An Qishan could tell that when Howard said the last words, he almost collapsed.

So he pretended to be surprised and asked: "Brother, did your people force Chen Zhimin to death?"

Howard said depressedly: "Brother An, just tell me, is this something he can do?"

"Why not? An Qishan sneered twice: "He is a member of the Po Qing Society and has mastered a lot of the secrets of the Po Qing Society. If you drive him to a dead end, he will definitely die to show his loyalty to the Po Qing Society. If he doesn't die, All his family members will be executed."

"F*ck!" Howard gritted his teeth and cursed, and said depressedly: "Then what can I do? Will the Po Qing Association think that I drove him to death? But what am I really doing? I didn't even do it! I just want to keep an eye on that antique dealer and find our Rothschild family's own things, that's all..."

At this time, Howard was so aggrieved that he almost collapsed.

Don't blame Howard for not seeing the world, it's something like this that makes everyone feel uncomfortable.

In the more than three hundred years of history of the Po Qing Society, it has been deployed all over the world for two to three hundred years, and most of this time was a time of great changes in the world.

And the more you live in the midst of great changes in the times, the more opportunities you have to create huge amounts of wealth.

The Rothschild family itself has relied on many great changes in the times to continuously strengthen itself and become the first family in the world today.

The development path of Po Qing Hui not only took longer than that of the Rothschild family, but was also smoother than that of the Rothschild family.

Therefore, no one knows how much assets the Qingqing Society has, maybe even more than the Rothschild family.

Howard also understood that originally the Rothschild family and the Po Qing Society were on good terms with each other, but now the situation seemed to be that his own men had forced the Po Qing Society members to death. If the Po Qing Society knew about this, they would definitely not let it go.

After all, the Rothschild family had almost no advantage before the Qing Dynasty meeting.

It is precisely because of the huge disparity in strength that Howard is extremely nervous, fearing that breaking the law will retaliate against the Rothschild family in the future.

An Qishan deliberately sighed at this time: "Brother, you don't know much about Po Qinghui. The members of this organization are, to put it bluntly, a bunch of lunatics. They are like the Japanese kamikaze team that flew planes into aircraft carriers in the late World War II. The only thing in their minds is loyalty to the emperor. For them, dying for the emperor is the supreme honor. It is completely out of the way of normal people's brains. I can't afford to offend these perverts, so I came to China. Otherwise, how could I give up my business? The U.S. market for decades? Weren't they forced me to do it?"

An Qishan laughed at himself: "I'm old and timid. If I lose my money, I can make more money. If my life is gone, I'm really gone." ."

"F*ck..." Howard's heart sank at what An Qishan said.

Although the strength of the An family is still far behind that of the Rothschild family, it is impossible for the Rothschild family to scare An Qishan into leaving the United States.

It can be seen that in An Qishan's eyes, the strength of Po Qinghui far exceeds that of the Rothschild family.

Howard was panicked and at the same time felt very helpless.

He didn't even dare to discuss it with his sons when something like this happened.

Because he knew very well that the children and grandchildren at home who had never seen any trouble would not only be unable to provide any substantial help, but might even be a disservice.

Based on his understanding of his children and grandchildren, if he told them what had happened, there would definitely be some unscrupulous idiot who would loudly shout slogans about destroying the Po Qing Hui in order to win his favor.

Therefore, he could only discuss this kind of matter with An Qishan.

After all, An Qishan is also someone who has had something to do with Po Qinghui, and can be regarded as his senior. Moreover, everyone can be regarded as a tycoon in the global business world, and their thinking and structure are all at the same level.

So, he asked very piously: "Brother, please help me analyze, what should I do now?"

An Qishan pretended to think for a moment and advised him: "Brother, there is no need to be too nervous. Now your The top priority is to do your best to block the news. As long as you don't let anyone know that Chen Zhimin's death is related to you, the resolution meeting will not necessarily pay attention to you."

Howard said uneasily: "The matter has become very big now. I don't know how many firefighters were dispatched here in New York to put out the fire. Once the fire is extinguished, the bodies in the helicopter cannot be hidden. I'm afraid that the police will investigate the matter thoroughly. After all, paper can't cover the fire. !"

