By / February 28, 2024

Bill said helplessly: "Thank you for your blessing, Mr. Rothschild. " smiled and said, "Come to the Rothschild Manor at seven o'clock in the evening. I'll treat you to a meal." Bill said without hesitation: "Okay Mr. Rothschild, I will make sure to attend the appointment on time." "

Howard

A few minutes later, in the Rothschild family meeting room.

All the Rothschild family members had arrived. The seats on both sides of the more than ten-meter-long conference table were full, except for the exclusive seat of the first patriarch. It was still empty at the moment.

Behind the seats on both sides, there were two circles of temporary small benches, because the heads of all the collateral families were also present. At this time, the conference room was full of people, and Ross beside the conference table The direct members of the Child family were all chatting happily. Only Steve and his son were a little depressed, while the representatives of the collateral families behind were all whispering to each other. They didn't know that the Rothschild family was here. What happened in the past two days, I don't know what the old man's purpose was in calling them all here.

Most of these collateral families are people with other surnames, but some are surnamed Rothschild. However, all of them are surnamed Rothschild. The collateral families of Howard are basically brothers or cousins of Howard, and those with foreign surnames are mostly people with foreign surnames who married women from the Rothschild family and then became loyal to Rothschild.

For these collateral families As far as the family is concerned, they had almost no chance to come to the Rothschild family manor and participate in the high-end meetings organized by Howard.

After all, Howard is the patriarch of the family, and he usually has almost no direct contact with these collateral families. The branch family usually interacts with some professional managers of the Rothschild family, and even Steve is not someone they can meet whenever they want.

Today, a meeting was suddenly held here, and all the members of the branch family were speculating in their minds. , is Howard planning to pass on the position of patriarch to his eldest son today?

However, what makes them gossip is that the eldest son Steve seems to be the only unhappy person in the audience, the other is his eldest son Roy Si.

It stands to reason that if he were to succeed as the patriarch today, the happiest or only two happiest people here should be them.

So looking at this situation, today's meeting should not be a good thing for Steve. Could it be that there was a change of heir?

Because he couldn't figure it out, a bunch of side families gathered together and whispered to each other, and no one could keep their mouths shut.

Such a scene made Steve feel on pins and needles.

After all, he is also a person who wants face, so he always wants to talk. Being peeked at and discussed in private made him feel like a girl for sale in the Middle Ages, feeling unbearably shy.

Just when the crowd was buzzing, the door to the conference room was suddenly pushed open. The butler who pushed the door immediately withdrew to one side. Then, the proud Howard Rothschild walked in with strong steps. .

As soon as everyone saw him, they immediately stopped shouting and whispering, then looked at him intently and saluted him with attention.

And it was during this process that everyone discovered that Howard Rothschild was in an especially good mood.

This mood was particularly good, just like the state an eighteen-year-old boy would feel when he walked out of his bedroom the next morning after finishing his graduation prom and having a successful night with his dance partner.

It stands to reason that Howard is so old and has so much money to spend. He has eaten, seen, played and handled everything in the world, not to mention the old fox, who has long known what it means to be indifferent to emotions and anger. , this state of grinning even while walking is really unpredictable.

Even the direct members of the Rothschild family were a little puzzled.

They didn't know that the old man was already very happy yesterday. Why was he still so excited today? He seemed even more excited than yesterday. What good thing had happened?

When Steve saw the old man smiling like a flower, he felt even more panicked. He thought to himself: "Could this be another breakthrough for the old man? Otherwise, why would he be so excited?"

At this time, Howard was thinking in his heart. Already excited.

The graphics card is done, the data center is also done, and what is left is the data migration of the AI model and its local deployment in Northern Europe. Since the data migration no longer requires any external help, for Howard, it is considered a success for now. All is ready except for the opportunity.

Before he came in, he had already communicated with the head of the AI team. As 40,000 graphics cards were about to be put in place and Microsoft's data center was about to be vacated, the possibility of solving the problem within a month had jumped from almost zero at the beginning. To almost one hundred percent.

This also indicates that there is less than a month left between him and the half pill!

With a beaming face and an excited heart, Howard sat on the main seat in the conference room under the attention of everyone.

Then, he looked at at least two to three hundred people on each floor around him, smiled and said: "Everyone, please take a seat!"

Then everyone sat down one after another.

Howard looked at everyone with a smile and said: "This is the first time so many people have come to the conference room at home. I see that many people don't have a formal seat. We should have called everyone to the group meeting so that everyone can be more comfortable. , but I haven't been to the group in recent days, so I can only invite everyone here. It's really a bit neglectful and has made everyone feel wronged. Please don't take it off." "

No, no, no..." A bunch of side officials The members of the family waved their hands hurriedly, all of them with humility on their faces, not daring to show any other expression, not even the slightest hint of tiredness.

They also didn't expect that Howard, who had always been very cold towards them, would suddenly become so humble and even a little loving.

Howard said with a smile: "I have called everyone here today to announce a few things. The first thing is that the Rothschild family has decided to release more opportunities and benefits to everyone in the future. For the collateral families who are loyal to the Rothschild family, everyone's income will definitely increase greatly in the future!"

