

The Amazing son in law (charlie wade) - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6365

The moment his consciousness returned to his body, charlie Wade woke up instantly.

Although the out-of-body feeling just now was very long, in reality it seemed to only last a moment.

charlie Wade, who was frightened, took out the wooden box without having time to think about it. After confirming that there was nothing else in the secret compartment, he immediately dropped the stone lion back and covered it safely in the secret compartment. superior.

At this time, there was still a lot of excitement in the Zhou family manor.

Then, he immediately turned back, jumped downstairs, and climbed in through the window of the room where Hank and the three of them were.

Steve and Royce, father and son, were dumbfounded.

They didn't think it was anything special when charlie Wade jumped out of the window, but jumping in from the window really subverted their views.

charlie Wade, who returned to the room, saw the horrified looks of Steve and Royce, and said to Hank, "Ask them to turn around, and you turn around too." Turn around and stare at them. Anyone who dares to look back secretly will be shot dead."

Hank immediately said, "Okay sir!"

Steve almost collapsed, and said submissively, "Mr. Wade... everyone is already a partner. You don't have to distrust us so much... I know that what you brought back must be a square treasure building, but I will definitely not reveal a word to the outside world, and you don't have to always let Hank hold a gun against our heads... ..."

charlie asked him, "Are you teaching me how to do things?"

Steve was so frightened that he hurriedly waved his hands and said, "Don't you dare, don't you dare..."

After saying that, he quickly turned his face away, not daring to look again.

charlie Wade opened the wooden box and looked at the square treasure building inside. He couldn't help but exclaimed, "This treasure building is exactly the same as the one I saw with my consciousness just now. Could it be that this is where my consciousness entered just now?"

" Thinking about it, charlie Wade reached out and gently lifted out the Sifang Baozhu.

The main body of this treasure pillar is made of gold. It is not as luxurious as those specially used to hold relics, but it exudes an indescribable majesty everywhere.

Having had the out-of-body experience just now, charlie Wade knew that the four-sided treasure pillar in his hand was more than just a magical weapon. It incorporated the spiritual energy and hard work of countless cultivators and could protect the world, the country, and the country. Although it can achieve the greatest effect only by complementing the original Big Wild Goose Pagoda and even the layout of the entire Chang'an City, it is still a rare Feng Shui treasure.

The Rothschild family has been prosperous for two hundred years, and it must be inextricably linked to the Sifang Baozhu.

At a certain moment, charlie Wade also thought about whether to keep this square treasure pillar with him. After all, it was refined with the painstaking efforts of many sages. Maybe he can discover many more profound secrets of cultivation from it.

But the next second, he gave up the idea.

The Sifang Baozhuang was originally built by the sages for China. Not just one person can take it as his own, and he must not have such an idea.

So, he gently put the Sifang Baozhu back. As for the photocopied version of "The Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra" below, he did not take it out. After all, now was not a good time to read.

After getting the things, charlie Wade began to figure out his next plan.

If Howard lets Royce go directly to Canada, he can take the Sifang Baozhu out of the United States. Once in Canada, it will be much easier to transport it back to China. After the Sifang Baozhu returns to China, he can use the help of Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s adopted son Sun Zhidong (Meir) , hand it back to the Chinese official, in that case, your mission will be considered completed.

However, charlie Wade did not plan to leave the United States just like that.

> After all, Zhou Liangyun is still being treated in the hospital. After he is discharged from the hospital, it is still unknown how the US government and the Rothschild family will treat him. charlie Wade does not want to leave him alone to fend for himself. If possible, he should do his best. Get him out of jail and at least free.

at the same time.

Hank directed a group of people to rush into the Zhou Manor and turned the Zhou Manor upside down, but could not find any trace of the intrusion.

But what puzzled them was that there was a lot of commotion inside the Zhou family villa just now, and a lot of furniture and decorations were indeed broken. It seemed that someone had been here, otherwise how could a villa with closed doors and windows suddenly suddenly be disturbed? Something fell on the floor with a clang?

But here's the weird thing. These things really look like someone violently threw everything to the ground, but not to mention the presence of people, not even a single footprint was found at the scene.

Some of Howard's informants immediately reported this matter to Howard.

When Howard heard the news, he suddenly became nervous and trembled all over.