An Qishan said: "Brother, I will give you an idea. You can listen to it and see if it is worth adopting."

Howard said hurriedly: "Brother, please tell me! I am all ears!"

An Qishan said: "Brother, are you here? The influence of New York is very strong. From the outside, this incident is nothing more than a fire, and it is impossible for the firefighters to know the death and injury inside until the fire is completely extinguished," "

So, I suggest you clear the relationship as soon as possible. After the firefighters put out the fire, be sure not to let them get close to the center of the fire. Send people in first to deal with the bodies of Chen Zhimin and the antique dealer." "

After all, the skin and flesh burned at high temperatures will be damaged. Carbonization may no longer exist when flooded with water, but the bones may leave residues, which is still very difficult.

As long as the bone residues are cleaned up, it will be difficult to find your head. "

Howard subconsciously asked: "Brother, do you think this is feasible?"

charlie wade - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6416

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6416

An Qishan said: "You can only gamble on your luck now. If you don't deal with it, once someone knows that someone died in the hangar, what will happen to the fire?" The nature of the incident immediately changed. Whether it was the police, the FBI, or the clearance committee, once they knew that someone had died in the hangar of my Anjia General Aviation Company, they would try their best to investigate the clues. Moreover, this general aviation company was run by Chen Zhimin. He disappeared, and the Qingqing Committee will definitely investigate with all their strength. Sooner or later, you will be unable to escape the involvement.”

After saying that, An Qishan let out a sigh of relief and said with emotion: “Oh! Thinking about it now, my decision to leave the United States was really the right one. ! If I were still in the United States, I would have nothing to do with this matter. Just checking my general aviation company would be enough to bother me. Now that our family has been away from the United States for so long, no matter where this matter is found, it will be investigated. If it doesn’t work for me, I won’t want this general aviation company!”

Howard felt envious and depressed after hearing An Qishan’s thankful words.

He also knew that An Qishan had left the United States and had no intention of coming back. Even if his family’s general aviation company burned more people to death, it would not cause him any trouble. He was not the one who burned them to death anyway, and the United States He himself has a mentality of giving up on these properties that he cannot take away.

But I can’t do it myself!

An Qishan could hide in China, but where could he hide?

Besides, the famous Rothschild family can’t even abandon their old nest just because they are looking for Peter Zhou and Sifang Baozhu!

After thinking about it, he still felt that the advice given by An Qishan was worth trying.

At this time, An Qishan comforted him and said: “Brother, you don’t have to be too nervous. As long as you can dispose of the body cleanly, you can basically sit back and relax. If the incident really comes to light, in the eyes of the Po Qing Association, in fact, with me, The relationship is greater than the relationship with you.” 138 Reading Network

Howard asked subconsciously: “Why do you say that?”

An Qishan said: “If you think about it, I have enmity with Poqinghui, this is one; Chen Zhimin is my son-in-law on the surface, this is second; General Navigation Company is my An family’s property, this is third, if Po Qing will know that Chen Zhimin died in the fire, do you think they will doubt you more or me more?”

An Qishan’s words made Howard on the other end of the phone let out a sigh of relief!

He thought to himself: “An Qishan is right! No matter how you look at it, this matter has more to do with him. As long as I can deal with the clues in this fire and hide all the people involved, who can Will you know that I did this?”

Thinking of this, he said very embarrassedly: “Brother An, this matter has nothing to do with you, but I have to ask you to bear the risk for me, how can I feel so good about it? ”

The reason why he has to be polite is because Howard knows that even if this matter can be hidden from Po Qinghui, An Qishan still knows all the inside stories. If he reveals the truth about this matter one day, Poqing Hui will Maybe he will still settle the score with himself.

Therefore, he had to test An Qishan's tone to see if he was really willing to do him this favor.

