1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6461

After saying that, charlie Wade added: "This kind of handles are collectively called black materials. It's just like you know a certain gangster or little girl and know that this person is involved. When he has committed school violence and provided pornographic services, but this person himself is a pile of shit, this kind of black material is irrelevant to him, but what if one day this person is so lucky that he suddenly becomes a Big star, the black material in your hands is fatal enough to him. Helena nodded slightly and said with a smile: "Since Mr. Wade plans to provide pills to Howard in the future, does he want Steve to always be the first heir?" "

"right. "charlie Wade smiled and said: "At the very least, we have to let him sit in the position of heir safely for a few more years. In the past few years, there are handles to restrain him and pills to restrain his father, so naturally there will be. A magic weapon that binds the entire Rothschild family.

After saying that, charlie Wade stood up and said, "You should have some activities in the afternoon, right? "

"Yes. "Helena nodded and said: "The Canadian side has arranged some visiting activities, and we will also attend an official dinner in the evening. "

"good. charlie Wade nodded and said, "Then you should pay attention to your own safety. I will go back to the United States in the afternoon."

Helena asked in surprise: "Mr. Wade, do you want to go back to the United States again? " charlie Wade said: "

Yes, all my matters in New York have been settled. You still have to wait two days before returning to Northern Europe. I have some matters that I need to communicate with my grandpa in person, so I won't stay here for a long time." "

With that said, charlie Wade said again: "Uncle Zhou's safety must be entrusted to you. I will let Wanlong Palace secretly assist, which can also provide a little more protection. Helena said without hesitation: “Don’t worry, Mr. Wade, I will definitely send Mr. Zhou to China safely.” “

charlie Wade nodded and said: “As for tomorrow, I wish you a successful start in advance! “

After charlie Wade said goodbye to Helena, he went to Zhou Liangyun’s room to meet him again.

charlie Wade informed Zhou Liangyun of his upcoming arrangements, and at the same time said very apologetically: “Uncle Zhou, I will not accompany you to Northern Europe this time. Yes, Helena will arrange everything. “

Zhou Liangyun said respectfully: “Master Laoye is here! You go about your business first, and after I arrive in Aurous Hill, go and report to the young master as soon as possible! “

charlie Wade nodded slightly and said: “This time Uncle Zhou returns to China, everything will start again. Helena will help you arrange a transitional status in Northern Europe. After you arrive in Aurous Hill, I will have someone arrange it for you. A new identity, a new identity that has never left China and has an impeccable background. “

As he spoke, charlie Wade said again: “Uncle Zhou, although the Rothschild family has dropped the charges against you, if they know that you are still alive, they may not give up revenge on you, and this time The matter is very complicated. Even the Po Qing Society has focused on the Sifang Baozhuang and arranged for you to fake your death. Moreover, your body was completely destroyed in the fire. Both the Rothschild family and the Po Qing Society have no clues. It’s a dead end, so you may have to adapt to this state of suspended animation for a short period of time, and don’t have any contact with people you knew before, including your family in London. “

Zhou Liangyun nodded and said: “Don’t worry, young master, when I did this, I was already prepared that I would never see my family again. “

charlie Wade comforted: “Actually, it doesn’t take a lifetime. When I solve the Qing Dynasty one day, you can return to the United States as Peter Zhou openly, or reunite with your family openly. By then, a Ross The Childe family will definitely not cause any trouble! I will ask their family patriarch to come to your door in person to ask for your forgiveness.”

Zhou Liangyun said firmly: "I believe that Master Wade will be able to completely eradicate the Poqing Society!" After that ! , he remembered something and said with a smile: "Master, you'd better help me find Zhou Liangyun's identity, the same Zhou Liangyun before. As for this Zhou Liangyun's identity, background and life history, it's just like what I made up to Miss Moore;"

"That identity was just forged by me at the time, and it cannot withstand in-depth investigation and scrutiny. If the young master can put that information into the official background of the new identity and make it into a procedurally real identity, it will naturally be more credible. Then I will When I return to Aurous Hill, I can use this identity to show off in the market openly. During my time at Jiqingtang, I also met many people in the Aurous Hill antique circle, including your father-in-law, Mr. Wilson."

