By / March 24, 2024

The next afternoon, the calligraphy and painting lecture at the University for the Elderly suddenly had a new lecturer.

As the vice president of the Painting and Calligraphy Association, Jacob did not attend. Instead, he hired a substitute teacher from the Painting and Calligraphy Association to give a lecture for him.

Matilda specially brought the invitation written by hank for Jacob, but she did not see him come to class, so she waited for the substitute teacher to come up after class and asked: "Hello, why is Vice President Jacob not here today? "

The substitute teacher replied: "Vice President Jacob has been busy with the association recently, so he asked me to come over and give lectures for him at the University for the Elderly."

Matilda asked curiously: "Do you know when he will come over next time? "

The substitute teacher said: "I guess he won't be here during this time, because he gave me the topics for some subsequent courses and asked me to make ppts to complete the lectures. It is estimated that I will be the substitute for some time in the future. "

As he said, he asked Matilda: "Do you have anything to do with Vice President Jacob?"

Matilda nodded and thanked: "I'll call him myself. Thank you."

After leaving the classroom, Matilda called Jacob Make the call.

On the other end of the phone, Jacob was bored in the office of the Painting and Calligraphy Association.

In the Calligraphy and Painting Association, although he has reached the rank of executive vice president, that is, the actual second-in-command, he actually has no actual work content.

It's not because I'm being excluded, it's mainly because my level is too low.

Usually when everyone is discussing and researching some related topics, he either doesn't speak, and when he does speak, he makes a joke.

But because President Pei held him in high regard, no one dared to really laugh at him. President Pei also knew that Jacob had no level at all, so he basically didn't arrange any substantive work for him.

After Matilda returned to China and became a visiting professor at the University for the Elderly, Jacob took the initiative to ask Ying to take the lead in cooperating with the University for the Elderly. President Pei felt that the University for the Elderly said it was a university, but in fact it was just a social club for the elderly with nothing academic in it. There were no hard targets, so I agreed.

During this period, Jacob had been working hard at the University for the Elderly, but suddenly he stopped going today, and he immediately felt relaxed.

While he was bored, he suddenly received a call from Matilda, and he felt depressed instantly. He knew why Matilda called him. She must have wanted to send him an invitation, but she was not there.

Although I definitely don't plan to go to this wedding, it's really inappropriate not to accept the invitation.

So, he pretended to answer the phone and said, "Matilda, are you looking for me?"

Matilda hummed and asked him, "Jacob, you didn't come to the University for the Elderly today. The teacher who took your place said, you may not be able to come over in the future? Is it true?"

Jacob said quickly: "Oh, this thing is true, mainly because there have been some actions in the meeting recently, and I am quite busy. As the executive vice president, I It's really not good to stay at the University for the Elderly every day. Our President Pei called me last night and said that there were too many things to do in the meeting and I couldn't do it without me, so I came back to help first. I'll come back when I have some free time. Come over."

Matilda knew that what Jacob said must be excuses, but she didn't tell him. She just asked him: "When is it convenient for you, can I send you the invitation?"

When Jacob heard this, he quickly said: "Oops, there's no need for you to make a special trip to send me an invitation. Let's just give the invitation to Xiao Wu, the little brother who helps me teach, and ask Xiao Wu to bring it to me when he returns to the meeting."

Seeing that he had said so, Matilda stopped insisting and said, "Okay, then I'll give him the invitation."

Jacob was in a bad mood and didn't want to say more to Matilda, so he said, "Well, Matilda, our President Pei has convened a meeting. I'll go first and talk later."

"Okay, you're busy first."

Jacob hung up the phone, threw the phone on the table, and lay down on the office chair. He put his legs on the desk, feeling exhausted.

Although his worry about Elaine diluted his sadness about Matilda's upcoming marriage, he would still feel very unhappy if he calmed down and thought about it.

He even felt in his heart that instead of doing this, Matilda might as well not come back at all.

While he was depressed, someone knocked on his office door. Before he could respond, the person pushed the door open and it was President Pei who came.

President Pei saw him and said with a smile: "Old Jacob, Old Jacob, you, the executive vice president, it's not easy for me to meet you once. You go to the University for the Elderly all day long. You haven't been back for a while, right?"

Jacob quickly took his legs off the table and said politely: "Hey, President Pei, haven't I been busy with the project at the University for the Elderly during this time? But recently I have arranged for Xiao Wu there, and I will do it every day from now on. Come to the meeting and listen to your teachings, President Pei.”

President Pei said quickly: “Don’t take it, don’t take it!”