An Qishan didn't know what he was thinking, so he said nonchalantly: "Poqinghui and I have been fighting to the death for a long time, so I bear this risk for you. To put it bluntly, it's just too many lice to bite you.", Po Qing Hui was going to kill my whole family. Even if he thought I was the one who killed Chen Zhimin, what else could he do to me? He couldn't kill my whole family twice, could he?"

Howard, who has been cunning all his life, has always been a person who puts interests first. If a random person dies in the world and he gets $10,000, he will at least make a wish to God to reduce the world's population by 99.99%.

Moreover, he does not feel he is indebted to anyone.

But now, he was very grateful for An Qishan's generous help, and said with great emotion: "Brother An, thank you so much!"

An Qishan smiled slightly and said, "Brother, don't be in a hurry to thank me. I am not a vegetarian that Po Qing will exist for so many years. If Po Qing finds out that this matter is related to you, you must also be mentally prepared accordingly."

Howard's heart tightened, knowing that An Qishan said Yes, there is indeed a possibility that all this will be exposed, but now he has no choice. He must seize the time to destroy the corpses and eliminate traces, at least he can still take a gamble.

So, he said with great gratitude: "Brother An, thank you for your reminder and help. I will seize the time to do as you said. If they find out in the end, I will have to accept my fate." The two were polite . After hanging up the phone, Howard began to use his connections to find ways to destroy the body and eliminate traces.

An Qishan sent a message to charlie Wade, telling him that Howard had taken the bait.

charlie Wade asked his grandfather to scare Howard mainly so that his plan of killing four birds with one stone could be implemented perfectly.

The reason why it is said to kill four birds with one stone is that after this is accomplished, it will first torture Howard and make him sleepless and sleepless; secondly, it will make Howard think that Zhou Liangyun is dead and give up on tracing Zhou Liangyun's whereabouts; thirdly, it will also induce Howard Howard helped destroy the corpses and eliminate traces, making it more difficult to find clues. As for the final purpose, it was to drag the Rothschild family into trouble.

The moment Hank chased the General Navigation Company, the Rothschild family had already boarded Charlie Wade's pirate ship. Once they took the initiative to participate in the destruction of corpses and traces, there would really be no way out. In the future, this alone would be able to keep a tight grip on Howard.

In this way, Charlie Wade had a handle on Howard and his son Steve at the same time. No matter who wanted to betray the father and son, he had plenty of ways to deal with them!

The fire at the General Aviation Company is still burning fiercely.

More than a dozen fire trucks from several fire stations were surrounding the hangar, spraying water and fire extinguishing agents.

Fortunately, the fire in the hangar did not affect the oil storage tanks buried underground outside the hangar. The flames that soared into the sky were finally brought under control an hour later.

While firefighters were desperately fighting the fire, a heavily armed search and rescue team was ready outside the scene.

Without exception, these search and rescue personnel are all wearing protective clothing from head to toe. The protective clothing is not only waterproof, fireproof and high temperature resistant, but also has an independent oxygen supply system. With this equipment, they can even move freely through the fire scene.

Although these firefighters also have similar equipment, the equipment of these search and rescue team members is far more advanced than that of firefighters.

And this search and rescue team was sent by Howard Rothschild to destroy the corpses and eliminate traces.

When the fire was under control but not completely extinguished, the team began running in formation into the fire scene. After arriving at the fire scene, they found the helicopter that had been burned into a metal frame, and then began to carefully remove the unburned human bones inside the helicopter. Pack it.

Because firefighters continued to spray large amounts of water into the hangar in order to control the fire, there were not many ashes left inside the helicopter at this time, and most of the ashes flowed into the sewer along with the water.

However, these search and rescue team members did not take it lightly. They found the original fire hydrant in the hangar at the fire scene, then connected the water source with the hose they carried, and began to continue meticulous high-pressure cleaning of the cabin and the ground.

By the time the fire was completely extinguished, they had washed away all the ashes on the site, and packed all the bones into black sealed bags with very strong confidentiality and sealing properties.

Just in case, they also secretly sprayed a large amount of acidic liquid on the site that could destroy DNA. After being corroded by this liquid, even if there is still a tiny amount of DNA remaining on the site, after such cleaning, it is absolutely guaranteed to be foolproof.