When everyone heard this, they suddenly became excited and couldn't help but cheer and applaud.

No one expected that the old man would be so powerful and immediately want to increase their income as soon as he opened his mouth.

Seeing how excited everyone was, Howard stretched out his hand with a smile to signal everyone to be quiet, and then said: "Although you are collateral families of the Rothschilds, you all have inseparable family ties and blood ties with the Rothschild family. The relationship allows you to make more money, which is also my unshirkable responsibility and obligation as the patriarch of the Rothschild family!"

In an instant, thunderous applause started again.

Howard once again signaled everyone to stop applause and continued: "In the future, I will set up a clan liaison office in the Rothschild family, and my eldest son Steve will be the head of this office. In the future, all collateral families will Members, if you need help from the Rothschild family, or if you have any opinions or ideas about cooperative projects, you can come to this clan liaison office to communicate in person.” When the members of the collateral family heard this, they were like thunder. Generally boiling.

This is definitely the first time these people have heard of the term clan liaison office.

However, one can also tell from the name that this office is designed to enhance the relationship between clan members.

In the past, they basically had no chance to face the core members of the Rothschild family.

If the core members of the Rothschild family are a real estate development company, most of the collateral families are just small subcontractors. Some families may be responsible for providing lunch boxes and fast food for the entire construction site, and some families They may be responsible for removing construction waste at the construction site, and some families are responsible for putting putty on all rooms, but they will not leave any larger tasks such as construction machinery and commercial concrete and steel bars to them.

Therefore, the status of these collateral families in the eyes of the master’s family is actually very low, even worse than that of domestic slaves.

Howard suddenly paid so much attention to them now, which immediately gave them a strong sense of belonging, making them feel as grateful to the Rothschild family as a courtier to a monarch.

In the past, Howard really looked down on these relatives, and his purpose had always been to strictly limit the development of these relatives to prevent them from committing the same crime, or combining with one of his sons to go against him.

But this time, his perspective on the problem has undergone earth-shaking changes from before.

He wanted to understand one thing. What he really cared about now was no longer the future of the Rothschild family, but his own future.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6533

By / February 28, 2024

As he gets older and is unwilling to pass on the position of head of the family to his son, it will inevitably arouse his son's dissatisfaction. In the future, one of his sons may want to overthrow or exclude himself, so now he will ask these people first. The collateral families show goodwill and transfer some of their interests in exchange for their absolute support, making the future safer.

Immediately, he stood up amidst the applause of the crowd and said with high spirits: "From today on, you remember that as long as you stand unswervingly with the Rothschild family, the Rothschild family will never I will make you suffer, let alone be bullied, because we are a family!"

The heat wave of applause almost overturned the conference room.

This time, Howard did not interrupt everyone's applause, but looked on with a smile and a calm expression. Seeing everyone excited and spontaneously clapping non-stop made him very satisfied.

The applause lasted an astonishing five minutes.

Five minutes later, as the crowd's applause gradually decreased, a woman's cry suddenly came out: "Mr. Rothschild! Dear patriarch! You have to make the decision for me!"

Howard followed the sound, and among the crowd, A woman about sixty years old burst into tears among the excited people.

Howard, who wanted to win over the side families, suddenly became interested. He quickly stood up, pointed at the woman, and said with great concern: "What do you need me to make the decision for?! Don't worry, I'm here, everything can be done." No problem!"

Seeing this, everyone stopped applauding and cheering, and their eyes switched back and forth between Howard and the woman.

The woman cried and said: "My husband and my son have been missing for a long time. I spent a lot of money, invited a lot of people, and searched in many places, but I couldn't find them. Now I don't know who they are." Life or death, please help me find them! Please!"

Howard nodded solemnly and asked her: "Don't worry, since it is a matter of life and death, the Rothschild family will never Will stand by and watch! Tell me, which family are you from?"

The woman quickly said: "Your Excellency, Patriarch, I am from the Hogwitz family, my name is Jenny Hogwitz, and my husband is your cousin Julia My son, I wonder if you still remember me..."

"Julia..." Howard frowned and thought for a moment. It seemed that he did have such a cousin, but this cousin's father had already passed away after his father inherited the family. It became a collateral family, and after she got married, she became the most humble collateral family with a foreign surname among the collateral families, and her son himself would not have much of an impression.

Although the relationship was far away, Howard still felt that this was a good opportunity to make all the collateral families believe in him, so he said: "It turns out that she is Julia's daughter-in-law, Jenny, please tell me in detail, How did your husband and son disappear?"

Jenny Hogwitz cried and said: "Your Excellency, my son Walter Hogwitz was sent to China last year to take charge of the Hogwitz family's affairs in China. However, not long after he went to China, he disappeared in Aurous Hill. My husband, Steve Hogwitz, went to Aurous Hill to look for him and disappeared too!"

Walter Hogwitz reported to Aurous Hill a long time ago. Doris Young, the head of the Emgrand Group, was poisoned by his father, causing kidney failure. He then tried to use the kidney source to coerce Doris Young into becoming his lover and betraying the Emgrand Group's trade secrets.