Then he said with a smile: “Jacob, you just came back today, I have something to ask you. Help, if you can help, then help. It doesn’t matter if you can’t help.”

Jacob said hurriedly: “President Pei, look at what you said, you are my big brother and my old leader, so I am your soldier. , Isn’t that why I’m going to fight wherever you point me? If I can beat you, I, Jacob, have no obligation to do so. If I can’t beat me, Jacob, even with my old bones, has to go to the battlefield to show off my skills to be worthy of your hard work!”

President Pei was He was very happy with the compliment, and said with a smile: “Jacob, you can say that, I am a big brother, I am really proud of you. In this relationship between us brothers, I will not say polite words to you. I have a friend in our I work for a higher-level department in the province, and recently I wanted to move up the ladder, so I wanted to invite some key people out for a meal. I asked for connections and booked a gold box at Heaven Springs. It turned out that the person I found was really not very good. Awesome, we agreed on a gold box, but now it’s time to have dinner at night. We were notified at short notice that the gold box was not reserved, so we had to go to the silver box. This made my friend very depressed. He happened to invite me to the banquet with him, so I thought Since you have a good relationship with Mr. Don Albert, let’s see if we can arrange a better private room. Of course, it would be better if we could get a discount on meals. My friend doesn’t have much money, although he can’t afford it. But it still hurts a little bit.” It’s always difficult to decide on the private rooms in Heaven Springs, and many times the private rooms would rather be left empty than open to ordinary people.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6613

By / March 24, 2024

This is not because Don Albert has money and doesn’t want to make it, but the main reason is that his original intention of opening Heaven Springs was not to make money, but to show off his style and socialize.

When he was struggling in the society, he realized that what many people in society and big shots care about most is face. Drinking, eating, and daily consumption are all about striving for the best and the most expensive, and the social interaction of high-end people has no impact on privacy and social circles. The management attaches great importance to it. While Heaven Springs ensures first-class environment, first-class food and first-class service, it must also ensure first-class quality of customers.

Just like those elder brothers on the road, they never go to the restaurants that their younger brothers often go to. And in the restaurants that they often go to, even if they have money, the younger brothers don't dare to go casually, because once they go to the place where the boss likes to spend money, they will inevitably There will be some transgression.

Therefore, Heaven Springs has always had strict threshold restrictions. It would rather stay empty when there are no guests than let in some guests of insufficient quality.

Only in this way can Heaven Springs be ensured to be unique and high-style among Aurous Hill Hotels.

The diamond, gold, silver and bronze box settings are also similar to the airline's cabin and membership level.

Precisely because Don Albert has always adhered to the high threshold of Heaven Springs, it is still the highest-end hotel in Aurous Hill, bar none.

When Jacob heard what President Pei said, he couldn't help but asked with some doubts: "Why did that person agree to this if he can't book the golden box? Isn't this a scam?"

President Pei smiled bitterly and said: "In today's society, this kind of There are so many birds. Damn, if you don't have the diamond, you still have to take the porcelain job. The main one would rather kill the mistake than let it go. He agrees first and then thinks of a way. If it succeeds, he will make a profit. If it fails, he will not lose anything."

With that said, President Pei said again: "Jacob, you have to be careful about those people who make casual promises in the future. I had a friend before who was looking for someone to help his son settle in a big city. He met a fool who said one million I was able to get it done, but after waiting for a year, it didn't work. When I finally asked him to refund the money, he resisted and refused. My friend finally went to call the police, but the other party quickly gave him one million.”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6614

By _ / March 25, 2024

Hearing Jacob’s happy agreement, President Pei suddenly said happily: “Oh, Jacob, thank you so much!”

After saying that, he quickly said: “Jacob, it’s already past four o’clock, people like them are used to it. Let’s play egg-cracking in the box for a while before eating. See if you can implement it quickly. They should be gone after a while.”

After saying this, President Pei whispered to Jacob again: “Jacob , if you can still ask Mr. Don Albert to arrange a diamond box like last time, I will take you there to get to know each other for dinner today. Let me make it clear to you that those present today are all our superiors. The key personnel in the department, establish a good relationship with them, and maybe you and I will have the opportunity to reach a higher level in the future!”

Jacob has long heard that President Pei means to please the friend he calls, otherwise how could others He must have a big background to worry about treating guests. Now that he said this, he suddenly became enlightened.

He originally thought that his position as vice-president should be his ceiling, but now it seems that if he can work with President Pei to establish a good relationship with the people in the superior management unit, then President Pei will climb up in the future. Didn’t the top position naturally fall on his head?

