As he said that, he took out his mobile phone and found the chat history between himself and Zhang Ermao (Cade). There were all the lines in the script that Zhang Ermao (Cade) gave him, which were very different from what he said in the video.

He handed the phone to the HR manager and said with an aggrieved look: "You have nothing to prove. I have the chat records between Zhang Ermao (Cade) and me. You can see for yourself!" At this moment, Chen Yufei could only treat a dead horse as a living horse doctor. Yes, after all, Don Albert and Jasmine moore did have a certain friendship, and these chat records can also prove that he did not really get eye-catching, but acted exactly as Zhang Ermao (Cade) said.

In this way, to a certain extent, both Zhang Ermao (Cade) and Don Albertye were dragged into the water.

At this point, Chen Yufei had no other choice but to make a desperate move.

The HR manager looked at the chat history on his mobile phone and frowned.

He didn't expect that there was such a hidden secret in the matter.

Moreover, people from Mr. Don Albert's side were also involved.

He looked at Chen Yufei and said, "Wait a minute, I'll make a call."

Chen Yufei saw that he was taking him seriously, and his hope rekindled in his heart.

The HR manager walked to the door of Ji Qingtang store, took out his mobile phone and called Jasmine moore.

On the phone, he reported the situation to Jasmine moore, and then asked Jasmine moore: "Chairman, how do you think I should handle this matter?"

Jasmine moore had just called charlie Wade this morning and asked charlie Wade tentatively. Chen's attitude towards Zhou Liangyun almost ended up judging a gentleman's heart with a villain's heart. So when he heard that Zhang Ermao (Cade) and Chen Yufei were working together to create Zhou Liangyun, he knew that it must have nothing to do with charlie Wade.

In addition, Jasmine moore was also keenly aware of something wrong. According to her guess, if Zhang Ermao (Cade) wanted to use fake things to bring good luck, it must be for charlie Wade's father-in-law Jacob. Then why should he let people run away for such a thing? Come to Jiqingtang, act in a play with Chen Yufei, and also post it online?

To put it bluntly, isn't it Chen Yufei who wants to use this incident to step on Zhou Liangyun's head to put some money on his own face?

Therefore, she said without hesitation: "Jiqingtang is now in a mess, and it is getting more and more outrageous. Let's do this. You can fire Chen Yufei normally, and all other employees of Jiqingtang will also be fired on the spot, and compensation will be N+1. "

The HR manager said hurriedly: "Chairman, if this happens, Ji Qingtang will probably close down."

Jasmine moore agreed and said decisively: "Jiqingtang does need to close down for rectification. After Chen Yufei is fired and other employees are dismissed. , posted a notice on the door of Jiqingtang, saying that due to the poor management of the group, there were very serious problems within Jiqingtang, and the store will be closed for rectification from today, and the opening time will be notified later!

Chen Yufei looked expectantly at the HR manager who walked in again, thinking that things would turn around.

But what he didn't expect was that the first thing the HR manager said when he sat down was: "I'm sorry, Mr. Chen. Now the group has determined that you not only made major mistakes at work, but also have big problems with personal ethics and business ethics." "According to the group's intention, the labor contract must be terminated immediately."

Chen Yufei did not expect that by telling the hidden truth, he not only failed to solve the problem of gross negligence, but also raised another issue of professional ethics.

He could only bite the bullet and said to the personnel manager: “Manager, what did Director say? She and Fifth Master are familiar with each other after all. In this matter, I also considered that we are all acquaintances...”

“Needless to say Mr. Chen.” The HR manager said coldly: “This matter has been finalized. There is no room for negotiation. I have brought back the termination notice. You don’t need to sign it. Our legal affairs will be handled here. As a testimony, as long as this thing is handed over to you, we have fulfilled our obligation to notify you. Please hand over the work as soon as possible.”

Chen Yufei was desperate and begged with a sad face: “Manager, please see that I have worked so hard for Ji Qingtang. After so many years of hard work, even if you don’t give me a chance to change my ways, you should at least give me N+1 compensation, right? You can’t let me work for the grassroots for so many years and end up with nothing. “Should you be kicked out directly?”

The HR manager said calmly: “Sorry, there is no compensation for being fired for gross negligence. I have just told you about this issue. If you don’t believe what I said, you can also go to arbitration. Or sue, the prosecution process is also very simple, you can find a law firm to help with the prosecution process, and our group legal department will actively respond to the lawsuit. “Chen Yufei knows very well that if he has to fight 10,000 lawsuits, he will definitely win one. If you can’t win, suing will not only be a waste of time, but will also cost you high legal fees, which is not worth the loss.

