

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6016 -

After bidding farewell to Lin Wan'er (Alani), Charlie returned home, only thinking about two things.

The first thing to do is to seize the time and refine the Thunderbolt that Lin Wan'er (Alani) gave her, the mother of Pucha, the Lightning Strike Wood.

Another thing is to wait for eight hours to see where the Boeing 777 will go at the next stop. If it is Aurous Hill, then we must deal with it as soon as possible.

Since there were still eight hours left, Charlie immediately started refining the Thunderbolt when he got home.

Charlie is already familiar with the matter of refining the Thunderbolt.

When he returned to the room and entered the lightning strike wood of the mother of Pucha, he had thought that everything would be as easy as refining the thunderbolt before, but he did not expect that the spirit energy entered the lightning strike wood and began to appear in the lightning strike wood. It was only when Mu internally perfected the formation that the aura, which was originally invincible, was actually somewhat difficult to move an inch in the lightning strike wood.

If it is said that when refining the lightning strike wood in the past, the aura was a carving knife, then the lightning strike wood itself is like an ordinary piece of wood, and the carving knife can easily carve the pattern you want on the wood.

However, compared with the previous lightning strike wood, the current lightning strike wood is like a piece of extremely hard high-strength steel. It is difficult to leave marks on it with a carving knife transformed from aura.

Charlie didn't expect that this lightning strike wood looks ordinary, but its internal characteristics are so difficult to refine. However, until now, he has nothing to use. A magic weapon close to him, so he has no choice.

In desperation, he could only multiply the infusion of spiritual energy, and the consumption rate of spiritual energy increased sharply in an instant, just like being madly absorbed by Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s ring back then.

charlie knows that there is no turning back when opening the bow, and the mother of Pucha, as a tea tree, can live until the thunderstorm falls from the sky, which is almost the pinnacle of trees. He wants to refine such lightning strike wood into a method. device, it must take more effort.

So, charlie took out a Peiyuan Pill, and put his heart and soul into refining the Shocking Thunder Token.

Although the spiritual energy is consumed quickly, but with a Peiyuan Pill as a supplement, the spiritual energy can be regarded as enough.

After several hours, charlie, who was drenched in sweat, finally opened his eyes.

The lightning strike wood that was as thick as an adult's forearm in his hand had already been refined into a palm-sized lightning strike by him.

The entire body of this Thunderbolt is jet black, exuding a faint metallic luster, and its texture is extremely fine, it is completely impossible to tell that it is made of wood.

Holding the Thunderbolt in his hand, charlie could even feel the faint feeling of thunder and lightning rushing in it.

That feeling is like standing on the beach in the evening, looking at the dark clouds in the depths of the ocean, and the thunder and lightning flashing and roaring on the entire sea.

Not only does it have an extremely wide field of view of the world, but it also has the surging feeling that the sky and the earth are connected as a whole by lightning, which is fierce and profound.

But if the Thunderbolt is put aside, this feeling will disappear immediately.

And when charlie's fingertips slid across the surface of the Thunderbolt, he seemed to be able to feel the surging feeling that the entire sea level was covered by thunder and lightning in his mind.

charlie couldn't help but sigh in his heart, the power of this thunder strike is probably much stronger than the previous one.

Just as he was excited about the newly refined Thunderbolt, Isaac Cameron called him again and reported, "Master, that Boeing 777 has applied for a route from Melbourne, Australia to Mandalay, Myanmar;" "Mandalay

? "charlie frowned and asked, "Is the news accurate?"

"Accurate." Isaac Cameron said firmly, "At present, the flight route of this plane reported to the Australian air traffic control department is to go to Mandalay, and they will arrive in about four hours. Landing at Melbourne Airport, it is expected to rest for about an hour after landing, and then continue to fly to Mandalay. From Melbourne to Mandalay, it will take about eight hours to fly, so it will take at least a dozen to arrive in Mandalay hours."

Knowing that the other party is not coming to Aurous Hill, charlie's first thought was to finally breathe a sigh of relief.

Come to think of it, his empty city plan was not seen through by the other party.

However, he was also very puzzled, not understanding why the Po Qing Council suddenly sent a plane to Burma.

So, charlie called Lin Wan'er (Alani) and passed on the situation reported by Isaac Cameron to Lin Wan'er (Alani).

When Lin Wan'er (Alani) heard that the plane from the Qing Dynasty had gone to Burma, she was a little surprised and said, "Why would Sara suddenly send someone to Burma at this time..."

charlie said, "Perhaps Burma has their dead soldiers stationed there? Or maybe the Chinese Army Commander's Mansion Just in Myanmar?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said doubtfully, "According to Sara's character, she must be very cautious and anxious at this time, and will definitely make the whole Po Qing enter a state of loneliness, and once Po Qing will enter a state of silence, the five armies Operating independently and keeping absolute silence, it is even more impossible for Sara to send someone from the headquarters of the Poqinghui..."

charlie couldn't help but feel a little puzzled when he heard Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s analysis, so he said, "If this is the case, the Chinese Army Governor's Mansion must not be there Myanmar, what is Sara's intention in sending people to Myanmar at this time?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) was silent for a moment, then suddenly said, "If it is Sara himself who is going to Myanmar?" "Sara himself

?" charlie asked in surprise, "Why would Miss Lin Make this judgment?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "It's mainly intuition, I always feel that the young master's empty city plan will definitely scare Sara, under such circumstances, Sara should not send troops and generals, and the plane departs so soon The most likely thing is that Sara is going to Myanmar by herself."

charlie asked indifferently, "What does Miss Lin think she is going to Myanmar at this time?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) thought for a while and said, "If I guess correctly, she It is very likely to enter China from the Yunnan-Myanmar border through Myanmar!"

charlie exclaimed, "Sara is coming to China?! Does she want to come to Aurous Hill in person?!" "

No." Lin Waner said, "Sara will definitely not come in person Aurous Hill is here, I suspect that her purpose in coming to Huaxia is to go to southern Yunnan first, and then go to Shiwan Dashan."

After finishing speaking, Lin Wan'er (Alani) continued, "Sara has been trying to find the treasures of heaven and earth and magic tools and medicines left behind by Master for so many years, and now that Master's portrait suddenly appeared in Aurous Hill, she should want to quietly go to Shiwan Dashan to try her luck.

charlie said in surprise, "If you want to go to Shiwan Dashan, wouldn't it be more convenient to fly directly to Vietnam than to Myanmar? After all, Shiwan Dashan is not far from the border of Vietnam, and there is a south of Yunnan between it and Myanmar. "

Lin Wan'er (Alani) pondered for a moment, and said, "Maybe, she just wants to go to the south of Yunnan first, and then go to the Shiwan Dashan. After all, she and her father fought against the Qing Dynasty together in the south of Yunnan, and after my father was seriously injured and killed by her, the slave family So she buried her father in southern Yunnan, and she has always had a deep resentment towards her father, she once dug up the empty grave that the slave family built for her father, maybe this time her heart was stimulated, and she wanted to revisit the old place.”

Said At this point, Lin Wan'er (Alani) said again, “Sara still has more than ten hours to arrive in Myanmar. It is estimated that she will not enter Huaxia through conventional channels. There is a high probability that she will enter China secretly through the border. In this case, she will definitely cross the border on foot.” , and Mandalay is still more than 300 kilometers away from the border. Even if she arrives nearby by car and then walks, it will take at least several hours to enter southern Yunnan. Window period!”

charlie subconsciously asked, “Window period? Ms. Alani wants to take advantage of this time to go to southern Yunnan, right?”