Thinking of this, he immediately said: “Diamond box, right? President Pei, don’t worry, I will arrange it!”

After saying that, he immediately picked up his mobile phone and called charlie Wade.

At this time, charlie Wade was at the Champs Elysees hot spring villa, guarding Nanako and practicing the control of spiritual energy. After receiving a call from his father-in-law, he walked to the yard to answer the call and asked him: “Dad, what are you doing?”

Jacob said: "Okay. Son-in-law, daddy, I want to ask you a favor."

charlie Wade said, "Why are you being so polite? Just say whatever you want."

Jacob said hurriedly, "Can you help me ask Mr. Don Albert about the diamonds in Heaven Springs tonight? Has the box been reserved? If not, can a friend of mine use it? He wanted to book a gold box after looking for connections, but he was cheated. He happened to invite me to dinner tonight, so he asked me for help. I can't shirk it."

When charlie Wade heard that it was such a trivial matter, he said casually: "Okay dad, wait a moment, I will call their boss. As long as the diamond box is not booked tonight, it will be fine. "

Jacob was very excited and said quickly: "That's great! I'm waiting for your news, good son-in-law!" The matter of a diamond box was extremely simple for charlie Wade. He called Don Albert and asked Availability of the diamond box tonight.

In fact, Don Albert had already terminated the diamond box reservation service in case charlie Wade had any unexpected needs, so the diamond box tonight was naturally vacant, so charlie Wade asked him to reserve the diamond box in advance in the name of his father-in-law. .

When Don Albertyi heard that charlie Wade's father-in-law was going, he immediately put down what he was doing and prepared to rush to Heaven Springs in person to serve. It can be said that he was given enough face.

Seeing that things had been arranged, charlie Wade was about to call his father-in-law to tell him. Unexpectedly, Don Albert said to charlie Wade on the phone: "Master Wade, please do your work first. I can just inform your father-in-law about this little matter. The last time he went to Heaven Springs for dinner, I asked someone to leave his phone number."

"Okay." charlie Wade smiled and said, "Then tell him, and I won't worry about it."

Pei Hui at this time The leader asked Jacob nervously: “Jacob, can this happen?”

Jacob patted his chest and said, “Don’t worry, my son-in-law will definitely be fine if he takes action.”

Just as he said that, an unfamiliar number called.

When he answered the phone, he heard a somewhat familiar voice but he couldn’t remember who it was and said, “Are you Mr. Jacob?”

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6615

By / March 25, 2024

Jacob hummed, “It’s me, who are you?”

Don Albert said. Albert said respectfully on the other end of the phone: “Hello, Mr. Jacob, I am Don Albert, the boss of Heaven Springs. I wonder if you still remember me?”

Jacob was immediately excited when he heard that the other party claimed that his family was Don Albert. He turned on the speaker and said, “Hello, Fifth Master! Of course I remember you!”

President Pei’s eyes suddenly lit up when Jacob called him Fifth Master, and he quickly asked in a low voice: “Is it Don Albert Fifth Master?”

Jacob nodded repeatedly, his vanity suddenly filling up at this moment.

President Pei was also very excited and quickly came over to wait to hear what Mr. Don Albert had to say.

At this time, Don Albert said very humbly: “Mr. Jacob, please don’t call me Mr. Don Albert in the future. That’s just what the children outside call me for fun. You are Master Wade’s father-in-law, so you are my father-in-law.” Don Albert’s elder, just call me Don Albert.”

President Pei was completely shocked, thinking that this Jacob is so awesome, Don Albert actually called himself a junior in front of him, and he was so shameless.

Jacob was even more proud and asked quickly: “Um...Mr. Albert...has my son-in-law told you about the box?”

Jacob didn't know Charlie Wade's true identity, let alone the relationship between Mr. Albert and Charlie. The relationship between his son-in-law and his son-in-law was master-servant, so he didn't dare to call Don Albert by his first name.

At this time, Don Albertze said very enthusiastically: “Master Wade told me that I have reserved the diamond box for you tonight, and the highest-standard banquet is also prepared. I will go to Heaven Springs in person. To receive you and your friends, all purchases tonight will be free of charge!”

Jacob was stunned when he heard that the banquet of the highest standard in the diamond box cost hundreds of thousands casually, but Don Albert actually wanted to get free of charge? Isn't this too grand?

Moreover, this meal tonight was not a treat for me. I was following Pei Chang to enjoy the meal. If Don Albert waived the bill for this meal, then the favor he owed would be a bit unjust.