Subsequently, the search and rescue team withdrew all the skeletons from the fire scene. Only then did the firefighters enter the scene and confirm that there were no traces of victims at this time. So the fire department issued an accident appraisal report and determined that the fire did not cause any injuries. Casualties.

After the search and rescue team took all the bones away from the scene, all the bones were manually smashed into fine powder and dumped into New York's famous Hudson River at the moment the sun rose.

Chen Zhimin and Sean, one of the four great earls of Po Qinghui, completely disappeared from this world.

After his men finished doing all this, Howard finally breathed a sigh of relief.

He didn't know if what he did was really perfect, but he also knew that he had tried his best, and the rest could only be left to fate.

At five o'clock in the morning in North America, Charlie Wade took Zhou Liangyun on Steve Rothschild's helicopter and arrived in Ottawa, the capital of Canada, in the last darkness before dawn.

This time, the Nordic royal family has booked a medium-sized hotel in the suburbs of Ottawa, and the service staff have been replaced by the royal family's own entourage, so security and privacy are greatly guaranteed.

As a result, Steve's helicopter landed directly on the helipad on the roof of the third floor of the hotel.

At this time, Helena, wearing a black windbreaker, had been waiting on the roof for a long time.

Before the helicopter landed, Charlie Wade had already seen Helena looking forward to it below.

She was still so beautiful, and her long hair swayed in the wind under the helicopter's airflow, but she didn't care at all. She just raised her head with an expectant look on her face and stared at the descending helicopter without blinking.

The way she raised her head excitedly and let her hair brush her face made her look a little more casual and wild than usual.

The moment she saw charlie Wade, Helena was as excited as a girl, and her joy and happiness were beyond words. She looked up at charlie Wade's handsome face and said shyly: "Meet Mr. Wade again!"

charlie Wade smiled slightly and said sincerely: "Helena, asking you to come to Canada temporarily from Northern Europe for my sake is really causing trouble for you."

Helena said hurriedly: "Mr. Wade is too polite. As long as you say something, no one in the Nordic royal family will dare to disobey you. This little thing doesn't matter."

With that said, Helena looked at Zhou Liangyun next to charlie Wade and asked charlie Wade: "Mr. Wade, is this the Mr. Zhou you told me about before?"

charlie Wade nodded and said: "Yes, let me introduce to you, this is Mr. Peter Zhou."

After that, he said to Zhou Liangyun: "Uncle Zhou, this is the Nordic Queen Helena I told you."

Zhou Liangyun said very politely: "Hello, Your Majesty the Queen, I watched your coronation ceremony on TV and I was deeply impressed!"

Helena quickly said humbly: "Mr. Zhou, you are Mr. Wade's uncle. Don't be so polite to me, and don't call me Your Majesty. Just call me Helena."

After saying that, she tentatively asked: "Mr. Zhou, I wonder if I can call you Uncle Zhou like Mr. Wade, so that it doesn't seem so awkward."

Zhou Liangyun was also a little flattered and said hurriedly: "Your Majesty the Queen, you are too polite. You can call me whatever you want."

Helena smiled and said: "Uncle Zhou, in private, please just call me by my name Helena."

Zhou Liangyun nodded slightly and agreed.

charlie Wade said at this time: "Helena, I have something to trouble you. I want Uncle Zhou to quietly follow your royal family's special plane back to Northern Europe. Then you can help me prepare a Nordic passport for Uncle Zhou so that he can Return to China with a new identity."

Helena nodded without thinking and said: "No problem! Leave it to me. I will return to Northern Europe in two days. Mr. Zhou can get used to it in my team during these two days."

Zhou Liangyun bowed slightly to Helena and said sincerely: "Thank you very much, Helena."

Helena smiled sweetly: "You are too polite."

Steve Rothschild on the side couldn't help feeling a little depressed when he saw Helena chatting so happily with charlie Wade and Zhou Liangyun.

He is also a master of love affairs, so he can naturally see that Helena's feelings for Charlie Wade are not ordinary, but from the look in Helena's eyes at Charlie Wade, he knows that it is basically impossible for his son to get together with her.

