

The Amazing Son In Law Chapter 6674

As he spoke, he pointed to the highway bridge not far away and explained to Zhang Ermao ( Cade ): “Actually, the fastest way to get here is not to drive off the highway and then turn to the country road, but to directly choose a relative height on the highway bridge. Pull over at a relatively low place and climb over the fence to get there. If it’s your first time here, I’m afraid you won’t be able to find the place. In fact, most of our regular customers come down the highway.”

Immediately, the other party continued: “There is only one road that can be used by cars when entering the village, and there are two entrances, one from the south and one from the north. When ordinary people look at the map, they must think that they can catch turtles in a urn by blocking the front and back, but in fact they actually come to the door. , we didn’t have to leave the village at all. The brothers on the road took advantage of the time to meet the car, so we took advantage of this moment and climbed onto the highway bridge and left. “

Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) asked in surprise: “Are you going to climb onto the highway from here and walk on your legs?”

“That’s not possible.” The other party said with a smile: “At the intersection where you get off the highway, drive four kilometers further and there is a service area. We have a car parked in that service area every day, and there are brothers guarding it. If there is any situation, just step on the accelerator and hit 120, and you can reach the roadside in less than two minutes. “

Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) was stunned when he heard this, and couldn’t help but admire: “I have long heard that you are the most professional team in the south. I didn’t have the opportunity to go deep before, but now I have seen it. It is really awesome.”

Teacher Cheng quickly said humbly: “Don’t dare, don’t dare, we are forced to have no choice but to eat.”

With that said, he asked: “By the way, Brother Ermao, you came to see me today. What do you need?”

Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) pointed to Jacob beside him and introduced: “This is my good friend, Mr. Murong, who specializes in antique business in Suzhou and Hangzhou. I brought him here today just to see if there is anything he can do here." A nice thing to look at."

Teacher Cheng couldn't figure out Jacob's background. Seeing Zhang Ermao ( Cade ) being so polite and complimentary to him, he thought he must be a big shot, so he said respectfully: "Hey, Mr. Murong! I have always heard martial arts mention Gusu Murong. , Gusu Murong, I didn't expect that not only your surname is Murong, but you are also from Suzhou and Hangzhou. I'm so glad to meet you!"

Jacob nodded, smiled, and said, "I'm in a hurry this time, so let's take a quick look at things first."