President Pei on the side was not willing to let Jacob take such a big favor, and quickly whispered in his ear: “Jacob, my friend is inviting the people above him to dinner tonight, and we are both supporting roles. Just ask Mr. Don Albert to give you a discount. If Mr. Don Albert waives the bill for your sake, those people who were invited will not accept my friend's kindness, and then his meal will be in vain. .”

After that, President Pei said again: “If Mr. Don Albert can give you a discount for your sake, those invited will also have to accept my friend's favor, and my friend will also ask you to help book a box and also... As for the discount, I appreciate your favor, and you will even acknowledge my favor for it. This way, not only will no one's face be hurt, but everyone will benefit, and you won't owe Don Albert a favor for a meal. What a win. !”

Jacob understood the meaning immediately and said quickly: “Mr. Albert, it is my friend who is treating you tonight. I don't want to overwhelm the guest. I would be very grateful if you could give me a discount.”

Although Don Albert has not read it, What kind of book, but in the subject of human relations and society, he is definitely one of the best, so he immediately understood the whole story.

Then, he said without hesitation: “Mr. Jacob, don’t worry, since I am your friend, I will definitely give you a big discount! Let’s do this! Your friend will get 50% off all purchases tonight! Wait until your guests are seated After that, I personally brought two bottles of good wine and sent them over, just as a small gesture!”

Giving others face is definitely a profound knowledge in China’s humane society.

Sometimes, you can’t give less face, but sometimes you can’t give too much face.

The more you give, the more favor you give.

It’s like a man taking his girlfriend to a friend’s restaurant for dinner. If this friend is better off than the man and generously waives the order in front of his girlfriend, it’s often not a good thing. He will definitely take over the meal, and even say Maybe it was because of his status as a restaurant owner and his excessive generosity that he attracted his girlfriend to him.

Since Jacob is a foil tonight, Don Albert must give Jacob enough face at the dinner, but at the same time, he must not hurt the host’s face. Otherwise, after finishing the meal, the host’s family will feel sad even if they haven’t spent a penny. Will bear grudge against Jacob.

Don Albert can naturally make this matter like an iron bucket, watertight.

Jacob also felt that he had gained great satisfaction in terms of face at this time, and asked Don Albert with a smile: “Mr. Albert we will go over there and beat eggs for a while, okay?”

Don Albert said hurriedly: “No problem , Of course, no problem! You are welcome at any time! I am almost at Heaven Springs, and I will be waiting for you and your friends at the door!”

Jacob thanked you, and then hung up the phone with some reluctance.

During this phone call, Don Albert praised himself so highly that he was truly authentic.

Comfortable, indescribable comfort all over the body instantly, as if every pore is breathing fresh and sweet air, which is intoxicating.

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6616

At this moment, President Pei has turned into a fanboy. He gave a thumbs up with both hands and complimented from the bottom of his heart: "Jacob! You are so awesome! You are so damn awesome! The famous Don Albert is in front of you. Just like a little brother, it's really amazing! It's amazing!"

"Ouch!" Jacob felt comfortable at the same time, but he also praised President Pei and said with a smile: "President Pei, I am nothing more than extraordinary. , they are also soldiers under your command. After all, you are really amazing!"

President Pei was also immersed in this extremely harmonious business exchange and couldn't extricate himself. He subconsciously patted Jacob's shoulder affectionately, as if He looked like a brother and said seriously: "Jacob, if I have the opportunity to move up one day, the position of president will definitely be yours!" "

Oh, then I wish you, President Pei, a speedy promotion." !"

Jacob was also very happy.

Frustrated in love, he urgently needs a victory to offset his frustration. If he really has a chance to become the president, he will definitely be awesome.

President Pei was so excited that he patted Jacob on the shoulder again and said decisively: "Jacob! Let's go! Go to Heaven Springs! I'll call my friend on the way and ask him to come over quickly!"

With that, he said to Jacob Said: "By the way, we are going to drink tonight, why don't we both stop driving and save trouble!"

Jacob knew that what President Pei said was reasonable. Although there are many self-driving cars nowadays, if it is to go to a dinner party for socializing and drinking, no Driving is the most convenient.

However, Jacob had his plan in mind and thought to himself: "Old jacob drives the Cullinan. With such a good tool to show off, and such a good opportunity to show off, if you don't let me drive, that's not what you want." My life?"

So, he immediately said: "President Pei, let's drive! Drive my car! After drinking in the evening, I will find a driver to take you home first, and then we will be in my car. You can still chat for a while in the back seat of the car. If you meet a driver who smells strongly of cigarettes while taking a taxi, won't that affect your mood? Sometimes you meet that driver who is unhygienic and stinks all over. Not to mention too much I feel uncomfortable."