Seeing the HR manager’s decisive attitude, he felt very unhappy, so he could only grit his teeth and said: “Since the group and Director Song don’t recognize the relationship between Mr. Don Albert and the favor I did for the group, then it’s okay. Don’t blame me for publicizing this matter. That Zhang Ermao (Cade) caused me to lose my job, and I will definitely discredit him!”

The HR manager didn’t take his threat seriously at all and said calmly: “This is your freedom. The group will not interfere in any way.”

At this time, Zhen Baoxuan was bustling with people, and there was an endless stream of people coming to pay homage to the dock and seek appraisals.

Zhang Ermao (Cade) hesitated at the door for a moment, but finally made up his mind and walked in.

Since many people knew Zhang Ermao (Cade) and knew that he was no longer what he used to be, the moment she entered the store, many people around her subconsciously called him Brother Ermao, and each one was more respectful than the other.

Zhang Ermao (Cade) felt a little ashamed. At this moment, he realized that it was true that he had done such a dirty deed, and he was sorry for the status that Master Wade and Don Albertye had given him.

When he saw Zhou Liangyun, he felt very ashamed and stepped forward.

When Zhou Liangyun saw him coming, he thought he had sent someone to ask for something to no avail, so he came in person. So he asked him warily: "Er Mao, what are you doing to come to me?"

Zhang Ermao (Cade) suddenly knelt down on one knee with a look on his face. He said with shame: "Manager Zhou, Boss Zhou, I, Zhang Ermao (Cade), can't help you!"

Zhou Liangyun couldn't help frowning, thinking that Zhang Ermao (Cade) was up to some new tricks, so he asked pretending to be confused: "We The two of us are just acquaintances and have never shared any interests. I really can't think of anything you could do wrong with me."

The people around him were also dumbfounded. Although Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s current social status is not very high, But compared to most of the old acquaintances who hang out in the antique street, he is still much better. Why did he suddenly come to kneel down and apologize to Zhou Liangyun?

Some people who are more curious and gossipy have begun to take out their mobile phones and secretly record videos.

At this moment, Zhang Ermao (Cade) took a deep breath and said with embarrassment: "Boss Zhou, the bronze Buddha you received earlier was made for you by me secretly together with Vice President Jacob of the Calligraphy and Painting Association and Chen Yufei from Ji Qingtang. Bureau, we bought that thing from Mr. Cheng, who is very famous in the industry, for 98,000. Mr. Cheng didn't know that it was from the Northern Song Dynasty, and we were blind and didn't notice it. We wanted to trick you and make you I won't be able to survive in the antique street after I got hit. I didn't expect that it turned out to be such a self-defeating situation. Please don't remember the faults of villains and don't treat me like a rotten person."

As he spoke, he said: He took out a piece of paper full of words from his pocket, handed it to Zhou Liangyun, and said respectfully: "This is an apology letter written by me. Please accept it! At the same time, I will send this letter to my circle of friends. , I apologize to you publicly!"

The people watching were stunned.

No one thought that behind Zhou Liangyun picking up the big leak, there was such an incredible secret behind the scenes!

Zhou Liangyun was also confused by Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s request for apology. At first, he suspected that Zhang Ermao (Cade) was playing a hard-to-get game, but when he thought about it, he even directly told charlie Wade's father-in-law in public, which was a bit thought-provoking. .

Zhou Liangyun has no doubts about charlie Wade's ability in Aurous Hill. Don Albert has long been charlie Wade's loyal confidant. Now Zhang Ermao (Cade) is Don Albert's master. It stands to reason that Zhang Ermao (Cade) will only try his best to please charlie Wade. Father-in-law Jacob would never do anything to expose Jacob in public and smear Jacob's reputation.

And there must be only one reason why he dares to do this now. This must be charlie Wade's request.

Thinking of this, Zhou Liangyun instantly understood that it seemed that charlie Wade already knew the whole story, and was determined to teach Zhang Ermao (Cade), Chen Yufei, and his father-in-law Jacob a lesson.

So, he smiled and said to Zhang Ermao (Cade): "If it's just for this matter, there is no need to come and apologize to me. To be honest, I want to thank you. After all, business in the antique street is not easy to do now. Having such a good start is indeed You can't ask for it."

Zhang Ermao (Cade)'s face felt hot, but seeing that Zhou Liangyun didn't want to pursue it, he felt relieved and said in a pious tone: "Boss Zhou, don't worry, I, Zhang Ermao (Cade), will never bother your business again. I won't stumble you in secret. If you ever need me, Zhang Ermao (Cade), I will never refuse at all!"