Now Walter Hogwitz and his father Steve Hogwitz are being kept in Don Albert's dog farm.

Even with eight heads, Howard couldn't imagine that this matter could be related to his current financial sponsor. As soon as he heard that the person was missing but not found, he immediately said with a serious face: "This is unreasonable! No matter who dares to do anything to me, Rothschild If you attack relatives of the De family, you are seeking your own death! Jenny, don't worry! I will definitely make the decision for you in this matter!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6534

By _ / February 28, 2024

Howard's statement made Jenny Hogwitz burst into tears and bowed in gratitude: "Thank you, the respected patriarch! Thank you!"

For Jenny, she was already at her wits' end, but she still There was no good way, and she didn't dare to ask the Rothschild family for help. After all, she knew in her heart that the Rothschild family actually looked down on their distant relatives.

But isn't this a coincidence today?

Howard suddenly extended an olive branch to the side family, and Jenny immediately realized that this was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

The other collateral families were naturally very grateful and excited to see Howard being so responsible for the collateral family.

Howard stood up at this time and said with a smile: "If something like this happens again in the future, you can go to the clan liaison office as soon as possible. I will arrange for my most trusted subordinates to be stationed there to concentrate on solving the problems you encounter. ."

When Howard said the word "men", all the sons realized one thing. The old man was wary of them.

Generally speaking, if you really want to contact relatives, it must be the most suitable one to choose from family members, and it is also the best way to make these collateral families feel valued.

But the old man put aside so many sons and grandsons and chose to let his subordinates take on this role, which meant that although he wanted to strengthen ties with the collateral families, he also wanted to create a separation between his children and grandchildren and the collateral families.

In this way, his real purpose of drawing close to the collateral families can be easily revealed, which is to guard against these children and grandchildren.

At this moment, the eldest son Steve felt even more depressed.

He cursed in his heart: “The old man is afraid that I will unite with my relatives to rebel in the future. Now he is directly attacking me from the inside and outside. I can’t break through internally and can’t borrow strength from the outside. In this way, I can always be held in the position of heir by him.” No way...”

Thinking of this, he couldn’t help but lament: “Fortunately, Charlie Wade only gave the old man a few more years of life. Even if the old man tried hard, he wouldn’t be able to give up for a few more years. When his health is gone, even if he doesn’t want to give up, he will have to give up...”

Immediately afterwards, Steve suddenly became extremely panicked and sighed: “If in the future, like Helena said, Charlie Wade can let the old man live longer than me, it will be over! If Charlie Wade keeps extending the life of the old man, I He will definitely not survive the cheating old man...”

At this moment, Steve was extremely frightened.

He knew that in the current state of the old man, he would definitely try his best to live longer, and he would definitely control the position of the head of the family, and would never allow himself to succeed easily. Therefore, his future was completely in Charlie Wade’s thoughts.

Thinking of this, he couldn’t wait to go to Charlie Wade to pay homage to the dock tomorrow, to repent, and to show his loyalty at the same time.

At this time, Howard’s attitude moved the collateral families present to the extreme, giving them a real sense of sincerity.

For Howard, he wanted to win over these collateral families and was planning to find a role model to set up. Unexpectedly, Jenny Hogwitz happened to cry and make her appeal in front of so many people. In his opinion, this is the best opportunity to demonstrate the courage, strength and credibility of the patriarch.

And it doesn’t sound like it’s going to be difficult.

It’s nothing more than the Hogwitz father and son missing in China.

Disappearance, there are only three results, either the person is dead, or the person is alive but hidden by himself, or the person is alive but hidden by others.

If it's the first type, then it's the easiest, just find the body and give the woman an explanation;

if it's the second and third type, then find the two men, regardless of whether they voluntarily hid it. We should still hide them passively. In short, if we bring them back to the United States, we will be done.

So, he looked at the Rothschild direct members on both sides of the conference table and asked: "Which of you is willing to volunteer to go to China to help Jenny bring her husband and son back?"

All the children and grandchildren looked at each other.

Who wants to leave New York at a time like this?

If something changes in New York during this period and I am in China, wouldn't I completely lose the opportunity to compete?

Howard couldn't help but feel a little angry when he saw that no one in the group spoke up. These children and grandchildren usually seemed to be five to six in number, and they all obeyed him. But when he really wanted them to come forward, they would be like dogs to each other. If there was no such thing, When someone picks a fight with you, where do you put your face?

Just when Howard felt that he was riding a tiger, his eldest son Steve suddenly stood up and said: "Father, let me go! It is related to the personal safety of the two clansmen. We must pay enough attention to it. You are old, so naturally If I can't let you go there in person, then please allow me, the eldest son, to go to China on your behalf!"

"F*ck!"

Howard was ecstatic, and he even praised Steve's performance angrily.

I sighed in my heart:

"What is a pattern?"

"This is what a f*cking pattern is!"

"You guys who are not the eldest son, none of you are willing to leave New York, but my eldest son took the initiative to ask for help!"

