Said, hank added: "Of course, it is still too early to talk about these. After all, new energy vehicles are not yet mainstream, but it is precisely because it has not become mainstream yet that there are opportunities for entrepreneurs. Once it squeezes out The removal of fuel vehicles has become the mainstream, which means that the dragon slayer will eventually become an evil dragon. Many people have begun to study the next new track. An Jia has entered now. Although he has not taken the lead, it is still not too late.

charlie asked again: "There are too many domestic new energy brands now. Do you think there are still opportunities for vehicle manufacturing?" "

Of course." "hank said seriously: "There are indeed many new energy brands now, and many of them are struggling on the line of life and death, and many people have died. However, the automobile market is so big, and new energy sources only account for a small part of it. This is It proves that the future of new energy is still promising, and now that it is entering new energy vehicle manufacturing, if competitors are targeting other new energy brands, the pattern is indeed a bit small. They should enlarge the pattern and compete with those traditional fuel vehicle manufacturers. Competition, if it can cut the global sales of Toyota, Honda and South Korea's Hyundai in half, it will be a real giant. "

As he spoke, hank thought of something and said: "charlie, actually you can also study this field. You are not short of money or resources, and you have the shipping channel of Ys Shipping. If you are in the automobile industry, there will be There is a lot of room for development, and this industry is very fulfilling. If one day all the cars you make are running on the streets, you will feel very proud. "

charlie smiled and said: "To be honest, Uncle Hank, I don't have a high degree of education and don't know much about cars. If you really ask me to do this, I will be blind. "

With that said, charlie added: "But I very much agree with your point of view. The new energy market is a trend, and its proportion will definitely be higher and higher in the future. If you are interested, I can introduce you to me. Let's get to know each other. If you want to give it a try, I can also be your investor.

hank waved his hands quickly and laughed at himself: “I’m just an old scholar who studies finance. Let me tell you, I can talk about it all day and all night, but let me put it into practice, I guess I’m not as good as you.” “ charlie shook his head and said: “Sometimes, what is needed to be an industry is not necessarily professional skills, but strategic vision. No matter how strong the technology is, choosing the wrong direction will only lead to a dead end. If Anjia wants to make complete vehicles, he must Let them learn from you, and even better if you join in!

hank smiled and said: “It’s okay to join, but after I return to China, I have done a fairly detailed research on the domestic new energy market. If they are interested, I can volunteer to be a consultant and talk to them about some of my ideas. Maybe it will help them.” Can be of some help.

charlie hurriedly said: “That’s great! ” Let’s do this. After you and Aunt Han finish your wedding, I will find an opportunity to make arrangements for everyone to meet and have a good chat. “

Hearing what Jacob said, charlie Wade guessed that he should already know about Matilda’s intention to marry hank.

So, charlie Wade said: “Dad, I happen to be not far away. Come over now and meet us at the door.”

Jacob choked up and said: “Okay, then I won’t drive. I’ll wait for you at the door. My dear son-in-law. Hurry up!”

”Okay.” charlie Wade agreed, but still deliberately delayed for a few minutes after hanging up the phone.

After all, hank had just left, and he was also going to pick up Matilda from the University for the Elderly. If he went there now, the four of them might meet at the school gate, which would be even more embarrassing.

charlie Wade is not afraid of embarrassment, he is afraid that his father-in-law will be further irritated.

After deliberately delaying for a while, Charlie Wade drove to the University for the Elderly.

And when he was going to the University for the Elderly, Matilda was waiting for Hank on the roadside in front of the University for the Elderly.

Jacob also left the University for the Elderly in despair at this time, but when he saw Matilda standing on the roadside from a distance, he subconsciously stopped.

At this moment, he was extremely lacking in self-confidence. In fact, he had always had this self-knowledge and knew that there was no slight difference between him and Hank.

Hank is a true senior intellectual. He is highly educated and knowledgeable. Not only did he make great achievements in the financial field back then, he is now a professor in Auros Hill and has a high social status.

Moreover, Hank is taller, better built, and handsomer than me. He is even more eloquent than me. He can speak English, Korean, and Spanish easily. The most important thing is that he is also versatile and can dance. , can play musical instruments, and can sing better than the average person, but in front of him, I am nothing.

Therefore, Jacob could only rely on one thing to regain his confidence in front of Hank, that is, Matilda loved herself, not Hank.

Sometimes, he would even feel complacent about it. So what if you, Hank, are better and better than me? The woman you like doesn't like you, but has liked me for more than thirty years. Things like relationships are so unreasonable.

But now?

The only advantage he had to save face was gone, and was even taken away by the other party and became his advantage, which made him feel even more inferior.

Therefore, when he saw Matilda waiting for Hank from a distance, his first reaction was to quickly turn away, find a thick French plane tree, and use the trunk to block his face.

Soon, hank drove his domestic new energy vehicle to the roadside.

