no one expected that the deal would be concluded so quickly, except Zhou Liangyun.

He has full confidence in his vision and even more absolute confidence in his pricing.

He firmly believes that as long as collectors have seen the real thing and can afford 20 million, they will not miss this big leak.

After all, it's not often that you get the chance to make millions as soon as you get started.

The other nine competitors were a little depressed when they heard that collector No. 1 had taken action directly, but they were all expected. After all, they had already taken advantage of it and knew that the bronze Buddha was definitely worth the price.

The only person in the audience who was shocked beyond words was the vendor who followed him to inquire about the news.

At this time, his expression was simply that of a loser, his eyes were so wide open, he was staring at the bronze Buddha, and he asked himself a question repeatedly: "Is this piece of shit worth 20 million? This is it. How can a piece of crap be worth 20 million?"

While he was still in shock, Zhou Liangyun had already sent his payment information to the No. 1 collector from Eastcliff.

Collector No. 1 did not hesitate at all. He immediately opened his mobile banking and transferred 20 million directly to Zhou Liangyun's account.

Later, he said to Zhou Liangyun: "Boss Zhou's money has been transferred to you. Please check it."

Zhou Liangyun's mobile phone just received a text message at this time. The content of the text message showed that he received two cash transfers to his account in the bank. Ten million yuan, the payer's name is Qian Jingming.

Zhou Liangyun deliberately let the vendors around him see this text message, and then opened his online banking in front of the vendors. At this time, the balance of the bank card showed that his account had a total of 20.2 million yuan.

Then he opened the income and expenditure details, allowing the vendor to truly see the specific details of the 20 million entered into the account.

At this time, the vendor had recovered from the shock. He was fully aware of what was happening in front of him, and realized that Zhou Liangyun had made more than 19 million by relying on the “fake” bronze Buddha he collected yesterday!

He was so jealous that he couldn't understand why such a thing could be worth so much money.

After so many years of hard work setting up a stall in the antique street, I have not saved even 200,000, let alone 20,000. The money I earn every year, excluding food, drinks and household expenses, is not even 40,000 or 50,000 left.

As a result, he just opened a shop in Antique Street and earned nearly 20 million in one transaction. Comparing this, he wanted to die.

It was also because of his jealousy that he had completely forgotten the three chapters of the agreement given to him by Zhou Liangyun. He looked at the collector No. 1 and said subconsciously: “Sir, did you really spend 20 million to buy such a thing? ?”

When Zhou Liangyun saw that he was trying to undermine him, he didn't say anything. Instead, he smiled slightly, handed the bronze Buddha in his hand to the other party, and said with a smile, “Mr. Qian, this bronze Buddha belongs to you.”

Qian Jingming nodded, no . Ignoring the vendor's question, he carefully took the bronze Buddha, wrapped it in silk cloth and put it in his bag.

The other collectors saw that they had already cleared the money and goods, and knew that there was no chance of picking up the missing items, so they left one after another.

After Qian Jingming put the bronze Buddha away, he handed Zhou Liangyun his hand and said: "Boss Zhou, I have to hurry up and rush back to Eastcliff, so I will say goodbye first. If you have any good things in the future, you can contact me directly. I This person is the most willing to bid. As long as the item is right and the price is right, I will pay you immediately." Zhou Liangyun smiled and said, "Okay, I will notify you as soon as I get something good in the future."

Qian Jingming nodded and then continued. Leave with the two people accompanying you.

Seeing this, the vendor became furious and quickly caught up. He said anxiously, "Mr. Qian, you can't buy this! It's fake!"

Qian Jingming looked at him, frowned, and asked, "You Aren't you a friend of Boss Zhou? Why are you trying to take down Boss Zhou at this time?"

The vendor quickly said, "I'm not his friend. I just came to see the fun. I didn't expect him to dare to cheat you of 20 million. How could I just watch you suffer such a big loss!"

Qian Jingming smiled and said sarcastically: "I have been playing with bronzes for decades, and I can still tell the authenticity of things, let alone those around me. This expert is one of the most well-known experts in the field of copperware in the country. Even his old man thinks this thing is fine. How come it turns out to be a fake when it comes into your mouth?"

The vendor stamped his feet anxiously: "Oh! Don't believe me! How can this thing be real? He bought it for 300,000 yuan yesterday! And the whole Aurous Hill Antique Street knows that this thing is not from the Ming Dynasty! "It's fake! It's fake!"

Qian Jingming laughed and said, "You are right, this thing is not from the Ming Dynasty, because it is from the Northern Song Dynasty, so it is worth this price. "

As he said that, Qian Jingming added: "I have watched the video you showed me before. The person in the video is a complete layman. Now it seems that not only he is a layman, but all of you who believe in that video. Even a layman is not worthy of eating antiques."

The vendor didn't expect that the item was really from the Northern Song Dynasty. Seeing that the other person was determined to buy it, he didn't care so much and said quickly: "But the thing he bought only cost 300,000, but he sold it to you for 20,000,000." , It's hard to find such a black-hearted person in the world!"

Qian Jingming shook his head and smiled: "Oh, people often say that there are haters but no laughs. I have really seen it with you. Do you think Boss Zhou has made a profit? It makes me feel uncomfortable to make so much money, but in my opinion, the reason why Boss Zhou can make so much money is entirely due to his vision and ability. You also know the content of that video. The manager Chen in the video originally had a chance to pick it up. This big leaker, but his eyes are cloudy and he can't see it. If Boss Zhou sees it, then it's Boss Zhou's turn to make the money."