"It seems, Steve My husband is indeed my great eldest son! A filial eldest son!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6535

By _ / February 28, 2024

Thinking of this, he exhaled all his breath, slapped the table in excitement, stood up, and said loudly: "Okay! Very good! Steve You are worthy of being the eldest son of my Howard Rothschild! The pattern is far beyond comparison with others! Since you have this heart, then this task will be left to you!"

Steve decided to go to China in person, not really wanting to find it. Hogwitz and his son, he just wanted to take this opportunity to go to China to find charlie Wade and say goodbye to the dock.

But in Howard's view, when his son took the initiative to ask for help, he was wholeheartedly trying to solve his problems.

In fact, there is an information gap between Howard and his son Steve.

Howard didn't know the true owner of the elixir. He only knew that the elixir belonged to the Queen of Northern Europe, and he didn't know the hidden story behind it.

But Steve knew clearly in his heart that the Queen of Northern Europe was just charlie Wade's white glove. Whether his father could get the elixir in the future depended entirely on charlie Wade alone.

Therefore, he had to quickly take advantage of this opportunity to go to China to say good things to charlie Wade.

Howard first thought that the Queen of Northern Europe sent the elixir because of his son Steve's filial piety, so now Steve took the initiative to ask for help, which naturally made him very satisfied, so he looked at everyone and said loudly: "Besides, I want to be here An announcement is made. From today on, Steve Rothschild will officially become the next heir to the Rothschild family! In the future, after I retire, he will be the one who leads the Rothschild family forward. That man!”

As soon as these words came out, the side members at the scene applauded, but Steve’s younger brother and nephews all had expressionless faces.

They knew very well that if the old man announced this decision in front of so many people, there was basically no possibility of changing it. www..cc

That also means that after the old man passes away and Steve becomes the patriarch, they will slowly become a collateral family. In the future, their descendants will sit in the audience like the collateral families behind them. From my seat, I was grateful for the little favors from my host’s family.

What’s interesting is that Steve himself doesn’t look very happy at this time.

This is not surprising, because he was the only one besides Howard who knew that he might not be able to take over.

Therefore, he became even more eager to go to China to meet Charlie Wade.

After the meeting, these collateral family members left the Rothschild Manor happily one by one. Howard called Steve to his study alone and told him: “Steve, this time you go to China, you must do everything you can to bring back the Hogwitz father and son. Those side families are waiting for news of your success.”

Steve said respectfully: “Father, don’t worry, I will go all out!”

Howard nodded slightly and continued: “I usually look down on these relatives, but they will be an indispensable force for you to consolidate your position as the patriarch after you come to power in the future, so I established a clan this time. The purpose of the Liaison Office is to unite them around the Rothschild family from now on!”

With the grace given to them by this clan liaison office, they will do their best to maintain the orthodoxy of the Rothschild family in the future. The orthodoxy of the family is to safeguard their interests. Your father and I are the orthodoxy of this generation of the Rothschild family, and you, as my eldest son and my confirmed first heir, are the orthodoxy of the next generation of the Rothschild family. Orthodox, so everything I did today was to pave the way for you, do you understand?"

Steve sneered in his heart: "Paving the way for me? My road has almost been cut off by you, and you are still paving the way for me? You It's more like paving the way for me!"

If it were before meeting Marven, Steve would have believed at least 70% of Howard's words.

However, given the inside story that he already knew, Steve's trust in his words was completely zero.

In comparison, he knew more than Howard, so he could conclude that everything his father did today was to consolidate his status as the patriarch. The reason why he said so high-sounding things was just to deceive himself and continue to give himself Draw a cake and let yourself be a stupid prince.

The simplest point is that if the old man really wants to pave the way for himself, then he should naturally be the person in charge of the clan liaison office.

However, he avoided all direct family members and appointed his most trusted professional managers to manage this office. Isn't this because he was afraid that the favors done by the Clan Liaison Office to the collateral families would be mistakenly recorded in his name? , or in the names of other brothers?

The old man took the lead in establishing the office, and he designated his confidants to manage it with full authority. If the collateral families benefited from this office in the future, the old man would naturally be grateful.

Just imagine, when a person is not sure whether the boss's son will lay off employees or replace people after taking over, or whether he will cut his salary and drive out people, his boss suddenly wants to give him a 50% salary increase, and also promises to help him solve his wife's problem. Work, children's insurance, home mortgage, parents' medical care, will he expect the boss's son to take over?

Won't.

He would only pray to Bodhisattva or God every day to bless him and let his unfair boss live a few more years, because if his son comes up one day, his good days may come to an end.

However, although Steve knew everything well, he still bowed to Howard respectfully and said: "Thank you father for your cultivation! I will definitely live up to your expectations!"

When the golden sunshine bloomed from the eastern skyline in the early morning, charlie Wade's plane landed at Aurous Hill Airport facing the rising sun.

At this moment, he didn't know that Steve Rothschild, who was far away in the United States, couldn't wait to visit him in China.