Moreover, what makes Steve even more depressed is that Helena will turn her eyes to Zhou Liangyun out of respect when talking to him. At other times, her beautiful eyes will almost always stay on Charlie Wade. He and Charlie Wade got off the helicopter almost at the same time, but Helena didn't even look at herself from the beginning to the end.

It can be seen that Helena has reached the point of infatuation with Charlie Wade.

At this time, Marven was the first to think of Steve, and introduced to Helena: "By the way, Helena, let me introduce to you, the person next to me is Steve Roth from the famous Rothschild family. Mr. Child, from now on Mr. Steve will be my strategic partner. If the Nordic royal family needs help from the Rothschild family, you can just ask him, and he will definitely not refuse."

Steve was a little dissatisfied when he saw Charlie Wade praising him so much, but he could only smile and said: "Mr. Wade is right, Helena, if you ever need me and the Rothschild family in the future, just ask."

Helena nodded politely, then looked at Charlie Wade again, and said impatiently: "Mr. Wade, it's getting dark soon. It's somewhat inconvenient to talk here. You'd better go to my room to talk. I've asked him to have someone prepare breakfast for you in advance, and we can chat while eating!"

After saying that, she looked at Zhou Liangyun and Steve on the side, and said: "I asked my assistant to prepare an empty room specially. I can arrange for Mr. Zhou and Mr. Rothschild to move there to rest first. I will also have breakfast." What do you think about asking people to prepare it and bring it over as soon as possible?"

No data found.

When Steve heard Helena's arrangement, he knew that the queen wanted to be alone with Charlie Wade and live in a world of two. If he was wise, he had better obey the arrangement.

Moreover, Steve also knew in his heart that looking at the situation in front of him, his son would definitely have no chance of winning Helena's heart. The Rothschild family could also completely stop thinking about marrying with the Nordic royal family.

Steve's advantage is that he is more aware of current affairs. Since something is no longer possible, he will definitely not waste any energy or plant any trouble for himself.

So, he said to Helena very politely, "Everything is arranged by Her Majesty the Queen." Helena called the personal housekeeper she had trained and told her, "Take the two gentlemen to the room to rest first."

The young housekeeper immediately said "Okay, Your Majesty the Queen."

After that, he said to Zhou Liangyun and Steve, "You two, please come with me."

The two followed Helena's housekeeper and left, and then Helena said to charlie Wade, "Mr. Wade, what are you doing?" Please."

charlie Wade nodded slightly and followed Helena to her room.

Helena stayed in the largest suite in the hotel. Although the area was not as large as the average presidential suite, it was very spacious and comfortable for one person.

Helena has prepared a sumptuous Western-style breakfast in the dining room of the suite, and even had the restaurant carefully decorated, including tableware, tablecloths, and even the middle of the dining table. The flowers are carefully selected and prepared.

Although she got cold feet when she slept with charlie Wade last time, at heart she was a passionate and unrestrained Nordic girl who dared to love and hate, so even though she was now the queen, she still made no secret of her feelings for charlie Wade. Chen's love.

charlie Wade, on the other hand, felt a little uncomfortable with her direct gaze, so he quickly spoke up to break the silence and said, "Helena, I'm really grateful that you have done so much for me this time. It's a temporary change." Did the schedule of the visit cause you any trouble?"

Helena smiled slightly and said faintly, "Why is Mr. Wade so polite now? You gave me and my mother's lives, and it was also because of you that my grandma was able to wake up. , you are the great benefactor of the entire Nordic royal family, it doesn't matter if we do such a small thing for you."

After saying that, Helena added, "If Mr. Wade still needs me to do anything else, I will definitely do it without hesitation."

charlie Wade nodded and said with a smile, "Then I won't be polite to you. I may need you to go to New York in person in the next two days to meet the patriarch of the Rothschild family."

