

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6161 -

Then,

charlie took Lin Wan'er (Alani) to say goodbye to the old man Lord Wade.

On the plane, Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked charlie, "Young Master is going to New York tonight, and you can only stay in Aurous Hill for more than ten hours. I wonder if it's a bit rushed?"

charlie shook his head and said, "There aren't many things to deal with when we return to Aurous Hill. The main thing is I want to meet my grandparents and their family, tell them about the past few days, see if they can think of any useful information, and say hello to my father-in-law and mother-in-law before we can set off." Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded

. , said softly, "The slave family almost forgot, the young master's wife happens to be in the United States." "

Yes." charlie nodded and said, "Before Uncle came, I asked Miss Fei from the Fei family to invite her to the United States to help. She is also in New York now."

After saying that, charlie added, "However, I don't plan to tell her this time when I go to New York."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked curiously, "Why don't you plan to tell her? Isn't it nice for the husband and wife to reunite?" "?"

charlie said, "When I go to the United States this time, in addition to looking up Peter Zhou, I also want my parents to get clues about the "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra" and then sort out the details of the "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra". I don't know if Po Qing knows about it, and if so, how much they know, so going to the United States this time is a bit sensitive and dangerous, so I won't go to see her to avoid trouble." Lin Wan'er He nodded slightly in understanding and said, "Now it seems that the various routes in New York are indeed complicated. In addition, something happened to your grandparents' family just now. Everyone in the An family is currently not in the United States. Only your uncle is left in New York. I want to come and break it." The Qinghui must also have a lot of spies in New York. You must be more careful when you go there this time."

charlie smacked his lips and said, "That little uncle of mine will also be a big trouble in the future."

"Yes." Lin Wan'er (Alani) said in agreement, "The Nu family thinks that he and your grandma's family now have some tacit understanding, and at the same time they feel helpless. He does not dare to come to China, and your grandma's family cannot go to the United States to confront him."

"Yes." charlie nodded, "This person is a stumbling block to the An family in New York. As long as he is here, the An family cannot return to New York. Although it is difficult for him to get the An family's property, the An family is not in the United States, and if you don't break up with him, your own business and the group's affairs will be greatly affected in a short period of time."

After saying that, charlie said again, "It's not okay to kill this person, it's not okay not to kill him. If you kill him, there will be something to clear up the situation. Prepare and even protect him with heavy troops; if you don't kill him, he will definitely be a serious problem in the future."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) asked charlie, "When will the young master plan to let the An family reappear in the public eye?"

charlie thought for a while and said, "If we don't eliminate the Qing Dynasty, The An family can't return to New York, and even if they can, I won't worry about it, so it's better for the An family not to show up for now."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "The slave family has an idea. I wonder if the young master would like to hear what the slave family has to say?"

charlie was busy . "Ms. Lin, please speak."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said, "The An family's economic strength is world-renowned, and it is a Chinese family. The Nu family thinks that they can ask Lao Sun to help connect people in Yanjing, so that the An family can directly cooperate with the Chinese government, and let the An family become the official representative of the Chinese family. Attracting important foreign capital, making public appearances in China and making strategic investments in China, with official endorsement, no matter how arrogant Sara is, she will never dare to attack Anjia in China." charlie couldn't help being pleasantly surprised and praised, "It's a good idea

. ! No matter how arrogant Sara is, she would not dare to openly oppose the country! In front of the state machine, Poqinghui is just a clown and cannot cause any trouble.” Lin Wan’er (Alani) nodded and added, “Just in this way, the young master’s grandfather’s family , I’m afraid it will be difficult to leave China. Once you leave China, you may be retaliated by Sara.”

charlie said, “It doesn’t matter, let them take root in China in a short period of time. Before the Qing Dynasty is solved, they You can first transfer the business and the core management of the group to China, which can at least ensure the normal operation of Anjia!”