As soon as the plane landed, charlie Wade couldn't wait to call Lin Wan'er (Alani).

The call was connected, and Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s gentle girlish voice came: "Master, why are you calling the slave family so early?"

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Miss Lin, I just landed in Aurous Hill. I wonder if it is convenient for you now. If so, I will go to Zijin See you at the villa."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled crisply and said, "The slave family has prepared some refreshments and is about to boil water to make tea. If the young master doesn't mind, he just came to eat some with the slave family."

charlie Wade said with a smile: "Wait a minute. I'll take half an hour."

In the hangar, Don Albert had prepared a vehicle and was waiting. charlie Wade stepped forward to say hello respectfully after getting off the plane.

"Master Wade!"

charlie Wade nodded and said to Don Albert: "Don Albert, thank you for taking me to Zijin Mountain."

Don Albert nodded respectfully, opened the rear door and said, "Okay Master Wade , please get in the car."

charlie Wade got into the car, and Don Albert drove the two of them out of the airport and headed to the city.

In the car, charlie Wade asked him: "Is everything going well at the Champs Elysees recently?"

Don Albert said respectfully: "Back to Master Wade, everything is very good at the Champs Elysees. Everyone's martial arts training is progressing in an orderly manner. You We have also taken good care of your grandmother, and Aurous Hill has not noticed anything unusual recently."

"Okay." charlie Wade nodded slightly and asked him again: "How is the progress of your martial arts?"

"It's... not bad... .." Don Albert laughed at himself and said: "Mr. and I don't seem to have much talent in martial arts. Although we have made some progress, we are still far behind others. A few days ago, you asked Mr. to go to Yan'an. Jing took over the job of Butler Stephen Thompson. He has not been able to come back during this period. It is estimated that in a few days, I will be able to surpass him in martial arts."

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Don't be too impatient in martial arts training. Many people You have all practiced hard for several years before you really entered the Tao. You have just started, so it is normal for your progress to be slower."

Don Albert said with a smile: "Master Wade, I have also figured it out. I am a bit old and it was too late to join the profession. It is unrealistic to expect too high achievements. Anyway, now that we have such an opportunity, we will learn and practice along with it. Naturally, everyone will be happy if we can practice it. If we can't practice it, we will treat it as strengthening our body."

charlie Wade nodded and said in agreement: "It's best if you have such a mentality."

As he said this, charlie Wade thought of something and suddenly asked him: "By the way, Don Albert, is there any news about Butler Stephen Thompson from Isaac recently?"

Don Albert immediately shook his head. , said: “Back to Master Wade, after you asked me to succeed Mr. Isaac and serve as the agent of the wade family in Aurous Hill and even the whole province, I often communicated privately with agents of the wade family in other places, and they often discussed Butler Stephen Thompson. No one has any news about Butler Stephen Thompson.”

charlie Wade nodded slightly and sighed slightly: “It seems that he won’t show up again for a while.”

Don Albert asked curiously: “Master Wade, Butler Stephen Thompson Where did he go? Wasn’t he always loyal to the wade family? Why did he suddenly leave without saying goodbye?”

charlie Wade said: “I don’t know this very well, but based on my understanding of him, I believe he is not a bad person, let alone a bad person. He would not harm me or the wade family. There must be a reason why he suddenly left without saying goodbye. If the time is right in the future, we may still receive news from him.” As he said that, the question arose in charlie Wade’s mind again.

In the past, he felt that Stephen Thompson worked for his father.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6537

By / February 28, 2024

However, Stephen Thompson left without saying goodbye, and there was a high probability that he left the photo album behind. This probably meant that Stephen Thompson had another loyalist behind his back.

Moreover, judging from Stephen Thompson’s personality, consistent behavior, and the clues that the photo album he left behind brought him good luck, he and the person he was loyal to behind should not be his enemies.

It might even be his own friendly forces.

However, he couldn’t figure it out. Since he was a friendly army, why should he hide in the dark? Wouldn’t it be better if we all face to face, have a frank chat, and fight the common enemy together?

Since it was early in the morning, the traffic was very smooth and the vehicles were rushing all the way. Half an hour later, the vehicles arrived at the entrance of Zijin Villa.

Seeing the huge plaque of Purple Mountain Villa, charlie Wade retracted his thoughts and said to Don Albert: "Okay Don Albert, I'll get off the car here, you go ahead and do your work."

Don Albert said respectfully: "Okay, Master Wade."

With that said, he parked the car outside the gate of Zijin Villa.

At this time, the door of Zijin Villa opened, and Qiu Yingshan(Curtis), his wife, and Jacob came out together. The three of them walked steadily down the stairs quickly.

Before charlie Wade got out of the car, he asked Don Albert: "Don Albert, what is Zhang Ermao (Cade) busy with recently?"

Don Albert said hurriedly: "Master Wade, Ermao is in charge of my previous business recently. This old boy is doing a good job. Yes, at least better than me, and the increase in performance and income is quite obvious."

charlie Wade nodded and asked: "How much can you make from your business in a year?"

