

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6105 -

Hearing this sentence, Sara only felt a chill rushing from the soles of her feet to her scalp.

Ever since she was accidentally rescued by Meng Changsheng (Willie) on Shiwan Dashan more than 300 years ago, she has never felt so terrified.

The last time I panicked was when I saw Meng Changsheng (Willie)'s portrait on the Internet.

But now, she suddenly discovered that her master, who had reached the limit more than 300 years ago and drove west, may still be alive now! This impact on her is absolutely unprecedented!

Sara couldn't suppress the fear in her heart at all, and said in a trembling voice, "Master...disciple...disciple knows it's wrong..."

At this moment, a shout of anger exploded in Sara's ear, and Meng Changsheng (Willie) used extremely cold The voice scolded, "Get out of here!"

This scolding hit Sara's heart like thunder.

At this moment, she didn't dare to hesitate or delay any more. She quickly stood up, bowed to the stone wall tremblingly and said, "Master, atone for your sins. Disciple, get out of here..." After that, she turned around impatiently, dragging the man with her. With legs that seemed to be filled with lead, he staggered out of the cave.

After coming out of the cave, Sara did not dare to stop and walked quickly towards the outside of the mountain.

Her heartbeat was faster and heavier than ever before. After escaping for more than ten miles in one breath, she couldn't help but murmured, "How is this possible... How is this possible... Isn't that old thing Did he reach his end more than three hundred years ago? Why are he still alive today?" As she said that, she couldn't help but question, "No! It's not clear yet whether he is dead or alive! Maybe he is really not dead, or Maybe his consciousness is still there after he died, or maybe he died long ago, and all that is left is nothing more than a formation to tease me...”

Sara couldn't find anything in her heart that could make her believe more strongly. Answer.

Although she thinks these three situations are possible, she still doesn't dare to take risks. At the moment, she just wants to escape quickly. This place is a place to escape from the mountains and China.

While Sara was fleeing in a hurry among the mountains, Charlie and Lin Wan'er (Alani) were constantly switching the real-time images of all the surveillance cameras within dozens of kilometers near the place where Sara disappeared.

This place is located deep in the mountains. There are only two small towns on the edge of a nearly 100-kilometer highway, and the number of surveillance cameras is pitiful.

However, in order to improve the screening efficiency, Lin Wan'er called Lao Zhang, Sun Zhidong (Meir) and Qiu Yingshan (Curtis).

In order to help the two of them share the workload, the four octogenarians, who are nearly a hundred years old, each use a computer, constantly switching the monitoring screen, looking for Sara.

Charlie originally thought that Sara would most likely not appear so early, but for the sake of caution, he still kept a close eye on him for fear of missing something.

In order not to make the old people and Lin Wan'er (Alani) too tired, Charlie also gave them some refreshing water with an enhanced blood-scattering rescue heart, and by the way, it could also add a year or two to the life span of the old people.

From night to dawn, no one felt tired, and no one even had symptoms of dry eyes.

At this time, Lin Wan'er (Alani) suddenly pointed at her computer screen and said loudly, "It's Sara!"

charlie hurried over and looked at the video on the surveillance camera. Walk in the direction where the monitor is located.

charlie asked in surprise, "Where is this surveillance?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "The section of the highway where Sara disappeared, and the exit more than 20 kilometers ahead, is a town called Erdaoshan."

charlie was puzzled Asked "She disappeared halfway. I guess she used some method to leave

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6106 -

Opening the high speed, why did it suddenly appear here again? If her destination is here, why not just drive there? Lin Wan'er (Alani) shook her head, "

The slave family doesn't know either." "

Just as she was talking, Sara in the picture stopped a van passing by. After talking to the van driver for a few words, the driver waved his hand to her, seemingly rejecting her request.

Sara's expression was a little anxious, and she quickly He took out a stack of red banknotes and handed it to the other party. After the other party accepted the money, Sara immediately stepped into the van and sat in the back seat.

charlie was even more confused, "Where is Sara going?" "

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "Go back to my son, I can't understand it either." charlie said, "

Let's just stare at her and see where this car is going." "

Okay." "

In extremely underdeveloped mountainous towns, monitoring is mainly concentrated on traffic roads, so Lin Wan'er (Alani) can directly track the movement of the van by constantly switching road surface monitoring. Soon, the vehicle left the town and headed towards the highway . Driving to the entrance of the highway.

At this moment, in the van that was leaking air everywhere,

Sara couldn't wait to leave China as soon as possible, so she sent a message to her crew and asked them to apply for a route as soon as possible to fly directly from Myanmar to the nearest airport.

Sara came in smuggled in. Originally, according to her plan, after leaving Shiwandashan, she would smuggle out of the country along the same route, and then take a flight from Myanmar back to the base of Po Qinghui. However, unexpected changes made her unable to I would like to stay in China for one more minute, and just want to leave here as soon as possible.

Ten minutes later, the van drove out of a tunnel. Sara recognized that this was the bridge where she had abandoned the van before, so she deliberately asked the driver, "Master , if a car has not driven off the highway for a long time, will someone look for it? "

The driver said without looking back, "Who has the time? Just issue cards at the entrance and collect money at the exit. Who will worry about which car gets off the expressway?"

Sara added, "Every car is given a card at the entrance. Fee card, if this card has not been settled from the exit, won't the highway operator also investigate?"

"Check? Check the hammer..." The driver curled his lips and said, "There are so many cars using etc. every day, and the road administration can't catch them. There is no time to care about who gets off the highway or not."

As he said that, he picked up his highway electronic card and said to Sara, "It's just this thing, it's useless. When we get out of the highway, I'll be on the etc. Just find a car at the exit and drive by. You don't have to pay a dime. Not only do you not have to pay a dime, you can also get a card from them. I already have a drawer full of such cards at home." Sara heard this

. After saying that, he was completely relieved. The vehicle he had crashed into the cliff would definitely not be discovered for a while, and he would have enough time to escape from Huaxia without revealing anything.

At this time, charlie and Lin Wan'er (Alani) did not expect that the van Sara stopped on the road would actually drive in the direction Sara came from after getting on the highway.

charlie frowned and asked, "Sara is leaving?"

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded, "It seems so, but it seems to be too fast. She went all the way to Shiwandashan, why did she only stay for one night?" Want to leave?"

charlie said, "I can't figure it out either, and I feel like she was a little embarrassed when she left in this car."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said doubtfully, "With Sara's strength, even the young master has to avoid his sharp edges, what else is there? Something can make her embarrassed?"

charlie said, "I don't know."

Then, charlie said excitedly, "No matter what, let's keep an eye on this car, as long as Sara leaves Shiwan Dashan, we can hurry up time has passed!"