He immediately called Hank, and when Hank saw his call, he quickly looked at charlie Wade and asked, "Mr. Wade, it's Howard's call. Can I answer it?"

charlie Wade nodded, "Yes, he probably He wants to ask about the details of your actions just now, so you tell him that he did hear the noise inside, but no one was arrested. If he asks about the power outage, you exaggerate it and remind him in as subtle a way as possible. There may be a mole within the Rothschild family.”

Hank said without thinking, “Okay Mr. Wade, let me tell him!”

Then he answered the phone and said respectfully, “Hello, sir! I was about to call you. Report, just now we discovered that there was a sudden loud noise in the Zhou family manor. I was afraid that someone would enter through a secret passage that we did not control, so I immediately arranged for my men to rush in before I had time to ask you for instructions. Please forgive me...

Howard hummed and said, “You’re doing a good job on this. In a pinch, you act intuitively and don’t need to ask for my opinion.”

After saying that, Howard asked tentatively, “How is the situation at the scene? We’ve arrested someone. “?”

Hank said, “Not yet. Almost all our people have gone in, but no valuable clues have been found.”

Howard asked with a very worried voice, “There are signs that someone has entered, but no clues can be found. What happened?” In this case, there is a high probability that someone sneaked into the Zhou family through a secret passage that we don’t know about, and then quietly left the Zhou family...”

At this point, Howard asked again, “By the way, Hank, I heard that your place is today The power suddenly went out at night?”

“Yes.” Hank explained, “Both circuits were damaged tonight, and repairs are very difficult. It is estimated that there will be no calls before noon.”

Howard’s mood became even heavier and uneasy. “The power outage couldn’t have been an accident, right?”

“Definitely not.” Hank didn’t leave any chance to Howard, and said in a serious tone, “Sir, I feel that all our actions are under the surveillance of the other party. , the other party has long known that we are secretly monitoring here, and even knows that we have deployed a large number of monitoring equipment here, so they destroyed the power supply lines and paralyzed all our monitoring equipment.”

Howard's heart sank and he asked, "Yes Did we not do a good job of keeping secrets secret? Or did someone within us leak the news?"

Hank said, "Both are possible.

but the latter is more likely.

asked him, "If someone leaked the news, who do you think it would be?" Hank said, "

I don't dare to say anything about this right now. I need to investigate before I can make a judgment." Howard asked again, "Then do you think the people who sneaked into Zhou's house tonight are here to get the Sifang Baozhu?" "

"definitely is. "Hank said categorically, "The only possibility for the other party to take such a big risk is to take the Sifang Baozhu. "

Howard's heart suddenly sank to the bottom.

He murmured, "If this is true, it means that the other party must have taken away the Sifang Baozhuang..."

After that, , he yelled hoarsely to the butler beside him, "Notify everyone and all departments immediately, strictly block all entrances and exits in New York and surrounding areas, and at the same time begin to conduct platoons within the blockade, and find the Sifang Treasure Building at all costs!" "

At this moment, a person next to Howard suddenly said, "Sir, I just received news from Canada that Queen Helena of Northern Europe is going to visit Canada in advance.

Howard frowned, " In advance?" What time? "

Today, it is said that the special plane will take off in about two or three hours. The first stop will be Ottawa, and then nearby Montreal." Howard asked in confusion, "Why did you suddenly change your itinerary?" "

The man said, "It is said that the Queen has some minor health problems and has made an appointment for treatment next week, so she can only move forward. Howard hummed, "

Okay, I understand." Hank on the other side of the phone seized the opportunity and asked quickly, "Sir, what should I do next?" Howard gritted his teeth and said, "Even if you dig three feet into the ground, you still have to find the secret passage for them to enter and exit!" "

After that, he added, "By the way, tell Steve that Helena will leave for Canada immediately, and ask him to arrange for Royce to hurry up and prepare. I will also arrange for someone to rush over to help with the connection. Our reputation has recently been After a sudden fall, you must seize this opportunity to establish a good relationship with the Nordic royal family. It may be of great use in the future!

Hank said quickly, "Okay sir, I'll tell the young master right now! " Howard said coldly, "Hank, this time they entered and exited the Zhou Manor under your nose as if they were in uninhabited territory!" I will definitely hold you accountable for this matter! Before I figure out how to punish you, you'd better be able to get away with it and find some useful clues for me. Otherwise, I won't ask for mercy! Understand? !