Don Albert thought for a while and said: "In the past, all year round, except for human consumption, Horse feeding and all kinds of management, I can only get more than 100 million, but now I receive more care, Miss moore has always taken good care of me, the Emgrand Group also has many businesses that are not suitable for me to come forward, plus The current monthly income of some businesses of the Shang wade family is almost 50 to 60 million. Calculated in a year, it is estimated to be around 700 million."

charlie Wade nodded and said: "Last time I narrowly defeated that Willie, Zhang Ermao (Cade) The credit is great. I promise him a lifetime of prosperity and wealth. However, Zhang Ermao (Cade) has great potential and is not suitable to give him a lump sum of money. You give him 30% of Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s business income. He will work harder if he can. Dude, I will replenish the 30% for you when the time comes."

Don Albert said hurriedly: "Master Wade, you and I still know so well what to do... You saved my life, Don Albert, and I rely on you to be where I am today. How can I ask for such a small amount of money from you for your support?"

charlie Wade waved his hand and said: "One code is the same, I can't use your money to do my favors, this is a matter of principle. "

After that, when he saw Qiu Yingshan(Curtis) and others waiting respectfully outside the car, he said to Don Albert: "This matter is settled, no need to say more."

Seeing charlie Wade's insistence, Don Albert had no choice but to nod and agree. , then quickly got out of the car, walked around to the right and opened the door for charlie Wade.

charlie Wade stepped out of the car, and Qiu Yingshan(Curtis) and the other three said respectfully: "Hello, Mr. Wade!"

charlie Wade nodded slightly and said, "I'm here to see you miss."

Lao Zhang said hurriedly: "Mr. Wade, the miss specially asked me to The slave is here to pick you up. She is already waiting for you in the courtyard on the top floor."

"Okay." charlie Wade smiled and said to Don Albert, "Okay, Don Albert, you go back, remember what I said, today Just drop it."

Don Albert said respectfully: "Don't worry, Master Wade, I will do it all today!"

charlie Wade nodded slightly, said goodbye to him, and walked into the Purple Mountain Villa with Qiu Yingshan(Curtis), Lao Zhang and others.

Arriving at the stone steps leading to the top courtyard, charlie Wade said to the three of them: "You three, go and do your work. I can go up by myself."

Qiu Yingshan(Curtis) asked respectfully: "Master Wade, do you want to stay for lunch? I can ask someone to prepare it in advance."

charlie Wade was still thinking about meeting his grandmother after meeting Lin Wan'er (Alani), and he had to go back to Tang Chen Yipin's home today, so Then he said with a smile: "I have something to do at noon, so I won't eat here."

Qiu Yingshan(Curtis) nodded and watched charlie Wade go to the other courtyard.

Arriving at the door of the villa, charlie Wade was just about to knock the door when he heard Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s sweet voice like a lark: "Young master, just come in directly. The door is not locked."

charlie Wade's heart felt like a pool of clear water being blown by the spring breeze. With a slight movement, she pushed open the courtyard door and saw Lin Wan'er (Alani), dressed in Hanfu, sitting elegantly at the tea table under the tree, boiling water and making tea.

Seeing charlie Wade come in, Lin Wan'er (Alani) didn't hide the surprise on her face. She neatly put the kettle of boiling water aside, stood up and patted the hem of her skirt gently with her slender white hands, then trotted over to meet charlie Wade. .

When she stood in front of charlie Wade, she raised her head to look at charlie Wade and said happily: "I have been longing for you day and night, the young master is finally back!"

After that, without waiting for charlie Wade to answer, she took charlie Wade's right hand and said, Holding him in his arms, he walked towards the tree. At the same time, he pointed with his other hand to a branch over half a meter high by the hot spring pool, and said excitedly: "Look, sir, the mother of Pucha has grown ninety-six leaves." "

Oh!" charlie Wade couldn't help but said in surprise: "He's growing up pretty fast! Do you count every day?"

charlie Wade's words did not shock Lin Wan'er (Alani) too much.

It only took her a few seconds to digest what charlie Wade said, and she said softly: "The slave family had guessed this logic when making assumptions, but was not sure. Now it seems that everything makes sense. , Longge is unique, and not all Longge's people can give birth to Longge's descendants. On the contrary, among Longge's descendants, the probability of inheriting Longge is also very low, and even more so. Needless to say, he still needs to be willing to strip off his dragon ge to his son. From this point of view, it would be difficult to find anyone else in the world besides the young master to rise to the dragon ge..."

charlie Wade was curious. She asked her: "Isn't Longge's child necessarily Longge?"

"Of course." Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and said, "Young Master, think about it, Longge is already extremely good, and his fate determines No matter what environment he is in, he can have stronger strength and obtain more production materials. In the past of polygamy, Longge men must have multiple wives and children. If Longge gave birth to dragons, Ge, this world has long been overrun with Dragon Ge."

