

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6313

Howard Rothschild is a very realistic person.

Although he is the helmsman of the entire Rothschild family, he has always been able to bend and stretch.

If a person is of high enough value to him or to the Rothschild family, even if the person is a beggar, Howard will treat him well.

At present, his appeal is that the short video platform can remove all videos related to the Rothschild family, so that the scandal of the Rothschild family has nowhere to spread.

Therefore, as the patriarch of the Rothschild family, he could even deign to meet the person in charge of the North American region of the short video platform.

You know, there is a huge difference between the head of a big family with a trillion dollars and a business executive worth hundreds of millions of dollars. If it were normal, the latter would not even be able to join Matt Rothschild. Erd's discernment, not to mention Howard.

However, now Howard is eager to meet with the North American head of the short video platform.

And he felt that since his status was so noble, if he went to see the other party in person, he would definitely be considered sincere. If this matter reached the ears of the head of the Wade family, the other party would definitely feel it. If you feel your sincerity, maybe you can even have an in-depth cooperation.

Soon, the Rothschild family contacted the person in charge of the North American region of the short video platform. When he revealed his identity to the other party, the person in charge of the short video platform was indeed shocked.

He didn't expect that this incident would actually bring down the patriarch of the Rothschild family personally.

He immediately reported the matter to the person in charge of the short video platform. After receiving the news, the other party immediately called Charlie Wade through the contact information left by Stephen Thompson.

When charlie Wade received a call from China Eastcliff in the cell, he roughly guessed the whole story. When he answered the call, a middle-aged man's gentle voice came from the other end of the phone: "Is this charlie Wade? Master?"

charlie Wade hummed, "Who are you?"

The middle-aged man said hurriedly, "Hello, Master wade, I am the founder of the short video platform and also the current CEO. My name is Brandon. You gave me your contact information a few days ago and asked me to report any major events directly to you."

charlie Wade asked him, "You are calling me now because of the Rothschild family, right?" "

Yes. "Brandon explained, "The Rothschild family contacted our person in charge in North America and said that Howard, the patriarch of the Rothschild family, wanted to meet him and chat with him. When it came to cooperation, he didn't dare to make decisions on his own, so he immediately asked me for advice. But to be honest, the patriarch of the Rothschild family has great influence around the world, so I didn't dare to make a decision on his own. , that's why I called you to bother you, hoping to ask for your opinion. "

charlie Wade said lightly, "You just ask him to reply to the Rothschild family and say that we have nothing to cooperate with them. If you want us to delete the video content on the short video platform, then there is nothing wrong with it. The room for negotiation made them give up. "

Brandon said hesitantly, "Young Master... The Rothschild family and similar plutocrats like them have a very large influence in the West, and can even influence laws and decisions of Western governments. Their lobbying group is the world's largest. One, if they lobby the government to sanction us, it may have a great impact on our business in North America..." "

It doesn't matter. "charlie Wade said calmly, "Let them do whatever they want. It doesn't matter if one day we have to withdraw from the US market. At least we have maintained our bottom line at this stage, and the people of North America will see it. When the time is right, We can still make a comeback, but once we lose the bottom line, we lose the support of the North American people. What we do is a short video platform for all people. Once we lose the support of the people, even if the local government does not target us, we will lose our development. soil. "

With that said, Charlie Wade added, "I understand that you want to take the overall situation into consideration and worry that all your efforts will be in vain, but you must remember that if one day we need to make a multiple-choice question between the people and the government of North America, we will always choose the former will always put the people first. "

When Brandon heard this, the doubts in his heart completely disappeared, his voice became a little louder, and he said loudly, "Okay, young master, I understand! I'll reply to them right away! "

At this time, although the Rothschild family members were anxiously waiting for the response from the North American head of the short video platform, they did not sit back and wait. Instead, they were discussing how to deal with Bruce Weinstein. This person kept posting The two videos are obviously intended to fight to the death with the Rothschild family, making the core members of the Rothschild family gnash their teeth.

For them, they can't wait to send people to the Brooklyn Prison to kill Bruce right now.

However, As events continue to unfold,

Amazing Son-in-law: story of Charlie Wade - Chapter 6314

1. Chapter 6314

The person the Rothschild family dare not touch now is Bruce.