Qian Jingming paused slightly and continued: "Oh, that's right. You can't say that Boss Zhou had a bad heart when he sold me this bronze Buddha for 20 million yuan, because Boss Zhou obviously let me have a loophole. If this thing was put up for auction in Eastcliff, it would fetch 27,800 yuan. There is no problem, so instead of feeling bad about Boss Zhou, I am very grateful to him. No matter how uncomfortable you feel when you see Boss Zhou making money, I'm sorry, I can only make you feel uncomfortable."

"This... ..This...this, this, this, this..." The vendor had completely lost the logic of his thinking and language at this moment. He was sweating profusely and gritting his teeth. , He was so exhausted that he could only subconsciously say: "Well... how about you take a closer look, what if there is something wrong with that thing?"

Qian Jingming sighed and said to Zhou Liangyun: "Boss Zhou, it seems The business environment of this antique street is not friendly. Boss Zhou should take care of himself in the future."

Zhou Liangyun cupped his hands and said with a smile, "Thank you, Mr. Qian, for reminding me. I think the business environment here is good in a sense. It's still very friendly, otherwise it wouldn't be possible. When I first came here, my colleague put such a big leak on me. As you can see, there are so many storefronts in the whole street, but mine is the simplest one, and it turned out to be such a good thing. , I just received it, so I can only say thank you to my colleagues for enjoying the meal.”

When Qian Jingming heard this, he laughed loudly and said, “Okay, okay! Boss Zhou is really not an ordinary person with this kind of insight. ! If you have the chance to go to Eastcliff in the future, you must contact Qian and have a few drinks at Qian’s home!”

“Okay!” Zhou Liangyun nodded and said,

Qian Jingming and his party turned and left Zhen Baoxuan, but the vendor still stood there blankly, looking at their retreating figures as if in mourning.

Zhou Liangyun saw that he seemed to have lost his soul, so he returned his mobile phone to him and said coldly: “We agreed on three chapters of the agreement, but not only did you not abide by it, you also wanted to undermine me. Since you are unkind, then don’t Blame me for being unjust. From now on, we should not have anything to do with each other, and we should not say hello to each other when we meet. “

The vendor was so angry that he wanted to die, but when he returned the phone, he said He quickly grabbed it and ran out.

As soon as he went out, he immediately called Chen Yufei.

Chen Yufei had just arrived at Ji Qingtang at this time, and before his butt was hot, he received a call from him.

As soon as the phone call came through, he quickly asked: “How is Zhou Liangyun’s situation? Have you found out any information?”

The vendor was so depressed that he burst into tears and said with sobs: “Chen... “Manager Chen...my Manager Chen...”

Chen Yufei was startled and said quickly: “Why the hell are you crying if you don’t know what to say?” It’s like I’m dead, where are you crying?”

The vendor cried and said, “Manager Chen...I...I can’t control it...I feel so bad!

” What’s going on?” Chen Yufei angrily pushed the half-smoked cigarette into the ashtray, poked it out a few times, and urged impatiently: “You better finish the next sentence Let me get straight to the point, or get the hell out of here!”

“Get straight to the point...” the vendor muttered with sobs, and then cried, “Okay! I’ll get to the point! Listen! Zhou Liangyun just sold the bronze Buddha you confiscated yesterday for a total of 20 million!”

Chen Yufei’s body softened and he slid directly from the sofa to sit on the ground. He ignored the pain in his butt and subconsciously asked loudly: “Take... take the young man?!”

The vendor also shouted loudly: ” 20 million! A whole 20 million! This big collector from Eastcliff bought it for 20 million and transferred it in front of me without batting an eyelash. ” For a moment...

” Chen Yufei’s eyes darkened, and he asked tremblingly, “You...what you just said is true?” Did you really sell that thing for 20 million?”

The vendor cried, “I’ll kill you for lying to you!”

Chen Yufei scolded, “Is that bastard from Eastcliff crazy? He spent 20 million to buy it back.

What the hell will it cost Zhou Liangyun if he finds out that he was fooled?” The vendor blurted out, “I don’t know how happy this big collector in Eastcliff is. Let me tell you, that bronze Buddha is not an imitation of the Ming Dynasty at all, it is a gilt bronze Buddha from the Northern Song Dynasty! What is its scientific name... It seems to be Venerable Supintuo! At the auction, it could sell for at least 27 to 8 million. Zhou Liangyun sold it to him for 20 million, but he missed it!”

Chen Yufei jumped three feet high and cursed: “What are you talking about? You said that thing is from the Northern Song Dynasty?! Doesn’t that mean that yesterday someone took a bronze Buddha worth 20 million and sold it to me for hundreds of thousands? Not only did I not f*cking take it, but I also gave him After a lot of damage, Zhou Liangyun bought it and made a profit of 20 million

? If you leave it, you are the one who earned 20 million today! You have missed 20 million, my manager Chen!”

Chen Yufei felt as if his chest was smashed by a huge boulder, and he almost felt pain. About to cry out!

When he thought about missing out on 20 million, he gritted his teeth and yelled with splitting eyes: “Twenty million...ah!! I’ll f*ck you, second uncle!”