After saying that, Lin Wan'er (Alani) added: "Actually, a person's fate, in addition to part of it coming from the fate of his parents, is mostly his own fate. Due to chance, it is like randomly picking a number from 1 to 100. If you pick a hundred numbers in a row, all 100 must be 100 to be a dragon. You can't pick even one wrongly, and the probability is naturally extremely slim. If his father is Longge, of course it will help to some extent. It is probably equivalent to not having to have a hundred consecutive 100s as harsh, but at least 80 consecutive 100s are still as difficult as climbing to the sky." "

Moreover, in this world, there are many things that exist at the same time. There may not even be five people born in Longge. The chance of giving birth to Longge among these five people is almost zero. Throughout the five thousand years of Chinese history, there is probably only one son whose father is Longge and whose son is also Longge. , at least, the Nu family has lived for so many years and read countless ancient books, but they have never heard of it."

charlie Wade couldn't help but sigh: "I have never thought about this problem, and thought that destiny was inherited. It seems that I am ignorant."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) smiled and said: "Young master, you don't have to belittle yourself. In fact, most people don't know what their destiny is until they die."

After saying that, Lin Wan'er (Alani) couldn't help but wonder: "The slave family has lived for so many years, and they have studied the secrets of Feng Shui and the Eight Diagrams of the Book of Changes. I have been studying for a long time, but I have never heard that fate can be peeled off. Where did your father learn the technique of peeling off fate?"

charlie Wade said: "Most likely it is the "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra" ."

As he spoke, he said with a bit of confusion: "Uncle Zhou Liangyun left a photocopy of the "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra". The photocopy is here with me, but I haven't adjusted my mentality to study it. ."

After saying that, charlie Wade took out the photocopy of "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra" from his backpack, put it on the tea table, and said, "These are the "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra", but I haven't read it yet. Lin Wan'er glanced at the pair of copy papers, nodded with understanding, and said: "The fate of your father and your father is due to the earth-shaking changes in the "Nine Mysteries Sutra Preface". It is normal for the young master not to be prepared." , if it were me, I would probably burn the photocopy on fire and never touch it for the rest of my life. "

charlie Wade said with a solemn expression: "Actually, it's not that I'm not prepared, I'm just a little scared. "

Fear is a word that charlie Wade rarely utters.

But facing Lin Wan'er (Alani), he was able to express his innermost thoughts without reservation.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) was a little surprised when she heard charlie Wade say he was afraid. I quickly asked with concern: "I wonder if the young master is willing to tell the slave family what exactly the young master is afraid of? " charlie Wade was silent for a long time. After sorting out his thoughts, he said eloquently: "I have told you the whole story of getting the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures" and my life experience after getting it. Since you and I opened our hearts, , many things have been experienced by you and me together, and you know them all clearly. In addition, my trip to the United States this time has confirmed your and my previous guesses. "Nine "Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures" is not a coincidence at all. It was a series of plans that my father made for me after he gave me his destiny. "

Speaking of this, Charlie Wade said again: "Ms. Lin, look at the interlocking clues. The first is that my father accidentally obtained the "Nine Mysterious Sutra Preface" more than thirty years ago. This "Nine Mysterious Sutra Preface" Not only can it enlighten him to enlightenment, but it can also help him understand destiny and master the art of destiny peeling. I suspect that there are records about the secret of immortality in the "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra", and he and my mother also Because of the so-called secret of immortality, he was targeted by the Po Qing Society and became an enemy in the eyes of the Po Qing Society;" /

"Think about it carefully, when did my father obtain the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures"? Did you also get it from the secret of immortality? "

What's even weirder is that the "Preface to the Nine Mysterious Scriptures" allowed my father to find the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures" and master the art of fate stripping. However, the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures" happen to be only accessible to those who have ascended to the Dragon Level. Open, and the subsequent experiences of my father gradually forced him to sacrifice himself to save my son, prompting him to deprive me of his destiny. At the same time, he arranged for Uncle Zhou to transfer the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures" twenty years later. Bring it to me and let me get it. Do you think this will be a series of traps? Lin Wan'er's expression flashed with horror. She opened her eyes wide and blurted out: "Master, are you saying that all of this was planned by others?" ! "

"right! "Charlie Wade nodded heavily and said: "I feel that "The Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra" is like a Pandora's box. Once a qualified person opens it, everything will be subtly affected by it. Then, everything will be affected. The development of the world will be like dominoes, constantly being triggered according to the preset direction..."

After saying that, Charlie Wade added: "It is possible that the "Nine Mysterious Scripture Preface" and "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scripture" are themselves other people's The arranged dominoes can't be triggered by ordinary people. Only when a person with Dragon Grid triggers the "Nine Mysterious Sutra Preface", everything will develop backwards in a logical way.

