

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5989 -

The An family knew that their “benefactor” belonged to the same person as the “benefactor” of the Fei family.

However, when Asher knew that the big man behind the scenes was actually his nephew who had been missing for twenty years, he still felt a little unbelievable.

charlie didn't hide his secrets at this time, and said lightly, “Mr. Fei intended to buy a Huichun Pill at the Huichun Pill auction that day, but unexpectedly, his son took the opportunity to seize the power. I have some friendship with Miss Fei, so So I helped their grandparent and grandson.”

Asher nodded lightly, and sighed, “It's really unexpected...My big nephew has such extraordinary abilities, and he really is not a treasure!

” Li Yalin, who was speechless, said at this time, “Asher, don't forget that even my life was saved by Mr. charlie.” “

Yes yes yes.” Asher replied He came to his senses and said, “It's amazing! I used to disdain my brother-in-law when he talked about these strange things. I always felt that he was a good scholar, a good young talent in the financial field, and he was free to study every day. What kind of practice, inheritance, and destiny are simply not doing their job properly. Now it seems that he has already discovered the mystery of it, no wonder he is so firm...” charlie couldn't help asking, “

Uncle, you said that my dad has been studying the inheritance and destiny of cultivation. Ge?”

“Yes!” Asher nodded and said, “When your father and your mother were in the United States, they began to study these things. At that time, I didn't believe it. His qigong is not bad.”

charlie hurriedly asked, “Uncle, can you tell me what happened in detail? Why did my dad start studying these things?”

Asher thought for a while, and opened his mouth Said, “It's a long story. When your dad was in the United States, to be honest, I admired him a lot. At that time, I just graduated from college. I learned some useful knowledge from him every day. Your dad is very easy to learn. , in addition to the content related to financial management, I also like to study some antiques and ancient documents; “

“At that time, he often paid attention to the antique market and auction market in the United States. If he encountered cultural relics lost in China, he would try his best to take pictures of the museums donated to China. But once, he bought a set of antiques in an antique shop in New York. Books, but he locked himself in the study for three days; “”For those three days, he didn't eat or drink, and he didn't step out of the study door. After three days, your mother saw that something was wrong, so she wanted to go in to persuade him He, in the end your mother also watched it, and watched it day and night...”

Having said this, Asher couldn't help sighing, and said with emotion, “You can't even imagine how crazy they are, and they went back to the living room together. In the suite, I studied that set of books for three full months, and during those three months, the two of them seemed to be in seclusion, leaving the door without leaving the room, and let the servants put food and drink at the door...”

Charlie Surprised, he blurted out, “Uncle, what is the name of the book my parents read, do you remember?”

Asher thought for a while, and said, “If I remember correctly, it should be called Nine Sutras, Four words, but I can't remember the second one.”

charlie's eyes widened, and he subconsciously asked, “Uncle, is it Jiuxuan?”

Asher suddenly realized, “Yes, yes! It's called Jiuxuan! The Preface to the Nine Mysteries, sounds weird, I thought it was a scripture at first, but your dad said it was the key to open the door to another world, I always thought he was in a daze...” charlie couldn't help muttering He muttered, “The Preface to the Nine Profound Classics... Which Preface is the Preface?” Asher said casually, “The Preface of the Preface, the Preface of the Lanting Collection.

He couldn't help thinking to himself, "The Preface to the Nine Profound Scriptures, that is to say, the book that Dad got is the preface to the Nine Profound Heavenly Classics?"

The preface is generally the content of the introduction before the main text begins. For example, Wang Bo's amazing work "Preface to the Pavilion of the King of Teng" was actually when the governor of Hongzhou invited many scholars to participate in the banquet when the Pavilion of the King of Teng was completed. Everyone wrote articles and poems to participate in the grand event. Then organize the works of these literati into a collection of poems, and Wang Bo's "Preface to the Pavilion of the King of Teng" is tantamount to writing a preface for a future collection of poems.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 5990

Therefore, Charlie felt that if the book his father got back then was really called "Preface to the Nine Profound Scriptures", then it might really be the preface to the Nine Profound Scriptures!

Thinking of this, he quickly asked, "Uncle, after getting this book, what words or actions did my father have that you couldn't understand, or that left a deep impression on you?" Asher thought for a while, and said, "Your father There are too many behaviors that I can't understand. He looked up ancient books and materials, and even went out with your mother many times for inspections. He went there for dozens of days or even months. But at that time, I think your father's mind was a little bewildered, so I didn't pay much attention to what he did."

Speaking of this, Asher suddenly thought of something, and blurted out, "By the way, I remember that your father talked to your mother more than once, and said who What is the fate of the dragon and the phoenix, and how to say that ascending the dragon is the respect, and only the ascending dragon is the real dragon ascending to heaven." Charlie said solemnly, "My father said, it should be People's fate, Longge and Fengge."

"Maybe." Asher frowned and said, "He didn't mention these two much, but Shenglongge often mentioned them, as if they were research topics for doctoral supervisors., muttering there all day, the key point is that your mother is also very involved, the two of them seem to have been brainwashed.

charlie quickly asked, "Uncle, do you remember any other details?" "

Asher shook his head and sighed, "It's been too long, and I can't remember the details clearly. What impressed me the most is that your father always told your mother about riding a dragon to ascend to heaven. No matter what, no matter what in the end, to be honest, I thought they had joined some cult organization, and they wanted to ascend to heaven all day long..." charlie was even more shocked at this time. He really did n't It occurred to me that my father was also related to the "Nine Profound Heavenly Scriptures".

Long Ge and Feng Ge were talking about him and his mother?

Or, Long Ge was talking about himself?

Then what is Sheng Long Ge?

charlie I feel that I have suddenly fallen into a blind spot of knowledge. There is no description about Shenglongge in "Nine Xuantian Jing".

It was Sara's Willie, who mentioned the secret of longevity to himself before he died.

Reminiscent of his parents being killed by Willie, charlie guessed in his heart that his parents should have gotten some amazing treasure or something by accident. Practiced martial arts, that's why she was targeted by Sara, and finally angered Sara, that's why she died in Aurous Hill. At this point, charlie suddenly thought of Lin Waner.

Lin Waner doesn't know the secret of longevity, but Lin Waner must understand such things as fate!

After all, she has lived for more than three hundred years, and her attainments in the Book of Changes and gossip are unmatched, even Orion Exeor can't hold a candle to her. Perhaps, she will know what kind of fate Shenglongge is!