Helena didn't even have any When he had questions, he directly said, "No problem, Helena will do whatever Mr. Wade asked Helena to do."

charlie Wade nodded slightly, took out a blood-dispersing and heart-saving pill, handed it to Helena, and said, "This pill I prepared the medicine for Howard, the patriarch of the Rothschild family. New York has not been very peaceful recently. A lot of things may happen today. Maybe later, Howard's physical condition will be in big trouble. This medicine At that time, I may need you to help me bring it to him. You must seize the time to make an appointment with him tomorrow to prevent him from closing the door and thanking guests after he has physical problems."

Helena was a little surprised. "Mr. Wade, you are so old. Why don't you give it to him yourself?"

charlie wade - The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6420

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6420

charlie Wade smiled and said, "It's useless for me to ask for his favor, not to mention I don't want him to know my existence."

After saying that, charlie Wade said again, "Besides, This elixir is not given to him for free, it requires money."

Helena pursed her lips and smiled, and said softly, "I understand, you want me to help you sell this elixir to him."

"Yes." charlie Wade nodded and said, "I just want you to help me sell goods. When you see him, take out this blood-dispersing and heart-saving pill, cut off a tenth of it and give it to him, and wait until he knows After this is a good thing, you can sell the rest to him. As for the price, you will always have to charge him one or two billion US dollars. If you can sell it for more, that would be even better."

Helena He immediately understood what charlie Wade meant and said with a smile, "Okay Mr. Wade, I understand. When the time comes, just leave me an account. After I negotiate the price with him, let him pay you. The minimum cannot be lower." More than 20 billion."

"No need." charlie Wade waved his hand and said casually, "Go and talk to him, and keep the benefits for yourself."

Helena was surprised and waved her hand quickly, "No, no, Mr. Wade, The elixir belongs to you, and the money obtained from the realization is also yours. How can I ask for your money..."

charlie Wade smiled and said, "Helena, let me tell you the truth, your Nordic royal family is the most powerful person in the entire Europe. The poorest in the royal family, the population is also the most declining;"

"Although your popularity is very high now, as the queen of the royal family, it is difficult for you to do business of monetizing traffic like ordinary people. You can't be like Like those Internet celebrities in China, will they eventually go to live broadcasts to sell goods? Ugly looks are very unpopular;"

"So, in the end, you still need enough funds to maintain and enhance the influence and hard power of the Nordic royal family, otherwise once your popularity In the past, the Nordic royal family would fall into silence again. At that time, it would be difficult to increase their influence. "

Helena knew that charlie Wade was telling the truth, but she still said very firmly, "Mr. Wade, you have helped us so much, and you have also helped us attract a lot of investment in Northern Europe. This kindness from the Nordic royal family I don't know how to repay it. How can I let you spend more money at this time..."

charlie Wade smiled and said, "Well, you just sell the goods for me. According to our current charging standards for goods in China, it's one hundred yuan. Things cost almost 10 yuan, traffic delivery is 50 yuan, anchor fees are 10 yuan, logistics, labor and return costs are 20 yuan, and profit is 10 yuan. We will sell a blood-sparing pill to save the heart. The cost is 10 yuan, and the logistics is up to you. , The labor is mine, and there is no such thing as return or non-refund, and the traffic cost will also be converted to you, so it is just you and me, three, very reasonable, right? "

Helena said helplessly, "Mr. Wade... something as good as the Blood-Spreading and Heart-Rescuing Pill does not require any data charges at all, and I am just bringing it to Howard for you. How can He De return your money..." "

Speaking, Helena said seriously, "If you really feel that you need to pay me for my hard work, then we can just negotiate reasonably. I will spend a day to help you do this. After the matter is completed, you will also spend a day by me. I dominate. " charlie Wade smiled and said, "As long as the money issue is settled, it will be a trivial matter. "

Helena said anxiously, "Didn't we agree on an equal exchange? I would like to exchange one day of my own time for one day of yours. " charlie Wade said, "This can only be used as an additional clause. The conditions for its establishment must be based on the agreement on the main clauses. "

Helena thought for a moment, then pursed her lips and said, "Then I will give you nine.

charlie Wade shook his head, "I am six and you are four. " "

Helena said, "Then you and I will do the same. "
