

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6426

Hearing the other party's answer, Sara's heart suddenly sank deeper.

Both Chen Zhimin and Sean disappeared in this hospital, and Chen Zhimin's assistant died in this hospital. It doesn't take much to think about it, it must be the work of enemies secretly.

Now there was only one corpse left among the three people, and the other two seemed to have disappeared from the world, which made Sara extremely uneasy.

Thinking that Chen Zhimin's assistant was found dead in the morning, and that Chen Zhimin and Sean disappeared here in the early morning and before dawn, Sara speculated that if they had been attacked, the other party should have eliminated Chen Zhimin and Sean first Uncle, and then killed Chen Zhimin's assistant.

She couldn't help but ask herself in her heart: "Why didn't the other party let go of Chen Zhimin's assistant who was hit by a car? What threat would a patient lying on the hospital bed bring to him? Has the assistant seen him?"

Thinking of this, she immediately asked the policeman: "Is there any evidence to prove that the deceased was murdered?"

The policeman shook his head and said: "It is currently speculated that it was homicide, but no direct evidence has been found yet. Today we started to investigate morphine from various departments of Manhattan Hospital. Use the situation and see if we can find clues."

Sara asked: "How long will it take?"

The police thought for a while: "Now a considerable part of the New York police force is cooperating with the Rothschild family to find their stolen antiques, so this The progress of the investigation of this case should be relatively slow, at least two or three months, my personal estimate."

"Two or three months?!" Sara gritted her teeth in hatred and asked: "Have you grasped the situation from yesterday to today? "Early surveillance video?"

The policeman said truthfully: "This morning we found that all the surveillance video has been destroyed."

Sara asked again: "Can the data be restored?"

The policeman shook his head and said: "It can't be restored, the other party's methods are very Professional, all storage devices were completely destroyed. After assessment by professionals, they determined that not even a single byte could be recovered."

Sara was furious.

She had just used her spiritual energy to search the entire Manhattan Hospital, and could not detect any trace of spiritual energy, which proved that the other party had already handled the scene very cleanly.

Now even the surveillance video has been completely destroyed and cannot be restored, which means that the other party has cut off the clues from the perspective of criminal investigation.

She suppressed the nervousness in her heart and asked the policeman: "Then do you know about Chen Zhimin's movements?"

"No." The policeman said truthfully: "We have tried many ways to contact Chen Zhimin, but there has been no news. We speculate that He has disappeared."

Sara's expression was extremely gloomy.

She never expected that she would arrive in New York with great expectations, thinking that she would be able to take advantage of the opportunity to obtain the most precious treasure, the Sifang Baozhuang. However, she did not expect that before any news about the Sifang Baozhuang could be found, two of her generals disappeared at the same time, and they were also missing. No clues were left.

Angry, she asked again: "Chen Zhimin disappeared here early this morning. Don't you know how he left the hospital?" "

No." The policeman said truthfully: "All the surveillance videos are gone. To find out his clues, we can only rely on criminal investigation experts to search the scene bit by bit. However, the clues at the scene have also been destroyed. Not even a complete footprint or fingerprint can be extracted, so it is not yet known how they left. ."

As a confidant of Howard Rothschild, although Hank does not know Eastern martial arts, he is a very professional top agent and is very good at handling various traces and clues. charlie Wade asked him to stay here yesterday The end is to clear up all these clues so that the police and Sara can't find any breakthrough point for a while.

Sara also felt a deep sense of powerlessness. She thought of the Sifang Baozhuang and asked again: "Was the antique dealer named Zhou Peter protected here by you before? Where is he now?"

Then The policeman said: "Peter Zhou was acquitted and released last night. The police and FBI who protected him also evacuated overnight, and then he disappeared."

Sara frowned even more tightly and cursed in her heart: "We two The general is missing, and the antique dealer is also missing. Could it be that the mysterious enemy is also targeting the Sifang Baozhuang?!" "

Yes! That must be the case! The mysterious man has a close relationship with the Master, and maybe he also knows the origin of the Sifang Baozhuang. And the purpose, could it be that this matter was preempted by him?!"

When she thought of this, Sara felt as anxious as an ant on a hot pot.

Sean and Chen Zhimin were important to her, but they were nothing compared to the four treasures that could influence the world.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6427

The Sifang Baozhuang can influence the state of the Tang Dynasty. If she can get the Baobao, the fortune of Poqinghui will be greatly boosted, and its strength may be doubled; and for Sara, more importantly, If Po Qinghui's fortune skyrockets, Sara's personal fortune will surely be unmatched by anyone.

