

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6310

At this moment, Howard was completely unwilling to care about Matt's condition and life and death.

He only knows that Matt has caused a huge disaster now. If Matt really caused irreparable losses to the family, he would rather throw Matt out as a sacrifice and let him take all the blame, and then let the American people take him away. shred.

After receiving his instructions, the bodyguard naturally completely forgot about Matt's face. The three of them rushed to the door to cooperate with each other. Jack took his mobile phone to broadcast live, and the other two kicked the door after a few meters of running. The door flew open.

These three people were originally top special forces retired from the U.S. Navy's Special Forces and Navy SEALs. Before they retired, the three of them already had many years of experience and tacit understanding of working together to perform tasks. So at this moment, they perfectly copied the combat case of the US Navy SEALs about forcibly breaking into an indoor space. After kicking the door open, the three of them quickly rushed to the bedroom where the target was.

At this time, Matt was launching the final attack on his cousin's wife.

Hearing the sound of the door being kicked open suddenly, the hesitating couple were shocked, especially the woman in his arms. They woke up from the joy of their affair almost instantly, but Matt was already at the end of the line. At this critical moment, his body and brain had gone crazy to some extent. Although he was panicking, he couldn't stop moving at all.

Just when he felt that he was about to reach his peak, the door of the bedroom was kicked down. With a bang as the door fell to the ground, three bodyguards rushed into the room.

Jack's right hand seemed to be an iron fist, holding the phone motionless. The picture at this time was also synchronized to the Rothschild family's video conference in real time.

During the video conference, a man suddenly became furious and yelled, "Matt! You're F*cking sleeping with my wife!"

This roar caused chaos in the entire video conference room.

None of the Rothschild family members present at the meeting expected that Matt was actually having an affair with his cousin's wife at this moment.

Even the well-informed Howard was completely shocked at this time.

Matt realized something was wrong, and while he wrapped himself and his sister-in-law in a quilt in a panic, he looked at Jack angrily and horrified and asked, "Are you crazy?! Who let you in?! You were taking pictures with your phone. What?!"

Jack had no choice but to bite the bullet and said, "The patriarch asked me to come in, and now my mobile phone is broadcasting live to the core members of the family." "

What did you say?!" Matt collapsed instantly and hurriedly Looking at the phone camera, he said in a panic, "Grandpa, please listen to my explanation...she seduced me!" The cousin-in-law, who was frightened and at a loss, was also frightened by Matt's remarks about blaming him!

She collapsed immediately, crying and shouting, "Mr. Howard, I didn't seduce Matt! He didof me! It was he who had been uaing me, brainwashing me, and making me betray Charles and have an affair with him! Don't believe his sophistry! "

At this time, in the video conference, the betrayed Charles Rothschild cried and said, "Grandpa! You must seek justice for me! Howard

's face was livid, and he gritted his teeth and said, "Matt, you are really a disgrace to the Rothschild family!" I now give you a chance to atone. Immediately admit to the public that everything that happened to Bruce Weinstein and Peter Zhou was your personal behavior and has nothing to do with the Rothschild family. At the same time, you will surrender to the police immediately. If you do so, If you do, your father can still stay in the Rothschild family, and when you are released from prison, you can also retain the treatment in the family. "

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6311

At this point, Howard changed the subject and said sternly, “But if you don’t do what I say, I will personally send you to prison, and then drive your father and your whole family out of the United States!

Matt asked in confusion, “Grandpa...what happened to Bruce Weinstein? ” ! He is just a dog under my control, why should I take the blame for him? !

Howard scolded angrily, “You idiot, go check out the short video platform! ” The video of Bruce Weinstein exposing you and your entire family, as well as the video of you having an affair with Bruce Weinstein’s wife, has become one of the top three hits in North America! After saying that

, Howard added, “You three have performed well. You will report to the family early tomorrow morning and have other appointments, so you don’t have to follow this loser!” “

When Jack and the other three heard this, they were immediately overjoyed, but Howard didn’t wait for them to express their gratitude and directly kicked Jack’s account out of the live broadcast room.

Jack found that the video connection was interrupted and said to Matt with a little embarrassment. “Master, these are the requirements of the patriarch, and we have no way to disobey, sorry. “

After that, he winked at his two men, and the three of them exited the room directly.

For the three of them, after tonight’s incident, they have completed a difficult time in the Rothschild family. Among the servants of the Rothschild family, those who can serve direct members naturally have a higher status than those who are collateral members, but the servant with the highest status in the entire family is one who directly serves Howard. Yes, after all, Howard is the emperor of this ancient family, and the other direct members are just vassal kings. Now that they are favored by Howard, they will naturally no longer take Matt, a grandson who has fallen out of favor, into consideration.