Jacob hid behind the tree, furtively revealing one eye to look at it from a distance, and couldn't help but murmur to himself: "Damn, you have the nerve to come out in such a broken car. The key is that you don't even have a glass film on it. His surname is He." Are you so confident? If it were me, I wouldn't be able to lift the front of this car!"

While complaining in a low voice, Matilda had already sat in the passenger seat of hank with a smile on her face.

Then, a scene happened that made Jacob collapse. Matilda and hank involuntarily approached each other, and then kissed across the armrest of the car.

In fact, the two middle-aged and elderly lovers are usually relatively reserved. After being together, they have rarely been so intimate outside.

But things are really different today.

Because from now on, they will actually start preparing for their wedding, which is another new milestone in their relationship.

Moreover, Matilda was very moved by hank's actions.

After returning to China, Matilda met many middle-aged and elderly people at the University for the Elderly, and also saw some middle-aged and elderly people falling in love. In her opinion, middle-aged and elderly people in China rarely get married when they fall in love, and more often each of them sets their own conditions. To list it all out, both parties negotiate amicably just like business cooperation negotiations. If possible, they can become partners directly. However, for the sake of themselves and their children, they rarely choose to get married and hold a wedding.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6603

The situation in the United States is also quite special. In the West, Most people are more cautious about marriage. Many people have been together for many years and have several children, but they are still boyfriend and girlfriend. Being together and having children together and raising them together does not mean that they will definitely get married. Many people By the time a person actually gets married, both of them already have several children.

It is precisely because of this environment that when old people in the West fall in love, they often just fall in love, and at most they develop into cohabitation, and very few get married.

But Hank acted like a young man in love, inviting her to travel, preparing a proposal ceremony at the beach without telling her, and kneeling down to propose with a ring. These actions moved Matilda and gave her an unprecedented sense of security.

Now, Hank has taken a big step forward in the wedding of the two of them, and has set the wedding date in just one week, which makes her even more happy. The kiss is also the best portrayal of the two people's mood at this time.

However, Jacob, who was crying from the bottom of his heart and peeping from a distance, made him even more depressed.

After the two kissed for a few seconds, their faces were filled with happy and bright smiles, and then Hank drove away happily.

When Jacob saw the car disappearing around the corner, his heart collapsed and despaired. He slid to the ground with his back against the sycamore tree. His tears kept flowing like a bursting dam. He was so angry that he even subconsciously slammed towards the ground. I punched him a few times, but luckily it was on dirt, otherwise my fingers would have been injured.

At this time, the familiar voice came again: "Vice President, what's wrong with you?! Why are you crying again? Has your son-in-law come to pick you up?"

Jacob, who was looking down in tears, looked up and saw another It was the blind bastard who was even more furious.

He quickly wiped away his tears and waved his hands and said, "I'm fine. I'm fine. Don't worry about me. I'm just not feeling well."

The man was so busy that he asked again, "What about your son-in-law? Why hasn't he arrived yet?"

Jacob He said: "Already coming this way."

As he said that, charlie Wade had already driven to the gate of the University for the Elderly.

When he didn't see Jacob on the roadside at the door, he directly took the direction and drove the car into the courtyard of the University for the Elderly.

When the car happened to pass by the sycamore tree, charlie Wade saw his father-in-law sitting slumped on the ground.

So he quickly braked the car to a stop, opened the door and walked over.

Seeing that his face was full of tears and his expression was uglier than being beaten by Elaine, charlie Wade asked with concern: "Dad, are you okay? Why are you sitting here?"

charlie Wade asked knowingly, but also to make his performance more real.

When Jacob saw charlie Wade, the grievances in his heart instantly found an outlet. Uncontrollably, they immediately turned into tears, which burst out of his eyes in an instant.

Before Jacob could speak, the enthusiastic student quickly said to charlie Wade: "You are Vice President 's son-in-law, right? Vice President doesn't know what's going on right now. Just what I saw made me cry twice." Hey, I guess I'm feeling unwell. You should take Vice President to the hospital quickly!"

charlie Wade pretended to be surprised and asked: "Dad, what's going on? Why are you still crying? Where's the matter? Are you comfortable? I'll take you to the hospital for a checkup!"

Jacob gave the man a depressed look, gritted his teeth and said, "Zhao Xubin, thank you!"

The man didn't realize that what Jacob said was irony, and said with a shy face: "Vice President, look at what you said, why are you so polite to me? How about I accompany you to the hospital and help you?" Make a call or something."

"No, no, no." Jacob felt that this man was like a god of plague, and said quickly: "My son-in-law can just accompany me, I won't bother you."

After saying that, he quickly stretched out his arm to charlie Wade He said: "Good son-in-law, please help me, I can't get up." charlie Wade stretched out his hand to help him up. After thanking Zhao Xubin, he helped Jacob get into the passenger seat.