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6462

charlie Wade couldn't help but smile and said: "Zhou Uncle, your idea is a good one. If you return to Aurous Hill as Zhou Liangyun, your credibility will be higher, and you can quickly integrate into the antique circle of Aurous Hill and hide in the city." After saying that, charlie Wade teased: "If my father-in-law knew that you had returned to Aurous Hill, he would probably still have lingering fears about what happened back then."

Zhou Liangyun said with a smile: "Fortunately, the person who slapped your father-in-law in the face was the security guard of Jiqingtang, not me. Otherwise, if your father-in-law saw me, I'm afraid you'll have to fight with me."

charlie Wade smiled and said, "It doesn't matter, my father-in-law is a man with a bold mouth and will not do anything drastic."

After saying that, charlie Wade looked at Zhou Liangyun and asked, "Zhou Uncle, what are your plans when you arrive in Aurous Hill? Do you want to continue working in the antique industry?"

Zhou Liangyun said: "I don't have much ability, I just have been engaged in antiques for decades, so what I'm thinking now is, if Zhou Liangyun's identity can be impeccable, , then I will go back to Aurous Hill and open a small antique shop. It doesn't matter whether the business is good or bad. On the one hand, as you said, young master, being hidden in the city is only one of safety. In addition, I don't have to hide in the dark all the time. Dare to see people; on the other hand, if the young master needs me for anything, he can always be there at my call."

charlie Wade felt that what Zhou Liangyun said was very reasonable. As Peter Zhou, the current status is that he is missing, but in Ross In the eyes of the Childe family, he had been burned to death together with Chen Zhimin. In the eyes of the Po Qinghui, he had disappeared from the world together with Chen Zhimin and Uncle Sean, and they couldn't even find Chen Zhimin and Uncle Sean, whom they were extremely familiar with. It was impossible to skip these two people and go specifically to find Zhou Peter.

Moreover, Zhou Liangyun's identity was just an antique dealer who was born and raised in China. He worked his way up from Panjiayuan and was finally kicked out by Song Wanting in Ji Qingtang.

As long as Zhou Liangyun needs to add some life experience after leaving Ji Qingtang, he will be able to integrate perfectly when he returns to Aurous Hill.

What's more, the Aurous Hill antique circle is very low-end. Most of them are scammers like Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) and two-handed swordsmen like his father-in-law Jacob. It is impossible for any of these people to recognize Zhou Peter from the Zhou family in North America.

If Peter Zhou really opens a small shop on the Antique Street in Aurous Hill by then, he will definitely be inconspicuous.

So, charlie Wade asked him: "Uncle Zhou, after I go back, I will confirm the identity of Zhou Liangyun for you. It's just that you left Jiqingtang and returned to Aurous Hill this time. How do you plan to deal with the life experience in between?"

Zhou Liangyun laughed. Said: "When the time comes, I will prepare a batch of inconspicuous antiques in advance. When I arrive in Aurous Hill, I will find some old acquaintances in the antique circle and go to Pan Ge's shop on the antique street. I will tell the public that I will go to the northwest and southwest countryside to collect antiques during this period. I went there, saved some things, and felt unwilling to go to Aurous Hill, so I went back to Aurous Hill to open a store."

charlie Wade nodded: "This statement is more credible. I will arrange some for you when the time comes. You can take the train to the southwest and northwest. records, and also get some hotel accommodation records, and combine these records to make a bank statement. If anyone wants to check you, as long as everything in the past is traceable and logical, there should be no problem."