Three After the people left, Matt, who was shocked and frightened, quickly took out his mobile phone, turned off the airplane mode, and immediately opened the short video platform. Unexpectedly, Since his i-address is in the United States, the algorithm directly pushed two videos related to him to the home page.

Matt cautiously clicked on the video, and the more he watched, the more frightened he became. The first thought that came to his mind was to kill Bruce Weinstein, but the second thought that followed, he turned this The impulse was completely suppressed.

He is well aware of his current situation.

With the exposure of these two videos, Bruce Weinstein has become the person he cannot kill in his life.

What's even worse is that Grandpa Howard asked him to take care of everything related to Peter next week. You know, cheating is not illegal in the United States, but manipulating federal prisons, affecting justice, and abusing lynching are all crimes without exception.

Once he takes on these charges, it means that he will stay in prison for at least a few years, and he will become a street rat in the United States that everyone wants to beat.

S*x scandals have never been a big deal in America, but political scandals are deadly.

Just when Matt didn't know what to do, the Rothschild family video conference continued. Betrayed and cuckolded, Charles was in an emotional breakdown. He shouted in the video that he wanted Matt's father to give him an explanation.

And Charles' father was also putting pressure on Howard, saying angrily, "Father! Whatever you say about this matter, Matt and his family must give us an explanation, otherwise, I will never agree!" Yes

! As far as Charles' father is concerned, his son was cuckolded by his nephew. The key is that it was broadcast live in front of the core members of the family. This shame is considered to be lost to the bottom of the Pacific. If he doesn't have an explanation, he and himself will be cuckolded in the future. The son will also become a laughing stock in the family and will never be able to hold his head high.

Matt's father, Robert Rothschild, was also in a panic at this moment. He knew that his son had caused a huge disaster, but he had no idea at this moment what this incident would do to Matt himself, as well as himself and himself. What influence does Matt's brothers have?

People in the Rothschild family are very fertile, and one of their main tenets is to have more children.

Therefore, Robert Rothschild did not only have one son, Matt, but gave birth to three sons and four daughters.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6312

In the Rothschild family, the patriarch Howard is the only Ninth Five-Year Planner. In addition to him, the entire family also has multiple interest groups. These interest groups are all composed of several of Howard's sons, and they are all the same. It is a pyramid structure composed of a father and several children, and Howard governs this family like an ancient emperor governed a country. Many times he does not talk about family ties, but only interests. Once there is a problem with one of the pyramids below, he is likely to Cut through the entire pyramid Wasted at the end.

So, Robert said in a panic and humbly, "I'm sorry, it's all my fault in raising my son. I am willing to pay 100 million US dollars to compensate Charles..."

Charles's father suddenly became furious, "F*ck, I will give you 100 million US dollars for my son." , Are you willing to let him sleep with your daughter-in-law?"

Robert could not say a word, he could only nod angrily, and said angrily, "...I am willing..."

Charles's father felt so angry that he cursed angrily. "Okay! Then I will transfer the money to you now, and you pick one of your daughters-in-law to give to my son!"

"That's enough!" Seeing that the two people were talking more and more outrageously, Howard shouted angrily, "Stop talking about it! As for Charles, I will definitely give him an explanation, but our most important issue right now is how to do crisis management and resolve this matter!"

Robert said quickly, "Father, I have notified all online platforms in the United States to remove these two items. video, and also issued a ban on broadcasting to all media in the United States. No one from all online platforms and media groups in the United States would dare to confront us, but only China's short video platform is beyond our control... ..That platform has developed very rapidly in the United States over the past year and is already one of the most used software in the United States. Its influence is too great and should not be underestimated..." After that, Robert added, "I also let People contacted the North American person in charge of this short video platform, hoping that he would delete these two videos for the sake of the Rothschild family. However, the feedback they gave us was very firm. They said that the videos uploaded by users did not Violating any relevant laws and regulations, out of respect for content and users, they must not remove users' videos without authorization. This clearly means that they want to put us on the platform for exhibition..." Howard said with a gloomy face at this time

. That short video platform is an asset invested by the wade family of China. We have some disputes with them. It is definitely impossible to ask them for help at this time..." Robert asked quickly, "

Then can we put pressure on Congress to let them Is Congress going to issue a bill to restrict the development of this short video platform in the United States? If that doesn't work, let Congress issue a law ordering all Americans to delete this software!" Howard was silent for a moment, and said solemnly, "This proposal is not impossible

. , but the biggest problem is that it takes time and process for Congress to enact a decree and announce its implementation, at least one to two months. After one to two months, the heat on this matter may have passed, and we should We have lost all the shame. If we go back and block this software at that time, we will be taken out by the people and whipped to death again..." After that, he looked at

Robert and said coldly, "You can help us. I want to find a way to make an appointment with the person in charge of this short video platform in North America. I want to meet with him in person to see if we can negotiate a settlement!"