Only then did Jacob discover that charlie Wade was driving a Rolls-Royce, and it was a more expensive Rolls-Royce Phantom.

So he asked in surprise: "Good son-in-law, where did you get this car?"

This car was arranged by Sister Xian for charlie Wade when charlie Wade left Purple Mountain Villa, and charlie Wade drove it back to Tangchen It's a first-class product, so it's also available today.

So charlie Wade said to him: "One of my clients lent me the car. You came to me for something urgent, so I brought his car over."

After saying that, charlie Wade said again: "Dad, you are really good at it." , you're crying like this, and you still care about the car, what's going on? Your friend said you've been crying for a while?"

When Jacob heard this, he cursed angrily: "That Zhao Xubin, he's in his fifties He's a person, but he doesn't have any F*cking eyesight. He's a fu*cking idiot! The more he annoys him, the more he nags and nags in front of him. He really deserves to be scolded!"

charlie Wade asked him: " Dad, what are you bothering about?"

Jacob's face instantly became extremely depressed. He sighed and choked: "charlie Wade... your Aunt Matilda... is getting married..."

"Getting married?" charlie Wade was curious. asked: "With Professor He?"

"Yes!" Jacob gritted his teeth and cursed: "It's that bastard named He!"

charlie Wade shrugged his shoulders and said helplessly: "It's going to rain, and my mother wants her family, who can Can you take care of it? Besides, we are already together, so getting married is normal, right?"

Jacob asked angrily: "Why should he?! Your Aunt Matilda has clearly been in love with me for more than thirty years!"

charlie Wade He nodded and said in a calm tone: "But you have been married to my mother for more than thirty years."

Jacob seemed to have been stepped on, and said angrily: "I was in a drunken mess back then... Bah, bah, bah! I That was because he was raped by Elaine after being drunk!"

charlie Wade asked back: "Dad, what's the use of talking about this now? Even if you talked about what happened more than 30 years ago, it wouldn't delay the marriage of other people's lovers. Family members."

After saying that, charlie Wade said again: "Dad, when you are alive, you must look forward. Aunt Matilda loved you more than thirty years ago, but it does not mean that she will still love you now. Who you love is your own freedom. , you can't force it."

"I..." Jacob argued with a blushing neck: "When your Aunt Matilda just returned to China, you also went with me to pick her up. Can't you see that she has old feelings for me? "

charlie Wade nodded: "I can see it."

After saying that, his tone changed and he raised his eyebrows and said: "But that is also the past tense."

After saying that, charlie Wade added: "There is a joke that I don't know if you heard. I've heard it said that a person would give five yuan to a beggar at the door every day when he went out. As time went by, the beggar felt that it was natural for him to give himself five yuan every day. One day, the man left without giving him the money. He He angrily stopped the beggar and asked why he didn't give him the money. The man had to say, I used the money to buy gifts for my wife. As a result, the beggar was very angry and asked him again: "You buy gifts for your wife?" Why should you use my money?"

At this point, charlie Wade paused slightly and then said: “So you see, Aunt Matilda has loved you for more than thirty years, but that is also her business. Her love can be given to you, but It doesn’t have to be given to you. One day when she decides to give it to someone else, you have no right to interfere, not even the right to question.”

Jacob felt humiliated and asked angrily: “charlie Wade, are you Don’t you think I’m not worthy of Matilda?”

charlie Wade drove with one hand, raised the other hand to wave, and said calmly: “No, no, Dad, let me be honest, what you have to consider now is not you. Whether you are worthy of Aunt Matilda is a question. After all, Aunt Matilda is about to marry Professor He. Even if you are worthy of her, if she doesn’t choose you, what can you do?

Jacob asked hurriedly: “Then you mean to let me try to save it before their wedding?” “ charlie Wade was helpless and blurted out: “What can we save at this time? What can we save? What you have to consider now is what if your mother knows that Aunt Matilda is getting married! As far as I know, you have never told your mother about Aunt Matilda’s return to China. Now if the news of Aunt Matilda’s marriage reaches her ears, her character will definitely want to find out when Aunt Matilda came back. What are you doing back here? If you let her know that Aunt Matilda is at the University for the Elderly, and has had many interactions with you, and even went to Korea for exchanges together, then your good days will come to an end! “

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6605

”What a fool!”

When Jacob heard charlie Wade’s words, he was immediately frightened to death.

He blurted out very nervously and asked: “charlie Wade... Your Aunt Matilda will go directly to my house to send an invitation to invite me, right? If Elaine knew that your Aunt Matilda returned to China, I kept it secret from her for so long, she would have to follow I’m desperate!”

charlie Wade had already seen through Jacob, and he would never be able to escape Elaine's shadow and clutches in his life, so he shook his head and said, "I have no way of knowing whether they will invite you or not. If you are afraid, you can tell Aunt Matilda then that you are not invited to the wedding and you don't want to go."