After that, he hurriedly said: "In addition, please don't worry, Boss Zhou. We will definitely return the 300,000 yuan that we defrauded you of, and please don't hold us accountable for other responsibilities if you have a lot of it..."

Zhou Liangyun stretched out his hand to help him up, and said : "After all, we are all friends. You are welcome to come to the store and sit in the store if you have nothing to do in the future. "

Zhang Ermao (Cade) didn't have the nerve to come, so he could only bite the bullet and said: "I'm sure...Boss Zhou, you still have so many customers here, so I won't bother you..."

After that, He quickly said goodbye and left.

As soon as he left, there was an explosion in Zhen Baoxuan.

No one expected that Zhang Ermao (Cade), who was so shrewd, would do such a stupid thing.

Some good people have already posted the video to their circle of friends.

The person said: "Zhang Erfao is in the circle of friends, you should take a look quickly!"

Chen Yufei quickly quit the editor, refreshed the circle of friends, and immediately saw Zhang Erfao's apology letter.

When he clicked in to see the details, he was so angry that he almost vomited three liters of blood and cursed: "What a stupid high-tech! Self-destruction truck! Zhang Ermao (Cade), you bastard! Even if we die together, you are one step ahead of me! You fucking beast!

" This circle of friends also made Jacob famous in the antique industry.

The Calligraphy and Painting Association also had one foot in the antiques circle, and Jacob was exposed to such a scandal, which shocked both the calligraphy and painting circles and the antiques circle. Within a few minutes, the news reached President Pei, who was anxious in the office. Jumping around.

President Pei also wanted to curry favor with Jacob, so he planned to leave the position of general president to Jacob after he was promoted. He originally thought that everything was a done deal, but he never thought that Jacob conspired with others to set up an antique fraud. What the fuck. What's more, it was originally a scam, but in the end it was turned into a money-giving scam.

Many people in the meeting originally made strong protests against Jacob, the executive vice-president who was doing nothing but pretending to be a fake person. Especially the vice-presidents who were suppressed by Jacob were filled with indignation.

Each of them is coveting the position of executive vice president, and they all have complaints about Jacob, an extremely poor executive vice president. There was no suitable opportunity to overthrow him before, but now the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity has finally come.

So, several vice-presidents, together with the members, rushed to President Pei's office and demanded that President Pei expel Jacob from the Painting and Calligraphy Association.

One person said: "President Pei, Jacob is committing a crime! If this matter is pursued, he will go to jail! The executive vice president of the Tang Dynasty Calligraphy and Painting Association went to jail for fraud. Where is the face of our Calligraphy and Painting Association? "Put it aside?"

Another person echoed: "That's right, President Pei! This black sheep can no longer stay in our calligraphy and painting association! He must be expelled immediately!"

Another person said: "I have already said that the surname is Xiao." , this guy doesn't understand shit, what qualifications does he have to be the executive vice president? Now it seems that not only does he not understand shit, but he also has serious moral problems! We should get rid of him as quickly as possible! , and then made a statement to the outside world that all this was his personal behavior and had nothing to do with our association!

“Yes, yes! A statement must be made! If we don’t implement this matter as soon as possible, outsiders will definitely say that our Painting and Calligraphy Association does not distinguish between right and wrong and shelters fraudsters! By then the entire association will be implicated by him! President Pei did not dare to agree or refuse. He could only say to the people who came to the door: “Everyone, please be patient. This matter is just Zhang Ermao (Cade)’s words. We don’t have sufficient evidence. We can’t I will deal with Vice Chairman directly, so please wait a moment and wait for me to verify this matter before making a decision.

Everyone still wanted to protest. President Pei picked up the car keys and said, “Just do what I said on this matter. Don’t worry, let the bullets fly for a while! ” As for me, I made an appointment with several leaders today to talk about the follow-up work, so I will take the first step. But don’t worry, once the truth about this matter comes out, I will definitely give you a satisfactory explanation. “

After saying that, he hurriedly left the association and got into his car. The first thing he did was to call Jacob, but the message on the phone was that the other party could not be reached for the time being. I think the person who came was still there. On the plane.

President Pei was anxious and angry, and immediately sent a voice message to Jacob on WeChat: “Jacob, you are confused! Seeing that now is the critical moment for me to get promoted, and for you to follow suit, how could you do such a thing! Now everyone is asking me for advice and asking me to expel you from the Painting and Calligraphy Association. What do you want me to do? Give me a call as soon as you receive the message!