She felt that she had not been very lucky in the process of searching for the secret of immortality and the key to the next five hundred years of life. Recently, the Po Qing Society was repeatedly attacked by an enemy hiding in the dark, and even Sara was tortured. Having trouble sleeping and eating, these things all revealed the fact that Sara's fortune had begun to decline sharply.

Although Sara is very strong, she has lived for four hundred years. Her fate is like a towering tree that has grown for four hundred years. The four hundred annual rings are constantly strengthening it. It has already become as strong as iron. She couldn't resolve it herself.

Even if a Feng Shui master like Orion Exeor was called over, he would not be able to resolve her fate dilemma in the face of such a super destiny with four hundred years of buffs.

Therefore, Sara felt that her destiny dilemma could only be resolved by a national treasure like the Sifang Baozhu.

Because of this, when she came to New York this time, she had already made up her mind to get the Sifang Baozhu no matter what, and she absolutely could not afford to lose this point.

It was precisely because she was determined to win the Sifang Baozhu that she asked Chen Zhimin and Sean to keep an eye on the antique dealer.

After all, in her opinion, the antique dealer is the only clue to find the Sifang Baozhuang. As long as he can pry open his mouth, she will definitely get the whereabouts of the Sifang Baozhuang.

But now the whereabouts of the Sifang Baozhu are unknown, and the only antique dealer who knows the clues also disappeared a few hours ago. The clues about the Sifang Baozhu have been completely cut off!

Sara, furious, saw that the police officer in front of her could no longer give any valuable clues, so she looked at another police officer and asked coldly: "Do you have any clues to add to the questions I just asked?"

The policeman shook his head and said: "I have nothing to add."

Sara looked disappointed and said to the two of them in a cold voice: "You two, remember, don't mention your encounter with me to anyone. If you have any progress or clues here, just go to the Starbucks opposite the hospital and find me."

The two policemen's eyes were still empty, but their expressions were very firm and they nodded their heads respectfully: "Remember!"

Sara ignored them. , turned around and walked out of the hospital.

Jadiel was waiting outside the hospital. Seeing Sara come out so quickly, he quickly stepped forward and asked in a low voice: "Master Ying, why did you come out so quickly? Did you find any clues?"

Sara shook her head gloomily. She now felt that everything seemed impossible, but she couldn't give up just yet, so she coldly ordered Jadiel: "Go and inform Wu Yongzhen of the Zuo Army Governor's Mansion and ask him to mobilize the Zuo Army Governor." All the intelligence networks of the government in the United States will be used to find the whereabouts of Chen Zhimin, Uncle Sean, and the antique dealer at all costs! If anyone can find them, I will reward them heavily!"

Jadiel said hurriedly: "Okay, Lord Ying, I will inform you right away. Him!"

After that, Jadiel asked again: "Master Ying, do you need your subordinates to arrange a hotel for temporary accommodation?"

Sara shook her head, pointed to the Starbucks across the road and said: "Go there, I want to have a cup of coffee. "

Jadiel quickly followed Sara across the street, came to the Starbucks store and found a window seat to sit down.

Afterwards, Jadiel diligently ordered a cup of iced Americano for Sara, brought it to Sara respectfully, and then said: "Master Ying, Wu Yongzhen has already started taking action." "

Okay." Sara nodded, and the cup of coffee , but instead of drinking, he kept looking through the window at the Manhattan Hospital Building outside the window.

Immediately afterwards, she saw a policeman running out in a hurry, it was the one she had questioned before.

Seeing the other person running towards the Starbucks where she was, she suddenly felt happy and thought to herself: "Maybe I have found a clue?"

Thinking of this, Sara silently recited the magic formula in her heart and released a little spiritual energy. All the guests in the Starbucks, They were all instantly controlled by her, turning a blind eye and a deaf ear to everything she said.

Soon, the policeman ran into Starbucks. When he saw Sara, he quickly ran to her and said respectfully: "We have just confirmed something."

Sara said coldly: "Speak quickly!"

The policeman Truthfully said: "Some patients reported that I heard the sound of a helicopter above the hospital early this morning!"

Sara frowned: "Could it be that they escaped by helicopter?"

Thinking of this, she immediately said to Jadiel on the side: " Inform Wu Yongzhen to thoroughly check all the helicopters owned by the An family to see which one has visited Manhattan Hospital early this morning!"

