white, came to the two of them with a stooped figure, and said calmly, "Aasif, Sara, you two come with me." The two just felt that today

's Master was extremely tired, but he didn't notice anything wrong.

So, the two followed Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) to his stone room.

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) pointed to the two futons in front of him, and said to them, "Sit down!"

Seeing this, the two respectfully crossed their legs in front of him.

Only then did Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) say, "Although the fate between me and you is shallow, after all, we are masters and apprentices. You also have the great cause of resisting the Qing Dynasty in your heart. You are both teachers and Han people. I also hope that you can continue this great cause and recover as soon as possible." Han people Jiangshan..."

After finishing speaking, he took out two pills from his pocket, put them on the stone table in front of the two of them, and said lightly, "These two pills are the eternal green pills that my master once mentioned to you, take this pill, the life expectancy can be up to 500 years, 500 years of vicissitudes, I hope that with these two elixirs, you can complete the great cause of fighting against the Qing Dynasty."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5980

Sara was very excited when she heard that the elixir in front of her was actually an evergreen elixir that could live for 500 years, Thank you again and again: "Feiyan, thank you, Master! Don't worry, Master, Sara will definitely drive the Manchu Emperor back to Ninggu Pagoda!"

Aasif looked at the two pills, then looked up at Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st), with a slightly Asked nervously, "Master, why did you give such a precious pill to your disciple today?"

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) said indifferently, "A thousand years seems to be a long time, but it is only a snap of your fingers. The so-called longevity, now it seems, In fact, it is just pulling the original normal life forcibly, just like an ingot of gold, although it can be stretched into an extremely long gold thread, but its essence is just that ingot of gold." Aasif said blankly, "

Master, my apprentice is stupid, I don't understand what you mean, I hope Master will clarify..."

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) said indifferently, "Expelling captives, entering the Tao as a middle-aged teacher, although he has lived for a thousand years, but the situation of more than 900 years is in the meditation During training, if I hadn't met you, as a teacher, I would not have known that the outside world has changed. Now that I think about it, although I have lived for a thousand years, the truly wonderful life is only a few decades. Nine hundred years are boring and boring. Now that I think about it, it would be better if I didn't enter the Tao, and as a teacher, I can enjoy the family happiness of having children and grandchildren..."

Aasif was even more puzzled, and blurted out, "Master, you have practiced for thousands of years. , I want to change my fate against the sky. If I succeed in ascension one day, wouldn't I really seek longevity? "

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) smiled miserably, and lamented, "Change your fate against the sky... There is no such thing as changing your fate against the sky. A dream for thousands of years, a dull teacher! Lin Aasif realized that Master's mood was different from the past, and asked with concern, "Master, what happened to you today?" Do you feel angry when you think of something sad? "

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) waved his hand and said calmly, "There is nothing sad about being a teacher, it's just that the deadline is approaching and I feel unwilling. "

" Big limit? ! Both Aasif and Sara turned pale with shock.

At this time, Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) said calmly, "The thousand-year limit for being a teacher has come. Unfortunately, the teacher has not solved the next puzzle and cannot continue his life. These two pills The medicine is a gift to you before the teacher's deadline. After the teacher's deadline, you will take the elixir and go down the mountain to continue fighting against the Qing Dynasty! "

Aasif burst into tears immediately, and asked with disbelief, "Master, are you joking...you are so strong, how could you..."

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) smiled wryly, "No matter how strong you are, you can't match the way of heaven. All that can be done is to delay it for a while. Now it seems that the Heavenly Dao of being a teacher is only two days away. "

Sara at the side thought of something, and hurriedly said, "Master, if the way of heaven is coming to you...then...then..."

At this point, Sara suddenly stumbled, unable to say what to do next.

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) looked at Sara smiled and asked, “Sara, what do you want to say, but it doesn’t matter. “

Sara pursed her lips, and summoned up her courage to say, “Master, if the way of heaven is coming to you, can you pass on all the magic tools and elixir you have learned all your life to me and senior brother? Otherwise, if you really It’s true that the Immortal Zuohua has passed away, wouldn’t these treasures be wasted...”

Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) looked at the two eternal green pills, and then at Sara, knowing what Sara was thinking, Sara must have thought that he had practiced for thousands of years , the treasures in his hands are naturally countless, it is impossible to only have two pills. Before Meng Changsheng (Willie the 1st) could speak, Aasif reprimanded him sharply, “Feiyan! What are you talking about?! How can you talk to Master like that!”

Looking at Sara, she smiled and said, “Sara, as a teacher, I do have a lot of life-long knowledge and treasures, but I am not stingy, so I don’t want to pass it on to you. The teacher’s lifelong learning.”
