1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6456

The doctor's words made Howard begin to re-examine the matter of Sifang Baozhuang.

It is true that I have suffered heavy losses for the Sifang Baozhu, and even my own health. However, if I still hold on to it now, objectively speaking, it will only expand the losses, and there will never be any chance to make up for the losses.

Therefore, the most reasonable thing at the moment is to stop the loss in time. All the previous investment will be in vain. You must recognize, accept and accept it in your heart. As long as you can hold on and not expand losses from today, this is the current situation. Find the best solution.

After all, he is the manager of a top family and a capital master who is well versed in investment. Howard realized that something was impossible, and he immediately firmly established the concept of stopping losses in time.

So, he called his fourth son, David, and told him: "Say hello to all departments and end all blockades on New York. From now on, no one is allowed to mention the matter of Sifang Baozhuang."

"Okay father." David nodded and informed quickly.

The comprehensive sea, land and air blockade that had been imposed on New York by various U.S. departments was lifted after David made a phone call.

This also means that the Rothschild family has completely given up on the Sifang Palace.

Two hours later, Steve took his son Royce and flew back to the Rothschild Manor after a dusty journey.

As soon as the father and son got off the helicopter, they hurried to the special care unit of the medical center to visit their old man.

At this time, basically all the core members of the Rothschild family in New York have rushed back, and others are already on their way back to New York from all over the world.

They were standing guard in the living room outside the ward, sitting on the sofa, standing at the window, or pacing back and forth, but no one spoke.

They have different rights and responsibilities in the Rothschild family, but at the moment, they all feel the same frustration.

As Steve's sons and grandsons, none of them wanted Steve to have a major physical change.

This is not because they are very filial, but they know that once the old man is ill, the rights will inevitably fall into the hands of the eldest brother as the heir. When their father is the emperor, they can sit back and relax, but when their brother is the emperor, they can't sleep at all. Not practical.

At this moment, Steve hurried in with Royce.

When everyone saw the father and son coming, they all hurriedly came forward and looked at him respectfully, as if they were waiting for you, eldest brother, to take charge of the overall situation.

What's more, David directly stepped forward and took Steve's hand, choking and saying: "Brother, you are finally here! Everyone is waiting for you to make the decision. If you don't come, none of us will have a backbone." ..."

Others scolded David bloody in their hearts.

Damn it, everyone wants to be a dog wagging its tail and begging for mercy. Why are you the first to stick out your tongue and lick it?

So, everyone could only echo in a few words: "Yes, brother, we are all waiting for you to come!"

In fact, these people misunderstood David.

In fact, David did not take the initiative to lick Steve, his elder brother. He had studied "Sun Tzu's Art of War" some time ago, and also studied some ancient Chinese political works. He deliberately wanted to take this opportunity to praise Steve, and he first tried his best to praise him. He lets him float, and the higher he floats, the more likely he is to make mistakes.

After all, the old man is not dead yet, and he has great power. At this time, if the eldest brother Steve makes a mistake because he is praised by everyone, he will probably be thrown into the cold palace by the old man.

In fact, David didn't want to compete for the position of heir. He just felt that the old man's continued reign was the best situation for his sons who were not heirs. It was much better than any brother succeeding to the throne.

When Steve saw so many brothers surrounding him like stars, he naturally felt particularly happy.

In the past few decades, everyone has been brothers, and there has always been no class gap between them. Now, he is finally going to take that crucial step. From now on, these people will no longer be his brothers, but his ministers.

However, when Steve came, he had just been warned by Charlie Wade, and the corner of his mouth that could not be suppressed was suppressed, and his impetuous and excited heart also calmed down a lot, so at this time, he was complimented by everyone, although he benefited, but his brows were always furrowed, with a look of anxiety and sadness on his face.

Immediately, he shook his head with a painful expression and said: "You idiots must remember that at any time, my father is the only leader of the Rothschild family, the backbone of all of us, and the entire family. The hope of the Rothschilds."

All those who had falsely complimented Steve were stunned at this moment.

The first thought that comes to everyone's mind is, Ouch?