Jacob sighed and said, "This is just a delaying measure. Even if I don't know this time, I may tell you when in the future. I said it, in fact, many of our classmates know about your Aunt Matilda's return to China. You also went to the party at that time, but everyone has no interaction or contact with Elaine, so Elaine never knew about it."

charlie Wade smiled and said: "Han The time when my aunt returns to China is also very sensitive. If I remember correctly, when she returned to China, it happened to be the days when my mother was deceived by the pyramid scheme and disappeared."

Elaine stole charlie Wade's bank card and put it inside All the money was transferred to herself, and she was imprisoned and tortured.

However, Elaine never dared to tell anyone the specific experience of that time, so she could only excuse it as a pyramid scheme.

At that time, when Elaine was being bullied and tortured in prison, Matilda happened to return to China. Jacob was extremely happy at the time. His biggest dream was to make Elaine disappear completely.

If Elaine knew that Matilda returned to China at that time, and Jacob didn't look for her at all at that time, but went to pick up Matilda in person and invited Matilda to his house for dinner, he would probably really risk his life with Jacob.

The reason why charlie Wade reminded Jacob was to let him wake up as soon as possible. Since he couldn't get rid of Elaine, he should stop worrying about others, otherwise he would be looking for life and death all day long, and he didn't dare to tell Elaine and Claire that he would eventually have to When he complained to charlie Wade, charlie Wade was too lazy to be his tree hole.

As soon as charlie Wade mentioned this matter, Jacob became even more panicked and quickly asked charlie Wade: “Good son-in-law, you have to give Dad some advice on this matter. That woman Elaine is a psycho. What if she knows this?” , I was so angry that it was not impossible to sneak into my room one night and stab me! It’s not like you don’t know how ruthless that woman is when she punishes her enemies. My mother, my elder brother, souna, who wouldn’t be affected by it? Is she going to die?”

charlie Wade said: “I can’t help with this matter. It’s okay if mom doesn’t receive the news. If there is news, the most I can do is try to persuade her while she is holding the knife.”

Saying that, charlie Wade said again: “Let’s do this, Dad, you might as well stop coming to the University for the Elderly in the future. You should take the initiative to draw a clear line with Aunt Matilda and concentrate on your calligraphy and painting association. What if Mom knows that Aunt Matilda is back?” Regarding the matter, I will try my best to help you hide the fact that you picked her up and invited her to the house for dinner. In this way, if mom finds out, you will stare and say that the two of you have no intersection, let alone personal contact. At least There is still room for mediation.”

Jacob sighed and said, “What if she finds out about the exchange in South Korea?”

charlie Wade smiled and said, “Just tell the truth, just say that Aunt Matilda is with her boyfriend. My friend Professor He went to exchange together. The old couple going to South Korea for exchange is equivalent to Aurous Hill City inviting them to travel at their own expense. You are just a light bulb that is just trying to make money. In this way, my mother will feel better. Anyway, she has no way to check the two people in the family. When did we get together?”

After hearing this, Jacob felt very uncomfortable, but he could only say helplessly: “It seems there is no other good way...” After saying that, he quickly asked charlie Wade: “Okay Son-in-law, if you can stop going out to pick up jobs recently, don’t go out. If your mother goes crazy one day, you can help me stop it.”

charlie Wade readily agreed and said with a smile: “Don’t worry, Claire will be back in two days. With us here, even if mom finds out, you won’t be in any serious trouble. Anyway, you will be considered a cheater at most.” After saying that, charlie Wade reminded again: “But mom If someone comes up to you and hits you twice or grabs you twice, just endure it and endure the calm for a while.”

Jacob was extremely depressed and said in annoyance: “What the hell is this! If I had known this was the case, I would have It’s better to go to court directly and divorce her openly! In that case, I will definitely be able to make things right with your Aunt Matilda, and then it will be his turn to be hank!”

charlie Wade said ruthlessly: “Dad, you are wrong to think so. If you file for divorce in court, do you know what mom will do?”

Jacob snorted coldly: “It’s nothing more than beating me, scolding me, and driving me out of the house. It doesn’t matter if I leave the house, the house is yours anyway. , Elaine and I don’t have any common property. At worst, I will just live outside.”

