

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6001 -

charlie didn't move, and said seriously, "Grandpa and grandma will take the rejuvenation pill first, and we can go to dinner before it's too late."

An Qishan nodded, and said to his wife, "Since it is a filial piety from my grandson, we will accept it no matter how serious it is! I owe so much to charlie, and I have a chance to repay it only if I live longer!" charlie heard Hearing this, he smiled and did not speak.

He knew that the old man needed a reason to convince himself, and as for the reward, he didn't need it at all.

Seeing this, the old lady no longer refused, nodded and sighed, "It's my grandson's filial piety, so naturally I can't let it down..."

charlie struck while the iron was hot, and handed the pill to the two of them.

At the same time, he couldn't help feeling in his heart that delivering medicine to the old man was really troublesome and laborious, and it was always not so straightforward.

Unlike a rough man like Don Albert, who gave him the medicine himself, he just knelt down on the ground, put his hands on top of his head, took the medicine, knocked his head on the ground, and said Master Wade for giving the medicine. It's over.

After sighing, charlie said to the two of them, "Grandpa and grandma, quickly take the pill, and then we'll go eat. After talking for so long, I'm already hungry!"

two peopleAfter a glance, he took the pill just now, then looked at each other, at the pill, and at charlie and the four children, and then the two picked up the pill at the same time and slowly put it into their mouths.

Except for charlie, the rest of the An family, as well as Li Yalin, all looked at the elder with wide eyes and unblinking, wanting to see for themselves the efficacy of the Rejuvenation Pill.

Even Charlie's uncle, Asher, at the auction, only saw the effect of taking a quarter of a Rejuvenation Pill, but never saw the whole Rejuvenation Pill taken.

The two old men kept looking at each other, and they wanted to see the effect of going back in time in the legend of Huichun Pill from each other's faces.

But Rejuvenation Pill never disappoints anyone.

Once the effect of the medicine took effect, it immediately seemed like a slide show that was speeding up and down.

The snow-white hair of the two old men quickly turned a little mottled black, and the deep wrinkles on their faces seemed to be filled in a lot in an instant. The slack faces also obviously had the ability to resist gravity.

The two looked at their partner who spent most of their lives together and witnessed each other getting older, and suddenly began to grow younger at a rapid rate. They were both surprised and happy in their hearts. This wonderful experience sublimated their feelings for each other again.

And the bigger changes were in the bodies of the two of them.

The old man's brain, which was devastated by Alzheimer's disease, began to become clearer.

He was originally an extremely smart and quick-thinking person, but suffering from Alzheimer's disease is like the engine of a legendary sports car has an irreparable problem, the speed is getting slower and slower, and the power is getting weaker and weaker.

However, the current him can clearly feel that the high-speed operation of the brain has returned, and the memories that he could not capture before flooded back in an instant, but he did not feel overwhelmed, but felt that everything that had collapsed before was being quickly rebuilt in his brain.

As for the old lady, she felt that her physical condition had greatly improved, allowing her to regain the feeling she had twenty years ago.

This feeling of going back in time made her excited and ecstatic, but in the next second, she suddenly covered her face and cried bitterly.

Because, twenty years ago, it was the year when her beloved eldest daughter and son-in-law were killed.

Like her, the old man also thought of the death of his daughter and son-in-law after personally experiencing the feeling of being twenty years younger. He also broke down emotionally for a while and began to cry silently.

Others didn't experience it personally, so they didn't know why they were crying. They thought they were just happy, so they wept with joy.

So, they all stepped forward to comfort them.

Asher said, "Dad, Mom! Why are you two still crying? Seeing that you are so much younger all of a sudden, we are too happy!" "Yes!" Tablita also said repeatedly, "Dad, Mom, your facial features are really more than ten years younger all of a sudden! It's amazing!" The old couple looked at each other and could see why the other was

The old man was the first to wipe away his tears, and gently hugged the old lady into his arms, and comforted her like coaxing a child, "It's okay, don't cry, don't cry, today is a day of great joy, in front of Charlie, we both don't cry anymore!" The old lady wiped away her tears, nodded her head heavily, and said with a forced smile, "Don't cry, don't cry, Charlie is hungry, let's eat quickly! I have been waiting for this meal for twenty years, and I can't wait for a minute!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6002 -

The assortment of delicious meals are almost all made by the chefs of Tianxiang Mansion. Charlie has already eaten too much of the taste of Tianxiang Mansion, so he is not surprised at all, but the eggplant box made by his grandmother still brought him back the feeling of childhood.

The An family was even more happy, everyone poured wine for themselves, and the family toasted to find Charlie, the excitement was beyond words.