The Steve at this moment is no longer the Steve they were familiar with. The current Steve is a bit scary because of his deep city. He can say such words immediately. Is he still a human being?

At this time, Steve asked very anxiously: "Can any of you tell me how my father is doing now? What did the medical team say? Can I go in to visit his old man?"

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6457

Steve asked several questions in a row, quickly, loudly and emotionally. To the ears of the other brothers, it was like the British soldiers in World War I heard the craziness of the German Maxim heavy machine guns firing nearly a thousand rounds per minute. roar.

David was the most panicked. He really didn't expect that everyone would praise Steve, but Steve would not accept this at all.

Not only did he not accept this trick, but he suddenly came up with a counter-attack.

As long as the old man hears his rapid fire of Maxim, in the old man's opinion, it means that he and the other brothers ignored the old man on the sickbed and instead rushed to fawn over his eldest brother Steve immediately.

Doesn't this mean stealing the chicken but losing the rice?

Just when David didn't know how to respond, the door of the special care unit suddenly opened, and a doctor came out and said: "Mr. Steve Rothschild, your father wants to see you!"

When Steve heard this, he was even more excited and thought to himself: "Great, it seems that the old man heard what I just said!"

David, on the other hand, looked frustrated. If he had known this would be the result, even if he were beaten to death, he would not praise his elder brother.

Soon, Steve stepped into the ward and saw the father on the hospital bed who already had some resemblance to Hawking.

Howard was in the hospital bed just now when he heard the noise outside and was very satisfied with Steve's performance.

In this world, almost all top family leaders have the same contradictory and complex mentality when facing their chosen heirs.

On the one hand, I really want to pass on the position of head of the family to him in the future, but on the other hand, I don't want him to succeed too early, and I want to delay it as long as possible.

Moreover, I don't want him to show any excitement and expectation about inheriting the position of the head of the family, and I don't want him to have any arrogant behavior before inheriting the position of the head of the family.

If Steve had dared to follow the compliments of his younger brothers and say even a casual polite word outside, Howard would have been furious and full of anger and dissatisfaction with him.

Fortunately, Steve's performance exceeded his expectations and, in his opinion, was perfect.

Steve had an expert to guide him from behind, so when he entered the ward and saw Howard on the bed, his expression was particularly sad.

With tears in his eyes, he quickly walked to the hospital bed in a few steps, knelt down on one knee in front of the hospital bed, looked at his father, and asked painfully: "Father, how do you feel? I was worried all the way when I came here..."

Howard was extremely moved and stammered: "I...I'm not bad, good son, you don't have to worry..."

After saying that, Howard sighed and said with emotion: "The doctor said... that I am hemiplegic... and that in the future, it may be... difficult... to fully recover..."

When Steve heard this, he was overjoyed and his face was filled with grief. He turned around, looked at the doctor and asked loudly: "Is there any way you can make my father return to his former self?!"

The doctor quickly explained: "Young master, no one in the world can recover from a stroke like this. Not to mention that my husband is over eighty years old. Even a twenty-year-old football player can recover after the injury. It's impossible to completely recover as before..."

Steve said loudly: "I don't care what methods you use, you must try your best to help my father recover. Our Rothschild family cannot do without his guidance!"

When Howard heard his words, he felt extremely comfortable, as if someone had stuffed a scalding hot water bottle into his arms while walking in the wind and snow in the cold winter.

So, he said to Steve: "Steve, no... don't embarrass the doctor... don't embarrass the doctor... I... I... this time... maybe... maybe really want... to..."

When Steve heard this, without waiting for his father to say anything else, he quickly held his hand and said with red eyes: "Father, don't worry, you will live a long life! I will invite stroke experts from all over the world to New York. Come for your consultation, and one day you will be able to regain your former style!"

Howard smiled tremblingly and nodded slightly.

Then, he sighed and continued: "I... I plan to... plan to retire... Steve... in the future... in the future... the future of the Rothschild family... just... just... I'll leave it all to you to take charge of it!"