Hank blurted out, "I understand, sir. Don't worry, I will do my best! " "

Howard immediately hung up the phone.

Hank said to charlie Wade respectfully, "Mr. Wade, Howard asked me to tell the young master that he is going to Canada! "

charlie Wade nodded, "I heard it all. "

With that said, charlie Wade looked at Steve and Royce and his son, and said, "You two, turn around and talk. "

The two people turned around quickly and looked at charlie Wade respectfully, waiting for his next words.

charlie Wade said at this time, "Royce, I will take a helicopter with you to Canada in a while. Can your pilot be trusted?"

"Absolutely believable!" Steve quickly said, "My pilot is my direct descendant!" "

"good. "charlie Wade nodded and said to him, "After we set off in a while, you will continue to stay here and wait for further instructions from your old man. "

Stevie agreed without hesitation.

In his heart, he only hoped that charlie Wade would quickly take Sifang Baozhu out of the United States. Once this thing left the United States, his threat would be gone.

What he cares about is only the position of the heir. As for this square treasure building, he has nothing to miss. If it is lost, it is lost. As for whether the loss of this thing will affect the fortune of the Rothschild family for a hundred years, he He didn't take it to heart at all. In his opinion, the Rothschild family had a lot of money. As long as he could succeed to the throne, it didn't matter even a 50% discount.

Because of Howard's special approval, the helicopter was not subject to any inspection.

Even when entering Canada, no one asked about it.

Taking a helicopter across the border between the two countries in a grand manner. Although the bilateral relationship between the United States and Canada is not as open as the EU countries have completely opened the border, after all, there is a quasi-master-servant relationship that everyone understands, so bilateral entry and exit management is They were very lax, and the Rothschild family also had great influence in Canada, so when their helicopters crossed the border, Canada turned a blind eye.

When the helicopter successfully passed the US-Canada border, charlie Wade was relieved. He sent a message to Arman, asking him to hurry up and buy the earliest ticket to fly to Montreal.

Although these two cities are very close to each other, flights are very frequent. They start at around six o'clock every day and continue with a frequency of two or three times an hour until 9:30 at night.

When Arman saw charlie Wade's message asking him to go to Montreal, he knew that he must have successfully left the United States, so he quickly booked the earliest ticket and waited to rush to the airport.

Immediately afterwards, charlie Wade contacted Abbas and asked him to urgently transfer several Wanlong Palace agents stationed here from Canada and ask them to wait for his dispatch in Montreal.

Subsequently, he contacted Nanako Ito, who was far away in China, and asked Nanako Ito to help charter a transoceanic business jet from Montreal in the name of the Ito family. The business jet would fly directly from Montreal to Jinling.

After making these arrangements, the helicopter he took also arrived in the southern suburbs of Ottawa, the capital of Canada.

For safety reasons, he did not let the helicopter take him to Montreal to land. After all, although this helicopter did not require border inspection or entry registration, it was always on the Canadian air traffic control radar screen from the moment it entered Canada. The height and speed of the helicopter are clearly visible on the radar. If it lands in the middle, a record will be left. Once the Rothschild family checks this line, they will definitely notice anomalies.

Therefore, when the helicopter was still dozens of kilometers away from Ottawa, charlie Wade jumped from the sky above the farm area south of Ottawa.

Royce Rothschild watched charlie Wade jump from a height of 100 meters, and everyone was stunned. But when charlie Wade, who became the size of a sesame seed, landed and started running wildly, he began to doubt his life.

After charlie Wade landed, he ran wildly, took out his cell phone, and called Lin Wan'er (Alani) in China.

It was late at night in China at this time.

However, Lin Wan'er (Alani) did not go back to her room to sleep. Instead, she drank tea in the yard and by the hot spring pool, watching the delicate branches and leaves of the mother of Pucha tea.

Drinking tea here and taking care of the mother of Pucha, all she could think about was Charlie Wade.

At this moment, she suddenly received a call from Charlie Wade, and her pretty face suddenly turned red. She immediately answered the call shyly, and asked him shyly but unable to hide her excitement, "Where did Mr. Wade make the call to the slave family?" ?"