Lin

Wan'er frowned and murmured: "Young master, the author of "Nine Mysteries Sutra Preface" and "Nine Mysteries Scripture" should be Meng Changsheng (Willie), the master of the Nu family, because whether it is the Nu family's father, Sara, or... The young master's father knows the existence of the secret of immortality. "

Speaking of this, Lin Wan'er (Alani) continued: "If it is as the young master guessed, the master first released the "Nine Mysterious Sutra Preface", and then asked it to wait for a person with the Dragon Gate, and then let the person with the Dragon Gate realize the Tao. Then he went to the Secret of Immortality to find the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures", and was chased by Sara at the same time. Finally, due to the situation, he stripped his fate to his son and achieved a Ascension Dragon Form to trigger the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures". Then, This series of plans is too complicated and thorough. What is his purpose? Could it be that he simply wanted someone with the Sheng Long Ge to inherit his unique skills? "

"no. "charlie Wade shook his head and said: "In the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures", there are countless kinds of knowledge, but there are almost no real methods of cultivating Taoism. Even though I have been enlightened for so long, I don't have a set of true Taoism methods at all. Meng Changsheng (Willie) must have a profound mental method because he could live for a thousand years, but he did not leave it in the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures".

Lin Wan'er (Alani) frowned and said, "That's even more strange. What is the purpose of Master spending so much effort? " He passed away more than three hundred years ago. If he really did all this intentionally, he would have started planning it at least three to four hundred years ago. He is no longer here. Such far-sighted plans were not for passing on his unique knowledge. , what else can it mean? "

charlie Wade shook his head: "I don't know either. Lin

Wan'er thought of something and blurted out: "That time at Shiwanda Mountain, the teacher who stopped me must have known something!" Otherwise, why would she wait for the young master and the slave family there in advance? She even told the slave family that the road ahead was very dangerous and asked the slave family to persuade the master not to go to Shiwanda Mountain! If we can find her, we will surely gain something! “ charlie Wade sighed: “I don’t want to find her, but she didn’t leave any useful clues that day. If I want to find her, I’m afraid it will be a little more difficult than Sara trying to find me.”

After saying that, charlie Wade said again : “Actually, what I want to find out most right now is not who the false teacher is named or who she is. What I want to find out is why she asked you to persuade me to turn back that day.”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) bit her lip and said He said with a face of shame: “Sir, actually, the slave family did not reveal all the details that day...”

charlie Wade was not surprised, and just asked her: “Miss Lin, can you tell me now?”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) nodded and said: “It’s the matter. At this point, the Nu family will not hide anything anymore.”

After that, she explained seriously: “On that day, the false teacher knew all the details of the Nu family, and also knew the details of the young master and Sara. She knew that the Nu family had lived for three hundred years. Over the years, she had also known that Sara had lived for nearly four hundred years and that Po Qinghui was very powerful. However, she said at the time that the real danger ahead was actually another person. She said that compared with ‘that person’, Sara was nothing more than Sara. He’s a clown who has lived for three to four hundred years...”

”That person?!” charlie Wade suddenly exclaimed: “Who is it?!”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) shook her head: “She didn’t say it clearly, because she meant, if Too much may affect the young master’s judgment. If the young master thinks that she is playing tricks and wants to find out, the situation may be irreversible...”

charlie Wade murmured: “Even Sara was worried in front of that person. He’s just a clown, so isn’t this person incredibly powerful?”

At this point, charlie Wade subconsciously asked: “Could it be that the person she was talking about was Meng Changsheng (Willie)?”

Lin Wan'er (Alani) said: "At first, the Nu family was also suspicious. But...but...but that doesn't make sense!"

After saying that, Lin Wan'er (Alani) added: "According to my father's statement, the old master did reach his end more than three hundred years ago and passed away long ago. There is no way he is still alive. Moreover, if He has found a way to live longer than a thousand years, so his strength is probably unmatched in this world. Sara can dominate the world for three hundred years. There is no reason for him to completely hide himself and hide in Shiwan Mountain for more than three hundred years. Ah!"

charlie Wade frowned and said in a deep voice: "What you said makes sense. I really didn't understand some things, but I always feel that all of this should have been done intentionally by Meng Changsheng (Willie). My father My murder and my present day are probably all part of his plan more than three hundred years ago."

Lin Wan'er (Alani) thought of something and said: "If all of this is Master's plan, the logic of most of the links can indeed be explained. It makes sense."

At this point, Lin Waner (Alani) changed the subject and blurted out: "But there is a link here, the logic cannot be self-consistent."

charlie Wade asked her: "What logic?"

Lin Waner (Alani) said: "The Nu family just said, Although the probability of Longge giving birth to Longge is a little higher than that of ordinary Longge, it is still like finding a needle in a haystack. The probability is extremely low. If the master is betting on the future of the young master, the probability of success is extremely low. Once The young master is not a dragon, and everything that follows cannot be established. The young master's father cannot transfer his fate to the young master, and the young master cannot achieve the ascending dragon status. Naturally, the "Nine Mysterious Heavenly Scriptures" will not be triggered. No one has spent all the time. After countless calculations, the most important link was pinned on a small probability event with a probability of less than one in a billion. "

charlie Wade nodded: "This is indeed puzzling. "

At this time, Lin Wan'er (Alani) looked at the "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra" on the tea table, and asked tentatively: "Young Master, do you think there is any method mentioned in this "Preface to the Nine Mysteries Sutra” that can make Long Ge The father must have given birth to Longge’s son? If so, then there is no doubt that all this must have been done by Master!