Steve was overjoyed in his heart, and the corners of his mouth were about to turn up uncontrollably, but then he thought of Charlie Wade's earnest teachings, and quickly lowered his head to prevent Howard from seeing his expression, and said sadly and angrily: "Father... I We are not ready yet, and the Rothschild family cannot lose your leadership immediately. You should focus on recuperating and recovering first, and we will wait until you recover!"

Howard shook his head: "I... I don't want... to let outsiders see what I am... now, so... you... you come to take over my class and lead the Roth... Rothschild family to continue... keep going....."

After saying that, Howard said again: "I... I have made up my mind... and you... don't need to... you don't need to persuade me anymore..."

Steve hadn't acted enough yet and continued: "Father, let's wait until you recover! I will do nothing during this period. I will stay in New York, by your side, and concentrate on your rehabilitation training!"

Howard said happily: "You... you can have... can have this kind of heart... I... I am... very happy... this... let's do this... you go back... go back and prepare, the rest... Others may still... still on their way back... wait... wait tomorrow, I will hold... a family meeting... meeting... then... I will... announce... to everyone... Announce my decision..."

Hearing his old father say these words with difficulty, Steve's heart was already beating rapidly with excitement.

Although he had been manipulated by Charlie Wade and forced by Charlie Wade to betray his father and family in the past two days, at this moment, he couldn't help but want to yell: "Charlie Wade is awesome!"

Immediately, he sighed in his heart: "Charlie Wade is really a god! The development direction of the whole thing is simply developing according to Charlie Wade's script!" "

I helped him send the Sifang Baozhuang back to China. As soon as the news came out, my father fell ill and lost his life. In order to continue to be in charge of the family, several other brothers and grandchildren also lost the opportunity to make contributions in this incident. As the eldest son and the original heir of the family, I naturally took over the position of being the helmsman of the family! "

What is perfection? This is fucking perfect! If my son could be half as good as Charlie Wade, I would be satisfied!"

Steve sighed in his heart, and said to Howard with a very respectful face: "Father, then you first Recuperate well, I'll have a good chat with the doctors, discuss the best rehabilitation plan, and let you start rehabilitation training as soon as possible!"

Howard was very satisfied with Steve's performance.

The rich family is so cruel. When he was hit by the disease, his son got a huge fortune.

The more this happens, the easier it is for a father to feel dissatisfied and even resent his own son.

But Steve was impeccable from the moment he walked in the door.

He has a conscience, a filial piety, a general understanding, and an understanding of the overall situation, but you can't see any excitement or excitement in him.

When a son can do this, the father is naturally very pleased, and it happens to be at this sensitive stage.

So, Howard nodded slightly and said to him: "You... you go ahead and inform everyone... tomorrow... there will be a meeting in Conference Room No. 1 at ten... ten o'clock tomorrow morning. By... then, I will announce to the world that you... Steve... Rowe... Rothschild... will... become... the new... new... of the... Rothschild... family. Patriarch..."

Steve said respectfully: "Everything will be done according to father's arrangements. My son has only one wish, that you, father, get well as soon as possible. Everything else is unimportant!"

After saying that, Steve also knew that a perfect marriage was going to happen. When performing, you need to be able to retract and release freely. You must not become addicted to acting and cause excessive exertion.

So, he immediately said to Howard: "Father, I won't disturb your rest. Doctor, please organize the relevant experts. If they are not here, let them prepare for the online meeting. We will have a meeting in ten minutes. "

The doctor also knew that Steve in front of him would be the head of the Rothschild family from tomorrow, so he nodded without thinking and said: "Okay, young master, I will make arrangements right now!"

Steve was about to leave. , Howard stopped him and asked: "Yes... that's right... you... are... going to Canada... this time to talk... to... the Northern... Nordic female... Queen Helena... How is it?"

Steve quickly said: "Father, we have already talked with Helena, and her attitude towards us is still very friendly. Unlike other royal families in Europe who want our money but don't want to talk to us again. It's too obviously involved."