Zhou Liangyun cupped his hands and said gratefully: "Then it's all down to Master Lao! I happen to have nothing to do these two days, so I took the time to sort out a more reasonable trajectory of actions in the past period, and send it to you when the time comes. You can ask someone to Just keep it as a file record according to the action trajectory I sorted out."

"Okay." charlie Wade nodded and asked him: "Uncle Zhou, do you have anything else to tell me?"

Zhou Liangyun said hurriedly: "No. Do you dare? I have a question for the young master."

charlie Wade said: "Uncle Zhou, please tell me."

Zhou Liangyun asked him: "Has the young master read the "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra"?"

"Not yet." charlie Wade said Chen said truthfully: "I took out the photocopy of the "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra" with Sifang Baozhu at that time. However, I have never read the "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra" carefully. I originally planned to wait until I get back. I'll take the time to study it carefully."

Zhou Liangyun nodded and said: "The content of "The Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra" is profound and obscure. I just couldn't figure out the reason after studying it, so I gave up. If you are interested, young master, you can My father also spent a lot of time researching and forgetting food and sleep for a long time before he gradually found the way, so Master, if your progress is not smooth at the beginning, don't be too anxious, take your time, and you will eventually achieve something!"

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6463

In the afternoon, charlie Wade said goodbye to Helena and Zhou Liangyun, and set off back to the United States alone.

It's not that far from Ottawa to Burlington, but the border is a little more troublesome. However, the management of the US-Canada border is relatively lax, and there is no Rothschild family to keep an eye on it. For Charlie Wade, it's not a big deal. What a difficult thing.

After successfully entering the United States, Charlie Wade drove to Burlington, where his plane was already waiting and ready to take off.

At this time, at the small airport dozens of kilometers away from Burlington International Airport, the Department of Homeland Security was still conducting an extremely detailed search of the Gulfstream G650, but nothing of value was found.

The Department of Homeland Security also began to wonder whether this matter was a complete prank, or whether the intelligence officer had made a mistake. However, there was no turning back once the bow was fired, so they had to bite the bullet and deal with it. The case can only be closed if the plane is searched thoroughly.

However, this will not affect the normal operation of Burlington International Airport at all.

Charlie Wade arrived at Burlington International Airport, passed customs smoothly, and boarded the special plane back home.

At this moment, Sara brought Jadiel to the door of Anjia's general aviation company that had temporarily closed down.

After police investigation, it was determined that there were no casualties at the previous fire scene, so it was temporarily handled as a normal accident, so the police had already withdrawn.

Due to the major accident that had just occurred at the General Aviation Company, Chen Zhimin is now missing, and no one has allocated funds for reconstruction, so the place has basically come to a standstill. Only one security guard is left on site to guard the gate, and everyone else has taken a vacation.

When Sara and Jadiel walked to the door of the General Aviation Company, the security personnel outside the door said: "I'm sorry, you two, this place has stopped operating."

Sara glanced at him and said coldly: "Open the door."

The man's expression startled, she quickly opened the door and said respectfully: "Please."

Sara didn't even look at him anymore and walked straight in, followed closely by Jadiel.

He easily controlled several security guards, and then walked in with Jadiel in a swaggering manner.

Sara feels that if we really want to find clues related to Chen Zhimin, this is the most critical place.

At this time, inside the general aviation company, the burned-out helicopter hangar was shocking. Several helicopters that were originally going to park in the hangar could only park in the open space not far outside the hangar, covered up.

Sara looked around and asked the security guard who followed him respectfully: "Is this place deserted and no one is taking care of it?" The security guard quickly replied: "Our general aviation company basically serves the An family. The An family used to be in the United States. At that time, it was very busy here. Later, after the An family left the United States, the workload here was reduced by most. Mr. Chen can't be contacted now, and no one approved the funding requirement for reconstruction, so we had to stop it for now.

sara nodded and said calmly: "Okay, you don't have anything to do here, please step back."