After saying that, charlie looked at Lin Wan’er (Alani) and thanked, “This is a very good idea, thank you Miss Lin!”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6162 -

charlie knew that Sun Zhidong (Meir) had extraordinary energy in Eastcliff, and if he came to help bridge the gap, what Lin Waner said would definitely come true.

Moreover, the feasibility of Lin Wan’er (Alani)’s method is also very high. As long as the government endorses it and gives enough attention to Anjia, Anjia’s safety in China will no longer be a problem.

Even if Sara was given ten courages, she would not dare to openly oppose a country.

Unless she has lived for four hundred years and is really tired of living. However , according to what charlie has learned now, people definitely cherish life the longer they live; the longer they live, the more afraid they are of death.

Sara has lived for four hundred years, so she must be extremely afraid of death.

Otherwise, she would not have escaped from Shiwandashan in such a panic.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) saw that Charlie had no objection to the proposal, so she immediately called Sun Zhidong (Meir) and told Sun Zhidong (Meir) the situation.

After Sun Zhidong (Meir) heard about it, he agreed directly without any hesitation and immediately started communicating with Eastcliff.

The introduction of foreign investment is very common in China, but Charlie hopes that Anjia's return to China for investment can reach an unprecedented new height in all aspects.

Sun Zhidong (Meir) also immediately mobilized his own network to reflect upwards and began to promote this matter.

Soon, Sun Zhidong (Meir) received exciting news, and then he fed the news back to Lin Wan'er.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) excitedly said to Charlie, "Master, Lao Sun has already implemented it. As long as the An family is really serious about investing in the country, the official can provide the highest level of foreign treatment to the An family, personally endorse the An family, and mobilize media resources to follow it in an all-round way." Report, and at the same time, we will do our best to ensure the safety of the Anjia family and the industries invested by the Anjia in the country. If the Anjia is interested, they can secretly go to Eastcliff for an interview with Lao Sun."

"That's great!" Charlie said immediately, "I will go over to communicate with my grandpa and the others at noon. As long as they are interested, I will let my grandpa and Lao Sun come to Eastcliff together!" After saying that, Charlie couldn't help but sigh

. "If the cooperation between Anjia and China is officially announced, Sara will definitely be very depressed. "

Immediately afterwards, Charlie immediately called his uncle and told him that he would meet them at the Champs Elysees Hot Spring Villa at noon. As soon as he heard that Charlie was coming, the An family was naturally very happy. The family hurriedly started preparing lunch and waited. Waiting to welcome Charlie's arrival.

At noon, Charlie and Lin Wan'er had already flown to Jinling.

Although Lin Wan'er wanted to accompany Charlie to the United States, considering that the mother of Pucha still had to take care of herself, and the school's military training had ended, she thought it was time to go back to class, so he had no choice but to give up.

Charlie sent Lin Wan'er (Alani) back to Purple Mountain Villa, and went straight to the Champs Elysees Hot Spring Villa without making any stop.

When he arrived at Champs Elysees, his grandfather's family had already made arrangements. After a sumptuous banquet, when Charlie arrived, the family and Li Yalin all went out to greet him, which showed how much they valued Charlie. After Charlie said hello to many elders one by one, he was pulled into the living room by his grandmother. Grandma couldn't help but ask him "Charlie, where have you been these days? I never came over to see my grandma. "

Charlie said hurriedly, "Grandma, I went to the southwest these days and looked at Shiwanda Mountain, trying to find clues left by my parents back then.

The old man on the side quickly asked, "How is Charlie? Did you find anything? " " Charlie sighed, "I didn't find anything clear, and I was persuaded to go back halfway.

The old man asked in surprise, "Persuading you to return? " Who persuaded you to return? Charlie said, " Grandpa, it's a long story. Let's go in and talk slowly."

Mr. An said without thinking, "Okay, okay, go in and talk, go in and talk! " "

Charlie and the An family entered the villa together and came to the restaurant to sit down. Seeing that there were no outsiders here, Charlie truthfully told the story of his trip to Shiwanda Mountain.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6163 -

also revealed everything about Stephen Thompson.