After saying that, Steve added: "By the way, Helena heard that you were ill, and she also said that she would come to visit you in person after settling the matter in Canada. If she comes, should I find a reason to decline?"

Howard sighed, and sighed: "I...I am...like this...sooner or later...I still can't hide it, so...just let her come. Well...I...I'll give it a try...see if I can...can it facilitate her alliance...marriage with Royce...if...if it can...then...then again...again It couldn't be better..."

The entire Rothschild family has always had a royal dream.

But before the end of World War II, anti-Semitism was prevalent around the world. Although they could protect themselves and their wealth very well, it was really difficult for them to develop in depth with the European royal families. The attitude of all royal families towards them was:

You have to give us money. flower? Yeah!

Do you want to marry us? Get out of here!

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6459

Although it was not so direct after World War II, the core idea is still the same, except that everyone has become civilized, and they will not be so direct when asking for money, and they will not be so ruthless when refusing.

Nowadays, Helena is very proactive and even comes from Canada to visit her. The royal family must have their own considerations when doing things. This shows that the Nordic royal family at least hopes to go further with the Rothschild family.

Steve knew that he was about to officially take over the family. Helena coming here at this time would definitely add luster to his face, so he quickly said: "Father, I will contact Queen Helena later and see. It depends on her time."

Howard nodded: "Okay! I'll leave it to you..."

After Steve left the ward, he immediately arranged for the doctor to prepare the conference room, and he himself found a After closing the door in an empty room, he called charlie Wade.

The call was connected, and charlie Wade's voice came: "Steve, have you met your father?"

"Yes, yes!" Steve said diligently: "Mr. Wade, you are really good at predicting things, father. He said that he would summon all direct members of the family tomorrow and announce that I would take over as the patriarch of the family! Mr. Wade, this is all thanks to you!"

charlie Wade smiled slightly and said: "You're welcome, everything was paid for by your own efforts. Don't forget the agreement you and I made before, Steve!"

Steve said quickly: "Don't worry, Mr. Wade, from now on, I will not hesitate to do anything you ask me to do. From!"

Although Steve said this, he also had his own concerns in his heart.

As long as he is firmly in the position of the clan leader, he no longer has to worry about being manipulated by charlie Wade. If charlie Wade dares to make a request that makes him dissatisfied, he will directly fall out with him. /

However, now is the critical period when he is about to take over the family, and nothing can go wrong, so he naturally agrees.

After saying that, he asked charlie Wade again: "By the way, Mr. Wade, I would also like to ask you to ask Queen Helena for me. She said that my father also hopes to see her. Let's see what time is convenient for her. I will do it in advance. Be prepared."

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Of course, the sooner the better for this kind of thing. If Helena goes there earlier, your father will definitely be more satisfied with you."

Steve said with a smile. : "You're right! My father does attach great importance to this matter, Mr. Laoye, why don't you bother!"

charlie Wade asked him with a smile: "By the way, when does your father plan to officially announce that you will succeed the family patriarch? Steve blurted out: "Tomorrow morning at ten o'clock sharp! After the official announcement internally at ten o'clock, my father will announce the decision to the outside world. By then, I will be completely stable!"

charlie Wade snorted. , said with a smile: "Okay, let Helena go there tomorrow morning, let her meet your old man first, and then let her witness your succession as the patriarch of the clan, which can be regarded as a compliment to you!"

Steve The husband said happily: "That's great, Mr. Wade! Thank you so much!"

charlie Wade said casually: "Look, why are you being polite to me? Just tell the old man that Helena will arrive at the Rothschild family at nine o'clock tomorrow morning. However, Helena has a special status now. It's best not to go there publicly. You can arrange it." A helicopter will come to Canada to pick her up early tomorrow morning."

"No problem!" Steve agreed and said excitedly: "I will personally take a helicopter to pick up Her Majesty the Queen tomorrow morning!"

After that, he asked politely : "Mr. Wade, do you want to come with us?"

charlie Wade smiled and said, "I won't join in the fun. When you successfully succeed to the throne, I will have someone send you a congratulatory gift."

