

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6087 -

Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s words inspired Charlie Wade too!

He also felt that there were many coincidences in this.

Why is there such a strange dark cloud suddenly overwhelming?

Why does the dark cloud still show the image of shaking hexagrams?

Why did the dark clouds lack thunder and lightning?

Why did it appear in the place where the mother of Pucha failed to cross the catastrophe?

In addition, I just used the lightning strike wood formed by the failure of the mother of Pucha to cross the tribulation, and created a brand new thunder order.

Many puzzling elements are gathered together, only Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s conjecture is the only answer that can answer all doubts!

Thinking of this, Charlie Wade blurted out without hesitation, "In that case, then I will lead to a thunderstorm for the dark clouds in the sky!"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded heavily, and said with anticipation in her eyes, "The mother of Pucha and the slave family are quite similar." Opportunity, Mr. Lao will help you!"

Charlie took out the Thunderbolt, held it in his palm, and fixed his eyes on the black cloud that was getting lower and thicker above his head, instantly stopped the mental formula to cover up the aura.

Immediately afterwards, Charlie Wade shouted "Thunder is coming!!"

In an instant, the spiritual energy in his body gushed out from the eight extraordinary meridians, and frantically poured into the thunderbolt in his hand.

In just the blink of an eye, the dark thunder order even began to overflow with white light from the inside out, and most of the aura in Charlie Wade's body was absorbed by the thunder order.

charlie Wade felt that the thunderbolt in his hand became more and more trembling, and the light became stronger and stronger, and there was even the sound of electric current inside.

At this moment, charlie Wade felt that what he held in his hand was no longer a thunderbolt, but the spherical lightning mentioned in science fiction for a long time!

Lin Wan'er (Alani) had never seen such a scene before, and her intuition told her that the light in charlie Wade's hands was getting stronger and stronger, and if she didn't make a move in time, she might be in danger of hurting charlie Wade herself, so she subconsciously shouted, "My lord, hurry up!" "Cast the spell quickly, don't wait any longer!"

charlie Wade shook his head, and said, "When to cast the spell, it's not up to me anymore!"

If it is normal, charlie Wade thunders, the sky is dark clouds, the thunder roars, and the thunder is very loud. quickwill come down from the clouds.

But this time, charlie Wade shouted with a thunder, but the Thunderbolt in his hand didn't immediately generate lightning, but kept accumulating energy, as if it was controlling the strength of the spell itself.

In other words, Jinglei made him feel that the aura he had accumulated was not enough!

At this time, the dark clouds in the sky had become unbelievably thick, and it was a bottomless darkness!

Lin Wan'er (Alani) was horrified, and asked him blurted out, "Isn't the Master controlling this Thunderbolt?"

charlie Wade raised his right hand with some difficulty, and seeing the light getting stronger, he said with difficulty, "You guessed right! This must be pucha. The mother is calling, and the Thunderbolt in my hand was originally a part of her, and now I think it has been controlled by her, and it is no longer up to me!" Just as he was speaking, the Thunderbolt in charlie Wade's hand suddenly lost its light, and went down For a moment, an invisible and powerful energy shot out from the Thunderbolt and rushed straight towards the black cloud!

charlie Wade felt as if his body was emptied in an instant, and most of his aura was exhausted by this blow.

And the next moment, the inside of the dense black cloud in the sky suddenly tumbling at an extremely high speed, followed by the sound of rumbling thunder coming from inside, and the internal lightning strikes frequently, complex lightning like plant roots, splitting the black cloud into countless small pieces of different sizes and rules.

What's even more strange is that these roaring sounds seem to be intensifying, and the lightning that keeps shining in the cloud seems to be getting thicker and brighter.

It's as if charlie Wade's lightning strike just kicked off a performance. Right now, the thunder and lightning in the clouds are constantly pushing the performance to a climax.

Then, the black cloud began to slowly move from above Tianchi to where charlie Wade and Lin Wan'er (Alani) were.

Seeing that the lightning and thunder were getting closer, charlie Wade quickly took Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s hand and led her to run backwards several hundred meters.