Everyone was shocked when they heard that charlie was persuaded to return by the false master of Qingzhao Temple.

They also didn't expect that charlie's strength was so unpredictable that there were people who had seen his movements in advance and were waiting on the way to the mountain.

What's even more unexpected is that bruce's old subordinate, Stephen Thompson, who has been silently guarding charlie for nearly twenty years, actually has another owner. After hearing what charlie said, his uncle Asher asked in disbelief, "charlie, then Stephen Thompson really just disappeared from the world?" "

Yes." charlie nodded, "The phone has been turned off, and the whereabouts of the person are unknown."

"Oh my God..." Asher said fearfully after a while, "This Stephen Thompson is really hidden deep enough! Although I don't know who he is. , but fortunately he and the master behind him have no ill intentions towards you, charlie, otherwise, the consequences would be really unimaginable!"

Mr. An couldn't help but frown, "I have heard about Stephen Thompson before. Through my understanding in all aspects, He is absolutely loyal to Bruce, how could he have another master..."

charlie was also puzzled, and said, "I have been in contact with Butler Tang for a long time, and I have never seen anything wrong, and now I don't I can't think of a clue."

Li Yalin, who had been silent for a long time, said at this time, "Mr. wade, do you still have the photo album you found when you went to Eastcliff this time?" "

Yes." charlie took the photo album out of his bag and handed it to everyone. In front of him, he said, "I asked my grandfather, and he said that this photo album was not in the study before. It must have been left by Butler Tang." Everyone opened the photo album and saw the group photo of Charlie's parents. Everyone in the An family had red eyes.

When they saw Peter Zhou again, no one in the An family recognized him. Even Detective Li Yalin, who had been solving crimes in New York for many years, had never heard of this figure.

Li Yalin said at this time, "Mr. Wade, as soon as you arrived at Shiwanda Mountain, you were persuaded by the fake Master Tai. Later, when I arrived in Eastcliff, Butler Tang prepared this photo album for you. I always felt that the same person should be behind these two things."

Charlie nodded and said, "I feel the same way, but Butler Tang has disappeared and I can't find any clear clues now."

Li Yalin sighed, "It seems that this person's strength should not be underestimated. Not only can this person have insight into Mr. Wade's behavior, but he can also poach Mr. Wade's father's confidants for his own use. More importantly, this person is here with Mr. Ye. He didn't leave any clues, and it's very likely that Po Qinghui won't be able to find any trace of him. Since his opponent is also Po Qinghui, Mr. Wade doesn't have to be too troubled. Based on my speculation, this is definitely a friend, not an enemy. , overall a good thing."

Charlie said with a helpless smile, "The only clue has been broken, and I will no longer be troubled by him. I believe that when the time is right, he will naturally come out of the darkness to meet me."

After that, Charlie changed the subject and said, "By the way, grandpa, I have a friend who can find a connection and ask the official to endorse Anjia. However, since it is an official endorsement, there must be real economic cooperation. If you are willing, , you can make more investments in China, and my friend can strive for the highest level of strategic cooperation for Anjia. In this way, with official endorsement, Poqing will never dare to do anything to your family in China. I don't know what you think. How about next?"

An Qishan blurted out without hesitation, "Of course, no problem!" It is not a long-term solution to keep hiding like this. Once the highest level of economic cooperation can be achieved, it will be equivalent to getting a talisman, and the An family can act openly in China. By then, the An family can gradually shift the focus of its business from the United States By moving to China, you can also contribute to the development of China!

Seeing that his grandfather had no objections, Charlie said, "Grandpa, if your time is convenient, I will ask that friend to go to Eastcliff with you as soon as possible to discuss the details of the investment, and to finalize and announce the details of this strategic cooperation as soon as possible." To the public. "

Okay!" An Qishan agreed excitedly and blurted out, "I can go at any time!"
And the sooner the better! "