After that, he said regretfully: “Hey! I should have made up my mind to make this decision earlier! As a vice president, my income It makes sense. Matilda also has some wealth, so why can’t she live her life happily? Now it’s better. If she makes a mistake, she will regret it forever!”

charlie Wade shook his head and said, “Dad, you think too simply. Mom can make that row The fact that the cuckold is always hanging on the balcony shows that she is by no means a person who can change things easily;” “

If you sleep with Aunt Matilda and fly together, she will definitely go to where you work and scold you, and she will scold you where Aunt Matilda works. , No matter what the facts are, she will definitely describe you as a contemporary who abandoned his wife, and Aunt Matilda as a vixen who seduces other people’s husbands and destroys other people’s families;” “

By _ / March 21, 2024

And she will definitely go to the community where you live. Swearing day and night, you might even go to the top of the building where you and Aunt Matilda live and pretend to jump, attracting people from the whole neighborhood, the fire department, the police, and the TV station. You forgot that she was at home with everyone before. Are people in the neighborhood swearing? Threatening to go to someone's house with a knife and slit their wrists to commit suicide, smearing blood along the crack of the other person's door into the other person's house, and being so willing to yell at strangers, why don't you just risk your life? "

When Jacob heard this, his face turned pale, and his body trembled uncontrollably.

charlie Wade added: "Also, now that short videos are so developed, many blind people like to follow the trend and set the pace. Then there will be another one The wave of people are adding fuel to the flames on the Internet, and maybe you two will be shouted at by everyone on the entire Internet. By that time, you will be pointed out anywhere in the country, let alone in Aurous Hill. If you are not in Aurous Hill, She will never give up if she is completely ruined. By then, you and Aunt Matilda will only be ruined and unable to live a good life. "

Jacob was in despair. These descriptions of charlie Wade instantly created a full sense of picture in his mind, making him feel as if he had experienced it himself.

And then, he suddenly let out a sigh of relief, and he seemed to also After thinking about it, he sighed: "Damn it, to be honest, I was just afraid that she would die if I came with me, so I didn't dare to break up with her and go to court to file for divorce..."

What charlie Wade said was not alarmist. .

Elaine's acting style is erratic, sometimes strong and sometimes weak.

When she is strong, she can ride on her aunt Cynthia Wade's body and slap her face hard, and become the ghost of Bedford Mountain; when she is weak, she can be beaten by Mr. willson. My wife and Wendy had their legs broken, and they couldn't even sleep peacefully in prison.

But once this matter comes into contact with Matilda, she will definitely turn into the African honey badger Flathead, look down on life and death, and go to death.

If Jacob If I had the courage to take this step at that time, I would definitely find a way to help him so that Elaine would no longer cause trouble for him and Matilda.

But Matilda gave Jacob a chance, but Jacob didn't use it.

So Jacob's best choice now is to figure it out as soon as possible, and figure out that it is impossible for him to get together with Matilda. As long as he figures this out, he will feel much better.

Jacob's character has always been very timid and stable, so when he was frightened by charlie Wade, he suddenly sobered up a lot.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but sigh: "There is a time in life, but there is no time in life. Don't force it. I couldn't get together with your Aunt Matilda more than thirty years ago. It seems reasonable that I can't get together now." Now I just pray that Elaine doesn't know about it, and if she does, she won't make any trouble. If she really comes to the Calligraphy and Painting Association to cause trouble, I, the vice president, will have no shame!"

charlie Wade nodded. With a smile, he said: "Don't worry, Claire will be back soon. If she finds out, Claire and I will persuade her together, and it will probably end soon."

After saying that, charlie Wade reminded again: "But dad, you are on your own You must be careful to keep a distance from Aunt Matilda in the future and don't have too many interactions with her. Otherwise, even if Aunt Matilda marries Professor He, it won't stop your mother from thinking that you still have her in your heart and that you are mentally cheating. There are times when you feel uncomfortable."

Jacob said without thinking: "Don't worry, I will never come to the University for the Elderly!"

After saying that, he folded his hands on his chest and said with an annoyed look: "It turned out that this was the case. I don't plan to come because I don't want to come. I won't be excited enough to see you Aunt Matilda when I come."

Seeing that he had really given up from the bottom of his heart, charlie Wade couldn't help but secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

For him, he didn't want to see Jacob sighing all day long, and he didn't want Jacob to still miss Matilda and turn into an old licking dog to cause trouble for the couple.

The best solution is that no one interferes with the other. The couple lives a sweet life, and Jacob continues to go to his calligraphy and painting association to make up for his work, so that he can relax a lot and don't have to worry about a fire in the backyard.

At this time, Jacob asked charlie Wade with some anxiety: "Good son-in-law, tell me, what is the probability that your mother will know about this?" charlie Wade said lightly: "According to Murphy's law, bad things will happen sooner or later."

Then, charlie Wade said again: "This matter is a leftover bomb. The core of the problem is how to minimize the lethality of the explosion. So remember what I just said. Once the matter is exposed, you must do everything possible. To reduce the impact."

charlie Wade also didn't want Elaine to make all the noise, and if she was embarrassed, he and Claire wouldn't be able to get it on their faces either.

Jacob nodded like a fool: "Good son-in-law, I will listen to you!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6607

Before charlie Wade came, Jacob was still angry that Matilda was about to marry hank. After charlie Wade came, now he was only worried that Matilda would send him an invitation.

At the same time, Matilda and hank were negotiating the guest list for the banquet.

Although their social circles are different, their attributes are basically the same. Almost all their friends are in the United States, and they only have some relatively distant relatives in China.

