

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6047 -

Soon, a group of people lit a bonfire and an oven at the moment when the sun had completely set.

Since everyone had prepared the ingredients, charlie Wade specially bought some more, so this dinner was extraordinarily rich.

In addition, charlie Wade also bought a lot of good wine, the atmosphere was enhanced, and basically everyone decided to drink to their heart's content this evening.

Therefore, charlie Wade specially mixed a little spiritual energy into the wine.

These auras cannot make them strengthen their bodies or cure diseases, but they can guarantee that no matter how much they drink this night, they will not yawn.

Moreover, once this meager spiritual energy is absorbed by their bodies, it will never leave any traces, even if Sara came, it is impossible to notice it.

Southern Yunnan is located on a plateau, so the temperature difference between day and night is relatively large. In addition, Guibei Mountain itself has increased its altitude by several hundred meters, so after nightfall, the temperature suddenly drops a bit chilly.

So everyone sat around the bonfire, warmed by the temperature of the fire and spirits. Arlo Hu held the guitar, and some young people who liked to sing sang a few popular songs with him. Quite warm.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) also liked this feeling very much, she blended in very easily, her whole person was very relaxed.

While toasting with everyone, a young man said: "Oh, tonight's wine is really amazing. It's not too good to drink. I usually drink so much that it's too early to break up. Today, the more I drink, the more energetic I am!"

"Me too!" The other person said with a smile, "Although I'm a little dizzy, I don't feel like I'm going to be drunk at all. It's so comfortable!" The person said, looking at charlie Wade and asking: "Kaiden (Charlie), you bought this Wine, although it tastes the same as the wine I usually drink, but it feels different, is this vintage wine?"

charlie Wade said with a smile: "It feels different, it's because the atmosphere is here. That is, the hotter the atmosphere, the higher the drinking capacity."

Arlo Hu agreed: "Kaiden (Charlie) is right. Whether you get drunk after drinking depends on three indicators. One is a person's alcohol tolerance, the other is his alcohol intake, and alcohol consumption."

Said Then, Arlo Hu said again: "If your maximum drinking capacity at the dinner table is a catty of white wine, then when you drink alone, you will definitely not be able to reach this drinking capacity. This is because drinking at the dinner table is chatting while drinking. The consumption of physical strength and body fluids is high, the consumption of alcohol is also greater, and the spirit is highly aroused, all of which are conducive to the volatilization of alcohol."

The man thought for a moment, then smiled and said: "It makes sense! I am really happy today. When I am happy, I think about it more. Have a drink!"

charlie Wade said at this time: "Everyone, it's rare that everyone is very happy, let's just be high until dawn tonight, and after watching the sunrise, let's have a good sleep." Everyone agreed almost immediately agree to come down.

Staying up late, for young people, is simply a piece of cake.

Holding the mobile phone on the bed, or facing the screen in front of the computer, it will be the whole night without knowing it, not to mention that everyone is very excited and in good condition tonight, staying up until dawn, watching the sunrise, not at all Next.

So, a group of people really stayed on the Turtle Back Mountain, eating skewers and singing songs, until the next morning.

Before sunset yesterday, I could occasionally see other donkey friends going down the mountain. After sunset until the sky began to turn white, charlie Wade didn't see anyone else appearing again.

At this time, there were less than 20 minutes before sunrise, and everyone finally added some branches and firewood to the campfire, and began to wait for the moment when the sun rose from the other side of the mountain.

About ten minutes later, the originally white skyline began to have a golden glow.

This is an omen that the sun is about to rise over the horizon.

Just when everyone was looking forward to it, Charlie Wade's senses suddenly sensed that there was a person in the distance, walking quickly towards where they were.

Worried about being discovered by Sara, Charlie Wade has been running the mental formula Yun Ruge taught him since drinking last night, locking his aura tightly in his body.

For monks, everyone is like a submarine sailing in the deep sea. Everyone finds each other by sonar detection.

To borrow this metaphor, a person with a high level of cultivation is equal to a more advanced submarine. The submarine is more comprehensive, not only has fierce firepower and strong power, but also has more advanced means of detecting other submarines and a longer detection distance

; People are like old and backward submarines, with poor firepower, weak power, and poor detection capabilities. It is very likely that you will be killed by the opponent's torpedo before you know where your opponent is.

The monks perceive each other, just like the passive sonar of a submarine monitors each other. Once they hear the movement of the same kind, they will immediately be alert and enter a state of readiness.

However, this does not mean that all people with low cultivation bases cannot escape death in front of those with high cultivation bases.

Old submarines, if they are cautious enough, can also avoid advanced submarines. One of the most commonly used means is to sit on the bottom and keep absolutely silent.