Bruce exposed two major scandals of the Rothschild family in one breath, and the evidence is conclusive. Under this situation, if something happens to him, the Rothschild family will not be able to escape the involvement, and the people will definitely put the charges on him. On the head of the Rothschild family.

By that time, not only will neither of the two scandals be solved, but two will become three, and another person will be killed.

At this time, Howard's eldest son answered a phone call, and then said solemnly, "Father, the short video platform has rejected our request to meet." "Rejected?"

Howard frowned and asked him, "I'm Howard Ross. Childe, deigned to meet him, the head of North America, and he still dared to refuse?"

"Yes..." the eldest son said helplessly, "We have made it clear that you want to meet with them, but they still refuse."

Howard After pondering for a moment, he said coldly, "I didn't refuse on the spot, but refused after a few minutes. It seems that I reported the matter to China. It seems that the Wade family does not want to see me."

As he spoke, Howard gritted his teeth and said, "I didn't expect that bruce Wade has been dead for so many years, and the Wade family is still so stubborn. With their small size, there are no people like bruce Wade to gather together and... Mobilizing resources, they are just clowns in front of the Rothschild family, and they dare to continue to oppose the Rothschild family. This is overestimating their capabilities!"

A young man from the Rothschild family said in a video conference He said, "Grandpa, the short video platform has developed extremely rapidly in the past year or so, and has a large user base around the world. Although it has not yet been listed, the current market value estimate given by the capital market is almost US$400 billion."

"Four hundred billion?!" Howard asked in surprise, "Are you sure? A mere short video platform can have such a high market value?!" The other party nodded and said, "Now short videos are sweeping the world. In this In the process, China's short video platform has been so popular that our established Internet companies have not been able to catch up with them. Moreover, short videos have now become the traffic portal for all walks of life. Anyone who is doing business is trying to find a way. Obtain traffic through short video platforms and realize traffic monetization. They are very powerful in empowering the e-commerce industry, virtual services, and value-added services. The US$400 billion is actually a conservative estimate. If they are given a little more time, they may be able to surpass it. Facebook's market cap is $800 billion."

> "Damn it!" Howard cursed angrily, "How could such a large company fall into the hands of the Wade family? The Wade family's own size can only last for one to two hundred billion US dollars, right?" The other party said helplessly

. He said, "Grandpa, the Internet industry is like this. As long as you stand on the forefront, you can rise to the sky overnight. You also know Facebook's Zuckerberg. Didn't he make the company have a market value of 800 billion US dollars?" Howard couldn't help but click

. He smacked his lips and cursed, "Damn! The Wade family really found a treasure! If the short video platform is successfully listed and really reaches a market value of 400 billion US dollars, wouldn't the Wade family directly become the first family in China?!"

" Yes." The other party nodded slightly. "It's a foregone conclusion."

Howard said bitterly, "It seems that whether a family can rise can't be determined by one or two outstanding talents. bruce Wade is so powerful, but he can't do it. The Wade family brought the number one position in China, and now the Wade family can easily acquire a short video platform."

Just when

Howard was feeling depressed, his eldest son received the call again, and then he looked nervous. He said to him, "Father, public opinion is fermenting rapidly. An investigation task force has been set up in Washington. They will immediately go to Brooklyn Prison to investigate. Moreover, the New York Bureau of Prisons and the FBI are going to take over Brooklyn Prison. The takeover team has already set off. It's over!"

Howard said with a dark face, "The trouble is getting bigger and bigger..."

After that, he quickly said, "Do you have the contact information of Bruce Weinstein? I want to call him!"

At this time, Bruce Weinstein is sitting in his office recording his third video.

In order to concentrate on recording the video, his mobile phone had been switched to airplane mode. However, what he did not expect was that the landline phone on his desk suddenly rang.

He grabbed the phone impatiently and said angrily, "What's the matter?"

Howard patiently introduced himself, "Hello Bruce, I'm Howard Rothschild, the patriarch of the Rothschild family. I'll take care of your business." I've heard about it, and I'm deeply sorry for it..."

Bruce cursed angrily, "You bad old man, you're so sorry! Don't think I don't know what's going on in your mind, don't you just want me to change my mind? Let me tell you, I will never give you this chance. This time, I will fight to the death with you, to the death!"