The security guard listened to the order and turned around and walked towards the gate without saying a word.

Sara glanced at the helicopter hangar that had been burned to rubble and stepped inside.

Standing in the center of the hangar, Sara closed her eyes, and the surging spiritual energy spread from her body, completely covering the entire hangar.

1. The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6464

She carefully sensed all the details in the hangar, but she never found anything valuable, and her brows became more and more frowning.

When Jadiel frowned, she knew that the progress might not be smooth, so after she opened her eyes, she asked cautiously: "Master Ying, have you discovered anything?" "

No." Sara shook her head and murmured "Strange, is there really no casualty in that fire? Otherwise, it is impossible for me to not feel it at all."

Jadiel quickly asked: "Master Ying, does that mean that there is a possibility that Chen Zhimin and Uncle Sean are not dead?" ?"

Sara nodded: "You can't see people alive, and you can't see corpses when dead. Naturally, there is a possibility that you are not dead. But I don't understand, what reason does the other party have to absorb them two?"

Jadiel said: "The other party must absorb them both. I think this can bring a big blow to the Po Qing Association, and I can also get no less information about the Po Qing Association from the two of them."

Sara waved her hand: "If you really want to hit them, kill them directly. Wouldn't it be a bigger blow to me? What's more, the other party has saved the An family from fire and water several times, so he must have a deep relationship with the An family. So since he has a deep relationship with the An family, how can he leave a way for Chen Zhimin, who has been undercover in the An family for more than ten years, to survive? "

Jadiel asked in shock: "Master Ying, what do you mean, do you still prefer that they are dead?"

"Yes." Sara nodded and said firmly: "Even if the bodies are not in this fire, they must be in other places." Where, but what I can't figure out is that since everything happened in the bustling metropolis of New York, the other party couldn't have powerful weapons like close-range anti-cannons, so what method did they use to make Sean Bolian die in the explosion? You die without any chance?"

Sara has been instilling the significance of opening the Niwan Palace to the four earls for so many years. The four of them are convinced that opening the Niwan Palace can protect the soul from death. As long as they encounter danger, Unable to escape, they will definitely open Niwan Palace as soon as possible.

As long as the Niwan Palace is opened, the formations left in their Niwan Palace will be destroyed. If it is destroyed in a prosperous city like New York, no building within a few hundred meters will be spared.

Just when Sara couldn't figure out the logic, she looked around and suddenly saw something, so she immediately walked towards the center of the hangar.

In the center of the ruins of the hangar, a burned-to-skeleton helicopter stood alone.

The helicopter had a total of four rotors, which were criss-crossed in a criss-cross shape, and there seemed to be some less obvious damage to the tail of one of the rotors.

Sara immediately stepped forward and carefully observed the small damage on the rotor. Her heart suddenly thumped and she said, "I know how Uncle Sean died."

Jadiel followed up and asked in surprise: "Master Ying, How did Uncle Sean die?"

Sara said with a gloomy face, "If I guessed correctly, he should have been decapitated by this rotor."

Jadiel was suddenly shocked: "How could such a bizarre thing happen?!"

Sara said coldly: "The damage on the rotor is the same as the width of a human cervical vertebra. Normally, it is impossible for this kind of part to suffer such inconspicuous damage. Moreover, on the night of the incident, Chen Zhimin flew the helicopter to Manhattan. The top floor of the hospital, and Sean happened to be staring at the antique dealer in Manhattan Hospital at that time... Several key factors appeared in Manhattan Hospital, and it is very reasonable for the other party to use them to cut off Sean's head."

Jadiel was puzzled. Question: "It's impossible for Uncle Sean to make such a stupid mistake. You just said that he didn't even have a chance to die before he died. So, someone took advantage of him and stuffed his head directly into the rotor. ?”

”That should be the case.” Sara sighed and said seriously: “The person who killed him should be the same person who killed Uncle Nakul and Uncle Willie.”