When President Pei heard this, he immediately said happily: "Okay, okay! Thank you for your hard work!"

"Hey, look at what you said, isn't this what you should do!"

After that, the two of them We hit it off immediately and quickly walked out together.

Jacob drove into the car, and President Pei was sitting in the passenger seat. The two were chatting happily. At this time, Jacob suddenly received a call. The caller was Xiao Wu, who had been arranged by him to substitute as a teacher at the University for the Elderly.

So he directly connected the phone using the car's Bluetooth and said, "Hey Xiao Wu, are you okay?"

Xiao Wu said, "Vice President Jacob, I'm done with today's classes. Let me report to you."

Jacob no longer had any interest in the matter of the University for the Elderly, so he said lukewarmly: "Oh, okay, thank you for your thank you, Xiao Wu. I'm a little busy here at the moment, so I'll hang up if I don't have anything else to do."

Xiao Wu hurriedly said: "There is one more thing, Vice President Jacob. Professor Han, who teaches law at the University for the Elderly, gave me an invitation and asked me to pass it on to you. Are you still at the meeting? If so, I will make a special trip I'll go back and bring it to you."

When Jacob heard that it was about the invitation, he felt even more unhappy. He said casually: "No, no, we'll talk about it when we meet. It's quite hard for you to teach for me. You don't have to specialize. Come and send it to me."

"Okay!" Xiao Wu said: "Then I'll take it first and give it to you when I see you."

Jacob was about to hang up the phone when President Pei on the side said: "Xiao Wu, it's me, do you recognize who I am?"

Xiao Wu on the other end of the phone hurriedly said: "President Pei, how could I not hear your voice? You are with Vice President Jacob. Yeah."

"Yes." President Pei responded, and then said: "Xiao Pei, do you have time tonight? I might have to work hard on something."

Xiao Wu said without thinking: "What's the matter? Just say what you say, President Pei, I am obligated!"

President Pei said with a smile: "Vice President Jacob and I are having a dinner at Heaven Springs tonight, and we will probably have some drinks. Can you come to Heaven Springs tonight? , help Vice President Jacob drive? You are famous for being calm when driving, and the lesbians in the meeting all praised you, saying that I never get motion sick when riding in your car. We both drank too much, so I feel most at ease letting you drive!"

Xiao Wu immediately said with joy: "Okay, President Pei and Vice President Jacob, I promise to complete the task. I will go directly to Heaven Springs and wait for you soon!"

President Pei said with a smile: "There is no need to go so early, we estimate It will be quite late, so let's eat some food first and arrive at Heaven Springs on time at nine o'clock."

After saying that, President Pei warned again: "Be sure to eat something good. I will approve it for you when I get the invoice. Reimbursement!"

Xiao Wu said excitedly: "Okay, President Pei! I'll be there on time at nine o'clock! I just happened to bring Vice President Jacob's invitation with me!"

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6617

By / March 26, 2024

Jacob didn't pay much attention to the invitation. Anyway, he wouldn't go if it was given to him, and he wouldn't let Elaine know.

At this moment, he was filled with a question.

After he hung up Xiao Wu's phone, he asked with some confusion: "President Pei, it only costs a hundred yuan to hire a driver. Why do you want Xiao Wu to do it?"

President Pei had a profound meaning. He said to Jacob: "Jacob, if you take the position of president in the future, you don't necessarily need to understand business, but you must understand the ways of the world and the unspoken rules of the workplace."

As he said that, he raised his right index finger and nodded in the air. , said with a smile: "How to get the people under your control is a skill. Not only do you have to give them sweets and slap them often, but you also have to give them opportunities to do something for you." "Just take a small Wu said, as a leader, if you invite him to a meal, his intimacy with you will increase by 5 points. Then if you ask him to do a favor and come to act as a driver for you in the evening, his intimacy with you will increase. On the contrary, the degree can be increased by 50 points!"

"If a leader always asks one of his subordinates to do some small favors within his ability, then you can rest assured that that person must be his own person, and even if he is not yet, he will soon become his own person. ;"

"Sometimes people are so strange, with all kinds of obedience and pandering psychology. If you only order him around at work, he will only obey you, but if you order him appropriately at the personal level, It can satisfy his psychology of catering and pleasing you. It is obvious that he is trying his best to please you, but he is happier than you. This is social psychology, and it is also the way to control people. If you have the opportunity, you can study more."

Jacob is curious. asked: "Is that what happened?"

