

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6067 -

When Jimmy's condition became more and more stable, Charlie Wade and Lin Wan'er (Alani) had already driven to Puer, Yunnan.

This city named after tea has a history of more than a thousand years. It is not only a post station on the ancient tea-horse road, but also an important producing area of Pu-erh tea.

When Lin Wan'er (Alani) left Dali, she brought the ashes of her parents out of Dali, and they were finally buried in Poole.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) hasn't come back here for more than three hundred years, and Lin Wan'er (Alani) can't remember what this city looked like before.

According to Lin Wan'er (Alani), she only brought out her parents' ashes from Dali back then. When she was buried in Poole, she also secretly chose a geomantic location to bury the two coffins. She did not buy coffins for her parents, let alone build graves and tombstones.

If you want to find two columbariums buried more than 300 years ago here, it is basically impossible.

Fortunately, Lin Wan'er (Alani) remembered that the place where her parents were quietly buried was a tea mountain called Erlang Mountain.

Moreover, Lin Wan'er (Alani) still remembered that she buried her parents' ashes under the largest and thickest Pu'er tea tree in Erlang Mountain.

However, on the current map, there is no information on Mount Erlang within the Pool area.

Charlie Wade drove the car into the city of Poole, and together with Lin Wan'er (Alani), they found several old scholars in Poole. After some investigation, they learned that there was indeed a mountain named Erlang Mountain in the suburbs of Poole, but this mountain was in the past. In the past few decades, many names have been changed.

It was revised once during the Republic of China, and once after liberation. In the 1960s, when the movement rose, it was changed once in order to erect a slogan on the mountain. At the end of the 1970s, when the movement ended, it was changed again.

The last name change was more than 20 years ago, when it was renamed Zhicheng Mountain.

It is said that this mountain, and its surrounding area of more than 20 miles, is a very famous tea producing area in Poole. Since the Qing Dynasty, the tea industry here has gradually formed a scale, and it has become the best tea producing area in Poole. one of the districts.

The reason why this mountain was renamed Zhicheng Mountain is also because more than 20 years ago, the entire tea production area was bought by a company in southern Yunnan at a high price. It changed its name to Zhicheng Mountain, and gradually built it into its largest and top tea garden base.

Now the tea of Zhicheng Group has gained a relatively large reputation at home and abroad, and its product line is mainly medium and high-end Pu'er tea cakes. Among them, the Zhizhen series produced by Zhicheng Mountain is the flagship product of Zhicheng Group. , The normal price of a piece of tea cake starts at least 10,000 yuan.

Knowing the current situation of Erlang Mountain, charlie Wade found the location of Zhicheng Mountain on the navigation.

Because it has been developed by Zhicheng Group for more than 20 years, the traffic conditions are also very good. It takes 40 minutes to drive from the city to reach the foot of Zhicheng Mountain.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) hasn't been back to Huaxia in recent years. She has always been worried that Erlang Mountain will be destructively developed and mined. She was worried all the way. When Zhicheng Mountain really appeared in front of her eyes, her hanging heart was instantly relieved. because of the mountains, and the mountain three hundred years ago, there is no change.

Although Erlang Mountain has changed its name, because it has always been used as a tea producing area, it has not undergone drastic transformation and development over the years. The biggest trace of development is that Zhicheng Group built a concrete road from the national highway directly to the foot of the mountain. They also built a tea processing factory in the plain area at the foot of the mountain.

When the car was still more than ten kilometers away from Erlang Mountain, the lush green hill could already be seen in the sight of the car.

Lin Wan'er (Alani), who was at the side, couldn't hold back her excitement.

Seeing her nervously rubbing her hands, Charlie Wade couldn't help but ask, "Are you sure your parents are buried on this mountain?"

She said, "I just don't know if the Pu'er tea tree is still there, if the tree is gone, it may be difficult to find it."

Charlie Wade said, "It's okay, I will accompany you to find it until you find it. Lin Wan'er nodded gratefully, and said to Charlie Wade, "If that Pu'er tea tree is still alive, it should have a lifespan of a thousand years. It is definitely the largest and most lush tea tree here." She couldn't help but sigh with emotion, "

But, it is still far behind the mother of Pucha, which has a lifespan of ten thousand years by the edge of Tianchi Lake."

Charlie Wade said with a smile, "One thousand years and ten thousand years, I don't know how many generations there are."

With As the distance gets closer, the details of Mount Erlang can be seen more clearly.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) pointed to an exceptionally dense tea tree near the top of the mountain, and excitedly said to Charlie Wade, "If I'm not wrong, I will bury my parents' ashes under that tree!" Charlie Wade looked up, and sure enough

, I saw a huge tree standing on the peak line close to the top of the mountain. The whole mountain is basically a tea tree with a uniform size and a height of about one meter. It is very far away and can be distinguished.

Thinking of Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s story about the mother of Pucha, Charlie Wade was not surprised. Although this tea tree is definitely not as good as the mother of Pucha, it should have a long history and is quite spiritual.

When the car was approaching the foot of the mountain, Charlie Wade found himself in a difficult situation.

Relying on the tea factory at the foot of the mountain, Zhicheng Group surrounded several mountains including Erlang Mountain with iron fences.

Above the iron fence, there are even surveillance probes and circles of barbed iron nets.

Although the cement road leads to the foot of the mountain, it was blocked by the gate of the park when it was one kilometer away from the foot of the mountain. charlie Wade could only park the car at the gate.

Inside the sentry box, a security guard ran out immediately upon seeing the situation, this

Lu ran to the window of the car, and asked charlie Wade warily, "What do you do?"

charlie Wade said, "Master, I want to talk to the person in charge here about cooperation Please inform me."