Steve smiled Said: "Oh, you are too polite. If I successfully succeed to the throne, I should have something to say. How can I accept your gift?"

charlie Wade said casually: "Forget it, you and I don't need to be polite here. When you succeed, We will have plenty of time to continue being polite when we succeed to the throne."

"Okay!" Steve said with a smile, "I still have to thank you, Mr. Wade, everything is thanks to you!"

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6460

When Steve Rothschild thanked charlie from the bottom of his heart, charlie hung up the phone and started discussing with Helena how to pour cold water on him early tomorrow morning.

Since Helena's visit to Canada will end in two days, the schedule is relatively loose. In addition, Helena had previously announced that she was ill, so the Canadian side did not have a very full schedule.

Tomorrow morning, Helena will have completely free time, but there will be a routine meeting and visit in the afternoon.

So she could leave for New York to meet Howard at seven o'clock and be back by noon.

What charlie Wade needed her to do wasn't too difficult. After meeting Howard, she could get it done in half an hour.

Since he experienced the charm of AI models last time, charlie Wade has been thinking about this new technology.

He couldn't think of any use for his AI yet, but he felt that this thing would be of great use to Wanlong Palace and Ys Shipping in the future.

Even in the future battle of wits and courage with Po Qinghui, it should be able to play a considerable role.

So, he informed Helena of his new version requirements and told her: "Helena, when you go to see Howard this time, in addition to asking him to collect money, you also want him to build you a set in Northern Europe that is similar to the one in Silicon Valley. The exact same AI model, and asked him to sign an agreement, promising that this AI model will be updated and upgraded in real time with the one in Silicon Valley, otherwise all the shares of that AI company will be compensated to the Nordic royal family."

Helena said without thinking: "Okay Mr. Wade, I will make it clear to him tomorrow."

After saying that, Helena asked again: "Mr. Wade, how will the AI model you want be handed over to you then?"

charlie Wade said: "This set of things , then leave it to Wanlong Palace for use. After the AI model server is built in Northern Europe, I will ask them to send people to Northern Europe to take over. If you, the Nordic royal family, have relevant needs, you can use it at will."

Helen Na smiled and said: "I still don't know what these AI models can be used for. Apart from me, the Nordic royal family is just old, weak, sick and disabled, and they don't think they can use something as advanced as AI."

As she said, she added Said: "But Mr. Wade, don't worry, when the server is placed in Northern Europe, it will definitely be safer than placing it in most places."

charlie Wade nodded, and said: "By the way, when I see Howard tomorrow, I must not Let other third parties be present, especially Steve."

"Okay!" Helena said: "Then I will clearly request to meet Howard alone."

After saying that, Helena asked again: "Mr. Wade, what else do you have? Do you want to give instructions?"

charlie Wade smiled and said: "After you reach an agreement with Howard, you have to ask Howard to agree to an additional condition."

Helena said: "Mr. Wade, please tell me."

charlie Wade said: "Let him I promise you, I will never tell anyone about the elixir, not even his son. If anyone asks why he suddenly recovered, let him always insist that it was a miracle or the manifestation of Jehovah. This is the answer."

With that, charlie Wade added: "Tell him, just say that you have a better pill. If he needs it in the future, you can discuss the price again, but the prerequisite is that he must agree to the additional pill. Conditions."

Helena nodded and said, "Okay, Mr. Wade, I've written it down."

charlie Wade added, "By the way, after everything is settled, remember to tell him the reason why you brought such a precious medicine. I went to see him because I was moved by his son Steve's filial piety and helped Steve gain a better impression in front of him."

Helena asked puzzledly: "If Mr. Wade wants to restrain Steve, why? Do you want to help him get a good impression in front of Howard?"

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Because Steve has a handle in my hands, and there are two prerequisites to ensure that this handle is most effective. The first point is that his father must continue to be in power. , the second point is that in his father's mind, he must still be the first choice to inherit the Rothschild family. Only in this way can I handle him well. If one day he is regarded as an abandoned son by Howard, he himself will also If you give up on yourself, those handles will naturally be worthless."