President Pei smiled and said: "Brother, what I tell you is from the bottom of my heart. If you don't believe it, look at us. If I don't find you, Help, can we talk so speculatively like we are now?"

Jacob's eyes suddenly lit up and he blurted out: "I understand! I understand President Pei! That's what it means! It's amazing! It's amazing!"

President Pei quickly explained: "Oh, by the way, Jacob, although this is what I told you, I have no intention of pinching you regarding today's matter. I just really want your help. " I won't use this kind of trick on you."

Jacob chuckled and said: "I know, I know, if President Pei can tell me this, you definitely treat me as one of your own!" "

Of course that's the case. !" President Pei said with a smile: "Sometimes, you have to learn more from the experience of your predecessors. People cross the river by feeling for the stones. We have to cross the river by feeling by our seniors. When we feel for the stones and get slippery, we must touch our seniors. But no, the senior fell first. When we saw him fall, we stopped and moved on to someone else."

Jacob said with a learned look on his face: "I understand, President Pei! After listening to what you said, it was really enlightening. The benefits are endless!"

Chairman Pei sighed: "Actually, our human relationship society is about blending human relationships with each other. Human relationships are like gears. Different gears mesh with each other. Only when you are in me and you are in me, can we do anything. When it comes to coordinated operation, you see, you helped me today, and indirectly I helped my friend. If the three gears of ours mesh together and he turns one tooth forward, we can turn one tooth accordingly." Xiao

Jacob He nodded in agreement and said with admiration: "President Pei, your experience is so valuable to me! President Pei nodded and said, "I'll call my friend and tell him the news. Just listen, he will definitely be very happy!" "

Jacob was immediately looking forward to the other party's reaction.

President Pei found a number and dialed it, while turning on the speaker.

The call was quickly connected, and the other party asked anxiously: "Lao Pei, how are things going? ? Those guys are getting ready to leave, I have to tell them the box number! President Pei said with a smile: “Brother, don’t worry, I have already asked our Vice President for help.” “

As he spoke, he said very mysteriously: “Vice President Jacob is my good brother. After I told him, he immediately contacted him. Guess who contacted him at Heaven Springs?

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6618

The other party asked quickly: “Is it their manager?” “

”no. President Pei smiled and said, “Guess again.” “

The other party said eagerly: “Oh, Lao Pei, what time is it and you still want me to guess? I told those people yesterday about the golden box. They were also very happy and said they would go there in advance with poker cards to crack eggs. , if I don’t tell them the specific situation now, it might be a joke! President Pei smiled and said: “Okay, okay, Brother , I won’t hide it from you anymore. Our Vice President jacob helped you contact Mr. Don Albert of Heaven Springs. Mr. Don Albert said that he would give the best to you.” The diamond box is reserved for you! We will also prepare the highest standard banquet for you! “

”I go! The other party exclaimed: “Really or not?” Can your vice president directly contact Mr. Don Albert? ! Also solved the diamond box? President Pei said: “

Brother Zhang, based on your understanding of me, is it possible for me to joke with you about this kind of thing?”

The other party breathed out instantly, and said as if he was surviving a disaster: “Oh, Lao Pei, thank you! You really saved my life! It took me a lot of effort to invite these people to eat together. If I mess up this matter again, I will really shoot myself in the foot!”

President Pei was just about to be polite when the other party suddenly asked nervously: “By the way, Lao Pei, The diamond box of the mansion is still the highest-level and highest-standard banquet, so this table should cost hundreds of thousands? Last time I had a friend treat people to dinner on Hong Kong Island. Eight people ate, and each person only had one The kind of swallow-winged abalone he was in, killed more than 200,000, and my body ached for more than a year. Now I get migraine when I see abalone...”

As he said, he couldn't help but said: “Old Pei, why don't you do it again? Help me talk to your vice-president. If that doesn't work, just give me a gold box. When I informed you, I said it was a gold box. The price is more affordable for me.”

President Pei said with a smile: ” Brother Zhang, don't be so nervous. Although the diamond box is very expensive, Mr. Don Albert said that for the sake of my friend, I will give you a 50% discount on all purchases! Even if you go to the gold box, you will get a 50% discount. You can't spend 100,000 yuan on a meal, can you? Now with the same budget, you can spend the same amount in a diamond box. For the same money, the face is several times as much! You have to know that this is not only expensive in the price of the banquet, but also in the price of the banquet. It's all about the dignity of the diamond box. Just call them now and tell them that the box has been changed to a diamond box. Just wait and see if they are happy.”