No data found.

The main area covered by the Zuojun Governor's Office is the Americas, with North America having better economic development as the top priority. The An family itself is the second largest family in North America, and Chen Zhimin has been an undercover agent in the Po Qing Society for many years, so they He knew everything about Anjia's situation.

Sara asked them to investigate Anjia's helicopter, and they immediately focused their attention on Anjia's general aviation company.

Wu Yongzhen gave an order, and all the more than a thousand scouts from the Left Army Governor's Office who had been dormant in the United States and had been completely silent for many days were dispatched.

A small number of them began to look for clues about Chen Zhimin and Sean, while more people infiltrated all over New York to look for clues about the Rothschild family's stolen antique.

At the same time, the scouts closest to the general aviation company have gone to the general aviation company site as quickly as possible to conduct investigations.

Scouts are the scouts directly affiliated with the Fifth Army Governor's Mansion within the Qing Dynasty. They are an important channel for obtaining intelligence in the Fifth Army Governor's Mansion.

Every scout has undergone extremely professional and rigorous training by the Po Qing Association, and all of them must take poison to ensure their loyalty to the Po Qing Association.

In less than half an hour, the nearest scouts had already rushed to the scene of Anjia's general navigation company.

It doesn't matter if we go there, the scouts immediately discovered that a fire broke out in Anjia's general navigation company last night, and the fire seemed to have been put out not long ago.

After inquiring, we learned that a fire broke out in one of the helicopter hangars in the early morning. One helicopter was destroyed in the fire. No casualties were found at the scene.

The scout realized that the situation was unusual and immediately reported the news to his superiors.

After the Zuojun Governor's Office learned the news, while feeding it back to Jadiel, he immediately activated his high-authority undercover agent hidden in the New York State Assembly to gain an in-depth understanding of the fire situation.

After Jadiel received the news, he reported to Sarahui with a solemn expression: "Your Majesty, the Zuo Army Governor's Office has received news that a fire broke out in the general aviation company where An's family is located in New York in the early morning, destroying a helicopter, but no casualties have been found yet."

Sara immediately frowned and said sternly: "Fire, another fire! Twenty years ago, Bruce Wade and Lydia (Ava) (Charlie's mom) also died in a fire! To this day, I have no way of determining who died in that fire. Individuals, are they two of them?"

After saying that, she said with a gloomy expression: "Bruce Wade's fire is to make me unable to confirm. This time, they want me to have nowhere to start! If this fire No one died this time, why did the other party set this fire?"

Jadiel nodded: "The fire in the hangar must not be a coincidence, it must be to cover up some clues."

After that, he said with a solemn expression: "That time in Cyprus, the other party just destroyed it directly. The entire copper mine was lost. If time had not been rushed, they might not even have left us the body parts of Jian Gongbo. Last time it was an explosion, this time it was a fire. It seems that the situation is not optimistic!"

Sara immediately asked: "Are there any other clues?!"

Jadiel said hurriedly: "Back to the British Master, Wu Yongzhen has activated the highest level undercover agent and will definitely find out as quickly as possible!"

Sara nodded lightly and said coldly: "Order All the scouts of the Right Army Dudu's Mansion stationed in Europe arrive in New York as soon as possible. All the scouts of the Central Army, the Front Army, and the Rear Army Dudu's Mansion have entered the first level of combat readiness and will arrive in New York before noon tomorrow! I want to conduct a carpet search in New York, and we must send people Find clues about antiques and antiques!"

Jadiel said immediately: "I obey!"

New York scouts quickly found some valuable clues. The first clue was that the surveillance system of the General Navigation Company was hacked last night. Ordered all to be shut down, so no monitoring records were left within the general aviation company, and the person who ordered the shutdown to be monitored turned out to be Chen Zhimin himself.

Immediately afterwards, the general aviation company's on-site scouts sent back news. Since the scene was almost completely burned, it was indeed difficult to find valuable clues. They sent people to sneak into the fire scene, took advantage of the chaos to collect some samples from the scene, and used luminol Reagents for rapid testing.

Luminol reagent is one of the most common detection methods in criminal investigation. It can use special chemical reactions to cause the hemoglobin in the blood to react with it to emit blue light, thereby identifying the presence of blood. Even trace amounts of blood stains after cleaning can be detected. can show up.