After a few glasses of wine, each of the An's family started chatting. While asking about the details of Charlie's life over the years, they also introduced to Charlie in detail what the An family had done over the years.

Afterwards, everyone talked about how many times Charlie saved An's family from fire and water.

This also just gave Charlie a chance to talk about the current hidden dangers of the An family.

As he said that, Charlie said again, "Besides, there is a very special point about Po Qing, that is, they only use their own people when choosing to perform tasks. Is it a dead soldier, or a knight guard, or those members who were placed by them in various countries and walks of life in the world, so I speculate that the informants they settled in should be their own people, not from the people who settled down Buying."

"Based on this, I think that all those who came to settle down before my parents left the United States can be ruled out as suspects, and all those who came to settle after my parents left the United States need to be thoroughly investigated." The old man He frowned and said, "There are only two people who came to settle down after your parents left the United States. One is your so-called third aunt, and the other is your little uncle..." At this point, he subconsciously looked up at An Tablita .

Tablita was also a little nervous all of a sudden, and blurted out, "Dad, Zhimin shouldn't have any suspicions, right? Isn't his family also a Chinese family with a long history in the United States? Besides, we met in the business field. We got to know each other gradually because of their cooperation..."

An Qishan said seriously, "Hey, the enemy's cunning will only continue to exceed our imagination, so you must not act too much in this matter Confidential."

Tablita's expression suddenly became a little apprehensive, she had known her husband for more than ten years, and her daughter was twelve years old this year, she couldn't believe that her husband would have any suspicions.

But having said that, she is also very clear that before the accident with the third sister-in-law, she and the third brother were extremely affectionate. Everyone thought that the third brother married a beautiful, generous and gentle wife, but who would have known that the other party would actually want to marry her? The entire An family was killed, leaving no one behind.

At this time, An Qishan said again, "After the accident in New York last time, both Homula and I felt that Zhimin was very suspicious, but not long after, Liqin committed suicide by taking poison, so our focus is all on Liqin. Qin's body, now that I think about it, it will be very difficult for Zhimin to get rid of the suspicion."

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6003 -

charlie said at this time, "I think what grandpa said is very reasonable. If calculated according to this time point, my uncle is indeed the most suspected." After speaking, charlie said again, "But there is no way to deal with this matter for the time being. Conclusion, so my current thinking is, don't contact anyone for the time being, and I'll talk about the rest after I sort it out a little bit." Everyone agreed, and everyone knew very well that if the enemies hiding in the dark were not dug out, they would not be able to settle down. There will never be peace.

And Tablita is also very clear in her heart that this matter must not be judged by intuition alone. Right now, except for charlie, no one can guarantee 100% trustworthiness. Whether there is any problem with her husband will have to wait for the investigation. to know.

At this time, charlie's grandmother asked, "charlie, in your opinion, after today, the An family will not have any contact with the outside world for the time being?"

charlie shook his head and said, "Grandma, the An family has such a large family business to manage. It's not realistic to suddenly cut off all contact with the outside world. Before I came, the reason why Anjia was not allowed to contact the outside world was mainly because I didn't want you to leak the details of what happened last night, so as long as you set a unified rhetoric, after tomorrow, An's family can still return to normal life and work, and normal communication with An's relatives, employees, and servants can also resume."

Uncle Asher asked, "charlie, how do you think we should tell these people what happened last night? Just take your little uncle as an example. If he really has a problem, he must be very eager to know what happened last night." The details of your aunt's answer, the skill of your aunt's answer, can't make him aware that we have already doubted him."

charlie nodded, and asked Tablita, "Auntie, after what happened in New York last time, did you talk to my aunt? Uncle mentioned what happened that day?"

Tablita said, "I told him what happened that day, including your third aunt who committed suicide by taking poison, and you suddenly appeared to save us, but we didn't know your identity at the time, so I just said that there was a mysterious benefactor who rescued us at a critical moment."

charlie nodded slightly, and said, "Since you have already told my little uncle what happened last time, what happened yesterday, if you Concealment will only make him vigilant; "

"So, if little uncle and others ask, why not tell them openly that An's family was attacked yesterday, and tell them by name that the attacker claimed to be It was Willie from the Qing Dynasty. He wanted to ask the An family about the so-called secret of longevity, and then tell them that it was the last time that benefactor appeared at a critical moment and beat Willie out of the house. , the rest of you don't know anything except hearing a loud bang."

Tablita hurriedly asked, "Then what if he asks about you?"

" It's the same, you didn't show your true face, but judged by his voice that he was the one who saved you in New York last time, then you pretend to suddenly remember some details, and tell him casually, just say that I was in front of you last night, I I told that Uncle Willie that sooner or later, I will cut off Sara's head with my own hands!"