Once the submarine enters a state of absolute silence, the engine stops, all electronic equipment and detection equipment stop working, and all people on board remain motionless and do not make any sound. In this case, it is difficult to detect advanced submarines if they only rely on passive sonar Goal.

charlie Wade is now in this silent state.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6048 -

Generally speaking, even if a very powerful cultivator appears here, as long as you don't deliberately investigate everyone to the end, it is impossible to find that charlie Wade is also a cultivator.

But this is not absolute. It is like an extremely silent submarine. Although the opponent's passive sonar cannot detect it, if the opponent turns on the active sonar to search, it is still possible to find it.

However, there is still a very critical problem here, that is, although the active sonar is easy to use, it is a double-edged sword, just like a flashlight in the dark, it is really much easier to find people with it, but once you use it If you get rid of it, whether you can find your opponent or not, you will be the first to be exposed.

Therefore, neither the military nor the ascetics themselves will blatantly search for their own kind.

They are afraid of being targeted by secret masters, so they will not risk their own safety casually, let alone release their spiritual energy to investigate everyone around them wherever they go.

What's more, the current Sara must be very cautious, let alone let her use active sonar, she may even choose absolute silence like charlie Wade to ensure absolute safety.

At this moment, charlie Wade sensed that someone was approaching quickly, not relying on aura, but relying on his own keen senses.

At the same time, Sara, who was going up the mountain quickly, also noticed that there were already more than a dozen people here early in the morning on Turtle Back Mountain.

However, she was not surprised. After all, she met many camping enthusiasts along the way. She knew that this kind of outdoor sports was very common among young people, so she didn't take it seriously.

When she stepped up Turtle Back Mountain and saw several tents and a dozen young people not far away, her brows subconsciously twitched.

These people are all looking at the direction of the sunrise at this time, and they are waiting to appreciate the sunrise.

Sara didn't suspect them, she was just upset and disappointed, because these people were too close to senior brother Aasif's tomb.

I revisited the old place this time, just to go to Aasif's grave to reminisce about the past, and to say a few words of my heart to my senior brother by the way.

But the location of these people is only two or three hundred meters away from Aasif's Clothes Tomb. If I go in directly, I'm afraid I won't be able to avoid the sight of these people. In this way, I want to say something to my senior brother. What, it is not so convenient.

At this time, Charlie Wade had caught a glimpse of the young and mature woman who had just appeared in the distance from the corner of his eye.

With superhuman eyesight, Charlie Wade could see the woman's appearance.

It has to be said that although Sara has lived to be four hundred years old, she is still beautiful and charming. Compared with Lin Wan'er (Alani), she seems to be no different.

Moreover, Sara's expression is cold, her eyes are like torches, and her aura is extremely strong, she doesn't seem like a good stubble at first glance.

As if feeling that someone was watching her, Sara subconsciously wanted to look at him too.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) saw Sara's figure, but before she could see her face clearly, her heart skipped a beat. She knew that the woman in the distance was Sara who she had been hiding for more than three hundred years.

At this moment, Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s heartbeat stalled a little, and her palms were also covered with sweat due to mixed emotions of anger and nervousness.

Seeing that her face was pale and she was a little nervous, Charlie Wade quickly took her into his arms and said in a distressed voice: "I told you not to stay up late, you must not listen, the key point is that you drank a lot of alcohol, it must be hard to stay up until now, right?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) knew that Charlie Wade had noticed her abnormality, and while she was deliberately confusing Sara, she was grateful, but also somewhat nervous and shy because of being hugged by Charlie Wade.

She forced herself to adjust her state, and said softly: "I stayed up all night just to watch the sunrise with you... After we were together, we have never watched the sunrise together." Charlie Wade saw her slow down. He felt relieved, and from the corner of his eye, he sensed that Sara might be watching them, so he purposely glanced at where she was, then deliberately lowered his voice, and said to Lin Wan'er (Alani) beside him, "Look, baby, Someone came to climb Turtle Back Mountain so early!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked at it pretending to be curious, and then said: "And she seems to be alone, could it be that she climbed two mountains so early to watch the sunrise? Isn't it time to leave before dawn?" Charlie Wade said casually: "Who knows, it might be like us, looking for a place to stay halfway up the mountain for one night." Then, Charlie Wade said: "But it's still a bit strange, the altitude of Guibei Mountain is not the tallest one nearby, why bother to climb here to watch the sunrise? What's even more strange is that she is only alone..."

Sara heard every word of the conversation between Charlie Wade and Lin Wan'er (Alani).

The conversation between the two did not arouse any doubts in her. On the contrary, after Charlie Wade took the initiative to express doubts to her, he immediately reversed the situation imperceptibly, making Sara realize in her heart that she appeared here alone so early in the morning. In the eyes of others, it is indeed a bit unreasonable.

At this time, Sara's heart had changed from trying to discover the anomaly to trying to cover up her own anomaly.

Therefore, she suddenly hesitated, and thought to herself: “If I go to worship in front of the senior brother’s tomb now, will these people notice anything unusual?”