As for Aurous Hill locals, both of them have some colleagues. Although Matilda has some classmates, they have almost no contact with them, so Jacob still sees each other often.

So, the two of them discussed which ones to invite or which ones not to invite.

Matilda was the first to suggest: "Let's go through it one by one. Let's talk about the American friends first. My idea is that these people won't make any notification. After all, it's not easy to come over such a long distance. We know the way. Inviting others from afar seems a bit ignorant of the world, what do you think?"

hank nodded and said with a smile: "I think the same as you. Although friends in the United States have many contacts and deep friendships, it is really not suitable to inform them. Come to the wedding. If they don't want to come, it seems like we are asking for trouble. If they want to come, we will feel bad about it. So my idea is that after we get married, we can take some time to go back to the United States together. It's up to you. I also have my own social circle. When the time comes, let's visit together and introduce each other to each other's friends. What do you think?"

Matilda smiled happily and said, "I'm thinking the same thing as you. Likewise, after the wedding is over, take some time to go back to the United States. While revisiting the old place, you can also meet old friends."

hank smiled and said: "That's great, let's just go to the United States for our honeymoon. What do you think? How?"

Matilda said happily: "I'm sure there's no problem. The main thing is you, can the school be easily accessible?"

"No problem." hank said with a smile: "I'll say hello to the dean and ask for a wedding leave. Ten days and a half month is still no problem."

After saying that, hank added: "By the way, speaking of colleagues, as for the wedding, I have an idea to invite the dean and a few colleagues who have a good relationship, but the two of us After all, we are getting older. People in China are very particular about personal relationships. Many colleagues are married, so instead of accepting gifts at our wedding, we invite everyone to come and witness it, and have a lively meal by the way. What do you think?"

Matilda nodded and said with a smile: "It's better not to accept the gift. Accepting the gift seems too philistine."

hank asked her: "Then will your colleagues from the University of the Elderly invite you over?"

Matilda thought for a while and said: "Please." , we will have to work together in the future, and we will meet each other without looking up. If this kind of thing is not notified, people may complain about it."

hank nodded, hesitated for a moment, and then asked: "Then... where is Jac? ?"

"You mean Jacob..." Matilda smiled awkwardly: "When I left the University for the Elderly today, he said he wanted to treat me to dinner. I said I didn't have time, so I mentioned marriage to him. , it stands to reason that he already knows, we should also invite him."

hank asked in surprise: "Old Jacob wants to invite you to dinner? Did you tell me why?"

"No." Matilda smiled and said: "It's probably the old man. Let's have a meal together among classmates."

In fact, Matilda is a smart woman.

She guessed Jacob's intention when Jacob invited her to have a meal near the school, so while she declined, she took the opportunity to tell him that she was going to marry hank, in order to make Jacob give up on her. After all, she had already After completely getting over the relationship back then and preparing to get married again, she naturally didn't want Jacob to have any illusions about herself.

However, she didn't want hank to think too much, so she deliberately downplayed Jacob's possible true intentions.

But hank is also very smart. He knows the past history of Matilda and Jacob, and also knows that the Chinese name of Matilda's son Paul is Han Mukun. Although he also believes that Matilda will definitely not have feelings for him anymore, when he thinks of Matilda He has been obsessed with Jacob for more than thirty years, and he is still a little jealous in his heart.

However, smart people will not dwell too much on a person's past, especially the past that has nothing to do with themselves.

Therefore, he did not show any jealousy and just said with a smile: "Since you mentioned it to Jacob, wouldn't it be inappropriate not to invite him?"

Matilda nodded and said: "It is indeed inappropriate not to invite him, but it's not appropriate to invite him. After all, he is a man with a family. When inviting him, it must be stated on the invitation that he and his whole family are invited. But when I think of his wife Elaine, I can't help but feel dizzy. To be honest, I really don't want to have anything to do with that woman anymore, so this matter is a dilemma. I can't clearly tell Jacob that he is the only person to be invited, right? If this reaches Elaine's ears, I don't know how much trouble it will cause. "

After that, Matilda looked at hank and asked: "What do you think?"

hank smiled and said: "I can't make up your mind on this matter, but what you just said is right. If you want to invite me, you really have to invite his family, otherwise with his wife's character, this matter will really cause endless troubles."

After saying that, hank thought for a moment and said seriously: "Matilda, you should consider this matter yourself, no matter what you decide, I will give it my all. 100% support."

Matilda nodded and said: "Okay, then Jacob will wait and see. I will send a message later to ask him what he means. I guess he is also afraid of causing complications. If he decides not to come, then we won't send him an invitation."

hank asked: "What if he decides to come?"

Matilda thought for a while and smiled: "I think the possibility is slim. I still know Jacob. He is very afraid. Elaine, there is a high probability that he doesn't want Elaine to know about this kind of thing. If I let him think about it himself, then there is a high probability that he will not come."