However, the entire scene had been specially cleaned by professionals from the Rothschild family. Not to mention that the blood stains could not be detected, even the DNA had been removed, so the scouts did not find any evidence of the presence of anyone at the fire scene.

After Jadiel conveyed this result to Sara, Sara immediately frowned and asked: "There are really no casualties at the fire scene?!"

Jadiel replied: "Back to the Lord, so far, no clues related to personnel have been found at the scene, not even a single thread. Not even a hair burned by the fire was found."

Sara said coldly: "It's impossible. Since the other party set the fire, it must be to destroy the clues, otherwise why bother? In a master's game, no move will be useless. Yes!"

After saying that, Sara said again: "Let them check again quickly! Check the employees of the general aviation company, who was on duty yesterday, who they saw, and what was unusual. Ask them all!"

Jadiel said hurriedly: "Okay Your Majesty, I will tell you now!"

Soon, the scout followed Sara's request, made some inquiries and sent back the news.

After Jadiel received the news, he was shocked and quickly reported to Sara: "Master Ying, there is news! Late last night, Chen Zhimin personally arranged the helicopter. He asked the pilot of the General Aviation Company to fly the helicopter to the vicinity of Manhattan Hospital. The helicopter received After that, he went directly to the roof of Manhattan Hospital."

Sara frowned: "Then what?"

Jadiel said: "Then Chen Zhimin sent the pilot away. He meant that he could control the helicopter by himself, and the pilot did not dare Disobedient, he left the helicopter with him and left directly."

Sara asked again: "What other clues did the pilot know?"

"No." Jadiel said: "After the pilot left the hospital, he took a taxi home to rest. Today He was summoned by the police to assist in the investigation." As he spoke, Jadiel added: "The police also investigated the employees on duty in the hangar early this morning. The other party said that before dawn, Chen Zhimin drove the helicopter back to the general aviation company alone, and he towed the helicopter After entering the hangar, Chen Zhimin sent him away. It didn't take long for the hangar to catch fire, and the fire was very big as soon as it started, as if it was man-made."

Sara was silent for a moment, then said dejectedly: "It seems like Chen Zhimin Uncle He Sean should be dead. I really didn't expect that the four great earls under my Po Qing Hui, who had been in the world for decades without a single defeat, would all fall one after another in such a short period of time."

Speaking of this, she shook her head . He clenched his fists and growled with a ferocious expression: “The most unacceptable thing to me is that four counts died. I didn’t even touch the shadow of each other. Whose name was he and how many people were under his command? I don’t know these. I don’t know anything! In more than three hundred years, except for the time when I was chased into the Hundred Thousand Mountains by the Qing army, I have never been as passive as I am today! Damn it!”

Jadiel’s expression was a little sad, but more of a worry.

The death of the four great earls will inevitably have a huge impact on the entire Qing Dynasty, and will make himself, the three elders, and the Wu family who command the Fifth Army Governor’s Mansion doubt and worry about the future.

Once doubts arise in everyone’s mind, the stability that has lasted for three hundred years will be broken from within.

At this time, Jadiel suddenly received a call, and then his face changed drastically, and he blurted out to Sara: “Master Ying! The Zuo Army Governor’s Office came to report that it was found that Chen Zhimin chartered a business jet and took off from New York in the early morning of this morning. Went to China!”

”What?!” Sara’s heart skipped a beat and she blurted out: “Is this serious?!” “It’s absolutely true!” Jadiel said firmly: “He was indeed the one who chartered the plane, and the route application was from New York. Feiyanjing, the plane has taken off for more than three hours now!”

Sara’s heart tightened and asked: “Do you think Chen Zhimin is on that plane?!”

Jadiel blurted out: “Master Ying, my subordinates don’t dare to It’s too much to say, but the time when this plane took off was too coincidental, and the antique dealer also disappeared. It cannot be ruled out that Chen Zhimin controlled the antique dealer first, and then got the treasure you wanted and took it with him. The possibility of the treasure escaping to China...”

At this point, Jadiel overturned his guess, shook his head and said: “No, Chen Zhimin has always been valued by you, and his parents, siblings are in our hands, he will never dare to betray You, not to mention, he himself needs to take the antidote regularly. Without the antidote, even if he betrays you, how many days can he survive? No matter how you look at it, there is no need to betray you!"

Sara shook her head: "Today's The situation is no longer the same as it was in the past three hundred years. In the past three hundred years, I have never encountered any opponent, nor have I encountered anyone who can detoxify the poison I made. But now, we have a strong opponent. Maybe he has a way to detoxify!"