When Jacob's Cullinan drove to Heaven Springs, Don Albert was already waiting at the door.

For Jacob, he naturally has to show great enthusiasm, and he must do the utmost in face work, because he understands Jacob's character, loves to pretend, and saves face, so he must give enough face.

As soon as Jacob stopped the car, Don Albert and the manager of Heaven Springs came directly to greet him.

Chairman Pei, the co-driver, recognized Don Albert and exclaimed: “When I go to Jacob, Master Don Albert comes to greet me in person?”

Jacob said with a smile: “Master Hong is very respectful to my son-in-law, and he naturally treats us I won't neglect you.”

As he spoke, Don Albert had already arrived at the driver's door. He personally held Jacob open the door and said with respect: “Hello, Mr. Jacob, just give the car to Cheng. Come and help you stop, just you and this gentleman come up with me!”

Jacob said with a smile: “Thank you for your hard work.”

After that, he said to President Pei on the side: “President Pei, let’s get off Let’s get in the car.”

”Okay, okay!”

President Pei was a little reserved in front of Don Albert. He nodded repeatedly with a smile, and got out of the car timidly.

As soon as he got off the car, Jacob introduced President Pei to Don Albert and said, “Mr. Albert, this is President Pei of our calligraphy and painting association, and he is also my big brother.” President Pei looked nervous, he was just a private citizen The president of the small association was naturally a little nervous in front of Don Albert, fearing that he would not be able to get into his eyes.

However, what President Pei didn’t expect was that Don Albert was very polite to him. He took the initiative to shake his hand and said with a smile: “Hello, President Pei, I, Don Albert, it’s nice to meet you!” “

Ouch! !” President Pei quickly shook hands with Don Albert and said repeatedly: “Fifth Master, you are so polite. It is my honor to meet you!”

Don Albert said with a smile: “Since President Pei is Mr. Jacob’s friend, that’s right. My friend Don Albert, if you need me, Don Albert, for something in the future, just speak up!”

President Pei was a little flattered.

To be able to have Don Albert be so polite and give such face was indeed beyond expectations, and I felt extremely happy.

Everyone cares about face, even he knew that after today, when Jacob was not around, Don Albert might not take him seriously, but at this moment, if Don Albert could say this, it would be enough to give him face.

At this moment, an Audi A6 slowly drove to the door and stopped. As soon as the car stopped, a man ran out of the cab, walked quickly to President Pei, and said excitedly: “Lao Pei!” When President Pei saw the other party, he immediately smiled and said

: “Oh, Brother Zhang, you are here! Come on, let me introduce you. This is the brother Jacob I always mentioned to you, Vice President!”

Afterwards, President Pei said to Jacob again: “Jacob, this is Brother Zhang I told you, Zhang Hancheng!” Zhang Hancheng took the initiative to shake hands with Jacob very politely and said thank you: “Hello, brother willson! Listen to me. Pei has talked about you many times, and we finally met today.”

Jacob also quickly became polite, and President Pei on the side quickly said: “Brother Zhang, let Jacob introduce you to Mr. Albert, the fifth master, the two of them. We have a good relationship, so I won’t overstep my bounds.”

Jacob came to his senses and quickly introduced: “Brother Zhang, let me introduce to you. This is Mr. Don Albert, the boss of Heaven Springs.”

Zhang Hancheng said quickly: “Oh, Hong Fifth Master, I have heard your name for a long time, and today I finally met you in person. I have been to Heaven Springs before, but I never had the chance to meet you.”

Don Albertye said with a smile: “Since I am Mr. Jacob’s friend, then He is my friend, Mr. Albert. Whenever I come to Heaven Springs in the future, Mr. Albert will personally receive me!”

Zhang Hancheng was also very excited.

It’s so honorable to treat this guy to a guest.

Don Albert was also sending Buddha to the west at this moment, and quickly said: “Everyone, let’s not stand here. Let’s go up together. I will arrange for your guests to be waiting here. As long as they are Diamond VIP customers, they will be there.” Someone will take you upstairs.”

Jacob also echoed: “Yes, yes, let’s go up first, go in and wait slowly.”

Naturally, the other two people had no objections, so they followed Don Albert and Jacob to the end of Heaven Springs. Luxurious diamond box.

After Don Albert brought the three of them to the diamond box, he said with a smile: "The three of you sit down for a while. I will have someone prepare the Dahongpao for you. You can drink and chat. After a while, the waiter will bring the menu over and you can take a look and eat." I have already told the kitchen what to order. When everyone is here, the cold dishes will be served first. If you want to play cards, you can play for a while. Once you are seated, the hot dishes will be served immediately."