After saying that, Matilda said: "But this matter is like this first, wait for me After asking him what he meant, let's move on. I don't plan to invite my old classmates from Aurous Hill. I met them once before at a class reunion and they all loved comparison and were too exaggerated. I don't want to have anything to do with them. It's not too much involved, but the members of the same team we went to Korea to exchange with are quite decent people and people. At the beginning, people said that if we get married, we must invite them to a wedding banquet. We must Do you keep what you say?"

"Yes." hank nodded and said: "The tone is basically set like this. Apart from charlie Wade, the people who will be invited are our respective colleagues and teammates during the exchange in Korea. Jacob, you ask Ask him what he means."

After that, hank added: "Let's continue talking about what happened after the wedding. I'll tell you what I think first. If you have any objections, interrupt me at any time."

Matilda nodded, holding her chin and looking at him. , smiled and said: "Go ahead, I'll listen."

Matilda's eyes were bright, and hank was a little embarrassed by her look. He turned around and took a sip of ice water before continuing: "What I want to do is wait until the wedding. After that, we will go to the United States for our honeymoon first."

After saying that, he looked at Matilda, waiting for her reply.

Matilda still held her chin, looked at him with a smile on her face, and said with a smile: "I have no problem, you continue."

hank nodded and said: "Let's go to New York as our first stop. After all, it's more convenient to go to New York. When we get to New York, we'll first meet our old colleagues and friends who started our business. I happen to have many old friends on Wall Street. Let's visit. After meeting your colleagues and friends, stop by Wall Street to visit my friends, and then we'll rent a car and go to New Haven. After all, New Haven is close to New York. When we arrive, we'll go meet your old man at Yale. Classmate, finally, please accompany me to Stanford and meet my old classmates. If we hurry up, we can finish it in six or seven days. During the rest of the vacation, we can go to an island with a warm climate to relax and unwind."

Matilda He asked curiously: "Why not go to Stanford as the first stop? It is closer to fly from Aurous Hill to the West Coast of the United States. Wouldn't it be more time-saving for us to go to Stanford first, then to New York, and then to New Haven for the last stop?"

hank said with a look on his face Looking at Matilda affectionately, she said with a smile: "When I accompany my wife back to the United States, the first stop must be to go to the place where you lived. I just think of it as accompanying you back to your parents' home."

Matilda knew hank's intentions for her. , this kind of intention is not only reflected in the big aspects of marriage and love, but also in every small detail in life.

She was moved in her heart and said with a smile: "From now on, you will be the head of the family. I will leave the decision-making to you. I will listen to you."

After that, she asked again: "You said you will spend the rest of the holiday?" Do you have any good ideas for an island with a warm climate?"

hank said: "We are going to the United States first this time, so it is suitable to choose an island between the United States and China. I originally wanted to go to the Maldives, but from now on It's too far to fly from San Francisco to the Maldives. It takes at least 24 hours. What do you think of Palau? It's relatively close to China and can save a lot of time overall. What do you think?"

Matilda smiled and said, "I told you so. You are the head of the family, so since you think Palau is suitable, then hurry up and book your flight tickets, and I will pick out some nice swimsuits tomorrow!"

When charlie drove Jacob back to Tangchen Yipin, Jacob's mobile phone happened to receive a WeChat message from Matilda.

Seeing that he was approaching the door of his house, Jacob hurriedly said to charlie: "My dear son-in-law, please pull over first!"

charlie stopped the car and asked him curiously: "What's wrong?"

Jacob said: "Your Aunt Matilda sent us a WeChat message. "

With that said, he opened the dialogue with Matilda in front of charlie.

charlie glanced at it casually and saw that Matilda's WeChat nickname was actually "aaa July Flowers, Birds, Fishes and Insects Confucius Temple Store". He asked in surprise: "Dad, why is Aunt Matilda called this on WeChat?"

Jacob carefully explained. Said: "This is the note I changed for her. Her avatar happens to be an iris, so I gave her the note of a flower, bird, fish and insect shop, mainly because I was afraid that Elaine would secretly look at my phone."

Jacob said while As he said that, he looked at the content sent by Matilda and said to charlie: "Your Aunt Matilda asked me if I want to attend her wedding with hank. If so, write me an invitation and invite our family to attend them. It's their wedding, charlie, how do you think I should reply?"

charlie asked back, "Don't you just happen to not want to go? Then just reply that the time is inconvenient and you won't go, and then be more generous and wish them a happy wedding. "

Jacob muttered in embarrassment: "I don't want to go, but if I refuse so readily, wouldn't it be inappropriate? Don't look back, your Aunt Matilda thinks I don't dare to go because I'm afraid of Elaine."

charlie asked him : "Isn't this what you really think?"

Jacob said very seriously: "It is my true thought, but at least it can't be easily guessed by others, otherwise where will I save my face in the future?"