Speaking of this, Sara added: "Think about it, that time in Cyprus, the entire copper mine was destroyed, but only the body tissue of Jian Gongbo was found. This proves that, The other party had already transferred the others alive, otherwise he could have blown everyone to death in the copper mine. Why would those dead soldiers and knightly guards be willing to be transferred by him when they knew that they could not live for more than a month without an antidote? Get out? It's very possible that the other party has detoxified them!"

Jadiel looked stern and asked quickly: "Master Ying, do we want to find a way to stop that plane?!"

"Stop! We must stop it! "Sara said without thinking: "Let our people who have infiltrated the US intelligence system report their real names to the US Department of Homeland Security, saying that someone carried important secrets and fled to China on that plane, and acted in a way that Americans would rather believe them. Style, that plane will definitely be ordered to return for investigation!"

Jadiel said subconsciously: "Master Ying, you can just find someone to report this kind of thing anonymously. If we let the person we infiltrated report it with a real name, then he might Expose yourself."

"It doesn't matter." Sara said expressionlessly: "Tell him that this is a good opportunity for him to make a contribution. After reporting the report, let him commit suicide directly. After his death, his family can take care of themselves in peace. ;"

"As long as he dies, not only will he not be exposed, but the Americans will become even more convinced that there is something behind it. In that case, even if they send out the air force, they will definitely get the plane back!”

The U.S. Department of Homeland Security received a very important tip early in the morning.

An agent affiliated with the U.S. Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) reported to the National Security Agency under his real name, claiming that someone on a business jet that took off from New York a few hours ago was heading to China carrying highly confidential information related to defense chips.

The National Security Agency receives many similar messages every day through various channels, but experience has proven that most of them are false, and some are even hoaxes.

However, this tip came from an agent from a brother department, and the credibility was immediately increased infinitely.

After all, we are all colleagues and we all know the seriousness of national defense work, and it is about our own jobs and corresponding legal responsibilities. No one will joke about this kind of thing. /

Just when the National Security Bureau was preparing to discuss countermeasures, another piece of news came that shocked them. The DIA agent who provided the information actually fell from the building and died!

Although it is not yet possible to determine whether the agent committed suicide or was murdered, based on his reaction just now, everyone in the Department of Homeland Security felt like a thorn in their backs, and instinctively believed that there must be a big conspiracy.

So, they carried out emergency deployment as quickly as possible and formulated an emergency plan.

First of all, the target plane must be ordered to turn around and return; secondly, in view of the 911 incident more than 20 years ago, in order to prevent the other party from making irrational behavior, the other party cannot be allowed to return to the bustling metropolis of New York. Therefore, the Security Bureau at the US-Canada border They found a small airport in northern Vermont and asked the other party to land at the designated airport.

Once again, they sent agents, police, and troops to the airport to make complete preparations. At the same time, the Vermont National Guard sent two F35s to take off in advance to Canadian airspace to pick them up. Pilot and accompany the aircraft until the target aircraft lands at the designated airport to avoid accidents to the greatest extent.

After the plane landed, the police and agents took full control of the plane, arrested and interrogated all personnel on the plane, and used the most professional means to conduct the most detailed inspection of the plane.

At this moment, this ultra-long-range private jet leased by Chen Zhimin is flying over the Hudson Bay in Canada.

Although the plane had been flying for more than three hours, it had only flown one-fifth of the fifteen-hour long flight.

Its flight route is from the sky over Canada, then through the Bering Strait between the United States and Russia, and via the sky over Japan to Eastcliff.

According to the original route from New York to Eastcliff, it only took them thirteen hours to complete the flight. However, because the war in Eastern Europe had not yet been extinguished, the route needed to detour over Russia, which added an additional two hours to the flight.

For such a long route, the charter flight cost alone would be more than 2 million yuan, but at this time, except for the crew members, there was not even a single passenger in the cabin.

At this time, the crew members had already turned on the autopilot, allowing the aircraft to fly smoothly at an altitude of 11,000 meters. However, at this time, they suddenly received radio communications from ground air traffic control, requiring them to immediately return to the Hudson Bay. Completed the turn, returned to the United States, and landed as required at a small airport north of Burlington, Vermont.

The city of Burlington is only 60 kilometers away from the US-Canada border, and the small airport in its north is even less than 20 kilometers away from the border.