Don Albert arranged everything in detail, and the three of them naturally Extremely satisfied and even grateful, the two men looked at Jacob with a hint of admiration. In their eyes, it was as if Jacob was a big boss like Charlie Wade who was hiding his identity.

Soon, the guests for the banquet arrived one after another.

Don Albert did give Jacob enough face. After everyone arrived, he personally brought two bottles of expensive three-pound Maotai to the box.

Zhang Han took advantage of the treat and ordered two extra one-pound bottles of Moutai Feitian.

There are a total of 8 people dining tonight, six pounds plus two pounds, which is exactly one pound of wine per person.

This group of people are probably in their 50s. Although there are some who have a good alcohol capacity, facing the 53-degree Moutai, the best one can only drink a pound. Jacob has an average alcohol capacity and can drink half a pound of this kind of wine. Even if it's not bad.

However, since Don Albert gave Jacob enough face, everyone at the dinner table also gave Jacob enough face. They toasted him at every turn and flattered him, which made his vanity reach its peak.

This feeling of being valued by everyone immediately formed a strong contrast with the pain in his heart of being abandoned by Matilda. Extremely satisfied vanity was like the best healing medicine. The scars in his soul healed quickly, and in addition, the social status of the people at the dinner table was much higher than his, and they all rushed to make friends with him, which made Jacob's social circle greatly improved and progressed.

Jacob's mood improved, and his drinking capacity naturally increased.

Between pushing cups and changing cups, Jacob had already drank at least seven tael.

Jacob, who had drunk seven ounces of wine, was already talking loudly, but people at the dinner table still stood up and toasted to him frequently.

Thanks to the fact that others think highly of him, Jacob's wine taste has also been improved at this moment. If he can't drink it down, he has to drink it while pinching his nose. This is considered a courtesy.

So, by the time the banquet came to an end, Jacob's whole body was in a mess, and he had severe ghosting when he looked at things.

The others were the same as Jacob. Everyone drank and staggered, and finally helped each other out of the box.

Seeing that Jacob had drunk too much, Don Albert stepped forward and asked with concern: "Mr. Jacob, do you want me to drive you back?"

Jacob said drunkenly: "Fifth...Fifth Master, you...you are too polite! I... I'll just... take a taxi back... and that'll be fine!"

President Pei on the side reminded him: "Jacob, I... didn't I ask... let Xiao Wu drive... for you? Didn't he? ...He should be here, I...I'll give him a call...a...call...a call..."

As soon as Don Albert heard the word "Xiao Wu", he said, "The Xiao Wu that President Pei mentioned is waiting in the lobby. He arrived at around eight o'clock and told our waiter that he was here to wait for Mr. Jacob and President Pei. , so I asked someone to arrange for him to rest in the lobby."

President Pei said hurriedly: "That... that's great! Let... let Xiao Wu drive... drive!"

Seeing that they had made arrangements, Don Albert And the Xiao Wu just now did not drink, and he looked more reliable, so he said: "Okay, then I will take you down."

When a group of people came to the lobby on the first floor, they were waiting in the lobby rest area Xiao Wu stood up quickly, walked quickly to President Pei and Jacob, and said respectfully: “President Pei, Vice President, you two haven’t drunk too much, right?”

President Pei said with a red face and a smile. : “Drink too much? No...it doesn’t exist! We are drinking...drinking well, drinking beautifully, and drinking happily!”

After that, he said goodbye to the people around him. After everyone exchanged greetings for a while, he and Jacob went together , followed Xiao Wu out of Heaven Springs.

Don Albert also sent him all the way out. Manager Cheng of Heaven Springs had already driven Jacob’s Cullinan to the door and handed the key to Xiao Wu. After Don Albert gave some instructions, the two said goodbye to everyone and sat in. The back row of a Rolls-Royce.

After Xiao Wu got in the car, he buckled his seat belt and took out an invitation. He said to Jacob: “Vice President, this is the invitation that Professor Han asked me to deliver to you. How about I put it in the armrest box for you?” !”

The drunk Jacob waved his hands disdainfully and said: “What... what a shabby invitation, Han... Matilda’s wedding... I... I just... won’t go!”

Seeing that he had drunk too much, Xiao Wu directly He put the invitation into the armrest box and said, “I’ll put it inside for you first. You can read it when you wake up tomorrow.”

Jacob was already half asleep and didn’t pay attention to what he said. He just urged: “Don’t... stop talking nonsense... hurry up... drive quickly...”