Since Erlang Mountain has become the property of Zhicheng Group, it must be difficult for outsiders to get in, and charlie Wade brought Lin Wan'er (Alani) to pay respects to his parents, so it feels a bit inappropriate to go in secretly.

The security guard asked charlie Wade curiously, "What's your surname? Which unit is it? We didn't receive a visitor notice today."

charlie Wade smiled and said, "I came from East China. I heard that your Zhicheng Group has been around for a long time, and I really want to I'm in the tea business, so I came to visit."

The security guard shook his head and said, "Sorry, we can't just enter here without an appointment, even if the city leaders come Make an appointment in advance."

charlie Wade asked curiously, "Master, why do you manage so strictly? It's like a secret unit."

The security guard said seriously, "Let me tell you, the entire tea area of Zhicheng Mountain , They are all commercial secrets! Especially the tea king on the top of the mountain, there are many villains who have been thinking about it all these years!”

As he spoke, he described vividly, “Just last month, we caught two little Japanese, he The two sneaked in and wanted to steal the branches of our tea king and go back to grafting and breeding. We caught them as soon as they got close, and we beat them into pig heads. , there are 24-hour security guards, no dead-angle monitoring, and a nylon net covering it, not even a bird is allowed to fall!”

charlie Wade couldn’t help but feel a little worried.

If you look at it this way, it’s not easy to go upright, and it’s not easy to sneak around. After all, there are security guards everywhere, and there are surveillance cameras without dead ends.

The security guard saw that charlie Wade didn’t look like a bad guy with ulterior motives, so he said, “Young man, let me tell you, our place is just a tea plantation base and basic processing of tea. The real leaders don’t work here. If you really want to talk about cooperation, Just go to the city of Poole, there is a Zhicheng Building in the city, that is our headquarters, you have to make an appointment there first if you talk about cooperation, if they arrange for you to visit here, they will naturally notify us.” Lin Wan’er (Alani) looked on the side A little depressed, but he still pulled charlie Wade’s clothes lightly, and said, “Why don’t we go to Poole and talk to their group first.”

charlie Wade also knows that it may not be easy to get in this situation, so he can only think about it in the long run , so he nodded, and said to the security guard, “Then I’ll go to the city to have a look first, thank you, master.” The security guard waved his hand, “You’re welcome, you guys go slowly.

” At the same time, I couldn’t help complaining to myself, “I knew I should have found out the specific situation in the urban area of Poole first, and went to talk to the Zhicheng Group first. Now that I am rushing back to the urban area, I guess they should get off work. If it is fast, it will have to wait until tomorrow.”

Lin Wan’er (Alani) shook her head and said, “Don’t be so troublesome. I heard what the security guard said just now. The tea tree is heavily guarded. There are 24-hour surveillance and no dead-end shooting. The security guards are also on duty 24 hours a day. Even if we try to sneak in, I can't help it."

Worship;"

"Besides, it has been used as a tea producing area for so many years, and now it is suddenly said that ashes are buried under the tree, and some people go there to worship. It doesn't sound like something that would happen in modern times, but it will arouse suspicion. , I don't think we need to go back to Poole, it's more than a hundred kilometers away from Banna, let's go directly to Banna."

charlie Wade thought for a while and said, "Why don't we just buy Zhicheng Group."

"Ah " Lin Wan'er (Alani) was stunned, and blurted out, "This is too exciting..."

charlie Wade said indifferently, "It's okay, a group that sells tea, and it's not the largest in southern Yunnan. Its market value is estimated to be several billion yuan. I'll take care of this matter."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) hurriedly said, "I'm worried that Sara's Chinese military governor's office is deeply rooted in southern Yunnan. Although they have entered a period of silence now, if there is a big move in southern Yunnan, they will definitely not be able to escape. eyes and ears..."

charlie Wade waved his hand, and said very calmly, "It's okay, it's just a normal business acquisition, what's in the way of them? What's more, who would have thought that you would have anything to do with the tea company? After all, after you left Dali, Sara She didn't find your whereabouts. She didn't know where you left Dali, and she didn't know that you buried your parents in Poole, and she didn't know that you lived in Banna guarding the mother of Pucha for many years. The reason why you are worried is because You know these clues yourself, so you are afraid that others will be able to figure out the relationship, but for people other than you, as long as one of the links is missed, it is impossible to reproduce the complete chain of evidence." As he said, he looked Looking at Lin Wan'er (Alani), she said in a firm tone, "Leave this matter to me, and you don't mind, I will arrange everything, just wait for me to make a call." Lin Wan'er (Alani) bit her lip at this moment, feeling that charlie Wade said It made sense, and charlie Wade suddenly took this matter over, which made her feel that she could rely on others for the first time.

After thinking about it for a moment, she nodded slightly, and said in a grateful voice, “Then... Then there will be Mr. Lao...”

charlie Wade smiled slightly, immediately took out his mobile phone, and called Zara banks.

In the eyes of the outside world, the Banks family is the Wade family’s deadly enemy. If the Zhicheng Group allows the Banks family to come forward to buy it, it will naturally be safer.

When the phone was connected, Zara banks asked happily and respectfully on the other end of the phone, “Mr. Wade, what do you want to call Zara?”

charlie Wade said, “Miss banks, I need your help. “

Zara banks hurriedly said, “Mr. Wade, you and Zara don’t have to be so polite. If you have anything, just ask Zara, and Zara will do it with all your strength!

” Come down, the sooner the better!”