Said, Jacob Then he said: "Didn't you see the words used by your Aunt Matilda? You invited our family. You probably said that because you thought I was afraid of Elaine."

charlie sighed helplessly: "Dad, please listen to my advice. , at this time, don't think about losing face. If you want to borrow money from the slope, this is the best opportunity. Your best choice is to seize this opportunity immediately and solve it in one step. Don't make trouble again. It's over."

Jacob waved his hand and hummed: “I’m not a donkey, why should I go down a slope when someone else gives me one?”

After that, he said with a profound look: “My dear son-in-law, you don’t understand. People say that men have to have a good face. If you lose, you won’t lose. Although I, Jacob, am not sure about Matilda, I definitely can’t let them laugh at me behind my back.” As he spoke

, he typed and said to charlie said: “I agreed generously first, and when she sent me the invitation, I agreed first. The day before the wedding, I said that I had something to do and couldn’t go.”

charlie asked back: “Then you are not afraid that mom will know About this?”

“What are you afraid of?” Jacob pouted: “Your Aunt Matilda will never contact her even if she kills her. Even if the invitation says to invite our whole family, she will definitely send the invitation to me. As long as I don’t tell, who can know?”

charlie shook his head and said: “Dad, I’d better advise you to be more cautious.”

Seeing that the work was done, charlie had no choice but to sigh helplessly: “As long as you think it’s okay.”

Jacob did not respond to charlie, but skillfully deleted all the conversations between himself and Matilda, and then said to charlie : “Let’s go home!”

the other side.

Matilda looked at Jacob’s reply and was a little confused.

She thought that when she mentioned inviting Jacob's family, Jacob should know that as long as she made an excuse and said she didn't have time on the wedding day, this would be the best way to solve the problem.

But she never expected that Jacob would ignore her, and instead replied very simply: "No problem, our family of four will be there on time!"

She couldn't help but feel a little confused, and thought to herself: "What does Jacob mean? Do you really want to take Elaine to the wedding?"

Thinking of this, Matilda couldn't help but frown.

She didn't want to see Elaine, especially at her wedding.

hank, who was writing the invitation, saw Matilda's solemn expression and couldn't help but ask: "Matilda, what's wrong?"

Matilda said truthfully: "Jacob replied to the message. He said he would bring the whole family to our invitation. Wedding."

"Really?" hank didn't have Jacob's weird brain circuitry, so he couldn't figure it out. He said, "It stands to reason that he is so afraid of his wife, so he shouldn't tell his wife such a thing. Why do you want to bring her to our wedding?"

"I don't know..." Matilda sighed: "I'm confused by him. I can't understand what he was thinking about."

hank thought about it . Thinking about it, he said with a smile: "To be honest, I can see that Jacob still has old feelings for you. You are suddenly going to marry me. He may be a little angry. The whole family will come to our wedding together." , maybe there is an element of anger."

Matilda shook her head and said: "This... I can't comment too much."

hank smiled and said: "Actually, it's understandable that Jacob did this. After all, we will all settle in Aurous Hill in the future. , Regarding your matter, he can't always hide it from Elaine. Maybe he wants to take this opportunity to pierce the window paper. The long-term pain is worse than the short-term pain."

Matilda bit her lip, a little confused. Said: "From what I know about him in the past, he has an absolute ostrich personality. If a lion wants to eat him, he will stick his head in the sand. Even if he knows that the lion may bite him, he will not care when. Forget it, but if you want him to pull his head out of the sand and choose to face it head-on, it is absolutely impossible."

After saying that, Matilda added: "According to his previous behavior style, he will never take the initiative to tell Matilda Let's talk about when Elaine will know about return. If he doesn't know, it means he has made money." He hank frowned and said, "If you say so, then his decision is indeed a bit strange."

After that, he asked Matilda: "Do you want me to call charlie and ask?"

"Forget it." Matilda waved her hands and said, "After all, charlie is Jacobs son-in-law. It's not appropriate for us to speculate on Jacob behind his back. This matter is Let's just wait and see what happens. There are many guests on the wedding day, so we're not afraid of Elaine getting into trouble. Besides, didn't you invite charlie to be the witness? With charlie here, I believe Elaine will restrain himself a little.

", Matilda added: "If the time bomb of Elaine can be solved on this occasion, it will not be a bad thing, but I don't know if Jacob will be dealt with by Elaine in private. After the wedding is over, you Remember to remind charlie and ask him to pay more attention when he goes back!"

"No problem." hank nodded in agreement and said, "Then I will write an invitation to Jacob and invite Mr. Jacob and his family to attend."

Matilda nodded and said: "Okay, just write it like this."

hank asked again: "By the way, how should I give it to him after I finish writing it?"

Matilda said: "I will give it to him. He will have a modern calligraphy and painting class at the University for the Elderly tomorrow. I will take the lecture to him when the time comes."