Waiting for the two to stand regularly, Thunder and Black

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6088 -

The center of the cloud is already hanging above the bare yellow land.

At this moment, a thunderbolt with the thickness of a bowl descended from the black cloud and struck the yellow ground directly.

In an instant, the sky suddenly brightened like daylight, and the thunderclap sounded as loud as tons of explosives detonated in the ears, deafening.

And as this bolt of lightning fell, the black clouds that had accumulated for a long time suddenly poured down rain, and the rainwater formed a line from the sky to the ground.

charlie Wade and Lin Wan'er had nowhere to hide, and were completely drenched by the rain from top to bottom in an instant.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't care about the fact that she was already drenched, and ran towards the piece of yellow land where Pucha's mother failed to cross the tribulation.

charlie Wade was caught off guard by her move, and shouted "Dangerous, don't go there!"

After saying that, he wanted to chase Lin Wan'er (Alani) back.

But Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't flinch at all, and while running recklessly, she said to charlie Wade, "Master, I feel her!"

charlie Wade subconsciously asked, "Who did you feel? The mother of Pucha?"

"Yes!" Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s voice was trembling, and she repeatedly said, "It's her! It must be her! She's alive!"

charlie Wade was puzzled. How can the tea tree that failed the robbery come back to life?

However, right now, the black cloud has stopped lightning and thunder, and what is left is only torrential rain, and there is no breath of thunder and lightning in the black cloud, presumably they have already withdrawn.

Seeing that there was no risk of lightning strikes, charlie Wade did not pull Lin Wan'er (Alani) back, but followed her to the yellow land.

At this time, the yellow earth was already muddy from the impact of the rain. Lin Wan'er (Alani) kept wiping the rainwater from her eyes and face with both hands, and at the same time looked around carefully, as if she was looking for something.

charlie Wade also looked around, but the yellow land was muddy except for the rain, and there was no sign of anything else at all.

So he asked Lin Wan'er (Alani), "Miss Alani, where did you get the feeling that the mother of pucha is the mother of pucha?of?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) stared at the ground, and said loudly, "This is it! "

After finishing speaking, Lin Wan'er (Alani) pointed to the center of the yellow land, and shouted excitedly, "Look, my lord! "

Charlie looked in the direction of her finger, and suddenly saw a scene that he had never seen in his life.

In the loess soil washed by the heavy rain, a piece of tender green buds stubbornly burrowed through the muddy soil against the heavy rain. Come out.

Moreover, the speed at which this sprout grows is like watching a time-lapse photography that condenses a video of more than ten days. After this sprout emerges from the soil, it grows rapidly at a speed visible to the naked eye. After a while, the height grew from one or two centimeters to seven or eight centimeters, and the originally curled shoot, which was not the size of a fingernail, quickly grew to the size of a thumb. Immediately afterwards, the tender sprout A new sprout the size of a needle tip came out from the tail, and that sprout also grew and grew at an extremely fast speed.

charlie Wade was stunned, while Lin Wan'er (Alani) who was at the side was ecstatic, and even knelt on the ground subconsciously, Use your body to protect the bud from the rain.

And the bud quickly grew into a seedling. In just a few minutes, it grew from a height of a few centimeters to a height of about 20 centimeters. The previous two leaves also gradually increased After reaching more than ten pieces, three new branches were even pulled out.

At this moment, the rainstorm stopped abruptly, and the black clouds in the sky continued to collapse rapidly towards the center, and disappeared in less than half a minute. The bright moon and the sky full of stars once again Appearing above the Tianchi Lake, what's even more strange is that the Yellow Land had already turned into a piece of mud during the torrential rain just now, but at this moment, all the rainwater seemed to disappear out of thin air. And the water on charlie Wade and Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s bodies also turned into mud

. The hour disappeared without a trace, the clothes on the two of them were extremely dry, and there was no trace of being wet by the rain.

Everything returned to the way charlie Wade and Lin Wan'er (Alani) had just arrived here.

The only difference is that in the center of the bare yellow land, a very tender seedling with a faint tea fragrance grew...
